THE TRANSLATORS OF THE BIBLE WISH
GRACE, MERCY, AND PEACE
THROUGH JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD

GREAT and manifold were the blessings, most dread Sovereign, which Almighty God, the Father of all mercies, bestowed upon us the people of England, when first he sent Your Majesty's Royal Person to rule and reign over us. For whereas it was the expectation of many, who wished not well unto our Sion, that upon the setting of that bright Occidental Star, Queen Elizabeth of most happy memory, some thick and palpable clouds of darkness would so have overshadowed this Land, that men should have been in doubt which way they were to walk; and that it should hardly be known, who was to direct the unsettled State; the appearance of Your Majesty, as of the Sun in his strength, instantly dispelled those supposed and surmised mists, and gave unto all that were well affected exceeding cause of comfort; especially when we beheld the Government established in Your Highness, and Your hopeful Seed, by an undoubted Title, and this also accompanied with peace and tranquillity at home and abroad.

But among all our joys, there was no one that more filled our hearts, than the blessed continuance of the preaching of God's sacred Word among us; which is that inestimable treasure, which excelleth all the riches of the earth; because the fruit thereof extendeth itself, not only to the time spent in this transitory world, but directeth and disposeth men unto that eternal happiness which is above in heaven.

Then not to suffer this to fall to the ground, but rather to take it up, and to continue it in that state, wherein the famous Predecessor of Your Highness did leave it: nay, to go forward with the confidence and resolution of a Man in maintaining the truth of Christ, and propagating it far and near, is that which hath so bound and firmly knit the hearts of all Your Majesty's loyal and religious people unto You, that Your very name is precious among them: their eye doth behold You with comfort, and they bless You in their hearts, as that sanctified Person, who, under God, is the immediate Author of their true happiness. And this their contentment doth not diminish or decay, but every day increaseth and taketh strength, when they observe, that the zeal of Your Majesty toward the house of God doth not slack or go backward, but is more and more kindled, manifesting itself abroad in the farthest parts of Christendom, by writing in defence of the Truth, (which hath given such a blow unto that man of sin, as will not be healed,) and every day at home, by religious and learned discourse, by frequenting the house of God, by hearing the Word preached, by cherishing the Teachers thereof, by caring for the Church, as a most tender and loving nursing Father.

There are infinite arguments of this right christian and religious affection in Your Majesty; but none is more forcible to declare it to others than the vehement and perpetuated desire of accomplishing and publishing of this work, which now with all humility we present unto Your Majesty. For when Your Highness had once out of deep judgment apprehended how convenient it was, that out of the Original Sacred Tongues, together with comparing of the labours, both in our own, and other foreign Languages, of many worthy men who went before us, there should be one more exact Translation of the holy Scriptures into the English Tongue; Your Majesty did never desist to urge and to excite those to whom it was commended, that the work might be hastened, and that the business might be expedited in so decent a manner, as a matter of such importance might justly require.

And now at last, by the mercy of God, and the continuance of our labours, it being brought unto such a conclusion, as that we have great hopes that the Church of England shall reap good fruit thereby; we hold it our duty to offer it to Your Majesty, not only as to our King and Sovereign, but as to the principal Mover and Author of the work: humbly craving of Your most Sacred Majesty, that since things of this quality have ever been subject to the censures of illmeaning and discontented persons, it may receive approbation and patronage from so learned and judicious a Prince as Your Highness is, whose allowance and acceptance of our labours shall more honour and encourage us, than all the calumniations and hard interpretations of other men shall dismay us. So that if, on the one side, we shall be traduced by Popish Persons at home or abroad, who therefore will malign us, because we are poor instruments to make God's holy Truth to be yet more and more known unto the people, whom they desire still to keep in ignorance and darkness; or if, on the other side, we shall be maligned by selfconceited Brethren, who run their own ways, and give liking unto nothing, but what is framed by themselves, and hammered on their anvil; we may rest secure, supported within by the truth and innocency of a good conscience, having walked the ways of simplicity and integrity, as before the Lord; and sustained without by the powerful protection of Your Majesty's grace and favour, which will ever give countenance to honest and christian endeavours against bitter censures and uncharitable imputations.

The Lord of heaven and earth bless Your Majesty with many and happy days, that, as his heavenly hand hath enriched Your Highness with many singular and extraordinary graces, so You may be the wonder of the world in this latter age for happiness and true felicity, to the honour of that great GOD, and the good of his Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord and only Saviour.

TABLE OF SIGNS USED IN THIS BOOK

EVERY effort has been made that the signs used in this book should be as few and simple as possible. Consequently, when an accented word occurs more than once in a verse, it is marked for pronunciation the first time only, e.g. Genesis 4. 18.

The words of which the pronunciation is marked are divided into syllables by short hyphens (-). The syllable on which most stress is to be laid in reading is marked (′). In compound names two accents are often introduced. The longer hyphen (–) indicates the division into parts of compound names so far as it is noted in the Authorized Version.

NOTE ON THE REFERENCES

THERE are two main characteristics of the references:

1. They embody a complete revision of the existing references in the Oxford edition of the Authorized Version; that is to say, they omit purely verbal references (the mere repetition of a particular word in an entirely different context), while on the other hand references have been added from the most recent commentaries where these have seemed to be of value to the general reader. All references, apart from the chain-system described below, have been consistently reciprocal, i.e. every forward reference has its corresponding backward reference, and vice versa.

2. They embody a complete system of chain references for all the more important subjects. By means of this system a student can trace out a subject, e.g. idolatry, in all its various branches throughout the Bible, starting from any point at which he happens to be reading. For example, if a reader comes across a mention of 'the host of heaven' in Jeremiah, he will find a backward and forward reference in the margin. Following these up they will give him all the references to 'the host of heaven'. He will also discover by the use of the sign ||, that this chain is a branch of the wider subject idolatry, and that the point where this chain diverges from the main chain is clearly indicated, so that he can proceed to pick up the main chain and follow that out in the same way. In the course of doing so he will find that other branches of the subject diverge and have similar chains of their own. In this way he will find the main advantages of a good concordance in miniature embodied in his marginal references.

The same plan has been followed with the names of persons and places, even more insignificant names than are usually noted in marginal references.

The plan of chain references is not in the interest, or against the interest, of any school of thought, since it does not rest upon interpretation, but simply on occurrence of subjects. It will be found of the greatest use by all.

In the matter of chronology it is generally agreed, among conservative as well as liberal scholars, that dates prior to about 2000 B.C. are unreliable and rather speculative. In this edition no dates are given before the twenty-first century B.C., but from that period onwards a system based largely on Ussher's chronology, with certain corrections, has been followed (see p. 19). While the accuracy of Ussher's measure is not guaranteed, it is reasonably correct and the notations will be useful to many.

SIGNS AND ABBREVIATIONS USED IN THE REFERENCES

[ ] Square brackets indicate an example chain, e.g. examples of covenant-making, answers to prayer, &c.

( ) Round brackets indicate the reference from which a diverging chain begins; e.g. at Gen. 24. 3 (m) occurs the reference (ch. 21. 21) and 27. 46. Referring back to 21. 21 it will be found that the reference (z) gives ch. 26. 34, 35 and a diverging parallel chain marked ‖ch. 24. 3.

‖ Indicates the beginning of a parallel chain.

† Indicates that all the references to the words so distinguished are given.

al. and et al. indicate that a word is of such frequent occurrence that it has not seemed necessary to give a complete chain to it.

Cf. This sign has a double use:

(a) It may indicate apparent contradictions or inconsistencies between two passages so marked.

(b) When used with For ver. . . . cf. it indicates passages, not verbally identical, which occur in other books; e.g. synoptic parallels are so marked.

Cit. Indicates references in which the passage so marked will be found quoted. These are given in more prominent type.

Eng. Indicates a few instances of English archaisms or rare meanings.

Gk. / Heb. Indicates that the same Greek or Hebrew word stands for different English words connected by a reference.

LXX Indicates the authority of the Greek version of the Old Testament called the Septuagint for the marginal correction so marked.

mg. Indicates that the reference is to the marginal rendering of the passage or word so denoted.

Or Indicates alternative renderings.

Read Indicates marginal corrections in the text supported by the best authorities.

R.V. mg. Indicates that the reference is to the marginal rendering in the Revised Version of the passage or word so denoted.

See Indicates (a) the starting-point of a chain.

or (b) a reference to a verse which contains the chain embracing the references in the same chapter to the word so marked.

THE FIRST BOOK OF MOSES, CALLED GENESIS

CHAPTER 1

IN the [a] beginning God [b] created [c] the heaven and the earth.

2 And the earth was [d] without form, and void; and [e] darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the [g] Spirit of God [2 i] moved upon the face of the waters.

3 And God said, [k] Let there be light: and there was [l] light.

4 And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness.

5 And God called the light [n] Day, and the [o] darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day.

6 ¶ And God said, [p] Let there be a [3] firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.

7 And God made the firmament, and [q] divided the waters which were under the firmament from [s] the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so.

8 And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.

9 ¶ And God said, [y] Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the [z] dry land appear: and it was so.

10 And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.

11 And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his [b] kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so.

12 And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

13 And the evening and the morning were the third day.

14 ¶ And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for [f] signs, and for [h] seasons, and for days, and years:

15 And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so.

16 And God made [m] two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also.

17 And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth,

18 And to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good.

19 And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

20 And God said, [r] Let the waters [4 t] bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and fowl that may fly above the earth [5] in the open firmament of heaven.

21 And [u] God created great [6 x] whales, and every living creature that [7] moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

22 And God blessed them, saying, [a] Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth.

23 And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

24 ¶ And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so.

25 And God made the [c] beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that

26 ¶ And God said, Let [b] us [c] make man in our [e] image, after our likeness: and let them [f] have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; [f] male and female created he them.

28 And [p] God blessed them, and God said unto them, [r] Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that [2] moveth upon the earth.

29 ¶ And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; [x] to you it shall be for meat.

30 And [y] to every beast of the earth, and [z] to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is [3] life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so.

31 [b] And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

CHAPTER 2

THUS the heavens and the earth were finished, and [f] all the host of them.

2 And [i] on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; [k] and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made.

3 And God blessed the seventh day, and [l] sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work [n] which God created and made.

4 ¶ [o] These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God [a] made the earth and the heavens,

5 And every [d] plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew: for the LORD God had not [g] caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man [h] to till the ground.

6 But there went up a [i] mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground.

7 And the LORD God [k] formed man of the [m] dust of the ground, and [n] breathed into his nostrils the [o] breath of life; and [q] man became a living soul.

8 ¶ And the LORD God planted a [s] garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed.

9 And out of the ground made the LORD God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; [t] the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of [u] knowledge of good and evil.

10 And a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads.

11 The name of the first is Pison: that is it which compasseth the whole land of [a] Hăv'ī-läh, where there is gold;

12 And the gold of that land is good: there is [c] bdellium and the [4d] onyx stone.

13 And the name of the second river is Gī'hŏn: the same is it that compasseth the whole land of [5] Ethiopia.

14 And the name of the third river is [6e] Hĭd'dĕ-kĕl: that is it which goeth toward the east of [g] Assyria. And the fourth river is [h] Eû-phrā'tēs.

15 And the LORD God took the man, and put him into the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it.

16 And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat:

17 But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, [m] thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof [p] thou shalt surely die.

19 And [c] out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and [d] brought them unto [3]Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof.

20 And Adam gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for Adam there was not found an help meet for him.

21 And the LORD God caused a [i] deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof;

22 And the rib, which the LORD God had taken from man, [6]made he a woman, and brought her unto the man.

23 And Adam said, This is now [n] bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called [7]Woman, because she was [o] taken out of [8]Man.

24 [p] Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh.

25 And they were both [q] naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

CHAPTER 3

NOW [s] the serpent was more [t] subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. [s] And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat [x] of every tree of the garden?

2 And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden:

3 But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye [c] touch it, lest ye die.

4 And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die:

5 For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as [9]gods, knowing good and evil.

6 And when [b] the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and [e] he did eat.

7 And [f] the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were [g] naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves [4]aprons.

8 And they heard the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the [5]cool of the day: and [h] Adam and his wife [k] hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God amongst the trees of the garden.

9 And the LORD God called unto Adam, and said unto him, [l] Where art thou?

10 And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden, and [m] I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself.

11 And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat?

12 And the man said, The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.

13 And the LORD God said unto the woman, What is this that thou hast done? And the woman said, The serpent [r] beguiled me, and I did eat.

14 And the LORD God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and [u] dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life:

15 And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between [y] thy seed and [z] her seed; [a] it shall [b] bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

16 Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception; [d] in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; and thy [e] desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall [f] rule over thee.

17 And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: [a] cursed is the ground for thy sake; in [2b] sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life;

18 [c] Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee; and thou shalt eat the herb of the field;

19 In the [f] sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: for [g] dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return.

20 And Adam called his wife's name [5h] Eve; because she was the mother of all living.

21 Unto Adam also and to his wife did the LORD God make coats of skins, and [m] clothed them.

22 ¶ And the LORD God said, Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil: and now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the [q] tree of life, and eat, and live for ever:

23 Therefore the LORD God sent him forth from [s] the garden of Eden, [t] to till the ground from whence he was taken.

24 So he drove out the man; and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden [z] Chĕr'ū-bĭms, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way of the tree of life.

CHAPTER 4

AND Adam knew [c] Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare [d] Cain, and said, I have gotten a man from the LORD.

2 And she again bare his brother [f] Abel. And Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.

3 And in process of time it came to pass, that Cain brought [i] of the fruit of the ground an [l] offering unto the LORD.

4 And Abel, he also brought of the [n] firstlings of his flock and of the [o] fat thereof. And the LORD [p] had respect unto Abel [q] and to his offering:

5 But unto Cain and to his offering [s] he had not respect. And Cain was very wroth, and [t] his countenance fell.

6 And the LORD said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen?

7 If thou doest well, [3] shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin [d] lieth at the door. And [4] unto thee shall be his [e] desire, and thou shalt rule over him.

8 And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him.

9 ¶ [i] And the LORD said unto Cain, [k] Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, I know not: Am I [l] my brother's keeper?

10 And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's blood [n] crieth unto me from the ground.

11 And now [o] art thou cursed from the earth, which hath [p] opened her mouth to receive thy brother's [r] blood from thy hand;

12 When thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her [u] strength; a [x] fugitive and a vagabond shalt thou be in the earth.

13 And Cain said unto the LORD, [6y] My punishment is greater than I can bear.

14 Behold, [a] thou hast driven me out this day from the face of the earth; and [b] from thy face shall I be hid; and I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth; and it shall come to pass, that every one that findeth me shall slay me.

15 And the LORD said unto him, Therefore [e] whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him [g] sevenfold. And the LORD [7h] set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him.

16 ¶ And Cain [k] went out from the presence of the LORD, and dwelt in the land of [8] Nod, on the east of [m] Eden.

17 And Cain knew his wife; and she conceived, and bare Enoch: and he builded a city, and [r] called the name of the city, after the name of his son, Enoch.

18 And unto Enoch was born Irad: and Irad begat Mĕ-hū'-jael: and Mehujael begat Mĕ-thū'sā-ĕl: and Methusael begat Lā'mĕch.

19 ¶ And Lā'mĕch took unto him two wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zĭl'lăh.

20 And Adah bare Jā'băl: he was the father of such as [b] dwell in tents, and of such as have cattle.

21 And his brother's name was Jū'băl: he was the father of all such as handle the [c] harp and [2d] organ.

22 And Zĭl'lăh, she also bare [e] Tubal-cain, an [3f] instructer of every artificer in [4] brass and iron: and the sister of Tubal-cain was Nā'ă-măh.

23 And Lā'mĕch said unto his wives, Adah and Zĭl'lăh, Hear my voice; ye wives of Lamech, hearken unto my speech: for I have slain a man [5] to my [g] wounding, and a young man [6] to my hurt.

24 If Cain shall be avenged [h] sevenfold, truly Lā'mĕch [i] seventy and sevenfold.

25 ¶ And Adam knew his wife again; and she bare a son, and called his name [k] Seth: For God, said she, hath appointed me another seed instead of Abel, whom Cain slew.

26 And to Seth, to him also there was born a son; and he called his name [l] Enos: then began men [m] to call upon the name of the LORD.

CHAPTER 6

AND it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them,

2 That the [s] sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose.

3 And the LORD said, [t] My spirit shall not always [4u] strive with man, [5x] for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years.

4 There were [6] giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.

5 ¶ And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that [c] every imagination of the thoughts of his [d] heart was only evil continually.

6 And [e] it repented the LORD that he had [f] made man on the earth, and it [h] grieved him at his heart.

7 And the LORD said, I will [7i] destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them.

8 But [a] Noah [b] found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

9 ¶ These are the [c] generations of Noah: Noah was a [d] just man and [e] perfect in his generations, and Noah [f] walked with God.

10 And Noah begat three sons, [h] Shem, Ham, and Jā'-phĕth.

11 The earth also was [k] corrupt before God, and the earth was [m] filled with violence.

12 And God [n] looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his [o] way upon the earth.

13 And God said unto Noah, The [p] end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

14 ¶ Make thee an [r] ark of gopher wood; [2] rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch.

15 And this is the fashion which thou shalt make it of: The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.

16 A [3] window shalt thou make to the ark, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof; with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou make it.

17 And, behold, I, even I, do bring a [y] flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the [z] breath of life, from under heaven; and every thing that is in the earth [a] shall die.

18 But with thee will I [b] establish my covenant; and thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee.

19 And of every living thing of all flesh, [g] two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee; they shall be male and female.

22 [f] Thus did Noah; according to all that God commanded him, so did he.

CHAPTER 7

AND the LORD said unto Noah, [h] Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen [i] righteous before me in this generation.

2 [k] Of every [l] clean beast thou shalt take to thee by sevens, the male and his female: and of beasts that are not clean by two, the male and his female.

3 Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female; to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth.

4 For yet [n] seven days, and I will [o] cause it to rain upon the earth [p] forty days and forty nights; and every [q] living substance that I have made will I [r] destroy from off the face of the earth.

5 And [s] Noah did according unto all that the LORD commanded him.

6 And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth.

7 ¶ And [u] Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood.

8 Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth.

9 There went in two and two unto Noah into the ark, the male and the female, as God had commanded Noah.

10 And it came to pass after seven days, that the waters of the flood were upon the earth.

11 ¶ In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the [b] fountains of [a] the great deep broken up, and the [b] windows of heaven were opened.

12 And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

13 In the [c] selfsame day [d] entered Noah, and [e] Shem, and Ham, and Jāphĕth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into the ark;

14 They, and every beast after his [g] kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, every bird of every sort.

15 And they went in unto Noah into the ark, two and two of all flesh, wherein is the [m] breath of life.

16 And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and the LORD shut him in.

17 And the flood was forty days upon the earth; and the waters increased, and bare up the ark, and it was lift up above the earth.

18 And the waters prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the earth; and the ark went upon the face of the waters.

19 And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth; and all the [t] high hills, that were under the whole heaven, were covered.

20 Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail; and the mountains were covered.

21 And all flesh [x] died that [2y] moved upon the earth, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of beast, and of every [3] creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and every man:

22 All in whose nostrils was the [z] breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died.

23 And every [a] living substance was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and cattle, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heaven; and they were destroyed from the earth: and Noah only remained alive, and they that were with him in the ark.

24 And the waters prevailed upon the earth [c] an hundred and fifty days.

CHAPTER 8

AND God [a] remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the cattle that was with him in the ark: and [b] God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters asswaged;

2 The [c] fountains also of the deep and the [d] windows of heaven were stopped, and the rain from heaven was restrained;

3 And the waters returned from off the earth continually: and after the end of [f] the hundred and fifty days the waters were abated.

4 And the ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of [g] Ararat.

5 And the waters decreased continually until the tenth month: in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen.

6 ¶ And it came to pass at the end of [i] forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made:

7 And he sent forth a [k] raven, which went forth to and fro, until the waters were dried up from off the earth.

8 Also he sent forth a [n] dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground;

9 But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the ark, for the waters were on the face of the whole earth: then he put forth his hand, and took her, and pulled her in unto him into the ark.

10 And he stayed yet other [t] seven days; and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark;

11 And the dove came in to him in the evening; and, lo, in her mouth was an [z] olive leaf pluckt off: so Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth.

12 And he stayed yet other seven days; and sent forth the dove; which returned not again unto him any more.

13 ¶ And it came to pass in the six hundredth and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from off the earth: and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and, behold, the face of the ground was dry.

14 And in the second month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, was the earth dried.

15 ¶ And God spake unto Noah, saying,

16 [e] Go forth of the ark, thou, and thy wife, and thy sons, and thy sons' wives with thee.

17 Bring forth with thee every living thing that is with thee, of all flesh, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth; that they may breed abundantly in the earth, and [h] be fruitful, and multiply upon the earth.

18 And Noah went forth, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him:

19 Every beast, every creeping thing, and every fowl, and whatsoever creepeth upon the earth, after their [2] kinds, went forth out of the ark.

20 ¶ And Noah builded an [l] altar unto the LORD; and took of every [m] clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered [o] burnt offerings on the altar.

21 And the LORD smelled a [3] [p] sweet savour; and the LORD said in his heart, I will not again [q] curse the ground any more for man's sake; for the [r] imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; [s] neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done.

22 While the earth remaineth, [u] seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and [x] summer and winter, and [y] day and night shall not cease.

3 [a] Every [2]moving thing that liveth shall be meat for you; even [b] as the green herb have I given you all things.

4 But flesh with [c] the life thereof, which is the blood thereof, [d] shall ye not eat.

5 And surely your blood of your lives will I require; [i] at the hand of every beast will I require it, and at the hand of man; at the hand of every man's brother [l] will I require the life of man.

6 [m] Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the [o] image of God made he man.

7 And you, be ye fruitful, and multiply; [3]bring forth abundantly in the earth, and multiply therein.

8 ¶ And God spake unto Noah, and to his sons with him, saying,

9 And I, behold, [q] I establish my covenant with you, and with your seed after you;

10 And with every living creature that is with you, of the fowl, of the cattle, and of every beast of the earth with you; from all that go out of the ark, to every beast of the earth.

11 And I will establish my covenant with you; [t] neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a [u] flood; neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the earth.

12 And God said, [x] This is the token of the covenant which I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations:

13 I do set [y] my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth.

14 And it shall come to pass, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow shall be seen in the cloud:

15 And [a] I will remember my covenant, which is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 And the bow shall be in the cloud; and I will look upon it, that I may remember [k] the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is upon the earth.

17 And God said unto Noah, This is the token of the covenant, which I have established between me and all flesh that is upon the earth.

18 ¶ And the sons of Noah, that went forth of the ark, were [e] Shem, and [f] Ham, and [g] Jā'-phĕth: and Ham is the father of [h] Cā'-nă-ăn.

19 These are the three sons of Noah: and of them was [k] the whole earth overspread.

20 And Noah began to be an husbandman, and he planted a vineyard:

21 And he drank of the [n] wine, and was drunken; and he was uncovered within his tent.

22 And Ham, the father of Cā'-nă-ăn, [p] saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brethren without.

23 And Shem and Jā'-phĕth took a garment, and laid it upon both their shoulders, and went backward, and covered the nakedness of their father; and their faces were backward, and they saw not their father's nakedness.

24 And Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger son had done unto him.

25 And he said, [r] Cursed be Cā'-nă-ăn; [s] a servant of servants shall he be unto his brethren.

26 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Shem; and Cā'-nă-ăn shall be [4]his servant.

27 God shall enlarge Jā'-phĕth, and he shall dwell in the tents of Shem; and Cā'-nă-ăn shall be his servant.

28 ¶ And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years.

29 And all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years: and he died.

5 By these were the [2f] isles of the Gentiles divided in their lands; every one after his tongue, after their families, in their nations.

6 ¶ [k] And the sons of Ham; [l] Cush, and Miz'rā-ĭm, and [n] Phut, and [o] Cā'nă-ăn.

7 And the sons of Cush; [q] Seba, and [q] Hăv'ī-läh, and [q] Sabtah, and [q] Rā'ă-mäh, and [q] Săb-tē'chäh: and the sons of Raamah; [t] Sheba, and [u] Dedan.

8 And Cush begat [x] Nĭm'rŏd: he began to be a mighty one in the earth.

9 He was a mighty [y] hunter before the LORD: wherefore it is said, Even as Nĭm'rŏd the mighty hunter before the LORD.

10 And the beginning of his kingdom was [e] Babel, and Ĕr'ĕch, and Accad, and [g] Calneh, in the land of [h] Shĭ'när.

11 Out of that land [6] went forth [i] Asshur, and builded [k] Nĭn'ĕ-vēh, and the city Rē'hŏ-bŏth, and Calah, 12 And Rē'sĕn between Nĭn'ĕ-vēh and Calah: the same is a great city.

13 [l] And Miz'rā-ĭm begat [m] Ludim, and [m] Ăn'ă-mĭm, and [m] Lĕ-hā'bĭm, and [m] Năph-tû'hĭm, 14 And [n] Păth-rû'sĭm, and [n] Căs-lû'hĭm, (out of whom came [n] Phĭl'ĭs-tĭm,) and [p] Căph'tō-rĭm.

15 ¶ And Cā'nă-ăn begat [q] Sidon his firstborn, and [r] Heth,

16 And [s] the Jĕb'ū-sīte, and the [t] Amorite, and the [u] Gĭr'gă-sīte,

17 And the [x] Hivite, and the [y] Arkite, and the [y] Sinite,

18 And the [z] Är'vă-dīte, and the [z] Zĕm'ă-rīte, and the [z] Hamathite: and afterward were the families of the [b] Cā'nă-ăn-ītes spread abroad.

19 And the border of the Cā'nă-ăn-ītes was from [c] Sidon, as thou comest to [e] Gerar, unto [f] Gaza; as thou goest, unto [g] Sodom, and [h] Gō-mŏr'răh, and [i] Admah, and [i] Zĕ-bō'ĭm, even unto Lasha.

20 These are the sons of Ham, after their families, after their tongues, in their countries, and in their nations.

21 ¶ Unto [n] Shem also, the father of all the children of [o] Eber, the [3] brother of Jā'phĕth the elder, even to him were children born.

22 [d] The children of Shem; [e] Elam, and Asshur, and [g] Är-phăx'ăd, and [h] Lud, and [h] Aram.

23 And the children of Aram; [i] Uz, and [j] Hul, and [j] Gē'thĕr, and [3] Mash.

24 And Är-phăx'ăd begat [m] Salah; and Salah begat [p] Eber.

25 And unto Eber were born two sons: the name of one was [4r] Peleg; for in his days was the earth divided; and his brother's name was [s] Joktan.

26 And Joktan begat [s] Almodad, and [s] Sheleph, and [s] Hā-zär-mā'vĕth, and [s] Jerah,

27 And [z] Hă-dôr'ăm, and [z] Ū'zăl, and [z] Diklah,

28 And [5] Obal, and [a] Ă-bĭm'ā-ĕl, and [b] Sheba,

29 And [c] Ō'phĭr, and [d] Hăv'ī-läh, and [f] Jobab: all these were the sons of Joktan.

30 And their dwelling was from Mē'shă, as thou goest unto Sephar a mount of the east.

31 These are the sons of Shem, after their families, after their tongues, in their lands, after their nations.

32 These are the families of the sons of Noah, after their generations, in their nations: and [o] by these were the nations divided in the earth after the flood.

AND the whole earth was of one [7] language, and of one [8] speech.

2 And it came to pass, as they journeyed [9] from the east, that they found a plain in the land of [a] Shĭ'när; and they dwelt there.

3 And they said one to another, Go to, let us make brick, and burn them throughly. And they had brick for stone, and [2d] slime had they for morter.

4 And they said, Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, [k] whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us [l] make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.

5 And [m] the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded.

25 And Nā'hôr lived after he begat Terah an hundred and nineteen years, and begat sons and daughters.

26 And Terah lived seventy years, and begat [d] Abram, [e] Nā'hôr, and Haran.

27 ¶ Now [g] these are the generations of Terah: Terah begat Abram, Nā'hôr, and Haran; and Haran begat [h] Lot.

28 And Haran died before his father Terah in the land of his nativity, in [k] Ur of the Chăl'dēēs.

29 And Abram and Nā'hôr took them wives: the name of Abram's wife was [m] Sâr'ā-ī; and the name of Nahor's wife, [o] Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah, and the father of Iscah.

30 But Sâr'ā-ī was barren; [r] she had no child.

32 And the days of Terah were two hundred and five years: and Terah [z] died in Haran.

CHAPTER 12

NOW the LORD [2] had said unto Abram, [b] Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee:

2 And [d] I will make of thee a great nation, and [e] I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing:

3 And [f] I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and [h] in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

4 So Abram departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him; and [i] Lot went with him: and Abram was [l] seventy and five years old when he departed out of [a] Haran.

5 And Abram took Sâr'-ā-ī his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their [d] substance that they had gathered, and the souls that they had gotten in Haran; and they went forth to go into the [e] land of Cā'-nă-ăn; and into the land of Canaan they came.

6 ¶ And Abram passed through the land unto the place of [f] Sī'-chĕm, unto [2g] the plain of [h] Moreh. And [i] the Cā'-nă-ăn-īte was then in the land.

7 And [k] the LORD appeared unto Abram, and said, [l] Unto thy seed will I give this land: and there builded he an [m] altar unto the LORD, who appeared unto him.

8 And he removed from thence unto a mountain on the east of [n] Beth–el, and pitched his tent, having Beth–el on the west, and [n] Hā'-ī on the east: and there he builded an [o] altar unto the LORD, and [r] called upon the name of the LORD.

9 And Abram journeyed, going on still toward the [3] south.

10 ¶ And there was a [u] famine in the land: and Abram [y] went down into Egypt to sojourn there; for the famine was grievous in the land.

11 And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Egypt, that he said unto Sâr'-ā-ī his wife, Behold now, I know that thou art a [c] fair woman to look upon:

12 Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Egyptians shall see thee, that they shall say, This is his wife: and they [e] will kill me, but they will save thee alive.

13 Say, I pray thee, thou art [g] my sister: that it may be well with me for thy sake; and my soul shall live because of thee.

14 ¶ And it came to pass, that, when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians beheld the woman that she was very fair.

15 The princes also of Phâr'-āoh saw her, and commended her before Pharaoh: and the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house.

oxen, and he asses, and menservants, and maidservants, and she asses, and [b] camels.

17 And the LORD [c] plagued Phâr'-āoh and his house with great plagues because of Sâr'-ā-ī Abram's wife.

18 And Phâr'-āoh called Abram, and said, What is this that thou hast done unto me? why didst thou not tell me that she was thy wife?

19 Why saidst thou, She is my sister? so I might have taken her to me to wife: now therefore behold thy wife, take her, and go thy way.

20 And Phâr'-āoh commanded his men concerning him: and they sent him away, and his wife, and all that he had.

AND Abram went up out of Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, and [p] Lot with him, [q] into the south.

2 And Abram was [s] very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold.

3 And he went on his [t] journeys from the south even to [x] Beth–el, unto the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Beth–el and [z] Hā'-ī;

4 Unto [a] the place of the altar, which he had made there at the first: and there Abram [b] called on the name of the LORD.

5 ¶ And Lot also, which went with Abram, had flocks, and herds, and tents.

6 And [d] the land was not able to bear them, that they might dwell together: for their [f] substance was great, so that they could not dwell together.

7 And there was a [h] strife between the herdmen of Abram's cattle and the herdmen of Lot's cattle: and the [i] Cā'-nă-ăn-īte and the [k] Pĕ-rīz'-zīte dwelled then in the land.

8 And Abram said unto Lot, [l] Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen; [m] for we be brethren.

9 Is not [o] the whole land before thee? separate thyself, I pray thee, from me: if thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if thou depart to the right hand, then I will go to the left.

10 And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the [2]plain of Jordan, that it was well watered every where, before the LORD destroyed [b] Sodom and Gō-mŏr'-răh, even as the [c] garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt, as thou comest unto [f] Zoar.

11 Then Lot chose him all the plain of Jordan; and Lot journeyed east: and they separated themselves the one from the other.

12 Abram dwelled in the [m]land of Cā'-nă-ăn, and Lot dwelled in the cities of the plain, and pitched his tent [p] toward Sodom.

13 But the [r] men of Sodom were wicked and sinners before the LORD exceedingly.

14 ¶ And the LORD said unto Abram, after that Lot was separated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art [t] northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward:

15 For all the land which thou seest, [u] to thee will I give it, and to thy seed for ever.

16 And I will make thy seed [x] as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed also be numbered.

17 Arise, walk through the land in the length of it and in the breadth of it; for I will give it unto thee.

18 Then Abram removed his tent, and came and dwelt in the [6b] plain of Mamre, which is in [c] Hebron, and built there an [e] altar unto the LORD.

3 All these were joined together in the vale of Siddim, [a] which is the salt sea.

4 Twelve years they served Chĕd-ôr-lā-ō'-mĕr, and in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

5 And in the fourteenth year came Chĕd-ôr-lā-ō'-mĕr, and the kings that were with him, and smote the [d] Rĕph'-ā-ims in [e] Ăsh'-tĕ-rōth Kär-nā'-ĭm, and the [g] Zuzims in Ham, and the [h] Ē'-mĭms in [3] Shā'-vēh Kĭr-ĭ-ă-thā'-ĭm,

6 And the [i] Horites in their [k] mount Seir, unto [l] Ĕl-pâr'-ăn, which is by the wilderness.

7 And they returned, and came to [4] En–mishpat, which is [n] Kadesh, and smote all the country of the [o] Ă-măl'-ĕk-ites, and also the [q] Amorites, that dwelt in [s] Hăz'-ĕ-zŏn–tā'-mär.

8 And there went out the king of Sodom, and the king of Gō-mŏr'-răh, and the king of Admah, and the king of Zĕ-bôi'-ĭm, and the king of Bela (the same is Zoar;) and they joined battle with them in the vale of Siddim;

9 With Chĕd-ôr-lā-ō'-mĕr the king of Elam, and with Tidal king of nations, and Ăm-rā'-phĕl king of Shĭ'-när, and Ăr'-ĭ-ŏch king of Ĕl-lā'-sär; four kings with five.

10 And the vale of Siddim was full of [5y] slimepits; and the kings of Sodom and Gō-mŏr'-răh fled, and fell there; and they that remained fled [z] to the mountain.

11 And they took all the [a] goods of Sodom and Gō-mŏr'-răh, and all their victuals, and went their way.

12 And they took [d] Lot, Abram's [f] brother's son, who [g] dwelt in Sodom, and his goods, and departed.

13 ¶ And there came one that had escaped, and told Abram [h] the Hebrew; for he dwelt in [7k] the plain of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol, and brother of Ā'-nĕr: and these were confederate with Abram.

14 And when Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he [8] armed his trained servants, [o] born in his own house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued them unto [p] Dan.

15 And he [r] divided himself against them, he and his servants, by night, and smote them, and pursued them unto Hobah, which is on the left hand of [b] Damascus.

16 And he brought back all the goods, and also brought again his brother Lot, and his goods, and the women also, and the people.

17 ¶ And the king of Sodom went out to meet him after his return from the slaughter of Chĕd-ôr-lā-ō'mĕr, and of the kings that were with him, at the valley of Shā'vēh, which is the [f] king's dale.

18 And [3 h] Mĕl-chĭz'ĕd-ĕk king of Salem brought forth bread and wine: and he was the priest of the [i] most high God.

19 And he blessed him, and said, [n] Blessed be Abram of the most high God, [4 p] possessor of heaven and earth:

20 And blessed be the most high God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand. And he [s] gave him [x] tithes of all.

21 And the king of Sodom said unto Abram, Give me the persons, and take the goods to thyself.

22 And Abram said to the king of Sodom, I have [a] lift up mine hand unto the LORD, the most high God, the possessor of heaven and earth,

23 That [c] I will not take from a thread even to a shoelatchet, and that I will not take any thing that is thine, lest thou shouldest say, I have made Abram rich:

24 [6] Save only that which the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men which went with me, Ā'nĕr, Eshcol, and Mamre; let them take their portion.

CHAPTER 15

AFTER these things the word of the LORD came unto Abram in a [q] vision, saying, [r] Fear not, Abram: I am thy [t] shield, and [8] thy exceeding [u] great reward.

2 And Abram said, Lord GOD, what wilt thou give me, seeing I [9] go [a] childless, and [z] the [d] steward of my house is this Ĕl-ĭ-ē'zĕr of Damascus?

3 And Abram said, Behold, to me thou hast given no seed: and, lo, one [a] born in my house is mine heir.

4 And, behold, the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, This shall not be thine heir; but he that [c] shall come forth out of thine own bowels shall be thine heir.

5 And he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and [2] tell the stars, if thou be able to number them: and he said unto him, [d] So shall thy seed be.

6 And he [e] believed in the LORD; and he [g] counted it to him for righteousness.

7 And he said unto him, I am the LORD that [k] brought thee out of [l] Ur of the Chăl'dēēs, [m] to give thee this land to inherit it.

8 And he said, Lord GOD, [o] whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it?

9 And he said unto him, Take me an [q] heifer of three years old, and a [r] she goat of three years old, and a [t] ram of three years old, and a [u] turtledove, and a young [u] pigeon.

10 And he took unto him all these, and [y] divided them in the midst, and laid each piece one against another: [z] but the birds divided he not.

11 And when the [5 b] fowls came down upon the carcases, Abram drove them away.

12 And when the sun was going down, a [d] deep sleep fell upon Abram; and, lo, an horror of [e] great darkness fell upon him.

13 And he said unto Abram, Know of a surety that [f] thy seed shall be a [7 g] stranger in a land that is not their's, and shall serve them; and [h] they shall afflict them [i] four hundred years;

14 And also that nation, whom they shall serve, [k] will I judge: and afterward [l] shall they come out [m] with great [n] substance.

15 And [o] thou shalt go [p] to thy fathers in peace; thou shalt be buried in [s] a good old age.

16 But in the [x] fourth generation [y] they shall come hither again: [z] for the iniquity of the [b] Amorites [c] is not yet full.

17 And it came to pass, that, when the sun went down, and it was dark,

CHAPTER 16

NOW [z] Sâr'-ā-ī Abram's wife bare him [a] no children: and she had an handmaid, an Egyptian, whose name was [b] Hagar.

2 [c] And Sâr'-ā-ī said unto Abram, Behold now, the LORD [d] hath restrained me from bearing: I pray thee, go in unto my maid; it may be that I [6h] may obtain children by her. And Abram [j] hearkened to the voice of Sarai.

3 And Sâr'-ā-ī Abram's wife took Hagar her maid the Egyptian, after Abram [m] had dwelt ten years in the [n] land of Cā'-nă-ăn, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife.

4 ¶ And he went in unto Hagar, and she conceived: and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress [o] was despised in her eyes.

5 And Sâr'-ā-ī said unto Abram, My wrong be upon thee: I have given my maid into thy bosom; and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes: [u] the LORD judge between me and thee.

6 But Abram said unto Sâr'-ā-ī, Behold, thy maid is [z] in thine hand; do to her as it pleaseth thee. And when Sarai dealt hardly with her, she fled from her face.

7 ¶ And [a] the angel of the LORD found her by a fountain of water in the wilderness, by the fountain in the way to [d] Shur.

8 And he said, Hagar, Sâr'-ā-ī's maid, whence camest thou? and whither wilt thou go? And she said, I flee from the face of my mistress Sarai.

9 And the angel of the LORD said unto her, Return to thy mistress, and [e] submit thyself under her hands.

10 And the angel of the LORD said unto her, [h] I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be numbered for multitude.

11 And the angel of the LORD said unto her, Behold, thou art with child, and [p] shalt bear a son, and shalt call his name [2s] Ishmael; [t] because the LORD hath heard thy affliction.

12 And he will be [3] a [y] wild man; his hand will be against every man, and every man's hand against him; and he shall dwell [4] in the presence of all his brethren.

13 And she called the name of the LORD that spake unto her, [5] Thou God seest me: for she said, Have I also here [e] looked after [f] him that seeth me?

14 Wherefore the [g] well was called [7i] Bĕĕr-lā'-hâi-rôi; behold, it is between [k] Kadesh and Bered.

15 ¶ And [l] Hagar bare Abram a son: and Abram called his son's name, which Hagar bare, Ishmael.

16 And Abram was fourscore and six years old, when Hagar bare Ishmael to Abram.

CHAPTER 17

AND when Abram was ninety years old and nine, the LORD [p] appeared to Abram, and said unto him, I am [8q] the Almighty God; [r] walk before me, and be thou [s] perfect.

2 And [t] I will make my covenant between me and thee, and [x] will multiply thee exceedingly.

3 And Abram [y] fell on his face: and God talked with him, saying,

4 As for me, behold, my covenant is with thee, and thou shalt be a father of many nations.

5 [b] Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram, but thy name shall be Abraham; for [c] a father of many nations have I made thee.

6 And I will make thee exceeding [e] fruitful, and I will make [f] nations of thee, and [g] kings shall come out of thee.

11 And ye shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; [s] and it shall be [t] a token of the covenant betwixt me and you.

19 And God said, [a] Sarah thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed; and thou shalt call his name [2b] Isaac: and I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him.

20 And as for Ishmael, I have heard thee: Behold, [h] I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and [k] will multiply him exceedingly; [m] twelve princes shall he beget, and I [n] will make him a great nation.

21 But [o] my covenant will I establish with Isaac, which Sarah shall bear unto thee at [p] this set time in the next year.

22 And he left off [q] talking with him, and [r] God went up from Abraham.

23 ¶ And Abraham took Ishmael his son, and all that were born in his house, and all that were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's house; and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin in the [x] selfsame day, as God had said unto him.

24 And Abraham was ninety years old and nine, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

25 And Ishmael his son was thirteen years old, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

26 In the selfsame day was Abraham circumcised, and Ishmael his son.

27 And [a] all the men of his house, born in the house, and bought with money of the stranger, were circumcised with him.

CHAPTER 18

AND the LORD [f] appeared unto him in the [6g] plains of Mamre: and he sat in the tent door in the heat of the day;

2 And he lift up his eyes and looked, and, lo, [l] three men stood by him: and [m] when he saw them, he [n] ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself toward the ground,

3 And said, My Lord, if now I have found favour in thy sight, [r] pass not away, I pray thee, from thy servant:

4 Let a little water, I pray you, be fetched, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree:

5 And I will fetch a morsel of bread, and [b] comfort ye your hearts; after that ye shall pass on: for therefore are ye come to your servant. [d] And they said, So do, as thou hast said.

6 And Abraham hastened into the tent unto [i] Sarah, and said, Make ready quickly three measures of fine meal, knead it, and make [l] cakes upon the hearth.

7 And Abraham ran unto the herd, and fetcht a [n] calf tender and good, and gave it unto a young man; and he hasted to dress it.

8 And he took [q] butter, and [r] milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree, and [u] they did eat.

9 ¶ And they said unto him, Where is Sarah thy wife? And he said, Behold, in the tent.

10 And he said, I will certainly return unto thee [3z] according to the time of life; and, lo, [b] Sarah thy wife shall have a son. And Sarah heard it in the tent door, which was behind him.

11 [e] Now Abraham and Sarah were old and well stricken in age; and it ceased to be with Sarah [f] after the manner of women.

12 Therefore Sarah [g] laughed within herself, saying, After I am [4] waxed old shall I have pleasure, [i] my lord being old also?

13 And the LORD said unto Abraham, Wherefore did Sarah laugh, saying, Shall I of a surety bear a child, which am old?

14 [m] Is any thing too hard for the LORD? [o] At the time appointed I will return unto thee, [p] according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son.

15 Then Sarah denied, saying, I laughed not; for she was afraid. And he said, Nay; but thou didst laugh.

16 ¶ And the men rose up from thence, and [r] looked toward Sodom: and Abraham went with them to bring them on the way.

17 And the LORD said, [s] Shall I hide from Abraham that thing which I do;

18 Seeing that Abraham shall surely [a] become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall [c] be blessed in him?

19 For [2e] I know him, that he [f] will command his children and his [g] household after him, and they shall [h] keep the way of the LORD, to do [k] justice and judgment; that the LORD may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him.

20 And the LORD said, Because [m] the cry of [o] Sodom and Gō-mŏr'-răh is great, and because [p] their sin is very grievous;

21 [s] I will go down now, and [t] see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me; and if not, I will know.

22 And the men turned their faces from thence, and [x] went toward Sodom: but Abraham [y] stood yet before the LORD.

23 ¶ And Abraham drew near, and said, Wilt thou also [a] destroy the [c] righteous with the wicked?

24 [d] Peradventure there be fifty righteous within the city: wilt thou also destroy and not spare the place for the fifty righteous that are therein?

25 That be far from thee to do after this manner, to slay the righteous with the wicked: and that the righteous should be as the wicked, that be far from thee: Shall not the [h] Judge of all the earth [k] do right?

26 And the LORD said, [l] If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes.

27 And Abraham answered and said, [n] Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord, which am but [q] dust and ashes:

28 Peradventure there shall lack five of the fifty righteous: wilt thou destroy all the city for lack of five? And he said, If I find there forty and five, I will not destroy it.

29 And he spake unto him yet again, and said, Peradventure there shall be forty found there. And he said, I will not do it for forty's sake.

30 And he said unto him, Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak: Peradventure there shall thirty

CHAPTER 19

AND there [f] came two angels to [g] Sodom at even: and [h] Lot [i] sat in the [l] gate of Sodom: and Lot [m] seeing them [n] rose up to meet them; and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground;

2 And he said, Behold now, my lords, turn in, I pray you, into your servant's house, and tarry all night, and [q] wash your feet, and ye shall rise up early, and go on your ways. [r] And they said, Nay; but we will abide in the street all night.

3 And [t] he pressed upon them greatly; and they turned in unto him, and entered into his house; and he made them a feast, and did bake [y] unleavened bread, and they did eat.

4 ¶ But before they lay down, the men of the city, even the men of Sodom, compassed the house round, both old and young, all the people from every quarter:

5 And they called unto Lot, and said unto him, Where are the men which came in to thee this night? [a] bring them out unto us, that we may know them.

6 And Lot went out at the door unto them, and shut the door after him,

7 And said, I pray you, brethren, do not so wickedly.

8 [c] Behold now, I have two daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as is good in your eyes: only unto these men do nothing; for therefore came they under the shadow of my roof.

9 And they said, Stand back. And they said again, This one fellow [a] came in to sojourn, and [b] he will needs be a judge: now will we deal worse with thee, than with them. And they pressed sore upon the man, even Lot, and came near to break the door.

10 But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the door.

11 And they smote the men that were at the door of the house with [e] blindness, both small and great: so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

12 ¶ And the men said unto Lot, [k] Hast thou here any besides? son in law, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and whatsoever thou hast in the city, bring them out of this place:

13 For we will destroy this place, because [o] the cry of them is waxen great before the face of the LORD; and the LORD hath sent us to [p] destroy it.

14 And Lot went out, and spake unto his sons in law, which married his daughters, and said, [s] Up, get you out of this place; for the LORD will destroy this city. But [u] he seemed as one that [x] mocked unto his sons in law.

15 ¶ And when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters, which are here; lest thou be consumed in the [z] iniquity of the city.

16 And while he lingered, the men laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; the LORD being merciful unto him: and they brought him forth, and set him without the city.

17 ¶ And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that he said, Escape for thy life; [b] look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the [d] plain; escape [e] to the mountain, lest thou be consumed.

18 And Lot said unto them, Oh, not so, my Lord:

20 Behold now, this city is near to flee unto, and it is a little one: Oh, let me escape thither, (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live.

21 And he said unto him, See, I have accepted thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city, for the which thou hast spoken.

22 Haste thee, escape thither; for I cannot do any thing till thou be come thither. Therefore the name of the city was called [2d] Zoar.

23 ¶ The sun was risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Zoar.

24 Then the LORD rained upon Sodom and upon Gō-mŏr'-răh [e] brimstone and [f] fire from the LORD out of heaven;

25 And he overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground.

26 ¶ But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a [i] pillar of salt.

29 ¶ And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God [y] remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in the which Lot dwelt.

30 ¶ And Lot went up out of Zoar, and dwelt in the mountain, and his two daughters with him; for he feared to dwell in Zoar: and he dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters.

33 And they made their father drink wine that night: and the firstborn went in, and lay with her father; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

34 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the firstborn said unto the younger, Behold, I lay yesternight with my father: let us make him drink wine this night also; and go thou in, and lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

35 And they made their father drink wine that night also: and the younger arose, and lay with him; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

36 Thus were both the daughters of Lot with child by their father.

37 And the firstborn bare a son, and called his name Moab: [g] the same is the father of the [h] Moabites unto this day.

38 And the younger, she also bare a son, and called his name Bĕn-ăm'-mī: the same is the father of the [k] children of Ammon unto this day.

CHAPTER 20

AND Abraham journeyed from thence toward the [m] south country, and dwelled between [n] Kadesh and [o] Shur, and [p] sojourned in [q] Gerar.

2 And Abraham said of [s] Sarah his wife, [u] She is my sister: and [x] Ă-bĭm'-ĕ-lĕch king of Gerar sent, and took Sarah.

3 [z] But God came to Ă-bĭm'-ĕ-lĕch [a] in a dream by night, and said to him, Behold, thou art but a dead man, for the woman which thou hast taken; for she is a man's wife.

4 But Ă-bĭm'-ĕ-lĕch had not come near her: and he said, Lord, [b] wilt thou slay also a righteous nation?

5 Said he not unto me, She is my sister? and she, even she herself said, He is my brother: in the [c] integrity of my heart and innocency of my hands have I done this.

6 And God said unto him in a dream,

Yea, I know that thou didst this in the integrity of thy heart; for I also [b] withheld thee from sinning [c] against me: therefore suffered I thee not to touch her.

7 Now therefore restore the man his wife; for [e] he is a prophet, and [f] he shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live: and if thou restore her not, know thou that thou shalt surely die, thou, and [g] all that are thine.

8 Therefore Ă-bĭm'-ĕ-lĕch rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ears: and the men were sore afraid.

9 Then Ă-bĭm'-ĕ-lĕch called Abraham, and said unto him, What hast thou done unto us? and what have I offended thee, that thou hast [o] brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? thou hast done deeds unto me that [r] ought not to be done.

10 And Ă-bĭm'-ĕ-lĕch said unto Abraham, What sawest thou, that thou hast done this thing?

11 And Abraham said, Because I thought, Surely [t] the fear of God is not in this place; and [x] they will slay me for my wife's sake.

12 And yet [y] indeed she is my sister; she is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife.

13 And it came to pass, when [z] God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said unto her, This is thy kindness which thou shalt shew unto me; at every place whither we shall come, say of me, He is my brother.

14 And [d] Ă-bĭm'-ĕ-lĕch took sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and womenservants, and gave them unto Abraham, and restored him Sarah his wife.

15 And Ă-bĭm'-ĕ-lĕch said, Behold, [g] my land is before thee: dwell where it pleaseth thee.

16 And unto Sarah he said, Behold, I have given thy brother a thousand pieces of silver: behold, [3] he is to thee [h] a covering of the eyes, unto all that are with thee, [4] and with all other: thus she was reproved.

17 ¶ So [a] Abraham prayed unto God: and God healed Ă-bĭm'-ĕ-lĕch, and his wife, and his maidservants; and they bare children.

18 For [d] the LORD had fast closed up all the wombs of the house of Ă-bĭm'-ĕ-lĕch, because of Sarah Abraham's wife.

CHAPTER 21

AND the LORD [h] visited Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did unto [i] Sarah [k] as he had spoken.

2 For Sarah [l] conceived, and [m] bare Abraham a son in his old age, [n] at the set time of which God had spoken to him.

3 And Abraham called the name of his son that was born unto him, whom Sarah bare to him, [p] Isaac.

4 And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac being [q] eight days old, as God had commanded him.

5 And Abraham was an [s] hundred years old, when his son Isaac was born unto him.

6 ¶ And Sarah said, God hath made me to laugh, so that all that hear [u] will laugh with me.

7 And she said, Who would have said unto Abraham, that Sarah should have given children suck? for I have born him a son in his old age.

8 And the child grew, and was [a] weaned: and Abraham made a great feast the same day that Isaac was weaned.

9 ¶ And Sarah saw the son of [b] Hagar the Egyptian, which she had born unto Abraham, [2c] mocking.

10 Wherefore she said unto Abraham, [e] Cast out this bondwoman and [f] her son: for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, even with Isaac.

11 And the thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight because of his son.

12 ¶ And God said unto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight because of the lad, and because of thy bondwoman; in all that Sarah hath said unto thee, [i] hearken unto her voice; for [k] in Isaac shall thy seed be called.

13 And also of the son of the bondwoman will I make [a] a nation, because he is thy seed.

14 And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread, and a bottle of water, and gave it unto Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, and the child, and [d] sent her away: and she departed, and wandered in the wilderness of [e] Beer–sheba.

15 And the water was spent in the bottle, and she cast the child under one of the [g] shrubs.

16 And she went, and sat her down over against him a good way off, as it were a bowshot: for she said, Let me not see the death of the child. And she sat over against him, and [k] lift up her voice, and wept.

17 And [l] God heard the voice of the lad; and [m] the angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said unto her, What aileth thee, Hagar? [n] fear not; for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he is.

18 Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him in thine hand; for [o] I will make him a great nation.

19 And God [r] opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water; and she went, and filled the bottle with water, and gave the lad drink.

20 And [t] God was with the lad; and he grew, and dwelt in the wilderness, and [u] became an [x] archer.

21 And he dwelt in the wilderness of [y] Paran: and his mother [z] took him a wife out of the land of Egypt.

22 ¶ And it came to pass at that time, that [a] Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch and Phī'chŏl the chief captain of his host spake unto Abraham, saying, [c] God is with thee in all that thou doest:

23 Now therefore [f] swear unto me here by God that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, nor with [4] my son, nor with my son's son: but according to the kindness that I have done unto thee, thou shalt do unto me, and to the land wherein thou hast sojourned.

24 And Abraham said, [h] I will swear.

25 And Abraham reproved Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch because of a well of water, which Abimelech's servants [i] had violently taken away.

26 And Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch said, I wot not who hath done this thing: neither didst thou tell me, neither yet heard I of it, but to day.

27 And Abraham [b] took sheep and oxen, and gave them unto Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch; and both of them [c] made a covenant.

28 And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.

29 And Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch said unto Abraham, [f] What mean these seven ewe lambs which thou hast set by themselves?

30 And he said, For these seven ewe lambs shalt thou take of my hand, that they may be [h] a witness unto me, that I have digged this [i] well.

31 Wherefore he called that place Beer–sheba; because there they sware both of them.

32 Thus they made a covenant at Beer–sheba: then Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch rose up, and Phī'chŏl the chief captain of his host, and they returned into the land of the Philistines.

33 ¶ And Abraham planted a [2p] grove in Beer–sheba, and [q] called there on the name of the LORD, [s] the everlasting God.

34 And Abraham sojourned in the Philistines' land many days.

CHAPTER 22

AND it came to pass after these things, that God did [3] tempt Abraham, and said unto him, Abraham: and he said, Behold, here I am.

2 And he said, Take now thy son, thine only son [b] Isaac, whom thou lovest, and get thee into the land of [d] Mō-rī'ăh; and offer him there for a [e] burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell thee of.

3 ¶ And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and saddled his [g] ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son, and clave the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went unto the place of which God had told him.

4 Then on the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off.

5 And Abraham said unto his young men, Abide ye here with the ass; and I and the lad will go yonder and [a] worship, and come again to you.

6 And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering, and laid it upon Isaac his son; and he took the fire in his hand, and a knife; and they went both of them together.

7 And Isaac spake unto Abraham his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood: but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?

8 And Abraham said, My son, [h] God will provide himself [k] a lamb for a burnt offering: so they went both of them together.

9 And they came to the place which God had told him of; and Abraham [o] built an altar there, and laid the wood in order, and bound Isaac his son, and [q] laid him on the altar upon the wood.

10 And Abraham stretched forth his hand, and took the knife to slay his son.

11 And [s] the angel of the LORD called unto him out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham: and he said, Here am I.

12 And he said, [t] Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him: for now I know that thou [x] fearest God, seeing thou hast not [z] withheld thy son, thine only son from me.

13 And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold behind him a [c] ram caught in a thicket by his horns: and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering in the stead of his son.

14 And Abraham called the name of that place [4] Jĕ-hō-văh–jī-rēh: as it is said to this day, In the [g] mount of the LORD [5] it shall be seen.

15 ¶ And the angel of the LORD called unto Abraham out of heaven the second time,

16 And said, [h] By myself have I sworn, saith the LORD, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son:

17 That in blessing [i] I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed [b] as the stars of the heaven, and [c] as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the [d] gate of his enemies;

18 And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth [2e] be blessed; because thou hast [f] obeyed my voice.

19 So Abraham returned unto his young men, and they rose up and went together to [g] Beer–sheba; and Abraham dwelt at Beer–sheba.

20 ¶ And it came to pass after these things, that it was told Abraham, saying, Behold, [i] Milcah, she hath also born children unto thy brother [l] Nā-hôr;

21 [m] Huz his firstborn, and [n] Buz his brother, and Kĕ-mū-ĕl the father of Aram, 22 And Chĕs-ĕd, and Hazo, and Pildash, and Jidlaph, and [p] Bĕ-thū-ĕl.

23 And Bĕ-thū-ĕl begat [r] Rebekah: these eight Milcah did bear to Nā-hôr, Abraham's brother.

24 And his concubine, whose name was Rĕû-māh, she bare also Tebah, and Gaham, and Thā-hăsh, and Mā-ă-chäh.

CHAPTER 23

AND [u] Sarah was an hundred and seven and twenty years old: these were the years of the life of Sarah.

2 And Sarah died in [y] Kĭr-jăth–är-bă; the same is [a] Hebron in the land of Cā-nă-ăn: and Abraham came to [b] mourn for Sarah, and to weep for her.

3 ¶ And Abraham stood up from before his dead, and spake unto the sons of [d] Heth, saying,

4 [e] I am a [3] stranger and a sojourner with you: give me a [f] possession of a buryingplace with you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight.

5 And the children of Heth answered Abraham, saying unto him,

6 Hear us, my lord: thou art a [6] mighty prince among us: in the choice of our sepulchres bury thy dead; none of us shall withhold from thee his sepulchre, but that thou mayest bury thy dead.

7 And Abraham stood up, and

CHAPTER 24

AND Abraham was old, and well stricken in age: and the LORD [c] had blessed Abraham in all things.

2 And Abraham said unto his eldest [e] servant of his house, that [f] ruled over all that he had, [g] Put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh:

3 And I will make thee [i] swear by the LORD, the [l] God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that [m] thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Cā'nă-ăn-ītes, among whom I dwell:

4 [n] But thou shalt go unto my country, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son [o] Isaac.

5 And the servant said unto him, Peradventure the woman will not be willing to follow me unto this land: must I needs bring thy son again unto the land from whence thou camest?

6 And Abraham said unto him, Beware thou that thou bring not my son thither again.

7 ¶ The LORD God of heaven, which [q] took me from my father's house, and from the land of my kindred, and which spake unto me, and that sware unto me, saying, [r] Unto thy seed will I give this land; [s] he shall send his angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife unto my son from thence.

8 And if the woman will not be willing to follow thee, then thou shalt [y] be clear from this my oath: only bring not my son thither again.

9 And the servant [z] put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and sware to him concerning that matter.

10 ¶ And the servant took ten camels of the camels of his master, and departed; [a] for all the goods of his master were in his hand: and he arose, and went to [a] Mĕs-ŏ-pŏ-tā'-mĭ-ă, unto the [b] city of [c] Nā'-hôr.

11 And he made his camels to kneel down without the city by a [f] well of water at the time of the evening, even the time that [g] women go out to draw water.

12 And he said, O LORD [h] God of my master Abraham, I pray thee, send me [i] good speed this day, and shew kindness unto my master Abraham.

13 Behold, I stand here by the well of water; and the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water:

14 And let it come to pass, that the damsel to whom I shall say, Let down thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drink; and she shall say, Drink, and I will give thy [m] camels drink also: let the same be she that thou hast appointed for thy servant Isaac; and [q] thereby shall I know that thou hast [r] shewed kindness unto my master.

15 ¶ And it came to pass, [s] before he had done speaking, that, behold, [t] Rebekah came out, who was born to [x] Bĕ-thū'-ĕl, son of [y] Milcah, the wife of Nā'-hôr, Abraham's brother, with her pitcher upon her shoulder.

16 And the damsel was very [a] fair to look upon, a virgin, neither had any man known her: and she went down to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came up.

17 And the servant ran to meet her, and said, Let me, I pray thee, drink a little water of thy pitcher.

18 And she said, Drink, my lord: and she hasted, and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink.

19 And when she had done giving him drink, she said, I will draw water for thy camels also, until they have done drinking.

20 And she hasted, and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again unto the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels.

21 And the man wondering at her held his peace, to wit [f] whether the LORD had made his journey [g] prosperous or not.

22 And it came to pass, as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden [d] earring of [2] half a shē'-kĕl weight, and two [e] bracelets for her hands of ten shekels weight of gold;

23 And said, Whose daughter art thou? tell me, I pray thee: is there room in thy father's house for us to lodge in?

24 And she said unto him, I am the [k] daughter of Bĕ-thū'-ĕl the son of Milcah, which she bare unto Nā'-hôr.

25 She said moreover unto him, We have both straw and provender enough, and room to lodge in.

26 And the man bowed down his head, and [l] worshipped the LORD.

27 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of my master Abraham, who hath not left destitute my master of his [n] mercy and his [o] truth: I being in the way, the LORD [p] led me to the house of my master's brethren.

28 And the damsel ran, and told them of her mother's house these things.

29 ¶ And Rebekah had a brother, and his name was [u] Laban: and Laban [z] ran out unto the man, unto the well.

30 And it came to pass, when he saw the earring and bracelets upon his sister's hands, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, Thus spake the man unto me; that he came unto the man; and, behold, he stood by the camels at the well.

31 And he said, [b] Come in, [c] thou blessed of the LORD; wherefore standest thou without? for I have prepared the house, and room for the camels.

32 ¶ And the man came into the house: and he ungirded his camels, and gave [d] straw and provender for the camels, and water to [e] wash his feet, and the men's feet that were with him.

33 And there was set meat before him to eat: but he said, I will not eat, until I have told mine errand. And he said, Speak on.

34 And he said, I am Abraham's servant.

35 And the LORD hath blessed my master greatly; and he is become great: and he [h] hath given him flocks, and herds, and silver, and gold, and menservants, and maidservants, and camels, and asses.

36 And [a] Sarah my master's wife [b] bare a son to my master when she was old: and [c] unto him hath he given all that he hath.

37 And my master made me swear, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the Cā'nă-ăn-ītes, in whose land I dwell:

38 But thou shalt go unto my father's house, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son.

39 And I said unto my master, Peradventure the woman will not follow me.

40 And he said unto me, The LORD, [g] before whom I walk, will send his angel with thee, and prosper thy way; and thou shalt take a wife for my son of my kindred, and of my father's house:

41 Then shalt thou be clear from this my oath, when thou comest to my kindred; and if they give not thee one, thou shalt be clear from my oath.

42 And I came this day unto the well, and said, O LORD God of my master Abraham, if now thou do prosper my way which I go:

43 Behold, I stand by the well of water; and it shall come to pass, that when the virgin cometh forth to draw water, and I say to her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher to drink;

44 And she say to me, Both drink thou, and I will also draw for thy camels: let the same be the woman whom the LORD hath appointed out for my master's son.

45 And before I had done speaking [i] in mine heart, behold, Rebekah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down unto the well, and drew water: and I said unto her, Let me drink, I pray thee.

46 And she made haste, and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: so I drank, and she made the camels drink also.

47 And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she said, The daughter of Bĕ-thū'ĕl, Nā'hôr's son, whom Milcah barè unto him: and I put [2] the earring upon her face, and the bracelets upon her hands.

48 And I bowed down my head, and worshipped the LORD, and blessed the LORD God of my master Abraham, which had led me in the right way to take my master's brother's daughter unto his son.

49 And now if ye will [d] deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me: and if not, tell me; that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left.

50 Then Laban and Bĕ-thū'ĕl answered and said, The thing [e] proceedeth from the LORD: we cannot speak unto thee [f] bad or good.

51 Behold, Rebekah is before thee, take her, and go, and let her be thy master's son's wife, as the LORD hath spoken.

52 And it came to pass, that, when Abraham's servant heard their words, he worshipped the LORD, bowing himself to the earth.

53 And the servant brought forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment, and gave them to Rebekah: he gave also to her brother and to her mother [h] precious things.

54 And they did eat and drink, he and the men that were with him, and tarried all night; and they rose up in the morning, and he said, Send me away unto my master.

55 And her brother and her mother said, Let the damsel abide with us a few days, at the least ten; after that she shall go.

56 And he said unto them, Hinder me not, seeing the LORD hath prospered my way; send me away that I may go to my master.

57 And they said, We will call the damsel, and enquire at her mouth.

58 And they called Rebekah, and said unto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And she said, I will go.

59 And they sent away Rebekah their sister, and her [k] nurse, and Abraham's servant, and his men.

60 And [l] they blessed Rebekah, and said unto her, Thou art our sister, be thou the mother of [m] thousands of 8 Then Abraham [a] gave up the ghost, and died in a [c] good old age, an old man, and full of years; and [d] was gathered to his [2] people.

9 And his sons Isaac and [e] Ishmael buried him in the cave of [f] Măch-pē'läh, in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite, which is before Mamre;

10 [i] The field which Abraham purchased of the sons of Heth: there was Abraham buried, and [k] Sarah his wife.

11 ¶ And it came to pass after the death of Abraham, that God [l] blessed his son Isaac; and Isaac dwelt by the [n] well Lā'hâi-rôi.

12 ¶ Now [o] these are the generations of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom [p] Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's handmaid, bare unto Abraham:

13 [q] And these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations: the firstborn of Ishmael, [r] Nĕ-bā'jōth; and [s] Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam,

14 And Mishma, and [t] Dumah, and Massa,

15 [3] Hadar, and [t] Tema, [x] Jetur, Nā'phĭsh, and Kē'dĕ-mäh:

16 [y] These are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their [4] towns, and by their [5] castles; [a] twelve princes according to their [b] nations.

17 And these are the years of the life of Ishmael, an hundred and thirty and seven years: and he [d] gave up the ghost and died; and [d] was gathered unto his people.

18 And they dwelt from [h] Hăv'ī-läh unto [i] Shur, that is before Egypt, as thou goest toward [k] Assyria: and he [6] died in the presence of all his brethren.

19 ¶ And [m] these are the generations of Isaac, Abraham's son: Abraham begat Isaac:

20 And Isaac was forty years old when he took [p] Rebekah to wife, the daughter of [q] Bĕ-thū'ĕl the [7] Syrian of [s] Pā'dăn-aram, the sister to [t] Laban the Syrian.

21 And Isaac intreated the LORD for his wife, because she was barren: and the LORD [x] was intreated of him, and Rebekah his wife [y] conceived.

22 And the children struggled together within her; and she said, If it be so, why am I thus? And she went to [d]enquire of the LORD.

23 And the LORD said unto her, [g]Two nations are in thy womb, and two manner of people shall be separated from thy bowels; and the one people shall be stronger than the other people; and [l]the elder shall serve the younger.

24 ¶ And when her days to be delivered were fulfilled, behold, there were twins in her womb.

25 And the first came out red, [n]all over like an [p]hairy garment; and they called his name [r]Esau.

26 And after that came his brother out, and [t]his hand took hold on Esau's heel; and [u]his name was called [2x]Jacob: and Isaac was threescore years old when she bare them.

27 And the boys grew: and Esau was a cunning [a]hunter, a man of the field; and Jacob was a [3]plain man, [d]dwelling in tents.

28 And Isaac loved Esau, because he [f]did eat of his venison: but Rebekah loved Jacob.

29 ¶ And Jacob sod pottage: and Esau came from the field, and he was faint:

30 And Esau said to Jacob, Feed me, I pray thee, with that same red pottage; for I am faint: therefore was his name called [h]Edom.

31 And Jacob said, Sell me [4]this day thy [i]birthright.

32 And Esau said, Behold, I am at the point to die: and what profit shall this birthright do to me?

33 And Jacob said, Swear to me this day; and he sware unto him: and he [l]sold his birthright unto Jacob.

34 Then Jacob gave Esau bread and pottage of [m]lentiles; and he did eat and drink, and rose up, and went his way: thus Esau [i]despised his birthright.

CHAPTER 26

AND there was a [p]famine in the land, beside the [q]first famine that was in the days of Abraham. And [r]Isaac went unto [s]Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch king of the Philistines unto [t]Gerar.

2 And the LORD [a]appeared unto him, and said, [b]Go not down into Egypt; dwell in [c]the land which I shall tell thee of:

3 [e]Sojourn in this land, and [f]I will be with thee, and [h]will bless thee; for [i]unto thee, and unto thy seed, I will give all these countries, and I will perform [k]the oath which I sware unto Abraham thy father;

4 And I will make thy seed to multiply as the [m]stars of heaven, and will give unto thy seed all these countries; and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth [o]be blessed;

5 Because that Abraham [q]obeyed my voice, and [s]kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws.

6 ¶ And Isaac dwelt in Gerar:

7 And the men of the place asked him of his wife; and he said, She is [y]my sister: for [z]he feared to say, She is my wife; lest, said he, the men of the place should [b]kill me for [c]Rebekah; because she was [e]fair to look upon.

8 And it came to pass, when he had been there a long time, that Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch king of the Philistines looked out at a window, and saw, and, behold, Isaac was [g]sporting with Rebekah his wife.

9 And Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch called Isaac, and said, Behold, of a surety she is thy wife: and how saidst thou, She is my sister? And Isaac said unto him, Because I said, Lest I die for her.

10 And Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch said, What is this thou hast done unto us? one of the people might lightly have lien with thy wife, and thou shouldest have [k]brought guiltiness upon us.

11 And Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch charged all his people, saying, He that toucheth this man or his wife shall surely be put to death.

12 Then Isaac sowed in that land, and received in the same year an [n]hundredfold: and the LORD [o]blessed him.

13 And the man waxed great, and went forward, and grew until he became very great:

14 For he had possession of flocks, and [a] possession of herds, and great store of servants: and the Philistines [c] envied him.

15 For all the wells [d] which his father's servants had digged in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines had stopped them, and filled them with earth.

16 And Ăb-ĭm'ĕ-lĕch said unto Isaac, Go from us; for thou art much [g] mightier than we.

17 ¶ And Isaac departed thence, and pitched his tent in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there.

18 And Isaac digged again the [i] wells of water, which they had digged in the days of Abraham his father; for the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham: and he [l] called their names after the names by which his father had called them.

19 And Isaac's servants digged in the valley, and found there a well of [2]springing water.

20 And the herdmen of Gerar did strive with Isaac's herdmen, saying, The water is our's: and he called the name of the well [3]Esek; because they [m] strove with him.

21 And they digged another well, and strove for that also: and he called the name of it [4]Sitnah.

22 And he removed from thence, and digged another well; and for that they strove not: and he called the name of it [5]Rē'hŏ-bōth; and he said, For now the LORD hath made room for us, and we shall be fruitful in the land.

23 And he went up from thence to [t] Beer-sheba.

24 And the LORD [u] appeared unto him the same night, and said, I am [y] the God of Abraham thy father: [z] fear not, for I am with thee, and will bless thee, and [a] multiply thy seed for my servant [b] Abraham's sake.

25 And he [d] builded an altar there, and [e] called upon the name of the LORD, and pitched his tent there: and there Isaac's servants digged a well.

26 ¶ Then Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch went to him from Gerar, and Ă-hŭz'zăth one of his [g] friends, and [h] Phĭ'chŏl the chief captain of his army.

27 And Isaac said unto them, Wherefore come ye to me, seeing ye [b] hate me, and have sent me away from you?

28 And they said, We saw certainly that [e] the LORD was with thee: and we said, Let there be now an oath betwixt us, even betwixt us and thee, and let us make a [f] covenant with thee;

30 And he made them a feast, and they did eat and drink.

31 And they rose up betimes in the morning, and [k] sware one to another: and Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace.

32 And it came to pass the same day, that Isaac's servants came, and told him concerning the well which they had digged, and said unto him, We have found water.

33 And he called it Shebah: therefore the name of the city is Beer-sheba unto this day.

34 ¶ And [n] Esau was forty years old when he [o] took to wife Judith the daughter of Bĕĕr'ī the [p] Hittite, and [q] Băsh'ĕ-măth the daughter of Elon the Hittite:

35 Which were a grief of mind unto Isaac and to Rebekah.

CHAPTER 27

AND it came to pass, that when [r] Isaac was old, and [s] his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called [x] Esau his eldest son, and said unto him, My son: and he said unto him, Behold, here am I.

2 And he said, Behold now, I am old, I know not the day of my death:

3 [c] Now therefore take, I pray thee, thy weapons, thy quiver and thy bow, and go out to the field, and take me some venison;

4 And make me savoury meat, such as I love, and bring it to me, that I may eat; that my soul may [f] bless thee before I die.

5 And [i] Rebekah heard when Isaac spake to Esau his son. And Esau went to the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it.

19th c. B.C.

6 ¶ And Rebekah spake unto Jacob her son, saying, Behold, I heard thy father speak unto Esau thy brother, saying,

7 Bring me venison, and make me savoury meat, that I may eat, and bless thee [a] before the LORD before my death.

8 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice according to that which I command thee.

9 Go now to the flock, and fetch me from thence two good kids of the goats; and I will make them savoury meat for thy father, such as he loveth:

10 And thou shalt bring it to thy father, that he may eat, and that he may bless thee before his death.

11 And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, Behold, Esau my brother is a [b] hairy man, and I am a smooth man:

12 My father peradventure will feel me, and I shall seem to him as a [3] deceiver; and I shall bring a [d] curse upon me, and not a blessing.

13 And his mother said unto him, [g] Upon me be thy curse, my son: only obey my voice, and go fetch me them.

14 And he went, and fetched, and brought them to his mother: and his mother made savoury meat, such as his father loved.

15 And Rebekah took goodly raiment of her eldest son Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them upon Jacob her younger son:

16 And she put the skins of the kids of the goats upon his hands, and upon the smooth of his neck:

17 And she gave the savoury meat and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob.

18 ¶ And he came unto his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I; who art thou, my son?

19 And Jacob said unto his father, I am Esau thy firstborn; I have done according as thou badest me: arise, I pray thee, sit and eat of my venison, that thy soul may bless me.

20 And Isaac said unto his son, How is it that thou hast found it so quickly, my son? And he said, Because the LORD thy God [2] brought it to me.

21 And Isaac said unto Jacob, Come near, I pray thee, that I may feel thee, my son, whether thou be my very son Esau or not.

22 And Jacob went near unto Isaac his father; and he felt him, and said, The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau.

23 And he discerned him not, because his hands were hairy, as his brother Esau's hands: so he blessed him.

24 And he said, Art thou my very son Esau? And he said, I am.

25 And he said, Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, that my soul may bless thee. And he brought it near to him, and he did eat: and he brought him wine, and he drank.

26 And his father Isaac said unto him, Come near now, and kiss me, my son.

27 And he came near, and [c] kissed him: and he smelled the smell of his raiment, and [e] blessed him, and said, See, the [f] smell of my son is as the smell of a field which the LORD hath blessed:

28 Therefore God give thee of the [h] dew of heaven, and the [4] fatness of the earth, and plenty of [i] corn and [5] wine:

29 Let people serve thee, and nations [k] bow down to thee: [l] be lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother's sons bow down to thee: [m] cursed be every one that curseth thee, and [n] blessed be he that blesseth thee.

30 ¶ And it came to pass, as soon as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob was yet scarce gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting.

31 And he also had made savoury meat, and brought it unto his father, and said unto his father, Let my father arise, and eat of his son's venison, that thy soul may bless me.

32 And Isaac his father said unto him, Who art thou? And he said, I am thy son, thy firstborn Esau.

33 And Isaac trembled very exceedingly, and said, Who? where is he that hath taken venison, and brought it me, and I have eaten of all before thou camest, and have blessed him? yea, and he shall be blessed.

34 And when Esau heard the words of his father, he [d]cried with a great and exceeding bitter cry, and said unto his father, Bless me, even me also, O my father.

35 And he said, Thy brother came with [e]subtilty, and hath taken away thy blessing.

36 And he said, Is not he rightly [h]named Jacob? for he hath supplanted me these two times: he [i]took away my [k]birthright; and, behold, now he hath taken away my blessing. And he said, Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me?

37 And Isaac answered and said unto Esau, Behold, I have made him thy lord, and all his brethren have I given to him for servants; and with corn and wine have I sustained him: and what shall I do now unto thee, my son?

38 And Esau said unto his father, Hast thou but one blessing, my father? bless me, even me also, O my father. And Esau [u]lifted up his voice, and wept.

39 And Isaac his father answered and said unto him, Behold, thy dwelling shall be the [y]fatness of the earth, and of the dew of heaven from above;

40 And by thy sword shalt thou live, and shalt serve thy brother; and it shall come to pass when thou [2]shalt have the dominion, that thou shalt [b]break his [c]yoke from off thy neck.

41 ¶ And Esau [e]hated Jacob because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him: and Esau said in his heart, The [g]days of mourning for my father are at hand; then will I slay my brother Jacob.

42 And these words of Esau her elder son were told to Rebekah: and she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said unto him, Behold, thy brother Esau, as touching thee, doth comfort himself, purposing to kill thee.

43 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice; and arise, flee thou to [a]Laban my brother to [b]Haran;

45 Until thy brother's anger turn away from thee, and he forget that which thou hast done to him: then I will send, and fetch thee from thence: why should I be deprived also of you both in one day?

46 And Rebekah said to Isaac, I am weary of my life because of the daughters of [f]Heth: if Jacob [g]take a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these which are of the daughters of the land, what good shall my life do me?

9 Then went Esau unto Ishmael, and [b] took unto the wives which he had [c] Mā'hă-lăth the daughter of [d] Ishmael Abraham's son, the sister of [e] Nĕ-bā'jōth, to be his wife.

10 ¶ And Jacob went out from [h] Beer–sheba, and went toward [i] Haran.

11 And he lighted upon a certain place, and tarried there all night, because the sun was set; and he took of the stones of that place, and put them for his pillows, and lay down in that place to sleep.

12 And he [n] dreamed, and behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and behold the [p] angels of God [q] ascending and descending on it.

13 And, behold, [r] the LORD stood above it, and said, I am the LORD [s] God of Abraham thy father, and the [t] God of Isaac: the land whereon thou liest, to thee [u] will I give it, and to thy seed;

14 And thy seed shall be [x] as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spread abroad [y] to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south: and in thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth [c] be blessed.

15 And, behold, [d] I am with thee, and [f] will keep thee in all places whither thou goest, and [g] will bring thee again into this land; for I [k] will not leave thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of.

16 ¶ And Jacob awaked out of his sleep, and he said, Surely the LORD is [l] in this place; and I knew it not.

17 And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.

18 And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put for his pillows, and set it up for a [m] pillar, and [n] poured oil upon the top of it.

19 And he called the name of that place [o] Beth–el: but the name of that city was called [p] Luz at the first.

20 And Jacob [q] vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will [a] give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on,

21 So that I come again to my father's house in peace; then shall the LORD be [f] my God:

22 And this [g] stone, which I have set for a pillar, [k] shall be God's house: and of all that thou shalt give me I will surely give the [l] tenth unto thee.

CHAPTER 29

THEN Jacob went on his journey, and came into the land of the [m] people of the east.

2 And he looked, and behold a [o] well in the field, and, lo, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks: and a great stone was upon the well's mouth.

3 And thither were all the flocks gathered: and they rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again upon the well's mouth in his place.

4 And Jacob said unto them, My brethren, whence be ye? And they said, Of [z] Haran are we.

5 And he said unto them, Know ye [a] Laban the son of [b] Nā'hôr? And they said, We know him.

6 And he said unto them, [e] Is he well? And they said, He is well: and, behold, [h] Rachel his daughter [i] cometh with the sheep.

7 And he said, Lo, it is yet high day, neither is it time that the cattle should be gathered together: water ye the sheep, and go and feed them.

8 And they said, We cannot, until all the flocks be gathered together, and till they roll the stone from the well's mouth; then we water the sheep.

9 ¶ And while he yet spake with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep: for she kept them.

10 And it came to pass, when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, that Jacob went near, and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother.

11 And Jacob [a]kissed Rachel, and [b]lifted up his voice, and wept.

12 And Jacob told Rachel that he was her [d]father's brother, and that he was [e]Rebekah's son: and she ran and told her father.

13 And it came to pass, when Laban heard the tidings of Jacob his sister's son, that he [f]ran to meet him, and embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him to his house. And he told Laban all these things.

14 And Laban said to him, Surely thou art [h]my bone and my flesh. And he abode with him the space of a month.

15 ¶ And Laban said unto Jacob, Because thou art my brother, shouldest thou therefore serve me for nought? tell me, [l]what shall thy wages be?

16 And Laban had two daughters: the name of the elder was [n]Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.

17 Leah was tender eyed; but Rachel was [p]beautiful and well favoured.

18 And Jacob loved Rachel; and said, I will [q]serve thee [r]seven years for Rachel thy younger daughter.

19 And Laban said, It is better that I give her to thee, than that I should give her to another man: abide with me.

20 And Jacob served seven years for Rachel; and they seemed unto him but a few days, for the love he had to her.

21 ¶ And Jacob said unto Laban, Give me my wife, for my days are fulfilled, that I may go in unto her.

22 And Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a [z]feast.

23 And it came to pass in the evening, that he took Leah his daughter, and brought her to him; and he went in unto her.

24 And Laban gave unto his daughter Leah [d]Zilpah his maid for an handmaid.

25 And it came to pass, that in the morning, behold, it was Leah: and he said to Laban, What is this thou hast done unto me? did not I serve with thee for Rachel? wherefore then hast thou [h]beguiled me?

26 And Laban said, It must not be so done in our country, to give the younger before the firstborn.

27 [c]Fulfil her week, and we will give thee this also for the service which thou shalt serve with me yet seven other years.

28 And Jacob did so, and fulfilled her week: and he gave him Rachel his daughter to wife also.

29 And Laban gave to Rachel his daughter [g]Bilhah his handmaid to be her maid.

30 And he went in also unto Rachel, and he loved also Rachel more than Leah, and served with him yet seven other years.

31 ¶ And when [i]the LORD saw that Leah was [k]hated, he opened her womb: but Rachel was barren.

32 And Leah conceived, and bare a son, and she called his name [m]Reuben: for she said, Surely the LORD [o]hath looked upon my affliction; now therefore my husband will love me.

33 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and said, Because the LORD hath heard that I was hated, he hath therefore given me this son also: and she called his name [s]Simeon.

34 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and said, Now this time will my husband be [t]joined unto me, because I have born him three sons: therefore was his name called [u]Levi.

35 And she conceived again, and bare a son: and she said, Now [x]will I praise the LORD: therefore she called his name [y]Judah; and left bearing.

CHAPTER 30

AND when [a]Rachel saw that she bare Jacob [b]no children, Rachel [c]envied her sister; and said unto Jacob, Give me children, or else I die.

2 And Jacob's anger was kindled against Rachel: and he said, Am I [e]in God's stead, who hath withheld from thee the fruit of the womb?

3 And she said, Behold my maid [f]Bilhah, go in unto her; and she shall bear [g]upon my knees, that I may also [2]have children by her.

4 And she gave him Bilhah her handmaid to wife: and Jacob went in unto her.

5 And Bilhah conceived, and bare Jacob a son.

6 And Rachel said, God hath [b]judged me, and hath also [c]heard my voice, and hath given me a son: therefore called she his name [e]Dan.

7 And Bilhah Rachel's maid conceived again, and bare Jacob a second son.

8 And Rachel said, With [2]great wrestlings have I wrestled with my sister, and I have prevailed: and she called his name [i]Năph-tă-lī.

9 When [l]Leah saw that she had left bearing, she took [m]Zilpah her maid, and gave her Jacob to wife.

10 And Zilpah Leah's maid bare Jacob a son.

11 And Leah said, [4]A troop cometh: and she called his name [o]Gad.

12 And Zilpah Leah's maid bare Jacob a second son.

13 And Leah said, Happy am I, for the daughters will [q]call me [5]blessed: and she called his name [r]Asher.

14 ¶ And [t]Reuben went in the [u]days of wheat harvest, and found [x]mandrakes in the field, and brought them unto his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, Give me, I pray thee, of thy son's mandrakes.

15 And she said unto her, Is it a [c]small matter that thou hast taken my husband? and wouldest thou take away my son's mandrakes also? And Rachel said, Therefore he shall lie with thee to night for thy son's mandrakes.

16 And Jacob came out of the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him, and said, Thou must come in unto me; for surely I have hired thee with my son's mandrakes. And he lay with her that night.

17 And God hearkened unto Leah, and she conceived, and bare Jacob the fifth son.

18 And Leah said, God hath given me my hire, because I have given my maiden to my husband: and she called his name [f]Ĭs-să-chär.

19 And Leah conceived again, and bare Jacob the sixth son.

20 And Leah said, God hath endued me with a good dowry; now will my husband dwell with me, because I have born him six sons: and she called his name [a]Zĕ-bū-lŭn.

21 And afterwards she bare a daughter, and called her name [d]Dinah.

22 ¶ And God [f]remembered Rachel, and God hearkened to her, and opened her womb.

23 And she conceived, and bare a son; and said, God hath taken away [g]my reproach:

24 And she called his name [h]Joseph; and said, [k]The LORD [3]shall add to me another son.

25 ¶ And it came to pass, when Rachel had born Joseph, that Jacob said unto [n]Laban, Send me away, that I may go unto mine own place, and to my country.

26 Give me my wives and my children, for whom I have [p]served thee, and let me go: for thou knowest my service which I have done thee.

27 And Laban said unto him, I pray thee, if I have found [s]favour in thine eyes, tarry: for I have [6]learned by experience that the LORD [y]hath blessed me [z]for thy sake.

28 And he said, [a]Appoint me thy wages, and I will give it.

29 And he said unto him, Thou [b]knowest how I have served thee, and how thy cattle was with me.

30 For it was little which thou hadst before I came, and it is now increased unto a multitude; and the LORD hath blessed thee [7]since my coming: and now when shall I [d]provide for mine own house also?

31 And he said, What shall I give thee? And Jacob said, Thou shalt not give me any thing: if thou wilt do this thing for me, I will again feed and keep thy flock.

32 I will pass through all thy flock to day, removing from thence all the speckled and spotted cattle, and all the brown cattle among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats: and [e]of such shall be my hire.

33 So shall [g]my righteousness answer for me in time to come, when it shall come for my hire before thy face: every one that is not speckled and 35 And he removed that day the he goats that were ringstraked and spotted, and all the she goats that were speckled and spotted, and every one that had some white in it, and all the brown among the sheep, and gave them into the hand of his sons.

36 And he set [e] three days' journey betwixt himself and Jacob: and Jacob fed the rest of Laban's flocks.

37 ¶ And Jacob [g] took him rods of green [3]poplar, and of the [4]hazel and [5]chesnut tree; and pilled white strakes in them, and made the white appear which was in the rods.

38 And he set the rods which he had pilled before the flocks in the gutters in the [k] watering troughs when the flocks came to drink, that they should conceive when they came to drink.

39 And the flocks conceived before the rods, and brought forth cattle ringstraked, speckled, and spotted.

40 And Jacob did separate the lambs, and set the faces of the flocks toward the ringstraked, and all the brown in the flock of Laban; and he put his own flocks by themselves, and put them not unto Laban's cattle.

41 And it came to pass, whensoever the stronger cattle did conceive, that Jacob laid the rods before the eyes of the cattle in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods.

42 But when the cattle were feeble, he put them not in: so the feebler were Laban's, and the stronger Jacob's.

43 And the man increased exceedingly, and [u] had much cattle, and maidservants, and menservants, and camels, and asses.

2 And Jacob beheld the [a] countenance of Laban, and, behold, it was not toward him as before.

3 And the LORD said unto Jacob, [b] Return unto the land of thy fathers, and to thy kindred; and [c] I will be with thee.

4 And Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field unto his flock,

5 And said unto them, I see your father's countenance, that it is not toward me as before; but the [d] God of my father hath been with me.

6 And [f] ye know that with all my power I have served your father.

7 And your father hath [2]deceived me, and changed my wages [h] ten times; but God suffered him not to hurt me.

8 If he said thus, [i] The speckled shall be thy wages; then all the cattle bare speckled: and if he said thus, The ringstraked shall be thy hire; then bare all the cattle ringstraked.

9 Thus [l] God hath taken away the cattle of your father, and given them to me.

10 And it came to pass at the time that the cattle conceived, that I lifted up mine eyes, and saw in a [m] dream, and, behold, the rams which leaped upon the cattle were ringstraked, speckled, and [n] grisled.

11 And the [o] angel of God spake unto me in a dream, saying, Jacob: And I said, Here am I.

12 And he said, Lift up now thine eyes, and see, all the rams which leap upon the cattle are ringstraked, speckled, and grisled: for [p] I have seen all that Laban doeth unto thee.

13 I am the God of [q] Beth-el, where thou [r] anointedst the [s] pillar, and where thou vowedst a [t] vow unto me: now arise, get thee out from this land, and return unto the land of thy kindred.

14 And Rachel and [x] Leah answered and said unto him, Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house?

15 Are we not counted of him strangers? for he hath [z] sold us, and hath quite devoured also [6] our money.

16 For all the riches which God hath taken from our father, that is our's, and our children's: now then, whatsoever God hath said unto thee, do.

17 ¶ Then Jacob rose up, and set his sons and his wives upon camels;

18 And he carried away all his cattle, and all his goods which he had gotten, the cattle of his getting, which he had gotten in [c] Pā'dăn–aram, for to go to [e] Isaac his father in the [f] land of Cā'nă-ăn.

19 And Laban went to [g] shear his sheep: and [h] Rachel had [i] stolen the [2] images that were her father's.

20 And Jacob [3] stole away unawares to Laban the Syrian, in that he told him not that he fled.

21 So he fled with all that he had; and he rose up, and passed over [k] the river, and [l] set his face toward the mount [m] Gĭl'ĕ-ăd.

22 And it was told Laban on the third day that Jacob was fled.

23 And he took his brethren with him, and pursued after him seven days' journey; and they overtook him in the mount Gĭl'ĕ-ăd.

24 And God came to Laban the Syrian [o] in a dream by night, and said unto him, Take heed that thou speak not to Jacob either [p] good or bad.

25 ¶ Then Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mount: and Laban with his brethren pitched in the mount of Gĭl'ĕ-ăd.

26 And Laban said to Jacob, What hast thou done, that thou hast [q] stolen away unawares to me, and carried away my daughters, as captives taken with the sword?

27 Wherefore didst thou flee away secretly, and steal away from me; and didst not tell me, that I might have sent thee away with mirth, and with songs, with [r] tabret, and with [t] harp?

28 And hast not suffered me to kiss my sons and my daughters? thou hast now [u] done foolishly in so doing.

29 It is [x] in the power of my hand to do you hurt: but the [y] God of your father spake unto me yesternight, saying, Take thou heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad.

30 And now, though thou wouldest needs be gone, because thou sore longedst after thy father's house, yet wherefore hast thou [a] stolen my gods?

31 And Jacob answered and said to Laban, Because I [b] was afraid: for I said, Peradventure thou wouldest take by force thy daughters from me.

32 [d] With whomsoever thou findest thy gods, let him not live: before our brethren discern thou what is thine with me, and take it to thee. For Jacob knew not that Rachel had stolen them.

33 And Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the two maidservants' tents; but he found them not. Then went he out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent.

34 Now Rachel had taken the images, and put them in the camel's furniture, and sat upon them. And Laban searched all the tent, but found them not.

35 And she said to her father, Let it not displease my lord that I cannot rise up before thee; for the [n] custom of women is upon me. And he searched, but found not the images.

36 ¶ And Jacob was wroth, and chode with Laban: and Jacob answered and said to Laban, What is my trespass? what is my sin, that thou hast so hotly pursued after me?

37 Whereas thou hast searched all my stuff, what hast thou found of all thy household stuff? set it here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may judge betwixt us both.

38 This twenty years have I been with thee; thy ewes and thy she goats have not cast their young, and the rams of thy flock have I not eaten.

39 [s] That which was torn of beasts I brought not unto thee; I bare the loss of it; of my hand didst thou require it, whether stolen by day, or stolen by night.

40 Thus I was; in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep departed from mine eyes.

41 Thus have I been [z] twenty years in thy house; [a] I served thee fourteen

42 Except the God of my father, the [d] God of Abraham, and the [e] fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely thou hadst sent me away now empty. [f] God hath seen mine affliction and the labour of my hands, and [g] rebuked thee yesternight.

43 ¶ And Laban answered and said unto Jacob, These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and these cattle are my cattle, and all that thou seest is mine: and what can I do this day unto these my daughters, or unto their children which they have born?

44 Now therefore come thou, let us [m] make a covenant, I and thou; and let it be [n] for a witness between me and thee.

45 And Jacob took a [p] stone, and set it up for a [r] pillar.

46 And Jacob said unto his brethren, Gather stones; and they took stones, and made an heap: and they did eat there upon the heap.

47 And Laban called it [4] Jē'gär–sā-hă-dū'thă: but Jacob called it [5] Gā'lēed.

48 And Laban said, This heap is a witness between me and thee this day. Therefore was the name of it called Gā'lēed;

49 And [6] Mizpah; for he said, The LORD watch between me and thee, when we are [7] absent one from another.

50 If thou shalt afflict my daughters, or if thou shalt take other wives beside my daughters, no man is with us; see, [a] God is witness betwixt me and thee.

51 And Laban said to Jacob, Behold this heap, and behold this pillar, which I have cast betwixt me and thee;

52 This heap be witness, and this pillar be witness, that I will not pass over this heap to thee, and that thou shalt not pass over this heap and this pillar unto me, for harm.

53 The God of Abraham, and the God of [g] Nā'hôr, the [9] God of their father, [a] judge betwixt us. And Jacob [b] sware [c] by the fear of his father Isaac.

54 Then Jacob offered sacrifice upon the mount, and called his brethren to eat bread: and they did eat bread, and tarried all night in the mount.

55 And early in the morning Laban rose up, and [h] kissed his sons and his daughters, and [i] blessed them: and Laban departed, and returned unto his place.

AND Jacob went on his way, and the [k] angels of God met him.

2 And when Jacob saw them, he said, This is God's [2] host: and he called the name of that place [3 l] Mā-hă-nā'ĭm.

3 And Jacob sent messengers before him to [o] Esau his brother unto the land of [q] Seir, the country of Edom.

4 And he commanded them, saying, Thus shall ye speak unto my lord Esau; Thy servant Jacob saith thus, I have sojourned with [s] Laban, and stayed there until now:

5 And [t] I have oxen, and asses, flocks, and menservants, and womenservants: and I have sent to tell my lord, that I may [u] find grace in thy sight.

6 ¶ And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, We came to thy brother Esau, and also [x] he cometh to meet thee, and four hundred men with him.

7 Then Jacob was [y] greatly afraid and [z] distressed: and he divided the people that was with him, and the flocks, and herds, and the camels, into two bands;

8 And said, If Esau come to the one company, and smite it, then the other company which is left shall escape.

9 ¶ And Jacob said, O [b] God of my father Abraham, and [c] God of my father Isaac, the LORD which saidst unto me, [d] Return unto thy country, and to thy kindred, and I will deal well with thee:

18 Then thou shalt say, They be thy servant Jacob's; it is a present sent unto my lord Esau: and, behold, also he is behind us.

19 And so commanded he the second, and the third, and all that followed the droves, saying, On this manner shall ye speak unto Esau, when ye find him.

20 And say ye moreover, Behold, thy servant Jacob is behind us. For he said, I will [5]appease him with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see his face; peradventure he will [t] accept of me.

21 So went the present over before him: and himself lodged that night in the company.

22 And he rose up that night, and took his two wives, and his two womenservants, and his eleven sons, and passed over the ford [y] Jabbok.

24 ¶ And Jacob was left alone; and there [c] wrestled [d] a man with him until the breaking of the day.

25 And when he saw that he prevailed not against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh; and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was out of joint, as he wrestled with him.

26 And he said, Let me go, for the day breaketh. And he said, [g] I will not let thee go, except thou bless me.

27 And he said unto him, What is thy name? And he said, Jacob.

28 And he said, [i] Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but [2]Israel: for as a prince [3]hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed.

29 And Jacob asked him, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, thy name. And he said, [l] Wherefore is it that thou dost ask after my name? And he [m]blessed him there.

30 And Jacob called the name of the place Pĕn-ĭ-ĕl: for I have [n] seen God face to face, and [o] my life is preserved.

31 And as he passed over [4][p] Pĕn-ū-ĕl the sun rose upon him, and he halted upon his thigh.

32 Therefore the children of Israel eat not of the sinew which shrank, which is upon the hollow of the thigh, unto this day: because he touched the hollow of Jacob's thigh in the sinew that shrank.

CHAPTER 33

AND Jacob lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, [q] Esau came, and with him four hundred men. And he divided the children unto [r] Leah, and unto [s] Rachel, and unto the two handmaids.

2 And he put the handmaids and their children foremost, and Leah and her children after, and Rachel and [u] Joseph hindermost.

3 And he passed over before them, and bowed himself to the ground [x] seven times, until he came near to his brother.

4 And Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck, and [b]kissed him: and they wept.

5 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children; and said, Who are those with thee? And he said, The children which [c]God hath graciously given thy servant.

6 Then the handmaidens came near, they and their children, and they bowed themselves.

7 And Leah also with her children came near, and bowed themselves: and after came Joseph near and Rachel, and they bowed themselves.

8 And he said, [k]What meanest thou by all this drove which I met? And he said, These are to [m]find grace in the sight of my lord.

9 And Esau said, I have enough, my brother; keep that thou hast unto thyself.

10 And Jacob said, Nay, I pray thee, if now I have found grace in thy sight, then receive my [r]present at my hand: for therefore I [s]have seen thy face, as though I had seen the face of God, and thou wast pleased with me.

11 Take, I pray thee, my [t]blessing that is brought to thee; because God hath [x]dealt graciously with me, and because I have enough. And he [z]urged him, and he took it.

12 And he said, Let us take our journey, and let us go, and I will go before thee.

13 And he said unto him, My lord knoweth that the children are tender, and the flocks and herds with young are with me: and if men should overdrive them one day, all the flock will die.

14 Let my lord, I pray thee, pass over before his servant: and I will lead on softly, according as the cattle that goeth before me and the children be able to endure, until I come unto my lord unto [c]Seir.

15 And Esau said, Let me now leave with thee some of the folk that are with me. And he said, What needeth it? let me find grace in the sight of my lord.

18 ¶ And Jacob came to [2]Shalem, a city of [d]Shē'-chĕm, which is in the [e]land of Cā'-nă-ăn, when he came from [f]Pā'-dăn-aram; and pitched his tent before the city.

19 And [g]he bought a parcel of a field, where he had spread his tent, at the hand of the children of [h]Hamor, Shē'-chĕm's father, for an hundred [i]pieces of money.

20 And he erected there an [l]altar, and called it [3]Ĕl-ĕl'-ō-hē-Israel.

CHAPTER 34

AND [n]Dinah the daughter of [o]Leah, which she bare unto Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the land.

2 And when Shē'-chĕm the son of [p]Hamor the [q]Hivite, prince of the country, saw her, he took her, and lay with her, and defiled her.

3 And his soul clave unto Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the damsel, and [4u]spake kindly unto the damsel.

4 And Shē'-chĕm spake unto his father Hamor, saying, [y]Get me this damsel to wife.

5 And Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter: now his sons were with his cattle in the field: and Jacob held his peace until they were come.

6 ¶ And Hamor the father of Shē'-chĕm went out unto Jacob to commune with him.

7 And the sons of Jacob came out of the field when they heard it: and the men were grieved, and they were very wroth, because he had [a]wrought [5]folly in Israel in lying with Jacob's daughter; which thing [b]ought not to be done.

8 And Hamor communed with them, saying, The soul of my son Shē'-chĕm longeth for your daughter: I pray you give her him to wife.

12 Ask me never so much [e] dowry and gift, and I will give according as ye shall say unto me: but give me the damsel to wife.

13 And the sons of Jacob answered Shē'-chĕm and Hamor his father [h] deceitfully, and said, because he had defiled Dinah their sister:

14 And they said unto them, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one that is [k] uncircumcised; for that were a [l] reproach unto us:

15 But in this will we consent unto you: If ye will be as we be, that every male of you be circumcised;

16 Then will we give our daughters unto you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people.

17 But if ye will not hearken unto us, to be circumcised; then will we take our daughter, and we will be gone.

18 And their words pleased Hamor, and Shē'-chĕm Hamor's son.

19 And the young man deferred not to do the thing, because he had delight in Jacob's daughter: and [r] he was more honourable than all the house of his father.

20 ¶ And Hamor and Shē'-chĕm his son came unto the [s] gate of their city, and communed with the men of their city, saying,

21 These men are peaceable with us; therefore let them dwell in the land, and trade therein; for the land, behold, it is large enough for them; let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters.

22 Only herein will the men consent unto us for to dwell with us, to be one people, if every male among us be circumcised, as they are circumcised.

23 Shall not their cattle and their substance and every beast of their's be our's? only let us consent unto them, and they will dwell with us.

24 And unto Hamor and unto Shē'-chĕm his son hearkened all that went out of the gate of his city; and every male was circumcised, all that went out of the gate of his city.

25 ¶ And it came to pass on the third day, when they were sore, that two of the sons of Jacob, [f] Simeon and [g] Levi, Dinah's brethren, took each man his sword, and came upon the city [2]boldly, and slew all the males.

26 And they [i] slew Hamor and Shē'-chĕm his son [3]with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went out.

27 The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and spoiled the city, because they had defiled their sister.

28 They took their sheep, and their oxen, and their asses, and that which was in the city, and that which was in the field.

29 And all their wealth, and all their little ones, and their wives took they captive, and spoiled even all that was in the house.

30 And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, Ye have [m] troubled me to [n] make me to stink among the inhabitants of the land, among the [o] Cā'-nă-ăn-ītes and the [p] Pĕ-rĭz'-zītes: and I being [q] few in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and slay me; and I shall be destroyed, I and my house.

of Elon the [a] Hittite, and Ă-hŏl-ĭ-bā'-măh the daughter of Anah the [2] daughter of Zibeon the [b] Hivite;

3 And [c] Băsh'-ĕ-măth [d] Ishmael's daughter, sister of [e] Nĕ-bā'-jŏth.

4 And Adah bare to Esau [f] Ĕ-lī'-phăz; and Băsh'-ĕ-măth bare Rĕû'-ĕl;

5 And Ă-hŏl-ĭ-bā'-măh bare Jē'-ŭsh, and Jā'-ă-lăm, and Korah: these are the sons of Esau, which were born unto him in [g] the land of Cā'-nă-ăn.

6 And Esau took his wives, and his sons, and his daughters, and all the persons of his house, and his cattle, and all his beasts, and all his substance, which he had got in the land of Cā'-nă-ăn; and went into the country from the face of his brother Jacob.

7 [i] For their riches were more than that they might dwell together; and [l] the land wherein they were strangers could not bear them [m] because of their cattle.

8 Thus [n] dwelt Esau in mount [o] Seir: [p] Esau is Edom.

9 ¶ And these are the generations of Esau the father of the Edomites in mount [o] Seir:

10 [q] These are the names of Esau's sons; Ĕ-lī'-phăz the son of Adah the wife of Esau, Rĕû'-ĕl the son of Băsh'-ĕ-măth the wife of Esau.

11 And the sons of Ĕ-lī'-phăz were Teman, Omar, Zē'-phō, and Gā'-tăm, and [r] Kenaz.

12 And Timna was concubine to Ĕ-lī'-phăz Esau's son; and she bare to Eliphaz [t] Ăm'-ă-lĕk: these were the sons of Adah Esau's wife.

13 And these are the sons of Rĕû'-ĕl; Nā'-hăth, and Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah: these were the sons of Băsh'-ĕ-măth Esau's wife.

14 ¶ And these were the sons of Ă-hŏl-ĭ-bā'-măh, the daughter of Anah the daughter of Zibeon, Esau's wife: and she bare to Esau Jē'-ŭsh, and Jā'-ă-lăm, and Korah.

15 ¶ [x] These were [5] dukes of the sons of Esau: the sons of Ĕ-lī'-phăz the firstborn son of Esau; duke Teman, duke Omar, duke Zē'-phō, duke Kenaz, 16 Duke Korah, duke Gā'-tăm, and duke Ăm'-ă-lĕk: these are the dukes that came of Ĕ-lī'-phăz in the land of Edom; these were the sons of Adah.

17 ¶ And these are the sons of Rĕû'-ĕl Esau's son; duke Nā'-hăth, duke Zerah, duke Shammah, duke Mizzah: these are the dukes that came of Reuel in the land of Edom; these are the sons of Băsh'-ĕ-măth Esau's wife.

18 ¶ And these are the sons of Ă-hŏl-ĭ-bā'-măh Esau's wife; duke Jē'-ŭsh, duke Jā'-ă-lăm, duke Korah: these were the dukes that came of Aholibamah the daughter of Anah, Esau's wife.

19 These are the sons of Esau, who is Edom, and these are their dukes.

20 ¶ [h] These are the sons of Seir the [k] Horite, who inhabited the land; Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah, 21 And Dishon, and Ezer, and Dishan: these are the dukes of the Horites, the children of Seir in the land of Edom.

22 And the children of Lotan were Hôr'-ī and Hemam; and Lotan's sister was Timna.

23 And the children of Shobal were these; Alvan, and Măn'-ă-hăth, and Ebal, Shepho, and Onam.

24 And these are the children of Zibeon; both Ajah, and Anah: this was that Anah that found the [3] mules in the wilderness, as he fed the [s] asses of Zibeon his father.

25 And the children of Anah were these; Dishon, and Ă-hŏl-ĭ-bā'-măh the daughter of Anah.

26 And these are the children of Dishon; Hemdan, and Eshban, and Ithran, and Chē'-răn.

27 The children of Ezer are these; Bilhan, and Zā'-ă-văn, and [4] Akan.

28 The children of Dishan are these; [u] Uz, and Aran.

29 These are the dukes that came of the Horites; duke Lotan, duke Shobal, duke Zibeon, duke Anah, 30 Duke Dishon, duke Ezer, duke Dishan: these are the dukes that came of Hôr'-ī, among their dukes in the land of Seir.

31 ¶ [y] And these are the [z] kings that [a] reigned in the land of Edom, before

CHAPTER 37

AND [p]Jacob dwelt in the [q]land wherein his father was a stranger, in the [r]land of Cā'nă-ăn.

2 [s]These are the generations of Jacob. [u]Joseph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brethren; and the lad was with the sons of [x]Bilhah, and with the sons of [z]Zilpah, his father's wives: and Joseph brought unto his father their [a]evil report.

3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the [b]son of his old age: and he [c]made him a [2]coat of many colours.

4 And when his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren, they [e]hated him, and could not speak peaceably unto him.

5 ¶ And Joseph [f]dreamed a dream, and he told it his brethren: and they hated him yet the more.

6 And he said unto them, Hear, I pray you, this dream which I have dreamed:

7 For, behold, we were binding [h]sheaves in the field, and, lo, my sheaf arose, and also stood upright; and, behold, your sheaves stood round about, and [i]made obeisance to my sheaf.

8 And his brethren said to him, Shalt thou indeed reign over us? or shalt thou indeed have dominion over us? And they hated him yet the more for his dreams, and for his words.

9 ¶ And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren, and said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream more; and, behold, the sun and the moon and the eleven stars made obeisance to me.

10 And he told it to his father, and to his brethren: and his father rebuked him, and said unto him, What is this dream that thou hast dreamed? Shall I and thy mother and thy brethren indeed come to bow down ourselves to thee to the earth?

11 And his brethren [m]envied him; but his father [n]observed the saying.

12 ¶ And his brethren went to feed their father's flock in [o]Shē'chĕm.

13 And Israel said unto Joseph, Do not thy brethren feed the flock in Shē'chĕm? come, and I will send thee unto them. And he said to him, Here am I.

14 And he said to him, [t]Go, I pray thee, see whether it be well with thy brethren, and well with the flocks; and bring me word again. So he sent him out of the vale of [y]Hebron, and he came to Shē'chĕm.

15 ¶ And a certain man found him, and, behold, he was wandering in the field: and the man asked him, saying, What seekest thou?

16 And he said, I seek my brethren: tell me, I pray thee, where they feed their flocks.

17 And the man said, They are departed hence; for I heard them say, Let us go to [e] Dothan. And Joseph went after his brethren, and found them in Dothan.

18 And when they [g] saw him afar off, even before he came near unto them, they [h] conspired against him to slay him.

19 And they said one to another, Behold, this [2]dreamer cometh.

20 Come now therefore, and let us slay him, and [i] cast him into some [k] pit, and we will say, Some evil beast hath devoured him: and we shall see what will become of his dreams.

21 And [m]Reuben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands; and said, Let us not kill him.

22 And Reuben said unto them, Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit that is in the wilderness, and lay no hand upon him; that he might rid him out of their hands, to deliver him to his father again.

23 ¶ And it came to pass when Joseph was come unto his brethren, that they stript Joseph out of his coat, his coat of many colours that was on him;

24 And they took him, and cast him into a pit: and the pit was empty, there was [s] no water in it.

25 And they sat down to eat bread: and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and, behold, a [6]company of [x] Ĭsh-mēē-lītes came from [y] Gĭl-ĕ-ăd with their [z] camels bearing [7]spicery and [a] balm and [8]myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt.

26 And [d] Judah said unto his brethren, What profit is it if we slay our brother, and conceal his blood?

27 Come, and let us sell him to the Ĭsh-mēē-lītes, and [f] let not our hand be upon him; for he is our brother and [h] our flesh. And his brethren were content.

28 Then there passed by [i] Midianites [a] merchantmen; and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and [b] sold Joseph to the Ĭsh-mēē-lītes [c] for twenty pieces of silver: and they brought Joseph into Egypt.

29 ¶ And Reuben returned unto the pit; and, behold, Joseph was not in the pit; and he [d] rent his clothes.

30 And he returned unto his brethren, and said, The child [f] is not; and I, whither shall I go?

31 And they took Joseph's coat, and killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the coat in the blood;

32 And they sent the coat of many colours, and they brought it to their father; and said, This have we found: know now whether it be thy son's coat or no.

33 And he knew it, and said, It is my son's coat; an [l] evil beast hath devoured him; Joseph is without doubt rent in pieces.

34 And Jacob rent his clothes, and put [n] sackcloth upon his loins, and [o] mourned for his son many days.

35 And all his sons and all his daughters rose up to comfort him; but he [p] refused to be comforted; and he said, For I will go down into the [3]grave unto my son mourning. Thus his father wept for him.

36 And the [q] Midianites sold him into Egypt unto [r] Pŏt-ĭ-phär, an [4]officer of Phär-āōh's, and [5]captain of the guard.

CHAPTER 38

AND it came to pass at that time, that [t] Judah went down from his brethren, and turned in to a certain [u] Ă-dŭl-lăm-īte, whose name was Hirah.

2 And Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Cā-nă-ăn-īte, whose name was [b] Shuah; and he [c] took her, and went in unto her.

3 And she conceived, and bare a son; and he called his name [e] Er.

4 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and she called his name [g] Onan.

5 And she yet again conceived, and bare a son; and called his name [g] Shē-läh: and he was at [9]Chē-zĭb, when she bare him.

6 And Judah took a wife for Er his firstborn, whose name was [b] Tamar.

7 And Er, Judah's firstborn, [d] was wicked in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD [e] slew him.

8 And Judah said unto Onan, Go in unto [f] thy brother's wife, and [3] marry her, and raise up seed to thy brother.

9 And Onan knew that the seed should not be his; and it came to pass, when he went in unto his brother's wife, that he spilled it on the ground, lest that he should give seed to his brother.

10 And the thing which he did displeased the LORD: wherefore he slew him also.

11 Then said Judah to Tamar his daughter in law, [h] Remain a widow at thy father's house, till Shē'läh my son be grown: for he said, Lest peradventure he die also, as his brethren did. And Tamar went and dwelt [i] in her father's house.

12 ¶ And in process of time the daughter of Shuah Judah's wife died; and Judah [k] was comforted, and went up unto his sheepshearers to [l] Timnath, he and his friend Hirah the Ā-dŭl'lăm-īte.

13 And it was told Tamar, saying, Behold thy father in law goeth up to Timnath to [n] shear his sheep.

14 And she put her widow's garments off from her, and [o] covered her with a vail, and wrapped herself, and [p] sat in an open place, which is by the way to Timnath; for she saw that Shē'läh was grown, and she was not given unto him to wife.

15 When Judah saw her, he thought her to be an harlot; because she had covered her face.

16 And he turned unto her by the way, and said, Go to, I pray thee, let me come in unto thee; (for he knew not that she was his daughter in law.) And she said, What wilt thou give me, that thou mayest come in unto me?

17 And he said, [r] I will send thee a [s] kid from the flock. And she said, Wilt thou give me a pledge, till thou send it?

18 And he said, What pledge shall I give thee? And she said, Thy [a] signet, and thy [2] bracelets, and thy [c] staff that is in thine hand. And he gave it her, and came in unto her, and she conceived by him.

19 And she arose, and went away, and laid by her vail from her, and put on the garments of her widowhood.

20 And Judah sent the kid by the hand of his friend the Ā-dŭl'lăm-īte, to receive his pledge from the woman's hand; but he found her not.

21 Then he asked the men of that place, saying, Where is the [g] harlot, that was openly by the way side? And they said, There was no harlot in this place.

22 And he returned to Judah, and said, I cannot find her; and also the men of the place said, that there was no harlot in this place.

23 And Judah said, Let her take it to her, lest we be shamed: behold, I sent this kid, and thou hast not found her.

24 ¶ And it came to pass about three months after, that it was told Judah, saying, Tamar thy daughter in law hath played the harlot; and also, behold, she is with child by whoredom. And Judah said, Bring her forth, and [m] let her be burnt.

25 When she was brought forth, she sent to her father in law, saying, By the man, whose these are, am I with child: and she said, Discern, I pray thee, whose are these, the signet, and bracelets, and staff.

26 And Judah acknowledged them, and said, She hath been [q] more righteous than I; because that I gave her not to Shē'läh my son. And he knew her again no more.

27 ¶ And it came to pass in the time of her travail, that, behold, twins were in her womb.

28 And it came to pass, when she travailed, that the one put out his hand: and the midwife took and bound upon his hand a scarlet thread, saying, This came out first.

29 And it came to pass, as he drew back his hand, that, behold, his brother came out: and she said, How hast thou broken forth? this breach

30 And afterward came out his brother, that had the scarlet thread upon his hand: and his name was called [b]Zarah.

CHAPTER 39

AND Joseph was brought [c]down to Egypt; and [d]Pŏt'ĭ-phär, an [f]officer of Phâr'āoh, [f]captain of the guard, an Egyptian, [g]bought him of the hands of the [h]Ĭsh'mēē-lītes, which had brought him down thither.

2 And [i]the LORD was with Joseph, and he was a [k]prosperous man; and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian.

3 And his master saw that the LORD was with him, and that the LORD made all that he did to prosper in his hand.

4 And Joseph [n]found grace in his sight, and he served him: and he made him [o]overseer over his house, and all that he had he put into his hand.

5 And it came to pass from the time that he had made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had, that the LORD [p]blessed the Egyptian's house [q]for Joseph's sake; and the [r]blessing of the LORD was upon all that he had in the house, and in the field.

6 And he left all that he had in Joseph's hand; and he knew not ought he had, save the bread which he did eat. And Joseph was a goodly person, and [s]well favoured.

7 ¶ And it came to pass after these things, that his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph; and she said, Lie with me.

8 But he refused, and said unto his master's wife, Behold, my master wotteth not what is with me in the house, and he hath committed all that he hath to my hand;

9 There is none greater in this house than I; neither hath he kept back any thing from me but thee, because thou art his wife: how then can I do this great wickedness, and [x]sin against God?

10 And it came to pass, as she spake to Joseph day by day, that he [a]hearkened not unto her, to lie by her, or to be with her.

11 And it came to pass about this time, that Joseph went into the house to do his business; and there was none of the men of the house there within.

12 And she [e]caught him by his garment, saying, Lie with me: and he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and got him out.

13 And it came to pass, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled forth,

14 That she called unto the men of her house, and spake unto them, saying, See, he hath brought in an [l]Hebrew unto us to [m]mock us; he came in unto me to lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice:

15 And it came to pass, when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled, and got him out.

16 And she laid up his garment by her, until his lord came home.

17 And she spake unto him, according to these words, saying, The Hebrew servant, which thou hast brought unto us, came in unto me to mock me:

18 And it came to pass, as I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled out.

19 And it came to pass, when his master heard the words of his wife, which she spake unto him, saying, After this manner did thy servant to me; that his wrath was kindled.

20 And Joseph's master took him, and put him into the [3]t prison, a place where the king's prisoners were bound: and he was there in the prison.

21 ¶ But the LORD was with Joseph, and [u]shewed him mercy, and gave him favour in the sight of the keeper of the prison.

22 And the keeper of the prison committed to Joseph's hand all the prisoners that were in the prison; and whatsoever they did there, he was the doer of it.

CHAPTER 40

AND it came to pass after these things, that the [c] butler of the king of Egypt and his [d] baker had offended their lord the king of Egypt.

2 And Phâr'-āōh was wroth against two of his [g] officers, against the chief of the butlers, and against the chief of the bakers.

3 And he put them in ward in the house of the [i] captain of the guard, into the prison, the place where Joseph was bound.

4 And the captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he served them: and they continued a season in ward.

5 ¶ And they dreamed a [k] dream both of them, each man his dream in one night, each man according to the [l] interpretation of his dream, the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, which were bound in the prison.

6 And Joseph came in unto them in the morning, and looked upon them, and, behold, they were sad.

7 And he asked Phâr'-āōh's officers that were with him in the ward of his lord's house, saying, [n] Wherefore look ye so sadly to day?

8 And they said unto him, We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it. And Joseph said unto them, Do not interpretations [p] belong to God? tell me them, I pray you.

9 And the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, In my dream, behold, a vine was before me;

10 And in the vine were three branches: and it was as though it budded, and her blossoms shot forth; and the clusters thereof brought forth ripe grapes:

11 And Phâr'-āōh's cup was in my hand: and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand.

12 And Joseph said unto him, This is the interpretation of it: The three branches are [a] three days:

13 Yet within three days shall Phâr'-āōh [b] lift up thine head, and restore thee unto thy place: and thou shalt deliver Pharaoh's cup into his hand, after the former manner when thou wast his butler.

14 But [e] think on me when it shall be well with thee, and [f] shew kindness, I pray thee, unto me, and make mention of me unto Phâr'-āōh, and bring me out of this house:

15 For indeed I was [h] stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews: and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon.

16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said unto Joseph, I also was in my dream, and, behold, I had three white baskets on my head:

17 And in the uppermost basket there was of all manner of bakemeats for Phâr'-āōh; and the birds did eat them out of the basket upon my head.

18 And Joseph answered and said, This is the interpretation thereof: The three baskets are three days:

19 Yet within three days shall Phâr'-āōh lift up thy head from off thee, and shall [m] hang thee on a tree; and the birds shall eat thy flesh from off thee.

20 ¶ And it came to pass the third day, which was Phâr'-āōh's [o] birthday, that he made a feast unto all his servants: and he lifted up the head of the chief butler and of the chief baker among his servants.

21 And he restored the chief butler unto his butlership again; and he [q] gave the cup into Phâr'-āōh's hand:

22 But he hanged the chief baker: as Joseph had interpreted to them.

23 Yet did not the chief butler remember Joseph, but forgat him.

CHAPTER 41

AND it came to pass at the end of two full years, that Phâr'-āōh [r] dreamed: and, behold, he stood by the [2] river.

2 And, behold, there came up out of the river seven well favoured kine

[r] [ch. 40. 5 Ju. 7. 13]

[2] Heb. the Nile Ex. 1. 22 (Heb.)

and fatfleshed; and they fed in a [2]meadow.

3 And, behold, seven other kine came up after them out of the river, ill favoured and leanfleshed; and stood by the other kine upon the brink of the river.

4 And the ill favoured and leanfleshed kine did eat up the seven well favoured and fat kine. So Phâr'-āōh awoke.

5 And he slept and dreamed the second time: and, behold, seven ears of corn came up upon one stalk, [3]rank and good.

6 And, behold, seven thin ears and blasted with the [4]d east wind sprung up after them.

7 And the seven thin ears devoured the seven rank and full ears. And Phâr'-āōh awoke, and, behold, it was a dream.

8 And it came to pass in the morning that his spirit was e troubled; and he sent and called for all the f magicians of Egypt, and all the g wise men thereof: and Phâr'-āōh told them his dream; but there was none that could interpret them unto Pharaoh.

9 ¶ Then spake the h chief butler unto Phâr'-āōh, saying, I [5]do remember my faults this day:

10 Phâr'-āōh was wroth with his servants, and put me in ward in the k captain of the guard's house, both me and the l chief baker:

11 And we m dreamed a dream in one night, I and he; we dreamed each man according to the n interpretation of his dream.

12 And there was there with us a young man, an q Hebrew, servant to the captain of the guard; and we told him, and he interpreted to us our dreams; to each man according to his dream he did interpret.

13 And it came to pass, as he interpreted to us, so it was; me he restored unto mine office, and him he hanged.

14 ¶ Then s Phâr'-āōh sent and called Joseph, and they t brought him hastily u out of the dungeon: and he shaved himself, and y changed his raiment, and came in unto Pharaoh.

15 And Phâr'-āōh said unto Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it: and a I have heard say of thee, that thou canst understand a dream to interpret it.

16 And Joseph answered Phâr'-āōh, saying, It is not in me: b God shall give Pharaoh an c answer of peace.

17 And Phâr'-āōh said unto Joseph, In my dream, behold, I stood upon the bank of the river:

18 And, behold, there came up out of the river seven kine, fatfleshed and well favoured; and they fed in a meadow:

19 And, behold, seven other kine came up after them, poor and very ill favoured and leanfleshed, such as I never saw in all the land of Egypt for badness:

20 And the lean and the ill favoured kine did eat up the first seven fat kine:

21 And when they had eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them; but they were still ill favoured, as at the beginning. So I awoke.

22 And I saw in my dream, and, behold, seven ears came up in one stalk, full and good:

23 And, behold, seven ears, withered, thin, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them:

24 And the thin ears devoured the seven good ears: and i I told this unto the magicians; but there was none that could declare it to me.

25 ¶ And Joseph said unto Phâr'-āōh, The dream of Pharaoh is one: God hath shewed Pharaoh o what he is about to do.

26 The seven good kine are p seven years; and the seven good ears are seven years: the dream is one.

27 And the seven thin and ill favoured kine that came up after them are seven years; and the seven empty ears blasted with the east wind shall be r seven years of famine.

28 This is the thing which I have spoken unto Phâr'-āōh: What God is about to do he sheweth unto Pharaoh.

29 Behold, there come seven x years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt:

30 And there shall arise after them

seven [a] years of famine; and all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt; and the famine [c] shall consume the land;

31 And the plenty shall not be known in the land by reason of that famine following; for it shall be very grievous.

32 And for that the dream was [e] doubled unto Phâr'-āōh twice; it is because the thing is [g] established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass.

33 Now therefore let Phâr'-āōh look out a man discreet and [h] wise, and set him over the land of Egypt.

34 Let Phâr'-āōh do this, and let him appoint officers over the land, and take up the fifth part of the land of Egypt in the seven plenteous years.

35 And let them [k] gather all the food of those good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Phâr'-āōh, and let them keep food in the cities.

36 And that food shall be for store to the land against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Egypt; that the land perish not through the famine.

37 ¶ And the thing was good in the eyes of Phâr'-āōh, and in the eyes of all his servants.

38 And Phâr'-āōh said unto his servants, Can we find such a one as this is, [m] a man in whom the Spirit of God is?

39 And Phâr'-āōh said unto Joseph, Forasmuch as God hath shewed thee all this, there is none so discreet and wise as thou art:

40 [p] Thou shalt be over my house, and according unto thy word shall all my people [5] be ruled: only in the throne will I be greater than thou.

41 And Phâr'-āōh said unto Joseph, See, I have [r] set thee over all the land of Egypt.

42 And Phâr'-āōh [s] took off his [t] ring from his hand, and put it upon Joseph's hand, and [u] arrayed him in vestures of [x] fine linen, and put a gold chain about his neck;

43 And he made him to ride in the second [y] chariot which he had; and [b] they cried before him, [2] Bow the knee: and he made him ruler over all the land of Egypt.

44 And Phâr'-āōh said unto Joseph, I am Pharaoh, and without thee shall no man lift up his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt.

45 And Phâr'-āōh called [d] Joseph's name Zăph'-năth-pā-ă-nē'-ăh; and he gave him to wife [f] Ăs'-ĕ-năth the daughter of Pŏ-tī'-phĕr-ăh priest of [f] On. And Joseph went out over all the land of Egypt.

46 ¶ And Joseph was thirty years old when he [i] stood before Phâr'-āōh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt.

47 And in the seven plenteous years the earth brought forth by handfuls.

48 And he gathered up all the food of the seven years, which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities: the food of the field, which was round about every city, laid he up in the same.

49 And Joseph [l] gathered corn as the sand of the sea, very much, until he left numbering; for it was without number.

50 And unto Joseph were born two sons before the years of famine came, which Ăs'-ĕ-năth the daughter of Pŏ-tī'-phĕr-ăh priest of On bare unto him.

51 And Joseph called the name of the firstborn [3] [n] Mă-năs'-sēh: For God, said he, hath made me [o] forget all my toil, and all my father's house.

52 And the name of the second called he [4] [q] Ē'-phră-ĭm: For God hath caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction.

53 ¶ And the seven years of plenteousness, that was in the land of Egypt, were ended.

54 And the seven years of dearth began to come, according as Joseph had said: and the dearth was in all lands; but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

55 And when all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Phâr'-āōh for bread: and Pharaoh

11 We are all one man's sons; we are true men, thy servants are no spies.

12 And he said unto them, Nay, but to see the nakedness of the land ye are come.

13 And they said, Thy servants are twelve brethren, the sons of one man in the land of Cā'nă-ăn; and, behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and [e] one is not.

14 And Joseph said unto them, That is it that I spake unto you, saying, Ye are spies:

15 Hereby ye shall be proved: By the life of Phâr'āōh ye shall not go forth hence, except your youngest brother come hither.

16 Send one of you, and let him fetch your brother, and ye shall be kept in prison, that your words may be proved, whether there be any truth in you: or else by the life of Phâr'āōh surely ye are spies.

17 And he put them all together into ward [k] three days.

18 And Joseph said unto them the third day, This do, and live; for [l] I fear God:

19 If ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bound in the house of your prison: go ye, carry corn for the famine of your houses:

20 But bring [o] your youngest brother unto me; so shall your words be verified, and ye shall not die. And they did so.

21 ¶ And they said one to another, [s] We are verily guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soul, when he besought us, and we would not hear; [t] therefore is this distress come upon us.

22 And [u] Reuben answered them, saying, Spake I not unto you, saying, Do not sin against the child; and ye would not hear? therefore, behold, also [x] his blood is required.

23 And they [z] knew not that Joseph understood them; for he spake unto them by an interpreter.

24 And he turned himself about from them, and [a] wept; and returned to them again, and communed with them, and took from them [b] Simeon, and bound him before their eyes.

25 ¶ Then Joseph [a] commanded to fill their sacks with corn, and [b] to restore every man's money into his sack, and to give them provision for the way: and thus did he unto them.

26 And they laded their asses with the corn, and departed thence.

27 And as [e] one of them opened his sack to give his ass provender in the inn, he espied his money; for, behold, it was in his sack's mouth.

28 And he said unto his brethren, My money is restored; and, lo, it is even in my sack: and their heart failed them, and they were afraid, saying one to another, [h] What is this that God hath done unto us?

29 ¶ And they came unto Jacob their father unto the land of Cā'nă-ăn, and told him all that befell unto them; saying,

30 The man, who is the lord of the land, spake roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country.

31 And we said unto him, We are true men; we are no spies:

32 We be twelve brethren, sons of our father; one is not, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Cā'nă-ăn.

33 And the man, the lord of the country, said unto us, Hereby shall I know that ye are true men; leave one of your brethren here with me, and take food for the famine of your households, and be gone:

34 And bring [n] your youngest brother unto me: then shall I know that ye are no spies, but that ye are true men: so will I deliver you your brother, and ye shall [o] traffick in the land.

35 ¶ And it came to pass as they emptied their sacks, that, behold, [p] every man's bundle of money was in his sack: and when both they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid.

36 And Jacob their father said unto them, Me have ye [s] bereaved of my children: Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye will take [u] Benjamin away: [x] all these things are against me.

37 And Reuben spake unto his father, saying, Slay my two sons, if I bring him not to thee: deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him to thee again.

38 And he said, My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is [c] dead, and he is left alone: if [d] mischief befall him by the way in the which ye go, then shall ye bring down my gray hairs with sorrow [f] to the grave.

CHAPTER 43

AND the [g] famine was sore in the land.

2 And it came to pass, when they had eaten up the corn which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said unto them, Go again, [i] buy us a little food.

3 And [k] Judah spake unto him, saying, The man did solemnly protest unto us, saying, Ye shall not [l] see my face, [m] except your brother be with you.

4 If thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go down and buy thee food:

5 But if thou wilt not send him, we will not go down: for the man said unto us, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.

6 And Israel said, Wherefore dealt ye so ill with me, as to tell the man whether ye had yet a brother?

7 And they said, The man asked us straitly of our state, and of our kindred, saying, Is your father yet alive? have ye another brother? and we told him according to the tenor of these words: could we certainly know that he would say, Bring your brother down?

8 And Judah said unto Israel his father, Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go; that we may [q] live, and not die, both we, and thou, and also our little ones.

9 I will be [r] surety for him; of my hand shalt thou require him: if I bring him not unto thee, and set him before thee, then [t] let me bear the blame for ever:

10 For except we had lingered, surely now we had returned this second time.

16 And when Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the [s] ruler of his house, Bring these men home, and slay, and make ready; for these men shall dine with me at noon.

23 And he said, [a] Peace be to you, fear not: your God, and the God of your father, hath given you treasure in your sacks: I had your money. And he brought [g] Simeon out unto them.

24 And the man brought the men into Joseph's house, and gave them water, and [k] they washed their feet; and he gave their asses [k] provender.

25 And they made ready the present against Joseph came at noon: for they heard that they should eat bread there.

26 ¶ And when Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, and [p] bowed themselves to him to the earth.

27 And he asked them of their welfare, and said, [q] Is your father well, the old man of whom ye spake? Is he yet alive?

28 And they answered, Thy servant our father is in good health, he is yet alive. And they bowed down their heads, and made obeisance.

29 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, Is this your younger brother, of whom ye spake unto me? And he said, [t] God be gracious unto thee, my son.

30 And Joseph made haste; for his [u] bowels did yearn upon his brother: and he sought where to weep; and he entered into his chamber, and [y] wept there.

31 And he washed his face, and went out, and [a] refrained himself, and said, Set on bread.

32 And they set on for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians, which did eat with him, by themselves: because the Egyptians might not eat bread with the [c] Hebrews; for that is an [d] abomination unto the Egyptians.

33 And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his [e] birthright, and the youngest according to his youth: and the men marvelled one at another.

34 And he took and sent messes unto them from before him: but

[a] Benjamin's mess was five times so much as any of their's. And they drank, and were merry with him.

CHAPTER 44

AND he commanded the [d] steward of his house, saying, [e] Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in his sack's mouth.

2 And put my [2]cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, and his corn money. And he did according to the word that Joseph had spoken.

3 As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their asses.

4 And when they were gone out of the city, and not yet far off, Joseph said unto his steward, Up, follow after the men; and when thou dost overtake them, say unto them, Wherefore have ye [h] rewarded evil for good?

5 Is not this it in which my lord drinketh, and whereby indeed he [i] divineth? ye have done evil in so doing.

6 ¶ And he overtook them, and he spake unto them these same words.

7 And they said unto him, Wherefore saith my lord these words? God forbid that thy servants should do according to this thing:

8 Behold, the money, which we found in our sacks' mouths, we brought again unto thee out of the land of Cā'-nă-ăn: how then should we steal out of thy lord's house silver or gold?

9 [n] With whomsoever of thy servants it be found, both let him die, and we also will be my lord's [o] bondmen.

10 And he said, Now also let it be according unto your words: he with whom it is found shall be my servant; and ye shall be blameless.

11 Then they speedily took down every man his sack to the ground, and opened every man his sack.

12 And he searched, and began at the eldest, and left at the youngest: and the cup was found in [s] Benjamin's sack.

13 Then they [t] rent their clothes, and laded every man his ass, and returned to the city.

14 ¶ And [b] Judah and his brethren came to Joseph's house; for he was yet there: and they [c] fell before him on the ground.

15 And Joseph said unto them, What deed is this that ye have done? wot ye not that such a man as I can certainly [f] divine?

16 And Judah said, What shall we say unto my lord? what shall we speak? or how shall we clear ourselves? [g] God hath found out the iniquity of thy servants: behold, we are my lord's servants, both we, and he also with whom the cup is found.

17 And he said, God forbid that I should do so: but the man in whose hand the cup is found, he shall be my servant; and as for you, get you up in peace unto your father.

18 ¶ Then Judah came near unto him, and said, Oh my lord, let thy servant, I pray thee, speak a word in my lord's ears, and let not thine anger burn against thy servant: for thou art even [k] as Phâr'-āōh.

19 My lord asked his servants, saying, Have ye a father, or a brother?

20 And we said unto my lord, We have a father, an old man, and a [l] child of his old age, a little one; and his brother is [m] dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loveth him.

21 And thou saidst unto thy servants, Bring him down unto me, that I may set mine eyes upon him.

22 And we said unto my lord, The lad cannot leave his father: for if he should leave his father, his father would die.

23 And thou saidst unto thy servants, [p] Except your youngest brother come down with you, ye shall [q] see my face no more.

24 And it came to pass when we came up unto thy servant my father, we told him the words of my lord.

25 And our father said, Go again, and [r] buy us a little food.

26 And we said, We cannot go down: if our youngest brother be with us, then will we go down: for am Joseph your brother, whom ye [a] sold into Egypt.

5 Now therefore be not grieved, nor angry with yourselves, that ye sold me hither: for [b] God did send me before you to preserve life.

6 For these two years hath the [d] famine been in the land: and yet there are five years, in the which there shall neither be [2] earing nor harvest.

7 And God sent me before you to [3] preserve you a posterity in the earth, and to save your lives [4] by a great deliverance.

8 So now it was not you that sent me hither, but God: and he hath made me [h] a father to Phâr'-āōh, and lord of all his house, and a [i] ruler throughout all the land of Egypt.

9 Haste ye, and go up to my father, and say unto him, Thus saith thy son Joseph, God hath made me lord of all Egypt: come down unto me, tarry not:

10 And thou shalt dwell in the land of [l] Goshen, and thou shalt be near unto me, thou, and thy children, and thy children's children, and thy flocks, and thy herds, and all that thou hast:

11 And there will I [m] nourish thee; for yet there are five years of famine; lest thou, and thy household, and all that thou hast, come to poverty.

12 And, behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother [n] Benjamin, that it is [p] my mouth that speaketh unto you.

13 And ye shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that ye have seen; and ye shall haste and [q] bring down my father hither.

14 And he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck, and wept; and Benjamin wept upon his neck.

15 Moreover he [s] kissed all his brethren, and wept upon them: and after that his brethren talked with him.

16 ¶ And the fame thereof was heard in Phâr'-āōh's house, saying, Joseph's brethren are come: and it pleased Pharaoh well, and his servants.

17 And Phâr'-āōh said unto Joseph,

Say unto thy brethren, This do ye; lade your beasts, and go, get you unto the [b] land of Cā'-nă-ăn;

18 And take your father and your households, and come unto me: and I will give you the [d] good of the land of Egypt, and ye shall eat [f] the fat of the land.

19 Now thou art commanded, this do ye; take you wagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones, and for your wives, and bring your father, and come.

20 Also regard not your stuff; for the good of all the land of Egypt is your's.

21 And the children of Israel did so: and Joseph gave them [l] wagons, according to the commandment of Phâr'-āōh, and gave them provision for the way.

22 To all of them he gave each man [n] changes of raiment; but [o] to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver, and five changes of raiment.

23 And to his father he sent after this manner; ten asses laden with [q] the good things of Egypt, and ten she asses laden with corn and bread and meat for his father by the way.

24 So he sent his brethren away, and they departed: and he said unto them, See that ye [2]fall not out by the way.

25 ¶ And they went up out of Egypt, and came into the land of Cā'-nă-ăn unto Jacob their father, 26 And told him, saying, Joseph is yet alive, and he is governor over all the land of Egypt. And Jacob's heart fainted, for he believed them not.

27 And they told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said unto them: and when he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the [c] spirit of Jacob their father revived:

28 And Israel said, It is enough; Joseph my son is yet alive: I will go and see him before I die.

3 And he said, I am God, the God of thy father: fear not to [c] go down into Egypt; for [e] I will there make of thee a great nation:

4 I will go down [g] with thee into Egypt; and I will also surely [h] bring thee up again: and [i] Joseph shall put his hand upon thine eyes.

5 And Jacob rose up from Beer-sheba: and the sons of Israel carried Jacob their father, and their little ones, and their wives, in the [k] wagons which Phâr'-āōh had sent to carry him.

6 And they took their cattle, and their goods, which they had gotten in the [m] land of Cā'-nă-ăn, and came into Egypt, Jacob, and all his seed with him:

7 His sons, and his sons' sons with him, his daughters, and his sons' daughters, and all his seed brought he with him into Egypt.

8 ¶ [p] And these are the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt, Jacob and his sons: [r] Reuben, Jacob's firstborn.

9 And the [s] sons of Reuben; Hā'-nŏch, and Phallu, and Hezron, and Cär'-mī.

12 ¶ And the [y] sons of Judah; Er, and Onan, and Shē'-läh, and [z] Phär'-ĕz, and [a] Zarah: but Er and Onan died in the land of Cā'-nă-ăn. And the sons of Phär'-ĕz were [b] Hezron and Hamul.

13 ¶ And the [d] sons of Ĭs'-să-chär; Tō'-lă, and [6]Phū'-väh, and [7]Job, and Shimron.

14 ¶ And the [e] sons of Zĕ-bū'-lŭn; Sē'-rĕd, and Elon, and Jäh'-lēel.

15 These be the sons of [f] Leah, which she bare unto Jacob in [g] Pā'-dăn-aram, with his daughter [h] Dinah: all the souls of his sons and his daughters were thirty and three.

16 ¶ And the [a] sons of Gad; [2]Zephion, and Haggi, Shûʹnī, and [3]Ezbon, Ēʹrī, and [4]Ărōʹdī, and Ărēʹlī.

17 ¶ And the [c] sons of Asher; Jimnah, and Ĭshʹūăh, and Ĭsʹūī, and Bĕrīʹăh, and Sēʹrăh their sister: and the sons of Beriah; Heber, and Măl-chī-ĕl.

18 These are the sons of [e] Zilpah, whom [f] Laban gave to Leah his daughter, and these she bare unto Jacob, even sixteen souls.

19 The sons of [h] Rachel Jacob's wife; [i] Joseph, and [k] Benjamin.

20 ¶ And unto Joseph in the land of Egypt were born [l] Mănăsʹsēh and [m]Ēʹphrăim, which [n] Ăsʹĕnăth the daughter of Pŏtīʹphĕrăh priest of [o] On bare unto him.

21 ¶ And the [p] sons of Benjamin were Belah, and Bēʹchĕr, and Ashbel, Gera, and Năʹămăn, [5]Ēʹhī, and Rosh, [6]Muppim, and [7]Huppim, and Ard.

22 These are the sons of Rachel, which were born to Jacob: all the souls were fourteen.

23 ¶ And the [s] sons of Dan; [8]Hūʹshĭm.

24 ¶ And the [t] sons of Năphʹtălī; [9]Jăhʹzēel, and Gūʹnī, and Jēʹzĕr, and [2]Shillem.

25 These are the sons of [x] Bilhah, which Laban gave unto Rachel his daughter, and she bare these unto Jacob: all the souls were seven.

26 All the souls that came with Jacob into Egypt, which came out of his loins, besides Jacob's sons' wives, all the souls were threescore and six;

27 And the sons of Joseph, which [c] were born him in Egypt, were two souls: all the souls of the house of Jacob, which came into Egypt, were threescore and ten.

28 ¶ And he sent [f] Judah before him unto Joseph, to [g] direct his face unto [h] Goshen; and they came into the land of Goshen.

29 And Joseph made ready his [i] chariot, and went up to meet Israel his father, to Goshen, and presented himself unto him; and he fell on his neck, and [l] wept on his neck a good while.

30 And Israel said unto Joseph, [b] Now let me die, since I have seen thy face, because thou art yet alive.

31 And Joseph said unto his brethren, and unto his father's house, [d] I will go up, and shew Phârʹāoh, and say unto him, My brethren, and my father's house, which were in the land of Cāʹnăăn, are come unto me;

32 And the men are [g] shepherds, for their trade hath been to feed cattle; and they have brought their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have.

33 And it shall come to pass, when Phârʹāoh shall call you, and shall say, [g] What is your occupation?

34 That ye shall say, Thy servants' trade hath been about cattle from our youth even until now, both we, and also our fathers: that ye may dwell in the land of Goshen; for every shepherd is an [q] abomination unto the Egyptians.

CHAPTER 47

THEN Joseph [r] came and told Phârʹāoh, and said, My father and my brethren, and their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have, are come out of the [u] land of Cāʹnăăn; and, behold, they are in the land of [y] Goshen.

2 And he took some of his brethren, even five men, and [z] presented them unto Phârʹāoh.

3 And Phârʹāoh said unto his brethren, [a] What is your occupation? And they said unto Pharaoh, Thy servants are [b] shepherds, both we, and also our fathers.

4 They said moreover unto Phârʹāoh, For to [d] sojourn in the land are we come; for thy servants have no pasture for their flocks; for the [e] famine is sore in the land of Cāʹnăăn: now therefore, we pray thee, let thy servants dwell in the land of Goshen.

5 And Phârʹāoh spake unto Joseph, saying, Thy father and thy brethren are come unto thee:

6 The land of Egypt is before thee; in the [k] best of the land make thy father and brethren to dwell; in the land of Goshen let them dwell: and if thou knowest any [2]men of activity among them, then make them [a] rulers over my cattle.

7 And Joseph brought in Jacob his father, and set him before Phâr'āōh: and Jacob [b] blessed Pharaoh.

8 And Phâr'āōh said unto Jacob, How old art thou?

9 And Jacob said unto Phâr'āōh, The days of the years of my [3]pilgrimage are an hundred and thirty years: [e] few and evil have the days of the years of my life been, and have not attained unto the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage.

10 And Jacob blessed Phâr'āōh, and went out from before Pharaoh.

11 ¶ And Joseph placed his father and his brethren, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of [g] Răm'ĕ-sēs, as Phâr'āōh had commanded.

12 And Joseph [h] nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his father's household, with bread, [5]according to their families.

13 ¶ And there was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very sore, [l] so that the land of Egypt and all the land of Cā'nă-ăn fainted by reason of the famine.

14 And Joseph [n] gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Cā'nă-ăn, for the corn which they bought: and Joseph brought the money into Phâr'āōh's house.

15 And when money failed in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Cā'nă-ăn, all the Egyptians came unto Joseph, and said, Give us bread: for why should we die in thy presence? for the money faileth.

16 And Joseph said, Give your cattle; and I will give you for your cattle, if money fail.

17 And they brought their cattle unto Joseph: and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for horses, and for the flocks, and for the cattle of the herds, and for the asses: and he [6]fed them with bread for all their cattle for that year.

18 When that year was ended, they came unto him the second year, and said unto him, We will not hide it from my lord, how that our money is spent; my lord also hath our herds of cattle; there is not ought left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies, and our lands:

19 Wherefore shall we die before thine eyes, both we and our land? [c] buy us and [d] our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants unto Phâr'āōh: and give us seed, that we may [f] live, and not die, that the land be not desolate.

20 And Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Phâr'āōh; for the Egyptians sold every man his field, because the famine prevailed over them: so the land became Pharaoh's.

21 And as for the people, he [4]removed them to cities from one end of the borders of Egypt even to the other end thereof.

22 [i] Only the land of the priests bought he not; for the priests had a [k] portion assigned them of Phâr'āōh, and did eat their portion which Pharaoh gave them: wherefore they sold not their lands.

23 Then Joseph said unto the people, Behold, I have [m] bought you this day and your land for Phâr'āōh: lo, here is seed for you, and ye shall sow the land.

24 And it shall come to pass in the increase, that ye shall give the fifth part unto Phâr'āōh, and four parts shall be your own, for seed of the field, and for your food, and for them of your households, and for food for your little ones.

25 And they said, Thou hast saved our lives; let us [o] find grace in the sight of my lord, and we will be Phâr'āōh's servants.

26 And Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt unto this day, that Phâr'āōh should have the fifth part; except the land of the priests only, which became not Pharaoh's.

27 ¶ And Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the country of Goshen; and they had possessions therein, and grew, and [p] multiplied exceedingly.

28 And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years: so the whole age of Jacob was an hundred forty and seven years.

29 And the time [b] drew nigh that Israel must die: and he called his son Joseph, and said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, [d] put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh, and [f] deal kindly and truly with me; bury me not, I pray thee, in Egypt:

30 But I will lie with my fathers, and thou shalt carry me out of Egypt, and [i] bury me in their buryingplace. And he said, I will do as thou hast said.

31 And he said, [k] Swear unto me. And he sware unto him. And Israel [l] bowed himself upon the bed's head.

CHAPTER 48

AND it came to pass after these things, that one told Joseph, Behold, thy father is sick: and he took with him his two sons, [m] Mă-năs'-sēh and [m] Ē'-phră-ĭm.

2 And one told Jacob, and said, Behold, thy son Joseph cometh unto thee: and Israel strengthened himself, and sat upon the bed.

3 And Jacob said unto Joseph, God [p] Almighty appeared unto me at [q] Luz in [s] the land of Că'-nă-ăn, and blessed me,

4 And said unto me, Behold, [u] I will make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, and I will make of thee a multitude of people; and [z] will give this land to thy seed after thee for an [a] everlasting possession.

5 ¶ And now thy two sons, Ē'-phră-ĭm and Mă-năs'-sēh, which were born unto thee in the land of Egypt before I came unto thee into Egypt, [c] are mine; as [d] Reuben and [e] Simeon, they shall be mine.

6 And thy issue, which thou begettest after them, shall be thine, and shall be called after the name of their brethren in their inheritance.

7 And as for me, when I came from [f] Padan, [g] Rachel died [4] by me in the land of Că'-nă-ăn in the way, when yet there was but [h] a little way to come unto [i] Ē'-phrăth: and I buried her there in the way of Ephrath; the same is [a] Beth-lehem.

8 And Israel beheld Joseph's sons, and said, Who are these?

9 And Joseph said unto his father, They are my sons, [c] whom God hath given me in this place. And he said, Bring them, I pray thee, unto me, and I [e] will bless them.

10 Now [g] the eyes of Israel were dim for age, so that he could not see. And he brought them near unto him; and he [h] kissed them, and embraced them.

11 And Israel said unto Joseph, I had not thought to see thy face: and, lo, God hath shewed me also thy seed.

12 And Joseph brought them out from between his knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the earth.

13 And Joseph took them both, Ē'-phră-ĭm in his right hand toward Israel's left hand, and Mă-năs'-sēh in his left hand toward Israel's right hand, and brought them near unto him.

14 And Israel stretched out his right hand, and [n] laid it upon Ē'-phră-ĭm's head, who was the younger, and his left hand upon Mă-năs'-sēh's head, [2] guiding his hands wittingly; for Manasseh was the [o] firstborn.

15 ¶ And he [r] blessed Joseph, and said, God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac [t] did walk, the God which [3] fed me all my life long unto this day,

16 The [x] Angel which [y] redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them [b] grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth.

17 And when Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand upon the head of Ē'-phră-ĭm, it displeased him: and he held up his father's hand, to remove it from Ephraim's head unto Mă-năs'-sēh's head.

18 And Joseph said unto his father, Not so, my father: for this is the firstborn; put thy right hand upon his head.

19 And his father refused, and said, I know it, my son, I know it: he also shall become a people, and he also

CHAPTER 49

[r] AND Jacob called unto his sons, and said, Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you that which shall befall you [2]in the last days.

2 Gather yourselves together, and hear, ye sons of Jacob; and hearken unto Israel your father.

3 ¶ [u] Reuben, thou art my [x] firstborn, my might, and the [4]beginning of my strength, the excellency of dignity, and the excellency of power:

4 [5]Unstable as water, thou shalt not [7]excel; because thou [a] wentest up to thy father's bed; then defiledst thou it: he went up to my couch.

5 ¶ [c] Simeon and [d] Levi are brethren; instruments of [8]cruelty are in their [3]habitations.

6 O my soul, come not thou into their [f] secret; unto their assembly, [5]mine honour, be not thou united: for in their anger they [i] slew a man, and in their selfwill they [6]digged down a wall.

7 [n] Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel: I will [o] divide them in Jacob, and scatter them in Israel.

8 ¶ [p] Judah, thou art he whom thy brethren shall praise: [r] thy hand shall be [s] in the neck of thine enemies; thy [u] father's children shall bow down before thee.

9 Judah is a [b] lion's whelp: from the prey, my son, thou art gone up: he stooped down, he [d] couched as a lion, and as an old lion; who shall rouse him up?

10 The [e] sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a [4]lawgiver from [f] between his feet, [5]until Shiloh come; and [g] unto him shall the [6]gathering of the people be.

11 Binding his foal unto the vine, and his [k] ass's colt unto the [l] choice vine; he washed his garments in wine, and his clothes in the [m] blood of grapes:

12 His eyes shall be [o] red with wine, and his teeth white with milk.

13 ¶ [q] Zĕ-bū'-lŭn shall dwell at the haven of the sea; and he shall be for an [8]haven of ships; and his border shall be unto [s] Zidon.

14 ¶ [t] Ĭs'-să-chär is a strong ass couching down between [9]two burdens:

15 And he saw that rest was good, and the land that it was pleasant; and bowed his shoulder to bear, and became a servant unto [3]tribute.

16 ¶ [y] Dan shall [z] judge his people, as one of the tribes of Israel.

17 Dan shall be a serpent by the way, an [6]adder in the path, that biteth the horse heels, so that his rider shall fall backward.

18 I [b] have waited for thy salvation, O LORD.

19 ¶ [e] Gad, a [9]troop shall [2]overcome him: but he shall [4]overcome at the last.

20 ¶ Out of [g] Asher his bread shall be fat, and he shall yield royal [h] dainties.

21 ¶ [k] Năph'-tă-lī is a hind let loose: he giveth goodly words.

22 ¶ [l] Joseph is a [m] fruitful bough, even a fruitful bough by a well; whose branches run over the wall:

23 The [7]archers have sorely grieved him, and shot at him, and hated him:

24 But his [q] bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made [8]strong by the hands of the [t] mighty God of Jacob; (from thence is the [x] shepherd, the [y] stone of Israel:)

CHAPTER 50

AND Joseph [e] fell upon his father's face, and [f] wept upon him, and [g] kissed him.

2 And Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to [i] embalm his father: and the physicians embalmed Israel.

3 And [k] forty days were fulfilled for him; for so are fulfilled the days of those which are embalmed: and the Egyptians [c] mourned for him threescore and ten days.

4 And when the days of his mourning were past, Joseph spake unto the house of Phâr'āoh, saying, If now I have [e] found grace in your eyes, speak, I pray you, in the ears of Pharaoh, saying,

5 My father made me [h] swear, saying, Lo, I die: in my grave which I have [4] digged for me in the [i] land of Cā'nă-ăn, there shalt thou bury me. Now therefore let me go up, I pray thee, and bury my father, and I will come again.

6 And Phâr'āoh said, Go up, and bury thy father, according as he made thee swear.

7 ¶ And Joseph went up to bury his father: and with him went up all the servants of Phâr'āoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt,

8 And all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his father's house: only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of [r] Goshen.

9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen: and it was a very great company.

10 And they came to the [s] threshingfloor of Atad, which is [u] beyond Jordan, and there they mourned with a great and very sore lamentation: and he made a [a] mourning for his father seven days.

11 And when the inhabitants of the land, the [c] Cā'nă-ăn-ītes, saw the mourning in the floor of Atad, they said, This is a grievous mourning to the Egyptians: wherefore the name of it was called Ā'bĕl-mĭz'rā-ĭm, which is beyond Jordan.

12 And his sons did unto him according as he commanded them:

13 For his sons carried him into the land of Cā'nă-ăn, and buried him in the cave of the field of [h] Măch-pē'läh, which Abraham bought with the field for a possession of a buryingplace of Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre.

14 ¶ And Joseph returned into Egypt, he, and his brethren, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father.

15 ¶ And when Joseph's brethren saw that their father was dead, they said, Joseph will peradventure hate us, and will certainly requite us all the evil which we did unto him.

16 And they sent a messenger unto Joseph, saying, Thy father did command before he died, saying,

17 So shall ye say unto Joseph, Forgive, I pray thee now, the trespass of thy brethren, and their sin; for they did unto thee evil: and now, we pray thee, forgive the trespass of the servants of the [i] God of thy father. And Joseph wept when they spake unto him.

18 And his brethren also went and [n] fell down before his face; and they said, Behold, we be thy servants.

19 And Joseph said unto them, Fear not: for [p] am I in the place of God?

20 But as for you, ye thought evil against me: but [r] God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save [a] much people alive.

21 Now therefore fear ye not: I will [b] nourish you, and your little ones. And he comforted them, and spake [2c] kindly unto them.

22 ¶ And Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he, and his father's house: and Joseph lived an hundred and ten years.

23 And Joseph saw [d] Ē'phră-ĭm's children of the third generation: the children also of [e] Mā'chĭr the son of [f] Mă-năs'sēh were [g] brought up upon Joseph's knees.

24 And Joseph said unto his brethren, I die: and God will surely [h] visit you, and bring you out of this land [k] unto the land [l] which he sware to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

25 And Joseph [m] took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry up my [o] bones from hence.

26 So Joseph died, being an hundred and ten years old: and they [q] embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

THE SECOND BOOK OF MOSES, CALLED EXODUS

CHAPTER 1

[a] NOW these are the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt; every man and his household came with [c] Jacob.

2 [d] Reuben, [e] Simeon, [f] Levi, and [f] Judah,

3 [f] Ĭs'să-chär, [f] Zĕ-bū'lŭn, and [h] Benjamin,

4 [k] Dan, and [k] Năph'tă-lī, [l] Gad, and [l] Asher.

5 And all the souls that came out of the loins of Jacob were [n] seventy souls: for [o] Joseph was in Egypt already.

6 And [r] Joseph died, and all his brethren, and all that generation.

7 ¶ And the children of Israel [u] were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and waxed exceeding mighty; and the land was filled with them.

8 Now there arose up a new king over Egypt, [b] which knew not Joseph.

9 And he said unto his people, Behold, the people of the children of Israel [g] are more and mightier than we:

10 Come on, [i] let us deal wisely with them; lest they multiply, and it come to pass, that, when there falleth out any war, [m] they join also unto our enemies, and fight against us, and so get them up out of the land.

11 Therefore they did set over them [p] taskmasters [q] to afflict them with their [s] burdens. And they built for [t] Phâr'aōh [u] treasure cities, [x] Pĭ'thŏm and [z] Rā-ăm'sēs.

12 But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew.

Exodus 1445 BC. cf. 1 Ki 6:1; Judges 11:26; Acts 13:19-20

And they [2a] were grieved because of the children of Israel.

13 And the Egyptians made the children of Israel to serve [e] with rigour:

14 And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, in morter, and in [h] brick, and in all manner of service in the field: all their service, wherein they made them serve, was with rigour.

15 ¶ And the king of Egypt spake to the [k] Hebrew midwives, of which the name of the one was Shĭph'-răh, and the name of the other Pū'-ăh:

16 And he said, When ye do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them upon the stools; if it be a son, then ye shall kill him: but if it be a daughter, then she shall live.

17 But the midwives [m] feared God, and [n] did not as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the men children alive.

18 And the king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said unto them, Why have ye done this thing, and have saved the men children alive?

19 And the midwives said unto Phâr'-āōh, Because the Hebrew women are not as the Egyptian women; for they are lively, and are delivered ere the midwives come in unto them.

20 [r] Therefore God dealt well with the midwives: and the people multiplied, and waxed very mighty.

21 And it came to pass, because the midwives feared God, that he [t] made them houses.

22 And Phâr'-āōh charged all his people, saying, [x] Every son that is born ye shall cast into [z] the river, and every daughter ye shall save alive.

CHAPTER 2

AND there went [b] a man of the house of Levi, and took to wife [b] a daughter of Levi.

2 And the woman conceived, and bare a son: and when she saw him that he was a [e] goodly child, she hid him three months.

3 And when she could not longer hide him, she took for him an ark of [3b] bulrushes, and daubed it with [4c] slime and with [d] pitch, and put the child therein; and she laid it in the [f] flags by the river's brink.

4 And [g] his sister stood afar off, to wit what would be done to him.

5 ¶ And the daughter of Phâr'-āōh came down [i] to wash herself at the river; and her maidens walked along by the river's side; and when she saw the ark among the flags, she sent her maid to fetch it.

6 And when she had opened it, she saw the child: and, behold, the babe wept. And she had compassion on him, and said, This is one of the [l] Hebrews' children.

7 Then said his sister to Phâr'-āōh's daughter, Shall I go and call to thee a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for thee?

8 And Phâr'-āōh's daughter said to her, Go. And the maid went and called the child's mother.

9 And Phâr'-āōh's daughter said unto her, Take this child away, and nurse it for me, and I will give thee thy wages. And the woman took the child, and nursed it.

10 And the child grew, and she brought him unto Phâr'-āōh's daughter, and he became [o] her son. And she called his name [p] Moses: and she said, Because I [q] drew him out of the water.

11 ¶ And it came to pass in those days, [s] when Moses was grown, that he went out unto his brethren, and looked on their [u] burdens: and he spied an Egyptian smiting an Hebrew, one of his brethren.

12 [y] And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no man, he slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.

13 And when he [a] went out the second day, behold, two men of the Hebrews strove together: and [c] he said to him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow?

14 And he said, [d] Who made thee a prince and a judge over us? intendest thou to kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian? And Moses [f] feared, and said, Surely this thing is known.

15 Now when Phâr'-āōh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But Moses [a] fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of [b] Midian: and he sat down by [c] a well.

16 Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters: and [d] they came and drew water, and filled the [e] troughs to water their father's flock.

17 And the [f] shepherds came and drove them away: but Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock.

18 And when they came to [i] Reû'-ĕl their father, he said, How is it that ye are come so soon to day?

19 And they said, An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew water enough for us, and watered the flock.

20 And he said unto his daughters, And where is he? why is it that ye have left the man? call him, that he may [p] eat bread.

21 And Moses [r] was content to dwell with the man: and he gave Moses [u] Zĭp'-pŏ-răh his daughter.

22 And she bare him a son, and he called his name [y] Gershom: for he said, I have been a [2]stranger in a strange land.

23 ¶ And it came to pass in process of time, that the king of Egypt died: and [d] the children of Israel sighed by reason of the bondage, and they [e] cried, and their cry came up unto God by reason of the bondage.

24 And [g] God heard their groaning, and God [h] remembered his covenant [i] with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob.

25 And God [m] looked upon the children of Israel, and God [3]had respect unto them.

CHAPTER 3

NOW Moses kept the flock of [o] Jethro his father in law, the priest of [p] Midian: and he led the flock to the backside of the desert, and came to [s] the mountain of God, even to [u] Horeb.

2 [x] And [y] the angel of the LORD appeared unto him in a [z] flame of fire out of the midst of a [b] bush: and he looked, and, behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed.

3 And Moses said, I will now turn aside, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt.

4 And when the LORD saw that he turned aside to see, God called unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses. And he said, Here am I.

5 And he said, [g] Draw not nigh hither: [h] put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for [k] the place whereon thou standest is holy ground.

6 Moreover he said, [l] I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face; for he was [m] afraid to look upon God.

7 ¶ And the LORD said, [n] I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have [o] heard their cry by reason of their [q] taskmasters; for [s] I know their sorrows;

8 And [t] I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and [x] to bring them up out of that land [z] unto [a] a good land and a large, unto a land [b] flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of [c] the Cā'-nă-ăn-ītes, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Pĕ-rĭz'-zītes, and the Hivites, and the Jĕb'-ū-sītes.

9 Now therefore, behold, the cry of the children of Israel is come unto me: and I have also seen [f] the oppression wherewith the Egyptians oppress them.

10 Come now therefore, and [k] I will send thee unto [l] Phâr'-āōh, that thou mayest bring forth my people the children of Israel out of Egypt.

11 ¶ And Moses said unto God, [n] Who am I, that I should go unto Phâr'-āōh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt?

12 And he said, Certainly [q] I will be with thee; and this shall be a [r] token unto thee, that [t] I have sent thee: When thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve God [a] upon this mountain.

AND Moses answered and said, But, behold, they will not believe me, nor hearken unto my voice: for they will say, The LORD hath not appeared unto thee.

2 And the LORD said unto him, What is that in thine hand? And he said, [2e] A rod.

3 And he said, Cast it on the ground. And he cast it on the ground, and it became [h] a serpent; and Moses fled from before it.

4 And the LORD said unto Moses, Put forth thine hand, and take it by the tail. And he put forth his hand, and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand:

5 [l] That they may believe that the LORD God of their fathers, [m] the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath appeared unto thee.

6 ¶ And the LORD said furthermore unto him, Put now thine hand into thy bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom: and when he took it out, behold, his hand was [n] leprous [o] as snow.

7 And he said, Put thine hand into thy bosom again. And he put his hand into his bosom again; and plucked it out of his bosom, and, behold, it was turned again as his other flesh.

8 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe thee, neither hearken to the voice of the [x] first sign, that they will believe the voice of the latter sign.

9 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe also these [a] two signs, neither hearken unto thy voice, that [c] thou shalt take of the water of the river, and pour it upon the dry land: and the water which thou takest out of the river [e] shall become blood upon the dry land.

neither heretofore, nor since thou hast spoken unto thy servant: but I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue.

11 And the LORD said unto him, [b] Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or [d] the seeing, or the blind? have not I the LORD?

12 Now therefore go, and I will be [f] with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say.

13 And he said, O my Lord, send, I pray thee, by the hand of him whom thou wilt send.

14 And [m] the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses, and he said, Is not [n] Aaron the Levite thy brother? I know that he can speak well. And also, behold, he cometh forth to meet thee: and when he seeth thee, he will be glad in his heart.

15 And [o] thou shalt speak unto him, and [p] put words in his mouth: and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye shall do.

18 ¶ And Moses went and returned to [x] Jethro his father in law, and said unto him, Let me go, I pray thee, and return unto my brethren which are in Egypt, and see whether they be yet alive. And Jethro said to Moses, [a] Go in peace.

19 And the LORD said unto Moses in [c] Midian, Go, [d] return into Egypt: for [e] all the men are dead which sought thy life.

20 And Moses [f] took his wife and his sons, and set them upon an ass, and he returned to the land of Egypt: and Moses took the [h] rod of God in his hand.

21 And the LORD said unto Moses, When thou goest to return into Egypt, see that thou do all those [k] wonders before Phâr'-āōh, which I have put in thine hand: but [m] I will harden his heart, that he shall not let the people go.

22 And thou shalt say unto Phâr'-āōh, Thus saith the LORD, [a] Israel is my son, even [c] my firstborn:

23 And I say unto thee, Let my son go, that he may serve me: and if thou refuse to let him go, behold, I [e] will slay thy son, even thy firstborn.

25 Then [k] Zĭp'-pŏ-răh took a [2l] sharp stone, and cut off the foreskin of her son, and cast it at his feet, and said, Surely a [3] bloody husband art thou to me.

26 So he let him go: then she said, A bloody husband thou art, because of the circumcision.

27 ¶ And the LORD said to Aaron, Go into the wilderness to meet Moses. And he went, and met him in the [q] mount of God, and [r] kissed him.

28 And Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD who had sent him, and all the signs which he had commanded him.

29 ¶ And Moses and Aaron went and gathered together [t] all the elders of the children of Israel:

30 And Aaron spake all the words which the LORD had spoken unto Moses, and did the signs in the sight of the people.

31 And the people believed: and when they heard that the LORD had [y] visited the children of Israel, and that he [z] had looked upon their affliction, then they [b] bowed their heads and worshipped.

CHAPTER 5

AND afterward Moses and Aaron went in, and told Phâr'-āōh, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Let my people go, that they may [g] hold a feast unto me in the wilderness.

2 And Phâr'-āōh said, [i] Who is the LORD, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I know not the LORD, [l] neither will I let Israel go.

3 And they said, [g] The God of the Hebrews [n] hath met with us: let us go, we pray thee, [a] three days' journey into the desert, and sacrifice unto the LORD our God; lest he fall upon us with [b] pestilence, or with the sword.

4 And the king of Egypt said unto them, Wherefore do ye, Moses and Aaron, [2c] let the people from their works? get you unto your [d] burdens.

5 And Phâr'-āōh said, Behold, the people of the land now are many, and ye make them rest from their burdens.

6 And Phâr'-āōh commanded the same day the [e] taskmasters of the people, and their [f] officers, saying,

7 Ye shall no more give the people straw to make [h] brick, as heretofore: let them go and gather straw for themselves.

8 And the [i] tale of the bricks, which they did make heretofore, ye shall lay upon them; ye shall not diminish ought thereof: for they be idle; therefore they cry, saying, Let us go and sacrifice to our God.

9 Let there more work be laid upon the men, that they may labour therein; and let them not regard [3n] vain words.

10 ¶ And the taskmasters of the people went out, and their officers, and they spake to the people, saying, Thus saith Phâr'-āōh, I will not give you straw.

11 Go ye, get you straw where ye can find it: yet not ought of your work shall be diminished.

12 So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble instead of straw.

13 And the taskmasters hasted them, saying, Fulfil your works, your [q] daily tasks, as when there was straw.

14 And the officers of the children of Israel, which Phâr'-āōh's taskmasters had set over them, were beaten, and demanded, Wherefore have ye not fulfilled your task in making brick both yesterday and to day, as heretofore?

15 ¶ Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried unto Phâr'-āōh, saying, Wherefore dealest thou thus with thy servants?

19 And the officers of the children of Israel did see that they were in evil case, after it was said, Ye shall not minish ought from your bricks of your [g] daily task.

20 ¶ And they met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came forth from Phâr'-āōh:

21 And [k] they said unto them, The LORD look upon you, [l] and judge; because ye have made our savour [m] to be abhorred in the eyes of Phâr'-āōh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to slay us.

22 And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, Lord, wherefore hast thou so evil entreated this people? why is it that thou hast sent me?

23 For since I came to Phâr'-āōh to speak in thy name, he hath done evil to this people; neither hast thou delivered thy people at all.

CHAPTER 6

THEN the LORD said unto Moses, Now shalt thou see what I will do to Phâr'-āōh: for with [o] a strong hand [p] shall he let them go, and with a strong hand shall he drive them out of his land.

2 And God spake unto Moses, and said unto him, [r] I am the LORD:

3 And [s] I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of [t] God Almighty, but by my name [u] JEHOVAH was I not known to them.

4 And [x] I have also established my covenant with them, to give them [y] the land of Cā'-nă-ăn, the land of their pilgrimage, [z] wherein they were strangers.

5 And [a] I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage; and I [a] have remembered my covenant.

6 Wherefore say unto the children of Israel, I am the LORD, and [c] I will bring you out from under the [d] burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and [f] I will redeem you with a [g] stretched out arm, and with [h] great judgments:

7 And [i] I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God: and [l] ye shall know that I am the LORD your God, which bringeth you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians.

8 And [o] I will bring you in unto the land, [p] concerning the which I did [2q] swear to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and [r] I will give it you for an heritage: I am the LORD.

9 ¶ And Moses spake so unto the children of Israel: [x] but they hearkened not unto Moses for [3y] anguish of spirit, and for [z] cruel bondage.

10 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

11 [d] Go in, speak unto Phâr-ā'ōh king of Egypt, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land.

12 And Moses spake before the LORD, saying, Behold, the children of Israel have not hearkened unto me; [f] how then shall Phâr-ā'ōh hear me, who am of [h] uncircumcised lips?

13 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, and gave them a charge unto the children of Israel, and unto Phâr-ā'ōh king of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

14 ¶ These be the heads of their fathers' houses: The [k] sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel; Hā-nō'ch, and Pallu, Hezron, and Cär-mī: these be the families of Reuben.

15 And the [l] sons of Simeon; Jĕ-mū-ĕl, and Jā-mĭn, and Ohad, and Jā-chĭn, and Zohar, and Shā-ūl the son of a Cā-nă-ăn-ī-tĭsh woman: these are the families of Simeon.

16 ¶ [m] And these are the names of the [n] sons of Levi according to their [o] generations; Gershon, and Kohath, and Mĕ-râr-ī; and the years of the life of Levi were an hundred thirty and seven years.

17 The [b] sons of Gershon; Lĭb-nī, and Shĭm-ī, according to their families.

18 And the [e] sons of Kohath; Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Ŭz-zĭ-ĕl: and the years of the life of Kohath were an hundred thirty and three years.

19 And the [k] sons of Mĕ-râr-ī; Mā-hă-lī and Mū-shī: these are the families of Levi according to their generations.

20 And [m] Amram took him [n] Jŏch-ĕ-bĕd his father's sister to wife; and she bare him [n] Aaron and Moses: and the years of the life of Amram were an hundred and thirty and seven years.

21 ¶ And the [s] sons of Izhar; [t] Korah, and Nĕph-ĕg, and Zĭch-rī.

22 And the [u] sons of Ŭz-zī-ĕl; Mī-shā-ĕl, and Ĕl-zā-phăn, and Zĭth-rī.

23 And Aaron took him Ē-lī-shĕ-bă, daughter of [a] Ăm-mĭn-ă-dăb, sister of Nā-ăsh-ŏn, to wife; and she bare him [b] Nadab, and Ă-bī-hū, [c] Ĕl-ē-ā-zär, and [c] Ĭth-ă-mär.

24 And the [e] sons of Korah; Assir, and Ĕl-kā-năh, and Ă-bī-ă-săph: these are the families of the Korhites.

25 And Ĕl-ē-ā-zär Aaron's son took him one of the daughters of Pū-tī-ĕl to wife; and she bare him [g] Phĭn-ĕ-hās: these are the heads of the fathers of the Levites according to their families.

26 These are that Aaron and Moses, to whom the LORD said, Bring out the children of Israel from the land of Egypt according to their [i] armies.

27 These are they which spake to Phâr-ā'ōh king of Egypt, to bring out the children of Israel from Egypt: these are that Moses and Aaron.

28 ¶ And it came to pass on the day when the LORD spake unto Moses in the land of Egypt,

29 That the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, I am the LORD: speak thou unto Phâr-ā'ōh king of Egypt all that I say unto thee.

30 And Moses said before the LORD, Behold, I am of uncircumcised lips, and how shall Phâr-ā'ōh hearken unto me?

CHAPTER 7

AND the LORD said unto Moses, See, I have made thee [c] a god to Phâr'-āōh: and [e] Aaron thy brother shall be [g] thy prophet.

2 [h] Thou shalt speak all that I command thee: and Aaron thy brother shall speak unto Phâr'-āōh, that he send the children of Israel out of his land.

3 And [i] I will harden Phâr'-āōh's heart, and multiply my [m] signs and my wonders in the land of Egypt.

4 But Phâr'-āōh shall not hearken unto you, [o] that I may lay my hand upon Egypt, and bring forth mine [p] armies, and my people the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt [q] by great judgments.

5 And the Egyptians [r] shall know that I am the LORD, when I [t] stretch forth mine hand upon Egypt, and [u] bring out the children of Israel from among them.

6 And Moses and Aaron did as the LORD commanded them, so did they.

7 And [y] Moses was fourscore years old, and [a] Aaron fourscore and three years old, when they spake unto Phâr'-āōh.

8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

9 When Phâr'-āōh shall speak unto you, saying, [b] Shew a miracle for you: then thou shalt say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and cast it before Pharaoh, and it shall become a [5c] serpent.

10 ¶ And Moses and Aaron went in unto Phâr'-āōh, and they did so as the LORD had commanded: and Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh, and before his servants, and it became a serpent.

11 Then Phâr'-āōh also called the [e] wise men and the [f] sorcerers: now the [g] magicians of Egypt, they also did [h] in like manner with their [i] enchantments.

12 For they cast down every man his rod, and they became serpents: but Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods.

13 And he hardened Phâr'-āōh's heart, that he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

15 [d] Get thee unto Phâr'-āōh in the morning; lo, he goeth out [f] unto the water; and thou shalt stand by the river's brink against he come; and [i] the rod which was turned to a serpent shalt thou take in thine hand.

16 And thou shalt say unto him, [k] The LORD God of the Hebrews hath sent me unto thee, saying, Let my people go, [n] that they may serve me in the wilderness: and, behold, hitherto thou wouldest not hear.

17 Thus saith the LORD, In this thou shalt know that I am the LORD: behold, I will smite with the rod that is in mine hand upon the waters which are in the river, and they shall be [s] turned to blood.

18 And the fish that is in the river shall die, and the river shall stink; and the Egyptians shall [2] lothe to drink of the water of the river.

19 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, [x] Take thy rod, and [z] stretch out thine hand upon the waters of Egypt, upon their streams, upon their rivers, and upon their [3] ponds, and upon all their [4] pools of water, that they may become blood; and that there may be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood, and in vessels of stone.

20 And Moses and Aaron did so, as the LORD commanded; and he lifted up the rod, and smote the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Phâr'-āōh, and in the sight of his servants; and [d] all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood.

21 And the fish that was in the river died; and the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river; and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

22 And the magicians of Egypt did so with their enchantments: and Phâr'-āōh's heart was hardened, neither did he hearken unto them; as the LORD had said.

23 And Phâr'-āōh turned and went into his house, neither did he set his heart to this also.

24 And all the Egyptians digged round about the river for water to drink; for they could not drink of the water of the river.

25 And [b] seven days were fulfilled, after that the LORD had smitten the river.

CHAPTER 8

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, [c] Go unto Phâr'-āoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Let my people go, [d] that they may serve me.

2 And if thou refuse to let them go, behold, I will smite all thy borders with [e] frogs:

3 And the river shall [2] bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up and come into thine house, and into thy bedchamber, and upon thy bed, and into the house of thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thine [h] ovens, and into thy [i] kneading-troughs:

4 And the frogs shall come up both on thee, and upon thy people, and upon all thy servants.

5 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, [j] Stretch forth thine hand with thy rod over the streams, over the rivers, and over the [4] ponds, and cause frogs to come up upon the land of Egypt.

6 And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt; and [l] the frogs came up, and covered the land of Egypt.

7 And [m] the magicians did so with their [o] enchantments, and brought up frogs upon the land of Egypt.

8 ¶ Then Phâr'-āoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, [p] Intreat the LORD, that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and [q] I will let the people go, that they may do sacrifice unto the LORD.

9 And Moses said unto Phâr'-āoh, [s] Glory over me: when shall I intreat for thee, and for thy servants, and for thy people, to destroy the frogs from thee and thy houses, that they may remain in the river only?

10 And he said, To morrow. And he said, Be it according to thy word: that thou mayest know that there is [a] none like unto the LORD our God.

11 And the frogs shall depart from thee, and from thy houses, and from thy servants, and from thy people; they shall remain in the river only.

12 And Moses and Aaron went out from Phâr'-āoh: and Moses cried unto the LORD because of the frogs which he had brought against Pharaoh.

13 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the villages, and out of the fields.

14 And they gathered them together upon [3] heaps: and the land stank.

15 But when Phâr'-āoh saw that there was [f] respite, he [g] hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

16 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch out thy rod, and smite the dust of the land, that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

17 And they did so; for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth, and it became [k] lice in man, and in beast; all the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

18 And the magicians did so with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they could not: so there were lice upon man, and upon beast.

19 Then the magicians said unto Phâr'-āoh, This is the [n] finger of God: and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

20 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Phâr'-āoh; lo, he cometh forth [r] to the water; and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

21 Else, if thou wilt not let my people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses: and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground whereon they are.

22 And [a] I will sever in that day the land of [c] Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end thou [e] mayest know that I am the LORD in the midst of the earth.

23 And I will [2]put a division between my people and thy people: to morrow shall this [g] sign be.

24 And the LORD did so; and there came a grievous [h] swarm of flies into the house of Phâr'-āōh, and into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Egypt: the land was corrupted by reason of the swarm of flies.

25 ¶ And Phâr'-āōh called for Moses and for Aaron, and said, Go ye, sacrifice to your God in the land.

26 And Moses said, It is not meet so to do; for we shall sacrifice the [k] abomination of the Egyptians to the LORD our God: lo, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not stone us?

27 We will go [m] three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, as he shall command us.

28 And Phâr'-āōh said, I will let you go, that ye may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness; only ye shall not go very far away: intreat for me.

29 And Moses said, Behold, I go out from thee, and I will intreat the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Phâr'-āōh, from his servants, and from his people, to morrow: but let not Pharaoh deal [p] deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.

30 And Moses went out from Phâr'-āōh, and intreated the LORD.

31 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; and he removed the swarms of flies from Phâr'-āōh, from his servants, and from his people; there remained not one.

32 And Phâr'-āōh hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let the people go.

CHAPTER 9

THEN the LORD said unto Moses, [b] Go in unto Phâr'-āōh, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD [d] God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they [f] may serve me.

2 For if thou refuse to let them go, and wilt hold them still,

3 Behold, the hand of the LORD is upon thy cattle which is in the field, upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the oxen, and upon the sheep: there shall be a very grievous [3]murrain.

4 And the LORD shall [i] sever between the cattle of Israel and the cattle of Egypt: and there shall nothing die of all that is the children's of Israel.

5 And the LORD appointed a set time, saying, To morrow the LORD shall do this thing in the land.

6 And the LORD did that thing on the morrow, and all the [l] cattle of Egypt died: but of the cattle of the children of Israel died not one.

7 And Phâr'-āōh sent, and, behold, there was not one of the cattle of the Israelites dead. And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the people go.

8 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses and unto Aaron, Take to you handfuls of ashes of the [n] furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it toward the heaven in the sight of Phâr'-āōh.

9 And it shall become small dust in all the land of Egypt, and shall be a [o] boil breaking forth with blains upon man, and upon beast, throughout all the land of Egypt.

10 And they took ashes of the furnace, and stood before Phâr'-āōh; and Moses sprinkled it up toward heaven; and it became a boil breaking forth with blains upon man, and upon beast.

11 And the [q] magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils; for the boil was upon the magicians, and upon all the Egyptians.

12 And the LORD [r] hardened the heart of Phâr'-āōh, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had spoken unto Moses.

13 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Phâr'-āōh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

14 For I will at this time send all my plagues upon thine heart, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people; that thou mayest know that there is [d] none like me in all the earth.

15 For now I will [e] stretch out my hand, that I may smite thee and thy people with [f] pestilence; and thou shalt be cut off from the earth.

16 And in very deed [i] for this cause have I raised thee up, for [k] to shew in thee my power; and that [l] my name may be declared throughout all the earth.

17 As yet [o] exaltest thou thyself against my people, that thou wilt not let them go?

18 Behold, to morrow about this time I will [q] cause it to rain a very grievous [r] hail, such as hath not been in Egypt since the foundation thereof even until now.

19 Send therefore now, and gather thy cattle, and all that thou hast in the field; for upon every man and beast which shall be found in the field, and shall not be brought home, the hail shall come down upon them, and they shall die.

20 He that [a] feared the word of the LORD among the servants of Phâr'-āōh made his servants and his cattle flee into the houses:

21 And he that [b] regarded not the word of the LORD left his servants and his cattle in the field.

22 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, [c] Stretch forth thine hand toward heaven, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, upon man, and upon beast, and upon every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt.

23 And Moses stretched forth his rod toward heaven: and the LORD sent [e] thunder and [f] hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground; and the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt.

24 So there was hail, and fire [a] mingled with the hail, very grievous, such as there was none like it in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.

25 And the hail smote throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and beast; and the hail smote every herb of the field, and brake every tree of the field.

26 [b] Only in the land of [c] Goshen, where the children of Israel were, was there no hail.

27 ¶ And Phâr'-āōh sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said unto them, [g] I have sinned this time: [h] the LORD is righteous, and I and my people are wicked.

28 [m] Intreat the LORD (for it is enough) that there be no more [n] mighty thunderings and hail; and I will let you go, and ye shall stay no longer.

29 And Moses said unto him, As soon as I am gone out of the city, I will [p] spread abroad my hands unto the LORD; and the thunder shall cease, neither shall there be any more hail; that thou mayest know how that [s] the earth is the LORD's.

30 But [t] as for thee and thy servants, I know that ye will [u] not yet fear the LORD God.

31 And the [x] flax and the [y] barley was smitten: for the barley was [z] in the ear, and the flax was [2] bolled.

32 But the wheat and the [3] rie were not smitten: for they were not grown up.

33 And Moses went out of the city from Phâr'-āōh, and spread abroad his hands unto the LORD: and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain was not poured upon the earth.

34 And when Phâr'-āōh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders were ceased, he sinned yet more, and [d] hardened his heart, he and his servants.

35 And the heart of Phâr'-āōh was hardened, neither would he let the children of Israel go; as the LORD had spoken by Moses.

CHAPTER 10

AND the LORD said unto Moses, [g] Go in unto Phâr'-āōh: for I have [h] hardened his heart, and the heart of his servants, that I [a] might shew these my signs before him:

2 And that thou [b] mayest tell in the ears of thy son, and of thy son's son, [2] what things I have wrought in Egypt, and my signs which I have done among them; that ye [d] may know how that I am the LORD.

3 And Moses and Aaron came in unto Phâr'-āōh, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD [e] God of the Hebrews, How long wilt thou [g] refuse to humble thyself before me? let my people go, that they [h] may serve me.

4 Else, if thou refuse to let my people go, behold, to morrow will I bring the [k] locusts into thy coast:

5 And they shall cover the face of the earth, that one cannot be able to see the earth: and they shall eat [m] the residue of that which is escaped, which remaineth unto you from the hail, and shall eat every tree which groweth for you out of the field:

6 And they shall [n] fill thy houses, and the houses of all thy servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians; [p] which neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers' fathers have seen, since the day that they were upon the earth unto this day. And he turned himself, and went out from Phâr'-āōh.

7 And Phâr'-āōh's servants said unto him, How long shall this man be a [s] snare unto us? let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God: knowest thou not yet that Egypt is destroyed?

8 And Moses and Aaron were brought again unto Phâr'-āōh: and he said unto them, Go, serve the LORD your God: but who are they that shall go?

9 And Moses said, We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds will we go; for we must hold a feast unto the LORD.

10 And he said unto them, Let the LORD be so with you, as I will let you go, and your little ones: look to it; for [x] evil is before you.

11 Not so: go now ye that are men, and serve the LORD; for that ye did desire. And they were driven out from Phâr'-āōh's presence.

12 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, [c] Stretch out thine hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up upon the land of Egypt, and eat every herb of the land, even all that the hail hath left.

13 And Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an [f] east wind upon the land all that day, and all that night; and when it was morning, the east wind brought the [i] locusts.

14 And the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the coasts of Egypt: very grievous were they; [l] before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such.

15 For they covered the face of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened; and they did eat every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left: and there [o] remained not any green thing in the trees, or in the herbs of the field, through all the land of Egypt.

16 ¶ Then Phâr'-āōh called for Moses and Aaron in haste; and he said, I have [q] sinned against the LORD your God, and against you.

17 Now therefore forgive, I pray thee, my sin only this once, and [r] intreat the LORD your God, that he may take away from me this death only.

18 And he went out from Phâr'-āōh, and intreated the LORD.

19 And the LORD turned a mighty strong west [t] wind, which took away the locusts, and cast them into the [u] Red sea; there remained not one locust in all the coasts of Egypt.

20 But the LORD hardened Phâr'-āōh's heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel go.

21 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, [3] even darkness which may be felt.

22 And Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven; and there was a [y] thick darkness in all the land of Egypt [z] three days:

24 ¶ And Phâr'-aōh called unto Moses, and said, Go ye, serve the LORD; only let your flocks and your herds be stayed: let your little ones also go with you.

25 And Moses said, Thou must give us also sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice unto the LORD our God.

26 Our cattle also shall go with us; there shall not an hoof be left behind; for thereof must we take to serve the LORD our God; and we know not with what we must serve the LORD, until we come thither.

27 ¶ But the LORD hardened Phâr'-aōh's heart, and he would not let them go.

28 And Phâr'-aōh said unto him, Get thee from me, take heed to thyself, see my face no more; for in that day thou seest my face thou shalt die.

29 And Moses said, Thou hast spoken well, I will see thy face again no more.

CHAPTER 11

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Yet will I bring one plague more upon Phâr'-aōh, and upon Egypt; afterwards he will let you go hence: when he shall let you go, he shall [k] surely thrust you out hence altogether.

2 Speak now in the ears of the people, and let every man borrow of his neighbour, and [n] every woman of her neighbour, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold.

3 And the LORD gave the people [o] favour in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover [p] the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Phâr'-aōh's servants, and in the sight of the people.

4 And Moses said, Thus saith the LORD, About [s] midnight will I go out into the midst of Egypt:

5 And all the firstborn in the land of Egypt [t] shall die, from the firstborn of Phâr'-aōh that sitteth upon his throne, even unto the firstborn of the maidservant [a] that is behind the [c] mill; and all the firstborn of beasts.

6 And there shall be a [d] great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there was none like it, nor shall be like it any more.

7 [e] But against any of the children of Israel shall not a dog [2] move his tongue, against man or beast: that ye may know how that the LORD doth put a difference between the Egyptians and Israel.

8 And all these thy servants shall come down unto me, and bow down themselves unto me, saying, Get thee out, and all the people that follow thee: and after that I will go out. And he went out from Phâr'-aōh in a great anger.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, Phâr'-aōh shall not hearken unto you; [f] that my [g] wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.

10 And Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Phâr'-aōh: and the LORD [h] hardened Pharaoh's heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

CHAPTER 12

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying,

2 [i] This month shall be unto you the beginning of months: it shall be the [l] first month of the year to you.

3 ¶ Speak ye unto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the [m] tenth day of this month they shall take to them every man a lamb, according to the house of their fathers, a lamb for an house:

4 And if the household be too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbour next unto his house take it [q] according to the number of the souls; every man according to his eating shall make your count for the lamb.

5 Your lamb shall be [r] without blemish, a male of the first year: ye shall take it out from the sheep, or from the goats:

6 And [3] ye shall keep it up until the [u] fourteenth day of the same month:

17 And ye shall [a]observe the feast of unleavened bread; for in this [b]selfsame day have I brought your [c]armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore shall ye observe this day in your generations by an ordinance for ever.

18 ¶ In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at even, ye shall eat unleavened bread, until the one and twentieth day of the month at even.

19 Seven days shall there be no leaven found in your houses: for whosoever eateth that which is leavened, even that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a [l]stranger, or [m]born in the land.

20 Ye shall eat nothing leavened; in all your habitations shall ye eat unleavened bread.

21 ¶ Then Moses called for all the [p]elders of Israel, and said unto them, Draw out and take you a lamb according to your families, and kill the passover.

22 And ye shall take a bunch of [t]hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the bason, and strike the lintel and the two side posts with the blood that is in the bason; and none of you [z]shall go out at the door of his house until the morning.

23 For the LORD will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and [d]will not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you.

24 And ye shall observe this thing for an ordinance to thee and to thy sons for ever.

25 And it shall come to pass, when ye be come to the land which the LORD will give you, according as he hath promised, that ye shall keep this service.

26 [i]And it shall come to pass, when your children shall say unto you, What mean ye by this service?

27 That ye shall say, It is the sacrifice of the LORD's passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. And the people bowed the head and [a] worshipped.

28 And the children of Israel went away, and [b] did as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, [c] so did they.

29 ¶ And it came to pass, that at [d] midnight the LORD [e] smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Phăr'aoh that sat on his throne unto the firstborn of the captive that was in the dungeon; and all the firstborn of cattle.

30 And Phăr'aoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a [g] great cry in Egypt; for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

31 ¶ [h] And he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, and get you forth from among my people, both ye and the children of Israel; and go, [i] serve the LORD, as ye have said.

32 Also take your flocks and your herds, as ye have said, and be gone; and bless me also.

33 And the Egyptians were [m] urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste; for they said, We be all dead men.

34 And the people took their [n] dough before it was leavened, their [o] kneadingtroughs being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders.

35 And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses; and they [r] borrowed of the Egyptians jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment:

36 And the LORD gave the people [t] favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they [x] lent unto them [y] such things as they required. And they [z] spoiled the Egyptians.

37 ¶ And the children of Israel journeyed from [a] Răm'ĕ-sēs to [b] Succoth, [c] about six hundred thousand on foot that were men, beside children.

38 And a [d] mixed multitude went up also with them; and flocks, and herds, even very much cattle.

39 And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of Egypt, for it was not leavened; because they were thrust out of Egypt, and could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves any victual.

40 ¶ Now the sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt, was [f] four hundred and thirty years.

41 And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even the selfsame day it came to pass, that all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt.

42 It is a [2] night to be much observed unto the LORD for bringing them out from the land of Egypt: this is that night of the LORD to be observed of all the children of Israel in their generations.

43 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses and Aaron, This is the ordinance of the passover: There shall no [3] stranger eat thereof:

44 [k] But every man's servant that is bought for money, when thou hast [l] circumcised him, then shall he eat thereof.

45 A [4] foreigner and an hired servant shall not eat thereof.

46 In one house shall it be eaten; thou shalt not carry forth ought of the flesh abroad out of the house; neither shall ye break a [p] bone thereof.

47 [q] All the congregation of Israel shall keep it.

48 And when a [5] stranger shall sojourn with thee, and will keep the passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it; and he shall be as one that is [s] born in the land: for no [u] uncircumcised person shall eat thereof.

49 One law shall be to him that is homeborn, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among you.

50 Thus did all the children of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

51 And it came to pass the selfsame day, that the LORD [e] did bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their armies.

CHAPTER 13

13th c. B.C.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 [b] Sanctify unto me all the firstborn, whatsoever openeth the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of beast: it is mine.

3 ¶ And Moses said unto the people, [d] Remember this day, in which ye came out from Egypt, out of the [e] house of bondage; for by [f] strength of hand the LORD brought you out from this place: there shall no [g] leavened bread be eaten.

4 This day came ye out in the month [h] Abib.

5 ¶ And it shall be when the LORD shall bring thee [k] into the land of the [l] Cā'-nă-ăn-ītes, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Hivites, and the Jĕb'-ū-sītes, which he [m] sware unto thy fathers to give thee, a land [n] flowing with milk and honey, that thou shalt keep this service in this month.

6 [p] Seven days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, and in the seventh day shall be a feast to the LORD.

7 Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days; and there shall no leavened bread be seen with thee, neither shall there be leaven seen with thee in all thy quarters.

8 ¶ And thou shalt [q] shew thy son in that day, saying, This is done because of that which the LORD did unto me when I came forth out of Egypt.

9 And it shall be for a [u] sign unto thee [x] upon thine hand, and for a [y] memorial between thine eyes, [z] that the LORD's law may be in thy mouth: for with a strong hand hath the LORD brought thee out of Egypt.

10 Thou shalt therefore [d] keep this ordinance in his season from year to year.

11 ¶ And it shall be when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the [g] Cā'-nă-ăn-ites, as he sware unto thee and to thy fathers, and shall give it thee,

12 That thou shalt set apart unto the LORD all that openeth the matrix, and every firstling that cometh of a beast which thou hast; the males shall be the LORD's.

13 And every [a] firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a lamb; and if thou wilt not redeem it, then thou shalt [c] break his neck: and all the firstborn of man among thy children shalt thou redeem.

14 ¶ And it shall be when thy son asketh thee in time to come, saying, What is this? that thou shalt say unto him, By strength of hand the LORD brought us out from Egypt, from the house of bondage:

15 And it came to pass, when Phâr'-aōh would hardly let us go, that the LORD [i] slew all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man, and the firstborn of beast: therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all that openeth the matrix, being males; but all the firstborn of my children I redeem.

16 And it shall be for a token upon thine hand, and for [o] frontlets between thine eyes: for by strength of hand the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt.

17 ¶ And it came to pass, when Phâr'-aōh had let the people go, that God led them not through the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, Lest peradventure the people repent when they [r] see war, and they [s] return to Egypt:

18 But God led the people about, through the way of the wilderness of the [t] Red sea: and the children of Israel went up harnessed out of the land of Egypt.

19 And Moses took the bones of [a] Joseph with him: for he had straitly [b] sworn the children of Israel, saying, God will surely [c] visit you; and ye shall carry up my bones away hence with you.

20 ¶ And they took their journey from [e] Succoth, and encamped in [f] Etham, in the edge of the wilderness.

21 And the LORD [h] went before them by day in a [t] pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night:

CHAPTER 14

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, that they turn and encamp before [b]Pī-hă-hī'-rōth, between [c]Migdol and the sea, over against [f]Bā'-ăl-zē'-phŏn: before it shall ye encamp by the [h]sea.

3 For Phâr'-āoh will say of the children of Israel, They are [i]entangled in the land, the wilderness hath shut them in.

4 And I [m]will harden Phâr'-āoh's heart, that he shall follow after them; and I [n]will be honoured upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host; that the Egyptians [p]may know that I am the LORD. And they did so.

5 ¶ And it was told the king of Egypt that the people fled: and the heart of Phâr'-āoh and of his servants was turned against the people, and they said, Why have we done this, that we have let Israel go from serving us?

6 And he made ready his chariot, and took his people with him:

7 And he took six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over every one of them.

8 And the LORD hardened the heart of Phâr'-āoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the children of Israel: and the children of Israel went out with an [u]high hand.

9 But the Egyptians [x]pursued after them, all the horses and chariots of Phâr'-āoh, and his horsemen, and his army, and overtook them encamping by the sea, beside Pī-hă-hī'-rōth, before Bā'-ăl-zē'-phŏn.

10 ¶ And when Phâr'-āoh drew nigh, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and, behold, the Egyptians marched after them; and they were sore afraid: and the children of Israel [z]cried out unto the LORD.

11 [a]And they said unto Moses, Because there were no graves in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? wherefore hast thou dealt thus with us, to carry us forth out of Egypt?

12 Is not this the word that we did [a]tell thee in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? For it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness.

13 ¶ And Moses said unto the people, [d]Fear ye not, [e]stand still, and [g]see the salvation of the LORD, which he will [2]shew to you to day: for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to day, ye shall [k]see them again no more for ever.

14 The LORD [l]shall fight for you, and ye shall hold your peace.

15 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, [o]Wherefore criest thou unto me? speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward:

16 But lift thou up thy rod, and [q]stretch out thine hand over the sea, and divide it: and the children of Israel shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea.

17 And I, behold, I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall follow them: and I will [r]get me honour upon Phâr'-āoh, and upon all his host, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

18 And the Egyptians [s]shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gotten me honour upon Phâr'-āoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

19 ¶ And the [t]angel of God, which went before the camp of Israel, removed and went behind them; and the [y]pillar of the cloud went from before their face, and stood behind them:

20 And it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel; and it was a cloud and darkness to them, but it gave light by night to these: so that the one came not near the other all the night.

21 And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong [b]east wind all that night, and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided.

22 And the [c]children of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground: and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

23 ¶ And the Egyptians pursued, and went in after them to the midst of the sea, even all Phăr'-āoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.

24 And it came to pass, that in the [f] morning watch the LORD looked unto the host of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and of the cloud, and troubled the host of the Egyptians,

25 And [4] took off their chariot wheels, [5] that they drave them heavily: so that the Egyptians said, Let us flee from the face of Israel; for the LORD fighteth for them against the Egyptians.

26 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand over the sea, that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen.

27 And Moses [o] stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to his [6] strength when the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled against it; and the LORD [7] overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.

28 And the waters [t] returned, and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Phăr'-āoh that came into the sea after them; there remained not so much as one of them.

29 [x] But the children of Israel walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea; and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

30 Thus the LORD saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea shore.

31 And Israel saw that great work which the LORD did upon the Egyptians: and the people [g] feared the LORD, and [i] believed the LORD, and his servant Moses.

CHAPTER 15

THEN [m] sang Moses and the children of Israel [n] this song unto the LORD, and spake, saying, I will sing unto the LORD, for he hath [2] triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

2 [2] The LORD is my strength and song, and he is become my salvation: [a] he is my God, and I will [3] prepare him an habitation; [b] my father's God, and [c] I will exalt him.

3 The LORD is [d] a man of war: [e] the LORD is his name.

4 Phăr'-āoh's [g] chariots and his host hath he cast into the sea: his chosen captains also are drowned in the [h] Red sea.

5 The [i] depths have covered them: they sank into the bottom as a stone.

6 [k] Thy right hand, O LORD, is become glorious in power: thy right hand, O LORD, [l] hath dashed in pieces the enemy.

7 And in the greatness of thine [m] excellency thou hast overthrown them that rose up against thee: thou sentest forth thy wrath, which [n] consumed them as stubble.

8 And with the [p] blast of thy nostrils the waters were gathered together, the floods stood upright as an [q] heap, and the depths were [r] congealed in the heart of the sea.

9 The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will [s] divide the spoil; my lust shall be satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them.

10 Thou didst blow with thy [u] wind, the sea covered them: they sank as [y] lead in the mighty waters.

11 [z] Who is like unto thee, O LORD, among [a] the gods? who is like thee, glorious in [b] holiness, [c] fearful in praises, doing [d] wonders?

12 Thou stretchedst out thy right hand, the earth swallowed them.

13 Thou in thy mercy hast [e] led forth the people which thou hast [f] redeemed: thou hast guided them in thy strength unto [h] thy holy habitation.

14 The people [k] shall hear, and be afraid: [8] sorrow shall take hold on the inhabitants of [9] Păl-ĕs-tī'-nă.

15 Then the [l] dukes of Edom shall be amazed; the mighty men of [o] Moab, trembling shall take hold upon them; all the inhabitants of Cā'-nă-ăn shall [p] melt away.

20 ¶ And [x] Miriam the [y] prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a timbrel in her hand; [z] and all the women went out after her with [a] timbrels and with dances.

21 And Miriam answered them, Sing ye to the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

23 ¶ And when they came to [4]Mâr'ăh, they could not drink of the [i] waters of Marah, for they were [k] bitter: therefore the name of it was called Marah.

AND they took their journey from [o] E'lĭm, and all the congregation of the children of Israel came unto the wilderness of [q] Sin, which is between Elim and [r] Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departing out of the land of Egypt.

3 And the children of Israel said unto them, Would to God we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, [b] when we sat by the flesh pots, and when we did eat bread to the full; for ye have brought us forth into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger.

murmur against him: and what are we? your murmurings are not against us, but against the LORD.

9 ¶ And Moses spake unto Aaron, Say unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, Come near before the LORD: for he hath heard your murmurings.

10 And it came to pass, as Aaron spake unto the whole congregation of the children of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness, and, behold, [a] the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.

11 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel: speak unto them, saying, [2] At even ye shall eat flesh, and in the morning ye shall be filled with bread; and [d] ye shall know that I am the LORD your God.

13 And it came to pass, that at even the [e] quails came up, and covered the camp: and in the morning [f] the dew lay round about the host.

14 And when the dew that lay was gone up, behold, upon the face of the wilderness there lay a [3] small [4] round thing, as small as the [g] hoar frost on the ground.

15 And when the children of Israel saw it, they said one to another, It is [5] manna: for they wist not what it was. And Moses said unto them, This is the bread which the LORD hath given you to eat.

16 ¶ This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded, Gather of it every man according to his eating, an omer [l] for every man, [m] according to the number of your persons; take ye every man for them which are in his tents.

17 And the children of Israel did so, and gathered, some more, some less.

18 And when they did mete it with an omer, he that gathered much had nothing over, and [o] he that gathered little had no lack; they gathered every man according to his eating.

19 And Moses said, [q] Let no man leave of it till the morning.

20 Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto Moses; but some of them left of it until the morning, and it bred worms, and stank: and Moses was wroth with them.

21 And they gathered it every morning, every man according to his eating: and when the sun waxed hot, it melted.

22 ¶ And it came to pass, that on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for one man: and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses.

23 And he said unto them, This is that which the LORD hath said, To morrow is [b] the rest of the [c] holy sabbath unto the LORD: bake that which ye will bake to day, and seethe that ye will seethe; and that which remaineth over lay up for you to be kept until the morning.

24 And they laid it up till the morning, as Moses bade: and it did not stink, neither was there any worm therein.

25 And Moses said, Eat that to day; for to day is a sabbath unto the LORD: to day ye shall not find it in the field.

26 Six days ye shall gather it; but on the seventh day, which is the sabbath, in it there shall be none.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, that there went out some of the people on the seventh day for to gather, and they found none.

28 And the LORD said unto Moses, [h] How long [i] refuse ye to keep my commandments and my laws?

29 See, for that the LORD hath given you the sabbath, therefore he giveth you [k] on the sixth day the bread of two days; abide ye every man in his place, let no man go out of his place on the seventh day.

30 So the people rested on the seventh day.

31 And the house of Israel called the name thereof Manna: and it was like [n] coriander seed, white; and the taste of it was like wafers made with [p] honey.

32 ¶ And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commandeth, Fill an omer of it to be kept for your generations; that they may see the bread wherewith I have fed you in

CHAPTER 17

AND all the congregation of the children of Israel [n] journeyed from the [o] wilderness of Sin, after their journeys, according to the commandment of the LORD, and pitched in [p] Rĕph'ī-dĭm: [q] and there was no water for the people to drink.

2 Wherefore the people did chide with Moses, and said, Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said unto them, Why chide ye with me? wherefore do ye [t] tempt the LORD?

3 And the people thirsted there for water; and the people [u] murmured against Moses, and said, [x] Wherefore is this that thou hast brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst?

4 And Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, What shall I do unto this people? they be almost ready to [c] stone me.

5 [d] And the LORD said unto Moses, Go on before the people, and take with thee of the [f] elders of Israel; and thy rod, wherewith thou smotest the river, take in thine hand, and go.

6 Behold, I will stand before thee there upon the rock in [i] Horeb; and thou shalt [k] smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.

7 And he called the name of the place [6] Massah, and [7] Meribah, because of the chiding of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the LORD, saying, Is the LORD [b] among us, or not?

8 ¶ Then came [d] Ăm'ă-lĕk, and fought with Israel in Rĕph'ī-dĭm.

9 And Moses said unto [e] Joshua, Choose us out men, and go out, fight with Ăm'ă-lĕk: to morrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the [g] rod of God in mine hand.

10 So Joshua did as Moses had said to him, and fought with Ăm'ă-lĕk: and Moses, Aaron, and [k] Hur went up to the top of the hill.

11 And it came to pass, when Moses [l] held up his hand, that Israel prevailed: and when he let down his hand, Ăm'ă-lĕk prevailed.

12 But Moses' hands were heavy; and they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat thereon; and Aaron and Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun.

13 And Joshua [2] discomfited Ăm'ă-lĕk and his people with [r] the edge of the sword.

14 And the LORD said unto Moses, Write this for a [s] memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua: for I will utterly [3] put out the remembrance of Ăm'ă-lĕk from under heaven.

15 And Moses built an [y] altar, and called the name of it [4] Jehovah–nĭs'sī:

16 For he said, Because [5 z] the LORD hath [a] sworn that the LORD will have [b] war with Ăm'ă-lĕk from generation to generation.

4 And the name of the other was [2]Ĕl-ĭ-ē'-zĕr; for the [b] God of my father, said he, was mine help, and delivered me from the sword of Phâr'-āoh:

5 And Jethro, Moses' father in law, came with his sons and his wife unto Moses into the wilderness, where he encamped at the [f] mount of God:

6 And he said unto Moses, I thy father in law Jethro am come unto thee, and thy wife, and her two sons with her.

7 ¶ And Moses went out to meet his father in law, and did obeisance, and [h] kissed him; and they asked each other of their welfare; and they came into the tent.

8 And Moses told his father in law all that the LORD had done unto Phâr'-āoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's [m] sake, and all the [n] travail that had come upon them by the way, and how the LORD delivered them.

9 And Jethro rejoiced for all the [q] goodness which the LORD had done to Israel, whom he had delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians.

10 And Jethro said, Blessed be the LORD, who hath delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of [t] Phâr'-āoh, who hath delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians.

11 Now I know that the LORD is [x] greater than all gods: for in the thing wherein they dealt proudly he was above them.

12 And Jethro, Moses' father in law, took a [z] burnt offering and sacrifices for God: and [a] Aaron came, and all the [b] elders of Israel, to [c] eat bread with Moses' father in law before God.

13 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that [d] Moses sat to judge the people: and the people stood by Moses from the morning unto the evening.

14 And when Moses' father in law saw all that he did to the people, he said, What is this thing that thou doest to the people? why sittest thou thyself alone, and all the people stand by thee from morning unto even?

15 And Moses said unto his father in law, Because the people [a] come unto me [c] to enquire of God:

16 [d] When they have a matter, they come unto me; and I judge between one and another, and [e] I do make them know the statutes of God, and his laws.

17 And Moses' father in law said unto him, The thing that thou doest is not good.

18 Thou wilt surely wear away, both thou, and this people that is with thee: for this thing is too heavy for thee; [g] thou art not able to perform it thyself alone.

19 Hearken now unto my voice, I will give thee counsel, and God shall be with thee: Be thou for the people [i] to God-ward, that thou mayest [k] bring the causes unto God:

20 And thou [l] shalt teach them ordinances and laws, and shalt [o] shew them the way wherein they must walk, and the work that they must do.

21 Moreover thou shalt [p] provide out of all the people [r] able men, such as [s] fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens:

22 And let them [u] judge the people at all seasons: and it shall be, that every great matter they shall bring unto thee, but every small matter they shall judge: so shall it be easier for thyself, and they shall [y] bear the burden with thee.

23 If thou shalt do this thing, and God command thee so, then thou shalt be able to endure, and all this people shall also go to their place in peace.

24 So Moses hearkened to the voice of his father in law, and did all that he had said.

25 And Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

26 And they judged the people at all seasons: [e] the hard causes they brought unto Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves.

27 ¶ And Moses let his father in law depart; and he [a] went his way into his own land.

CHAPTER 19

[d] IN the third month, when the children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt, the same day came they into the wilderness of [g] Sinai.

2 For they were departed from [i] Rĕph-ï-dim, and were come to the desert of Sinai, and had pitched in the wilderness; and there Israel camped before the mount.

3 And Moses [k] went up unto God, and the LORD called unto him out of the mountain, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of [l] Jacob, and tell the children of Israel;

4 [n] Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I [o] bare you on [q] eagles' wings, and brought you unto myself.

5 [t] Now therefore, [u] if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a [x] peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for [z] all the earth is mine:

6 And ye shall be unto me a [a] kingdom of priests, and an [b] holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

7 ¶ And Moses came and called for the [e] elders of the people, and laid before their faces all these words which the LORD commanded him.

8 And all the people answered together, and said, [i] All that the LORD hath spoken we will do. And Moses returned the words of the people unto the LORD.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, Lo, I come unto thee in a [k] thick cloud, that the people [l] may hear when I [m] speak with thee, and [n] believe thee for ever. And Moses told the words of the people unto the LORD.

10 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Go unto the people, and [p] sanctify them to day and to morrow, and let them [r] wash their clothes, 11 And be ready against the third day: for the third day the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai.

12 And thou shalt [b] set bounds unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves, that ye [c] go not up into the mount, or [e] touch the border of it: whosoever toucheth the mount shall be surely put to death:

13 [f] There shall not an hand touch it, but he shall surely be [h] stoned, or shot through; whether it be beast or man, it shall not live: when the [2] trumpet soundeth long, they shall come up to the mount.

14 ¶ And Moses went down from the mount unto the people, and sanctified the people; and they washed their clothes.

15 And he said unto the people, Be ready against the third day: [m] come not at your wives.

16 ¶ [p] And it came to pass on the third day in the morning, that there were [r] thunders and [s] lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the voice of the trumpet exceeding loud; so that all the people that was in the camp [y] trembled.

17 And Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet with God; and they [c] stood at the nether part of the mount.

18 And mount Sinai was altogether [d] on a smoke, because the LORD descended upon it [f] in fire: and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a [g] furnace, [h] and the whole mount quaked greatly.

19 And when the voice of the trumpet sounded long, and waxed louder and louder, Moses spake, and God answered him by a voice.

20 And the LORD came down upon mount Sinai, on the top of the mount: and the LORD called Moses up to the top of the mount; and Moses [o] went up.

21 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go down, charge the people, lest they break through unto the LORD to [q] gaze, and many of them perish.

22 And let the priests also, which [s] come near to the LORD, [t] sanctify themselves, lest the LORD [u] break forth upon them.

26 Neither shalt thou go up by [d] steps unto mine altar, that thy [f] nakedness be not discovered thereon.

CHAPTER 21

NOW these are the [h] judgments which thou shalt set before them.

2 [l] If thou [m] buy an [n] Hebrew servant, six years he shall serve: and in the [p] seventh he shall go out free for nothing.

3 If he came in by himself, he shall go out by himself: if he were married, then his wife shall go out with him.

4 If his master have given him a wife, and she have born him sons or daughters; the wife and her children shall be her master's, and he shall go out by himself.

5 And if the servant shall plainly say, I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free:

6 Then his master shall bring him unto [3] the judges; he shall also bring him to the door, or unto the [q] door post; and his master shall [r] bore his ear through with an aul; and he shall serve him for ever.

7 ¶ And if a man sell his [s] daughter to be a maidservant, she shall [t] not go out as the menservants do.

8 If she please not her master, who hath betrothed her to himself, then shall he let her be redeemed: to sell her unto a strange nation he shall have no power, seeing he hath dealt deceitfully with her.

9 And if he have betrothed her unto his son, he shall deal with her after the manner of daughters.

10 If he take him another wife; her [5] food, her raiment, and her duty of marriage, shall he not diminish.

11 And if he do not these three unto her, then shall she go out free without money.

12 ¶ He that smiteth a man, so that he die, shall be [a] surely put to death.

13 [b] And if a man [c] lie not in wait, but [e] God deliver him into his hand; then I will [f] appoint thee a place whither he shall flee.

14 But if a man come [b] presumptuously upon his neighbour, to [c] slay him with guile; thou shalt [e] take him from mine altar, that he may die.

15 ¶ And he that [g] smiteth his father, or his mother, shall be surely put to death.

16 ¶ [i] And he that [k] stealeth a man, and selleth him, or if he be found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death.

17 ¶ [o] And he that [2] curseth his father, or his mother, shall surely be put to death.

18 ¶ And if men strive together, and one smite another with a stone, or with his fist, and he die not, but keepeth his bed:

19 If he rise again, and walk abroad upon his staff, then shall he that smote him be quit: only he shall pay for the loss of his time, and shall cause him to be thoroughly healed.

20 ¶ And if a man smite his servant, or his maid, with a rod, and he die under his hand; he shall be surely punished.

21 Notwithstanding, if he continue a day or two, he shall [4] not be punished: for he is his money.

22 ¶ If men strive, and hurt a woman with child, so that her fruit depart from her, and yet no mischief follow: he shall be surely punished, according as the woman's husband will lay upon him; and he shall pay [u] as the judges determine.

23 [x] And if any mischief follow, then thou shalt give life for life,

24 [y] Eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,

25 Burning for burning, [z] wound for wound, stripe for stripe.

26 ¶ And if a man smite the eye of his servant, or the eye of his maid, that it perish; he shall let him go free for his eye's sake.

27 And if he smite out his manservant's tooth, or his maidservant's tooth; he shall let him go free for his tooth's sake.

28 ¶ If an ox gore a man or a woman, that they die: then [d] the ox shall be surely stoned, and his flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall be quit.

29 But if the ox were wont to push with his horn in time past, and it hath been testified to his owner, and he hath not kept him in, but that he hath killed a man or a woman; the ox shall be stoned, and his owner also shall be put to death.

30 If there be laid on him [2]a sum of money, then he shall give for the [3]ransom of his life whatsoever is laid upon him.

31 Whether he have gored a son, or have gored a daughter, according to this judgment shall it be done unto him.

32 If the ox shall push a manservant or a maidservant; he shall give unto their master [c] thirty [d] shē'kĕls of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.

33 ¶ And if a man shall open a [f] pit, or if a man shall dig a pit, and not cover it, and an ox or an ass fall therein;

34 The owner of the pit shall make it good, and give money unto the owner of them; and the dead beast shall be his.

35 ¶ And if one man's ox hurt another's, that he die; then they shall sell the live ox, and divide the money of it; and the dead ox also they shall divide.

36 Or if it be known that the ox hath used to push in time past, and his owner hath not kept him in; he shall surely pay ox for ox; and the dead shall be his own.

CHAPTER 22

IF a man shall steal an ox, or a sheep, and kill it, or sell it; he [i] shall restore five oxen for an ox, and [k] four sheep for a sheep.

2 ¶ If a thief be found [m] breaking up, and be smitten that he die, there shall no [4]blood be shed for him.

3 If the sun be risen upon him, there shall be blood shed for him; for he should make full restitution; if he have nothing, then he shall be [o] sold for his theft.

4 If the theft be certainly found in his hand alive, whether it be ox, or ass, or sheep; he shall restore double.

5 ¶ If a man shall cause a field or vineyard to be eaten, and shall put in his beast, and shall feed in another man's field; of the best of his own field, and of the best of his own vineyard, shall he make restitution.

6 ¶ If fire break out, and catch in thorns, so that the stacks of corn, or the standing corn, or the field, be consumed therewith; he that [a] kindled the fire shall surely make restitution.

7 ¶ If a man [b] shall deliver unto his neighbour money or stuff to keep, and it be stolen out of the man's house; if the thief be found, let him pay double.

8 If the thief be not found, then the master of the house shall be brought unto the [e] judges, to see whether he have put his hand unto his neighbour's goods.

9 For all manner of trespass, whether it be for ox, for ass, for sheep, for raiment, or for any manner of lost thing, which another challengeth to be his, the cause of both parties shall come before the judges; and whom the judges [g] shall condemn, he shall pay double unto his neighbour.

10 If a man deliver unto his neighbour an ass, or an ox, or a sheep, or any beast, to keep; and it die, or be hurt, or driven away, no man seeing it:

11 Then shall an [h] oath of the LORD be between them both, that he hath not put his hand unto his neighbour's goods; and the owner of it shall accept thereof, and he shall not make it good.

12 And if it be stolen from him, he shall [l] make restitution unto the owner thereof.

13 If it be [n] torn in pieces, then let him bring it for witness, and he shall not make good that which was torn.

14 ¶ And if a man borrow ought of his neighbour, and it be hurt, or die, the owner thereof being not with it, he shall surely make it good.

15 But if the owner thereof be with it, he shall not make it good: if it be an hired thing, [5]it came for his hire.

16 ¶ [p] And if a man entice a maid that is not betrothed, and lie with her,

CHAPTER 23

THOU shalt not raise a [a] false report: put not thine hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous [c] witness.

2 ¶ Thou shalt not [e] follow a multitude to do evil; neither shalt thou speak in a cause to decline after many to [i] wrest judgment:

3 ¶ Neither shalt thou countenance a [l] poor man in his cause.

4 ¶ [m n] If thou meet thine [o] enemy's ox or his ass going astray, thou shalt surely bring it back to him again.

5 [q] If thou see the ass of him that hateth thee lying under his burden, and wouldest forbear to help him, thou shalt surely help with him.

6 Thou shalt not wrest the judgment of thy [t] poor in his cause.

7 Keep thee far from a false matter; and the [u] innocent and righteous slay thou not: for I will not [y] justify the wicked.

8 ¶ [b] And thou shalt take no gift: for the [c] gift blindeth the [3] wise, and perverteth the words of the righteous.

9 ¶ Also thou shalt not [e] oppress a stranger: for ye know the heart of a stranger, seeing ye [f] were strangers in the land of Egypt.

10 [i] And six years thou shalt sow thy land, and shalt gather in the fruits thereof:

11 But [k] the seventh year thou shalt [4] let it rest and lie still; that the [l] poor of thy people may eat: and what they leave the beasts of the field shall eat. In like manner thou shalt deal with thy vineyard, and with thy [6] oliveyard.

12 Six days thou shalt do thy work, and on the [p] seventh day thou shalt rest: that thine ox and thine ass may rest, and the son of thy handmaid, and the [r] stranger, may be refreshed.

13 And in all things that I have said unto you be circumspect: and [t] make no mention of the name of other gods, [x] neither let it be heard out of thy mouth.

14 ¶ [z a] Three times thou shalt keep a feast unto me in the year.

15 Thou shalt keep the [a]feast of unleavened bread: (thou shalt eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded thee, in the time appointed of the month [c]Abib; for in it thou camest out from Egypt: and [e]none shall appear before me empty:)

16 And the [f]feast of harvest, the [g]firstfruits of thy labours, which thou hast sown in the field: and the [f]feast of ingathering, which is in the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of the field.

17 Three times in the year all thy males [k]shall appear before the Lord GOD.

18 [m]Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with [o]leavened bread; neither shall the [q]fat of my sacrifice [r]remain until the morning.

19 The first of the [t]firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring into the house of the LORD thy God. [x]Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk.

20 ¶ Behold, I send an [z]Angel before thee, [a]to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee [b]into the place which I have prepared.

21 Beware of him, and obey his voice, provoke him not; for [e]he will not pardon your transgressions: for [f]my name is in him.

22 But [g]if thou shalt indeed obey his voice, and do all that I speak; then [k]I will be an enemy unto thine enemies, and an adversary unto thine adversaries.

23 For mine Angel shall go before thee, and bring thee in unto the [m]Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Pĕ-rĭz'-zītes, and the Cā'-nă-ăn-ītes, the Hivites, and the Jĕb'-ū-sītes: and I will cut them off.

24 Thou shalt [o]not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, [p]nor do after their works: but [r]thou shalt utterly overthrow them, and quite break down their [3]images.

25 And ye shall [t]serve the LORD your God, and [x]he shall bless thy bread, and thy water; and [a]I will take sickness away from the midst of thee.

26 ¶ [b]There shall nothing cast their young, nor be barren, in thy land: [e]the number of thy days I will fulfil.

27 I will send [2]my fear before thee, and will destroy all the people to whom thou shalt come, and I will make all thine enemies [b]turn their backs unto thee.

28 And I will send [d]hornets before thee, which shall drive out the Hivite, the Cā'-nă-ăn-īte, and the Hittite, from before thee.

29 [h]I will not drive them out from before thee in one year; lest the land become desolate, and the beast of the field multiply against thee.

30 [i]By little and little I will drive them out from before thee, until thou be [l]increased, and inherit the land.

31 And I will set [n]thy bounds from the [p]Red sea even unto the sea of the Philistines, and from the desert unto the [s]river: for I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand; and [u]thou shalt drive them out before thee.

32 Thou shalt make [y]no covenant with them, nor with their gods.

33 They shall not dwell in thy land, [c]lest they make thee sin against me: for if thou serve their gods, it will surely be a [d]snare unto thee.

CHAPTER 24

AND he said unto Moses, Come up unto the LORD, thou, and Aaron, [h]Nadab, and A-bī'-hū, and [i]seventy of the elders of Israel; and worship ye afar off.

2 And [l]Moses alone shall come near the LORD: but they shall not come nigh; neither shall the people go up with him.

3 ¶ And Moses came and told the people all the words of the LORD, and all the [n]judgments: and all the people answered with one voice, and said, [q]All the words which the LORD hath said will we do.

4 And [s]Moses wrote all the words of the LORD, and rose up early in the morning, and builded an [u]altar under the hill, and [y]twelve [z]pillars, according to the twelve tribes of Israel.

5 And he sent young men of the children of Israel, which offered [c]burnt offerings, and sacrificed [d]peace offerings of oxen unto the LORD.

8 And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold the blood of the covenant which the LORD hath made with you concerning all these words.

9 ¶ Then went up Moses, and Aaron, Nadab, and Ă-bī'-hū, and seventy of the elders of Israel:

12 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Come up to me into the mount, and be there: and I will give thee [a] tables of stone, and a law, and commandments which I have written; that thou [d] mayest teach them.

13 And Moses rose up, and his minister [e] Joshua: and Moses [f] went up into the [g] mount of God.

14 And he said unto the elders, Tarry ye here for us, until we come again unto you: and, behold, Aaron and [h] Hur are with you: [i] if any man have any matters to do, let him come unto them.

15 And Moses went up into the mount, and a cloud covered the mount.

16 And the [l] glory of the LORD abode upon [m] mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days: and the seventh day he called unto Moses [n] out of the midst of the cloud.

17 And the sight of the glory of the LORD was like [o] devouring fire on the top of the mount in the eyes of the children of Israel.

18 And Moses [q] went into the midst of the cloud, and gat him up into the mount: and Moses was in the mount [l] forty days and forty nights.

CHAPTER 25

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring me an [2] offering: of every man that giveth it [e] willingly with his heart ye shall take my offering.

3 And this is the offering which ye shall take of them; [f] gold, and silver, and brass,

4 And [g] blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and [h] goats' hair,

5 And [i] rams' skins dyed red, and [3] badgers' skins, and [4] shittim wood,

6 [l] Oil for the light, [m] spices for [n] anointing oil, and for [o] sweet incense,

7 [q] Onyx stones, and stones to be set in the [r] ē'-phŏd, and in the [s] breastplate.

8 And let them [t] make me a sanctuary; that I may [y] dwell among them.

9 According to all that I shew thee, after the [z] pattern of the tabernacle, and the pattern of all the instruments thereof, even so shall ye make it.

10 ¶ [b] And they shall make an [c] ark of shittim wood: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

11 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, within and without shalt thou overlay it, and shalt make upon it a [7] crown of gold round about.

12 And thou shalt cast four rings of gold for it, and put them in the four [k] corners thereof; and two rings shall be in the one side of it, and two rings in the other side of it.

13 And thou shalt make staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold.

14 And thou shalt put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, that the ark may be borne with them.

15 The [p] staves shall be in the rings of the ark: they shall not be taken from it.

16 And thou shalt put [r] into the ark the [s] testimony which I shall give thee.

17 And thou shalt make a [u] mercy seat of pure gold: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof.

18 And thou shalt make two [b] chĕr-ū-bĭms of gold, of [2] beaten work shalt thou make them, in the two ends of the mercy seat.

19 And make one cherub on the one end, and the other cherub on the other end: even of the mercy seat shall ye make the chĕr-ū-bĭms on the two ends thereof.

20 And the chĕr-ū-bĭms shall stretch forth their wings on high, covering the mercy seat with their wings, and their faces shall look one to another; toward the mercy seat shall the faces of the cherubims be.

21 And thou shalt put the [i] mercy seat above upon the ark; and in the ark thou shalt put the testimony that I shall give thee.

22 And there I will [k] meet with thee, and I will commune with thee from above the mercy seat, from [l] between the two chĕr-ū-bĭms which are upon [m] the ark of the testimony, of all things which I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Israel.

23 ¶ [n] Thou shalt also make a [o] table of shittim wood: two cubits shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

24 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, and make thereto a [p] crown of gold round about.

25 And thou shalt make unto it a [q] border of an hand breadth round about, and thou shalt make a golden crown to the border thereof round about.

26 And thou shalt make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings in the four corners that are on the four feet thereof.

27 Over against the border shall the rings be for [x] places of the staves to bear the table.

28 And thou shalt make the staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold, that the table may be borne with them.

29 And thou shalt make the [d] dishes thereof, and [d] spoons thereof, and [a] covers thereof, and [a] bowls thereof, to cover withal: of pure gold shalt thou make them.

30 And thou shalt [c] set upon the table [d] shewbread before me alway.

31 ¶ [e] And thou shalt make a [f] candlestick of pure gold: of beaten work shall the candlestick be made: his shaft, and his branches, his [g] bowls, his [h] knops, and his flowers, shall be of the same.

32 And six branches shall come out of the sides of it; three branches of the candlestick out of the one side, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side:

33 Three bowls made like unto almonds, with a knop and a flower in one branch; and three bowls made like almonds in the other branch, with a knop and a flower: so in the six branches that come out of the candlestick.

34 And in the candlestick shall be four bowls made like unto almonds, with their knops and their flowers.

35 And there shall be a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches that proceed out of the candlestick.

36 Their knops and their branches shall be of the same: all it shall be one beaten work of pure gold.

37 And thou shalt make the seven lamps thereof: and they shall [3] light the lamps thereof, that they may give light over against it.

38 And the [r] tongs thereof, and the [s] snuffdishes thereof, shall be of pure gold.

39 Of a [t] talent of pure gold shall he make it, with all these vessels.

40 And [u] look that thou make them after their pattern, which was shewed thee in the mount.

CHAPTER 26

[y] MOREOVER thou shalt make the [z] tabernacle with ten [a] curtains of fine twined [b] linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with [c] chĕr-ū-bĭms of [4] cunning work shalt thou make them.

12 And [4]the remnant that remaineth of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remaineth, shall hang over the backside of the tabernacle.

13 And a cubit on the one side, and a cubit on the other side of that which remaineth in the length of the curtains of the tent, it shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle on this side and on that side, to cover it.

19 All the vessels of the tabernacle in all the service thereof, and all the [c] pins thereof, and all the pins of the court, shall be of brass.

20 ¶ [d] And thou shalt command the children of Israel, that they bring thee pure [f] oil olive beaten for the light, to cause the lamp to burn always.

21 In the [2]tabernacle of the congregation without the [g] vail, which is [h] before the testimony, Aaron and his sons shall [k] order it from evening to morning before the LORD: it shall be a [m] statute for ever unto their generations on the behalf of the children of Israel.

CHAPTER 28

AND take thou unto thee [n] Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him, from among the children of Israel, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office, even Aaron, [q] Nadab and Ăb-ī'hū, [r] Ĕl-ē-ā'zär and [r] Ĭth'ă-mär, Aaron's sons.

2 And thou shalt make [s] holy garments for Aaron thy brother for glory and for [t] beauty.

3 And thou shalt speak unto all that are [x] wise hearted, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they may make Aaron's garments to consecrate him, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office.

4 And these are the garments which they shall make; a [y] breastplate, and an [y] ē'phŏd, and a [z] robe, and a [a] broidered coat, a [3]mitre, and a [a] girdle: and they shall make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, and his sons, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office.

5 And they shall take gold, and [c] blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen.

6 ¶ [f] And they shall make the ē'phŏd of gold, of blue, and of purple, of scarlet, and fine twined linen, with [a] cunning work.

7 It shall have the two shoulder-pieces thereof joined at the two edges thereof; and so it shall be joined together.

8 And the [b] curious girdle of the ē'phŏd, which is upon it, shall be of the same, according to the work thereof; even of gold, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 And thou shalt take two [e] onyx stones, and grave on them the names of the children of Israel:

10 Six of their names on one stone, and the other six names of the rest on the other stone, according to their birth.

11 With the work of an [i] engraver in stone, like the engravings of a [l] signet, shalt thou engrave the two stones with the names of the children of Israel: thou shalt make them to be set in ouches of gold.

12 And thou shalt put the two stones upon the shoulders of the ē'phŏd for stones of memorial unto the children of Israel: and Aaron shall [o] bear their names before the LORD upon his two shoulders for a [p] memorial.

13 ¶ And thou shalt make ouches of gold;

14 And two chains of pure gold at the ends; of wreathen work shalt thou make them, and fasten the wreathen chains to the ouches.

15 ¶ [u] And thou shalt make the breastplate of judgment with cunning work; after the work of the ē'phŏd thou shalt make it; of gold, of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine twined linen, shalt thou make it.

16 Foursquare it shall be being doubled; a span shall be the length thereof, and a span shall be the breadth thereof.

17 And thou shalt set in it settings of stones, even four rows of stones: the first row shall be a [4]sardius, a [b] topaz, and a [b] carbuncle: this shall be the first row.

30 ¶ And thou shalt put in the breastplate of judgment the [t]Urim and the Thummim; and they shall be upon Aaron's heart, when he goeth in before the LORD: and Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel upon his heart before the LORD continually.

31 ¶ [d]And thou shalt make the [e]robe of the ē'phŏd all of [f]blue.

32 And there shall be an hole in the top of it, in the midst thereof: it shall have a binding of woven work round about the hole of it, as it were the hole of an [4]habergeon, that it be not rent.

33 ¶ And beneath upon the hem of it thou shalt make [h]pomegranates of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, round about the hem thereof; and bells of gold between them round about:

34 A golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, upon the hem of the robe round about.

35 And it shall be upon Aaron to minister: and his sound shall be heard when he goeth in unto the holy place before the LORD, and when he cometh out, that he die not.

36 ¶ And thou shalt make a [i]plate of pure gold, and grave upon it, like the engravings of a signet, [5]HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

37 And thou shalt put it on a blue lace, that it may be upon the mitre; upon the forefront of the mitre it shall be.

38 And it shall be upon Aaron's forehead, that Aaron may [k]bear the iniquity of the holy things, which the children of Israel shall hallow in all their holy gifts; and it shall be always upon his forehead, that they may be [n]accepted before the LORD.

39 ¶ And thou shalt embroider the [o]coat of fine linen, and thou shalt make the mitre of fine linen, and thou shalt make the girdle of [p]needlework.

40 ¶ And [r]for Aaron's sons thou shalt make coats, and thou shalt make for them [s]girdles, and [6]bonnets shalt thou make for them, for glory and for beauty.

41 And thou shalt put them upon Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him; and shalt [u]anoint them, and [x]consecrate them, and [y]sanctify them, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office.

42 And thou shalt make them linen [b] breeches to cover their [c] nakedness; from the loins even unto the thighs they shall reach:

43 And they shall be upon Aaron, and upon his sons, when they come in unto the tabernacle of the congregation, or when they come near unto the altar to minister in the holy place; that they bear not iniquity, and die: it shall be a [g] statute for ever unto him and his seed after him.

CHAPTER 29

AND this is the thing that thou shalt do unto them to hallow them, to minister unto me in the priest's office: [k] Take one young bullock, and two rams without blemish,

2 And [n] unleavened bread, and [o] cakes unleavened tempered with oil, and [p] wafers unleavened anointed with oil: of wheaten flour shalt thou make them.

3 And thou shalt put them into one [r] basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bullock and the two rams.

4 And Aaron and his sons thou shalt bring unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shalt [s] wash them with water.

5 And thou shalt take the [u] garments, and put upon Aaron the [y] coat, and the [z] robe of the [a] ē'-phŏd, and the ephod, and the [a] breastplate, and gird him with the [b] curious girdle of the ephod:

6 And thou shalt put the [c] mitre upon his head, and put the holy [d] crown upon the mitre.

7 Then shalt thou take the [e] anointing oil, and pour it upon his head, and [g] anoint him.

8 And thou shalt bring his sons, and put coats upon them.

9 And thou shalt gird them with [h] girdles, Aaron and his sons, and put the [2] bonnets on them: and [i] the priest's office shall be their's for a [l] perpetual statute: and thou shalt [m] consecrate Aaron and his sons.

10 And thou shalt cause a bullock to be brought before the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron and his sons shall [a] put their hands upon the head of the bullock.

11 And thou shalt kill the bullock before the LORD, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

12 And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and put it upon the [d] horns of the altar with thy finger, and [e] pour all the blood beside the bottom of the altar.

13 And thou shalt take all the [f] fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul that is above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and burn them upon the altar.

14 But the flesh of the bullock, and his [h] skin, and his dung, shalt thou burn with fire [i] without the camp: it is a [l] sin offering.

15 ¶ Thou shalt also take one [m] ram; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

16 And thou shalt slay the ram, and thou shalt take his blood, and [q] sprinkle it round about upon the altar.

17 And thou shalt cut the ram in pieces, and wash the inwards of him, and his legs, and put them unto his pieces, and unto his head.

18 And thou shalt burn the whole ram upon the altar: it is a [t] burnt offering unto the LORD: it is a [x] sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

19 ¶ And thou shalt take the other ram; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

20 Then shalt thou kill the ram, and take of his blood, and put it upon the [f] tip of the right ear of Aaron, and upon the tip of the right ear of his sons, and upon the thumb of their right hand, and upon the great toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.

21 And thou shalt take of the blood that is upon the altar, and of the anointing oil, and [k] sprinkle it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon the garments of his sons with him: and he shall be [n] hallowed, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him.

22 Also thou shalt take of the ram the fat and the [2]rump, and the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and the right shoulder; for it is a [c] ram of consecration:

23 And [e] one loaf of bread, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of the unleavened bread that is before the LORD:

24 And thou shalt put all in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sons; and shalt wave them for a [f] wave offering before the LORD.

25 And thou [g] shalt receive them of their hands, and burn them upon the altar for a burnt offering, for a sweet savour before the LORD: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

26 And thou shalt take the breast of the ram of Aaron's consecration, and wave it for a wave offering before the LORD: and it shall be [i] thy part.

27 And thou shalt sanctify the breast of the wave offering, and the shoulder of the [n] heave offering, which is waved, and which is heaved up, of the ram of the consecration, even of that which is for Aaron, and of that which is for his sons:

28 [p] And it shall be Aaron's and his sons' by a [q] statute for ever from the children of Israel: for it is an heave offering: and it shall be an heave offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifice of their [s] peace offerings, even their heave offering unto the LORD.

29 ¶ [u] And the holy garments of Aaron shall be his sons' after him, [x] to be anointed therein, and to be consecrated in them.

30 And that son that is priest in his stead shall put them on [y] seven days, when he cometh into the tabernacle of the congregation to minister in the holy place.

31 ¶ And thou shalt take the ram of the consecration, and [a] seethe his flesh in the holy place.

32 And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

33 And they shall eat those things wherewith the [a] atonement was made, to consecrate and to sanctify them: but a [b] stranger shall not eat thereof, because they are holy.

34 And if ought of the flesh of the consecrations, or of the bread, [d] remain unto the morning, then thou shalt burn the remainder with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it is holy.

35 And thus shalt thou do unto Aaron, and to his sons, according to all things which I have commanded thee: seven days shalt thou consecrate them.

36 And thou shalt offer every day a bullock for a sin offering for atonement: and thou shalt [h] cleanse the altar, when thou hast made an atonement for it, and thou shalt [i] anoint it, to [k] sanctify it.

37 Seven days thou shalt make an atonement for the altar, and sanctify it; and it shall be an altar [m] most holy: [3] whatsoever toucheth the altar shall be holy.

38 ¶ Now this is that which thou shalt offer upon the altar; two lambs of the first year [o] day by day continually.

39 The one lamb thou shalt offer in the morning; and the other lamb thou shalt offer [r] at even:

40 And with the one lamb a tenth deal of flour mingled with the fourth part of an hin of beaten oil; and the fourth part of an hin of wine for a [t] drink offering.

41 And the other lamb thou shalt offer at even, and shalt do thereto according to the [4] meat offering of the morning, and according to the drink offering thereof, for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

42 This shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD: where I will [z] meet you, to speak there unto thee.

43 And there I will meet with the children of Israel, and the tabernacle shall be sanctified by [b] my glory.

CHAPTER 30

[m]AND thou shalt make [n]an altar to burn incense upon: of [o]shittim wood shalt thou make it.

2 A cubit shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof; four-square shall it be: and two cubits shall be the height thereof: the [r]horns thereof shall be [s]of the same.

3 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, the top thereof, and the sides thereof round about, and the horns thereof; and thou shalt make unto it a [u]crown of gold round about.

4 And two golden rings shalt thou make to it under the crown of it, by the two corners thereof, upon the two sides of it shalt thou make it; and they shall be for [y]places for the staves to bear it withal.

5 And thou shalt make the staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold.

6 And thou shalt put it before the [b]vail that is by the [c]ark of the testimony, before the [d]mercy seat that is [e]over the testimony, [f]where I will meet with thee.

7 And Aaron shall burn thereon [i]sweet incense every morning: when he [k]dresseth the lamps, he shall burn incense upon it.

8 And when Aaron lighteth the lamps [m]at even, he shall burn incense upon it, a perpetual incense before the LORD throughout your generations.

9 Ye shall offer no strange incense thereon, nor burnt sacrifice, nor [n]meat offering; neither shall ye pour [o]drink offering thereon.

11 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 When thou [i]takest the sum of the children of Israel after their number, then shall they give every man a [k]ransom for his soul unto the LORD, when thou numberest them; that there be no [l]plague among them, when thou numberest them.

13 This they shall give, every one that passeth among them that are numbered, [p]half a shē'kĕl after the [q]shekel of the sanctuary: (a shekel is twenty gē'rāhs:) an half shekel shall be the [2]offering of the LORD.

14 Every one that [3]passeth among them that are numbered, from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering unto the LORD.

15 [t]The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less than [x]half a shē'kĕl, when they give an offering unto the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls.

16 And thou shalt take the atonement money of the children of Israel, and shalt [z]appoint it for the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; that it may be a [a]memorial unto the children of Israel before the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls.

17 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

18 [g]Thou shalt also make a [h]laver of brass, and his foot also of brass, to wash withal: and thou shalt put it between the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar, and thou shalt put water therein.

19 For Aaron and his sons [l]shall wash their hands and their feet thereat:

20 When they go into the tabernacle of the congregation, they shall wash with water, that they die not; or when they come near to the altar to minister, to burn offering made by fire unto the LORD:

21 So they shall wash their hands and their feet, that they die not: and it shall be a [b] statute for ever to them, even to him and to his seed throughout their generations.

22 ¶ Moreover the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Take thou also unto thee principal [d] spices, of pure [e] myrrh five hundred shē-kĕls, and of sweet [f] cinnamon half so much, even two hundred and fifty shekels, and of sweet [g] calamus two hundred and fifty shekels,

24 And of [h] cassia five hundred shē-kĕls, after the shekel of the sanctuary, and of oil olive an hin:

25 And thou shalt make it an oil of holy ointment, an ointment compound after the art of the apothecary: it shall be an holy [i] anointing oil.

26 And thou shalt [k] anoint the tabernacle of the congregation therewith, and the ark of the testimony,

27 And the [m] table and all his vessels, and the [n] candlestick and his vessels, and the altar of incense,

28 And the [q] altar of burnt offering with all his vessels, and the laver and his foot.

29 And thou shalt [r] sanctify them, that they may be [s] most holy: [t] whatsoever toucheth them shall be holy.

30 And thou shalt [u] anoint Aaron and his sons, and [3] consecrate them, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office.

31 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, This shall be an holy anointing oil unto me throughout your generations.

32 Upon man's flesh shall it not be poured, neither shall ye make any other like it, after the [c] composition of it: it is holy, and it shall be holy unto you.

33 Whosoever compoundeth any like it, or whosoever putteth any of it upon a stranger, shall even be [h] cut off [4] from his people.

34 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Take unto thee [k] sweet spices, stacte, and ŏn-ў-chă, and găl-bă-nŭm; these sweet spices with pure [a] frankincense: of each shall there be a like weight:

35 And thou shalt make it a perfume, a confection after the art of the apothecary, [2] tempered together, pure and holy:

36 And thou shalt beat some of it very [c] small, and put of it before the testimony in the tabernacle of the congregation, where I will meet with thee: it shall be unto you most holy.

37 And as for the perfume which thou shalt make, ye shall not make to yourselves according to the composition thereof: it shall be unto thee holy for the LORD.

38 Whosoever shall make like unto that, to smell thereto, shall even be cut off from his people.

CHAPTER 31

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 See, I have called by name [l] Bĕz-ă-lĕ'ĕl the son of Ū-rī, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah:

3 And I have filled him with the [o] spirit of God, in [p] wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship,

4 To devise cunning works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass,

5 And in cutting of stones, to set them, and in carving of timber, to work in all manner of workmanship.

6 And I, behold, I have given with him [x] Ă-hō-lĭ-ăb, the son of Ă-hĭs-ă-măch, of the tribe of Dan: and in the hearts of all that are [y] wise hearted I have put wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded thee;

7 [z] The tabernacle of the congregation, and the [a] ark of the testimony, and the [b] mercy seat that is thereupon, and all the furniture of the tabernacle,

8 And the [d] table and his furniture, and the pure [e] candlestick with all his furniture, and the [f] altar of incense,

9 And the [g] altar of burnt offering with all his furniture, and the [i] laver and his foot,

10 And the [5] cloths of service, and the [l] holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office,

11 And the [a]anointing oil, and [b]sweet incense for the holy place: according to all that I have commanded thee shall they do.

12 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

13 Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, saying, Verily my sabbaths ye [e]shall keep: for it is a [f]sign between me and you throughout your generations; that ye may know that [g]I am the LORD that doth sanctify you.

14 Ye shall keep the sabbath therefore; for it is holy unto you: every one that defileth it shall surely be put to death: for whosoever doeth any work therein, that soul shall be [k]cut off from among his people.

15 Six days may work be done; but in the seventh is the [n]sabbath of rest, holy to the LORD: whosoever [p]doeth any work in the sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death.

16 Wherefore the children of Israel shall keep the sabbath, to observe the sabbath throughout their generations, for a [s]perpetual covenant.

17 It is a sign between me and the children of Israel for ever: for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the [t]seventh day he rested, and was refreshed.

18 ¶ And he gave unto Moses, when he had made an end of communing with him upon mount [y]Sinai, two [z]tables of testimony, tables of stone, [b]written with the [c]finger of God.

CHAPTER 32

AND when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down out of the mount, the people [h]gathered themselves together unto Aaron, and said unto him, [k]Up, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man that [m]brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

2 And Aaron said unto them, Break off the golden [n]earrings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me.

3 And all the people brake off the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them unto Aaron.

4 And he received them at their hand, and fashioned it with a [c]graving tool, after he had [d]made it a molten calf: and they said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

5 And when Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made [h]proclamation, and said, To morrow is a feast to the LORD.

6 And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and [i]the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to [l]play.

7 ¶ [m]And the LORD said unto Moses, Go, get thee down; for thy people, which [o]thou broughtest out of the land of Egypt, have [q]corrupted themselves:

8 They have [r]turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed thereunto, and said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which have brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a [u]stiffnecked people:

10 Now therefore [x]let me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may [a]consume them: and I will [d]make of thee a great nation.

11 [e]And Moses [f]besought the LORD his God, and said, LORD, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, which thou hast [g]brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a [i]mighty hand?

12 [l]Wherefore should the Egyptians speak, and say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from thy fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against thy people.

13 Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, thy servants, to whom thou swarest [o]by thine own self, and saidst unto them, I will [p]multiply your seed as the [q]stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of will I [a] give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it for ever.

14 And the LORD [b] repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people.

15 ¶ And [d] Moses turned, and went down from the mount, and the two [e] tables of the testimony were in his hand: the tables were written [f] on both their sides; on the one side and on the other were they written.

16 And the tables were the work of God, and the writing was the [e] writing of God, graven upon the tables.

17 And when [h] Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said unto Moses, There is a noise of war in the camp.

18 And he said, It is not the voice of them that [k] shout for mastery, neither is it the voice of them that cry for being [m] overcome: but the noise of them that sing do I hear.

19 ¶ [n] And it came to pass, as soon as he came nigh unto the camp, that he saw the calf, and the dancing: and Moses' anger waxed hot, and he cast the tables out of his hands, and brake them beneath the mount.

20 And he took the calf which they had made, and burnt it in the fire, and [r] ground it to [s] powder, and strawed it upon the water, and made the children of Israel [u] drink of it.

21 And Moses said unto Aaron, What did this people unto thee, that thou hast [z] brought so great a sin upon them?

22 And Aaron said, Let not the anger of my lord wax hot: thou knowest the people, that they are set on mischief.

23 For they said unto me, Make us gods, which shall go before us: for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

24 And I said unto them, Whosoever hath any gold, let them break it off. So they gave it me: then I cast it into the fire, and there came out this calf.

25 ¶ And when Moses saw that the people were [3] naked; (for Aaron had made them naked unto their [2] shame among their enemies:)

26 Then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, Who is on the LORD's side? let him come unto me. And all the sons of [c] Levi gathered themselves together unto him.

27 And he said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Put every man his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and [g] slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbour.

28 And the children of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men.

29 For Moses had said, [i] Consecrate yourselves to day to the LORD, even [l] every man upon his son, and upon his brother; that he may bestow upon you a blessing this day.

30 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses said unto the people, [o] Ye have sinned a great sin: and now I will go up unto the LORD; peradventure I shall [p] make an atonement for your sin.

31 And Moses [q] returned unto the LORD, and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made them gods of gold.

32 Yet now, [t] if thou wilt forgive their sin—; and if not, [x] blot me, I pray thee, out of thy [y] book which thou hast written.

33 And the LORD said unto Moses, [a] Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book.

34 Therefore now go, lead the people unto the place of which I have spoken unto thee: behold, mine [b] Angel shall go before thee: nevertheless in the day when I visit I will [c] visit their sin upon them.

35 And the LORD plagued the people, because they made the calf, which Aaron made.

unto the land [a] which I sware [b] unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, Unto thy seed will I give it:

2 And I will send an [c] angel before thee; and I will [d] drive out the [e] Cā'-nă-ăn-īte, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Pĕ-rĭz'-zīte, the Hivite, and the Jĕb'-ū-sīte:

3 Unto a [h] land flowing with milk and honey: for I will not go up [i] in the midst of thee; for thou art a [k] stiffnecked people: lest I [m] consume thee in the way.

4 ¶ And when the people heard these evil tidings, they [o] mourned: and no man did put on him his [p] ornaments.

5 For the LORD had said unto Moses, Say unto the children of Israel, Ye are a stiffnecked people: I will come up into the midst of thee in a moment, and consume thee: therefore now put off thy ornaments from thee, that I may know what to do unto thee.

6 And the children of Israel stripped themselves of their [t] ornaments by the mount [x] Horeb.

7 And Moses took the tabernacle, and pitched it [y] without the camp, afar off from the camp, and called it the [z] Tabernacle of the congregation. [z] And it came to pass, that every one which [a] sought the LORD went out unto the tabernacle of the congregation, which was without the camp.

8 And it came to pass, when Moses went out unto the tabernacle, that all the people rose up, and stood [e] every man at his tent door, and looked after Moses, until he was gone into the tabernacle.

9 And it came to pass, as Moses entered into the tabernacle, the [h] cloudy pillar descended, and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and the LORD talked with Moses.

10 And all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand at the tabernacle door: and all the people rose up and [l] worshipped, every man in his tent door.

11 And the LORD [m] spake unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend. And he turned again into the camp: but his servant [o] Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the tabernacle.

12 ¶ And Moses said unto the LORD, See, thou sayest unto me, Bring up this people: and thou hast not let me know whom thou wilt send with me. Yet thou hast said, I [f] know thee by name, and thou hast also [g] found grace in my sight.

13 Now therefore, I pray thee, if I have found grace in thy sight, [l] shew me now thy way, that I may know thee, that I may find grace in thy sight: and [n] consider that this nation is thy people.

14 And he said, [q] My presence shall go with thee, and I will [r] give thee rest.

15 And he said unto him, If thy presence go not with me, carry us not up hence.

16 For wherein shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? [s] is it not in that thou goest with us? so shall we be [u] separated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth.

17 And the LORD said unto Moses, I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken: for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name.

18 And he said, I beseech thee, shew me thy [b] glory.

19 And he said, I will make all [c] my goodness pass before thee, and I will proclaim [d] the name of the LORD before thee; and [f] will be gracious to whom I will be [g] gracious, and will shew mercy on whom I will shew mercy.

20 And he said, Thou canst not see my face: [i] for there shall no man see me, and live.

21 And the LORD said, Behold, there is a place by me, and thou shalt stand upon a rock:

22 And it shall come to pass, while my glory [k] passeth by, that I will put thee in a clift of the rock, and will cover thee with my hand while I pass by:

23 And I will take away mine hand, [n] and thou shalt see my back parts: but my face shall not be seen.

CHAPTER 34

[b]AND the LORD said unto Moses, Hew thee two [c]tables of stone like unto the first: and [e]I will write upon these tables the words that were in the first tables, which thou brakest.

2 And be ready in the morning, and [g]come up in the morning unto mount [h]Sinai, and present thyself there to me in the top of the mount.

3 And [k]no man shall come up with thee, neither let any man be seen throughout all the mount; neither let the flocks nor herds feed before that mount.

4 ¶ [o]And he hewed two tables of stone like unto the first; and Moses rose up early in the morning, and [q]went up unto mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tables of stone.

5 And the LORD descended in the cloud, [4]and stood with him there, and proclaimed [s]the name of the LORD.

6 And the LORD [t]passed by before him, and proclaimed, [u]The LORD, The LORD God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth,

7 [a]Keeping mercy for thousands, [b]forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means [c]clear the guilty; [d]visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, unto the third and to the fourth generation.

8 And Moses made haste, and bowed his head toward the earth, and [g]worshipped.

9 And he said, [i]If now I have found grace in thy sight, O Lord, let my Lord, I pray thee, go [l]among us; for it is a [m]stiffnecked people; and [n]pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for thine [p]inheritance.

10 ¶ And he said, Behold, [r]I make a covenant: before all thy people I will do [s]marvels, such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation: and all the people among which thou art shall see the work of the LORD: for it is a [a]terrible thing that I will do with thee.

11 Observe thou that which I command thee this day: behold, I [d]drive out before thee the [f]Amorite, and the Cā'-nă-ăn-īte, and the Hittite, and the Pĕ-rīz'-zīte, and the Hivite, and the Jĕb'-ū-sīte.

12 Take heed to thyself, lest thou [i]make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land whither thou goest, lest it be for a [l]snare in the midst of thee:

13 But ye shall [m]destroy their altars, break their [2]images, and cut down their [3]groves:

14 For thou shalt [n]worship no other god: for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a [p]jealous God:

15 Lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they go a whoring after their gods, and do sacrifice unto their gods, and one call thee, and thou eat of his sacrifice;

16 And thou [r]take of their daughters unto thy sons, and their daughters go a whoring after their gods, and make thy sons go a whoring after their gods.

17 Thou shalt make thee [x]no molten gods.

18 ¶ [y]The [z]feast of unleavened bread shalt thou keep. Seven days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, as I commanded thee, in the time of the [e]month Abib: for in the month Abib thou camest out from Egypt.

19 All that openeth the matrix is mine; and every [f]firstling among thy cattle, whether ox or sheep, that is male.

20 But the [h]firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a lamb: and if thou redeem him not, then shalt thou [k]break his neck. All the firstborn of thy sons thou shalt redeem. And none [o]shall appear before me empty.

21 ¶ Six days thou shalt work, but on the [q]seventh day thou shalt rest: in [5]earing time and in harvest thou shalt rest.

22 ¶ And thou shalt observe the [t]feast of weeks, of the [u]firstfruits of wheat harvest, and the feast of [x]ingathering at the year's [6]end.

28 And he was there with the LORD [n]forty days and forty nights; he did neither eat bread, nor drink water. And he wrote upon the tables the words of the covenant, [p]the ten commandments.

29 ¶ And it came to pass, when Moses came down from mount Sinai with the two tables of testimony in Moses' hand, when he came down from the mount, that Moses wist not that the [x]skin of his face shone while he talked with him.

30 And when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone; and they were afraid to come nigh him.

31 And Moses called unto them; and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned unto him: and Moses talked with them.

32 And afterward all the children of Israel came nigh: and he [i]gave them in commandment all that the LORD had spoken with him in mount Sinai.

33 And till Moses had done speaking with them, he [m]put a vail on his face.

34 But when Moses [p]went in before the LORD to speak with him, he took the vail off, until he came out. And he came out, and spake unto the children of Israel that which he was commanded.

35 And the children of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone: and Moses put the vail upon his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

CHAPTER 35

AND Moses gathered all the congregation of the children of Israel together, and said unto them, [d]These are the words which the LORD hath commanded, that ye should do them.

2 Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be to you an [g]holy day, a [h]sabbath of rest to the LORD: whosoever [i]doeth work therein shall be put to death.

3 Ye shall kindle no fire throughout your habitations upon the sabbath day.

4 ¶ And Moses spake unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the LORD commanded, saying,

5 Take ye from among you an [o]offering unto the LORD: whosoever is of a [q]willing heart, let him bring it, an offering of the LORD; [r]gold, and silver, and brass,

6 And [s]blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and [t]goats' hair,

7 And [u]rams' skins dyed red, and [2]badgers' skins, and [y]shittim wood,

8 And [z]oil for the light, and [a]spices for [b]anointing oil, and for the [b]sweet incense,

9 And [c]onyx stones, and stones to be set for the [d]ē'phŏd, and for the [e]breastplate.

10 And every [f]wise hearted among you shall come, and make all that the LORD hath commanded;

11 The [g]tabernacle, his [h]tent, and his covering, his taches, and his [k]boards, his bars, his pillars, and his sockets,

12 The [l]ark, and the staves thereof, with the [n]mercy seat, and the [o]vail of the [3]covering,

13 The [q]table, and his staves, and all his vessels, and the [r]shewbread,

14 The [s]candlestick also for the light, and his furniture, and his lamps, with the oil for the light,

15 And the [t]incense altar, and his staves, and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the hanging for the door at the entering in of the tabernacle.

16 The [a] altar of burnt offering, with his brasen grate, his staves, and all his vessels, the [c] laver and his foot,

17 The hangings of the [d] court, his pillars, and their sockets, and the hanging for the door of the court,

18 The [e] pins of the tabernacle, and the pins of the court, and their [f] cords,

19 The [g] cloths of service, to do service in the holy place, the [g] holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office.

20 ¶ And all the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.

21 And they came, every one whose heart stirred him up, and every one whom his spirit made willing, and they [k] brought the LORD's offering to the work of the tabernacle of the congregation, and for all his service, and for the holy garments.

22 And they came, both men and women, as many as were willing hearted, and brought bracelets, and [m] earrings, and [n] rings, and [2] tablets, all jewels of gold: and every man that offered offered an [q] offering of gold unto the LORD.

23 And every man, with whom was found blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair, and red skins of rams, and badgers' skins, brought them.

24 Every one that did offer an offering of silver and brass brought the LORD's offering: and every man, with whom was found shittim wood for any work of the service, brought it.

25 And all the women that were wise hearted did spin with their hands, and brought that which they had spun, both of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine linen.

26 And all the women whose heart stirred them up in wisdom spun goats' hair.

27 And the rulers brought onyx stones, and stones to be set, for the ē'phŏd, and for the breastplate;

28 And spice, and oil for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense.

29 The children of Israel brought a [b] willing offering unto the LORD, every man and woman, whose heart made them willing to bring for all manner of work, which the LORD had commanded to be made by the hand of Moses.

30 ¶ And Moses said unto the children of Israel, See, the LORD hath called by name [h] Bĕz'ă-lĕ'el the son of Ū'rī, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah;

31 And he hath filled him with the [i] spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship;

32 And to devise curious works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass,

33 And in the cutting of stones, to set them, and in carving of wood, to make any manner of cunning work.

34 And he hath put in his heart that he may teach, both he, and [l] Ă-hō'lĭ-ăb, the son of Ă-hĭs'ă-măch, of the tribe of Dan.

35 Them hath he filled with wisdom of heart, to work all manner of work, of the [o] engraver, and of the [p] cunning workman, and of the [r] embroiderer, in blue, and in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, even of them that do any work, and of those that devise cunning work.

CHAPTER 36

THEN wrought [s] Bĕz'ă-lĕ'el and [t] Ă-hō'lĭ-ăb, and every [u] wise hearted man, in whom the LORD put wisdom and understanding to know how to work all manner of work for the service of the sanctuary, according to all that the LORD had commanded.

2 And Moses called Bĕz'ă-lĕ'el and Ă-hō'lĭ-ăb, and every wise hearted man, in whose heart the LORD had put wisdom, even every one whose heart stirred him up to come unto the work to do it:

3 And they received of Moses all the [x] offering, which the children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, to make it withal. And they brought yet unto him [a] free offerings every morning.

4 And all the wise men, that wrought all the work of the sanctuary, came every man from his work which they made;

5 ¶ And they spake unto Moses, saying, The people bring much [b] more than enough for the service of the work, which the LORD commanded to make.

6 And Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, Let neither man nor woman make any more work for the offering of the sanctuary. So the people were restrained from bringing.

7 For the stuff they had was sufficient for all the work to make it, and too much.

8 ¶ [f] And every wise hearted man among them that wrought the work of the tabernacle made ten [g] curtains of [h] fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with [k] chĕr-ū-bĭms of [l] cunning work made he them.

9 The length of one curtain was twenty and eight cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: the curtains were all of one size.

10 And he coupled the five curtains one unto another: and the other five curtains he coupled one unto another.

11 And he made loops of blue on the edge of one curtain from the selvedge in the coupling: likewise he made in the uttermost side of another curtain, in the coupling of the second.

12 Fifty loops made he in one curtain, and fifty loops made he in the edge of the curtain which was in the coupling of the second: the loops held one curtain to another.

13 And he made fifty taches of gold, and coupled the curtains one unto another with the taches: so it [m] became one tabernacle.

14 ¶ And he made curtains of [n] goats' hair for the [o] tent over the tabernacle: eleven curtains he made them.

15 The length of one curtain was thirty cubits, and four cubits was the breadth of one curtain: the eleven curtains were of one size.

16 And he coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves.

17 And he made fifty loops upon the uttermost edge of the curtain in the coupling, and fifty loops made he upon the edge of the curtain which coupleth the second.

18 And he made fifty taches of brass to couple the tent together, that it might be one.

19 And he made a covering for the tent of [c] rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of [2] badgers' skins above that.

20 ¶ And he made [d] boards for the tabernacle of [e] shittim wood, standing up.

21 The length of a board was ten cubits, and the breadth of a board one cubit and a half.

22 One board had two tenons, [i] equally distant one from another: thus did he make for all the boards of the tabernacle.

23 And he made boards for the tabernacle; twenty boards for the south side southward:

24 And forty sockets of silver he made under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

25 And for the other side of the tabernacle, which is toward the north corner, he made twenty boards,

26 And their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

27 And for the sides of the tabernacle westward he made six boards.

28 And two boards made he for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides.

29 And they were coupled beneath, and coupled together at the head thereof, to one ring: thus he did to both of them in both the corners.

30 And there were eight boards; and their sockets were sixteen sockets of silver, under every board two sockets.

33 And he made the middle bar to shoot through the boards from the one end to the other.

34 And he overlaid the boards with gold, and made their rings of gold to be [b] places for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.

35 ¶ And he made a [c] vail of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: with chĕr'-ū-bĭms made he it of cunning work.

36 And he made thereunto four pillars of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold: their hooks were of gold; and he cast for them four sockets of silver.

37 ¶ And he made an [2]hanging for the tabernacle door of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, of [g] needlework;

38 And the five pillars of it with their hooks: and he overlaid their chapiters and their fillets with gold: but their five sockets were of brass.

CHAPTER 37

13th c. B.C.

[i]AND [k] Bĕz'-ă-lĕ'ĕl made the [l] ark of [m]shittim wood: two cubits and a half was the length of it, and a cubit and a half the breadth of it, and a cubit and a half the height of it:

2 And he overlaid it with pure gold within and without, and made a [o] crown of gold to it round about.

3 And he cast for it four rings of gold, to be set by the four corners of it; even two rings upon the one side of it, and two rings upon the other side of it.

4 And he made staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold.

5 And he put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, to bear the ark.

6 ¶ And he made the [t] mercy seat of pure gold: two cubits and a half was the length thereof, and one cubit and a half the breadth thereof.

7 And he made two [u] chĕr'-ū-bĭms of gold, [a] beaten out of one piece made he them, on the two ends of the mercy seat;

8 One cherub on the end on this side, and another cherub on the other end on that side: out of the mercy seat made he the chĕr'-ū-bĭms on the two ends thereof.

9 And the chĕr'-ū-bĭms spread out their wings on high, and covered with their wings over the mercy seat, with their faces one to another; even to the mercy seatward were the faces of the cherubims.

10 ¶ [d] And he made the [e] table of shittim wood: two cubits was the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof:

11 And he overlaid it with pure gold, and made thereunto a crown of gold round about.

12 Also he made thereunto a [f] border of an handbreadth round about; and made a crown of gold for the border thereof round about.

13 And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings upon the four corners that were in the four feet thereof.

14 Over against the border were the rings, the [h] places for the staves to bear the table.

15 And he made the staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold, to bear the table.

16 And he made the vessels which were upon the table, his [n] dishes, and his [n] spoons, and his [n] bowls, and his [n] covers to cover withal, of pure gold.

17 ¶ [p] And he made the [q] candlestick of pure gold: of beaten work made he the candlestick; his shaft, and his branch, his [r] bowls, his [s] knops, and his flowers, were of the same:

18 And six branches going out of the sides thereof; three branches of the candlestick out of the one side thereof, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side thereof:

20 And in the candlestick were four bowls made like almonds, his knops, and his flowers:

21 And a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches going out of it.

22 Their knops and their branches were of the same: all of it was one beaten work of pure gold.

23 And he made his seven lamps, and his [e] snuffers, and his [f] snuffdishes, of pure gold.

24 Of a [i] talent of pure gold made he it, and all the vessels thereof.

25 ¶ [m]And he made the [n] incense altar of shittim wood: the length of it was a cubit, and the breadth of it a cubit; it was foursquare; and two cubits was the height of it; the [q] horns thereof were of the same.

26 And he overlaid it with pure gold, both the top of it, and the sides thereof round about, and the horns of it: also he made unto it a crown of gold round about.

27 And he made two rings of gold for it under the crown thereof, by the two corners of it, upon the two sides thereof, to be places for the staves to bear it withal.

28 And he made the staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold.

29 ¶ And he made the holy [r] anointing oil, and the [r] pure incense of sweet spices, according to the work of the apothecary.

CHAPTER 38

[s]AND he made the [t] altar of burnt offering of [u] shittim wood: five cubits was the length thereof, and five cubits the breadth thereof; it was foursquare; and three cubits the height thereof.

2 And he made the [x] horns thereof on the four corners of it; the horns thereof were of the same: and he overlaid it with brass.

3 And he made all the vessels of the altar, the pots, and the [y] shovels, and the [a] basons, and the [a] fleshhooks, and the [b] firepans: all the vessels thereof made he of brass.

4 And he made for the altar a brasen grate of network under the [c] compass thereof beneath unto the midst of it.

5 And he cast four rings for the four ends of the grate of brass, to be [d] places for the staves.

6 And he made the staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with brass.

7 And he put the staves into the rings on the sides of the altar, to bear it withal; he made the altar hollow with boards.

8 ¶ And he [g] made the [h] laver of brass, and the foot of it of brass, of the [k] lookingglasses of the [l] women assembling, which assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

9 ¶ [o] And he made the [p] court: on the south side southward the hangings of the court were of fine twined linen, an hundred cubits:

10 Their pillars were twenty, and their brasen sockets twenty; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver.

11 And for the north side the hangings were an hundred cubits, their pillars were twenty, and their sockets of brass twenty; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver.

12 And for the west side were hangings of fifty cubits, their pillars ten, and their sockets ten; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver.

13 And for the east side eastward fifty cubits.

14 The hangings of the one side of the gate were fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three.

15 And for the other side of the court gate, on this hand and that hand, were hangings of fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three.

16 All the hangings of the court round about were of fine twined linen.

17 And the sockets for the pillars were of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver; and the overlaying of their chapiters of silver; and all the pillars of the court were filleted with silver.

18 And the [2]hanging for the gate of the court was [b] needlework, of [c] blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: and twenty cubits was the length, and the height in the breadth was five cubits, answerable to the hangings of the court.

19 And their pillars were four, and their sockets of brass four; their hooks of silver, and the overlaying of their chapiters and their fillets of silver.

20 And all the [d] pins of the tabernacle, and of the court round about, were of brass.

21 ¶ This is the sum of the [e] tabernacle, even of the tabernacle of testimony, as it was counted, according to the commandment of Moses, for the [f] service of the Levites, by the hand of [g] Ĭth-ă-mär, son to Aaron the priest.

22 And [k] Bĕz-ă-lēel the son of Ū-rī, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that the LORD commanded Moses.

23 And with him was [m] Ă-hō-lĭ-ăb, son of Ă-hĭs-ă-măch, of the tribe of Dan, an [p] engraver, and a [q] cunning workman, and an [r] embroiderer in blue, and in purple, and in scarlet, and fine linen.

24 All the [s] gold that was occupied for the work in all the work of the holy place, even the gold of the [u] offering, was twenty and nine talents, and seven hundred and thirty shē-kĕls, after the [x] shekel of the sanctuary.

25 [z] And the silver of them that [a] were numbered of the congregation was an hundred talents, and a thousand seven hundred and threescore and fifteen shē-kĕls, after the shekel of the sanctuary:

26 A bē-käh for [c] every man, that is, [d] half a shē-kĕl, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for every one that [f] went to be numbered, from twenty years old and upward, for [h] six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty men.

27 And of the hundred talents of silver were cast the sockets of the sanctuary, and the sockets of the [a] vail; an hundred sockets of the hundred talents, a talent for a socket.

28 And of the thousand seven hundred seventy and five shē-kĕls he made hooks for the pillars, and overlaid their chapiters, and filleted them.

29 And the brass of the offering was seventy talents, and two thousand and four hundred shē-kĕls.

30 And therewith he made the sockets to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the brasen altar, and the brasen grate for it, and all the vessels of the altar,

31 And the sockets of the court round about, and the sockets of the court gate, and all the pins of the tabernacle, and all the pins of the court round about.

AND of the [h] blue, and purple, and scarlet, they made [i] cloths of service, to do service in the holy place, and made the [l] holy garments for Aaron; as the LORD commanded Moses.

2 [n] And he made the [o] ē-phŏd of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

3 And they did beat the gold into thin plates, and cut it into wires, to work it in the blue, and in the purple, and in the scarlet, and in the fine linen, with [t] cunning work.

4 They made shoulderpieces for it, to couple it together: by the two edges was it coupled together.

5 And the [y] curious girdle of his ē-phŏd, that was upon it, was of the same, according to the work thereof; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen; as the LORD commanded Moses.

6 ¶ And they wrought [b] onyx stones inclosed in ouches of gold, graven, as [e] signets are graven, with the names of the children of Israel.

ē'phŏd; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 It was foursquare; they made the breastplate double: a span was the length thereof, and a span the breadth thereof, being doubled.

10 And they set in it four rows of stones: the first row was a [2]sardius, a [d]topaz, and a [e]carbuncle: this was the first row.

11 And the second row, an [g]emerald, a [h]sapphire, and a [3]diamond.

12 And the third row, a [4]ligure, an [i]agate, and an [k]amethyst.

13 And the fourth row, a [5]beryl, an [l]onyx, and a [m]jasper: they were inclosed in ouches of gold in their inclosings.

14 And the stones were according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet, every one with his name, according to the twelve tribes.

15 And they made upon the breastplate chains at the ends, of wreathen work of pure gold.

16 And they made two ouches of gold, and two gold rings; and put the two rings in the two ends of the breastplate.

17 And they put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breastplate.

18 And the two ends of the two wreathen chains they fastened in the two ouches, and put them on the shoulderpieces of the ē'phŏd, before it.

19 And they made two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, upon the border of it, which was on the side of the ē'phŏd inward.

20 And they made two other golden rings, and put them on the two sides of the ē'phŏd underneath, toward the forepart of it, over against the other coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the ephod.

21 And they did bind the breastplate by his rings unto the rings of the ē'phŏd with a lace of blue, that it might be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breastplate might not be loosed from the ephod; as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 ¶ [a]And he made the [b]robe of the ē'phŏd of woven work, all of blue.

23 And there was an hole in the midst of the robe, as the hole of an [c]habergeon, with a band round about the hole, that it should not rend.

24 And they made upon the hems of the robe [f]pomegranates of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined linen.

25 And they made bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates upon the hem of the robe, round about between the pomegranates;

26 A bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, round about the hem of the robe to minister in; as the LORD commanded Moses.

27 ¶ And they made [n]coats of fine linen of woven work for Aaron, and for his sons,

28 And a [o]mitre of fine linen, and goodly [6]bonnets of fine linen, and [p]linen breeches of fine twined linen,

29 And a [q]girdle of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, of [r]needlework; as the LORD commanded Moses.

30 ¶ And they made the [s]plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and wrote upon it a writing, like to the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

31 And they tied unto it a lace of blue, to fasten it on high upon the mitre; as the LORD commanded Moses.

32 ¶ Thus was all the work of the [t]tabernacle of the tent of the congregation finished: and the children of Israel did [u]according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did they.

33 ¶ And they brought the tabernacle unto Moses, the [x]tent, and all his furniture, his taches, his [y]boards, his bars, and his pillars, and his sockets,

34 And the covering of [z]rams' skins dyed red, and the covering of [7]badgers' skins, and the [a]vail [8]of the covering,

42 According to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel made all the work.

43 And Moses did look upon all the work, and, behold, they had done it as the LORD had commanded, even so had they done it: and Moses [d] blessed them.

CHAPTER 40

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 On the first day of the [g] first month shalt thou set up the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation.

3 And thou shalt put therein the [i] ark of the testimony, and cover the ark with the [k] vail.

4 And thou shalt bring in the [l] table, and set in order the things that are to be set in order upon it; and thou shalt bring in the [n] candlestick, and light the lamps thereof.

5 And thou shalt set the [p] altar of gold for the incense before the ark of the testimony, and put the [2]hanging of the door to the tabernacle.

6 And thou shalt set the [q] altar of the burnt offering before the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation.

7 And thou shalt set the [d] laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and shalt put water therein.

8 And thou shalt set up the [g] court round about, and hang up the hanging at the court gate.

9 And thou shalt take the [m] anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle, and all that is therein, and shalt hallow it, and all the vessels thereof: and it shall be holy.

10 And thou shalt [p] anoint the altar of the burnt offering, and all his vessels, and [r] sanctify the altar: and it shall be an altar [t] most holy.

11 And thou shalt anoint the laver and his foot, and sanctify it.

12 And thou shalt bring Aaron and his sons unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and [x] wash them with water.

13 And thou shalt put upon Aaron the [y] holy garments, and [z] anoint him, and [a] sanctify him; that he may minister unto me in the priest's office.

14 And thou shalt bring his sons, and clothe them with [b] coats:

15 And thou shalt [c] anoint them, as thou didst anoint their father, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office: for their anointing shall surely be an [e] everlasting priesthood throughout their generations.

16 Thus [f] did Moses: according to all that the LORD commanded him, so did he.

17 ¶ And it came to pass in the first month in the second year, on the first day of the month, that the [h] tabernacle was reared up.

18 And Moses reared up the tabernacle, and fastened his sockets, and set up the [m] boards thereof, and put in the bars thereof, and reared up his pillars.

19 And he spread abroad the [o] tent over the tabernacle, and put the covering of the tent above upon it; as the LORD commanded Moses.

20 ¶ And he took and put the testimony [r] into the ark, and set the staves

32 When they went into the tent of the congregation, and when they came near unto the altar, they washed; as the LORD commanded Moses.

33 And he reared up the court round about the tabernacle and the altar, and set up the hanging of the court gate. So Moses finished the work.

34 ¶ Then a [c] cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the [d] glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

35 And Moses was not able to enter into the tent of the congregation, because the cloud abode thereon, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

36 And when the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the children of Israel went onward in all their [g] journeys:

37 But if the [h] cloud were not taken up, then they journeyed not till the day that it was taken up.

38 For the cloud of the LORD was upon the tabernacle by day, and fire was on it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.

LEVITICUS

CHAPTER 1

AND the LORD called unto Moses, and spake unto him out of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man of you bring an offering unto the LORD, ye shall bring your offering of the cattle, even of the herd, and of the flock.

3 If his offering be a [c] burnt sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male [e] without blemish: he shall offer it [2] of his own voluntary will at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD.

4 And he shall [a] put his hand upon the head of the burnt offering; and it shall be accepted for him to [b] make atonement for him.

5 And he shall kill the bullock before the LORD: and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall bring the blood, and [d] sprinkle the blood round about upon the altar that is by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

CHAPTER 2

AND when any will offer a [2] meat offering unto the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour; and he shall pour oil upon it, and put [c] frankincense thereon:

2 And he shall bring it to Aaron's sons the priests: and he shall take thereout his handful of the flour thereof, and of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof; and the priest shall burn the [e] memorial of it upon the altar, to be an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD:

3 And the remnant of the meat offering [g] shall be Aaron's and his sons': it is a thing [h] most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.

4 ¶ And if thou bring an oblation of a meat offering baken in the [i] oven, it shall be [k] unleavened [l] cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, or unleavened [m] wafers anointed with oil.

5 ¶ And if thy oblation be a meat offering [3] baken in a pan, it shall be of fine flour unleavened, mingled with oil.

6 Thou shalt part it in pieces, and pour oil thereon: it is a meat offering.

7 ¶ And if thy oblation be a meat offering baken in the [n] fryingpan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil.

8 And thou shalt bring the meat offering that is made of these things unto the LORD: and when it is presented unto the priest, he shall bring it unto the altar.

9 And the priest shall take from the meat offering a memorial thereof, and shall burn it upon the altar: it is an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

10 And that which is left of the meat offering shall be Aaron's and his sons': it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.

11 [r] No meat offering, which ye shall bring unto the LORD, shall be made with [s] leaven: for ye shall burn no leaven, nor any [u] honey, in any offering of the LORD made by fire.

12 ¶ As for the oblation of the [x] firstfruits, ye shall offer them unto the LORD: but they shall not be burnt on the altar for a sweet savour.

13 And every oblation of thy meat offering shalt thou [a] season with salt; neither shalt thou suffer the [b] salt of the covenant of thy God to be lacking from thy meat offering: with all thine offerings thou shalt offer salt.

14 And if thou offer a meat offering of thy firstfruits unto the LORD, thou shalt offer for the meat offering of thy firstfruits green [c] ears of corn dried by the fire, even corn beaten out of [d] full ears.

15 And thou shalt put oil upon it, and lay frankincense thereon: it is a meat offering.

16 And the priest shall burn the [e] memorial of it, part of the beaten corn thereof, and part of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

CHAPTER 3

AND if his oblation be a sacrifice of [h] peace offering, if he offer it of the herd; whether it be a male or female, he shall offer it [i] without blemish before the LORD.

2 And he shall [k] lay his hand upon the head of his offering, and kill it at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron's sons the priests shall [l] sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.

3 And he shall offer of the sacrifice of the peace offering an offering made by fire unto the LORD; the [m] fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards,

4 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away.

5 And Aaron's sons shall burn it on the altar upon the [p] burnt sacrifice, which is upon the wood that is on the fire: it is an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

6 ¶ And if his offering for a sacrifice of peace offering unto the LORD be of the flock; male or female, he shall offer it without blemish.

7 If he offer a lamb for his offering, then shall he offer it before the LORD.

8 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of his offering, and kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron's sons shall sprinkle the blood thereof round about upon the altar.

9 And he shall offer of the sacrifice of the peace offering an offering made by fire unto the LORD; the fat thereof, and the whole [2] rump, it shall he take off hard by the backbone; and the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards,

10 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away.

11 And the priest shall burn it upon the altar: it is the [f] food of the offering made by fire unto the LORD.

12 ¶ And if his offering be a [g] goat, then he shall offer it before the LORD.

13 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of it, and kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation: and the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle the blood thereof upon the altar round about.

14 And he shall offer thereof his offering, even an offering made by fire unto the LORD; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards,

15 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away.

16 And the priest shall burn them upon the altar: it is the food of the offering made by fire for a sweet savour: [n] all the fat is the LORD's.

17 It shall be a [o] perpetual statute for your generations throughout all your dwellings, that ye eat neither [q] fat [r] nor blood.

CHAPTER 4

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a soul shall sin [s] through ignorance against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and shall do against any of them:

3 If the priest that is [a] anointed [b] do sin according to the sin of the people; then let him bring for his sin, which he hath sinned, a young bullock [c] without blemish unto the LORD for a [d] sin offering.

4 And he shall bring the bullock unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD; and shall [f] lay his hand upon the bullock's head, and kill the bullock before the LORD.

5 And the priest that is anointed shall take of the bullock's blood, and bring it to the tabernacle of the congregation:

6 And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and [h] sprinkle of the blood [i] seven times before the LORD, before the [k] vail of the sanctuary.

7 And the priest shall put some [l] of the blood upon the [m] horns of the [n] altar of [o] sweet incense before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of the congregation; and shall [p] pour all the blood of the bullock at the bottom of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

8 And he shall take off from it all the [q] fat of the bullock for the sin offering; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards,

9 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away,

10 As it was taken off from the bullock of the sacrifice of [t] peace offerings: and the priest shall burn them upon the altar of the burnt offering.

11 And the [u] skin of the bullock, and all his flesh, with his head, and with his legs, and his inwards, and his dung,

12 Even the whole bullock shall he carry forth [x] without the camp unto a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and burn him on the wood with fire: where the ashes are poured out shall he be burnt.

13 ¶ [y] And if the whole congregation of Israel sin through ignorance, and the thing be hid from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done somewhat against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which should not be done, and are guilty;

14 When the sin, which they have sinned against it, is known, then the [e] congregation shall offer a young bullock for the sin, and bring him before the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And the [g] elders of the congregation shall lay their hands upon the head of the bullock before the LORD: and the bullock shall be killed before the LORD.

16 And the priest that is anointed shall bring of the bullock's blood to the tabernacle of the congregation:

18 And he shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar which is before the LORD, that is in the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall pour out all the blood at the bottom of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

19 And he shall take all his fat from him, and burn it upon the altar.

20 And he shall do with the bullock as he did with the bullock for a sin offering, so shall he do with this: and the priest shall [r] make an atonement for them, and it [s] shall be forgiven them.

21 And he shall carry forth the bullock without the camp, and burn him as he burned the first bullock: it is a sin offering for the congregation.

22 ¶ When a ruler hath sinned, and done somewhat through ignorance against any of the commandments of the LORD his God concerning things which should not be done, and is guilty;

23 Or if his sin, wherein he hath sinned, come to his knowledge; he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a male without blemish:

30 His own hands shall bring the offerings of the LORD made by fire, the fat with the breast, it shall he bring, that the breast may be waved for a [e] wave offering before the LORD.

31 And the priest shall burn the fat upon the altar: but the breast [f] shall be Aaron's and his sons'.

32 And the right shoulder shall ye give unto the priest for an heave offering of the sacrifices of your peace offerings.

33 He among the sons of Aaron, that offereth the blood of the peace offerings, and the fat, shall have the right shoulder for his part.

34 For the wave breast and the heave shoulder have I taken of the children of Israel from off the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and have given them unto Aaron the priest and unto his sons by a [q] statute for ever from among the children of Israel.

35 ¶ This is the portion of the anointing of Aaron, and of the anointing of his sons, out of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, in the day when he presented them to minister unto the LORD in the priest's office;

36 Which the LORD commanded to be given them of the children of Israel, in the day that he [y] anointed them, by a statute for ever throughout their generations.

37 This is the law of the burnt offering, of the meat offering, and of the sin offering, and of the trespass offering, and of the [d] consecrations, and of the sacrifice of the peace offerings;

38 Which the LORD commanded Moses in mount [e] Sinai, in the day that he commanded the children of Israel to offer their oblations unto the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai.

CHAPTER 8

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 [i] Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the [k] garments, and the [a] anointing oil, and a bullock for the [b] sin offering, and two rams, and a [c] basket of [d] unleavened bread;

3 And gather thou all the congregation together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And Moses did as the LORD commanded him; and the assembly was gathered together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

5 And Moses said unto the congregation, This is the thing which the LORD commanded to be done.

6 And Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and [g] washed them with water.

7 And he put upon him the [h] coat, and girded him with the [i] girdle, and clothed him with the [k] robe, and put the [l] ē'phŏd upon him, and he girded him with the [m] curious girdle of the ephod, and bound it unto him therewith.

8 And he put the [n] breastplate upon him: also he put in the breastplate the [o] Urim and the Thummim.

9 And he put the [p] mitre upon his head; also upon the mitre, even upon his forefront, did he put the golden [r] plate, the holy crown; as the LORD commanded Moses.

10 And Moses took the anointing oil, and [s] anointed the tabernacle and all that was therein, and [t] sanctified them.

11 And he [u] sprinkled thereof upon the altar [x] seven times, and anointed the altar and all his vessels, both the [z] laver and his foot, to sanctify them.

12 And he poured of the anointing oil [a] upon Aaron's head, and [b] anointed him, to [c] sanctify him.

13 And Moses brought Aaron's sons, and put coats upon them, and girded them with girdles, and put [2] bonnets upon them; as the LORD commanded Moses.

14 And he brought the bullock for the sin offering: and Aaron and his sons [f] laid their hands upon the head of the bullock for the sin offering.

15 And he slew it; and Moses took the blood, and put it upon the [h] horns of the altar round about with his finger, and purified the altar, and [l] poured the blood at the bottom of the altar, and sanctified it, to [a] make reconciliation upon it.

16 And he took all the [b] fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and Moses burned it upon the altar.

17 But the bullock, and his hide, his flesh, and his dung, he burnt with fire [e] without the camp; as the LORD commanded Moses.

18 ¶ And he brought the ram for the burnt offering: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram.

19 And he killed it; and Moses [g] sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about.

20 And he cut the ram into pieces; and Moses burnt the head, and the pieces, and the fat.

21 And he washed the inwards and the legs in water; and Moses burnt the whole ram upon the altar: it was a burnt sacrifice for a sweet savour, and an offering made by fire unto the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 ¶ And he brought the other ram, the [l] ram of consecration: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram.

23 And he slew it; and Moses took of the blood of it, and put it upon the [o] tip of Aaron's right ear, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

24 And he brought Aaron's sons, and Moses put of the blood upon the tip of their right ear, and upon the thumbs of their right hands, and upon the great toes of their right feet: and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about.

25 And he took the fat, and the [2] rump, and all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and the right shoulder:

26 And out of the basket of unleavened bread, that was before the LORD, he took [s] one unleavened [t] cake, and a cake of oiled bread, and one [x] wafer, and put them on the fat, and upon the right shoulder:

27 And he put all upon Aaron's hands, and upon his sons' hands, and [c] waved them for a wave offering before the LORD.

28 And Moses [d] took them from off their hands, and burnt them on the altar upon the burnt offering: they were consecrations for a sweet savour: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

29 And Moses took the breast, and waved it for a wave offering before the LORD: for of the ram of consecration it was [f] Moses' part; as the LORD commanded Moses.

30 And Moses took of the anointing oil, and of the blood which was upon the altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon his sons' garments with him; and sanctified Aaron, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him.

31 ¶ And Moses said unto Aaron and to his sons, [h] Boil the flesh at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and [i] there eat it with the bread that is in the [k] basket of consecrations, as I commanded, saying, [m] Aaron and his sons shall eat it.

32 And that which remaineth of the flesh and of the bread shall ye burn with fire.

33 And ye shall [n] not go out of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation in [p] seven days, until the days of your [q] consecration be at an end: for seven days shall he consecrate you.

34 As he hath done this day, so the LORD hath commanded to do, to make an atonement for you.

35 Therefore shall ye abide at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation day and night seven days, and keep the [r] charge of the LORD, that ye die not: for so I am commanded.

36 So Aaron and his sons did all things which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

thee a young calf for a [a] sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering, [b] without blemish, and offer them before the LORD.

3 And unto the children of Israel thou shalt speak, saying, Take ye a kid of the [c] goats for a sin offering; and a calf and a lamb, both of the first year, without blemish, for a burnt offering;

4 Also a bullock and a ram for [d] peace offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD; and a [e] meat offering mingled with oil: for [f] to day the LORD will appear unto you.

5 ¶ And they brought that which Moses commanded before the tabernacle of the congregation: and all the congregation drew near and stood before the LORD.

6 And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commanded that ye should do: and [g] the glory of the LORD shall appear unto you.

7 And Moses said unto Aaron, Go unto the altar, and offer thy sin offering, and thy burnt offering, and [h] make an atonement [i] for thyself, and for the people: and offer the offering of the people, and make an atonement for them; as the LORD commanded.

8 ¶ Aaron therefore went unto the altar, and slew the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself.

9 And the sons of Aaron brought the blood unto him: and he dipped his finger in the blood, and put it upon the [n] horns of the altar, and [o] poured out the blood at the bottom of the altar:

10 But the [p] fat, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver of the sin offering, he burnt upon the altar; as the LORD commanded Moses.

11 And the flesh and the [r] hide he burnt with fire [s] without the camp.

12 And he slew the [x] burnt offering; and Aaron's sons presented unto him the blood, which he [y] sprinkled round about upon the altar.

13 And they presented the burnt offering unto him, with the pieces thereof, and the head: and he burnt them upon the altar.

14 And he did wash the inwards and the legs, and burnt them upon the burnt offering on the altar.

15 ¶ And he brought the people's offering, and took the goat, which was the sin offering for the people, and slew it, and offered it for sin, as the first.

16 And he brought the burnt offering, and offered it according to the [2] manner.

17 And he brought the meat offering, and took an handful thereof, and burnt it upon the altar, beside the burnt sacrifice of the morning.

18 He slew also the bullock and the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings, which was for the people: and Aaron's sons presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled upon the altar round about,

19 And the fat of the bullock and of the ram, the [3] rump, and that which covereth the inwards, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver:

20 And they put the fat upon the breasts, and he burnt the fat upon the altar:

21 And the breasts and the right shoulder Aaron waved for a [k] wave offering before the LORD; as Moses commanded.

22 And Aaron [l] lifted up his hand toward the people, and [m] blessed them, and came down from offering of the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and peace offerings.

23 And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and came out, and blessed the people: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the people.

24 And there came a [q] fire out from before the LORD, and consumed upon the altar the burnt offering and the fat: which when all the people saw, they [t] shouted, and [u] fell on their faces.

CHAPTER 10

AND [z] Nadab and Ă-bī'-hū, the sons of Aaron, took either of them his [a] censer, and put fire therein, and put [b] incense thereon, and offered [c] strange fire before the LORD, which he commanded them not.

2 And there went out [a] fire from the LORD, and devoured them, and they died before the LORD.

3 Then Moses said unto Aaron, This is it that the LORD spake, saying, I will be [c] sanctified in them that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be [d] glorified. And Aaron held his peace.

4 And Moses called Mī'shā-ĕl and Ĕl-zā'phăn, the [g] sons of Ŭz'zĭ-ĕl the uncle of Aaron, and said unto them, Come near, [i] carry your brethren from before the sanctuary [l] out of the camp.

5 So they went near, and carried them in their [o] coats out of the camp; as Moses had said.

6 And Moses said unto Aaron, and unto [p] Ĕl-ē-ā'zär and unto [q] Ĭth'ă-mär, his sons, [r] Uncover not your heads, neither rend your clothes; lest ye die, and lest wrath come upon all the people: but let your brethren, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which the LORD hath kindled.

7 And ye shall [x] not go out from the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: for the [z] anointing oil of the LORD is upon you. And they did according to the word of Moses.

8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Aaron, saying,

9 [c] Do not drink wine nor strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: it shall be a [d] statute for ever throughout your generations:

10 And that ye may [e] put difference between holy and unholy, and between unclean and clean;

11 And that ye [f] may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the LORD hath spoken unto them by the hand of Moses.

12 ¶ And Moses spake unto Aaron, and unto Ĕl-ē-ā'zär and unto Ĭth'ă-mär, his sons that were left, Take the [h] meat offering that remaineth of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and [k] eat it without [l] leaven beside the altar: for it is [m] most holy:

13 And ye shall eat it [b] in the holy place, because it is thy due, and thy sons' due, of the sacrifices of the LORD made by fire: for so I am commanded.

14 And the wave breast and heave shoulder shall ye eat in a clean place; thou, and thy sons, and [e] thy daughters with thee: for they be thy due, and thy sons' [f] due, which are given out of the sacrifices of [h] peace offerings of the children of Israel.

15 The [k] heave shoulder and the [m] wave breast shall they bring with the offerings made by fire of the [n] fat, to wave it for a wave offering before the LORD; and it shall be thine, and thy sons' with thee, by a statute for ever; as the LORD hath commanded.

16 ¶ And Moses diligently sought the [s] goat of the [t] sin offering, and, behold, it was burnt: and he was angry with Ĕl-ē-ā'zär and Ĭth'ă-mär, the sons of Aaron which were left alive, saying,

17 Wherefore have ye not [u] eaten the sin offering in the holy place, seeing it is most holy, and God hath given it you to [y] bear the iniquity of the congregation, to [a] make atonement for them before the LORD?

18 Behold, the [b] blood of it was not brought in within the holy place: ye should indeed have eaten it in the holy place, as I commanded.

19 And Aaron said unto Moses, Behold, this day have they offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD; and such things have befallen me: and if I had eaten the sin offering to day, should it have been accepted in the sight of the LORD?

20 And when Moses heard that, he was content.

is clovenfooted, and cheweth the cud, among the beasts, that shall ye eat.

4 Nevertheless these shall ye not eat of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the hoof: as the camel, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you.

5 And the [2]coney, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you.

6 And the hare, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you.

7 And the [e] swine, though he divide the hoof, and be clovenfooted, yet he cheweth not the cud; he is unclean to you.

8 Of their flesh shall ye not eat, and their carcase shall ye not touch; they are unclean to you.

9 ¶ These shall ye eat of all that are in the waters: whatsoever hath fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the rivers, them shall ye eat.

10 And all that have not fins and scales in the seas, and in the rivers, of all that move in the waters, and of any living thing which is in the waters, they shall be an [i] abomination unto you:

11 They shall be even an abomination unto you; ye shall not eat of their flesh, but ye shall have their carcases in abomination.

12 Whatsoever hath no fins nor scales in the waters, that shall be an abomination unto you.

13 ¶ And these are they which ye shall have in abomination among the fowls; they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination: the [k] eagle, and the ossifrage, and the ospray,

14 And the vulture, and the [4]kite after his [l] kind;

19 And the [r] stork, the [8]heron after her kind, and the lapwing, and the [a] bat.

20 All fowls that [b] creep, going upon all four, shall be an abomination unto you.

21 Yet these may ye eat of every flying creeping thing that goeth upon all four, which have legs above their feet, to leap withal upon the earth;

22 Even these of them ye may eat; the [c] locust after his kind, and the bald locust after his kind, and the [3]beetle after his kind, and the [d] grasshopper after his kind.

23 But all other flying creeping things, which have four feet, shall be an abomination unto you.

25 And whosoever beareth ought of the carcase of them shall [h] wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even.

26 The carcases of every beast which divideth the hoof, and is not clovenfooted, nor cheweth the cud, are unclean unto you: every one that toucheth them shall be unclean.

38 But if any water be put upon the seed, and any part of their carcase fall thereon, it shall be unclean unto you.

39 And if any beast, of which ye may eat, die; he that toucheth the carcase thereof shall be unclean until the even.

40 And he that [l]eateth of the carcase of it shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: he also that beareth the carcase of it shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even.

41 And every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth shall be an abomination; it shall not be eaten.

42 Whatsoever goeth upon the belly, and whatsoever goeth upon all four, or whatsoever hath more feet among all creeping things that creep upon the earth, them ye shall not eat; for they are an abomination.

43 Ye shall not make your selves [r]abominable with any creeping thing that creepeth, neither shall ye make yourselves unclean with them, that ye should be defiled thereby.

44 For [t] I am the LORD your God: ye shall therefore [x]sanctify yourselves, and [a]ye shall be holy; for [b]I am holy: neither shall ye defile yourselves with any manner of creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

45 For [d] I am the LORD that bringeth you up out of the land of Egypt, [e] to be your God: ye shall therefore be holy, for I am holy.

46 This is the law of the beasts, and of the fowl, and of every living creature that moveth in the waters, and of every creature that creepeth upon the earth:

47 To [f] make a difference between the unclean and the clean, and between the beast that may be eaten and the beast that may not be eaten.

CHAPTER 12

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a woman have conceived seed, and born a man child: then she shall be unclean [h] seven days: according to the days of the separation for her infirmity shall she be unclean.

3 And in the [i] eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised.

4 And she shall then continue in the blood of her purifying three and thirty days; she shall touch no [k] hallowed thing, nor come into the sanctuary, until the [m]days of her purifying be fulfilled.

5 But if she bear a maid child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her separation: and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying threescore and six days.

6 And when the days of her purifying are fulfilled, for a son, or for a daughter, she shall bring a lamb of the first year for a [n]burnt offering, and a young [o]pigeon, or a [p]turtledove, for a [q]sin offering, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest:

7 Who shall offer it before the LORD, and [s] make an atonement for her; and she shall be cleansed from the issue of her blood. This is the law for her that hath born a male or a female.

8 And if she be [u]not able to bring a lamb, then she shall bring two turtles,

CHAPTER 13

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying,

2 [a] When a man shall have in the skin of his flesh a [b] rising, a scab, or bright spot, and it be in the skin of his flesh like the plague of leprosy; then he shall be brought unto Aaron the priest, or unto one of his sons the priests:

3 And the priest shall look on the plague in the skin of the flesh: and when the hair in the plague is turned white, and the plague in sight be deeper than the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosy: and the priest shall look on him, and pronounce him unclean.

4 If the bright spot be white in the skin of his flesh, and in sight be not deeper than the skin, and the hair thereof be not turned white; then the priest shall shut up him that hath the plague [d] seven days:

5 And the priest shall look on him the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague in his sight be at a stay, and the plague spread not in the skin; then the priest shall shut him up seven days more:

6 And the priest shall look on him again the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague be somewhat dark, and the plague spread not in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean: it is but a scab: and he shall [f] wash his clothes, and be clean.

7 But if the scab spread much abroad in the skin, after that he hath been seen of the priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen of the priest again:

8 And if the priest see that, behold, the scab spreadeth in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a leprosy.

9 ¶ When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought unto the priest;

10 And the priest shall see him: and, behold, if the rising be white in the skin, and it have turned the hair white, and there be quick raw flesh in the rising;

11 It is an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not shut him up: for he is unclean.

12 And if a leprosy break out abroad in the skin, and the leprosy cover all the skin of him that hath the plague from his head even to his foot, wheresoever the priest looketh;

13 Then the priest shall consider: and, behold, if the leprosy have covered all his flesh, he shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: it is all turned [c] white: he is clean.

14 But when raw flesh appeareth in him, he shall be unclean.

15 And the priest shall see the raw flesh, and pronounce him to be unclean: for the raw flesh is unclean: it is a leprosy.

16 Or if the raw flesh turn again, and be changed unto white, he shall come unto the priest;

17 And the priest shall see him: and, behold, if the plague be turned into white; then the priest shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: he is clean.

18 ¶ The flesh also, in which, even in the skin thereof, was a [e] boil, and is healed,

19 And in the place of the boil there be a white rising, or a bright spot, white, and somewhat reddish, and it be shewed to the priest;

20 And if, when the priest seeth it, behold, it be in sight lower than the skin, and the hair thereof be turned white; the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague of leprosy broken out of the boil.

21 But if the priest look on it, and, behold, there be no white hairs therein, and if it be not lower than the skin, but be somewhat dark; then the priest shall shut him up seven days:

22 And if it spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague.

13th c. B.C.

23 But if the bright spot stay in his place, and spread not, it is a burning boil; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

24 ¶ Or if there be any flesh, in the skin whereof there is a hot burning, and the quick flesh that burneth have a white bright spot, somewhat reddish, or white;

25 Then the priest shall look upon it: and, behold, if the hair in the bright spot be turned white, and it be in sight deeper than the skin; it is a leprosy broken out of the burning: wherefore the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy.

26 But if the priest look on it, and, behold, there be no white hair in the bright spot, and it be no lower than the other skin, but be somewhat dark; then the priest shall shut him up seven days:

27 And the priest shall look upon him the seventh day: and if it be spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy.

28 And if the bright spot stay in his place, and spread not in the skin, but it be somewhat dark; it is a rising of the burning, and the priest shall pronounce him clean: for it is an inflammation of the burning.

29 ¶ If a man or woman have a plague upon the head or the beard;

30 Then the priest shall see the plague: and, behold, if it be in sight deeper than the skin; and there be in it a yellow thin hair; then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a dry [b] scall, even a leprosy upon the head or beard.

31 And if the priest look on the plague of the scall, and, behold, it be not in sight deeper than the skin, and that there is no black hair in it; then the priest shall shut up him that hath the plague of the scall seven days:

32 And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the plague: and, behold, if the scall spread not, and there be in it no yellow hair, and the scall be not in sight deeper than the skin;

33 He shall be shaven, but the scall shall he not shave; and the priest shall shut up him that hath the scall seven days more:

34 And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the scall: and, behold, if the scall be not spread in the skin, nor be in sight deeper than the skin; then the priest shall pronounce him clean: and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

35 But if the scall spread much in the skin after his cleansing;

36 Then the priest shall look on him: and, behold, if the scall be spread in the skin, the priest shall not seek for yellow hair; he is unclean.

37 But if the scall be in his sight at a stay, and that there is black hair grown up therein; the scall is healed, he is clean: and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

38 ¶ If a man also or a woman have in the skin of their flesh bright spots, even white bright spots;

39 Then the priest shall look: and, behold, if the bright spots in the skin of their flesh be darkish white; it is a freckled spot that groweth in the skin; he is clean.

40 And the man whose hair is fallen off his head, he is bald; yet is he clean.

41 And he that hath his hair fallen off from the part of his head toward his face, he is forehead bald: yet is he clean.

42 And if there be in the bald head, or bald [a] forehead, a white reddish sore; it is a leprosy sprung up in his bald head, or his bald forehead.

43 Then the priest shall look upon it: and, behold, if the rising of the sore be white reddish in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, as the leprosy appeareth in the skin of the flesh;

44 He is a leprous man, he is unclean: the priest shall pronounce him utterly unclean; his plague is in his head.

45 And the leper in whom the plague is, his clothes shall be rent, and his [c] head bare, and he shall put a [d] covering upon his upper lip, and shall [e] cry, Unclean, unclean.

46 All the days wherein the plague shall be in him he shall be defiled; he is unclean: he shall dwell alone; [a] without the camp shall his habitation be.

47 ¶ The [b] garment also that the plague of leprosy is in, whether it be a woollen garment, or a linen garment;

48 Whether it be in the warp, or woof; of linen, or of woollen; whether in a skin, or in any thing made of skin;

49 And if the plague be greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the skin, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin; it is a plague of leprosy, and shall be shewed unto the priest:

50 And the priest shall look upon the plague, and shut up it that hath the plague seven days:

51 And he shall look on the plague on the seventh day: if the plague be spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in a skin, or in any work that is made of skin; the plague is a [e] fretting leprosy; it is unclean.

52 He shall therefore burn that garment, whether warp or woof, in woollen or in linen, or any thing of skin, wherein the plague is: for it is a fretting leprosy; it shall be burnt in the fire.

53 And if the priest shall look, and, behold, the plague be not spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin;

54 Then the priest shall command that they wash the thing wherein the plague is, and he shall shut it up seven days more:

55 And the priest shall look on the plague, after that it is washed: and, behold, if the plague have not changed his colour, and the plague be not spread; it is unclean; thou shalt burn it in the fire; it is fret inward, whether it be bare within or without.

56 And if the priest look, and, behold, the plague be somewhat dark after the washing of it; then he shall rend it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warp, or out of the woof:

57 And if it appear still in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin; it is a spreading plague: thou shalt burn that wherein the plague is with fire.

58 And the garment, either warp, or woof, or whatsoever thing of skin it be, which thou shalt wash, if the plague be departed from them, then it shall be washed the second time, and shall be clean.

59 This is the law of the plague of leprosy in a garment of woollen or linen, either in the warp, or woof, or any thing of skins, to pronounce it clean, or to pronounce it unclean.

CHAPTER 14

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 This shall be the law of the leper in the day of his cleansing: He shall be [c] brought unto the priest:

3 And the priest shall go forth [d] out of the camp; and the priest shall look, and, behold, if the plague of leprosy be healed in the leper;

4 Then shall the priest command to take for him that is [f] to be cleansed two birds alive and [g] clean, and [h] cedar wood, and [i] scarlet, and [k] hyssop:

5 And the priest shall command that one of the birds be killed [l] in an earthen vessel over [2] running water:

6 As for the living bird, he shall take it, and the cedar wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water:

7 And he shall [m] sprinkle upon him that is to be cleansed from the leprosy [n] seven times, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall [o] let the living bird loose into the open field.

8 And he that is to be cleansed shall [p] wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and wash himself in water, that he may be clean: and after that he shall come into the camp, and shall [q] tarry abroad out of his tent [r] seven days.

9 But it shall be [s] on the seventh day, that he shall shave all his hair off his head and his beard and his eyebrows,

31 Even such as he is able to get, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, with the meat offering: and the priest shall make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed before the LORD.

32 This is the law of him in whom is the plague of leprosy, whose hand is not able to get that which pertaineth to his cleansing.

33 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

34 When ye be come into the [b] land of Cā'nă-ăn, which I [d] give to you for a possession, and [e] I put the plague of leprosy in a house of the land of your possession;

35 And he that owneth the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, It seemeth to me there is as it were a plague in the house:

36 Then the priest shall command that they empty the house, before the priest go into it to see the plague, that all that is in the house be not made unclean: and afterward the priest shall go in to see the house:

37 And he shall look on the plague, and, behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow strakes, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall;

38 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days:

39 And the priest shall come again the seventh day, and shall look: and, behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house;

40 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and they shall cast them into an unclean place without the city:

41 And he shall cause the house to be scraped within round about, and they shall pour out the dust that they scrape off without the city into an unclean place:

42 And they shall take other stones, and put them in the place of those stones; and he shall take other morter, and shall plaister the house.

43 And if the plague come again, and break out in the house, after that he hath taken away the stones, and after he hath scraped the house, and after it is plaistered;

44 Then the priest shall come and look, and, behold, if the plague be spread in the house, it is a [a] fretting leprosy in the house: it is unclean.

45 And he shall break down the house, the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the morter of the house; and he shall carry them forth out of the city into an unclean place.

46 Moreover he that [c] goeth into the house all the while that it is shut up shall be unclean until the even.

47 And he that lieth in the house shall [f] wash his clothes; and he that eateth in the house shall wash his clothes.

48 And if the priest shall come in, and look upon it, and, behold, the plague hath not spread in the house, after the house was plaistered: then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed.

49 And he shall take to cleanse the house [g] two birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop:

50 And he shall kill the one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water:

51 And he shall take the cedar wood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird, and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times:

52 And he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar wood, and with the hyssop, and with the scarlet:

53 But he shall let go the living bird out of the city into the open fields, and make an atonement for the house: and it shall be clean.

CHAPTER 15

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and to Aaron, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When any man hath a running [b] issue out of his flesh, because of his issue he is unclean.

3 And this shall be [d] his uncleanness in his issue: whether his flesh run with his issue, or his flesh be stopped from his issue, it is his uncleanness.

4 Every bed, whereon he lieth that hath the issue, is unclean: and every thing, whereon he sitteth, shall be unclean.

5 And whosoever [h] toucheth his bed shall [i] wash his clothes, and [k] bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

6 And he that sitteth on any thing whereon he sat that hath the issue shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

7 And he that toucheth the flesh of him that hath the issue shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

8 And if he that hath the issue [n] spit upon him that is clean; then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

9 And what saddle soever he rideth upon that hath the issue shall be unclean.

10 And whosoever toucheth any thing that was under him shall be unclean until the even: and he that beareth any of those things shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

11 And whomsoever he toucheth that hath the issue, and hath not rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

12 And the [q] vessel of earth, that he toucheth which hath the issue, shall be broken: and every [r] vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

13 And when he that hath an issue is cleansed of his issue; then he shall number to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in running water, and shall be clean.

14 And on the eighth day he shall take to him two [a] turtledoves, or two young [c] pigeons, and come before the LORD unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and give them unto the priest:

15 And the priest shall offer them, the one for a [e] sin offering, and the other for a [e] burnt offering; and the priest shall [f] make an atonement for him before the LORD for his issue.

16 And if any man's [g] seed of copulation go out from him, then he shall wash all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the even.

17 And every garment, and every skin, whereon is the seed of copulation, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the even.

18 The woman also with whom man shall lie with seed of copulation, they shall both bathe themselves in water, and be unclean until the even.

19 ¶ And [m] if a woman have an issue, and her issue in her flesh be blood, she shall be put apart [o] seven days: and whosoever toucheth her shall be unclean until the even.

CHAPTER 16

AND the LORD spake unto Moses after [q] the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they offered before the LORD, and died;

2 And the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto Aaron thy brother, that he come [t] not at all times into the [u] holy place within the [x] vail before the [z] mercy seat, which is upon the [a] ark; that he die not: for [b] I will appear in [a] the cloud upon the mercy seat.

3 Thus shall Aaron come into the holy place: with a young bullock for a [b] sin offering, and a ram for a [c] burnt offering.

4 He shall put on the holy [d] linen coat, and he shall have the [e] linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall be girded with a linen [f] girdle, and with the linen [g] mitre shall he be attired: these are [h] holy garments; therefore shall he wash his flesh in water, and so put them on.

5 And he shall take of the [i] congregation of the children of Israel two kids of the [k] goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering.

6 And Aaron shall offer his bullock of the sin offering, which is [l] for himself, and [m] make an atonement for himself, and for his house.

7 And he shall take the two goats, and present them before the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

8 And Aaron shall cast lots upon the two goats; one lot for the LORD, and the other lot for the [2] scapegoat.

9 And Aaron shall bring the goat upon which the LORD's lot fell, and offer him for a sin offering.

10 But the goat, on which the lot fell to be the scapegoat, shall be presented alive before the LORD, to make an atonement [3] with him, and to let him go for a scapegoat into the wilderness.

11 And Aaron shall bring the bullock of the sin offering, which is for himself, and shall make an atonement for himself, and for his house, and shall kill the bullock of the sin offering which is for himself:

12 And he shall take a [p] censer full of burning coals of fire from off the [r] altar before the LORD, and his hands full of [s] sweet incense beaten small, and bring it within the vail:

13 And he shall put the incense upon the fire before the LORD, that the cloud of the incense may cover the mercy seat that is [y] upon the testimony, that he die not:

28 And he that burneth them shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp.

29 ¶ And this shall be a [n] statute for ever unto you: that in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, ye shall [p] afflict your souls, and [q] do no work at all, whether it be [r] one of your own country, or a [s] stranger that sojourneth among you:

30 For on that day shall the priest make an atonement for you, to cleanse you, that ye may [t] be clean from all your sins before the LORD.

31 It shall be a [u] sabbath of rest unto you, and ye shall afflict your souls, by a statute for ever.

32 And the priest, whom he [z] shall anoint, and whom he shall [a] consecrate to minister in the priest's office in his father's stead, shall make the atonement, and shall put on the linen clothes, even the holy garments:

33 And he shall make an atonement for the holy sanctuary, and he shall make an atonement for the tabernacle of the congregation, and for the altar, and he shall make an atonement for the priests, and for all the people of the congregation.

34 And this shall be an everlasting statute unto you, to make an atonement for the children of Israel for all their sins [b] once a year. And he did as the LORD commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 17

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto Aaron, and unto his sons, and unto all the children of Israel, and say unto them; This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded, saying,

3 What man soever there be of the house of Israel, that killeth an ox, or lamb, or goat, in the camp, or that killeth it [f] out of the camp,

4 And [g] bringeth it not unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer an offering unto the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD; blood shall be imputed unto that man; he hath shed blood; and that man shall be [i] cut off from among his people:

5 To the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices, which they offer in the [k] open field, even that they may bring them unto the LORD, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest, and offer them for [l] peace offerings unto the LORD.

6 And the priest shall [o] sprinkle the blood upon the altar of the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and burn the [r] fat for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

7 And they shall no more offer their sacrifices unto [3]devils, [t] after whom they have gone a whoring. This shall be a [u] statute for ever unto them throughout their generations.

8 ¶ And thou shalt say unto them, Whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the [x] strangers which sojourn among you, that offereth a [z] burnt offering or sacrifice,

9 And bringeth it not unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer it unto the LORD; even that man shall be [a] cut off from among his people.

10 ¶ And whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, that [c] eateth any manner of blood; I will even [d] set my face against that soul that eateth blood, and will cut him off from among his people.

11 For the life of the flesh is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the altar to [e] make an atonement for your souls: for it is the blood that maketh an atonement [2]for the soul.

12 Therefore I said unto the children of Israel, No soul of you shall eat blood, neither shall any stranger that sojourneth among you eat blood.

13 And whatsoever man there be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, which hunteth and catcheth any beast or fowl that may be eaten; he shall even pour out the blood thereof, and [h] cover it with dust.

14 For it is the life of all flesh; the blood of it is for the life thereof: therefore I said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall eat the blood of no manner of flesh: for the life of all flesh is the blood thereof: whosoever eateth it shall be cut off.

15 And every soul that eateth that which died of itself, or that which was [m] torn with beasts, whether it be [n] one of your own country, or a stranger, he shall both [p] wash his clothes, and [q] bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even: then shall he be clean.

16 But if he wash them not, nor bathe his flesh; then he shall [s] bear his iniquity.

6 ¶ None of you shall approach to any that is near of kin to him, to uncover their nakedness: I am the LORD.

7 [g] The nakedness of thy father, or the nakedness of thy mother, shalt thou not uncover: she is thy mother; thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

8 The nakedness of thy [l] father's wife shalt thou not uncover: it is thy father's nakedness.

9 The nakedness of [o] thy sister, the daughter of thy father, or daughter of thy mother, whether she be born at home, or born abroad, even their nakedness thou shalt not uncover.

10 The nakedness of thy son's daughter, or of thy daughter's daughter, even their nakedness thou shalt not uncover: for their's is thine own nakedness.

11 The nakedness of thy father's wife's daughter, begotten of thy father, she is thy sister, thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

12 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy [z] father's sister: she is thy father's near kinswoman.

15 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy [f] daughter in law: she is thy son's wife; thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

16 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy [h] brother's wife: it is thy brother's nakedness.

17 [i] Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter, neither shalt thou take her son's daughter, or her daughter's daughter, to uncover her nakedness; for they are her near kinswomen: it is [2] wickedness.

18 Neither shalt thou take a wife to her sister, [3] to vex her, to uncover her nakedness, beside the other in her life time.

19 Also thou shalt [d] not approach unto a woman to uncover her nakedness, as long as she is put apart for [e] her uncleanness.

20 Moreover [f] thou shalt not lie carnally with thy [h] neighbour's wife, to defile thyself with her.

21 And thou shalt not let any of thy seed [i] pass through the fire to [k] Molech, neither shalt thou [m] profane the name of thy God: I am the LORD.

22 Thou shalt not [n] lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is [p] abomination.

23 Neither shalt thou [q] lie with any beast to defile thyself therewith: neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down thereto: it is [r] confusion.

24 [s] Defile not ye yourselves in any of these things: for in all these the nations are defiled which I [t] cast out before you:

25 And [u] the land is defiled: therefore I [x] do visit the iniquity thereof upon it, and the land itself [y] vomiteth out her inhabitants.

26 Ye [a] shall therefore keep my statutes and my judgments, and shall not commit any of these abominations; neither any [b] of your own nation, nor any [c] stranger that sojourneth among you:

27 (For all these [d] abominations have the men of the land done, which were before you, and the land is defiled;)

28 That the land spue not you out also, when ye defile it, as it [g] spued out the nations that were before you.

29 For whosoever shall commit any of these abominations, even the souls that commit them shall be cut off from among their people.

15 ¶ [d] Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment: thou shalt [e] not respect the person of the poor, nor honour the person of the mighty: but [f] in righteousness shalt thou judge thy neighbour.

16 ¶ Thou shalt not go up and down as a [k] talebearer among thy people: neither shalt thou [m] stand against the blood of thy neighbour: I am the LORD.

17 ¶ [p] Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart: [q] thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbour, and not [3] suffer sin upon him.

18 ¶ Thou shalt [s] not avenge, nor [t] bear any grudge against the children of thy people, but [u] thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself: I am the LORD.

19 ¶ [x] Ye shall keep my statutes. Thou shalt not let thy cattle gender with a diverse kind: [y] thou shalt not sow thy field with mingled seed: neither shall a garment mingled of linen and woollen come upon thee.

20 ¶ And whosoever lieth carnally with a woman, that is a bondmaid, betrothed to an husband, and not at all redeemed, nor freedom given her; [5] she shall be scourged; they shall not be put to death, because she was not free.

21 And he shall bring his [e] trespass offering unto the LORD, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, even a [f] ram for a trespass offering.

27 Ye [g] shall not round the corners of your heads, neither shalt thou mar the corners of thy beard.

28 Ye shall not make any [l] cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor print any marks upon you: I am the LORD.

CHAPTER 20

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Again, thou shalt say to the children of Israel, Whosoever he be of the children of Israel, or [a] of the strangers that sojourn in Israel, that [b] giveth any of his seed unto Molech; he shall surely be put to death: the people of the land shall [c] stone him with stones.

3 And I will [e] set my face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people; because he hath given of his seed unto Molech, to [h] defile my sanctuary, and to [i] profane [k] my holy name.

4 And if the people of the land do any ways hide their eyes from the man, when he giveth of his seed unto Molech, and kill him not:

5 Then I will set my face against that man, and against his family, and will cut him off, and all that [o] go a whoring after him, to commit whoredom with Molech, from among their people.

6 ¶ And the soul that turneth after such as have [s] familiar spirits, and after wizards, to go a whoring after them, I will even set my face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people.

7 ¶ [x] Sanctify yourselves therefore, and [y] be ye holy: for [z] I am the LORD your God.

8 And ye shall [b] keep my statutes, and do them: [c] I am the LORD which sanctify you.

9 ¶ For [e] every one that curseth his father or his mother shall be surely put to death: he hath cursed his father or his mother; [g] his blood shall be upon him.

10 ¶ And the man that [h] committeth adultery with another man's wife, even he that committeth adultery with his neighbour's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death.

11 And the man that lieth with [m] his father's wife hath uncovered his father's nakedness: both of them shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

12 And if a man lie with his [n] daughter in law, both of them shall surely be put to death: they have [o] wrought confusion; their blood shall be upon them.

13 If a man also lie [a] with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an [c] abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

14 And [f] if a man take a wife and her mother, it is [g] wickedness: they shall be [i] burnt with fire, both he and they; that there be no wickedness among you.

15 [k] And if a man lie [l] with a beast, he shall surely be put to death: and ye shall slay the beast.

16 And if a woman approach unto any beast, and lie down thereto, thou shalt kill the woman, and the beast: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

17 And if a man shall take [n] his sister, his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter, and see her nakedness, and she see his nakedness; it is a wicked thing; and they shall be cut off in the sight of their people: he hath uncovered his sister's nakedness; he shall [p] bear his iniquity.

18 And [q] if a man shall lie with a woman having her sickness, and shall uncover her nakedness; he hath discovered her fountain, and she hath uncovered the fountain of her blood: and both of them shall be [t] cut off from among their people.

19 And thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of [x] thy mother's sister, nor of thy [y] father's sister: for he uncovereth his near kin: they shall bear their iniquity.

20 And if a man shall lie with his [z] uncle's wife, he hath uncovered his uncle's nakedness: they shall bear their sin; they shall die [a] childless.

21 And if a man shall take [c] his brother's wife, it is an unclean thing: he hath uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless.

22 ¶ Ye shall therefore keep all my statutes, and all my judgments, and do them: that the land [g] whither I bring you to dwell therein, [i] spue you not out.

23 And ye shall not walk in the manners of the nation, which I [l] cast out before you: for they committed all these things, and therefore I abhorred them.

24 But I have said unto you, Ye shall inherit their land, and I [b] will give it unto you to possess it, a land that [d] floweth with milk and honey: I am the LORD your God, [e] which have separated you from other people.

25 Ye shall therefore put [h] difference between clean beasts and unclean, and between unclean fowls and clean: and ye shall not make your souls abominable by beast, or by fowl, or by any manner of living thing that creepeth on the ground, which I have separated from you as unclean.

26 And ye shall be holy unto me: for I the LORD [m] am holy, and have severed you from other people, that ye should be mine.

27 ¶ [o] A man also or woman that hath a familiar spirit, or that is a wizard, shall surely be put to death: they shall stone them with stones: their blood shall be upon them.

CHAPTER 21

[r] AND the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto the priests the sons of Aaron, and say unto them, There shall none [s] be defiled for the dead among his people:

2 [u] But for his kin, that is near unto him, that is, for his mother, and for his father, and for his son, and for his daughter, and for his brother,

3 And for his sister a virgin, that is nigh unto him, which hath had no husband; for her may he be defiled.

4 But he shall not defile himself, [2] being a chief man among his people, to profane himself.

5 They shall [b] not make baldness upon their head, neither shall they shave off the corner of their beard, [d] nor make any cuttings in their flesh.

6 They [e] shall be holy unto their God, and not [f] profane the name of their God: for the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and the [h] bread of their God, they do offer: therefore they shall be holy.

7 They [k] shall not take a wife that is a whore, or profane; [m] neither shall they take a woman put away from her husband: for he is holy unto his God.

18 For whatsoever man he be that hath a blemish, he shall not approach: a blind man, or a lame, or he that hath a [4] flat nose, or any thing superfluous,

19 Or a man that is brokenfooted, or brokenhanded,

20 Or crookbackt, or a dwarf, or that hath a blemish in his eye, or be scurvy, or scabbed, or hath his [f] stones broken;

21 No man that hath a blemish of the seed of Aaron the priest shall come nigh to offer the offerings of the LORD made by fire: he hath a blemish; he shall not come nigh to offer the bread of his God.

22 He shall eat the bread of his God, both of the [a] most holy, and of the holy.

23 Only he shall not go in unto the [d] vail, nor come nigh unto the altar, because he hath a blemish; that he profane not my sanctuaries: for I the LORD do sanctify them.

24 And Moses told it unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the children of Israel.

CHAPTER 22

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, that they [m] separate themselves from the [n] holy things of the children of Israel, and that they [p] profane not [r] my holy name in those things which they hallow unto me: [s] I am the LORD.

3 Say unto them, Whosoever he be of all your seed among your generations, that goeth unto the holy things, which the children of Israel hallow unto the LORD, [u] having his [x] uncleanness upon him, that soul shall be cut off from my presence: I am the LORD.

4 What man soever of the seed of Aaron is a [y] leper, or hath a running [z] issue; he shall not eat of the holy things, until he be clean. And whoso [a] toucheth any thing that is unclean by the dead, or a man [b] whose seed goeth from him;

5 Or whosoever toucheth any [c] creeping thing, whereby he may be made unclean, or a man of whom he may take uncleanness, whatsoever uncleanness he hath;

6 The soul which hath touched any such shall be unclean until even, and shall not eat of the holy things, unless he [d] wash his flesh with water.

7 And when the sun is down, he shall be clean, and shall afterward eat of the holy things; because it is [e] his food.

8 That which dieth of itself, or is [g] torn with beasts, he shall not eat to defile himself therewith: I am the LORD.

9 They shall therefore [h] keep mine ordinance, lest they [i] bear sin for it, and die therefore, if they profane it: [k] I the LORD do sanctify them.

12 If the priest's daughter also be married unto a stranger, she may not eat of an [2]offering of the holy things.

13 But if the priest's daughter be a widow, or divorced, and have no child, and is [e] returned unto her father's house, [f] as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's meat: but there shall no stranger eat thereof.

14 ¶ And if a man eat of the holy thing [g] unwittingly, then he shall put the [h] fifth part thereof unto it, and shall give it unto the priest with the holy thing.

15 And they shall not [k] profane the holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer unto the LORD;

16 Or suffer them to bear the iniquity of trespass, when they eat their holy things: for I the LORD do sanctify them.

17 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

8 But ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD seven days: in the seventh day is an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come into the land which I give unto you, and shall reap the harvest thereof, then ye shall bring a sheaf of the [q] firstfruits of your harvest unto the priest:

11 And he shall [r] wave the sheaf before the LORD, [s] to be accepted for you: [t] on the morrow after the sabbath the priest shall wave it.

12 And ye shall offer that day when ye wave the sheaf an he lamb without blemish of the first year for a [x] burnt offering unto the LORD.

13 And the [y] meat offering thereof shall be two tenth deals of fine flour mingled with oil, an offering made by fire unto the LORD for a sweet savour: and the [b] drink offering thereof shall be of wine, the fourth part of an hin.

14 And ye shall eat neither bread, nor [c] parched corn, nor [d] green ears, until the [e] selfsame day that ye have brought an offering unto your God: it shall be a [h] statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

15 ¶ And [i] ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the [b] wave offering; seven sabbaths shall be complete:

16 Even unto the morrow after the seventh sabbath shall ye number fifty days; and ye shall offer a [c] new meat offering unto the LORD.

17 Ye shall bring out of your habitations two wave loaves of two tenth deals: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baken [g] with [h] leaven; they are the firstfruits unto the LORD.

18 And ye shall offer with the bread seven lambs without blemish of the first year, and one young bullock, and two rams: they shall be for a burnt offering unto the LORD, with their meat offering, and their drink offerings, even an offering made by fire, of sweet savour unto the LORD.

19 Then ye shall sacrifice one kid of the [l] goats for a [m] sin offering, and two lambs of the first year for a sacrifice of [n] peace offerings.

20 And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the [o] firstfruits for a wave offering before the LORD, with the two lambs: they shall be holy to the LORD [p] for the priest.

21 And ye shall proclaim on the selfsame day, that it may be an holy convocation unto you: ye shall do no servile work therein: it shall be a statute for ever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

22 ¶ And when ye [u] reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not make clean riddance of the corners of thy field when thou reapest, neither shalt thou gather any gleaning of thy harvest: thou shalt leave them unto the [z] poor, and to the [a] stranger: I am the LORD your God.

23 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

24 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, in the first day of the month, shall ye have a [3] sabbath, a [f] memorial of [g] blowing of trumpets, an holy convocation.

25 Ye shall do no servile work therein: but ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

seventh month there shall be a [a] day of atonement: it shall be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall [b] afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

28 And ye shall do no work in that same day: for it is a day of atonement, to [c] make an atonement for you before the LORD your God.

29 For whatsoever soul it be that shall not be afflicted in that same day, he shall be [g] cut off from among his people.

30 And whatsoever soul it be that doeth any work in that same day, the same soul will I destroy from among his people.

31 Ye shall do no manner of work: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

32 It shall be unto you a sabbath of rest, and ye shall afflict your souls: in the ninth day of the month at even, from even unto even, shall ye celebrate your sabbath.

33 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

34 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the [m] feast of tabernacles for seven days unto the LORD.

35 On the first day shall be an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

37 These are the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, a burnt offering, and a meat offering, a sacrifice, and drink offerings, every thing upon his day:

38 [a] Beside the sabbaths of the LORD, and beside your gifts, and beside all your [c] vows, and beside all your [d] freewill offerings, which ye give unto the LORD.

39 Also in the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when ye have gathered in the fruit of the land, ye shall keep a feast unto the LORD seven days: on the first day shall be a sabbath, and on the eighth day shall be a sabbath.

40 And [d] ye shall take you on the first day the [2] boughs of goodly trees, branches of [e] palm trees, and the boughs of [3] thick trees, and [f] willows of the brook; and ye shall [h] rejoice before the LORD your God seven days.

41 And ye shall keep it a feast unto the LORD seven days in the year. It shall be a statute for ever in your generations: ye shall celebrate it in the seventh month.

42 Ye shall dwell in booths seven days; all that are Israelites [i] born shall dwell in booths:

8 Every sabbath he shall set it in order before the LORD continually, being taken from the children of Israel by an [c] everlasting covenant.

9 And it [d] shall be Aaron's and his sons'; and they shall eat it [f] in the holy place: for it is [g] most holy unto him of the offerings of the LORD made by fire by a perpetual statute.

10 ¶ And the son of an Israelitish woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel: and this son of the Israelitish woman and a man of Israel strove together in the camp;

11 And the Israelitish woman's son [i] blasphemed the name of the LORD, and cursed. And they [l] brought him unto Moses: (and his mother's name was Shĕ-lō'mĭth, the daughter of Dĭb'rī, of the tribe of Dan:)

12 And they put him in ward, that the mind of the LORD might be shewed them.

13 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

14 Bring forth him that hath cursed [q] without the camp; and let all that heard him [r] lay their hands upon his head, and let all the congregation [s] stone him.

15 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Whosoever curseth his God shall [u] bear his sin.

16 And he that blasphemeth the name of the LORD, he shall surely be put to death, and all the congregation shall certainly stone him: as well the [y] stranger, as he that is [z] born in the land, when he blasphemeth the name of the LORD, shall be put to death.

17 ¶ And he that killeth any man shall surely [b] be put to death.

18 And he that killeth a beast shall [e] make it good; beast for beast.

19 And if a man cause a blemish in his [f] neighbour; as he hath done, so shall it be done to him;

20 Breach for breach, [h] eye for eye, tooth for tooth: as he hath caused a blemish in a man, so shall it be done to him again.

21 And he that killeth a beast, he shall restore it: and he that killeth a man, he shall be put to death.

22 Ye shall have [b] one manner of law, as well for the stranger, as for one of your own country: for [e] I am the LORD your God.

23 ¶ And Moses spake to the children of Israel, that they should bring forth him that had cursed out of the camp, and stone him with stones. And the children of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 25

AND the LORD spake unto Moses in [h] mount Sinai, saying,

5 [t] That which groweth of its own accord of thy harvest thou shalt not reap, neither gather the grapes of thy vine undressed: for it is a year of rest unto the land.

6 And the sabbath of the land shall be meat for you; for thee, and for thy servant, and for thy maid, and for thy hired servant, and for thy [x] stranger that sojourneth with thee,

7 And for thy cattle, and for the beast that are in thy land, [a] shall all the increase thereof be meat.

8 ¶ And thou shalt number seven sabbaths of years unto thee, [c] seven times [d] seven years; and the space of the seven sabbaths of years shall be unto thee forty and nine years.

9 Then shalt thou [z] cause the [g] trumpet of the jû'bĭ-lē to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month, in the [i] day of atonement shall ye make the trumpet sound throughout all your land.

10 And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and [b] proclaim [c] liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a [f] jû'bĭ-lē unto you; and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family.

11 A jû'bĭ-lē shall that fiftieth year be unto you: ye shall not sow, neither reap that which groweth of itself in it, nor gather the grapes in it of thy vine undressed.

12 For it is the jû'bĭ-lē; it shall be holy unto you: ye shall eat the increase thereof out of the field.

13 In the [i] year of this jû'bĭ-lē ye shall return every man unto his possession.

14 And if thou sell ought unto thy [k] neighbour, or buyest ought of thy neighbour's hand, ye shall not [l] oppress one another:

15 According to the number of years after the jû'bĭ-lē thou shalt buy of thy neighbour, and [m] according unto the number of years of the fruits he shall sell unto thee:

16 According to the multitude of years thou shalt increase the price thereof, and according to the fewness of years thou shalt diminish the price of it: for according to the number of the years of the fruits doth he sell unto thee.

17 Ye shall not therefore oppress one another; but thou [o] shalt fear thy God: for [p] I am the LORD your God.

18 ¶ Wherefore ye [q] shall do my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them; and ye shall [r] dwell in the land in safety.

19 And the land shall [s] yield her fruit, and ye shall [t] eat your fill, and dwell therein in safety.

20 And if ye shall say, [x] What shall we eat the seventh year? behold, we shall not sow, nor gather in our increase:

21 Then I will [y] command my blessing upon you in the [z] sixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for three years.

22 And ye shall sow the eighth year, and eat yet of [a] old fruit until the ninth year; until her fruits come in ye shall eat of the old store.

23 ¶ The land shall not be sold for ever: for [d] the land is mine; for [e] ye are strangers and sojourners with me.

24 And in all the land of your possession ye shall grant a redemption for the land.

25 ¶ If thy brother be waxen poor, and hath sold away some of his possession, and if any of his [g] kin come to [h] redeem it, then shall he redeem that which his brother sold.

26 And if the man have none to redeem it, and himself be able to redeem it;

27 Then let him count the years of the sale thereof, and restore the overplus unto the man to whom he sold it; that he may return unto his possession.

28 But if he be not able to restore it to him, then that which is sold shall remain in the hand of him that hath bought it until the year of jû'bĭ-lē: and in the jubile [n] it shall go out, and he shall return unto his possession.

29 And if a man sell a dwelling house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold; within a full year may he redeem it.

30 And if it be not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be established for ever to him that bought it throughout his generations: it shall not go out in the jû'bĭ-lē.

31 But the houses of the villages which have no wall round about them shall be counted as the fields of the country: they may be redeemed, and they shall go out in the jû'bĭ-lē.

32 Notwithstanding the [u] cities of the Levites, and the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Levites redeem at any time.

33 And [2] if a man purchase of the Levites, then the house that was sold, and the city of his possession, shall go out in the year of jû'bĭ-lē: for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel.

3 ¶ [a b c] If ye walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them;

4 Then I will [f] give you rain in due season, and the land shall [g] yield her increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit.

5 And [l] your threshing shall reach unto the vintage, and the vintage shall reach unto the sowing time: and ye shall eat your bread [n] to the full, and [o] dwell in your land safely.

6 And I will [q] give peace in the land, and [s] ye shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid: and [u] I will rid evil beasts out of the land, neither shall the [x] sword go through your land.

7 And ye shall chase your enemies, and [a] they shall fall before you by the sword.

8 And [b] five of you shall chase an hundred, and an hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight: and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.

9 For [e] I will have respect unto you, and [f] make you fruitful, and multiply you, and establish [g] my covenant with you.

10 And ye shall eat [i] old store, and [k] bring forth the old because of the new.

11 And I will [l] set my tabernacle among you: and my soul shall [n] not abhor you.

12 And [o] I will walk among you, and [q] will be your God, and ye shall be my people.

13 [r] I am the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, that ye should not be their bondmen; and [t] I have broken the bands of your yoke, and [u] made you go upright.

14 ¶ But [z] if ye will not hearken unto me, and will not do all these commandments;

15 And if ye shall despise my statutes, or if your soul abhor my judgments, so that ye will not do all my commandments, but that ye [c] break my covenant:

16 I also will do this unto you; I will even appoint over you [e] terror, [f] consumption, and the burning ague, that shall [d] consume the eyes, and cause sorrow of heart: and [e] ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it.

17 And I will [h] set my face against you, and [i] ye shall be slain before your enemies: [k] they that hate you shall reign over you; and [m] ye shall flee when none pursueth you.

18 And if ye will not yet for all this hearken unto me, then I will punish you [p] seven times more for your sins.

19 And I will break the [r] pride of your power; and [t] I will make your heaven as iron, and your earth as brass:

20 And your strength shall be spent [y] in vain: for your land shall not [z] yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield their fruits.

21 ¶ And if ye walk [c] contrary unto me, and will not hearken unto me; I will bring seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins.

22 [d] I will also send wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number; and [h] your high ways shall be desolate.

23 And if ye will not be [2] reformed by me by these things, but will walk contrary unto me;

24 Then will [m] I also walk contrary unto you, and will punish you yet seven times for your sins.

25 And [p] I will bring a sword upon you, that shall avenge the quarrel of my covenant: and when ye are gathered together within your cities, I will send the [s] pestilence among you; and ye shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy.

26 And [x] when I [y] have broken the staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one [a] oven, and they shall deliver you your bread again by weight: and [b] ye shall eat, and not be satisfied.

27 And if ye will not for all this hearken unto me, but walk contrary unto me;

28 Then I will walk contrary unto you also [d] in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins.

29 And [g] ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat.

30 And I will destroy your [b] high places, and cut down your [2] images, and [e] cast your carcases upon the carcases of your idols, and my soul shall [f] abhor you.

31 And I will [h] make your cities waste, [i] and bring your sanctuaries unto desolation, and [k] I will not smell the savour of your sweet odours.

32 And [l] I will bring the land into desolation: and your enemies which dwell therein shall be [m] astonished at it.

33 And I will [n] scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a [o] sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste.

34 Then shall the land [q] enjoy her sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye be in your enemies' land; even then shall the land rest, and enjoy her sabbaths.

35 As long as it lieth desolate it shall rest; because it did not rest in your sabbaths, when ye dwelt upon it.

36 And upon them that are left alive of you I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; and the sound of a [x] shaken leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall [z] when none pursueth.

37 And they shall fall one upon another, as it were before a sword, when none pursueth: and [a] ye shall have no power to stand before your enemies.

38 And ye shall perish among the heathen, and [b] the land of your enemies shall eat you up.

39 And they that are left of you shall [d] pine away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also in the [e] iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with them.

40 If they shall [g] confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, with their trespass which they trespassed against me, and that also they have walked contrary unto me;

41 And that I also have walked contrary unto them, and have brought them into the land of their enemies; if then their [i] uncircumcised hearts [a] be humbled, and they then accept of the punishment of their iniquity:

42 Then will I [c] remember my covenant [d] with Jacob, and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will [g] remember the land.

43 The land also shall be left of them, and shall enjoy her sabbaths, while she lieth desolate without them: and they shall accept of the punishment of their iniquity: because, even because they despised my judgments, and because their soul abhorred my statutes.

44 And yet for all that, when they be in the land of their enemies, [p] I will not cast them away, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to break my covenant with them: for I am the LORD their God.

45 But I will for their sakes remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt [r] in the sight of the heathen, that I [s] might be their God: [t] I am the LORD.

46 [u] These are the statutes and judgments and laws, which the LORD made between him and the children of Israel in [y] mount Sinai by the hand of Moses.

estimation shall be of the male five shē'kĕls of silver, and for the female thy estimation shall be three shekels of silver.

7 And if it be from sixty years old and above; if it be a male, then thy estimation shall be fifteen shē'kĕls, and for the female ten shekels.

8 But if he be poorer than thy estimation, then he shall present himself before the priest, and the priest shall value him; according to his ability that vowed shall the priest value him.

9 And if it be a beast, whereof men bring an offering unto the LORD, all that any man giveth of such unto the LORD shall be holy.

10 He shall not alter it, nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: and if he shall at all change beast for beast, then it and the exchange thereof shall be holy.

11 And if it be any unclean beast, of which they do not offer a sacrifice unto the LORD, then he shall present the beast before the priest:

12 And the priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad: as thou valuest it, who art the priest, so shall it be.

13 But if he will at all redeem it, then he shall add a [e] fifth part thereof unto thy estimation.

14 ¶ And when a man shall [g] sanctify his house to be holy unto the LORD, then the priest shall estimate it, whether it be good or bad: as the priest shall estimate it, so shall it stand.

15 And if he that sanctified it will redeem his house, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be his.

16 And if a man shall sanctify unto the LORD some part of a field of his possession, then thy estimation shall be according to the seed thereof: an hō'mĕr of barley seed shall be valued at fifty shē'kĕls of silver.

17 If he sanctify his field from the year of jû'bĭ-lē, according to thy estimation it shall stand.

18 But if he sanctify his field after the jû'bĭ-lē, then the priest shall reckon unto him the money [n] according to the years that remain, even unto the year of the jubile, and it shall be abated from thy estimation.

19 And if he that sanctified the field will in any wise redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be assured to him.

20 And if he will not redeem the field, or if he have sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more.

21 But the field, when it [a] goeth out in the jû'bĭ-lē, shall be holy unto the LORD, as a field [b] devoted; [c] the possession thereof shall be the priest's.

22 And if a man sanctify unto the LORD a field which he hath bought, which is not of the fields of his possession;

23 Then the priest shall reckon unto him the worth of thy estimation, even unto the year of the jû'bĭ-lē: and he shall give thine estimation in that day, as a holy thing unto the LORD.

24 [d] In the year of the jû'bĭ-lē the field shall return unto him of whom it was bought, even to him to whom the possession of the land did belong.

25 And all thy estimations shall be according to the shē'kĕl of the sanctuary: [f] twenty gē'rähs shall be the shekel.

26 ¶ Only the [h] firstling of the beasts, which should be the LORD's firstling, no man shall sanctify it; whether it be ox, or sheep: it is the LORD's.

27 And if it be of an [i] unclean beast, then he shall redeem it according to thine estimation, and shall add a fifth part of it thereto: or if it be not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to thy estimation.

28 Notwithstanding no devoted thing, that a man shall devote unto the LORD of all that he hath, both of man and beast, and of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed: every devoted thing is [k] most holy unto the LORD.

29 None devoted, which shall be [l] devoted of men, shall be redeemed; but shall surely be put to death.

THE FOURTH BOOK OF MOSES, CALLED NUMBERS

CHAPTER 1

13th c. B.C.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of [c] Sinai, [d] in the tabernacle of the congregation, [f] on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 [h] Take ye the sum of all the congregation of the children of Israel, after their families, by the house of their fathers, with the number of their names, every male [k] by their polls;

3 From twenty years old and upward, all that are able to go forth to war in Israel: thou and Aaron shall number them by their armies.

4 And with you there shall be a man of every tribe; every one head of the house of his fathers.

5 ¶ And these are the names of the men that shall stand with you: of the tribe of Reuben; [n] Ĕ-lī'zûr the son of Shĕd'ē-ûr.

6 Of Simeon; [o] Shĕ-lû'mĭ-ĕl the son of Zū-rĭ-shăd'dâi.

7 Of Judah; [p] Nahshon the son of Ăm-mĭn'ă-dăb.

8 Of Ĭs'să-chär; [q] Nĕth'ă-nēēl the son of Zuar.

9 Of Zĕ-bū'lŭn; [r] Ē-lī'ăb the son of Helon.

10 Of the children of Joseph: of Ē'phră-ĭm; [s] Ē-lī'shă-mă the son of Ăm'mĭ-hŭd: of Mă-năs'sēh; [t] Gă-mā'lĭ-ĕl the son of Pĕ-däh'zûr.

11 Of Benjamin; [u] Ă-bī'dăn the son of Gĭd-ĕ-ō'nī.

12 Of Dan; [a] Ā-hī-ē'zĕr the son of Ăm-mĭ-shăd'dâi.

13 Of Asher; [b] Pā'gĭ-ĕl the son of Ocran.

14 Of Gad; [e] Ē-lī'ă-săph the son of [2]Dĕû'ĕl.

15 Of Năph'tă-lī; [g] Ă-hī'ră the son of Enan.

16 These were [3]the renowned of the congregation, princes of the tribes of their fathers, [i] heads of thousands in Israel.

17 ¶ And Moses and Aaron took these men which are [l] expressed by their names:

18 And they assembled all the congregation together on the first day of the second month, and they [m] declared their pedigrees after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, by their polls.

19 As the LORD commanded Moses, so he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.

20 And the children of Reuben, Israel's eldest son, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

21 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Reuben, were forty and six thousand and five hundred.

44 These are those that were numbered, which Moses and Aaron numbered, and the princes of Israel, being twelve men: each one was for the house of his fathers.

45 So were all those that were numbered of the children of Israel, by the house of their fathers, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war in Israel;

50 But thou shalt [k] appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of testimony, and over all the vessels thereof, and over all things that belong to it: they shall bear the tabernacle, and all the vessels thereof; and they shall minister unto it, and shall encamp [m] round about the tabernacle.

51 And [n] when the tabernacle setteth forward, the Levites shall take it down: and when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it up: and the [q] stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

52 And the children of Israel shall pitch their tents, [s] every man by his own camp, and every man by his own standard, throughout their hosts.

53 But the Levites shall pitch round about the tabernacle of testimony, [u] that there be no wrath upon the congregation of the children of Israel: and the Levites shall [y] keep the charge of the tabernacle of testimony.

CHAPTER 2

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

2 [a] Every man of the children of Israel shall pitch by his own standard, with the ensign of their father's house: [2] far off about the tabernacle of the congregation shall they pitch.

3 And on the [b] east side toward the rising of the sun shall they of the standard of the camp of Judah pitch throughout their armies: and [c] Nahshon the son of Ăm-mĭn'ă-dăb shall be captain of the children of [d] Judah.

4 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were threescore and fourteen thousand and six hundred.

5 And those that do pitch next unto him shall be the tribe of [f] Ĭs'să-chär: and [h] Nĕth'ă-nēēl the son of Zuar shall be captain of the children of Issachar.

6 And his host, and those that were numbered thereof, were fifty and four thousand and four hundred.

7 Then the tribe of [i] Zĕ-bū'lŭn: and [l] Ē-lī'ăb the son of Helon shall be captain of the children of Zebulun.

8 And his host, and those that were numbered thereof, were fifty and seven thousand and four hundred.

9 All that were numbered in the camp of Judah were an hundred thousand and fourscore thousand and six thousand and four hundred, throughout their armies. [o] These shall first set forth.

10 ¶ On the [p] south side shall be the standard of the camp of [r] Reuben according to their armies: and the captain of the children of Reuben shall be [t] Ē-lī'zûr the son of Shĕd'ē-ûr.

11 And his host, and those that were numbered thereof, were forty and six thousand and five hundred.

12 And those which pitch by him shall be the tribe of [x] Simeon: and the captain of the children of Simeon shall be [z] Shĕ-lû'mĭ-ĕl the son of Zū-rĭ-shăd'dâi.

13 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were fifty and nine thousand and three hundred.

13th c. B.C.

14 Then the tribe of [a] Gad: and the captain of the sons of Gad shall be [b] Ē-lī'ă-săph the son of Reû'ĕl.

15 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were forty and five thousand and six hundred and fifty.

16 All that were numbered in the camp of Reuben were an hundred thousand and fifty and one thousand and four hundred and fifty, throughout their armies. And [f] they shall set forth in the second rank.

17 ¶ Then the tabernacle of the congregation shall set forward with the camp of the Levites in the midst of the camp: as they encamp, so shall they set forward, every man in his place by their standards.

18 ¶ On the west side shall be the standard of the camp of [i] Ē'phră-ĭm according to their armies: and the captain of the sons of Ephraim shall be [k] Ē-lī'shă-mă the son of Ăm'mĭ-hŭd.

19 And his host, and [l] those that were numbered of them, were forty thousand and five hundred.

20 And by him shall be the tribe of [o] Mă-năs'sēh: and the captain of the children of Manasseh shall be [p] Gă-mā'lĭ-ĕl the son of Pĕ-dāh'zûr.

21 And his host, and [r] those that were numbered of them, were thirty and two thousand and two hundred.

22 Then the tribe of [t] Benjamin: and the captain of the sons of Benjamin shall be [u] Ă-bī'dăn the son of Gĭd-ĕ-ō'nī.

23 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were thirty and five thousand and four hundred.

24 All that were numbered of the camp of Ē'phră-ĭm were an hundred thousand and eight thousand and an hundred, throughout their armies. And [a] they shall go forward in the third rank.

25 ¶ The standard of the camp of [b] Dan shall be on the north side by their armies: and the captain of the children of Dan shall be [e] Ă-hī-ē'zĕr the son of Ăm-mĭ-shăd'dâi.

26 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were threescore and two thousand and seven hundred.

27 And those that encamp by him shall be the tribe of [c] Asher: and the captain of the children of Asher shall be [d] Pā'ğĭ-ĕl the son of Ocran.

28 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were forty and one thousand and five hundred.

29 ¶ Then the tribe of [e] Năph'tă-lī: and the captain of the children of Naphtali shall be [g] Ă-hī'ră the son of Enan.

30 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were fifty and three thousand and four hundred.

31 All they that were numbered in the camp of Dan were an hundred thousand and fifty and seven thousand and six hundred. They [h] shall go hindmost with their standards.

32 ¶ These are those which were numbered of the children of Israel by the house of their fathers: all those that were numbered of the camps throughout their hosts [m] were six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty.

33 But the Levites were [n] not numbered among the children of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses.

34 And the children of Israel [q] did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses: [s] so they pitched by their standards, and so they set forward, every one after their families, according to the house of their fathers.

5 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

6 Bring the tribe of Levi near, and present them before Aaron the priest, that they may minister unto him.

7 And [g] they shall keep his charge, and the charge of the whole congregation before the tabernacle of the congregation, to do the service of the tabernacle.

8 And they shall keep all the instruments of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the children of Israel, to do the service of the tabernacle.

10 And thou shalt appoint [k] Aaron and his sons, and [2] they shall wait on their priest's office: and the [l] stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

13 Because all the [p] firstborn are mine; for on the day that I smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I hallowed unto me all the firstborn in Israel, both man and beast: mine shall they be: [r] I am the LORD.

14 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying,

15 [s] Number the children of Levi after the house of their fathers, by their families: every male from a month old and upward shalt thou number them.

16 And Moses numbered them according to the word of the LORD, as he was commanded.

20 And the [f] sons of Mĕ-râr'-ī by their families; Mäh'-lī, and Mū'-shī. These are the families of the Levites according to the house of their fathers.

21 Of Gershon was the family of the Libnites, and the family of the Shĭm'-ītes: these are the families of the Gershonites.

22 Those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, even those that were numbered of them were seven thousand and five hundred.

23 The families of the Gershonites [i] shall pitch behind the tabernacle westward.

24 And the chief of the house of the father of the Gershonites shall be Ē-lī'-ă-săph the son of Lael.

33 ¶ Of Mĕ-râr'-ī was the family of the Mahlites, and the family of the Mū'-shītes: these are the families of Merari.

34 And those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were six thousand and two hundred.

39 All that were numbered of the Levites, which Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of the LORD, throughout their families, all the males from a month old and upward, were [n] twenty and two thousand.

40 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Number all the firstborn of the males of the children of Israel from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names.

41 And thou shalt take the Levites for me (I am the LORD) instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel; and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the firstlings among the cattle of the children of Israel.

15 And when Aaron and his sons have made an end of covering the sanctuary, and all the vessels of the sanctuary, as the camp is to set forward; after that, the sons of Kohath shall come [f]to bear it: but [g]they shall not touch any holy thing, lest they die. These things are the burden of the sons of Kohath in the tabernacle of the congregation.

19 But thus do unto them, that they may [z]live, and not die, when they approach unto the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in, and appoint them every one to his service and to his burden:

40 Even those that were numbered of them, throughout their families, by the house of their fathers, were two thousand and six hundred and thirty.

41 These are they that were numbered of the families of the sons of Gershon, of all that might do service in the tabernacle of the congregation, whom Moses and Aaron did number according to the commandment of the LORD.

42 ¶ And those that were numbered of the families of the sons of Mĕ-rär'ī, throughout their families, by the house of their fathers,

43 From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that entereth into the service, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation,

44 Even those that were numbered of them after their families, were three thousand and two hundred.

45 These be those that were numbered of the families of the sons of Mĕ-rär'ī, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

46 All those that [g] were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and

Aaron and the chief of Israel numbered, after their families, and after the house of their fathers,

47 From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that came [c] to do the service of the ministry, and the service of the burden in the tabernacle of the congregation,

48 Even those that were numbered of them, were eight thousand and five hundred and fourscore.

49 According to the commandment of the LORD they were numbered by the hand of Moses, every one according to his service, and according to his burden: thus were they numbered of him, as the LORD commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 5

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel, that they put [g] out of the camp every [h] leper, and every one that hath an [h] issue, and whosoever is [i] defiled by the dead:

3 Both [l] male and female shall ye put out, without the camp shall ye put them; that they defile not their camps, [p] in the midst whereof I dwell.

4 And the children of Israel did so, and put them out without the camp: as the LORD spake unto Moses, so did the children of Israel.

5 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

6 Speak unto the children of Israel, When a man or woman shall [t] commit any sin that men commit, to do a trespass against the LORD, and that person be guilty;

7 Then they shall [y] confess their sin which they have done: and he [z] shall recompense his trespass with the principal thereof, and add unto it the [a] fifth part thereof, and give it unto him against whom he hath trespassed.

8 But if the man have no [b] kinsman to recompense the [c] trespass unto, let the trespass be recompensed unto the LORD, even [e] to the priest; beside the [f] ram of the atonement, whereby an [g] atonement shall be made for him.

9 And every [a] offering of all the [b] holy things of the children of Israel, which they bring unto the priest, shall be his.

10 And every man's hallowed things shall be his: whatsoever any man giveth the priest, it shall be his.

11 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man's wife go aside, and commit a trespass against him,

13 And a man [d] lie with her carnally, and it be hid from the eyes of her husband, and be kept close, and she be defiled, and there be no witness against her, neither she be [e] taken with the manner;

14 And the [f] spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be defiled: or if the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be not defiled:

15 Then shall the man bring his wife unto the priest, and he shall bring her [k] offering for her, the tenth part of an [m] ē'-phäh of barley meal; he shall pour [n] no oil upon it, nor put [o] frankincense thereon; for it is an offering of jealousy, an offering of [q] memorial, [r] bringing iniquity to remembrance.

16 And the priest shall bring her near, and set her before the LORD:

17 And the priest shall take holy water in an [s] earthen vessel; and of the dust that is in the floor of the tabernacle the priest shall take, and put it [u] into the water:

18 And the priest shall set the woman before the LORD, and [2x] uncover the woman's head, and put the offering of memorial in her hands, which is the jealousy offering: and the priest shall have in his hand the bitter water that causeth the curse:

19 And the priest shall charge her by an oath, and say unto the woman, If no man have lain with thee, and if thou hast not gone aside to [d] uncleanness [3] with another instead of thy husband, be thou free from this bitter water that causeth the curse:

21 Then the priest shall charge the woman with an [b]oath of [3]cursing, and the priest shall say unto the woman, The LORD make thee a curse and an oath among thy people, when the LORD doth make thy thigh [5]to rot, and thy belly to swell;

22 And this water that causeth the curse [f]shall go into thy bowels, to make thy belly to swell, and thy thigh to rot: And the woman shall say, [h]Amen, amen.

23 And the priest shall write these curses in a book, and he shall blot them out with the bitter water:

27 And when he hath made her to drink the water, then it shall come to pass, that, if she be defiled, and have done trespass against her husband, that the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter, and her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall rot: and the woman shall be a curse among her people.

28 And if the woman be not defiled, but be clean; then she shall be free, and shall conceive seed.

29 This is the law of jealousies, when a wife goeth aside to another instead of her husband, and is defiled;

30 Or when the spirit of jealousy cometh upon him, and he be jealous over his wife, and shall set the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall execute upon her all this law.

CHAPTER 6

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When either man [c]or woman shall [4]separate themselves to vow a vow of a [d]Nazarite, to [6]separate themselves unto the LORD:

3 He shall separate himself [e]from wine and strong drink, and shall drink no [g]vinegar of wine, or vinegar of strong drink, neither shall he drink any liquor of grapes, nor eat moist grapes, or [i]dried.

4 All the days of his [7]separation shall he eat nothing that is made of the vine tree, from the [8]kernels even to the [9]husk.

5 All the days of the vow of his separation there shall [k]no razor come upon his head: until the days be fulfilled, in the which he separateth himself unto the LORD, he shall be holy, and shall let the [m]locks of the hair of his head grow.

6 All the days that he separateth himself unto the LORD he shall [n]come at no dead body.

7 He shall not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, for his brother, or for his sister, when they die: because the consecration of his God is upon his head.

8 All the days of his separation he is holy unto the LORD.

9 And if any man die very suddenly by him, and he hath defiled the head of his consecration; then he shall [p]shave his head in the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day shall he shave it.

10 And on the [q]eighth day he shall bring two [q]turtles, or two young [q]pigeons, to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation:

11 And the priest shall offer the one for a [r]sin offering, and the other for a [s]burnt offering, and [t]make an atonement for him, for that he sinned by the dead, and shall hallow his head that same day.

12 And he shall consecrate unto the LORD the days of his separation, and shall bring a lamb of the first year for a [a] trespass offering: but the days that were before shall be lost, because his separation was defiled.

13 ¶ And this is the law of the Nazarite, [b] when the days of his separation are fulfilled: he shall be brought unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation:

14 And he shall offer his offering unto the LORD, one he lamb of the first year without blemish for a burnt offering, and one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish for a sin offering, and one ram without blemish for [i] peace offerings,

15 And a [l] basket of [m] unleavened bread, [n] cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, and [p] wafers of unleavened bread anointed with oil, and their [q] meat offering, and their [p] drink offerings.

16 And the priest shall bring them before the LORD, and shall offer his sin offering, and his burnt offering:

17 And he shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread: the priest shall offer also his meat offering, and his drink offering.

18 And the Nazarite shall shave the head of his separation at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall take the hair of the head of his separation, and put it in the fire which is under the sacrifice of the peace offerings.

19 And the priest shall take the sodden shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and [z] shall put them upon the hands of the Nazarite, after the hair of his separation is shaven:

20 And the priest shall wave them for a [b] wave offering before the LORD: this is holy [c] for the priest, with the wave breast and [d] heave shoulder: and after that the Nazarite may drink wine.

21 This is the law of the Nazarite who hath vowed, and of his offering unto the LORD for his separation, beside that that his hand shall get: according to the vow which he vowed, so he must do after the law of his separation.

22 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Speak unto Aaron and unto his sons, saying, On this wise ye [c] shall bless the children of Israel, saying unto them,

24 [d] The LORD bless thee, and [e] keep thee:

25 The LORD [f] make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee:

26 The LORD [g] lift up his countenance upon thee, and [h] give thee peace.

27 And they shall put [k] my name upon the children of Israel; and I will [o] bless them.

CHAPTER 7

AND it came to pass on the day that Moses had fully [r] set up the tabernacle, and had anointed it, and [s] sanctified it, and all the instruments thereof, both the [t] altar and all the vessels thereof, and had [u] anointed them, and sanctified them;

2 That the princes of Israel, heads of the house of their fathers, who were the princes of the tribes, and were over them that were numbered, [x] offered:

3 And they brought their offering before the LORD, six [y] covered wagons, and twelve oxen; a wagon for two of the princes, and for each one an ox: and they brought them before the tabernacle.

4 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

5 Take it of them, that they may be to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; and thou shalt [a] give them unto the Levites, to every man according to his service.

6 And Moses took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them unto the Levites.

7 Two wagons and four oxen he gave unto the [e] sons of Gershon, according to their [f] service:

8 And four wagons and eight oxen he gave unto the [g] sons of Mĕ-râr'ī,

78 ¶ On the twelfth day [d] Ă-hī'ră the son of Enan, prince of the children of Năph'tă-lī, offered:

79 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shē'kĕls, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering:

80 One golden spoon of ten shē'kĕls, full of incense:

81 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering:

82 One kid of the goats for a sin offering:

83 And for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he goats, five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Ă-hī'ră the son of Enan.

84 This was the dedication of the altar, in the day when it was anointed, by the princes of Israel: twelve chargers of silver, twelve silver bowls, twelve spoons of gold:

85 Each charger of silver weighing an hundred and thirty shē'kĕls, each bowl seventy: all the silver vessels weighed two thousand and four hundred shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary:

86 The golden spoons were twelve, full of incense, weighing ten shē'kĕls apiece, after the shekel of the sanctuary: all the gold of the spoons was an hundred and twenty shekels.

87 All the oxen for the burnt offering were twelve bullocks, the rams twelve, the lambs of the first year twelve, with their meat offering: and the kids of the goats for sin offering twelve.

88 And all the oxen for the sacrifice of the peace offerings were twenty and four bullocks, the rams sixty, the he goats sixty, the lambs of the first year sixty. This was the dedication of the altar, after that it was anointed.

89 And when Moses was gone into the tabernacle of the congregation [b] to speak with him, then he heard the voice of one speaking unto him from off the [c] mercy seat that was upon the [e] ark of testimony, from between the two [f] chĕr'ū-bĭms: and he spake unto him.

CHAPTER 8

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto Aaron, and say unto him, When thou [2g] lightest the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light over against the [h] candlestick.

3 And Aaron did so; he lighted the lamps thereof over against the candlestick, as the LORD commanded Moses.

4 And this work of the candlestick was of beaten gold, unto the [3]shaft thereof, unto the flowers thereof, was [2]beaten work: [b]according unto the pattern which the LORD had shewed Moses, so he made the candlestick.

5 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

6 Take the Levites from among the children of Israel, and cleanse them.

7 And thus shalt thou do unto them, to cleanse them: Sprinkle [3]water of purifying upon them, and let them [d]shave all their flesh, and let them [f]wash their clothes, and so [g]make themselves clean.

8 Then let them take a young bullock with his [h]meat offering, even fine flour mingled with oil, and another young bullock shalt thou take for a [k]sin offering.

9 And thou shalt bring the Levites before the tabernacle of the congregation: and thou shalt [l]gather the whole assembly of the children of Israel together:

10 And thou shalt bring the Levites before the LORD: and the children of Israel [m]shall put their hands upon the Levites:

11 And Aaron shall offer the Levites before the LORD for an [4]offering of the children of Israel, that they [n]may execute the service of the LORD.

12 And the Levites shall lay their hands upon the heads of the bullocks: and thou shalt offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a [o]burnt offering, unto the LORD, to [p]make an atonement for the Levites.

13 And thou shalt set the Levites before Aaron, and before his sons, and offer them for an offering unto the LORD.

14 Thus shalt thou [r]separate the Levites from among the children of Israel: and the Levites [t]shall be mine.

15 And after that shall the Levites go in to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation: and thou shalt cleanse them, and offer them for an offering.

16 For they are wholly given unto me from among the children of Israel; instead of such as open every womb, even instead of the [a]firstborn of all the children of Israel, have I taken them unto me.

17 For all the firstborn of the children of Israel are mine, both man and beast: on the day that [c]I smote every firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified them for myself.

18 And I have taken the Levites for all the firstborn of the children of Israel.

19 And I have given the Levites as a [e]gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the children of Israel, to do the service of the children of Israel in the tabernacle of the congregation, and to make an atonement for the children of Israel: [i]that there be no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come nigh unto the sanctuary.

20 And Moses, and Aaron, and all the congregation of the children of Israel, did to the Levites according unto all that the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did the children of Israel unto them.

21 And the Levites were purified, and they washed their clothes; and Aaron offered them as an offering before the LORD; and Aaron made an atonement for them to cleanse them.

22 And after that went the Levites in to do their service in the tabernacle of the congregation before Aaron, and before his sons: as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did they unto them.

23 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

24 This is it that belongeth unto the Levites: from [q]twenty and five years old and upward they shall go in to wait upon the [s]service of the tabernacle of the congregation:

25 And from the age of fifty years they shall cease waiting upon the service thereof, and shall serve no more:

26 But shall minister with their brethren in the tabernacle of the congregation, to keep the charge, and shall do no service. Thus shalt thou do unto the Levites touching their charge.

CHAPTER 9

13th c. B.C.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of [b] Sinai, in the [d] first month of the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 Let the children of Israel also keep the [f] passover at his appointed season.

3 In the [f] fourteenth day of this month, [2] at even, ye shall keep it in his appointed season: according to all the rites of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof, shall ye keep it.

4 And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, that they should keep the passover.

5 And they [l] kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month at even in the wilderness of Sinai: according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

6 ¶ And there were certain men, who were [n] defiled by the dead body of a man, that they could not keep the passover on that day: and [o] they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day:

7 And those men said unto him, We are defiled by the dead body of a man: wherefore are we kept back, that we may not offer an offering of the LORD in his appointed season among the children of Israel?

8 And Moses said unto them, Stand still, and I will hear what the LORD will command concerning you.

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If any man of you or of your posterity shall be unclean by reason of a dead body, or be in a journey afar off, yet he shall keep the passover unto the LORD.

11 The fourteenth day of the [r] second month at even they shall keep it, and eat it with [s] unleavened bread and [t] bitter herbs.

12 They shall [u] leave none of it unto the morning, nor [x] break any bone of it: according to all the ordinances of the passover they shall keep it.

13 But the man that is clean, and is not in a journey, and [a] forbeareth to keep the passover, even the same soul shall be [c] cut off from among his people: because he brought not the offering of the LORD in his appointed season, that man shall [e] bear his sin.

14 And if a [g] stranger shall sojourn among you, and will keep the passover unto the LORD; according to the ordinance of the passover, and according to the manner thereof, so shall he do: ye shall have one ordinance, both for the stranger, and for him that was [h] born in the land.

15 ¶ And on the day that the [i] tabernacle was reared up the [k] cloud covered the tabernacle, namely, the [m] tent of the testimony: and at even there was upon the tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, until the morning.

16 So it was alway: the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.

17 And when the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle, then after that the children of Israel journeyed: and in the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Israel pitched their tents.

18 At the commandment of the LORD the children of Israel journeyed, and at the commandment of the LORD they pitched: as long as the cloud abode upon the tabernacle they rested in their tents.

19 And [p] when the cloud tarried long upon the tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel [q] kept the charge of the LORD, and journeyed not.

20 And so it was, when the cloud was a few days upon the tabernacle; according to the commandment of the LORD they abode in their tents, and according to the commandment of the LORD they journeyed.

21 And so it was, when the cloud abode from even unto the morning, and that the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they journeyed: whether it was by day or by night that the cloud was taken up, they journeyed.

22 Or whether it were two days, or a month, or [2]a year, that the cloud tarried upon the tabernacle, remaining thereon, the children of Israel abode in their tents, and journeyed not: but when it was taken up, they journeyed.

CHAPTER 10

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Make thee two trumpets of silver; [3]of a whole piece shalt thou make them: that thou mayest use them for the [m]calling of the assembly, and for the [n]journeying of the camps.

3 And when they shall blow with them, all the assembly shall assemble themselves to thee at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And if they blow but with one trumpet, then the princes, which are [t]heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves unto thee.

5 When ye blow an alarm, then the camps that lie on the [y]east parts shall go forward.

6 When ye blow an alarm the second time, then the camps that lie on the [d]south side shall take their journey: they shall blow an alarm for their journeys.

7 But when the congregation is to be gathered together, ye shall blow, but ye shall [h]not sound an alarm.

8 And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow with the trumpets; and they shall be to you for [i]an ordinance for ever throughout your generations.

9 And if ye go to war in your land against the enemy that oppresseth you, [o]then ye shall blow an alarm with the [p]trumpets; and ye shall be [s]remembered before the LORD your God, and ye shall be saved from your enemies.

10 Also in the day of your gladness, and in your [4]solemn days, and in the [x]beginnings of your months, [y]ye shall blow with the trumpets over your [a]burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your [b]peace offerings; that they may be to you for a [c]memorial before your God: [d]I am the LORD your God.

11 ¶ And it came to pass [e]on the twentieth day of the second month, in the second year, that the [f]cloud was taken up from off the [g]tabernacle of the testimony.

12 And the children of Israel took their journeys out of the wilderness of [h]Sinai; and the cloud rested in the wilderness of [i]Paran.

13 And they first took their journey according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

14 ¶ In the [k]first place went the standard of the camp of the [l]children of Judah according to their armies: and over his host was [o]Nahshon the son of Ăm-mĭn'ă-dăb.

15 And over the host of the tribe of the [p]children of Ĭs'să-chär was [q]Nĕth'ă-nēĕl the son of Zuar.

16 And over the host of the tribe of the [r]children of Zĕ-bū'lŭn was [s]Ē-lī'ăb the son of Helon.

17 [u]And the tabernacle was taken down; and the [x]sons of Gershon and the [z]sons of Mĕ-rär'ī set forward, [a]bearing the tabernacle.

18 ¶ And the standard of the camp of [b]Reuben [c]set forward according to their armies: and over his host was [e]Ē-lī'zûr the son of Shĕd'ē-ûr.

19 And over the host of the tribe of the [f]children of Simeon was [g]Shĕ-lû'mĭ-ĕl the son of Zū-rĭ-shăd'dâi.

20 And over the host of the tribe of the [i]children of Gad was [k]Ē-lī'ă-săph the son of Dĕû'ĕl.

21 And the [m]Kohathites set forward, [n]bearing the sanctuary: and the other did set up the tabernacle against they came.

22 ¶ And the standard of the camp of the [q]children of Ē'phră-ĭm [r]set forward according to their armies: and over his host was [t]Ē-lī'shă-mă the son of Ăm'mĭ-hŭd.

23 And over the host of the tribe of the [u]children of Mă-năs'sēh was [z]Gă-mā'lĭ-ĕl the son of Pĕ-däh'zûr.

CHAPTER 11

AND [2] when the people [c] complained, it displeased the LORD: and [f] the LORD heard it; and [g] his anger was kindled; and the [h] fire of the LORD burnt among them, and [k] consumed them that were in the uttermost parts of the camp.

2 And the people cried unto Moses; and when Moses [n] prayed unto the LORD, the fire was quenched.

3 And he called the name of the place [3] Tăb'-ĕ-răh: because the fire of the LORD burnt among them.

4 ¶ And the [q] mixt multitude that was among them fell a lusting: and the children of Israel also [r] wept again, and said, Who shall give us flesh to eat?

5 [u] We remember the [x] fish, which we did eat in Egypt freely; the [z] cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlick:

6 But now our soul is dried away: there is nothing at all, beside this [d] manna, before our eyes.

7 And the manna was as [e] coriander seed, and the [4] colour thereof as the colour of [f] bdellium.

8 And the people went about, and gathered it, and ground it in [g] mills, or beat it in a [h] mortar, and baked it in pans, and made [i] cakes of it: and the taste of it was as the taste of fresh oil.

9 And when the [l] dew fell upon the camp in the night, the manna fell upon it.

10 ¶ Then Moses heard the people weep throughout their families, every man in the door of his tent: and the anger of the LORD was kindled greatly; Moses also was displeased.

11 And Moses said unto the LORD, Wherefore hast thou afflicted thy servant? and wherefore have I not found favour in thy sight, that thou layest the [s] burden of all this people upon me?

12 Have I conceived all this people? have I begotten them, that thou shouldest say unto me, [u] Carry them in thy bosom, as a [x] nursing father beareth the sucking child, unto the land [a] which thou swarest unto their fathers?

13 [d] Whence should I have flesh to give unto all this people? for they weep unto me, saying, Give us flesh, that we may eat.

14 [e] I am not able to bear all this people alone, because it is too heavy for me.

15 And if thou deal thus with me, [g] kill me, I pray thee, out of hand, if I have found favour in thy sight; and let me not see my wretchedness.

16 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Gather unto me [k] seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom thou knowest to be the elders of the people, and [l] officers over them; and bring them unto the tabernacle of the congregation, that they may stand there with thee.

17 And I will [n] come down and [o] talk with thee there: and [p] I will take of the spirit which is upon thee, and will put it upon them; and [q] they shall bear the burden of the people with thee, that thou bear it not thyself alone.

18 And say thou unto the people, [t] Sanctify yourselves against to morrow, and ye shall eat flesh: for ye have wept in the ears of the LORD, saying, Who shall give us flesh to eat? for it was well with us in Egypt: therefore the LORD will give you flesh, and ye shall eat.

19 Ye shall not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twenty days;

20 But even a whole month, until it come out at your nostrils, and it be loathsome unto you: because that ye have despised the LORD [b] which is among you, and have wept before him, saying, Why came we forth out of Egypt?

21 And Moses said, The people, among whom I am, are [c] six hundred thousand footmen; and thou hast said, I will give them flesh, that they may eat a whole month.

22 Shall the flocks and the herds be slain for them, to suffice them? or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to suffice them?

23 And the LORD said unto Moses,

[b] Is the LORD's hand waxed short? thou shalt see now whether [c] my word shall come to pass unto thee or not.

24 ¶ And Moses went out, and told the people the words of the LORD, and gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people, and set them round about the tabernacle.

25 And the LORD came down in [f] a cloud, and spake unto him, and took of [h] the spirit that was upon him, and gave it unto the seventy elders: and it came to pass, that, when the spirit rested upon them, they [i] prophesied, and did not cease.

26 But there remained two of the men in the camp, the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: and the spirit rested upon them; and they were of them that were [m] written, but went not out unto the tabernacle: and they prophesied in the camp.

27 And there ran a young man, and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the camp.

28 And [r] Joshua the son of Nun, [s] the servant of Moses, one of his young men, answered and said, My lord Moses, [u] forbid them.

29 And Moses said unto him, [x] Enviest thou for my sake? [y] would God that all the LORD's people were prophets, and that the LORD would put his spirit upon them!

30 And Moses gat him into the camp, he and the elders of Israel.

31 ¶ And there went forth a [z] wind from the LORD, and brought [a] quails from the sea, and let them fall by the camp, as it were a day's journey on this side, and as it were a day's journey on the other side, round about the camp, and as it were two cubits high upon the face of the earth.

32 And the people stood up all that day, and all that night, and all the next day, and they gathered the quails: he that gathered least gathered ten [d] hō'-mĕrs: and they spread them all abroad for themselves round about the camp.

33 And [e] while the flesh was yet between their teeth, ere it was chewed, the wrath of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD [a]smote the people with a very great plague.

34 And he called the name of that place [2]Kĭb'-rōth-hăt-tā'-ă-văh: because there they buried the people that lusted.

35 And the people journeyed from Kĭb'-rōth-hăt-tā'-ă-văh unto [b]Hă-zē'-rōth; and abode at Hazeroth.

CHAPTER 12

AND [d]Miriam and Aaron [e]spake against Moses because of the [3]Ethiopian woman whom [g]he had married: for he had married an Ethiopian woman.

2 And they said, Hath the LORD indeed spoken only by Moses? [k]hath he not spoken also by us? And [m]the LORD heard it.

3 (Now [n]the man Moses was very meek, above all the men which were upon the face of the earth.)

4 And the LORD spake suddenly unto Moses, and unto Aaron, and unto Miriam, Come out ye three unto the tabernacle of the congregation. And they three came out.

5 And the LORD [q]came down in the [s]pillar of the cloud, and stood in the door of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam: and they both came forth.

6 And he said, Hear now my words: If there be a [t]prophet among you, I the LORD will make myself known unto him in a [x]vision, and will speak unto him in a [z]dream.

7 [a]My servant Moses is not so, [b]who is faithful in all mine house.

8 [d]With him will I speak mouth to mouth, even [4]apparently, and not in [5]dark speeches; and the [6]similitude of the LORD shall he [f]behold: wherefore then were ye not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?

9 And the anger of the LORD [i]was kindled against them; and he departed.

10 And the cloud departed from off the tabernacle; and, behold, Miriam became [o]leprous, [p]white as snow: and Aaron looked upon Miriam, and, behold, she was leprous.

11 And Aaron said unto Moses, Alas, my lord, I beseech thee, lay not the sin upon us, wherein we have done foolishly, and wherein we have sinned.

12 Let her not be as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed when he cometh out of his mother's womb.

13 And [c]Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, Heal her now, O God, I beseech thee.

14 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, If her father had but [f]spit in her face, should she not be ashamed [h]seven days? let her be shut out [i]from the camp seven days, and after that let her be received in again.

15 And Miriam was [l]shut out from the camp seven days: and the people journeyed not till Miriam was brought in again.

16 And afterward the people removed from [o]Hă-zē'-rōth, and pitched in the wilderness of [p]Paran.

CHAPTER 13

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 [r]Send thou men, that they may search the land of Cā'-nă-ăn, which I give unto the children of Israel: of every tribe of their fathers shall ye send a man, every one a ruler among them.

3 And Moses by the commandment of the LORD [u]sent them from the wilderness of [y]Paran: all those men were heads of the children of Israel.

4 And these were their names: [c]of the tribe of Reuben, Shăm'-mū-ă the son of Zaccur.

5 [e]Of the tribe of Simeon, Shā'-phăt the son of Hōr'-ī.

6 [g]Of the tribe of Judah, [h]Caleb the son of Jĕ-phŭn'-nēh.

16 These are the names of the men which Moses sent [h] to spy out the land. And Moses [k] called Ō-shē'-ă the son of Nun [m] Jĕ-hŏsh'-ū-ă.

17 ¶ And Moses sent them to spy out the [o] land of Cā'-nă-ăn, and said unto them, Get you up this way [2] southward, and go up into [3] the mountain:

18 And see the land, what it is; and the people that dwelleth therein, whether they be strong or weak, few or many;

19 And what the land is that they dwell in, whether it be good or bad; and what cities they be that they dwell in, whether in tents, or in strong holds;

20 And what the land is, whether it be [x] fat or lean, whether there be wood therein, or not. And [4] be ye of good courage, and bring of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the time of the firstripe grapes.

21 ¶ So they went up, and searched the land [a] from the wilderness of [b] Zin unto [c] Rehob, as men [d] come to Hā'-măth.

22 And they ascended [5] by the south, and came unto [f] Hebron; where [g] Ă-hī'-măn, Shē'-shâi, and Tăl'-mâi, the children of Anak, were. (Now Hebron was built seven years before [i] Zoan in Egypt.)

23 And they came unto the brook of [l] Eshcol, and cut down from thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bare it between two upon a [7] staff; and they brought of the [n] pomegranates, and of the [o] figs.

24 The place was called the brook [8] Eshcol, because of the cluster of grapes which the children of Israel cut down from thence.

25 And they returned from searching of the land after [b] forty days.

26 ¶ And they went and came to Moses, and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the wilderness of Paran, to [e] Kadesh; and brought back word unto them, and unto all the congregation, and shewed them the fruit of the land.

27 And they told him, and said, We came unto the land whither thou sentest us, and surely it [i] floweth with milk and honey; and [l] this is the fruit of it.

28 [n] Nevertheless the people be strong that dwell in the land, and the cities are walled, and very great: and moreover we saw the [p] children of Anak there.

29 [q] The Ă-măl'-ĕk-ītes dwell in the [r] land of the south: and [s] the Hittites, and the Jĕb'-ū-śites, and the Amorites, dwell in the mountains: [t] and the Cā'-nă-ăn-ītes dwell by the sea, and by the coast of Jordan.

30 [u] And Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it.

31 [y] But the men that went up with him said, We be not able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we.

32 And [z] they brought up an evil report of the land which they had searched unto the children of Israel, saying, The land, through which we have gone to search it, is a land that [e] eateth up the inhabitants thereof; and all the people that we saw in it are [h] men of a great stature.

33 And there we saw the [6] giants, the sons of Anak, which come of the giants: and we were in our own sight as [k] grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight.

CHAPTER 14

AND all the congregation [m] lifted up their voice, and cried; and the people [p] wept that night.

2 And all the children of Israel [q] murmured against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said unto them, Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt! or [c] would God we had died in this wilderness!

3 And wherefore hath the LORD brought us unto this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and [e] our children should be a prey? were it not better for us to return into Egypt?

4 And they said one to another, [f] Let us make a captain, and [g] let us return into Egypt.

5 Then Moses and Aaron [i] fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel.

6 ¶ And [l] Joshua the son of Nun, and [n] Caleb the son of Jĕ-phŭn'-nēh, which were of them that searched the land, [o] rent their clothes:

7 And they spake unto all the company of the children of Israel, saying, The land, which we passed through to search it, is an exceeding [u] good land.

8 If the LORD [x] delight in us, then he will bring us into this land, and [z] give it us; a land which [b] floweth with milk and honey.

9 Only [c] rebel not ye against the LORD, neither [d] fear ye the people of the land; for [f] they are bread for us: their [2] defence is departed from them, and [i] the LORD is with us: fear them not.

10 But all the congregation bade [l] stone them with stones. And [m] the glory of the LORD appeared in the tabernacle of the congregation before all the children of Israel.

11 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, [r] How long will this people [4] provoke me? and how long will it be ere they [u] believe me, for all the signs which I have shewed among them?

12 I will smite them with the [y] pestilence, and disinherit them, and [z] will make of thee a greater nation and mightier than they.

13 ¶ And Moses said unto the LORD, [b] Then the Egyptians shall hear it, (for thou [c] broughtest up this people in thy might from among them;)

14 And they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land: for they [g] have heard that thou LORD art [a] among this people, that thou LORD [b] art seen face to face, and that thy cloud standeth over them, and that thou goest before them, by day time in a [d] pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night.

15 ¶ Now if thou shalt kill all this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of thee will speak, saying,

16 Because the LORD [h] was not able to bring this people into the land [k] which he sware unto them, therefore he hath slain them in the wilderness.

17 And now, [m] I beseech thee, let the power of my LORD be great, according as thou hast spoken, saying,

18 [p q] The LORD is longsuffering, and of great mercy, [r] forgiving iniquity and transgression, and by no means [s] clearing the guilty, [t] visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation.

19 [y] Pardon, I beseech thee, the iniquity of this people [a] according unto the greatness of thy mercy, and as thou hast forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now.

20 And the LORD said, [e] I have pardoned [g] according to thy word:

21 But as truly [h] as I live, [3] all the earth [k] shall be filled with the glory of the LORD.

22 Because all those men which have [n] seen my glory, and my miracles, which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and [o] have tempted me now these [p] ten times, and [q] have not hearkened to my voice;

23 [s] Surely they shall not see the land [t] which I sware unto their fathers, neither shall any of them that [x] provoked me see it:

24 But my servant Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and hath [a] followed me fully, him will I bring into the land whereinto he went; and his seed shall possess it.

25 (Now the Ă-măl'-ĕk-ītes and the [d] Că'-nă-ăn-ītes dwelt [e] in the valley.) To morrow [f] turn you, and get you into the wilderness by the way of the [h] Red sea.

26 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

27 [b] How long shall I bear with this evil congregation, which murmur against me? [c] I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmur [e] against me.

28 Say unto them, As truly as I live, [g] saith the LORD, [h] as ye have spoken in mine ears, so will I do to you:

29 [k] Your carcases shall fall in this wilderness; and [m] all that were numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, which have murmured against me,

30 Doubtless ye shall not come into the land, concerning which I [2]sware to make you dwell therein, save Caleb the son of Jĕ-phŭn'-nēh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

31 But [r] your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, them will I bring in, and they shall know the land [u] which ye have despised.

32 But as for you, your carcases, they shall fall in this wilderness.

33 And your children shall [3]wander in the wilderness [z] forty years, and [a] bear your whoredoms, [b] until your carcases [4]be wasted in the wilderness.

34 After the number of the days in which ye searched the land, even [d] forty days, [e] each day for a year, shall ye [f] bear your iniquities, even forty years, and ye [g] shall know [5]my breach of promise.

35 I the LORD have said, I will surely do it unto all this evil congregation, that are gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die.

36 And the men, which Moses sent to search the land, who returned, and made all the congregation to murmur against him, by [n] bringing up a slander upon the land,

37 Even those men that did bring up the evil report upon the land, [p] died by the plague before the LORD.

38 But Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jĕ-phŭn'-nēh, which were of the men that went to search the land, lived still.

39 And Moses told these sayings unto all the children of Israel: and the people [a] mourned greatly.

40 ¶ And they rose up early in the morning, and gat them up into the top of the mountain, saying, Lo, we be here, and [d] will go up unto the place which the LORD hath promised: for [f] we have sinned.

41 And Moses said, [i] Wherefore now do ye transgress the commandment of the LORD? but it [l] shall not prosper.

42 [n] Go not up, for the LORD is [o] not among you; [p] that ye be not smitten before your enemies.

43 For the Ă-măl'-ĕk-ītes and the Cā'-nă-ăn-ītes are there before you, and ye shall fall by the sword: because ye are turned away from the LORD, [q] therefore the LORD will not be with you.

44 [s] But they presumed to go up unto the hill top: nevertheless the [t] ark of the covenant of the LORD, and Moses, departed not out of the camp.

45 Then the [x] Ă-măl'-ĕk-ītes came down, and the Cā'-nă-ăn-ītes which dwelt in that hill, and [y] smote them, and discomfited them, even unto [c] Hormah.

CHAPTER 15

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, [h] When ye be come into the land of your habitations, which I give unto you,

3 And will [i] make an offering by fire unto the LORD, a [k] burnt offering, or a sacrifice [6]in performing a [l] vow, or in a [l] freewill offering, or in your [7]solemn feasts, to make a [m] sweet savour unto the LORD, of the herd, or of the flock:

4 Then shall he that offereth his offering unto the LORD bring a [o] meat offering of a tenth deal of flour mingled with the fourth part of an hĭn of oil.

5 And the fourth part of an hĭn of wine for a [q] drink offering shalt thou prepare with the burnt offering or sacrifice, [r] for one lamb.

for a meat offering two tenth deals of flour mingled with the third part of an hin of oil.

7 And for a drink offering thou shalt offer the third part of an hin of wine, for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

8 And when thou preparest a bullock for a burnt offering, or for a sacrifice in performing a vow, or [c] peace offerings unto the LORD:

9 Then shall he bring [d] with a bullock a meat offering of three tenth deals of flour mingled with half an hin of oil.

10 And thou shalt bring for a drink offering half an hin of wine, for an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

11 Thus shall it be done for one bullock, or for one ram, or for a lamb, or a kid.

12 According to the number that ye shall prepare, so shall ye do to every one according to their number.

13 All that are [i] born of the country shall do these things after this manner, in offering an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

14 And if a [m] stranger sojourn with you, or whosoever be among you in your generations, and will offer an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD; as ye do, so he shall do.

15 One ordinance shall be both for you of the congregation, and also for the stranger that sojourneth with you, [n] an ordinance for ever in your generations: as ye are, so shall the stranger be before the LORD.

16 One law and one manner shall be for you, and for the stranger that sojourneth with you.

17 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

18 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land [o] whither I bring you,

19 Then it shall be, that, [p] when ye eat of the bread of the land, ye shall offer up an [q] heave offering unto the LORD.

20 Ye shall offer up a [r] cake of the [s] first of your [4] dough for an heave offering: as ye do the heave offering of the [a] threshingfloor, so shall ye heave it.

21 Of the first of your dough ye shall give unto the LORD an heave offering in your generations.

22 ¶ And if ye have [b] erred, and not observed all these commandments, which the LORD hath spoken unto Moses,

23 Even all that the LORD hath commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the day that the LORD commanded Moses, and henceforward among your generations;

24 Then it shall be, if ought be committed [e] by ignorance [f] without the knowledge of the congregation, that all the congregation shall offer one young bullock for a burnt offering, for a sweet savour unto the LORD, with his meat offering, and his drink offering, according to the manner, and one [g] kid of the goats for a [h] sin offering.

25 And the priest shall [k] make an atonement for all the congregation of the children of Israel, and it [l] shall be forgiven them; for it is ignorance: and they shall bring their offering, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their ignorance:

26 And it shall be forgiven all the congregation of the children of Israel, and the stranger that sojourneth among them; seeing all the people were in ignorance.

27 ¶ And if [2] any soul sin through ignorance, then he shall bring a she goat of the first year for a sin offering.

28 And the priest shall make an atonement for the soul that sinneth ignorantly, when he sinneth by ignorance before the LORD, to make an atonement for him; and it shall be forgiven him.

29 Ye shall have one law for him that sinneth through ignorance, both for him that is born among the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them.

2 And they rose up before Moses, with certain of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty princes of the assembly, [2c]famous in the congregation, men of renown:

3 And they [d]gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said unto them, [3]Ye take too much upon you, seeing all the congregation [f]are holy, every one of them, and [h]the LORD is among them: wherefore then lift ye up yourselves above the [k]congregation of the LORD?

4 And when Moses heard it, he [l]fell upon his face:

5 And he spake unto Korah and unto all his company, saying, Even to morrow the LORD will shew [n]who are his, and who is holy; and will cause him to come near unto him: [o]even him whom he hath chosen will he cause [r]to come near unto him.

6 This do; Take you [s]censers, Korah, and all his company;

7 And put fire therein, and put [t]incense in them before the LORD to morrow: and it shall be that the man whom the LORD doth choose, he shall be holy: [u]ye take too much upon you, ye sons of Levi.

8 And Moses said unto Korah, Hear, I pray you, ye sons of Levi:

9 Seemeth it but [y]a small thing unto you, that the God of Israel hath [b]separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself to do the service of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to minister unto them?

10 And he hath brought thee near to him, and all thy brethren the sons of Levi with thee: and seek ye the priesthood also?

11 For which cause both thou and all thy company are gathered together against the LORD: and [k]what is Aaron, that ye murmur against him?

12 ¶ And Moses sent to call Dathan and Ăb-ī-răm, the sons of Ē-lī-ăb: which said, We will not come up:

13 Is it a small thing that thou hast brought us up out of [p]a land that floweth with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, except thou

[a] make thyself altogether a prince over us?

14 [c] Moreover thou hast not brought us into a land that floweth with milk and honey, or given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: wilt thou [2] put out the eyes of these men? we will not come up.

15 And Moses was very wroth, and said unto the LORD, [e] Respect not thou their [f] offering: [g] I have not taken one ass from them, neither have I hurt one of them.

16 And Moses said unto Korah, Be thou and all thy company before the LORD, thou, and they, and Aaron, to morrow:

17 And take every man his censer, and put incense in them, and bring ye before the LORD every man his censer, two hundred and fifty censers; thou also, and Aaron, each of you his censer.

18 And they took every man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood in the door of the tabernacle of the congregation with Moses and Aaron.

19 And Korah gathered all the congregation against them unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and [p] the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the congregation.

20 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

21 [s] Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may [t] consume them in a moment.

22 And they [u] fell upon their faces, and said, O God, the [x] God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and [y] wilt thou be wroth with all the congregation?

23 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

24 Speak unto the congregation, saying, Get you up from about the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Ăb-ī'răm.

25 And Moses rose up and went unto Dathan and Ăb-ī'răm; and the elders of Israel followed him.

26 And he spake unto the congregation, saying, [c] Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of their's, lest ye be [b] consumed in all their sins.

27 So they gat up from the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Ăb-ī'răm, on every side: and Dathan and Abiram came out, and [d] stood in the door of their tents, and their wives, and their sons, and their little children.

28 And Moses said, Hereby ye shall know that the LORD hath sent me to do all these works; for I have not done them [h] of mine own mind.

29 If these men die the common death of all men, or if they be [i] visited after the visitation of all men; [k] then the LORD hath not sent me.

30 But if the LORD [3] make a new thing, and [l] the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up, with all that appertain unto them, and they [m] go down [4] quick into the [5] pit; then ye shall understand that these men have [6] provoked the LORD.

31 ¶ [n] And it came to pass, as he had made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground clave asunder that was under them:

32 And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and [o] all the men that appertained unto Korah, and all their [q] goods.

33 They, and [r] all that appertained to them, went down alive into the [7] pit, and the earth closed upon them: and they perished from among the congregation.

34 And all Israel that were round about them fled at the cry of them: for they said, Lest the earth swallow us up also.

35 And there came out a [z] fire from the LORD, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that offered incense.

36 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

37 Speak unto [a] Ĕl-ē-ā'zär the son of Aaron the priest, that he take up the censers out of the burning, and scatter thou the fire yonder; [b] for they are hallowed.

42 And it came to pass, when the congregation was gathered against Moses and against Aaron, that they looked toward the tabernacle of the congregation: and, behold, the [i]cloud covered it, and the glory of the LORD appeared.

CHAPTER 17

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and take of every one of them a [e]rod according to the house of their fathers, of all their princes according to the house of their fathers [f]twelve rods: write thou every man's name upon his rod.

3 And thou shalt write Aaron's name upon the rod of Levi: for one rod shall be for the head of the house of their fathers.

4 And thou shalt lay them up in the tabernacle of the congregation [g]before the testimony, [h]where I will meet with you.

5 And it shall come to pass, that the man's rod, [k]whom I shall choose, shall blossom: and I will make to cease from me the murmurings of the children of Israel, whereby they murmur against you.

6 ¶ And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, and every one of their princes gave him a rod apiece, for each prince one, according to their fathers' houses, even twelve rods: and the rod of Aaron was among their rods.

7 And Moses laid up the rods before the LORD in the [n]tabernacle of witness.

8 And it came to pass, that on the morrow Moses went into the tabernacle of witness; and, behold, the rod of Aaron for the house of Levi was budded, and brought forth buds, and bloomed blossoms, and yielded [q]almonds.

9 And Moses brought out all the rods from before the LORD unto all the children of Israel: and they looked, and took every man his rod.

10 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, [u]Bring Aaron's rod again before the testimony, to be kept for a [a] token against the rebels; and thou shalt quite take away their murmurings from me, that they die not.

11 And Moses did so: as the LORD commanded him, so did he.

12 And the children of Israel spake unto Moses, saying, Behold, we die, we perish, we all perish.

13 Whosoever cometh any thing near unto the tabernacle of the LORD shall die: shall we be consumed with dying?

CHAPTER 18

AND the LORD said unto Aaron, Thou and thy sons and thy father's house with thee shall [l] bear the iniquity of the sanctuary: and thou and thy sons with thee shall bear the iniquity of your priesthood.

2 And thy brethren also of the tribe of Levi, the tribe of thy father, bring thou with thee, that they may be [o] joined unto thee, and [p] minister unto thee: but thou and thy sons with thee shall minister before the tabernacle of witness.

3 And they shall keep thy charge, and the charge of all the tabernacle: only they shall [s] not come nigh the vessels of the sanctuary and the altar, that neither they, nor ye also, die.

4 And they shall be joined unto thee, and keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, [t] for all the service of the tabernacle: [u] and a stranger shall not come nigh unto you.

5 And [y] ye shall keep the charge of the sanctuary, and the charge of the altar: [z] that there be no wrath any more upon the children of Israel.

6 And I, behold, I have taken your brethren the Levites from among the children of Israel: [z] to you they are given as a gift for the LORD, to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation.

7 Therefore [d] thou and thy sons with thee shall keep your [f] priest's office for every thing of the altar, and within the [h] vail; and ye shall serve: I have given your priest's office unto you as a service of gift: and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Aaron, Behold, I also have given thee [2] the charge of mine [b] heave offerings of all the [c] hallowed things of the children of Israel; unto thee have I given them [3] by reason of the anointing, and to thy sons, by [d] an [4] ordinance for ever.

9 [e] This shall be thine of the [f] most holy things, reserved from the fire: every oblation of their's, every [g] meat offering of their's, and every [h] sin offering of their's, and every [i] trespass offering of their's, which they shall render unto me, [k] shall be most holy for thee and for thy sons.

10 [m] In the most holy place shalt thou eat it; every male shall eat it: it shall be holy unto thee.

11 And this is thine; the heave offering of their gift, with all the [n] wave offerings of the children of Israel: I have given them unto thee, and to thy sons and to thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: [q] every one that is clean in thy house shall eat of it.

12 All [5] the best of the oil, and all the best of the wine, and of the wheat, the [r] firstfruits of them which they shall offer unto the LORD, them have I given thee.

13 And whatsoever is first ripe in the land, which they shall bring unto the LORD, shall be thine; every one that is clean in thine house shall eat of it.

14 Every thing [x] devoted in Israel shall be thine.

15 Every thing that openeth the matrix in all flesh, which they bring unto the LORD, whether it be of men or beasts, shall be thine: nevertheless the [a] firstborn of man shalt thou surely redeem, and the [b] firstling of unclean beasts shalt thou redeem.

16 And those that are to be redeemed from a month old shalt thou redeem, according to thine estimation, for the money of [c] five shē'-kĕls, [e] after the shekel of the sanctuary, [g] which is twenty gē'-rāhs.

17 But the firstling of a cow, or the firstling of a sheep, or the firstling of a goat, thou shalt not redeem; they are holy: thou shalt [i] sprinkle their blood upon the altar, and shalt burn their [a] fat for an offering made by fire, for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

18 [b] And the flesh of them shall be thine, as the wave breast and as the right shoulder are thine.

19 All the heave offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer unto the LORD, have I given thee, and thy sons and thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: [c] it is a [d] covenant of salt [e] for ever before the LORD unto thee and to thy seed with thee.

20 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Aaron, [f] Thou shalt have no inheritance in their land, neither shalt thou have any part among them: [g] I am thy part and thine inheritance among the children of Israel.

21 And, behold, [i] I have given the children of Levi all the [k] tenth in Israel for an inheritance, for their service which they serve, even the service of the tabernacle of the congregation.

22 Neither must the children of Israel henceforth come nigh the tabernacle of the congregation, lest they [n] bear sin, and die.

23 But the Levites shall do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they shall [o] bear their iniquity: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations, that among the children of Israel they have no inheritance.

24 But the tithes of the children of Israel, which they offer as an heave offering unto the LORD, I have given to the Levites to inherit: therefore I have said unto them, Among the children of Israel [s] they shall have no inheritance.

25 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

26 Thus speak unto the Levites, and say unto them, When ye take of the children of Israel the tithes which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then ye shall offer up an heave offering of it for the LORD, even [z] a tenth part of the tithe.

27 And this your heave offering shall be reckoned unto you, as though it were the corn of the [c] threshingfloor, and as the fulness of the winepress.

CHAPTER 19

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

2 This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD hath commanded, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring thee a red heifer without spot, wherein is no blemish, and [p] upon which never came yoke:

3 And ye shall give her unto [q] Ĕl-ē-ā'-zär the priest, that he may bring her forth [r] without the camp, and one shall slay her before his face:

4 And Ĕl-ē-ā'-zär the priest shall take of her blood with his finger, and [t] sprinkle of her blood directly before the tabernacle of the congregation [u] seven times:

5 And one shall burn the heifer in his sight; [x] her skin, and her flesh, and her blood, with her dung, shall he burn:

6 And the priest shall take [y] cedar wood, and [a] hyssop, and [b] scarlet, and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer.

7 Then the priest [d] shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp, and the priest shall be unclean until the even.

8 And he that burneth her shall wash his clothes in water, and bathe his flesh in water, and shall be unclean until the even.

9 And a man that is clean shall gather up the [a] ashes of the heifer, and lay them up without the camp in a clean place, and it shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Israel for a [c] water of separation: it is a [2] purification for sin.

10 And he that gathereth the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: and it shall be unto the children of Israel, and unto the [d] stranger that sojourneth among them, for a [e] statute for ever.

11 ¶ He that [f] toucheth the dead body of any man shall be unclean [g] seven days.

12 He shall purify himself with it on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean: but if he purify not himself the third day, then the seventh day he shall not be clean.

13 Whosoever toucheth the dead body of any man that is dead, and purifieth not himself, [h] defileth the tabernacle of the LORD; and that soul shall be [i] cut off from Israel: because the water of separation was not sprinkled upon him, he shall be unclean; [m] his uncleanness is yet upon him.

14 This is the law, when a man dieth in a tent: all that [p] come into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days.

15 And [r] every open vessel, which hath no covering bound upon it, is unclean.

16 And whosoever toucheth one that is slain with a sword in the [u] open fields, or a dead body, or a bone of a man, or a [x] grave, shall be unclean seven days.

17 And for an unclean person they shall take of the ashes of the burnt heifer of purification for sin, and [3] running water shall be put thereto in a vessel:

20 But the man that shall be unclean, and shall not purify himself, that soul shall be cut off from among the congregation, because he hath defiled the sanctuary of the LORD: the water of separation hath not been sprinkled upon him; he is unclean.

21 And it shall be a perpetual statute unto them, that he that sprinkleth the water of separation shall wash his clothes; and he that toucheth the water of separation shall be unclean until even.

22 And whatsoever the unclean person toucheth shall be unclean; and the soul that toucheth it shall be unclean until even.

CHAPTER 20

THEN came the children of Israel, even the whole congregation, into the [k] desert of Zin in the [l] first month: and the people abode in [n] Kadesh; and [o] Miriam died there, and was buried there.

2 And [q] there was no water for the congregation: and they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron.

3 And the people [s] chode with Moses, and spake, saying, Would God that we had [t] died when our brethren died before the LORD!

4 And why have ye brought up the congregation of the LORD into this wilderness, that we and our cattle should die there?

5 And wherefore have ye made us to come up out of Egypt, to bring us in unto this evil place? it is no place of seed, or of [y] figs, or of vines, or of

13th c. B.C.

[a] pomegranates; neither is there any water to drink.

6 And Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they [c] fell upon their faces: and the [d] glory of the LORD appeared unto them.

7 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

8 [e] Take the rod, and gather thou the assembly together, thou, and Aaron thy brother, and speak ye unto the rock before their eyes; and it shall give forth his water, and thou shalt bring forth to them water out of the rock: so thou shalt give the congregation and their beasts drink.

9 And Moses [g] took the rod [h] from before the LORD, as he commanded him.

10 And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock, and he said unto them, [k] Hear now, ye rebels; must we fetch you water out of this rock?

11 And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his rod he [m] smote the rock twice: and [n] the water came out abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their beasts also.

12 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, Because ye [o] believed me not, [p] to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them.

13 [s] This is the water of [2] Měr'ĭ-bäh; because the children of Israel strove with the LORD, and he was sanctified in them.

14 ¶ [u] And Moses sent messengers from Kadesh unto the king of [x] Edom, Thus saith [z] thy brother Israel, Thou knowest all the [a] travail that hath befallen us:

15 How our fathers [b] went down into Egypt, and we have dwelt in Egypt [c] a long time; and the [d] Egyptians vexed us, and our fathers:

16 And [e] when we cried unto the LORD, he heard our voice, and [f] sent an angel, and hath [h] brought us forth out of Egypt: and, behold, we are in Kadesh, a city in the uttermost of thy border:

17 [b] Let us pass, I pray thee, through thy country: we will not pass through the fields, or through the vineyards, neither will we drink of the water of the wells: we will go by the king's high way, we will not turn to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed thy borders.

18 And Edom said unto him, Thou shalt not pass by me, lest I come out against thee with the sword.

19 And the children of Israel said unto him, We will go by the high way: and if I and my cattle drink of thy water, then [f] I will pay for it: I will only, without doing any thing else, go through on my feet.

20 And he said, Thou shalt not go through. And Edom came out against him with much people, and with a strong hand.

21 Thus Edom [i] refused to give Israel passage through his border: wherefore Israel [l] turned away from him.

22 ¶ And the children of Israel, even the whole congregation, journeyed from Kadesh, and came unto mount [l] Hor.

23 And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron in mount Hor, by the coast of the land of Edom, saying,

24 Aaron shall be [q] gathered unto his people: for he shall not enter into the land which I have given unto the children of Israel, because ye [r] rebelled against my word at the water of Měr'ĭ-bäh.

25 Take Aaron and [t] Ĕl-ē-ā'zär his son, and bring them up unto mount Hor:

26 And strip Aaron of his [y] garments, and put them upon Ĕl-ē-ā'zär his son: and Aaron shall be gathered unto his people, and shall die there.

27 And Moses did as the LORD commanded: and they went up into mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation.

28 And Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and [g] put them upon Ĕl-ē-ā'zär his son; and Aaron [i] died there in the top of the mount: and Moses and Eleazar came down from the mount.

CHAPTER 21

AND when [2] king [d] Arad the Cā'nă-ăn-īte, which dwelt in the south, heard tell that Israel came by the way [3] of the spies; then he fought against Israel, and took some of them prisoners.

2 And Israel [g] vowed a vow unto the LORD, and said, If thou wilt indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will [h] utterly destroy their cities.

3 And the LORD hearkened to the voice of Israel, and delivered up the [i] Cā'nă-ăn-ītes; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities: and he called the name of the place [l] Hormah.

4 ¶ And they journeyed from [m] mount Hor by the way of the [n] Red sea, to [o] compass the land of Edom: and the soul of the people was [7] much discouraged because of the way.

5 And the people [q] spake against God, and against Moses, Wherefore have ye brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? for there is no bread, neither is there any water; and our soul loatheth [9] this light bread.

6 And the LORD sent fiery [s] serpents among the people, and [t] they bit the people; and much people of Israel died.

7 ¶ Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, [x] We have sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD, and against thee; pray unto the LORD, that he take away the serpents from us. And Moses [a] prayed for the people.

8 And the LORD said unto Moses, Make thee a fiery serpent, and set it upon a pole: and it shall come to pass, that every one that is bitten, when he looketh upon it, shall live.

9 And [c] Moses made a serpent of brass, and put it upon a pole, and it came to pass, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he beheld the serpent of brass, he lived.

10 ¶ And the children of Israel set forward, and pitched in [a] Ō'bōth.

11 And they journeyed from Ō'bōth, and pitched at [c] Ī'jē-ăb'ă-rĭm, in the wilderness which is before Moab, toward the sunrising.

12 ¶ From thence they removed, and pitched in the valley of [e] Zared.

13 From thence they removed, and pitched on the other side of [f] Arnon, which is in the wilderness that cometh out of the coasts of the Amorites: for Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.

14 Wherefore it is said in the book of the wars of the LORD, [4] What he did in the Red sea, and in the brooks of Arnon,

15 And at [5] the stream of the brooks that goeth down to the dwelling of [k] Ar, and lieth upon the border of Moab.

16 And from thence they went to [6] Beer: that is the well whereof the LORD spake unto Moses, Gather the people together, and I will give them water.

17 ¶ Then Israel sang [p] this song, Spring up, O well; sing ye unto it:

18 The princes digged the [r] well, the nobles of the people digged it, [8] by the direction of the lawgiver, with their staves. And from the wilderness they went to Măt-tā'năh:

19 And from Măt-tā'năh to Nă-hăl'ī-ĕl: and from Nahaliel to [2] Bā'mōth:

20 And from Bā'mōth in the valley, that is in the country of Moab, to the top of [u] Pisgah, which looketh toward [3] Jĕ-shī'mon.

21 ¶ And [y] Israel sent messengers unto [z] Sihon king of the Amorites, saying,

22 [b] Let me pass through thy land: we will not turn into the fields, or into the vineyards; we will not drink of the waters of the well: but we will go along by the king's high way, until we be past thy borders.

23 And Sihon would not suffer Israel to pass through his border: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the wilderness: and he came to [d] Jahaz, and fought against Israel.

24 And Israel smote him with the [a] edge of the sword, and possessed his land from Arnon unto [b] Jabbok, even unto the children of [c] Ammon: for the border of the children of Ammon was strong.

25 And Israel took all these cities: and Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in [f] Heshbon, and in all the [2] villages thereof.

26 For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of [k] Moab, and taken all his land out of his hand, even unto Arnon.

27 Wherefore [n] they that speak in proverbs say, Come into Heshbon, let the city of Sihon be built and prepared:

28 [o] For there is a fire gone out of Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon: it hath consumed Ar of Moab, and the lords of the [r] high places of Arnon.

29 Woe to thee, Moab! thou art undone, O people of [t] Chē'mŏsh: he hath given his sons that escaped, and his daughters, into captivity unto Sihon king of the Amorites.

30 We have shot at them; Heshbon is perished even unto [x] Dibon, and we have laid them waste even unto Nophah, which reacheth unto [y] Mē'dĕ-bă.

31 ¶ Thus Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites.

32 And Moses sent to [z] spy out [a] Jā-ā'zĕr, and they took the villages thereof, and drove out the Amorites that were there.

33 ¶ [d] And they turned and went up by the way of Bashan: and [e] Og the king of Bashan went out against them, he, and all his people, to the battle at [f] Ĕd'rĕ-ī.

34 And the LORD said unto Moses, Fear him not: for I have delivered him into thy hand, and all his people, and his land; and thou shalt do to him as thou didst unto Sihon king of the Amorites which dwelt at Heshbon.

35 So they smote him, and his sons, and all his people, until there was none left him alive: and they possessed his land.

CHAPTER 22

AND the children of Israel set forward, and pitched in the [d] plains of Moab on this side Jordan by Jericho.

2 ¶ And [e] Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites.

3 And [g] Moab was sore afraid of the people, because [h] they were many: and Moab was [i] distressed because of the children of Israel.

4 And Moab said unto the [l] elders of [m] Midian, Now shall this company lick up all that are round about us, as the ox licketh up the grass of the field. And Balak the son of Zippor was king of the Moabites at that time.

5 He sent messengers therefore unto [p] Bā'lāām the son of Beor to [q] Pethor, which is by the river of the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people [s] come out from Egypt: behold, they cover the face of the earth, and they abide over against me:

6 [u] Come now therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people; for they are too mighty for me: peradventure I shall prevail, that we may smite them, and that I may drive them out of the land: for I wot that he whom thou blessest is blessed, and he whom thou cursest is cursed.

7 And the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with the [b] rewards of [c] divination in their hand; and they came unto Bā'lāām, and spake unto him the words of Balak.

8 And he said unto them, Lodge here this night, and I will bring you word again, as the LORD shall speak unto me: and the princes of Moab abode with Bā'lāām.

9 [g] And God came unto Bā'lāām, and said, What men are these with thee?

10 And Bā'lāām said unto God, Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, hath sent unto me, saying,

11 Behold, there is a people come out of Egypt, which covereth the face of the earth: come now, curse me them; peradventure I shall be able to overcome them, and drive them out.

12 And God said unto Bā'lāām, Thou shalt not go with them; thou shalt not curse the people: for they are [a] blessed.

13 And Bā'lāām rose up in the morning, and said unto the princes of Balak, Get you into your land: for the LORD refuseth to give me leave to go with you.

14 And the princes of Moab rose up, and they went unto Balak, and said, Bā'lāām refuseth to come with us.

15 ¶ And Balak sent yet again princes, more, and more honourable than they.

16 And they came to Bā'lāām, and said to him, Thus saith Balak the son of Zippor, Let nothing, I pray thee, hinder thee from coming unto me:

17 For [c] I will promote thee unto very great honour, and I will do whatsoever thou sayest unto me: come therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people.

18 And Bā'lāām answered and said unto the servants of Balak, [e] If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, [f] I cannot go beyond the word of the LORD my God, to do less or more.

19 Now therefore, I pray you, tarry ye also here this night, that I may know what the LORD will say unto me more.

20 [h] And God came unto Bā'lāām at night, and said unto him, If the men come to call thee, rise up, and go with them; but yet the word which I shall say unto thee, that shalt thou do.

21 And Bā'lāām rose up in the morning, and saddled his ass, and went with the princes of Moab.

22 ¶ And God's anger [i] was kindled because he went: and the [k] angel of the LORD stood in the way for an adversary against him. Now he was riding upon his [l] ass, and his two servants were with him.

23 And the ass saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, [n] and his sword drawn in his hand: and the ass turned aside out of the way, and went into the field: and Bā'lāām smote the ass, to turn her into the way.

24 But the angel of the LORD stood in a path of the vineyards, a wall being on this side, and a wall on that side.

25 And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she thrust herself unto the wall, and crushed Bā'lāām's foot against the wall: and he smote her again.

26 And the angel of the LORD went further, and stood in a narrow place, where was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left.

27 And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she fell down under Bā'lāām: and Balaam's anger was kindled, and he smote the ass with a staff.

28 And the LORD [b] opened the mouth of the ass, and she said unto Bā'lāām, What have I done unto thee, that thou hast smitten me these three times?

29 And Bā'lāām said unto the ass, Because thou hast [d] mocked me: I would there were a sword in mine hand, for now would I kill thee.

30 And the ass said unto Bā'lāām, Am not I thine ass, upon which thou hast ridden ever since I was thine unto this day? was I ever wont to do so unto thee? And he said, Nay.

31 Then the LORD [g] opened the eyes of Bā'lāām, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and he bowed down his head, and fell flat on his face.

32 And the angel of the LORD said unto him, Wherefore hast thou smitten thine ass these three times? behold, I went out to withstand thee, because thy way is [2] perverse before me:

33 And the ass saw me, and turned from me these three times: unless she had turned from me, surely now also I had slain thee, and saved her alive.

34 And Bā'lāām said unto the angel of the LORD, [m] I have sinned; for I knew not that thou stoodest in the way against me: now therefore, if it displease thee, I will get me back again.

35 And the angel of the LORD said unto Bā'lāām, Go with the men: but only the word that I shall speak unto thee, that thou shalt speak. So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

36 ¶ And when Balak heard that Bā'lāām was come, he went out to meet him unto a city of Moab, which is in the border of [f] Arnon, which is in the utmost coast.

37 And Balak said unto Bā'lāām, Did I not earnestly send unto thee to call thee? wherefore camest thou not unto me? am I not able indeed to promote thee to honour?

38 And Bā'lāām said unto Balak, Lo, I am come unto thee: have I now any power at all to say any thing? the word that God [m] putteth in my mouth, that shall I speak.

39 And Bā'lāām went with Balak, and they came unto [4] Kĭr'jăth-hū'zōth.

40 And Balak offered oxen and sheep, and sent to Bā'lāām, and to the princes that were with him.

41 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Balak took Bā'lāām, and brought him up into the [n] high places of [o] Bā'ăl, that thence he might see the utmost part of the people.

CHAPTER 23

AND Bā'lāām said unto Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here [p] seven oxen and seven rams.

2 And Balak did as Bā'lāām had spoken; and Balak and Balaam offered on every altar a bullock and a ram.

3 And Bā'lāām said unto Balak, Stand by thy burnt offering, and I will go: peradventure the LORD will come [r] to meet me: and whatsoever he sheweth me I will tell thee. And he went to [6] an high place.

4 And God met Bā'lāām: and he said unto him, I have prepared seven altars, and I have offered upon every altar a bullock and a ram.

5 And the LORD [s] put a word in Bā'lāām's mouth, and said, Return unto Balak, and thus thou shalt speak.

6 And he returned unto him, and, lo, he stood by his burnt sacrifice, he, and all the princes of Moab.

7 And he took up [a] his parable, and said, Balak the king of Moab hath brought me [b] from Aram, out of the mountains of the [c] east, saying, [d] Come, curse me [e] Jacob, and come, [2] defy Israel.

8 How shall I curse, whom God hath not cursed? or how shall I defy, whom the LORD hath not defied?

9 For from the top of the rocks [g] I see him, and from the hills I behold him: lo, the people shall dwell [h] alone, and [i] shall not be reckoned among the nations.

10 Who can [k] count the dust of Jacob, and the number of [3] the fourth part of Israel? Let me die [l] the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his!

11 And Balak said unto Bā'lāām, What hast thou done unto me? I took thee to curse mine enemies, and, behold, thou hast blessed them altogether.

12 And he answered and said, Must I not take heed to speak that which the LORD hath put in my mouth?

13 And Balak said unto him, Come, I pray thee, with me unto another place, from whence thou mayest see them: thou shalt see but the utmost part of them, and shalt not see them all: and curse me them from thence.

14 ¶ And he brought him into the [5] field of Zō'phĭm, to the top of [q] Pisgah, and built seven altars, and offered a bullock and a ram on every altar.

15 And he said unto Balak, Stand here by thy burnt offering, while I meet the LORD yonder.

16 And the LORD met Bā'lāām, and put a word in his mouth, and said, Go again unto Balak, and say thus.

17 And when he came to him, behold, he stood by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab with him. And Balak said unto him, What hath the LORD spoken?

18 And he took up his parable, and said, Rise up, Balak, and hear; hearken unto me, thou son of Zippor:

20 Behold, I have received commandment to bless: and [g] he hath blessed; and I cannot reverse it.

21 He hath not beheld [3] iniquity in Jacob, neither hath he seen [4] perverseness in Israel: [h] the LORD his God is with him, and the shout of a king is among them.

24 Behold, the people shall rise up as a [3] great lion, and lift up himself as a young lion: [u] he shall not lie down until he eat of the prey, and drink the blood of the slain.

25 ¶ And Balak said unto Bā'-lāam, Neither curse them at all, nor bless them at all.

26 But Bā'-lāam answered and said unto Balak, Told not I thee, saying, [e] All that the LORD speaketh, that I must do?

27 ¶ And Balak said unto Bā'-lāam, Come, I pray thee, I will bring thee unto another place; peradventure it will please God that thou mayest curse me them from thence.

28 And Balak brought Bā'-lāam unto the top of Peor, that looketh toward [4] Jĕ-shī'-mon.

29 And Bā'-lāam said unto Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven bullocks and seven rams.

30 And Balak did as Bā'-lāam had said, and offered a bullock and a ram on every altar.

CHAPTER 24

AND when [l] Bā'-lāam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he went not, as at other times, to [5] seek for [o] enchantments, but he set his face toward the wilderness.

2 And Bā'-lāam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Israel abiding in his tents [d] according to their tribes; and the [e] spirit of God came upon him.

3 And he [f] took up his parable, and said, Bā'-lāam the son of Beor hath said, and the man whose eyes [2] are open hath said:

4 He hath said, which heard the words of God, which [5] saw the vision of the [i] Almighty, [6] falling into a trance, but having his eyes open:

5 How goodly are thy tents, O [l] Jacob, and thy tabernacles, O Israel!

6 As the valleys are they spread forth, as [n] gardens by the river's side, as the trees of lign aloes which the LORD hath [p] planted, and as [q] cedar trees beside the waters.

7 He shall pour the water out of his buckets, and his seed shall be in many waters, and his king shall be higher than [s] Agag, and [t] his kingdom shall be exalted.

8 [x] God brought him forth out of Egypt; he hath as it were the [y] strength of an [z] unicorn: he shall [a] eat up the nations his enemies, and shall [b] break their bones, and [c] pierce them through with his arrows.

9 He [d] couched, he lay down as a lion, and as a great lion: who shall stir him up? [f] Blessed is he that blesseth thee, and cursed is he that curseth thee.

10 ¶ And [g] Balak's anger was kindled against Bā'-lāam, and he [h] smote his hands together: and Balak said unto Balaam, I called thee to curse mine enemies, and, behold, thou hast altogether blessed them these three times.

11 Therefore now flee thou to thy place: [i] I thought to promote thee unto great honour; but, lo, the LORD hath kept thee back from honour.

12 And Bā'-lāam said unto Balak, Spake I not also to thy messengers which thou sentest unto me, saying,

13 If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, [k] I cannot go beyond the commandment of the LORD, to do either [m] good or bad [n] of mine own mind; but what the LORD saith, that will I speak?

14 And now, behold, I go unto my people: come therefore, and I will advertise thee what this people shall do to thy people [b] in the latter days.

15 ¶ And he took up his parable, and said, Bā'lāam the son of Beor hath said, and the man whose eyes are open hath said:

16 He hath said, which heard the words of God, and knew the knowledge of the [g] most High, which saw the vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open:

17 [k] I shall see him, but not now: I shall behold him, but not nigh: there shall come a [l] Star out of Jacob, and a [m] Sceptre shall rise out of Israel, and [n] shall smite the corners of Moab, and destroy all the [2] children of [o] Sheth.

18 And Edom shall be a possession, [p] Seir also shall be a possession for his enemies; and Israel shall do valiantly.

19 Out of Jacob shall come he that shall have dominion, and shall destroy him that remaineth of the city.

20 ¶ And when he looked on [r] Am'ă-lĕk, he took up his parable, and said, Amalek was the first of the nations; but his latter end [s] shall be that he perish for ever.

21 And he looked on the [t] Kenites, and took up his parable, and said, [4] Strong is [x] thy dwellingplace, and thou puttest thy nest in a rock.

22 Nevertheless [5] the Kenite shall be wasted, [6] until Asshur shall carry thee away captive.

23 And he took up his parable, and said, Alas, who shall live when God [7] doeth this!

24 And ships shall come from the coast of [b] Chittim, and shall afflict Asshur, and shall afflict Eber, and he also shall perish for ever.

25 And Bā'lāam rose up, and went and returned to his place: and Balak also went his way.

CHAPTER 25

AND Israel abode in [h] Shittim, and the people began to commit whoredom with the daughters of Moab.

2 And they called the people unto the sacrifices of their gods: and the people did eat, and [a] bowed down to their gods.

3 And Israel joined himself unto [c] Bā'ăl–pē'ôr: and the anger of the LORD [d] was kindled against Israel.

4 And the LORD said unto Moses, Take all the heads of the people, and [e] hang them up before the LORD against the sun, [f] that the fierce anger of the LORD may be turned away from Israel.

5 And Moses said unto [h] the judges of Israel, [i] Slay ye every one his men that were joined unto Bā'ăl–pē'ôr.

6 ¶ And, behold, one of the children of Israel came and brought unto his brethren a Midianitish woman in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Israel, who were weeping before the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

7 And when [q] Phĭn'ĕ-hăs, the son of Ĕl-ē-ā'zär, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose up from among the congregation, and took a javelin in his hand;

8 And he went after the man of Israel into the [3] tent, and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her belly. [u] So the plague was stayed from the children of Israel.

9 And [y] those that died in [z] the plague were twenty and four thousand.

10 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

11 Phĭn'ĕ-hăs, the son of Ĕl-ē-ā'zär, the son of Aaron the priest, [a] hath turned my wrath away from the children of Israel, while he was [c] zealous for my sake among them, that I consumed not the children of Israel in [d] my jealousy.

12 Wherefore say, Behold, [e] I give unto him my [f] covenant of peace:

13 And he shall have it, and [g] his seed after him, even the covenant of an [i] everlasting priesthood; because he was zealous for his God, and [k] made an atonement for the children of Israel.

16 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

17 [f] Vex the Midianites, and smite them:

18 For they vex you with their wiles, wherewith they have [h] beguiled you in the matter of Peor, and in the matter of Cŏz'bī, the daughter of a prince of Midian, their sister, which was slain in the day of the plague for Peor's sake.

CHAPTER 26

AND it came to pass after [k] the plague, that the LORD spake unto Moses and unto [l] Ĕl-ē-ā'zär the son of Aaron the priest, saying,

2 [m] Take the sum of all the congregation of the children of Israel, from twenty years old and upward, throughout their fathers' house, all that are able to go to war in Israel.

3 And Moses and Ĕl-ē-ā'zär the priest spake with them [n] in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho, saying,

4 Take the sum of the people, from twenty years old and upward; as the LORD commanded Moses and the children of Israel, which went forth out of the land of Egypt.

5 ¶ [p] Reuben, the eldest son of Israel: [q] the children of Reuben; Hā'nŏch, of whom cometh the family of the Hā'nŏch-ītes: of Pallu, the family of the Păl'lū-ītes:

6 Of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites: of Carmi, the family of the Carmites.

7 These are the families of the Reubenites: and they that were numbered of them were forty and three thousand and seven hundred and thirty.

8 And the sons of Pallu; Ē-lī'ăb.

9 And the sons of Ē-lī'ăb; Nĕm'ū-ĕl, and [t] Dathan, and Ă-bī'răm. This is that Dathan and Abiram, which were [2] famous in the congregation, who strove against Moses and against Aaron in the company of [a] Korah, when they strove against the LORD:

10 And [c] the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up together with Korah, when that company died, what time the [e] fire devoured two hundred and fifty men: and they became a [3] sign.

11 [g] Notwithstanding the children of Korah died not.

12 ¶ The [i] sons of Simeon after their families: of [4] Nĕm'ū-ĕl, the family of the Nĕm-ū-ē'lītes: of Jamin, the family of the Jaminites: of [5] Jā'chĭn, the family of the Jā'chĭn-ītes:

52 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

53 Unto these the land shall be [d] divided for an inheritance according to the number of names.

54 [f] To many thou shalt give the more inheritance, and to few thou shalt give the less inheritance: to every one shall his inheritance be given according to those that were numbered of him.

55 Notwithstanding the land shall be divided [k] by lot: according to the names of the tribes of their fathers they shall inherit.

56 According to the lot shall the possession thereof be divided between many and few.

57 ¶ And these are [n] they that were numbered of the Levites [o] after their families: [p] of Gershon, the family of the Gershonites: [q] of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites: [s] of Mĕ-rârʹī, the family of the Mĕ-rârʹītes.

60 And unto Aaron was born [g] Nadab, and Ă-bīʹhū, Ĕl-ē-āʹzär, and Ithʹă-mär.

61 [i] And Nadab and Ă-bīʹhū died, when they offered strange fire before the LORD.

62 And those that were numbered of them were twenty and three thousand, all males from a month old and upward: for they were [l] not numbered among the children of Israel, because there was [a] no inheritance given them among the children of Israel.

63 ¶ These are they that were numbered by Moses and Ĕl-ē-āʹzär the priest, who numbered the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho.

64 [c] But among these there was not a man of them whom Moses and Aaron the priest numbered, when they numbered the children of Israel in the wilderness of [e] Sinai.

THEN came the daughters of [l] Zē-lŏphʹĕ-hăd, the son of Hēʹphĕr, the son of Gĭlʹĕ-ăd, the son of [m] Māʹchĭr, the son of Mă-năsʹsēh, of the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph: and these are the names of his daughters; Mahlah, Noah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Tirzah.

2 And they stood [r] before Moses, and before [t] Ĕl-ē-āʹzär the priest, and before the princes and all the congregation, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying,

3 Our father [u] died in the wilderness, and he was not in the company of them [x] that gathered themselves together against the LORD in the company of [a] Korah; but died in his own sin, and had no sons.

4 Why should the name of our father be [c] done away from among his family, because he hath no son? [f] Give unto us therefore a possession among the brethren of our father.

5 And Moses [h] brought their cause before the LORD.

6 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

7 The daughters of Zē-lŏphʹĕ-hăd [k] speak right: thou shalt surely give them a possession of an inheritance among their father's brethren; and thou shalt cause the inheritance of their father to pass unto them.

9 And if he have no daughter, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his brethren.

11 And if his father have no brethren, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his [c] kinsman that is next to him of his family, and he shall possess it: and it shall be unto the children of Israel a [d] statute of judgment, as the LORD commanded Moses.

12 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Get thee up into this [e] mount Ăb'ă-rĭm, and see the land which I have given unto the children of Israel.

13 And when thou hast seen it, thou also shalt [g] be gathered unto thy people, as Aaron thy brother was gathered.

14 For [i] ye rebelled against my commandment in the [l] desert of Zin, in the strife of the congregation, [m] to sanctify me at the water before their eyes: that is the [n] water of Mĕr'ī-bäh in [p] Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.

15 ¶ And Moses spake unto the LORD, saying,

16 Let the LORD, the [q] God of the spirits of all flesh, set a man over the congregation,

17 [t] Which may go out before them, and which may go in before them, and which may lead them out, and which may bring them in; that the congregation of the LORD be not [x] as sheep which have no shepherd.

18 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Take thee [z] Joshua the son of Nun, a man [a] in whom is the spirit, and [b] lay thine hand upon him;

19 And set him before Ĕl-ē-ā'zär the priest, and before all the congregation; and [c] give him a charge [d] in their sight.

20 And [e] thou shalt put some of thine honour upon him, [f] that all the congregation of the children of Israel may be obedient.

21 And he shall stand before Ĕl-ē-ā'zär the priest, who shall ask counsel for him after the judgment of [a] Urim before the LORD: at his word [b] shall they go out, and at his word they shall come in, both he, and all the children of Israel with him, even all the congregation.

22 And Moses did as the LORD commanded him: and he took Joshua, and set him before Ĕl-ē-ā'zär the priest, and before all the congregation:

23 And he laid his hands upon him, and gave him a charge, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

CHAPTER 28

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel, and say unto them, My offering, and my [f] bread for my sacrifices made by fire, for a [h] sweet savour unto me, shall ye observe to offer unto me in their due season.

3 [k] And thou shalt say unto them, This is the offering made by fire which ye shall offer unto the LORD; two lambs of the first year without spot [o] day by day, for a continual burnt offering.

4 The one lamb shalt thou offer in the morning, and the other lamb shalt thou offer [2] at even;

5 And a tenth part of an [r] ē'phäh of flour for a [s] meat offering, mingled with the fourth part of an hĭn of beaten oil.

6 It is a continual burnt offering, which was ordained in mount [u] Sinai for a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD.

7 And the [y] drink offering thereof shall be the fourth part of an hĭn for the one lamb: in the holy place shalt thou cause the strong wine to be poured unto the LORD for a drink offering.

20 ¶ And on the third day eleven bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish;

21 And their meat offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

22 And one goat for a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering, and his meat offering, and his drink offering.

39 These things ye shall do unto the LORD in your [e] set feasts, [f] beside your [g] vows, and your [h] freewill offerings, for your burnt offerings, and for your meat offerings, and for your drink offerings, and for your [i] peace offerings.

40 And Moses told the children of Israel according to all that the LORD commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 30

AND Moses spake unto [k] the heads of the tribes concerning the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded.

2 If a man vow a vow unto the LORD, or [l] swear an oath to bind his soul with a bond; he shall not [2] break his word, [m] he shall do according to all that proceedeth out of his mouth.

3 If a woman also vow a vow unto the LORD, and bind herself by a bond, being in her father's house in her youth;

4 And her father hear her vow, and her bond wherewith she hath bound her soul, and her father shall hold his peace at her: then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she hath bound her soul shall stand.

5 But [a] if her father disallow her in the day that he heareth; not any of her vows, or of her bonds wherewith she hath bound her soul, shall stand: [b] and the LORD shall forgive her, because her father disallowed her.

6 And if she had at all an husband, when she vowed, or uttered ought out of her lips, wherewith she bound her soul;

7 And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her in the day that he heard it: then her vows shall stand, and her bonds wherewith she bound her soul shall stand.

8 But if her husband disallowed her on the day that he heard it; then he shall make her vow which she vowed, and that which she uttered with her lips, wherewith she bound her soul, of none effect: and the LORD shall forgive her.

9 But every vow of a widow, and of her that is divorced, wherewith they have bound their souls, shall stand against her.

10 And if she vowed in her husband's house, or bound her soul by a bond with an oath;

11 And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her, and disallowed her not: then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she bound her soul shall stand.

12 But if her husband hath utterly made them void on the day he heard them; then whatsoever proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of her soul, shall not stand: her husband hath made them void; and the LORD shall forgive her.

13 Every vow, and every binding oath to afflict the soul, [n] her husband may establish it, or her husband may make it void.

15 But if he shall any ways make them void after that he hath heard them; then he shall [d] bear her iniquity.

16 These are the statutes, which the LORD commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, between the father and his daughter, being yet in her youth in her father's house.

CHAPTER 31

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 [h] Avenge the children of Israel of the Midianites: afterward shalt thou [i] be gathered unto thy people.

3 And Moses spake unto the people, saying, Arm some of yourselves unto the war, and let them go against the Midianites, and avenge the LORD of [m] Midian.

4 Of every tribe a thousand, throughout all the tribes of Israel, shall ye send to the war.

5 So there were delivered out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand [o] armed for war.

6 And Moses sent them to the war, a thousand of every tribe, them and [q] Phĭn'ĕ-hăs the son of Ĕl-ē-ā'zär the priest, to the war, with the holy instruments, and the [s] trumpets to blow in his hand.

7 And they warred against the Midianites, as the LORD commanded Moses; and [x] they slew all the males.

8 And they slew the [y] kings of Midian, beside the rest of them that were slain; namely, Ē'vī, and Rekem, and [b] Zur, and Hur, and Reba, five kings of Midian: [c] Bā'lāām also the son of Beor they slew with the sword.

9 And the children of Israel took all the women of Midian captives, and their little ones, and took the spoil of all their cattle, and all their flocks, and all their goods.

10 And they burnt all their cities wherein they dwelt, and all their [2a] goodly castles, with fire.

11 And they took [b] all the spoil, and all the prey, both of men and of beasts.

12 And they brought the captives, and the prey, and the spoil, unto Moses, and [c] Ĕl-ē-ā'zär the priest, and unto the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the camp at the [e] plains of Moab, which are by Jordan near Jericho.

13 ¶ And Moses, and Ĕl-ē-ā'zär the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went forth to meet them [f] without the camp.

14 And Moses was wroth with the officers of the host, with the [g] captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, which came from the battle.

15 And Moses said unto them, Have ye saved [k] all the women alive?

16 Behold, these caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Bā'lāām, to commit trespass against the LORD in the matter of [l] Peor, and there was [n] a plague among the congregation of the LORD.

17 Now therefore kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman that hath known man by lying with him.

18 But all the women children, that have not known a man by lying with him, [p] keep alive for yourselves.

19 And do ye abide without the camp [r] seven days: whosoever hath killed any person, and whosoever hath [t] touched any slain, purify both yourselves and your captives on the third day, and [u] on the seventh day.

20 And purify all your raiment, and all that is made of skins, and all work of [z] goats' hair, and all things [a] made of wood.

21 ¶ And Ĕl-ē-ā'zär the priest said unto the men of war which went to the battle, This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD commanded Moses;

22 Only the gold, and the silver, the brass, the iron, the [d] tin, and the [e] lead,

23 Every thing that may abide the fire, ye shall make it go through the fire, and it shall be clean: nevertheless it shall be purified with the [a] water of separation: and all that abideth not the fire ye shall make go through the water.

24 And ye shall [b] wash your clothes on the seventh day, and ye shall be clean, and afterward ye shall come into the camp.

25 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

26 Take the sum of the prey that was taken, both of man and of beast, thou, and Ĕl-ē-ā'zär the priest, and the chief fathers of the congregation:

27 And [c] divide the prey into two parts; between them that took the war upon them, who went out to battle, and between all the congregation:

28 And levy a tribute unto the LORD of the men of war which went out to battle: [e] one soul of five hundred, both of the persons, and of the beeves, and of the asses, and of the sheep:

29 Take it of their half, and [f] give it unto Ĕl-ē-ā'zär the priest, for an [g] heave offering of the LORD.

30 And of the children of Israel's half, thou shalt take [h] one portion of fifty, of the persons, of the beeves, of the asses, and of the flocks, of all manner of beasts, and [i] give them unto the Levites, [k] which keep the charge of the tabernacle of the LORD.

31 And Moses and Ĕl-ē-ā'zär the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses.

32 And the booty, being the rest of the prey which the men of war had caught, was six hundred thousand and seventy thousand and five thousand sheep,

33 And threescore and twelve thousand beeves,

34 And threescore and one thousand asses,

35 And thirty and two thousand persons in all, of women that had not known man by lying with him.

36 And the half, which was the portion of them that went out to war, was in number three hundred thousand and seven and thirty thousand and five hundred sheep:

39 And the asses were thirty thousand and five hundred; of which the LORD's tribute was threescore and one.

40 And the persons were sixteen thousand; of which the LORD's tribute was thirty and two persons.

NOW the [m] children of Reuben and the [n] children of Gad had a very great multitude of cattle: and when they saw the land of [p] Jazer, and the land of [q] Gĭl-ĕ-ăd, that, behold, the place was a place for cattle;

2 The children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spake unto Moses, and to [r] Ĕl-ē-ā-zär the priest, and unto the princes of the congregation, saying,

3 Ăt-ă-rōth, and [t] Dibon, and Jazer, and [2] Nimrah, and [u] Heshbon, and Ĕl-ĕ-ā-lēh, and [3] Shebam, and [x] Nebo, and [4] Beon,

5 Wherefore, said they, if we have [z] found grace in thy sight, let this land be given unto thy servants for a possession, and bring us not over Jordan.

6 ¶ And Moses said unto the children of Gad and to the children of Reuben, Shall your brethren go to war, and shall ye sit here?

7 And wherefore discourage ye the heart of the children of Israel from going over into the land which the LORD hath given them?

8 Thus did your fathers, [d] when I sent them from [e] Kadesh-bär-nĕ-ă to see the land.

9 For when they went up unto the valley of [f] Eshcol, and saw the land, they [g] discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, that they should not go into the land which the LORD had given them.

10 [a] And the LORD's anger [b] was kindled the same time, and [c] he sware, saying,

11 [d] Surely none of the men that came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land [e] which I sware unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob; because they have not wholly followed me:

12 Save [f] Caleb the son of Jĕ-phŭn-nēh the [g] Kē-nĕz-īte, and [h] Joshua the son of Nun: for [k] they have wholly followed the LORD.

13 And the LORD's anger was kindled against Israel, and he [l] made them wander in the wilderness forty years, [o] until all the generation, that had done evil in the sight of the LORD, was consumed.

14 And, behold, ye are risen up in your fathers' stead, an increase of sinful men, to augment yet the fierce anger of the LORD toward Israel.

15 For if ye [s] turn away from after him, he will yet again leave them in the wilderness; and ye shall destroy all this people.

16 ¶ And they came near unto him, and said, We will build sheepfolds here for our cattle, and cities for our little ones:

17 But we ourselves will go ready armed before the children of Israel, until we have brought them unto their place: and our little ones shall dwell in the fenced cities because of the inhabitants of the land.

18 [a] We will not return unto our houses, until the children of Israel have inherited every man his inheritance.

19 For we will not inherit with them on [b] yonder side Jordan, or forward; because our inheritance is fallen to us on this side Jordan eastward.

20 ¶ And [c] Moses said unto them, If ye will do this thing, if ye will go armed before the LORD to war,

21 And will go all of you armed over Jordan before the LORD, until he hath driven out his enemies from before him,

22 And the land be [h] subdued before the LORD: then afterward ye shall return, and be guiltless before the LORD, and before Israel; and [a] this land shall be your possession before the LORD.

23 But if ye will not do so, behold, ye have sinned against the LORD: and [f] be sure your sin will [g] find you out.

24 Build you cities for your little ones, and folds for your sheep; and do that which hath proceeded out of your mouth.

25 And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben spake unto Moses, saying, Thy servants will do as my lord commandeth.

26 Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our cattle, shall be there in the cities of Gĭl'ĕ-ăd:

27 But thy servants will pass over, every man [n] armed for war, before the LORD to battle, as my lord saith.

28 So concerning them Moses commanded Ĕl-ē-ā'zär the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel:

29 And Moses said unto them, If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben will pass with you over Jordan, every man armed to battle, before the LORD, and the land shall be subdued before you; then ye shall give them the land of Gĭl'ĕ-ăd for a possession:

30 But if they will not pass over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Cā'nă-ăn.

31 And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered, saying, As the LORD hath said unto thy servants, so will we do.

32 We will pass over armed before the LORD into the [y] land of Cā'nă-ăn, that the possession of our inheritance on this side Jordan may be our's.

33 And Moses [b] gave unto them, even to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, and unto [e] half the tribe of Mă-năs'sēh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of [f] Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of [g] Og king of Bashan, the land, with the cities thereof in the coasts, even the cities of the country round about.

CHAPTER 33

THESE are the [2] journeys of the children of Israel, which went forth out of the land of Egypt with their [s] armies under the hand of Moses and Aaron.

2 And Moses wrote their goings out [t] according to their journeys by the commandment of the LORD: and these are their journeys according to their goings out.

3 And they departed from [u] Răm'ĕ-sēs in the [x] first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the morrow after the [z] passover the children of Israel went out [a] with an high hand in the sight of all the Egyptians.

4 For the Egyptians buried all their firstborn, [c] which the LORD had smitten among them: [d] upon their gods also the LORD executed judgments.

5 And the children of Israel removed from Răm'ĕ-sēs, and pitched in Succoth.

6 And they departed from [h] Succoth, and pitched in [h] Etham, which is in the edge of the wilderness.

9 And they removed from [e] Mâr'ăh, and came unto [f] Elim: and in Elim were twelve fountains of water, and threescore and ten [h] palm trees; and they pitched there.

47 And they removed from Ăl'mŏn–dĭb–lă–thā'ĭm, and pitched in the [d] mountains of Ăb'ă–rĭm, before [f] Nebo.

48 And they departed from the mountains of Ăb'ă–rĭm, and pitched in the [h] plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho.

49 And they pitched by Jordan, from [l] Bĕth–jĕs'ĭ–mōth even unto [m] Ā'bĕl–shĭt'tĭm in the plains of Moab.

50 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho, saying,

51 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, [q] When ye are passed over Jordan into the land of Cā'nă–ăn;

52 Then [r] ye shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, and destroy all their [3] pictures, and [t] destroy all their molten images, and quite pluck down all their [x] high places:

53 And ye shall dispossess the inhabitants of the land, and dwell therein: for I have given you the land to possess it.

54 And [a] ye shall divide the land by lot for an inheritance among your families: and [b] to the more ye shall give the more inheritance, and to the fewer ye shall give the less inheritance: every man's inheritance shall be in the place where his lot falleth; according to the tribes of your fathers ye shall inherit.

55 But if ye will not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you; then it shall come to pass, that those which ye let remain of them shall be [f] pricks in your eyes, and thorns in your sides, and shall vex you in the land wherein ye dwell.

56 Moreover it shall come to pass, that I shall do unto you, [i] as I thought to do unto them.

CHAPTER 34

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into [b] the land of Cā'nă–ăn; (this is the land that shall fall unto you [c] for an inheritance, even the land of Cā'nă–ăn with the coasts thereof:)

3 Then [e] your south quarter shall be from the [g] wilderness of Zin along by the coast of Edom, and your south border shall be the outmost coast of the [i] salt sea eastward:

4 And your border shall turn from the south to the [k] ascent of Ăk–răb'bĭm, and pass on to Zin: and the going forth thereof shall be from the south to [n] Kadesh–bär'nĕ–ă, and shall go on to [o] Hā'zär–ăd'där, and pass on to [p] Azmon:

5 And the border shall fetch a compass from Azmon unto [2] the river of Egypt, and the goings out of it shall be at the sea.

6 And as for the [s] western border, ye shall even have the great sea for a border: this shall be your west border.

7 And this shall be your [u] north border: from the great sea ye shall point out for you mount Hor:

8 From mount Hor ye shall point out your border unto the [y] entrance of Hā'măth; and the goings forth of the border shall be to [z] Zedad:

9 ¶ And the border shall go on to Ziphron, and the goings out of it shall be at [c] Hā'zär–ē'năn: this shall be your north border.

10 And ye shall point out your [d] east border from Hā'zär–ē'năn to Shepham:

11 And the coast shall go down from Shepham to Riblah, on the east side of Ā'ĭn; and the border shall descend, and shall reach unto the side of the [e] sea of Chinnereth eastward:

12 And the border shall go down to Jordan, and the goings out of it shall be at the [g] salt sea: [h] this shall be your land with the coasts thereof round about.

13 And Moses commanded the children of Israel, saying, This is the land which ye shall [k] inherit by lot, which the LORD commanded to give unto the nine tribes, and to the half tribe:

CHAPTER 35

AND the LORD spake unto Moses in the [b] plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel, that they give unto the Levites of the inheritance of their possession [c] cities to dwell in; and ye shall give also unto the Levites [2] suburbs for the cities round about them.

3 And the cities shall they have to dwell in; and the suburbs of them shall be for their cattle, and for their goods, and for all their beasts.

4 And the suburbs of the cities, which ye shall give unto the Levites, shall reach from the wall of the city and outward a thousand cubits round about.

5 And ye shall measure from without the city on the east side two thousand cubits, and on the south side two thousand cubits, and on the west side two thousand cubits, and on the north side two thousand cubits; and the city shall be in the midst: this shall be to them the suburbs of the cities.

6 And among the cities which ye shall give unto the Levites there shall be six [l] cities for refuge, which ye shall appoint for the manslayer, that he may flee thither: and to them ye shall add forty and two cities.

7 So all the cities which ye shall give to the Levites shall be forty and eight cities: them shall ye give with their suburbs.

8 And the cities which ye shall give shall be of the possession of the children of Israel: [p] from them that have many ye shall give many; but from them that have few ye shall give few: every one shall give of his cities unto the Levites according to his inheritance which he inheriteth.

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, [t] When ye be come over Jordan into the land of Cā'-nă-ăn;

11 Then ye shall appoint you cities to be cities of refuge for you; that the slayer may flee thither, which killeth any person at [2]unawares.

12 And they shall be unto you cities for refuge from [a] the avenger; that the manslayer die not, until he stand before the congregation in judgment.

13 And of these cities which ye shall give six cities shall ye have for refuge.

14 Ye shall give three cities on this side Jordan, and three cities shall ye give in the land of Cā'-nă-ăn, which shall be cities of refuge.

15 These six cities shall be a refuge, both for the children of Israel, and [e] for the stranger, and for the sojourner among them: that every one that killeth any person unawares may flee thither.

16 And if he smite him with an instrument of iron, so that he die, he is a murderer: [h] the murderer shall surely be put to death.

17 And if he smite him with throwing a stone, wherewith he may die, and he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

18 Or if he smite him with an hand weapon of wood, wherewith he may die, and he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

19 The revenger of blood himself shall slay the murderer: when he meeteth him, he shall slay him.

20 But if he thrust him of hatred, or hurl at him by laying of wait, that he die;

21 Or in enmity smite him with his hand, that he die: he that smote him shall surely be put to death; for he is a murderer: the revenger of blood shall slay the murderer, when he meeteth him.

22 But if he thrust him suddenly without enmity, or have cast upon him any thing without [p] laying of wait,

23 Or with any stone, wherewith a man may die, seeing him not, and cast it upon him, that he die, and was not his enemy, neither sought his harm:

24 Then the congregation shall judge between the slayer and the revenger of blood according to these judgments:

26 But if the slayer shall at any time come without the border of the city of his refuge, whither he was fled;

27 And the revenger of blood [d] find him without the borders of the city of his refuge, and the revenger of blood kill the slayer; [f] he shall not be [g] guilty of blood:

33 So ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye are: for blood it [n] defileth the land: and [3] the land cannot [o] be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it.

34 [q] Defile not therefore the land which ye shall inhabit, [r] wherein I dwell: for I the LORD dwell among the children of Israel.

CHAPTER 36

AND the chief fathers of the families of the children of Gĭl'-ĕ-ăd, the son of [s] Mā'-chĭr, the son of Mă-năs'-sēh, of the families of the sons of [a] Joseph, came near, and [b] spake before Moses, and before the princes, the chief fathers of the children of Israel:

2 And they said, The LORD commanded my lord to give the land [d] for an inheritance by lot to the children of Israel: and my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of [f] Zē-lŏph'ĕ-hăd our brother unto his daughters.

3 And if they be married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Israel, then shall their inheritance be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and shall be put to the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they are received: so shall it be taken from the lot of our inheritance.

4 And when the [g] jû'bĭ-lē of the children of Israel shall be, then shall their inheritance be put unto the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they are received: so shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

5 And Moses commanded the children of Israel according to the word of the LORD, saying, The tribe of the sons of Joseph [i] hath said well.

6 This is the thing which the LORD doth command concerning the daughters of Zē-lŏph'ĕ-hăd, saying, Let them marry to whom they think best; only to the family of the tribe of their father shall they marry.

8 And [e] every daughter, that possesseth an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Israel, shall be wife unto one of the family of the tribe of her father, that the children of Israel may enjoy every man the inheritance of his fathers.

9 Neither shall the inheritance remove from one tribe to another tribe; but every one of the tribes of the children of Israel shall keep himself to his own inheritance.

10 Even as the LORD commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zē-lŏph'ĕ-hăd:

11 For Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zē-lŏph'ĕ-hăd, were married unto their father's brothers' sons:

12 And they were married into the families [h] of the sons of Mă-năs'sēh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father.

[k] ch. 3. 1, 10 Nu. 21. 33

3 And it came to pass [a] in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, that Moses spake unto the children of Israel, according unto all that the LORD had given him in commandment unto them;

4 After he had slain [e] Sihon the king of the Amorites, which dwelt in Heshbon, and [f] Og the king of Bashan, which dwelt at Ăs'tă-rōth in [k] Ĕd'rē-ī:

5 On this side Jordan, [a] in the land of Moab, began Moses to declare this law, saying,

6 The LORD our God spake unto us in Horeb, saying, [d] Ye have dwelt [e] long enough in this mount:

7 Turn you, and take your journey, and go to the mount of the Amorites, and unto all the places nigh thereunto, in the plain, in the hills, and in the vale, and in [h] the south, and [i] by the sea side, to [k] the land of the [m] Cā'-nă-ăn-ītes, and unto [n] Lebanon, unto the great river, the river [o] Eû-phrā'-tēs.

8 Behold, I have set the land before you: go in and possess the land [q] which the LORD sware unto your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give unto them and to their seed after them.

9 ¶ And I spake unto you at that time, saying, [r] I am not able to bear you myself alone:

10 The LORD your God hath [s] multiplied you, and, behold, ye are this day [t] as the stars of heaven for multitude.

11 [x] (The LORD God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many more as ye are, and bless you, as he hath promised you!)

12 [y] How can I myself alone bear your cumbrance, and your burden, and your strife?

13 [b] Take you wise men, and understanding, and known among your tribes, and I will make them rulers over you.

14 And ye answered me, and said, The thing which thou hast spoken is good for us to do.

15 So I took the chief of your tribes, wise men, and known, and made them heads over you, [g] captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, and captains over fifties, and captains over tens, and [i] officers among your tribes.

16 And I charged your judges at that time, saying, [m] Hear the causes between your brethren, and [n] judge righteously between every man and his brother, and the [o] stranger that is with him.

17 Ye shall [b] not respect persons in judgment; but ye shall hear [c] the small as well as the great; ye shall not be afraid of the face of man; for the judgment is God's: and the cause that is [f] too hard for you, [g] bring it unto me, and I will hear it.

18 And I commanded you at that time all the things which ye should do.

19 ¶ And when we departed from Horeb, we went through all [l] that great and terrible wilderness, which ye saw by the way of the mountain of the [p] Amorites, as the LORD our God commanded us; and we came to Kadesh-bär'-nĕ-ă.

20 And I said unto you, Ye are come unto the mountain of the Amorites, which the LORD our God doth give unto us.

21 Behold, the LORD thy God hath set the land before thee: go up and possess it, as the LORD God of thy fathers hath said unto thee; fear not, neither be discouraged.

22 ¶ And ye came near unto me every one of you, and said, [u] We will send men before us, and they shall search us out the land, and bring us word again by what way we must go up, and into what cities we shall come.

23 And the saying pleased me well: and [z] I took [a] twelve men of you, one of a tribe:

24 And [c] they turned and went up into the mountain, and came unto the [d] valley of Eshcol, and searched it out.

25 And they took of [e] the fruit of the land in their hands, and brought it down unto us, and brought us word again, and said, It is [f] a good land which the LORD our God doth give us.

26 Notwithstanding ye would not go up, but [h] rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God:

27 And ye [k] murmured in your tents, and said, Because the LORD [l] hated us, he hath brought us forth out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us.

28 Whither shall we go up? [p] our brethren have discouraged our heart, saying, [a] The people is greater and taller than we; the cities are great and [b] walled up to heaven; and moreover we have seen the sons of the [c] Ăn-ă-kĭmṣ there.

29 Then I said unto you, Dread not, [e] neither be afraid of them.

30 The LORD your God which goeth before you, [g] he shall fight for you, according to all that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes;

31 And in the wilderness, where thou hast seen how that the LORD thy God [k] bare thee, as a man doth bear his son, in all the way that ye went, until ye came into this place.

32 Yet [3] in this thing ye did not [n] believe the LORD your God,

33 [p] Who went in the way before you, [q] to search you out a place to pitch your tents in, in fire by night, to shew you by what way ye should go, and [r] in a cloud by day.

34 [s] And the LORD heard the voice of your words, and was wroth, and sware, saying,

35 [t] Surely there shall not one of these men of this [u] evil generation see that good land, which I sware to give unto your fathers,

36 Save [z] Caleb the son of Jĕ-phŭn-nēh; he shall see it, and to him will I give the land that [b] he hath trodden upon, and to his children, because [c] he hath wholly followed the LORD.

37 Also [d] the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, saying, Thou also shalt not go in thither.

38 But [f] Joshua the son of Nun, [h] which standeth before thee, he shall go in thither: [i] encourage him: for he shall cause Israel to inherit it.

39 Moreover [k] your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, and your children, which in that day [l] had no knowledge between good and evil, they shall go in thither, and unto them will I give it, and they shall possess it.

40 But as for you, [o] turn you, and take your journey into the wilderness by the way of the [p] Red sea.

41 Then ye answered and said unto me, [q] We have sinned against the LORD, [q] we will go up and fight, according to all that the LORD our God commanded us. And when ye had girded on every man his weapons of war, ye [2] were ready to go up into the hill.

42 And the LORD said unto me, Say unto them, [d] Go not up, neither fight; [f] for I am not among you; lest ye be smitten before your enemies.

43 So I spake unto you; and ye would not hear, but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD, and [h] went [i] presumptuously up into the hill.

44 And the Amorites, which dwelt in that mountain, came out against you, and [l] chased you, [m] as bees do, and destroyed you in Seir, even unto [o] Hormah.

45 And ye returned and wept before the LORD; but the LORD would not hearken to your voice, nor give ear unto you.

46 So ye abode in Kadesh many days, according unto the days that ye abode there.

CHAPTER 2

THEN we turned, and took our journey into the wilderness by the way of the [x] Red sea, [y] as the LORD spake unto me: and we compassed [a] mount Seir many days.

2 And the LORD spake unto me, saying,

3 Ye have compassed this mountain [e] long enough: turn you northward.

4 And command thou the people, saying, Ye are to pass through the coast of [g] your brethren the children of Esau, which dwell in Seir; and they shall be afraid of you: take ye good heed unto yourselves therefore:

5 Meddle not with them; for I will not give you of their land, no, not so much as a foot breadth; because I have given mount Seir [m] unto Esau for a possession.

6 [n] Ye shall buy meat of them for money, that ye may eat; and ye shall also buy water of them for money, that ye may drink.

7 For the LORD thy God hath blessed thee in all the works of thy hand: he knoweth thy walking through [r] this great wilderness: [s] these forty years the LORD thy God hath been with thee; thou hast lacked nothing.

8 And when we passed by from our brethren the children of Esau, which dwelt in Seir, through the way of [b] the plain from [c] Elath, and from [d] Ē'zĭ-ŏn-gā'bĕr, [f] we turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab.

9 And the LORD said unto me, Distress not [g] the Moabites, neither contend with them in battle: for I will not give thee of their land for a possession; because I have given [h] Ar unto the [i] children of Lot for a possession.

10 The [k] Ē'mĭmṡ dwelt therein in times past, a people great, and many, and tall, as the [l] Ăn'ă-kĭmṡ;

11 Which also were accounted [4]giants, as the Ăn'ă-kĭmṡ; but the Moabites call them Ē'mĭmṡ.

12 The [o] Horims also dwelt in Seir beforetime; but the children of Esau succeeded them, when they had destroyed them from before them, and dwelt in their stead; as Israel did unto the land of his possession, which the LORD gave unto them.

13 Now rise up, said I, and get you over the brook [s] Zered. And we went over the brook Zered.

14 And the space in which we came from [u] Kadesh-bărˈnĕ-ă, [x] until we were come over the brook Zered, was thirty and eight years; until all the generation of the men of war were wasted out from among the host, as the LORD sware unto them.

15 For indeed the hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from among the host, until they were consumed.

16 ¶ So it came to pass, when all the men of war were consumed and dead from among the people,

17 That the LORD spake unto me, saying,

18 Thou art to pass over through Ar, the coast of Moab, this day:

19 And when thou comest nigh over against the children of [d] Ammon, distress them not, nor meddle with them: for I will not give thee of the land of the children of Ammon any possession; because I have given it unto the [a] children of Lot for a possession.

20 (That also was accounted a land of giants: giants dwelt therein in old time; and the Ammonites call them [e] Zăm-zŭmˈmĭmṡ;

21 A people great, and many, and tall, as the Ăn'ă-kĭmṡ; but the LORD destroyed them before them; and they succeeded them, and dwelt in their stead:

22 As he did to the children of Esau, which dwelt in Seir, when he destroyed the Horims from before them; and they succeeded them, and dwelt in their stead even unto this day:

23 And the [m] Avims which dwelt in [2]Hă-zē'rĭm, even unto [3]Azzah, the [n] Căph'tō-rĭmṡ, which came forth out of Caphtor, destroyed them, and dwelt in their stead.)

24 ¶ Rise ye up, take your journey, and pass over the river [p] Arnon: behold, I have given into thine hand [q] Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land: begin to possess it, and contend with him in battle.

25 This day will I begin to put [r] the dread of thee and the fear of thee upon the nations that are under the whole heaven, [t] who shall hear report of thee, and shall tremble, and be in anguish because of thee.

26 ¶ And [y] I sent messengers out of the wilderness of [z] Kē'dĕ-mōth unto Sihon king of Heshbon [a] with words of peace, saying, 27 [b] Let me pass through thy land: I will go along by the high way, I will neither turn unto the right hand nor to the left.

28 Thou shalt sell me meat for money, that I may eat; and give me water for money, that I may drink: only I will pass through on my feet;

29 [c] (As the children of Esau which dwell in Seir, and the Moabites which dwell in Ar, did unto me;) until I shall pass over Jordan into the land which the LORD our God giveth us.

30 But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him: for the LORD thy God [e] hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, that he

3 So the LORD our God delivered into our hands Og also, the king of Bashan, and all his people: and we smote him until none was left to him remaining.

4 And we took all his cities at that time, there was not a city which we took not from them, threescore cities, all the [a] region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

5 All these cities were fenced with high walls, gates, and bars; beside [c] unwalled towns a great many.

6 And we [a] utterly destroyed them, as we did unto Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying the men, women, and children, of every city.

7 But all the cattle, and the spoil of the cities, we took for a prey to ourselves.

8 And we took at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites the land that was on this side Jordan, from the river of [c] Arnon unto mount [d] Hermon;

9 (Which Hermon the Ṡī-dō'nĭ-ăns call [f] Sĭ'rĭ-on; and the Amorites call it [g] Shē'nĭr;)

10 All the cities of the [2] plain, and all Gĭl'ĕ-ăd, and all Bashan, unto [h] Săl'chăh and Ĕd'rĕ-ī, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

11 For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of [4] giants; behold, his [5] bedstead was a bedstead of [6] iron; is it not in [l] Rabbath of the children of Ammon? nine cubits was the length thereof, and four cubits the breadth of it, after the cubit [7] of a man.

12 And this land, which we possessed at that time, from [n] Ă-rō'ĕr, which is by the river Arnon, and half [o] mount Gĭl'ĕ-ăd, and the cities thereof, [p] gave I unto the Reubenites and to the Gadites.

13 And the rest of Gĭl'ĕ-ăd, and all Bashan, being the kingdom of Og, gave I unto the half tribe of Mă-năs'sēh; all the region of Argob, with all Bashan, which was called the [s] land of giants.

14 [t] Jā'ĭr the son of Mă-năs'sēh took all the country of Argob unto the coasts of [x] Gĕ-shū'rī and [y] Mā-ăch'ă-thī; and called them after his own name, Bā'shăn-hā'vōth-jā'ĭr, unto this day.

15 And I gave Gĭl'ĕ-ăd unto [z] Mā'chĭr.

16 And unto the Reubenites and unto the Gadites I gave from Gĭl'ĕ-ăd even unto the river Arnon [8] half the valley, and the border even unto the river [b] Jabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon;

17 [9] The plain also, and Jordan, and the coast thereof, from [d] Chinnereth even unto the sea of the plain, even the [a] salt sea, under [2] Ăsh'-dōth-[b] pĭs'-găh eastward.

18 ¶ And [c] I commanded you at that time, saying, The LORD your God hath given you this land to possess it: ye shall pass over armed before your brethren the children of Israel, all that are meet for the war.

19 But your wives, and your little ones, and your cattle, (for I know that ye have much cattle,) shall abide in your cities which I have given you;

20 [g] Until the LORD have given rest unto your brethren, as well as unto you, and until they also possess the land which the LORD your God hath given them beyond Jordan: and then shall ye return every man unto his possession, which I have given you.

21 ¶ And I commanded [i] Joshua at that time, saying, Thine eyes have seen all that the LORD your God hath done unto these two kings: so shall the LORD do unto all the kingdoms whither thou passest.

22 Ye shall not fear them: for the LORD your God [n] he shall fight for you.

23 And I besought the LORD at that time, saying,

24 O Lord GOD, thou hast begun to shew thy servant [o] thy greatness, and [q] thy mighty hand: for [r] what God is there in heaven or in earth, that can do according to thy works, and according to thy might?

25 I pray thee, let me go over, and see the [s] good land that is beyond Jordan, that goodly mountain, and [u] Lebanon.

26 But [x] the LORD was wroth with me for your sakes, and would not hear me: and the LORD said unto me, Let it suffice thee; speak no more unto me of this matter.

27 [y] Get thee up into the top of [z] Pisgah, and lift up thine eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and behold it with thine eyes: for [d] thou shalt not go over this Jordan.

28 But [f] charge Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him: for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which thou shalt see.

29 So we abode in the valley over against Beth-peor.

CHAPTER 4

NOW therefore hearken, O Israel, unto [d] the statutes and unto the judgments, [e] which I teach you, for to do them, that ye may live, and go in and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers giveth you.

2 [f] Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you.

3 Your eyes have seen what the LORD did because of [h] Bā'-ăl-pē'-ôr: for [k] all the men that followed Baal-peor, the LORD thy God [l] hath destroyed them from among you.

4 But ye that did [m] cleave unto the LORD your God are alive every one of you this day.

5 Behold, I have taught you statutes and judgments, even as the LORD my God commanded me, that ye should do so in the land whither ye go to possess it.

6 Keep therefore and do them; for [p] this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes, and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.

7 For what nation is there so great, who hath God [t] so nigh unto them, as the LORD our God is in all things that we call upon him for?

8 And what nation is there so great, that hath statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day?

9 Only take heed to thyself, and [a] keep thy soul diligently, [b] lest thou forget the things [c] which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life: but [e] teach them thy sons, and thy sons' sons;

10 Specially the day that [g] thou stoodest before the LORD thy God in [h] Horeb, when the LORD said unto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may [b] learn to fear me [c] all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and [e] that they may teach their children.

11 And ye came near and stood under the mountain; and the mountain burned [f] with fire unto the midst of heaven, with darkness, clouds, and [g] thick darkness.

12 And the LORD [h] spake unto you out of the midst of the fire: ye heard the voice of the words, [i] but saw no similitude; only ye heard a voice.

13 And [l] he declared unto you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, even [2]ten commandments; and [n] he wrote them upon two tables of stone.

14 ¶ And the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and [p] judgments, that ye might do them in the land whither ye go over to possess it.

15 Take ye therefore good heed unto yourselves; for ye saw no manner of similitude on the day that the LORD spake unto you in Horeb out of the midst of the fire:

16 [s] Lest ye corrupt yourselves, and [t] make you a graven image, the similitude of any figure, the likeness of male or female,

17 The [y] likeness of any beast that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged fowl that flieth in the air,

18 The likeness of any thing that creepeth on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth:

19 And lest thou [d] lift up thine eyes unto heaven, and when thou seest the sun, and the moon, and the stars, even all the [e] host of heaven, shouldest be driven to worship them, and serve them, which [h] the LORD thy God hath divided unto all nations under the whole heaven.

20 But the LORD hath taken you, and brought you forth out of [l] the iron furnace, even [m] out of Egypt, to be unto him [n] a people of [o] inheritance, as ye are this day.

21 Furthermore [q] the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, and [a] sware that I should not go over Jordan, and that I should not go in unto that [d] good land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance:

22 But I must die in this land, I must not go over Jordan: but ye shall go over, and possess that good land.

23 Take heed unto yourselves, lest ye forget the covenant of the LORD your God, which he made with you, and make you a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, which the LORD thy God hath forbidden thee.

24 For the LORD thy God is a [k] consuming fire, even a [m] jealous God.

25 ¶ When thou shalt beget children, and children's children, and ye shall have remained long in the land, and shall corrupt yourselves, and make a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, and [o] shall do evil in the sight of the LORD thy God, [3]to provoke him to anger:

26 [q] I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that ye shall soon utterly perish from off the land whereunto ye go over Jordan to possess it; ye shall [r] not prolong your days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed.

27 And the LORD [u] shall scatter you among the nations, and [x] ye shall be left few in number among the heathen, whither the LORD shall lead you.

28 And [z] there ye shall serve gods, [a] the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.

29 But [b] if from thence [c] thou shalt seek the LORD thy God, thou shalt find him, if thou seek him with all thy heart and with all thy soul.

30 When thou art in tribulation, and all these things are come upon thee, even [f] in the latter days, if [g] thou turn to the LORD thy God, and shalt be obedient unto his voice;

31 (For the LORD thy God is [i] a merciful God;) [k] he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers which he sware unto them.

32 For [p] ask now of the days that are past, which were before thee, since the day that God created man upon the earth, and ask from the one side of heaven unto the other, whether there hath been any such thing as this great thing is, or hath been heard like it?

33 [d] Did ever people hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as thou hast heard, and live?

34 Or hath God assayed to go and take him a nation from the midst of another nation, by [2]temptations, by [e] signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a [f] mighty hand, and by a [g] stretched out arm, and by [h] great terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

35 Unto thee it was shewed, [i] that thou mightest know that the LORD he is God; [m] there is none else beside him.

36 [n] Out of heaven he made thee to hear his voice, that he might instruct thee: and upon earth he shewed thee his great fire; and thou heardest his words out of the midst of the fire.

37 And because [q] he loved thy fathers, therefore he chose their seed after them, and brought thee out [3]in his sight with his mighty power out of Egypt;

38 [t] To drive out nations from before thee [x] greater and mightier than thou art, to bring thee in, to give thee their land for an inheritance, as it is this day.

39 Know therefore this day, and consider it in thine heart, that [a] the LORD he is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: there is none else.

40 [c] Thou shalt keep therefore his statutes, and his commandments, which I command thee this day, [f] that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and [g] that thou mayest prolong thy days upon the earth, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, for ever.

41 ¶ Then Moses [k] severed three cities on this side Jordan toward the sun rising;

42 [n] That the slayer might flee thither, which should kill his neighbour unawares, and hated him not in times past; and that fleeing unto one of these cities he might live:

43 Namely, [a] Bezer in the wilderness, [b] in the plain country, of the Reubenites; and [c] Ramoth in Gĭl'ĕ-ăd, of the Gadites; and [c] Golan in Bashan, of the Mă-năs'-sītes.

44 ¶ And this is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel:

45 These are the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments, which Moses spake unto the children of Israel, after they came forth out of Egypt,

46 On this side Jordan, in the valley over against [i] Beth-peor, in the land of [k] Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel smote, after they were come forth out of Egypt:

47 And they possessed his land, and the land of [o] Og king of Bashan, two kings of the Amorites, which were on this side Jordan toward the sun rising;

48 From [p] Ă-rō'ĕr, which is by the bank of the river [r] Arnon, even unto mount Sion, which is [s] Hermon, 49 And all [4]the plain on this side Jordan eastward, even unto the sea of the plain, under the [5]springs of [u] Pisgah.

CHAPTER 5

AND Moses called all Israel, and said unto them, Hear, O Israel, the [y] statutes and judgments [z] which I speak in your ears this day, that ye may learn them, and keep, and do them.

2 [b] The LORD our God made a covenant with us in [d] Horeb.

3 The LORD [e] made not this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us, who are all of us here alive this day.

4 The LORD [h] talked with you face to face in the mount out of the midst of the [i] fire,

5 ([l] I stood between the LORD and you at that time, to shew you the word of the LORD: for [m] ye were afraid by reason of the fire, and went not up into the mount;) saying,

22 ¶ These words the LORD spake unto all your assembly in the mount out of the midst of the fire, of the cloud, and of the [l] thick darkness, with a great voice: and he added no more. And [n] he wrote them in [o] two tables of stone, and delivered them unto me.

23 And it came to pass, when ye heard the voice out of the midst of the darkness, (for the mountain did burn with fire,) that ye came near unto me, even all the heads of your tribes, and your [t] elders;

24 And ye said, Behold, the LORD our God hath shewed us [x] his glory and [y] his greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the midst of the fire: we have seen this day that [z] God doth talk with man, [a] and he liveth.

25 Now therefore why should we die? for this great fire will consume us: [d] if we hear the voice of the LORD our God any more, then we shall die.

26 For who is there of all flesh, that hath heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived?

27 Go thou near, and hear all that the LORD our God shall say: and speak thou unto us all that the LORD our God shall speak unto thee; and [k] we will hear it, and do it.

28 And the LORD heard the voice of your words, when ye spake unto me; and the LORD said unto me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people, which they have spoken unto thee: [p] they have well said all that they have spoken.

29 [r] O that there were such an heart in them, that they would [s] fear me, and keep all my commandments always, that it might be well with them, and with their children for ever!

30 Go say to them, Get you into your tents again.

31 But as for thee, stand thou here by me, and I will speak unto thee all the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which thou shalt teach them, that they may do them in the land which I give them to possess it.

32 [e] Ye shall observe to do therefore as the LORD your God hath commanded you: [g] ye shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

33 Ye shall [i] walk in all the ways which the LORD your God hath commanded you, that ye may live, and that it may be well with you, and that ye may prolong your days in the land which ye shall possess.

CHAPTER 6

NOW [o] these are the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments, which the LORD your God commanded to [s] teach you, that ye might do them in the land whither ye go to possess it:

2 [u] That thou mightest fear the LORD thy God, to keep all his statutes and his commandments, which I command thee, thou, and thy son, and thy son's son, all the days of thy life; and [a] that thy days may be prolonged.

3 ¶ Hear therefore, O Israel, and observe to do it; that it [d] may be well with thee, and that ye may [f] increase mightily, as the LORD God of thy fathers hath promised thee, in the [g] land that floweth with milk and honey.

4 Hear, O Israel: [i] The LORD our God is one LORD:

5 And [k] thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.

6 And [m] these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart:

7 And [o] thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

8 And [q] thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as [a] frontlets between thine eyes.

9 And thou shalt write them upon the [b] posts of thy house, and on thy gates.

10 And it shall be, when the LORD thy God [c] shall have brought thee into the land [d] which he sware unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give thee great and goodly cities, [f] which thou buildedst not,

11 And houses full of all [h] good things, which thou filledst not, and [2] wells digged, which thou diggedst not, vineyards and olive trees, which thou plantedst not; when thou shalt have eaten and be full;

12 [k] Then beware [l] lest thou forget the LORD, [m] which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the [n] house of bondage.

13 Thou shalt [p] fear the LORD thy God, and [q] serve him, and [r] shalt swear by his name.

14 Ye [i] shall not go after other gods, of the gods of the people which are round about you;

15 (For the LORD thy God is a [x] jealous God [y] among you) lest the anger of the LORD thy God be kindled against thee, and [z] destroy thee from off the face of the earth.

16 ¶ [b] Ye shall not tempt the LORD your God, [c] as ye tempted him in [e] Massah.

17 Ye shall diligently keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and his testimonies, and his statutes, which he hath commanded thee.

18 And thou shalt [h] do that which is right and good in the sight of the LORD: that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest go in and possess the [l] good land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, 19 [n] To cast out all thine enemies from before thee, as the LORD hath spoken.

20 And [p] when thy son asketh thee in time to come, saying, What mean the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments, which the LORD our God hath commanded you?

Egypt; and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a [a] mighty hand:

22 And the LORD shewed [b] signs and wonders, great and sore, upon Egypt, upon Phâr'-āōh, and upon all his household, before our eyes:

23 And he brought us out from thence, that he might bring us in, to give us the land which he sware unto our fathers.

24 And the LORD commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear the LORD our God, [f] for our good always, [g] that he might preserve us alive, as it is at this day.

25 And it shall be our [i] righteousness, if we observe to do all these commandments before the LORD our God, as he hath commanded us.

CHAPTER 7

[o] WHEN the LORD thy God shall bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possess it, and [q] hath cast out many nations before thee, [r] the Hittites, and the [s] Gĭr'-gă-shītes, and the Amorites, and the [u] Cā'-nă-ăn-ītes, and the Pĕ-rĭz'-zītes, and the Hivites, and the Jĕb'-ū-sītes, seven nations [x] greater and mightier than thou;

2 And when the LORD thy God shall deliver them before thee; thou shalt smite them, and [2] utterly destroy them; [z] thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor shew mercy unto them:

3 [d] Neither shalt thou make marriages with them; thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt thou take unto thy son.

4 For they will turn away thy son from following me, that they may serve other gods: so will the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, [g] and destroy thee suddenly.

5 But thus shall ye deal with them; ye shall [i] destroy their altars, and break down their [3] images, and cut down their [4] groves, and burn their graven images with fire.

6 For [m] thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God: the LORD thy God hath chosen thee [n] to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth.

7 The LORD did not [c] set his love upon you, nor choose you, because ye were more in number than any people; for ye were the fewest of all people:

8 But because the LORD loved you, and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn unto your fathers, hath the LORD brought you out with a [d] mighty hand, and [e] redeemed you out of the house of bondmen, from the hand of [h] Phâr'-āōh king of Egypt.

9 Know therefore that the LORD thy God, he is God, the [k] faithful God, [l] which keepeth covenant [m] and mercy with [n] them that love him and keep his commandments to a thousand generations;

10 And repayeth [p] them that hate him to their face, to destroy them: he will not be slack to him that hateth him, he will repay him to his face.

11 Thou shalt therefore keep the commandments, and the [t] statutes, and the judgments, which I command thee this day, to do them.

12 ¶ Wherefore it shall come to pass, [y] if ye hearken to these judgments, and keep, and do them, that the LORD thy God shall keep unto thee the covenant and the mercy which he sware unto thy fathers:

13 And he will [a] love thee, and bless thee, and [b] multiply thee: [c] he will also bless the fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy land, [e] thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep, in the land which he sware unto thy fathers to give thee.

14 Thou shalt be blessed above all people: [f] there shall not be male or female barren among you, or among your cattle.

15 And the LORD [h] will take away from thee all sickness, and will put none of the [k] evil diseases of Egypt, which thou knowest, upon thee; [l] but will lay them upon all them that hate thee.

16 And thou shalt consume all the people which the LORD thy God shall

CHAPTER 8

ALL the commandments which I command thee this day [c] shall ye observe to do, [d] that ye may live, and [e] multiply, and go in and possess the land [f] which the LORD sware unto your fathers.

2 And thou shalt remember all the way which the LORD thy God led thee these [h] forty years in the wilderness, [k] to humble thee, and [l] to prove thee, [n] to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or no.

3 And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with [q] manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know that [s] man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD doth man live.

4 [t] Thy raiment [u] waxed not old upon thee, neither did thy foot swell, these forty years.

5 Thou shalt also consider in thine heart, that, [z] as a man chasteneth his son, [b] so the LORD thy God chasteneth thee.

6 Therefore thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, [c] to walk in his ways, and [d] to fear him.

7 For the LORD thy God [e] bringeth thee into [f] a good land, [g] a land of brooks of water, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills;

8 [l] A land of wheat, and [m] barley, and vines, and [n] fig trees, and [o] pomegranates; a land of [p] oil olive, and honey;

9 A land wherein thou shalt eat bread without scarceness, thou shalt not lack any thing in it; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills thou mayest dig brass.

10 [t] When thou hast eaten and art full, then thou shalt bless the LORD thy God for the good land which he hath given thee.

11 [u] Beware that thou forget not the LORD thy God, in not keeping his commandments, and his judgments, and his statutes, which I command thee this day:

12 [a] Lest when thou hast eaten and art full, and hast built goodly houses, and dwelt therein;

13 And when thy herds and thy flocks multiply, and thy silver and thy gold is multiplied, and all that thou hast is multiplied;

14 Then thine heart be lifted up, and thou forget the LORD thy God, [f] which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the [g] house of bondage;

15 Who [i] led thee through that [k] great and terrible wilderness, wherein were fiery [m] serpents, and [n] scorpions, and drought, where there was [o] no water; [p] who brought thee forth water out of [q] the rock of flint;

16 Who fed thee in the wilderness with manna, which thy fathers knew not, that he might humble thee, and that he might prove thee, [r] to do thee good at [s] thy latter end;

17 [u] And thou say in thine heart, My power and the might of mine hand hath gotten me this wealth.

18 But thou shalt remember the LORD thy God: for [x] it is he that giveth thee power to get wealth, [z] that he may establish his covenant which he sware unto thy fathers, as it is this day.

19 And it shall be, if thou do at all forget the LORD thy God, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, [c] I testify against you this day that [e] ye shall surely perish.

20 As the nations which the LORD destroyeth before your face, so shall ye perish; because ye would not be obedient unto the voice of the LORD your God.

CHAPTER 9

HEAR, O Israel: Thou art to [k] pass over Jordan this day, to go in to possess nations [m] greater and mightier than thyself, cities great and [n] fenced up to heaven,

2 A [p] people great and tall, the [q] children of the Ăn'ă-kĭms, whom thou knowest, and of whom thou hast heard say, Who can stand before the children of Anak!

3 Understand therefore this day, that the LORD thy God is he which [b] goeth over before thee; as a [c] consuming fire he shall destroy them, and he shall bring them down before thy face: [d] so shalt thou drive them out, and destroy them quickly, as the LORD hath said unto thee.

4 [e] Speak not thou in thine heart, after that the LORD thy God hath cast them out from before thee, saying, [h] For my righteousness the LORD hath brought me in to possess this land: but [l] for the wickedness of these nations the LORD doth drive them out from before thee.

5 Not for thy righteousness, or for the uprightness of thine heart, dost thou go to possess their land: but for the wickedness of these nations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee, and that he may perform [t] the word which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

6 Understand therefore, that the LORD thy God giveth thee not this [y] good land to possess it for thy righteousness; for thou art [a] a stiffnecked people.

7 ¶ Remember, and [b] forget not, how thou provokedst the LORD thy God to wrath in the wilderness: from the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came unto this place, [d] ye have been rebellious against the LORD.

8 Also in [f] Horeb ye provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the LORD was angry with you to have destroyed you.

9 When I was [g] gone up into the mount to receive the [h] tables of stone, even the tables of the [i] covenant which the LORD made with you, then I abode in the mount [l] forty days and forty nights, I neither did eat bread nor drink water:

10 And the LORD delivered unto me two tables of stone written with [o] the finger of God; and on them was [r] written according to all the words, which the LORD spake with you in the mount out of the midst of [a] the fire in [b] the day of the assembly.

11 And it came to pass at the end of forty days and forty nights, that the LORD gave me the two tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant.

12 [g] And the LORD said unto me, Arise, get thee down quickly from hence; for thy people which thou hast [i] brought forth out of Egypt have [k] corrupted themselves; they are quickly [l] turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; [n] they have made them a molten image.

13 Furthermore the LORD spake unto me, saying, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people:

14 [p] Let me alone, that I may destroy them, and [r] blot out their name from under heaven: and [s] I will make of thee a nation mightier and greater than they.

15 [t] So I turned and came down from the mount, and the mount [y] burned with fire: and the two tables of the covenant were in my two hands.

16 [b] And I looked, and, behold, ye had sinned against the LORD your God, and had made you a molten calf: ye had turned aside quickly out of the way which the LORD had commanded you.

17 And I took the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and brake them before your eyes.

18 And I fell down [d] before the LORD, [e] as at the first, forty days and forty nights: I did neither eat bread, nor drink water, because of all your sins which ye sinned, [f] in doing wickedly in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

19 [h] For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure, wherewith the LORD was wroth against you to destroy you. [k] But the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also.

20 And the LORD was very angry with Aaron to have destroyed him: and [n] I prayed for Aaron also the same time.

21 And I took [p] your sin, the calf which ye had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, and ground it very small, even until it was as small as dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the brook that descended out of the mount.

22 And at [c] Tăb'ĕ-räh, and at [d] Massah, and at [e] Kĭb'rōth-hăt-tā'ă-väh, [f] ye provoked the LORD to wrath.

23 Likewise when the LORD sent you from [h] Kadesh-bär'nĕ-ă, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you; then ye rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God, and [m] ye believed him not, [o] nor hearkened to his voice.

24 Ye have been rebellious against the LORD from the day that I knew you.

25 Thus I fell down before the LORD [q] forty days and forty nights, as I fell down at the first; because the LORD had said he would destroy you.

26 I prayed therefore unto the LORD, and said, O Lord GOD, destroy not thy people and [u] thine inheritance, which thou hast [x] redeemed through [z] thy greatness, which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt [a] with a mighty hand.

27 Remember thy servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; look not unto the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin:

28 Lest the land whence thou broughtest us out say, [c] Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land which he promised them, and because he hated them, he hath brought them out to slay them in the wilderness.

29 Yet they are thy people and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest out by thy mighty power and by thy [g] stretched out arm.

CHAPTER 10

[i] AT that time the LORD said unto me, Hew thee two [l] tables of stone like unto the first, and come up unto me into the mount, and make thee [m] an ark of wood.

2 And [o] I will write on the tables the words that were in the first tables which thou brakest, and [q] thou shalt put them in the ark.

3 And [r] I made an ark of [s] shittim wood, and hewed two tables of stone like unto the first, and [a] went up into the mount, having the two tables in mine hand.

4 And he wrote on the tables, according to the first writing, the ten [2]commandments, which the LORD spake unto you in the mount out of the midst of the [f] fire in the [f] day of the assembly: and the LORD gave them unto me.

5 And I turned myself and [h] came down from the mount, and [k] put the tables in the ark which I had made; [m] and there they be, as the LORD commanded me.

6 ¶ And the children of Israel took their journey from Beeroth of the [r] children of Jā'ă-kăn to [s] Mō'sĕ-rā: [t] there Aaron died, and there he was buried; and [u] Ĕl-ē-ā'zär his son ministered in the priest's office in his stead.

7 From thence they journeyed unto [z] Gŭd-gō'dăh; and from Gudgodah to [a] Jotbath, a land of rivers of waters.

8 ¶ At that time the LORD [c] separated the [e] tribe of Levi, [f] to bear the ark of the covenant of the LORD, [h] to stand before the LORD [h] to minister unto him, and [k] to bless in his name, unto this day.

9 [n] Wherefore Levi hath no part nor inheritance with his brethren; [o] the LORD is his inheritance, according as the LORD thy God promised him.

10 And I stayed in the mount, [q] according to the first time, forty days and forty nights; and the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also, [s] and the LORD would not destroy thee.

12 ¶ And now, Israel, [c] what doth the LORD thy God require of thee, but [d] to fear the LORD thy God, [e] to walk in all his ways, and [h] to love him, and [k] to serve the LORD thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul,

14 Behold, the heaven and [b] the heaven of heavens [c] is the LORD's thy God, [d] the earth also, with all that therein is.

15 Only [e] the LORD had a delight in thy fathers to love them, and he chose their seed after them, even you above all people, as it is this day.

16 [g] Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more [i] stiffnecked.

17 For the LORD your God is [l] God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, a mighty, and [n] a terrible, which [o] regardeth not persons, [p] nor taketh reward:

18 [q] He doth execute the judgment of the fatherless and widow, and loveth the stranger, in giving him food and raiment.

19 [x] Love ye therefore the stranger: [y] for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

20 [b] Thou shalt fear the LORD thy God; him shalt thou serve, and [d] to him shalt thou cleave, and swear [g] by his name.

21 [i] He is thy praise, and he is thy God, that hath done for thee these great and [l] terrible things, [m] which thine eyes have seen.

22 Thy fathers went down into Egypt [p] with threescore and ten persons; and now the LORD thy God hath made thee [r] as the stars of heaven for multitude.

CHAPTER 11

THEREFORE thou shalt [t] love the LORD thy God, and keep [x] his charge, and [y] his statutes, and his judgments, and his commandments, alway.

2 And know ye this day: for I speak not with [b] your children which have not known, and which have not seen [3]the chastisement of the LORD your God, [f] his greatness, his [g] mighty hand, and his [i] stretched out arm,

3 And his [l] miracles, and his acts, which he did in the midst of Egypt unto [m] Phâr'āōh the king of Egypt, and unto all his land;

5 And what he did unto you in the wilderness, until ye came into this place;

6 And what he did unto [h] Dathan and Ă-bī'-răm, the sons of Ē-lī'-ăb, the [k] son of Reuben: [l] how the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and their tents, and [p] all the substance that was [2] in their possession, in the midst of all Israel:

7 But [r] your eyes have seen all the great acts of the LORD which he did.

8 Therefore shall ye keep all the commandments which I command you this day, that ye may [x] be strong, and go in and possess the land, whither ye go to possess it;

9 And that ye may [y] prolong your days in the land, [z] which the LORD sware unto your fathers to give unto them and to their seed, [b] a land that floweth with milk and honey.

10 ¶ For the land, whither thou goest in to possess it, is not [d] as the land of Egypt, from whence ye came out, where thou sowedst thy seed, and wateredst it with thy foot, as a [g] garden of herbs:

11 [h] But the land, whither ye go to possess it, is a land of hills and valleys, and drinketh water of the rain of heaven:

12 [m] A land which the LORD thy God [3] careth for: [o] the eyes of the LORD thy God are always upon it, from the beginning of the year even unto the end of the year.

29 And it shall come to pass, [p] when the LORD thy God hath brought thee in unto the land whither thou goest to possess it, that thou shalt put the blessing upon mount [r] Gĕ-rī'zĭm, and the curse upon mount [t] Ebal.

31 For [c] ye shall pass over Jordan to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God giveth you, and ye shall possess it, and dwell therein.

32 And ye shall [d] observe to do all the statutes and judgments which I set before you this day.

CHAPTER 12

[e] THESE are the statutes and judgments, which ye shall observe to do in the land, which the LORD God of thy fathers giveth thee to possess it, [f] all the days that ye live upon the earth.

2 [g] Ye shall utterly destroy all the places, wherein the nations which ye shall possess served their gods, [l] upon the high mountains, and upon the hills, and under every green tree:

3 And [m] ye shall overthrow their altars, and break their [n] pillars, and burn their [4]groves with fire; and ye shall hew down the graven images of their gods, and [o] destroy the names of them out of that place.

4 [p] Ye shall not do so unto the LORD your God.

5 But [q] unto the place which the LORD your God shall choose out of all your tribes [s] to put his name there, even [b] unto his habitation shall ye seek, and thither thou shalt come:

6 And [d] thither ye shall bring your [e] burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, and your [f] tithes, and [g] heave offerings of your hand, and your [k] vows, and your [l] freewill offerings, and the [m] firstlings of your herds and of your flocks:

7 And there [n] ye shall eat before the LORD your God, and [o] ye shall rejoice in all that ye [q] put your hand unto, ye and your households, wherein the LORD thy God hath blessed thee.

8 Ye shall not do after all the things that we do here this day, [s] every man whatsoever is right in his own eyes.

9 For ye are not as yet come [u] to the rest and to the inheritance, which the LORD your God giveth you.

10 But when [y] ye go over Jordan, and [a] dwell in the land which the LORD your God giveth you to inherit, and when he giveth you rest from all your enemies round about, so that ye dwell in safety;

11 Then there shall be a place which the LORD your God shall choose to cause his name to dwell there; thither shall ye bring all that I command you; your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, your tithes, and the heave offering of your hand, and all your choice vows which ye vow unto the LORD:

12 And ye shall rejoice before the LORD your God, ye, and your sons, and your daughters, and your menservants, and your maidservants, and [h] the Levite that is [i] within your gates; forasmuch as he hath [k] no part nor inheritance with you.

13 Take heed to thyself that thou offer not thy burnt offerings in every place that thou seest:

14 But in the place which the LORD shall choose in one of thy tribes, there thou shalt offer thy burnt offerings, and there thou shalt do all that I command thee.

15 Notwithstanding thou mayest kill and eat flesh in all thy gates, whatsoever thy soul lusteth after, [r] according to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee: [t] the unclean and the clean may 22 Even as the roebuck and the hart is eaten, so thou shalt eat them: the unclean and the clean shall eat of them alike.

23 Only be sure that thou eat not the blood: for [o] the blood is the life; and thou mayest not eat the life with the flesh.

24 Thou shalt not eat it; thou shalt pour it upon the earth as water.

25 Thou shalt not eat it; [p] that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, [q] when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the LORD.

30 Take heed to thyself that thou be not snared by following them, after that they be destroyed from before thee; and that thou [c] enquire not after their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their gods? even so will I do likewise.

31 [e] Thou shalt not do so unto the LORD thy God: for [f] every abomination to the LORD, [g] which he hateth, have they done unto their gods; for [i] even their sons and their daughters they have burnt in the fire to their gods.

[k] So shalt thou put the evil away from the midst of thee.

6 ¶ [m] If thy brother, the son of thy mother, or thy son, or thy daughter, or [n] the wife of thy bosom, or thy friend, [p] which is as thine own soul, [q] entice thee secretly, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, [s] which thou hast not known, thou, nor thy fathers;

24 And if the way be too long for thee, so that thou art not able to carry it; or [b] if the place be too far from thee, which the LORD thy God shall choose to set his name there, when the LORD thy God hath blessed thee:

25 Then shalt thou turn it into money, and bind up the money in thine hand, and shalt go unto the place which the LORD thy God shall choose:

26 And thou shalt bestow that money for whatsoever thy soul lusteth after, for oxen, or for sheep, or for wine, or for strong drink, or for whatsoever thy soul desireth: and thou shalt eat there before the LORD thy God, and thou shalt rejoice, thou, and thine household,

27 And [g] the Levite that is within thy gates; thou shalt not forsake him; for [k] he hath no part nor inheritance with thee.

28 ¶ At the end of three years thou shalt bring forth [m] all the tithe of thine increase the same year, and shalt lay it up within thy gates:

29 And the Levite, (because he hath no part nor inheritance with thee,) and the [r] stranger, and the fatherless, and [s] the widow, which are within thy gates, shall come, and [u] shall eat and be satisfied; [x] that the LORD thy God may bless thee in all the work of thine hand which thou doest.

CHAPTER 15

AT the end of every [z] seven years thou shalt make a [b] release.

2 And this is the manner of the release: Every creditor that lendeth ought unto his neighbour shall release it; he shall not exact it of his neighbour, or of his brother; because it is called the LORD's release.

3 [c] Of a foreigner thou mayest exact it again: but that which is thine with thy brother thine hand shall release;

4 [3] Save when there shall be no poor among you; [i] for the LORD shall greatly bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it:

5 Only [m] if thou carefully hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all these commandments which I command thee this day.

6 For the LORD thy God blesseth thee, as he promised thee: and [a] thou shalt lend unto many nations, but thou shalt not borrow; and [b] thou shalt reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over thee.

7 ¶ If there be among you a poor man of one of thy brethren within any of thy gates in thy land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, [d] thou shalt not harden thine heart, nor shut thine hand from thy poor brother:

8 [f] But thou shalt open thine hand wide unto him, [g] and shalt surely lend him sufficient for his need, in that which he wanteth.

9 Beware that there be not [3] a thought in thy wicked heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand; and [i] thine eye be evil against thy poor brother, and thou givest him nought; [l] and he cry unto the LORD against thee, and it be sin unto thee.

10 Thou shalt surely give him, and [o] thine heart shall not be grieved when thou givest unto him: [q] because that for this thing the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all thy works, and in all that thou [r] puttest thine hand unto.

11 [t] For [u] the poor shall never cease out of the land: therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt open thine hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor, and to thy needy, in the land.

12 ¶ [y] And if thy brother, an [z] Hebrew man, or an Hebrew woman, [a] be sold unto thee, and serve thee six years; [d] then in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free from thee.

13 And when thou sendest him out free from thee, thou shalt not let him go away empty:

14 Thou shalt furnish him liberally out of thy flock, and out of thy [g] floor, and out of thy [g] winepress: of that wherewith the LORD thy God hath blessed thee thou shalt give unto him.

15 And [l] thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt, and the LORD thy God [o] redeemed thee: therefore I command thee this thing to day.

16 And it shall be, if he say unto thee, I will not go away from thee; because he loveth thee and thine house, because he is well with thee;

17 Then thou shalt take an aul, and thrust it through his ear unto the door, and he shall be thy servant for ever. And also unto thy [c] maidservant thou shalt do likewise.

18 It shall not seem hard unto thee, when thou sendest him away free from thee; [2] for he hath been worth a [e] double hired servant to thee, in serving thee six years: and the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all that thou doest.

19 ¶ All the [h] firstling males that come of thy herd and of thy flock thou shalt sanctify unto the LORD thy God: thou shalt do no work with the firstling of thy bullock, [k] nor shear the firstling of thy sheep.

20 [m] Thou shalt eat it before the LORD thy God year by year [n] in the place which the LORD shall choose, thou and thy household.

21 And [p] if there be any blemish therein, as if it be lame, or blind, or have any ill blemish, thou shalt not sacrifice it unto the LORD thy God.

22 Thou shalt eat it within thy gates: [s] the unclean and the clean person shall eat it alike, as the roebuck, and as the hart.

23 Only [x] thou shalt not eat the blood thereof; thou shalt pour it upon the ground as water.

CHAPTER 16

[b] OBSERVE the [c] month of Abib, and keep [e] the passover unto the LORD thy God: for in the month of Abib the LORD thy God [f] brought thee forth out of Egypt by night.

2 Thou shalt therefore sacrifice the passover unto the LORD thy God, of the flock and the herd, [h] in the place which the LORD shall choose [i] to place his name there.

3 Thou shalt eat [k] no leavened bread with it; [m] seven days [n] shalt thou eat unleavened bread therewith, even the bread of affliction; for thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt [a] in haste: that thou mayest [c] remember the day when thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt all the days of thy life.

4 And [e] there shall be no leavened bread seen with thee in all thy coast seven days; [f] neither shall there any thing of the flesh, which thou sacrificedst the first day at even, remain all night until the morning.

5 Thou mayest not sacrifice the passover within any of thy gates, which the LORD thy God giveth thee:

6 But at the place which the LORD thy God shall choose to place his name in, there thou shalt sacrifice the passover at even, at the going down of the sun, at the season that thou camest forth out of Egypt.

7 And thou shalt [3]roast and eat it in the place which the LORD thy God shall choose: and thou shalt turn in the morning, and go unto thy tents.

8 [i] Six days thou shalt eat unleavened bread: and on the seventh day shall be a [l] solemn assembly to the LORD thy God: [m] thou shalt do no work therein.

9 ¶ Seven weeks shalt thou number unto thee: begin to number the seven weeks from such time as thou beginnest to put the sickle to the corn.

10 And thou shalt keep the [s] feast of weeks unto the LORD thy God with a [x] tribute of a [y] freewill offering of thine hand, which thou shalt give unto the LORD thy God, [z] according as the LORD thy God hath blessed thee:

11 And [b] thou shalt rejoice before the LORD thy God, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and [c] the Levite that is within thy gates, [d] and the stranger, and the fatherless, [e] and the widow, that are among you, in the place which the LORD thy God hath chosen to place his name there.

12 [h] And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt: and thou shalt observe and do these statutes.

13 ¶ Thou shalt observe the [k] feast of tabernacles seven days, after that thou hast gathered in [2b] thy corn and [d] thy wine:

14 And thou shalt rejoice in thy feast, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Levite, the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are within thy gates.

15 Seven days shalt thou keep a solemn feast unto the LORD thy God in the place which the LORD shall choose: because the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all thine increase, and in all the works of thine hands, therefore thou shalt surely rejoice.

16 ¶ [g] Three times in a year shall all thy males [h] appear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall choose; in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles: and they shall not appear before the LORD empty:

17 Every man shall give as he is able, [k] according to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee.

18 ¶ Judges and [n] officers shalt thou make thee [o] in all thy gates, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, throughout thy tribes: and [p] they shall judge the people with [q] just judgment.

19 [r] Thou shalt not wrest judgment; [t] thou shalt not respect persons, [u] neither take a gift: for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the [4]words of the righteous.

20 [5]That which is altogether just shalt thou follow, [a] that thou mayest live, and inherit the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

21 ¶ Thou shalt not plant thee [6]a grove of any trees near unto the altar of the LORD thy God, which thou shalt make thee.

22 [f] Neither shalt thou set thee up any [7]image; [g] which the LORD thy God hateth.

CHAPTER 18

THE priests the Levites, and all the [b] tribe of Levi, shall [c] have no part nor inheritance with Israel: they shall eat the offerings of the LORD [d] made by fire, and his inheritance.

2 Therefore shall they have no inheritance among their brethren: [f] the LORD is their inheritance, as he hath said unto them.

3 ¶ And this shall be the priest's due from the people, from them that offer a sacrifice, whether it be ox or sheep; and [l] they shall give unto the priest the shoulder, and the two cheeks, and the maw.

4 The [o] firstfruit also of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thine oil, and the first of the fleece of thy sheep, shalt thou give him.

5 For the LORD thy God [q] hath chosen him out of all thy tribes, to stand [s] to minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons for ever.

6 ¶ And [x] if a Levite come from any of thy gates out of all Israel, [y] where he sojourned, and come with all the desire of his mind [b] unto the place which the LORD shall choose;

7 Then he shall minister in the name of the LORD his God, [e] as all his brethren the Levites do, [f] which stand there before the LORD.

8 [h] They shall have like portions to eat, beside that which cometh of the sale of his patrimony.

9 ¶ [i] When thou art come into the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not learn to do after [l] the abominations of those nations.

10 There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter [n] to pass through the fire, or that [o] useth divination, or an [2]observer of times, or an [p] enchanter, or a [3]witch,

11 Or a [q] charmer, or [4]a [r] consulter with familiar spirits, or a [s] wizard, or a [u] necromancer.

12 For [x] all that do these things are an abomination unto the LORD: and because of these abominations the LORD thy God [y] doth drive them out from before thee.

13 [a] Thou shalt be perfect with the LORD thy God.

14 For these nations, which thou shalt possess, hearkened unto observers of times, and unto diviners: but as for thee, the LORD thy God hath not suffered thee so to do.

15 ¶ [e] The LORD thy God will raise up unto thee [g] a Prophet from the midst of thee, of thy brethren, like unto me; unto him ye shall hearken;

16 [h] According to all that thou desiredst of the LORD thy God in [i] Horeb in [k] the day of the assembly, saying, [m] Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God, neither let me see [n] this great fire any more, that I die not.

17 And the LORD said unto me, [p] They have well spoken that which they have spoken.

18 [r] I will raise them up a Prophet from among their brethren, like unto thee, and [t] will put my words in his mouth; and [u] he shall speak unto them all that I shall command him.

19 [z] And it shall come to pass, that [a] whosoever will not hearken unto my words which he shall speak in my name, I will require it of him.

20 [c] But the prophet, [d] which shall presume to speak a word in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or that shall speak [g] in the name of other gods, even that prophet shall die.

21 And if thou say in thine heart, How shall we know the word which the LORD hath not spoken?

22 [k] When a prophet speaketh in the name of the LORD, [m] if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously: thou shalt not be afraid of him.

CHAPTER 19

[t] WHEN the LORD thy God hath cut off the nations, whose land the LORD thy God giveth thee, and thou succeedest them, and dwellest in their cities, and in their houses;

2 [z] Thou shalt separate three cities for thee in the midst of thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it.

3 Thou shalt prepare thee a way, and divide the coasts of thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee to inherit, into three parts, that every slayer may flee thither.

4 ¶ And this is the case of the slayer, which shall flee thither, that he may live: [e] Whoso killeth his neighbour ignorantly, whom he hated not in time past;

5 As when a man goeth into the wood with his neighbour to hew wood, and his hand fetcheth a stroke with the axe to cut down the tree, and the head slippeth from the helve, and lighteth upon his neighbour, that he die; he shall flee unto one of those cities, and live:

6 Lest [h] the avenger of the blood pursue the slayer, while his heart is hot, and overtake him, because the way is long, and slay him; whereas he was not [m] worthy of death, inasmuch as he hated him not in time past.

7 Wherefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt separate three cities for thee.

8 And if the LORD thy God [p] enlarge thy coast, as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, and [r] give thee all the land which he promised to give unto thy fathers;

9 If thou shalt keep all these commandments to do them, which I command thee this day, [t] to love the LORD thy God, and [y] to walk ever in his ways; [z] then shalt thou add three cities more for thee, beside these three:

10 That [a] innocent blood be not shed in thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, [c] and so blood be upon thee.

11 ¶ But [e] if any man hate his neighbour, and lie in wait for him, and rise up against him, and smite him mortally that he die, and fleeth into one of these cities:

12 [i] Then the elders of his city shall send and fetch him thence, and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die.

13 [k] Thine eye shall not pity him, but [a] thou shalt put away the guilt of innocent blood from Israel, [b] that it may go well with thee.

14 ¶ [c] Thou shalt not remove thy neighbour's landmark, which they of old time have [d] set in thine inheritance, which thou shalt inherit in the land that the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it.

15 ¶ One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sinneth: [f] at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established.

16 ¶ [2] If a false witness rise up against any man to testify against him that which is wrong;

17 [g] Then both the men, between whom the controversy is, shall stand before the LORD, [i] before the priests and [k] the judges, which shall be in those days;

18 And the judges shall make [l] diligent inquisition: and, behold, if the witness be a false witness, and hath testified falsely against his brother;

19 [n] Then shall ye do unto him, as he [o] had thought to have done unto his brother: [q] so shalt thou put the evil away from among you.

20 And those which remain shall hear, [s] and fear, and shall henceforth commit no more any such evil among you.

21 And thine eye shall not pity; but [u] life shall go for life, [x] eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

CHAPTER 20

WHEN thou goest out to battle against thine enemies, and [b] seest horses, and [d] chariots, and a people more than thou, be not afraid of them: for the LORD thy God [f] is with thee, which [g] brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

2 And it shall be, when ye are come nigh unto the battle, that [h] the priest shall approach and speak unto the people,

3 And shall say unto them, Hear, O Israel, ye approach this day unto battle against your enemies: let not your hearts faint, [a] fear not, and do not tremble, [b] neither be ye terrified because of them;

4 For the LORD your God is he that goeth with you, [d] to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.

5 ¶ And the [e] officers shall speak unto the people, saying, What man is there that hath built a new house, and hath not [f] dedicated it? let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man dedicate it.

6 And what man is he that hath [i] planted a vineyard, and hath [k] not yet [2] eaten of it? let him also go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man eat of it.

7 And [m] what man is there that hath betrothed a wife, and hath not taken her? let him go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man take her.

8 And the officers shall speak further unto the people, and they shall say, [p] What man is there that is fearful and fainthearted? let him go and return unto his house, [q] lest his brethren's heart [4] faint as well as his heart.

9 And it shall be, when the officers have made an end of speaking unto the people, that they shall make captains of the armies to lead the people.

10 ¶ When thou comest nigh unto a city to fight against it, then [r] proclaim peace unto it.

11 And it shall be, if it make thee answer of peace, and open unto thee, then it shall be, that all the people that is found therein shall be [s] tributaries unto thee, and they shall serve thee.

12 And if it will make no peace with thee, but will make war against thee, then thou shalt besiege it:

13 And when the LORD thy God hath delivered it into thine hands, [u] thou shalt smite every male thereof with the [y] edge of the sword:

14 But the women, and the little ones, and the cattle, and all that is in the city, [a] even all the spoil thereof, shalt thou take unto thyself; and [b] thou shalt eat the spoil of thine enemies, which the LORD thy God hath given thee.

15 [c] Thus shalt thou do unto all the cities which are very far off from thee, which are not of the cities of these nations.

16 But of the cities of these people, which the LORD thy God doth give thee for an inheritance, thou shalt save alive nothing that breatheth:

17 But thou shalt [g] utterly destroy them; namely, [h] the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Cā'nă-ăn-ītes, and the Pĕ-rĭz'zītes, the Hivites, and the Jĕb'ū-sītes; as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee:

18 That they teach you not to do after all their [l] abominations, which they have done unto their gods; so should ye [n] sin against the LORD your God.

19 ¶ When thou shalt besiege a city a long time, in making war against it to take it, [o] thou shalt not destroy the trees thereof by forcing an axe against them: for thou mayest eat of them, and thou shalt not cut them down ([3] for the tree of the field is man's life) to employ them in the siege:

20 Only the trees which thou knowest that they be not trees for meat, thou shalt destroy and cut them down; and thou shalt build [5] bulwarks against the city that maketh war with thee, until it be subdued.

CHAPTER 21

2 Then thy elders and thy [t] judges shall come forth, and they shall measure unto the cities which are round about him that is slain:

9 So shalt thou [o] put away the guilt of innocent blood from among you, [q] when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the LORD.

10 ¶ [r] When thou goest forth to war against thine enemies, and the LORD thy God hath delivered them into thine hands, and thou hast taken them captive,

11 And seest among the captives a beautiful woman, and hast a desire unto her, that thou wouldest have her to thy wife;

16 Then it shall be, when he [b] maketh his sons to inherit that which he hath, that he may not make the son of the beloved firstborn before the son of the hated, which is indeed the firstborn:

17 But he shall acknowledge the son of the hated for the firstborn, by giving him [f] a double portion of all that he hath: for he is [h] the beginning of his strength; [i] the right of the firstborn is his.

18 ¶ If a man have a stubborn and rebellious son, which will not obey the voice of his father, or the voice of his mother, and that, when they have [m] chastened him, will not hearken unto them:

19 Then shall his father and his mother lay hold on him, and bring him out unto the elders of his city, and [p] unto the gate of his place;

20 And they shall say unto the elders of his city, This our son is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey our voice; he is a [s] glutton, and a drunkard.

21 And all the men of his city [t] shall stone him with stones, that he die: [u] so shalt thou put evil away from among you; and all Israel shall hear, [x] and fear.

3 In like manner shalt thou do with his ass; and so shalt thou do with his raiment; and with all lost thing of thy brother's, which he hath lost, and thou hast found, shalt thou do likewise: thou mayest not hide thyself.

4 ¶ [a] Thou shalt not see thy brother's ass or his ox fall down by the way, and hide thyself from them: thou shalt surely help him to lift them up again.

5 ¶ The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for [b] all that do so are abomination unto the LORD thy God.

6 ¶ If a bird's nest chance to be before thee in the way in any tree, or on the ground, whether they be young ones, or eggs, and the dam sitting upon the young, or upon the eggs, [d] thou shalt not take the dam with the young:

7 But thou shalt in any wise let the dam go, and take the young to thee; [f] that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest [h] prolong thy days.

13 ¶ If any man take a wife, and go in unto her, and [t] hate her,

14 And give occasions of speech against her, and bring up an evil name upon her, and say, I took this woman, and when I came to her, I found her not a maid:

15 Then shall the father of the damsel, and her mother, take and bring forth the tokens of the damsel's virginity unto the elders of the city in the gate:

16 And the damsel's father shall say unto the elders, I gave my daughter unto this man to wife, and he hateth her;

17 And, lo, he hath given occasions of speech against her, saying, I found not thy daughter a maid; and yet these are the tokens of my daughter's virginity. And they shall spread the cloth before the elders of the city.

18 And the elders of that city shall take that man and chastise him;

19 And they shall amerce him in an hundred shē-kĕls of silver, and give them unto the father of the damsel, because he hath brought up an evil name upon a virgin of Israel: and she shall be his wife; [c] he may not put her away all his days.

26 But unto the damsel thou shalt do nothing; there is in the damsel no sin [a] worthy of death: for as when a man riseth against his neighbour, and slayeth him, even so is this matter:

27 For he found her in the field, and the betrothed damsel cried, and there was none to save her.

28 ¶ [c] If a man find a damsel that is a virgin, which is not betrothed, and lay hold on her, and lie with her, and they be found;

29 Then the man that lay with her shall give unto the damsel's father fifty shē'kĕls of silver, and she shall be his wife; because he hath humbled her, he may not put her away all his days.

30 ¶ [f] A man shall not take his father's wife, nor [g] discover his father's skirt.

CHAPTER 23

HE that is [h] wounded in the stones, or hath his privy member cut off, shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD.

2 A [k] bastard shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD; even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the LORD.

3 An [n] Ammonite or [o] Moabite shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD; even to their tenth generation shall they not enter into the congregation of the LORD for ever:

4 [q] Because they met you not with bread and with water in the way, when ye came forth out of Egypt; and because they hired against thee [s] Bā'lāām the son of Beor of [t] Pethor of [x] Mĕs-ŏ-pŏ-tā'mĭ-ă, to curse thee.

5 Nevertheless the LORD thy God would not hearken unto Bā'lāām; but the LORD thy God [z] turned the curse into a blessing unto thee, [b] because the LORD thy God loved thee.

6 Thou shalt not [d] seek their peace nor their prosperity all thy days for ever.

7 ¶ Thou shalt not abhor an Edomite; for [g] he is thy brother: thou shalt not abhor an Egyptian; [h] because thou wast a stranger in his land.

8 The children that are begotten of them shall enter into the congregation of the LORD in their third generation.

9 ¶ When the host goeth forth against thine enemies, then keep thee from every wicked thing.

10 ¶ If there be among you any man, that is [b] not clean by reason of uncleanness that chanceth him by night, then shall he go abroad [d] out of the camp, he shall not come within the camp:

11 But it shall be, when evening cometh on, he shall [e] wash himself with water: and when the sun is down, he shall come into the camp again.

12 ¶ Thou shalt have a place also without the camp, whither thou shalt go forth abroad.

13 And thou shalt have a [2]paddle upon thy weapon; and it shall be, when thou wilt ease thyself abroad, thou shalt dig therewith, and shalt turn back and cover that which cometh from thee:

14 For the LORD thy God [i] walketh [l] in the midst of thy camp, to deliver thee, and to give up thine enemies before thee; therefore shall thy camp be holy: that he see no [m] unclean thing in thee, and turn away from thee.

15 ¶ [p] Thou shalt not deliver unto his master the servant which is escaped from his master unto thee:

16 He shall dwell with thee, even among you, in that place which he shall choose in one of thy gates, where it liketh him best: [r] thou shalt not oppress him.

17 ¶ There shall be no [3]whore [u] of the daughters of Israel, nor a [4]sodomite of the sons of Israel.

18 Thou shalt not bring the [y] hire of a whore, or the price of a [a] dog, into the house of the LORD thy God for any [c] vow: for even both these are [e] abomination unto the LORD thy God.

19 ¶ Thou shalt [f] not lend upon usury to thy brother; usury of money, usury of victuals, usury of any thing that is lent upon usury:

20 Unto a stranger thou mayest lend upon usury; but unto thy brother thou shalt not lend upon usury: [a] that the LORD thy God may bless thee in all that thou [b] settest thine hand to in the land whither thou goest to possess it.

21 ¶ [c] When thou shalt vow a vow unto the LORD thy God, thou shalt not slack to pay it: for the LORD thy God will surely require it of thee; and it would be sin in thee.

22 But if thou shalt forbear to vow, it shall be no sin in thee.

CHAPTER 24

WHEN a man hath taken a wife, and married her, and it come to pass that she find no favour in his eyes, because he hath found some [3]uncleanness in her: [u] then let him write her a [x] bill of divorcement, and give it in her hand, and send her out of his house.

2 And when she is departed out of his house, [a] she may go and be another man's wife.

3 And if the latter husband [c] hate her, and write her a bill of divorcement, and giveth it in her hand, and sendeth her out of his house; or if the latter husband die, which took her to be his wife;

4 [e] Her former husband, which sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife, after that she is defiled; for that is [g] abomination before the LORD: and thou shalt not cause the land to sin, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance.

5 ¶ [k] When a man hath taken a new wife, he shall not go out to war, neither shall he be charged with any business: but [c] he shall be free at home one year, and shall [d] cheer up his wife which he hath taken.

6 ¶ No man shall take the [2]nether or the [f] upper millstone [g] to pledge: for he taketh a man's life to pledge.

7 ¶ If a man be found stealing any of his brethren of the children of Israel, and [h] maketh merchandise of him, or [i] selleth him; then that thief shall die; and [k] thou shalt put evil away from among you.

8 ¶ Take heed [m] in the plague of leprosy, that thou observe diligently, and do according to all that the priests the Levites shall [n] teach you: as I commanded them, so ye shall observe to do.

9 [o] Remember what the LORD thy God did unto [p] Miriam by the way, after that ye were come forth out of Egypt.

10 ¶ [r] When thou dost lend thy brother any thing, thou shalt not go into his house to fetch his pledge.

11 Thou shalt stand abroad, and the man to whom thou dost lend shall bring out the pledge abroad unto thee.

12 And if the man be [s] poor, thou shalt not sleep with his pledge:

13 In any case thou shalt [t] deliver him the pledge again when the sun goeth down, that he may sleep in his own raiment, and [y] bless thee: and it shall be [z] righteousness unto thee before the LORD thy God.

14 ¶ Thou shalt not [b] oppress an hired servant that is poor and needy, whether he be of thy brethren, or of thy strangers that are in thy land within thy gates:

15 At his day thou shalt [d] give him his hire, neither shall the sun go down upon it; for he is poor, and setteth his heart upon it: [f] lest he cry against thee unto the LORD, and it be sin unto thee.

16 [h] The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, [i] neither shall the children be put to death for the fathers: every man shall be put to death for his own sin.

CHAPTER 25

IF there be a controversy between men, and they come unto judgment, that the judges [n]may judge them; then they [o]shall justify the righteous, and [q]condemn the wicked.

2 And it shall be, if the wicked man be [s]worthy to be beaten, that the judge shall cause him to lie down, and to be beaten before his face, according to his fault, by a certain number.

3 [t]Forty stripes he may give him, and not exceed: lest, if he should exceed, and beat him above these with many stripes, then thy brother should [2]seem vile unto thee.

4 ¶ [u]Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn.

5 ¶ [z]If brethren dwell together, and one of them die, and have no child, the wife of the dead shall not marry without [b]unto a stranger: her husband's brother shall go in unto her, and take her to him to wife, and perform the duty of an husband's brother unto her.

6 And it shall be, that the firstborn which she beareth shall succeed in the name of his brother which is dead, that [d]his name be not put out of Israel.

7 And if the man like not to take his brother's wife, then let his brother's wife go up [g]to the gate unto the elders, and say, My husband's brother refuseth to raise up unto his brother a name in Israel, he will not perform the duty of my husband's brother.

8 Then the elders of his city shall call him, and speak unto him: and if he stand to it, and say, [i]I like not to take her;

9 Then shall his brother's wife come unto him in the presence of the elders, and [k]loose his shoe from off his foot, and [l]spit in his face, and shall answer and say, So shall it be done unto that man that will not [m]build up his brother's house.

10 And his name shall be called in Israel, The house of him that hath his shoe loosed.

11 ¶ When men strive together one with another, and the wife of the one draweth near for to deliver her husband out of the hand of him that smiteth him, and putteth forth her hand, and taketh him by the secrets:

12 Then thou shalt cut off her hand, [p]thine eye shall not pity her.

CHAPTER 26

AND it shall be, when thou art come in unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and possessest it, and dwellest therein;

2 That thou shalt take of [k] the first of all the fruit of the earth, which thou shalt bring of thy land that the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt put it in a [n] basket, and shalt go unto [o] the place which the LORD thy God shall choose [q] to place his name there.

3 And thou shalt go unto the priest that shall be in those days, and say unto him, I profess this day unto the LORD thy God, that I am come unto the country [r] which the LORD sware unto our fathers for to give us.

4 And the priest shall take the basket out of thine hand, and set it down before the altar of the LORD thy God.

5 And thou shalt speak and say before the LORD thy God, [3]A Syrian [4]ready to perish [x] was my father, and he went down into Egypt, and [y] sojourned there with [z] a few, and became there a nation, great, mighty, and populous:

6 And [c] the Egyptians evil entreated us, and afflicted us, and laid upon us hard bondage:

7 And when we [e] cried unto the LORD God of our fathers, the LORD heard our voice, and looked on our affliction, and our labour, and our oppression:

8 And the LORD [g] brought us forth out of Egypt with a [h] mighty hand, and with an [i] outstretched arm, and with great [l] terribleness, and with [o] signs, and with wonders:

9 And he hath brought us into this place, and hath given us this land, even [a] a land that floweth with milk and honey.

10 And now, behold, I have brought the firstfruits of the land, which thou, O LORD, hast given me. And thou shalt set it before the LORD thy God, and worship before the LORD thy God:

11 And [f] thou shalt rejoice in every good thing which the LORD thy God hath given unto thee, and unto thine house, thou, and [g] the Levite, and the [h] stranger that is among you.

12 ¶ When thou hast made an end of tithing [i] all the tithes of thine increase the third year, which is the year of tithing, and hast given it unto the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and [l] the widow, that they [m] may eat within thy gates, and be filled;

13 Then thou shalt say before the LORD thy God, I have brought away the [p] hallowed things out of mine house, and also have given them unto the Levite, and unto the stranger, to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all thy commandments which thou hast commanded me: I have not transgressed thy commandments, [s] neither have I forgotten them:

14 [t] I have not eaten thereof in my mourning, neither have I [2]taken away ought thereof for any [u] unclean use, nor given ought thereof for the dead: but I have hearkened to the voice of the LORD my God, and have done according to all that thou hast commanded me.

15 [a] Look down from [b] thy holy habitation, from heaven, and bless thy people Israel, and the land [d] which thou hast given us, as thou swarest unto our fathers, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

16 ¶ This day the LORD thy God hath commanded thee [f] to do these statutes and judgments: thou shalt therefore keep and do them with all thine heart, and with all thy soul.

17 Thou [k] hast avouched the LORD this day [m] to be thy God, and [n] to walk in his ways, and to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and to hearken unto his voice:

18 And [a] the LORD hath avouched thee this day [b] to be his peculiar people, as he hath promised thee, and that thou shouldest keep all his commandments;

19 And to make thee [c] high above all nations which he hath made, in praise, and in name, and in honour; and that thou mayest be an [a] holy people unto the LORD thy God, as he hath spoken.

CHAPTER 27

AND Moses with the elders of Israel commanded the people, saying, [r] Keep all the commandments which I command you this day.

2 And it shall be on the day [s] when ye shall pass over Jordan unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, that thou shalt set thee up great stones, and plaister them with plaister:

3 And [y] thou shalt write upon them all the words of this law, when thou art passed over, that thou mayest go in unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, [a] a land that floweth with milk and honey; as the LORD God of thy fathers hath promised thee.

4 Therefore it shall be when ye be gone over Jordan, that ye shall set up these stones, which I command you this day, in [d] mount Ebal, and thou shalt plaister them with plaister.

5 And there shalt thou build an altar unto the LORD thy God, [g] an altar of stones: [g] thou shalt not lift up any iron tool upon them.

6 Thou shalt build the altar of the LORD thy God of [2] whole stones: and thou shalt offer burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD thy God:

7 And thou shalt offer [k] peace offerings, and shalt eat there, and [l] rejoice before the LORD thy God.

8 And [n] thou shalt write upon the stones all the words of this law very plainly.

9 ¶ And Moses and the priests the Levites spake unto all Israel, saying, Take heed, and hearken, O Israel; this day thou art become [q] the people of the LORD thy God.

10 Thou shalt therefore obey the voice of the LORD thy God, and do his commandments and his statutes, which I command thee this day.

11 ¶ And Moses charged the people the same day, saying,

12 These shall stand upon [d] mount Gĕ-rī'-zĭm to bless the people, when ye are come over Jordan; [e] Simeon, and Levi, and [f] Judah, and [g] Ĭs'-să-chär, and [h] Joseph, and [i] Benjamin:

13 And these shall stand upon mount Ebal to curse; [k] Reuben, [l] Gad, and [m] Asher, and [n] Zĕ-bū'-lŭn, [o] Dan, and [p] Năph'-tă-lī.

14 ¶ And [q] the Levites shall speak, and say unto all the men of Israel with a loud voice,

15 Cursed be the man that [t] maketh any graven or molten image, [u] an abomination unto the LORD, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in a secret place. [x] And all the people shall answer and say, Amen.

16 [z] Cursed be he that setteth light by his father or his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen.

17 [b] Cursed be he that removeth his neighbour's landmark. And all the people shall say, Amen.

18 [c] Cursed be he that maketh the blind to wander out of the way. And all the people shall say, Amen.

19 [e] Cursed be he that perverteth the judgment of the stranger, fatherless, and [f] widow. And all the people shall say, Amen.

20 [h] Cursed be he that lieth with his father's wife; because he uncovereth his father's skirt. And all the people shall say, Amen.

21 [i] Cursed be he that lieth with any manner of beast. And all the people shall say, Amen.

CHAPTER 28

[f] AND it shall come to pass, [g] if thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the LORD thy God, [i] to observe and to do all his commandments which I command thee this day, that the LORD thy God will [l] set thee on high above all nations of the earth:

2 And all these [m] blessings shall come on thee, and [o] overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God.

3 Blessed shalt thou be in the city, and blessed shalt thou be in the field.

4 [r] Blessed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy ground, and the fruit of thy cattle, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep.

5 Blessed shall be thy basket and [2]thy store.

6 Blessed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

7 The LORD [t] shall cause thine enemies that rise up against thee to be smitten before thy face: they shall come out against thee one way, and flee before thee seven ways.

8 The LORD shall [y] command the blessing upon thee in thy storehouses, and [z] in all that thou settest thine hand unto; and he shall bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

9 The LORD shall establish thee [c] an holy people unto himself, as he hath sworn unto thee, if thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, and [f] walk in his ways.

10 And [g] all people of the earth shall see that thou art [i] called by the name of the LORD; and they shall be [k] afraid of thee.

11 And the LORD shall make thee plenteous in goods, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy ground, in the land [b] which the LORD sware unto thy fathers to give thee.

12 The LORD shall open unto thee his good treasure, the heaven [d] to give the rain unto thy land in his season, and to bless all the work of thine hand: and [e] thou shalt lend unto many nations, and thou shalt not borrow.

13 And [h] the LORD shall make thee [k] the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them:

14 And [n] thou shalt not go aside from any of the words which I command thee this day, to the right hand, or to the left, [p] to go after other gods to serve them.

15 ¶ But it shall come to pass, [q] if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day; that [s] all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee:

16 Cursed shalt thou be in the city, and cursed shalt thou be in the field.

17 Cursed shall be thy basket and thy store.

18 [u] Cursed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the [x] fruit of thy land, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep.

19 Cursed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and cursed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

20 The LORD shall send upon thee [a] cursing, vexation, and [b] rebuke, in all that thou settest thine hand unto for to do, until thou be destroyed, and until thou perish quickly; because of the [d] wickedness of thy doings, whereby [e] thou hast forsaken me.

21 The LORD shall make the [h] pestilence cleave unto thee, until he have consumed thee from off the land, whither thou goest to possess it.

22 The LORD shall smite thee with a [l] consumption, and with a fever, and with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and [m] with the

[2]sword, and with [a] blasting, and with mildew; and they shall pursue thee until thou perish.

23 And [c] thy heaven that is over thy head shall be brass, and the earth that is under thee shall be iron.

24 The LORD shall make the rain of thy land [e] powder and dust: from heaven shall it come down upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

25 [f] The LORD shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them: and shalt be [3]removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

26 And [i] thy carcase shall be meat unto all fowls of the air, and unto the beasts of the earth, and no man shall fray them away.

27 The LORD will smite thee with the [4]botch [m]of Egypt, and with the [5]emerods, and with the [n] scab, and with the itch, whereof thou canst not be healed.

28 The LORD [q] shall smite thee with madness, and blindness, and astonishment of heart:

29 And thou shalt [s] grope at noonday, as the blind gropeth in darkness, and [t] thou shalt not prosper in thy ways: and thou shalt be only oppressed and spoiled evermore, and no man shall save thee.

30 [z] Thou shalt betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her: [a] thou shalt build an house, and thou shalt not dwell therein: [c] thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not gather the grapes thereof.

31 Thine ox shall be slain before thine eyes, and thou shalt not eat thereof: thine ass shall be violently taken away from before thy face, and shall not be restored to thee: thy sheep shall be given unto thine enemies, and thou shalt have none to rescue them.

32 [h] Thy sons and thy daughters shall be given unto another people, and [i] thine eyes shall look, and fail with longing for them all the day long: [k] and there shall be no might in thine hand.

33 [m] The fruit of thy land, and all thy labours, shall a nation [b] which thou knowest not eat up; and thou shalt be only oppressed and crushed alway:

34 So that thou shalt be mad [d] for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.

35 The LORD shall smite thee in the knees, and in the legs, with a sore botch that cannot be healed, from the sole of thy foot unto the top of thy head.

36 [g] The LORD shall bring thee, and thy king which thou shalt set over thee, unto a nation which neither thou nor thy fathers have known; and [h] there shalt thou serve other gods, wood and stone.

37 And thou shalt become [k] an astonishment, a [l] proverb, and a byword, among all nations whither the LORD shall lead thee.

38 Thou shalt carry much seed out into the field, and [o] shalt gather but little in; for [p] the locust shall consume it.

39 [r] Thou shalt plant vineyards, and dress them, but shalt neither drink of the wine, nor gather the grapes; for the worms shall eat them.

40 Thou shalt have olive trees throughout all thy coasts, but thou [u] shalt not [x] anoint thyself with the oil; for thine [y] olive shall cast his fruit.

41 Thou shalt beget sons and daughters, but thou shalt not enjoy them; for [b] they shall go into captivity.

42 All thy trees and fruit of thy land shall the locust consume.

43 The stranger that is within thee shall get up above thee very high; and thou shalt come down very low.

44 [d] He shall lend to thee, and thou shalt not lend to him: [e] he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail.

45 Moreover [f] all these curses shall come upon thee, and shall pursue thee, and overtake thee, till thou be destroyed; [g] because thou hearkenedst not unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded thee:

46 And they shall be upon thee [l] for a sign and for a wonder, and upon thy seed for ever.

47 [a] Because thou servedst not the LORD thy God with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, for the abundance of all things;

48 Therefore shalt thou serve thine enemies which the LORD shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things: and he [c] shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have [d] destroyed thee.

49 The LORD shall bring [e] a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift [f] as the eagle flieth; a nation [g] whose tongue thou shalt not understand;

50 A nation of fierce countenance, [l] which shall not regard the person of the old, nor shew favour to the young:

51 And [m] he shall eat the fruit of thy cattle, and the fruit of thy land, until thou be destroyed: which also shall not leave thee either [n] corn, wine, or oil, or the increase of thy kine, or flocks of thy sheep, until he have destroyed thee.

52 And he shall besiege thee in all thy gates, until thy high and fenced walls come down, wherein thou trustedst, [p] throughout all thy land: and he shall besiege thee in all thy gates throughout all thy land, which the LORD thy God hath given thee.

53 And [s] thou shalt eat the fruit of thine own body, the flesh of thy sons and of thy daughters, which the LORD thy God hath given thee, in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee:

54 So that the man that is tender among you, and very delicate, [x] his eye shall be evil toward his brother, and toward [y] the wife of his bosom, and toward the remnant of his children which he shall leave:

55 So that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat: because he hath nothing left him in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee in all thy gates.

56 The [e] tender and delicate woman among you, which would not adventure to set the sole of her foot upon the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter,

57 And toward her [2]young one that cometh out [b] from between her feet, and toward her children which she shall bear: for she shall eat them for want of all things secretly in the siege and straitness, wherewith thine enemy shall distress thee in thy gates.

58 If thou wilt not observe to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, that thou [h] mayest fear this glorious and [i] fearful [k] name, THE LORD THY GOD;

59 Then the LORD will make thy plagues wonderful, and the plagues of thy seed, even great plagues, and of long continuance, and sore sicknesses, and of long continuance.

60 Moreover he will bring upon thee all the diseases [o] of Egypt, which thou wast afraid of; and they shall cleave unto thee.

61 Also every sickness, and every plague, which is not written in the book of this law, them will the LORD bring upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

62 And ye [q] shall be left few in number, whereas ye were [r] as the stars of heaven for multitude; because thou wouldest not obey the voice of the LORD thy God.

63 And it shall come to pass, that as the LORD rejoiced over you [t] to do you good, and [u] to multiply you; so the LORD will rejoice over you to destroy you, and to bring you to nought; and ye shall be plucked from off the land whither thou goest to possess it.

64 And the LORD shall [z] scatter thee among all people, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou [a] nor thy fathers have known, even [b] wood and stone.

65 And [c] among these nations shalt thou find no ease, neither shall the sole of thy foot have rest: [d] but the LORD shall give thee there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind:

CHAPTER 29

THESE are the words of the [r] covenant, which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel [t] in the land of Moab, [u] beside the covenant which he made with them in [x] Horeb.

2 ¶ And Moses called unto all Israel, and said unto them, [y] Ye have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt unto [z] Phâr-ā'ōh, and unto all his servants, and unto all his land;

3 The [a] great temptations which thine eyes have seen, [b] the signs, and those great miracles:

4 Yet [e] the LORD hath not given you an heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, unto this day.

5 And [f] I have led you [g] forty years in the wilderness: [i] your clothes are not waxen old upon you, and thy shoe is not waxen old upon thy foot.

6 [m] Ye have not eaten bread, neither have ye drunk wine or strong drink: [p] that ye might know that I am the LORD your God.

7 And when ye came unto this place, [q] Sihon the king of Heshbon, and [s] Og the king of Bashan, came out against us unto battle, and we smote them:

8 And we took their land, and gave it for an inheritance [u] unto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half tribe of Mă-năs'-sēh.

10 ¶ Ye stand this day all of you before the LORD your God; your captains of your tribes, your elders, and your [e] officers, with all the men of Israel,

11 [g] Your little ones, your wives, and [h] thy stranger that is in thy camp, from the [3] hewer of thy wood unto the [k] drawer of thy water:

12 That thou shouldest enter into covenant with the LORD thy God, and [m] into his oath, which the LORD thy God maketh with thee this day:

13 That he may establish thee to day [p] for a people unto himself, and that he may be unto thee a God, as he hath said unto thee, and [q] as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

14 Neither with you only [s] do I make this covenant and this oath;

15 But with him that standeth here with us this day before the LORD our God, and also with him that is not here with us this day:

16 (For ye know how we have dwelt in the land of Egypt; and how we came through the nations which ye passed by;

17 And ye have seen their [4] abominations, and their [c] idols, [d] wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them:)

18 Lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, [h] whose heart turneth away this day from the LORD our God, [k] to go and serve the gods of these nations; [l] lest there should be among you a root that beareth [n] gall and [o] wormwood;

20 [t] The LORD will not spare him, but then the anger of the LORD and his [x] jealousy shall [y] smoke against that man, and all the curses that are written in this book [z] shall lie upon him, and the LORD [a] shall blot out his name from under heaven.

21 And the LORD shall separate him unto evil out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in this book of the law:

22 So that the generation to come of your children that shall rise up after you, and the stranger that shall come from a far land, shall say, when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses [2]which the LORD hath laid upon it;

23 And that [h] the whole land thereof is [k] brimstone, and [l] salt, and burning, that it is not sown, nor beareth, nor any grass groweth therein, [m] like the overthrow of Sodom, and Gō-mŏr'răh, [n] Admah, and Zĕ-bō'ĭm, which the LORD overthrew in his anger, and in his wrath:

24 Even all nations [o] shall say, Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this land? what meaneth the heat of this great anger?

25 Then men shall say, Because they have [t] forsaken the covenant of the LORD God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt:

26 For they [u] went and served other gods, and worshipped them, gods whom they [y] knew not, and [z] whom he had not [3]given unto them:

27 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against this land, [a] to bring upon it all the curses that are written in this book:

28 And the LORD [c] rooted them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation, and [d] cast them into another land, as it is this day.

29 The secret things belong unto the LORD our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law.

thou shalt call them to mind among all the nations, [b] whither the LORD thy God hath driven thee,

2 And [c] shalt return unto the LORD thy God, and [d] shalt obey his voice according to all that I command thee this day, thou and thy children, with all thine heart, and with all thy soul;

3 That then the LORD thy God will [e] turn thy captivity, and [f] have compassion upon thee, and will return and [g] gather thee from all the nations, whither the LORD thy God hath scattered thee.

4 [i] If any of thine be driven out unto the outmost parts of heaven, from thence will the LORD thy God gather thee, and from thence will he fetch thee:

5 And the LORD thy God will bring thee into the land which thy fathers possessed, and thou shalt possess it; and [p] he will do thee good, and [q] multiply thee above thy fathers.

6 And the LORD thy God will [r] circumcise thine heart, and the heart of thy seed, [s] to love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live.

7 And the LORD thy God will put all these curses upon thine enemies, and on [x] them that hate thee, which persecuted thee.

8 And thou shalt return and obey the voice of the LORD, and do all his commandments which I command thee this day.

9 And the LORD thy God [b] will make thee plenteous in every work of thine hand, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy land, for good: for the LORD will again [e] rejoice over thee for good, as he rejoiced over thy fathers:

10 If thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which are written in this book of the law, and if thou turn unto the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul.

11 ¶ For this commandment which I command thee this day, [4]it is not hidden from thee, neither is it far off.

12 [h] It is not in heaven, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it?

13 Neither is it beyond the sea, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it?

14 But the word is very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayest do it.

15 ¶ See, I have set before thee this day [d] life and good, and death and evil;

16 In that I command thee this day to love the LORD thy God, [f] to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandments and his statutes and his judgments, that thou mayest live and multiply: and the LORD thy God shall bless thee in the land whither thou goest to possess it.

17 But [l] if thine heart turn away, so that thou wilt not hear, but shalt be drawn away, [n] and worship other gods, and serve them;

18 [o] I denounce unto you this day, that ye shall surely perish, and that ye shall not [p] prolong your days upon the land, whither thou [r] passest over Jordan to go to possess it.

19 [s] I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live:

20 That thou mayest love the LORD thy God, and that thou mayest obey his voice, and that thou [z] mayest cleave unto him: for [2] he is thy life, and the length of thy days: that thou mayest dwell in the land [d] which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them.

CHAPTER 31

AND Moses went and spake these words unto all Israel.

2 And he said unto them, I am [k] an hundred and twenty years old this day; [m] I can no more [n] go out and come in: also the LORD hath said unto me, [p] Thou shalt not go over this Jordan.

3 The LORD thy God, [q] he will go over before thee, and he will [r] destroy these nations from before thee, and thou shalt possess them: and [a] Joshua, he shall go over before thee, as the LORD hath said.

4 And the LORD shall do unto them as he did to [b] Sihon and to [b] Og, kings of the Amorites, and unto the land of them, whom he destroyed.

5 And the LORD shall give them up before your face, that ye may do unto them [c] according unto all the commandments which I have commanded you.

6 [e] Be strong and of a good courage, fear not, [g] nor be afraid of them: [h] for the LORD thy God, he it is that doth go with thee; [i] he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.

7 ¶ And Moses called unto Joshua, and said unto him [k] in the sight of all Israel, Be strong and of a good courage: for thou must go with this people unto the land [m] which the LORD hath sworn unto their fathers to give them; and thou shalt cause them to inherit it.

8 And the LORD, he it is that doth go before thee; [q] he will be with thee, he will not fail thee, neither forsake thee: fear not, neither be dismayed.

9 ¶ And Moses wrote this law, and [t] delivered it unto [u] the priests the sons of Levi, [x] which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and unto all the elders of Israel.

10 And Moses commanded them, saying, [y] At the end of every seven years, in the solemnity of the [a] year of release, in the [b] feast of tabernacles,

11 When all Israel is come [c] to appear before the LORD thy God [e] in the place which he shall choose, [f] thou shalt read this law before all Israel in their hearing.

12 [g] Gather the people together, men, and women, and children, and thy [h] stranger that is within thy gates, that they may hear, and that [i] they may learn, [l] and fear the LORD your God, and observe to do all the words of this law:

13 And that [o] their children, which have not known any thing, may hear, and learn to fear the LORD your God, [s] as long as ye live in the land whither ye [t] go over Jordan to possess it.

14 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, [a] Behold, thy days approach that thou must die: call Joshua, and present yourselves in the tabernacle of the congregation, that [c] I may give him a charge. And Moses and Joshua went, and presented themselves in the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And the LORD appeared in the tabernacle in a [f] pillar of a cloud: and the pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the tabernacle.

16 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, thou shalt sleep with thy fathers; and this people will rise up, and [g] go a whoring after the gods of the strangers of the land, whither they go to be among them, and [h] will forsake me, and [k] break my covenant which I have made with them.

17 [l] Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and [m] I will forsake them, and [o] I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall befall them; so that they will say in that day, [q] Are not these evils come upon us, because [s] our God is not among us?

18 And I will surely hide my face in that day for all the evils which they shall have wrought, in that they are turned unto other gods.

19 Now therefore write ye [z] this song for you, and [b] teach it the children of Israel: put it in their mouths, that this song may be [e] a witness for me against the children of Israel.

20 For when I shall [g] have brought them into the land which I sware unto their fathers, that [h] floweth with milk and honey; and they shall have [i] eaten and filled themselves, and [k] waxen fat; [l] then will they turn unto other gods, and serve them, and [m] provoke me, and break my covenant.

21 And it shall come to pass, when many evils and troubles are befallen them, that this song shall testify against them as a witness; for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed: for I know [r] their imagination which they go about, even now, before I have brought them into the land which I sware.

22 ¶ Moses therefore wrote this song the same day, and taught it the children of Israel.

23 And [b] he gave Joshua the son of Nun a charge, and said, [d] Be strong and of a good courage: for thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the land which I sware unto them: and [e] I will be with thee.

24 ¶ And it came to pass, when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this law in a book, until they were finished,

25 That Moses commanded the Levites, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying,

26 Take this book of the law, and [i] put it in the side of the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may be there for a witness against thee.

27 For I know [n] thy rebellion, and thy [p] stiff neck: behold, while I am yet alive with you this day, ye have been rebellious against the LORD; and how much more after my death?

28 ¶ Gather unto me all the [r] elders of your tribes, and your [t] officers, that I may speak these words in their ears, and [u] call heaven and earth to record against them.

29 For [x] I know that after my death ye will utterly [y] corrupt yourselves, and [a] turn aside from the way which I have commanded you; and [c] evil will befall you in the [d] latter days; because [f] ye will do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands.

30 And Moses spake in the ears of all the congregation of Israel the words of this song, until they were ended.

CHAPTER 32

[n] GIVE ear, O ye heavens, and I will speak; and hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.

2 My [o] doctrine shall drop [p] as the rain, my speech shall distil [q] as the dew, [s] as the small rain upon the tender herb, and as the showers upon the grass:

3 Because [t] I will publish [u] the name of the LORD: ascribe ye [a]greatness unto our God.

4 He is [e] the Rock, his work is perfect: for [f] all his ways are judgment: [h] a God of truth and [i] without iniquity, just and right is he.

5 They have [2m] corrupted themselves, [3o] their spot is not the spot of his children: they are a [q] perverse and crooked generation.

6 Do ye thus requite the LORD, O [u] foolish people and unwise? is not he [y] thy father that hath [4z] bought thee? hath he not [a] made thee, and established thee?

7 ¶ [d] Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations: [f] ask thy father, and he will shew thee; thy elders, and they will tell thee.

8 When the [g] Most High [h] divided to the nations their inheritance, when he [k] separated the sons of Adam, he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel.

9 For the LORD's portion [m] is his people; Jacob is the lot of [o] his inheritance.

10 He found him in a desert land, and in the [r] waste howling [s] wilderness; he [6] led him about, he instructed him, he [u] kept him as the [x] apple of his eye.

11 [a] As an eagle stirreth up her nest, fluttereth over her young, [8] spreadeth abroad her wings, [9] taketh them, [2b] beareth them on her wings:

12 [3] So the LORD alone [c] did lead him, and there was no [e] strange god with him.

13 [f] He made him ride on the high places of the earth, that he might eat the increase of the fields; and he made him to suck [i] honey [k] out of the rock, and [m] oil out of the [n] flinty rock;

14 [o] Butter of kine, and [p] milk of sheep, with fat of lambs, and rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats, with [r] the fat of kidneys of [s] wheat; and thou didst drink the pure [t] blood of the grape.

29 [i] O that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would [k] consider their latter end!

30 [l] How should one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, except their [o] Rock had [p] sold them, and the LORD had shut them up?

31 For their rock is not as our Rock, [t] even our enemies themselves being judges.

32 For their vine is of the vine of [u] Sodom, and of the fields of Gō-mŏr'-răh: their grapes are grapes of [y] gall, their clusters are bitter:

33 Their wine is the poison of dragons, and the cruel venom of [a] asps.

34 Is not this laid up in store with me, and [c] sealed up among my treasures?

35 To me belongeth [d] vengeance, and recompence; [e] their foot shall slide in due time: for [g] the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things that shall come upon them make haste.

36 For [k] the LORD shall judge his people, and [m] repent himself for his servants, when he seeth that their [6]power is gone, and there is none [q] shut up, or [7]left.

37 And he shall say, [r] Where are their gods, their rock in whom they trusted, 38 Which did eat the fat of their sacrifices, and drank the wine of their drink offerings? let them rise up and help you, and be your protection.

39 See now that I, even [x] I, am he, and [z] there is no god with me: [a] I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and [c] I heal: neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand.

40 For [a] I lift up my hand to heaven, and say, [2]I live for ever.

41 [b] If I whet my glittering sword, and mine hand take hold on judgment; I will render [e] vengeance to mine enemies, and will reward [f] them that hate me.

42 I will make mine arrows drunk with blood, and [h] my sword shall devour flesh; and that with the blood of the slain and of the captives, from [4]the beginning of revenges upon the enemy.

43 [m] Rejoice, [n] O ye nations, with his people: for he will [q] avenge the blood of his servants, and will render vengeance to his adversaries, and [r] will [5]be merciful unto [s] his land, and to his people.

44 ¶ And Moses came and spake all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he, and [x] Hō-shē'-ă the son of Nun.

45 And Moses made an end of speaking all these words to all Israel:

46 And he said unto them, [z] Set your hearts unto all the words which I testify among you this day, [b] which ye shall command your children to observe to do, all the words of this law.

47 For it is not a vain thing for you; [f] because it is your life: and through this thing ye shall [h] prolong your days in the land, whither ye [i] go over Jordan to possess it.

48 And the LORD spake unto Moses that [l] selfsame day, saying,

49 [n] Get thee up into this mountain [o] Ăb'-ă-rīm, unto [p] mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, that is over against Jericho; and behold the land of Cā'-nă-ăn, which I give unto the children of Israel for a possession:

50 And die in the mount whither thou goest up, and [s] be gathered unto thy people; as [t] Aaron thy brother died in [u] mount Hor, and was gathered unto his people:

51 Because [y] ye trespassed against me among the children of Israel [b] at the waters of Meribah–[d] Kadesh, in

CHAPTER 33

AND [h] this is the blessing, wherewith Moses [i] the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death.

2 And he said, [l] The LORD came from [n] Sinai, and rose up from [o] Seir unto them; he shined forth from mount [r] Paran, and he came [s] with ten thousands of saints: [2] from his right hand went a [u] fiery law for them.

3 Yea, [x] he loved the people; all his saints are [y] in thy hand: and [z] they sat down at thy feet; every one shall receive of thy words.

4 [a] Moses commanded us a law, even the inheritance of the congregation of [c] Jacob.

5 And [e] he was king in [f] Jĕ-shū'-rŭn, when the heads of the people and the tribes of Israel were gathered together.

6 ¶ Let [i] Reuben [k] live, and not die; and [5] let not his men be few.

7 ¶ And this is the blessing of [l] Judah: and he said, Hear, LORD, the voice of Judah, and bring him unto his people: [8] [m] let his hands be sufficient for him; and be thou an help to him from his enemies.

8 ¶ And of [p] Levi he said, Let thy [q] Thummim and thy Urim be with [9] thy holy one, whom thou didst prove at [s] Massah, and with whom thou [u] didst strive [x] at the waters of Meribah;

9 Who said unto his father and to his mother, I have not seen him; [a] neither did he acknowledge his brethren, [b] nor knew his own children: for [c] they have observed thy word, and kept thy covenant.

10 [e] They shall teach Jacob thy judgments, and Israel thy law: [f] they shall put incense before thee, and [b] whole burnt sacrifice upon thine altar.

11 Bless, LORD, his substance, and [d] accept the work of his hands: [e] smite through the loins of them that rise against him, and of [f] them that hate him, that they rise not again.

12 ¶ And of [g] Benjamin he said, The beloved of the LORD shall dwell in safety by him; and the LORD shall cover him all the day long, [k] and he shall dwell between his shoulders.

13 ¶ And of [m] Joseph he said, Blessed of the LORD be his land, for the [p] precious things of heaven, for the [q] dew, and for the [t] deep that coucheth beneath,

14 And for the precious fruits brought forth by the sun, and for the precious things [3] put forth by the moon,

15 And for the chief things of the ancient mountains, and for the precious things of the [b] lasting hills,

16 And for the precious things of [d] the earth and fulness thereof, and for the good will of [g] him that dwelt in the bush: let the blessing come [h] upon the head of Joseph, and upon the top of the head of him that [4] was separated from his brethren.

17 [6] His glory is like the firstling of his bullock, and his horns are like the horns of [7] unicorns: with them he shall push the people together to the ends of the earth: and they are the ten thousands of [n] Ē'-phră-ĭm, and they are the thousands of [o] Mă-năs'-sēh.

18 ¶ And of [r] Zĕ-bū'-lŭn he said, Rejoice, Zebulun, in thy going out; and, [t] Ĭs'-să-chär, in thy tents.

19 They shall call the people [y] unto the mountain; there they shall offer [z] sacrifices of righteousness: for they shall suck of the abundance of the seas, and of treasures hid in the sand.

20 ¶ And [d] of Gad he said, Blessed be he that enlargeth Gad: he dwelleth as a lion, and teareth the arm with the crown of the head.

CHAPTER 34

AND Moses [a]went up from the [b]plains of Moab unto the [d]mountain of Nebo, to the top of [f]Pisgah, that is over against Jericho. And the LORD shewed him all the land of Gĭl'ĕ-ăd, [b]unto Dan.

2 And all Năph'tă-lī, and the land of Ē'phră-ĭm, and Mă-năs'sēh, and all the land of Judah, unto [3d]the utmost sea,

3 And the south, and [e]the plain of the valley of [g]Jericho, the city of [k]palm trees, unto [l]Zoar.

4 And the LORD said unto him, This is the land [n]which I sware unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, saying, I will give it unto thy seed: I have caused thee to see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not go over thither.

5 ¶ So [q]Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD.

6 And he buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, over against [s]Beth-peor: but [u]no man knoweth of his sepulchre unto this day.

7 ¶ And Moses was [z]an hundred and twenty years old when he died: [c]his eye was not dim, nor his natural force abated.

8 ¶ And the children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days: so the [f]days of weeping and mourning for Moses were ended.

9 ¶ And [k]Joshua the son of Nun was [m]full of the spirit of wisdom; for Moses [n]had laid his hands upon him: and the children of Israel hearkened unto him, and did as the LORD commanded Moses.

10 ¶ And there [r]arose not a prophet since in Israel [s]like unto Moses, whom the LORD [t]knew [u]face to face,

11 In all the [y]signs and the wonders, which the LORD sent him to do in the land of Egypt to [z]Phâr'āōh, and to all his servants, and to all his land,

THE BOOK OF JOSHUA

CHAPTER 1

13th c. B.C.

NOW after the death of [a] Moses the servant of the LORD it came to pass, that the LORD spake unto [c] Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' [d] minister, saying,

2 Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, thou, and all this people, unto the land which I do give to them, even to the children of Israel.

3 [h] Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, that [i] have I given unto you, as I said unto Moses.

4 [l] From the wilderness and this [n] Lebanon even unto the great river, the river [o] Eû-phrā'-tēs, all the land of the [q] Hittites, and unto the [r] great sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your coast.

5 [s] There shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life: as I was with Moses, so [t] I will be with thee: [x] I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.

6 [y] Be strong and of a good courage: for unto this people shalt thou divide for an inheritance the land, [z] which I sware unto their fathers to give them.

7 Only be thou strong and very courageous, that thou mayest [a] observe to do according to all the law, [b] which Moses my servant commanded thee: [c] turn not from it to the right hand or to the left, [e] that thou mayest [2] prosper whithersoever thou goest.

8 [f] This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but [g] thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success.

9 Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; [h] be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

10 ¶ Then Joshua commanded the [b] officers of the people, saying,

11 Pass through the host, and command the people, saying, Prepare you victuals; for within [e] three days [f] ye shall pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land, which the LORD your God giveth you to possess it.

12 ¶ And [g] to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to half the tribe of Mă-năs'-sēh, spake Joshua, saying,

13 Remember [k] the word which Moses the servant of the LORD [m] commanded you, saying, The LORD your God [p] hath given you rest, and hath given you this land.

14 Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle, shall remain in the land which Moses gave you on this side Jordan; but ye shall pass before your brethren [u] armed, all the mighty men of valour, and help them;

15 Until the LORD have given your brethren rest, as he hath given you, and they also have possessed the land which the LORD your God giveth them: then ye shall return unto the land of your possession, and enjoy it, which Moses the LORD's servant gave you on this side Jordan toward the sunrising.

16 ¶ And [d] they answered Joshua, saying, All that thou commandest us we will do, and whithersoever thou sendest us, we will go.

17 According as we hearkened unto Moses in all things, so will we hearken unto thee: only the LORD thy God be with thee, as he was with Moses.

18 Whosoever he be that doth rebel against thy commandment, and will not hearken unto thy words in all that thou commandest him, he shall be put to death: only be strong and of a good courage.

CHAPTER 2

13th c. B.C.

AND Joshua the son of Nun sent out of [b] Shittim two men [c] to spy secretly, saying, Go view the land, even [e] Jericho. And they went, and came into an harlot's house, named [f] Rahab, and lodged there.

2 And it was told the king of Jericho, saying, Behold, there came men in hither to night of the children of Israel to search out the country.

3 And the king of Jericho sent unto Rahab, saying, Bring forth the men that are come to thee, which are entered into thine house: for they be come to search out all the country.

4 [k] And the woman took the two men, and hid them, and said thus, There came men unto me, but I wist not whence they were:

5 And it came to pass about the time of shutting of the gate, when it was dark, that the men went out: whither the men went I wot not: pursue after them quickly; for ye shall overtake them.

6 But she had brought them up to the [n] roof of the house, and hid them with the stalks of [o] flax, which she had laid in order upon the roof.

7 And the men pursued after them the way to Jordan unto the fords: and as soon as they which pursued after them were gone out, they shut the gate.

8 ¶ And before they were laid down, she came up unto them upon the roof;

9 And she said unto the men, I know that the LORD hath given you the land, and that [s] your terror is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land [2 t] faint because of you.

10 For [u] we have heard how the LORD [x] dried up the water of the [x] Red sea for you, when ye came out of Egypt; and what ye did unto the two kings of the Amorites, that were on the other side Jordan, [y] Sihon and [y] Og, whom ye [z] utterly destroyed.

11 And as soon as we had heard these things, our hearts did melt, neither did there remain any more courage in any man, because of you: for the LORD your God, [a] he is God in heaven above, and in earth beneath.

12 Now therefore, I pray you, [d] swear unto me by the LORD, since I have shewed you kindness, that ye will also shew kindness unto my father's house, and give me a true [g] token:

13 And that ye will save alive my father, and my mother, and my sisters, and all that they have, and deliver our lives from death.

14 And the men answered her, [h] Our life for your's, if ye utter not this our business. And it shall be, when the LORD hath given us the land, that we will [i] deal kindly and truly with thee.

15 Then she [l] let them down by a cord through the window: for her house was upon the town wall, and she dwelt upon the wall.

16 And she said unto them, Get you to the mountain, lest the pursuers meet you; and hide yourselves there [m] three days, until the pursuers be returned: and afterward may ye go your way.

17 And the men said unto her, We will be blameless of this thine oath which thou hast made us swear.

18 Behold, when we come into the land, thou shalt bind this line of [p] scarlet thread in the window which thou didst let us down by: and [q] thou shalt bring thy father, and thy mother, and thy brethren, and all thy father's household, home unto thee.

19 And it shall be, that whosoever shall go out of the doors of thy house into the street, [r] his blood shall be upon his head, and we will be guiltless: and whosoever shall be with thee in the house, his blood shall be on our head, if any hand be upon him.

20 And if thou utter this our business, then we will be quit of thine oath which thou hast made us to swear.

21 And she said, According unto your words, so be it. And she sent them away, and they departed: and she bound the scarlet line in the window.

22 And they went, and came unto the mountain, and abode there three days, until the pursuers were returned: and the pursuers sought them throughout all the way, but found them not.

23 ¶ So the two men returned, and descended from the mountain, and passed over, and came to Joshua the son of Nun, and told him all things that befell them:

24 And they said unto Joshua, Truly the LORD hath delivered into our hands all the land; for even all the inhabitants of the country do faint because of us.

CHAPTER 3

AND Joshua rose early in the morning; and they removed from [i] Shittim, and came to Jordan, he and all the children of Israel, and lodged there before they passed over.

2 And it came to pass after [k] three days, that the [l] officers went through the host;

3 And they commanded the people, saying, When ye see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, and [n] the priests the Levites bearing it, then ye shall remove from your place, and go after it.

4 [o] Yet there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure: come not near unto it, that ye may know the way by which ye must go: for ye have not passed this way heretofore.

5 And Joshua said unto the people, [r] Sanctify yourselves: for to morrow the LORD will do [t] wonders among you.

6 And Joshua spake unto the priests, saying, Take up the ark of the covenant, and pass over before the people. And they took up the ark of the covenant, and went before the people.

7 ¶ And the LORD said unto Joshua, This day will I begin to [a] magnify thee in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that, as I was with Moses, [c] so I will be with thee.

8 And thou shalt command the priests that bear the ark of the covenant, saying, When ye are come to the brink of the water of Jordan, [d] ye shall stand still in Jordan.

9 ¶ And Joshua said unto the children of Israel, Come hither, and hear the words of the LORD your God.

10 And Joshua said, Hereby ye shall know that [a] the living God is [b] among you, and that he will without fail [c] drive out from before you [d] the Cā'-nă-ăn-ītes, and the Hittites, and the Hivites, and the Pĕ-rĭz'-zītes, and the Gĭr'-gă-shītes, and the Amorites, and the Jĕb'-ū-sītes.

11 Behold, [e] the ark of the covenant of [f] the LORD of all the earth passeth over [g] before you into Jordan.

12 Now therefore [h] take you twelve men out of the tribes of Israel, out of every tribe a man.

13 And it shall come to pass, as soon as the soles of the feet of the priests that bear the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, shall rest in the waters of Jordan, that the waters of Jordan shall be cut off from the waters that come down from above; and they shall [m] stand upon an heap.

14 ¶ And it came to pass, when the people removed from their tents, to pass over Jordan, and the priests bearing the ark of the covenant before the people;

15 And as they that bare the ark were come unto Jordan, and the feet of the priests that bare the ark were dipped in the brim of the water, (for [p] Jordan overfloweth all his banks [q] all the time of harvest,)

16 That the waters which came down from above stood and rose up upon an [s] heap very far from the city Adam, that is beside [u] Zăr'-ĕ-tăn: and those that came down toward the sea of [x] the plain, even the [y] salt sea, failed, and were cut off: and the people passed over right against Jericho.

17 And the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD [z] stood firm on [b] dry ground in the midst of Jordan, and all the Israelites passed over on dry ground, until all the people were passed clean over Jordan.

AND it came to pass, when all the people were clean [e] passed over Jordan, that the LORD spake unto Joshua, saying,

2 [a]Take you twelve men out of the people, out of every tribe a man,

3 And command ye them, saying, Take you hence out of the midst of Jordan, out of the place where the priests' feet [e]stood firm, [f]twelve stones, and ye shall carry them over with you, and leave them in the lodging place, where ye shall lodge this night.

4 Then Joshua called the twelve men, whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, out of every tribe a man:

5 And Joshua said unto them, Pass over before the ark of the LORD your God into the midst of Jordan, and take you up every man of you a stone upon his shoulder, according unto the number of the tribes of the children of Israel:

6 That this may be a sign among you, that [k]when your children ask their fathers in time to come, saying, What mean ye by these stones?

7 Then ye shall answer them, That the waters of Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD; when it passed over Jordan, the waters of Jordan were cut off: and these stones shall be for [n]a memorial unto the children of Israel for ever.

8 And the children of Israel did so as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the midst of Jordan, as the LORD spake unto Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and carried them over with them unto the place where they lodged, and laid them down there.

9 And Joshua set up [r]twelve stones in the midst of Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests [s]which bare the ark of the covenant stood: and they are there unto this day.

10 ¶ For the priests which bare the ark stood in the midst of Jordan, until every thing was finished that the LORD commanded Joshua to speak unto the people, according to all that Moses commanded Joshua: and the people hasted and passed over.

11 And it came to pass, when all the people were clean passed over, that the [b]ark of the LORD passed over, and the priests, in the presence of the people.

12 And the [c]children of Reuben, and the [d]children of Gad, and half the tribe of Mă-năs'-sēh, passed over [g]armed before the children of Israel, as Moses spake unto them:

13 About forty thousand [h]prepared for war passed over before the LORD unto battle, to the plains of Jericho.

14 ¶ On that day the LORD [i]magnified Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they feared him, as they feared Moses, all the days of his life.

15 And the LORD spake unto Joshua, saying,

16 Command the priests that bear the [j]ark of the testimony, that they come up out of Jordan.

17 Joshua therefore commanded the priests, saying, Come ye up out of Jordan.

18 And it came to pass, when the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD were come up out of the midst of Jordan, and the soles of the priests' feet were lifted up unto the dry land, that the waters of Jordan returned unto their place, and [l]flowed over all his banks, [m]as they did before.

19 ¶ And the people came up out of Jordan on the [o]tenth day of the [p]first month, and encamped in [q]Gilgal, in the east border of Jericho.

20 And those twelve stones, which they took out of Jordan, did Joshua pitch in Gilgal.

21 And he spake unto the children of Israel, saying, When your children shall ask their fathers in time to come, saying, What mean these stones?

22 Then ye shall let your children know, saying, Israel came over this Jordan on [t]dry land.

23 For the LORD your God dried up the waters of Jordan from before you, until ye were passed over, as the LORD your God did to the [u]Red sea, [u]which he dried up from before us, until we were gone over:

24 That [x]all the people of the earth might know the hand of the LORD, that it is [y]mighty: that [2]ye might [z]fear the LORD your God for ever.

CHAPTER 5

AND it came to pass, when all the kings of the Amorites, which were on the side of Jordan westward, and all the kings of the [d] Cā'nă-ănites, which were [e] by the sea, [f] heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of Jordan from before the children of Israel, until we were passed over, that their heart [m] melted, [n] neither was there spirit in them any more, because of the children of Israel.

2 ¶ At that time the LORD said unto Joshua, Make thee [3q] sharp knives, and circumcise again the children of Israel the second time.

3 And Joshua made him sharp knives, and circumcised the children of Israel at the hill of the foreskins.

4 And this is the cause why Joshua did circumcise: [u] All the people that came out of Egypt, that were males, even all the men of war, died in the wilderness by the way, after they came out of Egypt.

5 Now all the people that came out were circumcised: but all the people that were born in the wilderness by the way as they came forth out of Egypt, them they had not circumcised.

6 For the children of Israel walked [b] forty years in the wilderness, till all the people that were men of war, which came out of Egypt, were consumed, because [c] they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: unto whom the LORD sware that he would not shew them the land, [e] which the LORD sware unto their fathers that he would give us, [f] a land that floweth with milk and honey.

7 And [h] their children, whom he raised up in their stead, them Joshua circumcised: for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them by the way.

8 And it came to pass, when they had done circumcising all the people, that they abode in their places in the camp, till they were whole.

9 And the LORD said unto Joshua, This day have I rolled away [l] the reproach of Egypt from off you. Wherefore the name of the place is called [2a] Gilgal unto this day.

10 ¶ And the children of Israel encamped in Gilgal, and [b] kept the passover on [c] the fourteenth day of the month at even in the plains of Jericho.

11 [g] And they did eat of the [h] old corn of the land on the morrow after the passover, [i] unleavened cakes, and [k] parched corn in the [l] selfsame day.

12 ¶ And the [o] manna ceased on the morrow [p] after they had eaten of the old corn of the land; neither had the children of Israel manna any more; but they did eat of the fruit of the [r] land of Cā'nă-ăn that year.

13 ¶ And it came to pass, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and, behold, there stood [s] a man over against him [t] with his sword drawn in his hand: and Joshua went unto him, and said unto him, Art thou for us, or for our adversaries?

14 And he said, Nay; but as captain of the host of the LORD am I now come. And Joshua [x] fell on his face to the earth, and did [y] worship, and said unto him, What saith my lord unto his servant?

15 And the captain of the LORD's host said unto Joshua, [z] Loose thy shoe from off thy foot; for [a] the place whereon thou standest is holy. And Joshua did so.

CHAPTER 6

NOW [d] Jericho was straitly shut up because of the children of Israel: none went out, and none came in.

2 And the LORD said unto Joshua, See, [g] I have given into thine hand Jericho, and the king thereof, and the mighty men of valour.

3 And ye shall compass the city, all ye men of war, and go round about the city once. Thus shalt thou do six days.

4 And seven priests shall bear before the ark seven trumpets of rams' horns: and the seventh day ye shall compass the city [i] seven times, and the priests [k] shall blow with the trumpets.

5 And it shall come to pass, that when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when ye hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city shall fall down flat, and the people shall ascend up every man straight before him.

6 ¶ And Joshua the son of Nun called the priests, and said unto them, Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD.

7 And he said unto the people, Pass on, and compass the city, and let him that is armed pass on before the ark of the LORD.

8 ¶ And it came to pass, when Joshua had spoken unto the people, that the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns passed on before the LORD, and blew with the trumpets: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them.

9 ¶ And the armed men went before the priests that blew with the trumpets, and the [f]rereward came after the ark, the priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets.

10 And Joshua had commanded the people, saying, Ye shall not shout, nor make any noise with your voice, neither shall any word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I bid you shout; then shall ye shout.

11 So [i] the ark of the LORD compassed the city, going about it once: and they came into the camp, and lodged in the camp.

12 ¶ And Joshua rose early in the morning, and [k] the priests took up the ark of the LORD.

13 And seven priests bearing seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD went on continually, and blew with the trumpets: and the armed men went before them; but the rereward came after the ark of the LORD, the priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets.

14 And the second day they compassed the city once, and returned into the camp: so they did six days.

15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they rose early about the dawning of the day, and compassed the city after the same manner seven times: only on that day they compassed the city seven times.

16 And it came to pass at the seventh time, when the priests blew with the trumpets, Joshua said unto the people, Shout; for the LORD hath given you the city.

17 ¶ And the city shall be [2a] accursed, even it, and all that are therein, to the LORD: only [b] Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all that are with her in the house, because she [c] hid the messengers that we sent.

18 And ye, in any wise keep yourselves from the accursed thing, [3d] lest ye make yourselves accursed, when ye take of the accursed thing, and make the camp of Israel a curse, and [e] trouble it.

19 But all the silver, and gold, and vessels of brass and iron, are consecrated unto the LORD: they shall come into the treasury of the LORD.

20 So the people shouted when the priests blew with the trumpets: and it came to pass, when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, that [g] the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city.

21 And they [h] utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox, and sheep, and ass, with the edge of the sword.

22 But Joshua had said unto the two men that had [l] spied out the country, Go into the harlot's house, and bring out thence the woman, and [m] all that she hath, [n] as ye sware unto her.

23 And the young men that were spies went in, and brought out Rahab, and her father, and her mother, and her brethren, and all that she had; and they brought out all her kindred, and left them [o] without the camp of Israel.

24 And they [p] burnt the city with fire, and all that was therein: only the silver, and the gold, and the vessels of brass and of iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD.

25 And Joshua saved Rahab the harlot alive, and her father's household, and all that she had; and [a] she dwelleth in Israel even unto this day; because she hid the messengers, which Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

26 ¶ And [b] Joshua adjured them at that time, saying, [d] Cursed be the man before the LORD, that riseth up and [f] buildeth this city Jericho: he shall lay the foundation thereof in his firstborn, and in his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it.

27 So [k] the LORD was with Joshua; and [l] his fame was noised throughout all the country.

CHAPTER 7

BUT the children of Israel committed a trespass in [n] the accursed thing: for [2o] Ā'chăn, the son of Cär'mī, the son of [3] Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the accursed thing: and [q] the anger of the LORD was kindled against the children of Israel.

2 And Joshua sent men from Jericho to [s] Ā'ī, which is beside [t] Beth-aven, on the east side of [x] Beth-el, and spake unto them, saying, Go up and view the country. And the men went up and viewed Ai.

3 And they returned to Joshua, and said unto him, Let not all the people go up; but let about two or three thousand men go up and smite Ā'ī; and make not all the people to labour thither; for they are but few.

4 So there went up thither of the people about three thousand men: and [z] they fled before the men of Ā'ī.

5 [b] And the men of Ā'ī smote of them about thirty and six men: for they chased them from before the gate even unto Shĕb'ă-rīm, and smote them in the going down: wherefore the hearts of the people [c] melted, and became as water.

6 ¶ And Joshua [d] rent his clothes, and [f] fell to the earth upon his face before the [g] ark of the LORD until the eventide, he and the elders of Israel, and [h] put dust upon their heads.

7 And Joshua said, Alas, O Lord GOD, [k] wherefore hast thou at all brought this people over Jordan, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? would to God we had been content, and dwelt on the other side Jordan!

8 O Lord, what shall I say, when Israel [c] turneth their backs before their enemies!

9 For the [e] Cā'nă-ăn-ītes and all the inhabitants of the land shall [g] hear of it, and shall environ us round, and [h] cut off our name from the earth: and what wilt thou do unto [i] thy great name?

10 ¶ And the LORD said unto Joshua, Get thee up; wherefore liest thou thus upon thy face?

11 Israel hath sinned, and they have also [m] transgressed my covenant which I commanded them: for they have even taken of the accursed thing, and have also stolen, and [p] dissembled also, and they have put it even among their own stuff.

12 [r] Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they [u] were accursed: neither will I be with you any more, except ye destroy the accursed from among you.

13 Up, [y] sanctify the people, and say, Sanctify yourselves against to morrow: for thus saith the LORD God of Israel, There is an accursed thing in the midst of thee, O Israel: thou canst not stand before thine enemies, until ye take away the accursed thing from among you.

14 In the morning therefore ye shall be brought [a] according to your tribes: and it shall be, that the tribe which the LORD taketh shall come according to the families thereof; and the family which the LORD shall take shall come by households; and the household which the LORD shall take shall come man by man.

15 [e] And it shall be, that he that is taken with the accursed thing shall be burnt with fire, he and all that he hath: because he hath transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he hath [i] wrought folly in Israel.

16 ¶ So Joshua rose up early in the morning, and brought Israel by their tribes; and the tribe of Judah was taken:

17 And he brought the family of Judah; and he took the family of the Zarhites: and he brought the family of the Zarhites man by man; and Zabdi was taken:

18 And he brought his household man by man; [e] and Ā'chăn, the son of Cär'mī, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.

19 And Joshua said unto Ā'chăn, My son, [h] give, I pray thee, glory to the LORD God of Israel, and [i] make confession unto him; and tell me now what thou hast done; hide it not from me.

20 And Ā'chăn answered Joshua, and said, Indeed [m] I have sinned against the LORD God of Israel, and thus and thus have I done:

21 When I saw among the spoils a goodly [3n] Băb-ў-lō'nĭsh garment, and two hundred shē'kĕls of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty [o] shekels weight, then I [q] coveted them, and took them; and, behold, they are hid in the earth in the midst of my tent, and the silver under it.

22 ¶ So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran unto the tent; and, behold, it was hid in his tent, and the silver under it.

23 And they took them out of the midst of the tent, and brought them unto Joshua, and unto all the children of Israel, and laid them out before the LORD.

24 And Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Ā'chăn the son of Zerah, and the silver, and the garment, and the wedge of gold, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and [s] all that he had: and they brought them unto [t] the valley of Ā'chôr.

25 And Joshua said, [u] Why hast thou troubled us? the LORD shall trouble thee this day. And all Israel [x] stoned him with stones, and burned them with fire, after they had stoned them with stones.

CHAPTER 8

AND the LORD said unto Joshua, [d] Fear not, neither be thou dismayed: take all the people of war with thee, and arise, go up to [f] Ā'ī: see, [g] I have given into thy hand the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land:

2 And thou shalt do to Ā'ī and her king [k] as thou didst unto Jericho and her king: only [l] the spoil thereof, and the cattle thereof, shall ye take for a prey unto yourselves: lay thee an ambush for the city behind it.

3 ¶ So Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up against Ā'ī: and Joshua chose out thirty thousand mighty men of valour, and sent them away by night.

4 And he commanded them, saying, Behold, ye shall [p] lie in wait against the city, even behind the city: go not very far from the city, but be ye all ready:

5 And I, and all the people that are with me, will approach unto the city: and it shall come to pass, when they come out against us, [r] as at the first, that we will flee before them,

6 (For they will come out after us) till we have drawn them from the city; for they will say, They flee before us, as at the first: therefore we will flee before them.

7 Then ye shall rise up from the ambush, and seize upon the city: for the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand.

8 And it shall be, when ye have taken the city, that ye shall set the city on fire: according to the commandment of the LORD shall ye do. See, I have commanded you.

9 ¶ Joshua therefore sent them forth: and they went to lie in ambush, and abode between Beth-el and Ā'ī, on the west side of Ai: but Joshua [y] lodged that night among the people.

13th c. B.C.

10 And Joshua rose up early in the morning, and numbered the people, and went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ā'ī.

11 And all the people, even the people of war that were with him, went up, and drew nigh, and came before the city, and pitched on the north side of Ā'ī: now there was a valley between them and Ai.

12 And he took about five thousand men, and set them to lie in ambush between Beth-el and Ā'ī, on the west side of the city.

13 And when they had set the people, even all the host that was on the north of the city, and their liers in wait on the west of the city, Joshua went that night into the midst of the valley.

14 ¶ And it came to pass, when the king of Ā'ī saw it, that they hasted and rose up early, and the men of the city went out against Israel to battle, he and all his people, at a time appointed, before [b] the plain; but [c] he wist not that there were liers in ambush against him behind the city.

15 And Joshua and all Israel [d] made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness.

16 And all the people that were in Ā'ī were called together to pursue after them: and they pursued after Joshua, and were drawn away from the city.

17 And there was not a man left in Ā'ī or Beth-el, that went not out after Israel: and they left the city open, and pursued after Israel.

18 And the LORD said unto Joshua, Stretch out the spear that is in thy hand toward Ā'ī; for I will give it into thine hand. And Joshua stretched out the spear that he had in his hand toward the city.

19 And the ambush arose quickly out of their place, and they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand: and they entered into the city, and took it, and hasted and set the city on fire.

20 And when the men of Ā'ī looked behind them, they saw, and, behold, the smoke of the city ascended up to heaven, and they had no power to flee this way or that way: and the people that fled to the wilderness turned back upon the pursuers.

21 And when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city ascended, then they turned again, and slew the men of Ā'ī.

22 And the other issued out of the city against them; so they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side, and some on that side: and they smote them, so that they [a] let none of them remain or escape.

23 And the king of Ā'ī they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.

24 And it came to pass, when Israel had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ā'ī in the field, in the wilderness wherein they chased them, and when they were all fallen on the edge of the sword, until they were consumed, that all the Israelites returned unto Ai, and smote it with the edge of the sword.

25 And so it was, that all that fell that day, both of men and women, were twelve thousand, even all the men of Ā'ī.

26 For Joshua drew not his hand back, wherewith he stretched out the spear, until he had [e] utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ā'ī.

27 Only the cattle and the spoil of that city Israel took for a prey unto themselves, according unto the word of the LORD which he [f] commanded Joshua.

28 And Joshua burnt Ā'ī, and made it an [g] heap for ever, even a desolation unto this day.

29 And the king of Ā'ī he [h] hanged on a tree until eventide: and [i] as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take his carcase down from the tree, and cast it at the entering of the gate of the city, and [k] raise thereon a great heap of stones, that remaineth unto this day.

30 ¶ Then Joshua built an [l] altar unto the LORD God of Israel in [m] mount Ebal,

AND it came to pass, when all the kings which were on this side Jordan, in the hills, and in the valleys, and in all [a] the coasts of [b] the great sea over against [c] Lebanon, the [d] Hittite, and the Amorite, the Cā'-nă-ăn-īte, the Pĕ-rĭz'-zīte, the Hivite, and the Jĕb'-ū-sīte, [e] heard thereof;

2 That they [f] gathered themselves together, to fight with Joshua and with Israel, with one accord.

3 ¶ And when the inhabitants of [h] Gibeon heard what Joshua had done unto Jericho and to Ā'-ī,

4 They did work wilily, and went and [2] made as if they had been ambassadors, and took old sacks upon their asses, and wine bottles, old, and rent, and bound up;

5 And old shoes and clouted upon their feet and old garments upon them; and all the bread of their provision was dry and mouldy.

6 And they went to Joshua unto the camp at [c] Gilgal, and said unto him, and to the men of Israel, We be come from [e] a far country: now therefore make ye a league with us.

7 And the men of Israel said unto the [h] Hivites, Peradventure ye dwell among us; and [i] how shall we make a league with you?

8 And they said unto Joshua, We are thy servants. And Joshua said unto them, Who are ye? and from whence come ye?

9 And they said unto him, From a very far country thy servants are come because of the name of the LORD thy God: for [q] we have heard the fame of him, and all that he did in Egypt,

10 And all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites, that were beyond Jordan, to [u] Sihon king of Heshbon, and to [x] Og king of Bashan, which was at [y] Ăsh'-tă-rōth.

11 Wherefore our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spake to us, saying, Take victuals with you for the journey, and go to meet them, and say unto them, We are your servants: therefore now make ye a league with us.

12 This our bread we took hot for our provision out of our houses on the day we came forth to go unto you; but now, behold, it is dry, and it is mouldy:

13 And these bottles of wine, which we filled, were new; and, behold, they be rent: and these our garments and our shoes are become old by reason of the very long journey.

14 And the men took of their victuals, and [g] asked not counsel at the mouth of the LORD.

15 And Joshua [i] made peace with them, and made a league with them, to let them live: and the princes of the congregation [k] sware unto them.

16 ¶ And it came to pass at the end of three days after they had made a league with them, that they heard that they were their neighbours, and that they dwelt among them.

CHAPTER 10

NOW it came to pass, when Ăd'ō-nī-zē'dĕc [c] king of Jerusalem [f] had heard how Joshua had taken [g] Ā'ī, and had [h] utterly destroyed it; as he had done to Jericho and her king, so he had done to Ai and her king; and how the inhabitants of [k] Gibeon had [l] made peace with Israel, and were among them;

2 That they [m] feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, as one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ā'ī, and all the men thereof were mighty.

3 Wherefore Ăd'ō-nī-zē'dĕc king of Jerusalem [p] sent unto Hō'hăm king of Hebron, and unto Pī'răm king of [q] Jarmuth, and unto Jă-phī'ă king of Lā'chĭsh, and unto Debir king of [t] Eglon, saying,

4 Come up unto me, and help me, that we may smite Gibeon: for it hath made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel.

5 Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lā'chĭsh, the king of Eglon, [y] gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their hosts, and encamped before Gibeon, and made war against it.

6 ¶ And the men of Gibeon sent unto Joshua to the camp to [z] Gilgal, saying, Slack not thy hand from thy servants; come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us: for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the mountains are gathered together against us.

7 So Joshua ascended from Gilgal, he, and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valour.

8 ¶ And the LORD said unto Joshua, Fear them not: for [c] I have delivered them into thine hand; [d] there shall not a man of them stand before thee.

9 Joshua therefore came unto them suddenly, and went up from Gilgal all night.

10 And the LORD [e] discomfited them before Israel, and slew them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goeth up to [a]Beth-horon, and smote them to [b]Ă-zē'kăh, and unto [c]Măk-kē'dăh.

11 And it came to pass, as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going down to Beth-horon, that the LORD cast down great stones from heaven upon them unto Ă-zē'kăh, and they died: they were more which died with [f]hailstones than they whom the children of Israel slew with the sword.

12 ¶ Then spake Joshua to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the [g]Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, [h]Sun, [3]stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of [i]Ăj'ă-lŏn.

13 And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. [k]Is not this written in the book of [4]Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day.

14 [o]And there was no day like that before it or after it, that the LORD hearkened unto the voice of a man: for [q]the LORD fought for Israel.

15 ¶ And Joshua [r] returned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to Gilgal.

16 But these five kings fled, and hid themselves in a cave at Măk-kē'dăh.

17 And it was told Joshua, saying, The five kings are found hid in a cave at Măk-kē'dăh.

18 And Joshua said, Roll great stones upon the mouth of the cave, and set men by it for to keep them:

19 And stay ye not, but pursue after your enemies, and [t]smite the hindmost of them; suffer them not to enter into their cities: for the LORD your God hath delivered them into your hand.

20 And it came to pass, when Joshua and the children of Israel had made an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, till they were consumed, that the rest which remained of them entered into fenced cities.

And they came near, and put their feet upon the necks of them.

25 And Joshua said unto them, [l]Fear not, nor be dismayed, [m]be strong and of good courage: [n]for thus shall the LORD do to all your enemies against whom ye fight.

26 And afterward Joshua smote them, and slew them, and [p]hanged them on five trees: and they were hanging upon the trees until the evening.

27 And it came to pass [s]at the time of the going down of the sun, that Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave wherein they had been hid, and laid great stones in the cave's mouth, which remain until this very day.

28 ¶ And that day Joshua took Măk-kē'dăh, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof he utterly destroyed, them, and all the souls that were therein; he let none remain: and he did to the king of Makkedah [u]as he did unto the king of Jericho.

29 Then Joshua passed from Măk-kē'dăh, and all Israel with him, unto [x]Libnah, and fought against Libnah:

30 And the LORD delivered it also, and the king thereof, into the hand of Israel; and he smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein; he let none remain in it; but did unto the king thereof as he did unto the king of Jericho.

31 ¶ And Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, unto [e] Lā'chĭsh, and encamped against it, and fought against it:

32 And the LORD delivered Lā'chĭsh into the hand of Israel, which took it on the second day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein, according to all that he had done to Libnah.

33 ¶ Then Horam king of [g] Gezer came up to help Lā'chĭsh; and Joshua smote him and his people, until he had left him none remaining.

34 ¶ And from Lā'chĭsh Joshua passed unto Eglon, and all Israel with him; and they encamped against it, and fought against it:

35 And they took it on that day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein he utterly destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Lā'chĭsh.

36 And Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him, unto [q] Hebron; and they fought against it:

37 And they took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and all the souls that were therein; he left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon; but destroyed it utterly, and all the souls that were therein.

38 ¶ And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to [u] Debir; and fought against it:

39 And he took it, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof; and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the souls that were therein; he left none remaining: as he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to the king thereof; as he had done also to Libnah, and to her king.

40 ¶ So Joshua smote all the country of the hills, and of the south, and of the vale, and of [z] the [4]springs, and all their kings: he left none remaining, but utterly destroyed [a] all that breathed, as the LORD God of Israel commanded.

41 And Joshua smote them from [b] Kadesh-bär'nĕ-ă even unto [c] Gaza, and all the country of [d] Goshen, even unto Gibeon.

42 And all these kings and their land did Joshua take at one time, because the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel.

43 And Joshua [f] returned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to Gilgal.

CHAPTER 11

AND it came to pass, when [h] Jabin king of [i] Hazor had heard those things, that he [k] sent to Jobab king of [j] Madon, and to the king of [l] Shimron, and to the king of [l] Ăch'shăph,

2 And to the kings that were on the north of the mountains, and of the [2m] plains south of [n] Chĭn'nĕ-rōth, and in the valley, and in the [3o] borders of [o] Dor on the west,

3 [p] And to the Cā'nă-ăn-īte on the east and on the west, and to the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Pĕrĭz'zīte, and the Jĕb'ū-šīte in the mountains, and to the Hivite under [r] Hermon in the land of [s] Mizpeh.

4 And they went out, they and all their hosts with them, much people, even as [t] the sand that is upon the sea shore in multitude, with horses and chariots very many.

5 And when all these kings were met together, they came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, to fight against Israel.

6 ¶ And the LORD said unto Joshua, [x] Be not afraid because of them: for to morrow about this time will I deliver them up all slain before Israel: thou shalt [y] hough their horses, and burn their chariots with fire.

7 So Joshua came, and all the people of war with him, against them by the waters of Merom suddenly; and they fell upon them.

8 And the LORD delivered them into the hand of Israel, who smote them, and chased them unto great [a] Zidon, and unto [b] Mĭs'rē-phōth–mā'ĭm, and unto the valley of Mizpeh eastward; and they smote them, until they left them none remaining.

9 And Joshua did unto them as the LORD bade him: he houghed their horses, and burnt their chariots with fire.

10 ¶ And Joshua at that time turned back, and took Hazor, and smote the king thereof with the sword: for Hazor beforetime was the head of all those kingdoms.

11 And they smote all the souls that were therein with the edge of the sword, [k] utterly destroying them: [l] there was not any left to breathe: and he burnt Hazor with fire.

12 And all the cities of those kings, and [o] all the kings of them, did Joshua take, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and he utterly destroyed them, as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded.

13 But as for the cities that stood still [3] in their strength, Israel burned [s] none of them, save Hazor only; that did Joshua burn.

14 And all the spoil of these cities, and the cattle, the children of Israel took for a prey unto themselves; but every man they smote with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them, neither left they any to breathe.

15 ¶ [y] As the LORD commanded Moses his servant, [z] so did Moses command Joshua, and so did Joshua; he left nothing undone of all that the LORD commanded Moses.

16 So Joshua took all that land, the hills, and all the south country, and all the land of [d] Goshen, and the valley, and the plain, and the mountain of Israel, and the valley of the same;

17 Even from the [4] [g] mount Halak, that goeth up to [i] Seir, even unto [l] Bā'ăl–găd in the valley of [m] Lebanon under mount Hermon: and all their kings he took, and smote them, and slew them.

18 Joshua made war [p] a long time with all those kings.

19 There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, save the [c] Hivites the inhabitants of [d] Gibeon: all other they took in battle.

20 For it was of the LORD [e] to harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle, that he might destroy them utterly, and that they [2] might have no favour, but that he might destroy them, as the LORD commanded Moses.

21 ¶ And at that time came Joshua, and cut off the [f] Ăn'ă-kĭms from the mountains, from [g] Hebron, from [h] Debir, from [i] Anab, and from all the mountains of Judah, and from all the mountains of Israel: Joshua destroyed them utterly with their cities.

22 There was none of the Ăn'ă-kims left in the land of the children of Israel: only in [m] Gaza, in [n] Gath, and in [p] Ashdod, there remained.

23 So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD said unto Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance unto Israel [q] according to their divisions by their tribes. [r] And the land rested from war.

CHAPTER 12

NOW these are [t] the kings of the land, which the children of Israel smote, and possessed their land on the other side Jordan toward the rising of the sun, from the river [u] Arnon unto mount [x] Hermon, and all the plain on the east:

2 [a] Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon, and ruled from [b] Ă-rō'ĕr, which is upon the bank of the river Arnon, and from the middle of the river, and from half Gĭl'ĕ-ăd, even unto the river [c] Jabbok, which is the border of the children of [e] Ammon;

CHAPTER 13

NOW Joshua [l] was old and stricken in years; and the LORD said unto him, Thou art old and stricken in years, and there remaineth yet very much land to be possessed.

2 [n] This is the land that yet remaineth: all the [p] borders of the Philistines, and all Gĕ-shū'rī,

3 From [s] Sihor, which is before Egypt, even unto the borders of [u] Ekron northward, which is counted to the Cā'nă-ăn-īte: [x] five lords of the Philistines; the Gā'zā-thītes, and the Ăsh'dō-thītes, the Ĕsh'kă-lon-ītes, the Gittites, and the Ekronites; also the [z] Avites:

4 From the south, all the land of the [a] Cā'nă-ăn-ītes, and Mĕ-ār'ăh that is beside the Sī-dō'nī-ăns unto [b] Aphek, to the borders of the Amorites:

5 And the land of the [e] Giblites, and all [g] Lebanon, toward the sunrising, from [i] Bā'ăl–gād under mount [k] Hermon [m] unto the entering into Hā'măth.

6 All the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon unto [q] Mĭs'rĕ-phōth–mā'ĭm, and all the Sī-dō'nĭ-ăns, [t] them will I drive out from before the children of Israel: only [y] divide thou it by lot unto the Israelites for an inheritance, as I have commanded thee.

7 Now therefore divide this land for an inheritance unto the nine tribes, and the half tribe of Mă-năs'sēh,

8 With whom [e] the Reubenites and the Gadites have received their inheritance, which Moses gave them, beyond Jordan eastward, even as Moses the servant of the LORD gave them;

9 From [l] Ă-rō'ĕr, that is upon the bank of the river [n] Arnon, and [o] the city that is in the midst of the river, and all [2a] the plain of [b] Mē'dĕ-bă unto [c] Dibon;

10 And all the cities of [d] Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, unto the border of the children of Ammon;

11 And Gĭl'ĕ-ăd, and the border of the [e] Gĕ-shū'rītes and [f] Mā-ăch'ă-thītes, and all mount Hermon, and all Bashan unto [g] Salcah;

12 All the kingdom of [i] Og in Bashan, which reigned in [j] Ăsh'tă-rōth and in [j] Ĕd'rĕ-ī, who remained of the remnant of the [l] giants: [m] for these did Moses smite, and cast them out.

13 Nevertheless the children of Israel [p] expelled not the Gĕ-shū'rītes, nor the Mā-ăch'ă-thītes: but the Geshurites and the Maachathites dwell among the Israelites until this day.

14 Only unto the tribe of Levi [u] he gave none inheritance; the sacrifices of the LORD God of Israel [x] made by fire are their inheritance, as he said unto them.

15 ¶ And Moses gave unto the tribe of the children of Reuben inheritance according to their families.

16 And their coast was from Ă-rō'ĕr, that is on the bank of the river Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain by Mē'dĕ-bă;

17 Heshbon, and all her cities that are in the plain; Dibon, and [z] Bā'mōth-bā'ăl, and [a] Beth-bā'ăl-mē'on,

18 And [b] Jă-hā'ză, and [c] Kĕ'dĕ-mōth, and Mĕph'ā-ăth,

19 And [e] Kĭr-jă-thā'ĭm, and [f] Sib-mah, and Zâr'ĕth-shā'hăr in the mount of the valley,

20 And [g] Beth-peor, and [3] Ăsh'dōth-[i] pĭs'gāh, and [k] Beth-jĕsh'ĭ-mōth,

21 And all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses smote with [l] the princes of [m] Midian, Ē'vī, and Rekem, and [o] Zur, and Hur, and Reba, which were dukes of Sihon, dwelling in the country.

22 ¶ [q] Bā'lāăm also the son of Beor, the [r] soothsayer, did the children of Israel slay with the sword among them that were slain by them.

23 And the border of the children of Reuben was Jordan, and the border thereof. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben after their families, the cities and the villages thereof.

24 And Moses gave inheritance unto the [h] tribe of Gad, even unto the children of Gad according to their families.

25 And their coast was [k] Jazer, and all the cities of Gĭl'ĕ-ăd, and half the land of the children of Ammon, unto [n] Ă-rō'ĕr that is before [o] Rabbah;

26 And from Heshbon unto Rā'măth-mĭz'pēh, and Bĕt'ō-nĭm; and from [q] Mā-hă-nā'ĭm unto the border of [r] Debir;

27 And in the valley, [s] Beth-ăr'ăm, and [s] Beth-nĭm'răh, and [t] Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, Jordan and his border, even unto the edge of the sea of [y] Chĭn'nĕ-rĕth on the other side Jordan eastward.

28 This is the inheritance of the children of Gad after their families, the cities, and their villages.

29 ¶ And Moses gave inheritance unto the half tribe of Mă-năs'sēh: and this was the possession of the half tribe of the children of Manasseh by their families.

30 And their coast was from Mā-hă-nā'ĭm, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of [d] Jā'ĭr, which are in Bashan, threescore cities:

31 And half Gĭl'ē-ăd, and Ăsh'tă-rōth, and Ĕd'rĕ-ī, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were pertaining unto the children of [h] Mā'chĭr the son of Mă-năs'sēh, even to the one half of the children of Machir by their families.

32 These are the countries which Moses did distribute for inheritance [n] in the plains of Moab, on the other side Jordan, by Jericho, eastward.

33 But unto the tribe of Levi Moses gave not any inheritance: [p] the LORD God of Israel was their inheritance, as he said unto them.

CHAPTER 14

AND [a] these are the countries which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Cā'nă-ăn, which [c] Ĕl-ē-ā'zär the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed for inheritance to them.

2 [e] By lot was their inheritance, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and for the half tribe.

3 [g] For Moses had given the inheritance of two tribes and an half tribe on the other side Jordan: [h] but unto the Levites he gave none inheritance among them.

4 For [k] the children of Joseph were two tribes, [m]Mă-năs'sēh and [m]Ē'phră-ĭm: therefore they gave no part unto the Levites in the land, save [n] cities to dwell in, with their [2o] suburbs for their cattle and for their substance.

5 As the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land.

6 ¶ Then the [r] children of Judah came unto Joshua in [s] Gilgal: and [t] Caleb the son of Jĕ-phŭn'nēh the [u] Kē'nĕz-īte said unto him, Thou knowest [y] the thing that the LORD said unto Moses the man of God concerning me and thee in [a] Kadesh-bär'nĕ-ă.

7 [c] Forty years old was I when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh-bär'nĕ-ă to espy out the land; and I brought him word again as it was in mine heart.

8 Nevertheless [f] my brethren that went up with me made the heart of the people melt: but I [i] wholly followed the LORD my God.

9 And Moses sware on that day, saying, Surely the land [l] whereon thy feet have trodden shall be thine inheritance, and thy children's for ever, because thou hast wholly followed the LORD my God.

10 And now, behold, the LORD hath kept me alive, as he said, these [o] forty and five years, even since the LORD spake this word unto Moses, while the children of Israel wandered in the wilderness: and now, lo, I am this day fourscore and five years old.

11 As yet [b] I am as strong this day as I was in the day that Moses sent me: as my strength was then, even so is my strength now, for war, both [d] to go out, and to come in.

12 Now therefore give me this mountain, whereof the LORD spake in that day; for thou heardest in that day how the [f] Ăn'ă-kĭms were there, and that the cities were great and fenced: if so be the LORD will be with me, then I shall be able to drive them out, as the LORD said.

13 And Joshua [i] blessed him, and gave unto Caleb the son of Jĕ-phŭn'nēh [l] Hebron for an inheritance.

14 Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jĕ-phŭn'nēh the Kē'nĕz-īte unto this day, because that he wholly followed the LORD God of Israel.

15 And the name of Hebron before was [p] Kĭr'jăth-är'bă; which Arba was a great man among the Ăn'ă-kĭms. [q] And the land had rest from war.

CHAPTER 15

THIS then was the lot of the tribe of the [x] children of Judah by their families; even to the border of Edom the [z] wilderness of Zin southward was the uttermost part of the south coast.

2 And their [b] south border was from the shore of the [d] salt sea, from the [3] bay that looketh southward:

3 And it went out to the south side to [4e] Mā'ă-lēh-ăc-răb'bĭm, and passed along to Zin, and ascended up on the south side unto [g] Kadesh-bär'nĕ-ă, and passed along to [h] Hezron, and went up to [k] Adar, and fetched a compass to Kär'kă-ă:

4 From thence it passed toward Azmon, and went out unto [m] the river of Egypt; and the goings out of that coast were at the sea: this shall be your south coast.

5 And the [n] east border was the salt sea, even unto the end of Jordan. And their border in the north quarter was from the bay of the sea at the uttermost part of Jordan:

6 And the border went up to [a] Beth-hogla, and passed along by the north of [c] Beth-ăr'ă-băh; and the border went up to [d] the stone of Bohan [e] the son of Reuben:

7 And the border went up toward [g] Debir from the [h] valley of Ā'chôr, and so northward, looking toward [i] Gilgal, that is before [k] the going up to Ă-dŭm'mĭm, which is on the south side of the river: and the border passed toward the waters of [k] En-shē'mĕsh, and the goings out thereof were at [n] En-rō'gĕl:

8 And the border went up by [n] the valley of the son of Hinnom unto the south side of the Jĕb'ū-sīte; the same is [q] Jerusalem: and the border went up to the top of the mountain that lieth before the valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the end of the [r] valley of [3] the giants northward:

9 And the border was drawn from the top of the hill unto the [s] fountain of the water of Nĕph-tō'ăh, and went out to the cities of mount Ephron; and the border was drawn to [t] Bā'ă-lăh, which is [u] Kĭr'jăth-jē'ă-rĭm:

10 And the border compassed from Bā'ă-lăh westward unto [x] mount Seir, and passed along unto the side of mount Jē'ă-rĭm, which is Chĕs'ă-lŏn, on the north side, and went down to [a] Beth-shē'mĕsh, and passed on to [b] Timnah:

11 And the border went out unto the side of [d] Ekron northward: and the border was drawn to Shicron, and passed along to mount Bā'ă-lăh, and went out unto Jabneel; and the goings out of the border were at the sea.

12 And the [f] west border was to [g] the great sea, and the coast thereof. This is the coast of the children of Judah round about according to their families.

13 ¶ [i] And unto [k] Caleb the son of Jĕ-phŭn'nēh he gave a part among the children of Judah, according to the commandment of the LORD to Joshua, even the [o] city of Arba the father of Anak, which city is [p] Hebron.

14 And Caleb drove thence the three sons of Anak, [b] Shē'shâi, and Ă-hī'măn, and Tăl'mâi, the children of Anak.

15 And he went up thence to the inhabitants of Debir: [f] and the name of Debir before was Kĭr'jăth-sē'phĕr.

16 ¶ And Caleb said, He that smiteth Kĭr'jăth-sē'phĕr, and taketh it, to him will I give Ăch'săh my daughter to wife.

17 And [l] Othniel the son of Kenaz, [m] the brother of Caleb, took it: and he gave him Ăch'săh his daughter to wife.

18 And it came to pass, as she came unto him, that she moved him [o] to ask of her father a field: and [p] she lighted off her ass; and Caleb said unto her, What wouldest thou?

19 Who answered, Give me [2] a blessing; for thou hast given me a south land; give me also springs of water. And he gave her the upper springs, and the nether springs.

20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families.

21 And the uttermost cities of the tribe of the children of Judah toward the coast of Edom [y] southward were Kabzeel, and [z] Eder, and Jā'gŭr,

22 And Kinah, and Dī-mō'năh, and Ă-dā'dăh,

CHAPTER 16

AND the lot of the [t]children of Joseph fell from Jordan by Jericho, unto the water of Jericho on the east, to the wilderness that goeth up from Jericho throughout mount Beth-el.
2 And goeth out from [y]Beth-el to [z]Luz, and passeth along unto the borders of Ăr-chī to Ăt-ă-rōth,
3 And goeth down westward to the coast of Jăph-lē-tī, unto the coast of [b]Beth-horon the nether, and to [c]Gezer: and the goings out thereof are at the sea.
4 So the children of Joseph, [d]Măn-ăs-sēh and [d]Ē-phră-ĭm, took their inheritance.
5 ¶ And the border of the children of Ē-phră-ĭm according to their families was thus: even the border of their inheritance on the east side was [i]Ăt-ă-rōth-ăd-dăr, unto Beth-horon the upper;
6 And the border went out toward the sea to [k]Mich-mē-thăh on the north side; and the border went about eastward unto Tā-ă-năth-shī-lōh, and passed by it on the east to Jă-nō-hăh;
7 And it went down from Jă-nō-hăh to Ăt-ă-rōth, and to [o]Nā-ă-răth, and came to Jericho, and went out at Jordan.

8 The border went out from [a] Tăp'-pū-ăh westward unto the river [b] Kā'-năh; and the goings out thereof were at the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ē'-phră-ĭm by their families.

9 And the separate cities for the children of Ē'-phră-ĭm were among the inheritance of the children of Mă-năs'-sēh, all the cities with their villages.

10 And [d] they drave not out the [e] Cā'-nă-ăn-ītes that dwelt in Gezer: but the Canaanites dwell among the Ē'-phră-ĭm-ītes unto this day, and serve under [2g] tribute.

CHAPTER 17

THERE was also a lot for the tribe of Mă-năs'-sēh; for he was the [i] firstborn of Joseph; to wit, for [k] Mā'-chĭr the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of [l] Gĭl'-ĕ-ăd: because he was a man of war, therefore he had Gilead and Bashan.

2 [m] There was also a lot for the rest of the children of Mă-năs'-sēh by their families; for the children of [o] Ā-bī-ē'-zĕr, and for the children of Helek, and for the children of Ăs'-rĭ-ĕl, and for the children of Shē'-chĕm, and for the children of Hepher, and for the children of Shĕ-mī'-dă: these were the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph by their families.

3 ¶ But [u] Zē-lŏph'-ĕ-hăd, the son of Hepher, the son of Gĭl'-ĕ-ăd, the son of Mā'-chĭr, the son of Mă-năs'-sēh, had no sons, but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters, Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

4 And they came near before [z] Ĕl-ē-ā'-zär the priest, and before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, saying, [b] The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brethren. Therefore according to the commandment of the LORD he gave them an inheritance among the brethren of their father.

5 And [d] there fell ten portions to Mă-năs'-sēh, beside the land of Gĭl'-ĕ-ăd and Bashan, which were on the other side Jordan;

6 Because the daughters of Mă-năs'-sēh had an inheritance among his sons: and the rest of Manasseh's sons had the land of Gĭl'-ĕ-ăd.

7 ¶ And the coast of Mă-năs'-sēh was from Asher to [c] Mĭch-mē'-thăh, that lieth before Shē'-chĕm; and the border went along on the right hand unto the inhabitants of En-tăp'-pū-ăh.

8 Now Mă-năs'-sēh had the land of [f] Tăp'-pū-ăh: but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the children of Ē'-phră-ĭm;

9 And the coast descended unto the river [h] Kā'-năh, southward of the river: these cities of Ē'-phră-ĭm are among the cities of Mă-năs'-sēh: the coast of Manasseh also was on the north side of the river, and the outgoings of it were at the sea:

10 Southward it was Ē'-phră-ĭm's, and northward it was Mă-năs'-sēh's, and the sea is his border; and they met together in Asher on the north, and in Ĭs'-să-chär on the east.

11 [n] And Mă-năs'-sēh had in Ĭs'-să-chär and in Asher [p] Beth-shē'-ăn and her towns, and [p] Ĭb'-lĕ-ăm and her towns, and the inhabitants of [q] Dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of [r] En-dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of [s] Tā'-ă-nach and her towns, and the inhabitants of [t] Mĕ-gĭd'-dō and her towns, even three countries.

12 Yet the children of Mă-năs'-sēh [x] could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities; but the [y] Cā'-nă-ăn-ītes would dwell in that land.

13 Yet it came to pass, when the children of Israel were waxen strong, that they put the Cā'-nă-ăn-ītes to [a] tribute; but did not utterly drive them out.

14 And the children of Joseph spake unto Joshua, saying, Why hast thou given me but one lot and one portion to inherit, seeing [c] I am a great people, forasmuch as the LORD hath blessed me hitherto?

15 And Joshua answered them, If thou be a great people, then get thee up to the wood country, and cut down for thyself there in the land of the [a]Pĕ-rĭz'-zītes and of the [b]giants, if mount Ē'-phră-ĭm be too narrow for thee.

16 And the children of Joseph said, The hill is not enough for us: and all the Cā'-nă-ăn-ītes that dwell in the land of the valley have [e]chariots of iron, both they who are of Beth-shē'-ăn and her towns, and they who are of the [f]valley of Jezreel.

17 And Joshua spake unto the [g]house of Joseph, even to [h]Ē'-phrăĭm and to [i]Mă-năs'-sēh, saying, Thou art a great people, and hast great power: thou shalt not have one lot only:

18 But the mountain shall be thine; for it is a wood, and thou shalt cut it down: and the outgoings of it shall be thine: for thou shalt drive out the Cā'-nă-ăn-ītes, [k]though they have iron chariots, and though they be strong.

CHAPTER 18

AND the whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled together at [n]Shiloh, and [o]set up the tabernacle of the congregation there. And the land was subdued before them.

2 And there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes, which had not yet received their inheritance.

3 And Joshua said unto the children of Israel, [p]How long are ye slack to go to possess the land, which the LORD God of your fathers hath given you?

4 Give out from among you three men for each tribe: and I will send them, and they shall rise, and go through the land, and describe it according to the inheritance of them; and they shall come again to me.

5 And they shall divide it into seven parts: [x]Judah shall abide in their coast on the south, and the [y]house of Joseph shall abide in their coasts on the north.

6 Ye shall therefore describe the land into seven parts, and bring the description hither to me, that I may cast lots for you here before the LORD our God.

7 But [c]the Levites have no part among you; for the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance: and [d]Gad, and Reuben, and half the tribe of Mă-năs'-sēh, have received their inheritance beyond Jordan on the east, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them.

8 ¶ And the men arose, and went away: and Joshua charged them that went to describe the land, saying, Go and walk through the land, and describe it, and come again to me, that I may here cast lots for you before the LORD in Shiloh.

9 And the men went and passed through the land, and described it by cities into seven parts in a book, and came again to Joshua to the host at Shiloh.

10 ¶ And Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD: and there Joshua [l]divided the land unto the children of Israel according to their divisions.

11 ¶ And the lot of [m]the tribe of the children of Benjamin came up according to their families: and the coast of their lot came forth between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph.

12 And their border on the north side was from Jordan; and the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north side, and went up through the mountains westward; and the goings out thereof were at the wilderness of [q]Beth-aven.

13 And the border went over from thence toward [r]Luz, to the side of Luz, which is [s]Beth-el, southward; and the border descended to [t]Ăt'-ă-rōth-ā'-dăr, near the hill that lieth on the south side of the nether [u]Beth-horon.

14 And the border was drawn thence, and compassed the corner of the sea southward, from the hill that lieth before Beth-horon southward; and the goings out thereof were at Kĭr'-jăth-bā'-ăl, which is [z]Kĭr'-jăth-jē'-ă-rĭm, a city of the children of Judah: this was the west quarter.

15 And the south quarter was from the end of Kĭr-jăth-jē-ă-rĭm, and the border went out on the west, and went out to the [a] well of waters of Nĕph-tō-ăh:

16 And the border came down to the end of the mountain that lieth before the [c] valley of the son of Hinnom, and which is in the [d] valley of the giants on the north, and descended to the valley of Hinnom, to the side of Jĕb-ū-sī on the south, and descended to [g] En-rō-gĕl,

17 And was drawn from the north, and went forth to En-shē-mĕsh, and went forth toward Gĕ-lī-lōth, which is over against the going up of Ă-dŭm-mĭm, and descended to the [k] stone of Bohan the son of Reuben,

18 And passed along toward the side over against [2] Ăr-ă-băh northward, and went down unto Arabah:

19 And the border passed along to the side of [k] Beth-hoglah northward: and the outgoings of the border were at the north bay of the [l] salt sea at the south end of Jordan: this was the south coast.

20 And Jordan was the border of it on the east side. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, by the coasts thereof round about, according to their families.

21 Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho, and Beth-hoglah, and the valley of Keziz.

22 And Beth-ăr-ă-băh, and Zĕm-ă-rā-ĭm, and Beth-el,

23 And Ā-vĭm, and Pâr-ăh, and Ŏph-răh,

24 And Chē-phär-hă-ăm-mō-nâi, and Ophni, and Gaba; twelve cities with their villages:

25 [o] Gibeon, and Ramah, and [p] Beeroth,

26 And Mizpeh, and [q] Chĕ-phī-răh, and Mozah,

27 And Rekem, and Irpeel, and Tăr-ă-lăh,

28 And Zelah, Eleph, and Jĕb-ū-sī, which is [s] Jerusalem, Gĭb-ĕ-ăth, and Kirjath; fourteen cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin according to their families.

CHAPTER 19

AND the second lot came forth to Simeon, even for the [b] tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families: and their inheritance was within the inheritance of the children of Judah.

2 [e] And they had in their inheritance [f] Beer-sheba, and Sheba, and Mō-lā-dăh,

3 And Hā-zär-shû-ăl, and Balah, and Azem,

4 And Ĕl-tō-lăd, and Beth-ŭl, and [h] Hormah,

5 And [i] Ziklag, and Beth-mär-că-bōth, and Hā-zär-sû-săh,

6 And Beth-lĕ-bā-ōth, and Shă-rû-hĕn; thirteen cities and their villages:

7 Ā-ĭn, Remmon, and Ether, and Ashan; four cities and their villages:

8 And all the villages that were round about these cities to Bā-ă-lăth-bēer, Ramath of the south. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families.

9 Out of the portion of the children of Judah was the inheritance of the children of Simeon: for the part of the children of Judah was too much for them: therefore the children of Simeon had their inheritance within the inheritance of them.

10 ¶ And the third lot came up for the [m] children of Zĕ-bū-lŭn according to their families: and the border of their inheritance was unto Sarid:

11 And their border went up toward the sea, and Măr-ă-lăh, and reached to Dabbasheth, and reached to the river that is before [n] Jŏk-nĕ-ăm;

12 And turned from Sarid eastward toward the sunrising unto the border of Chĭs-lōth-tā-bôr, and then goeth out to Dăb-ĕ-răth, and goeth up to Jă-phī-ă.

13 And from thence passeth on along on the east to [r] Gĭt-tăh-hē-phĕr, to Ĭt-tăh-kā-zĭn, and goeth out to Rĕm-mŏn-mĕ-thō-ăr to Neah;

13th c. B.C.

14 And the border compasseth it on the north side to Hannathon: and the outgoings thereof are in the valley of Jĭph'thäh–ĕl:

15 And Kattath, and Nă-hăl'lăl, and [b] Shimron, and Ī'dă-lăh, and Beth–lehem: twelve cities with their villages.

16 This is the inheritance of the children of Zĕ-bū'lŭn according to their families, these cities with their villages.

17 ¶ And the fourth lot came out to [d] Ĭs'să-chär, for the children of Issachar according to their families.

18 And their border was toward [e] Jezreel, and Chĕ-sŭl'lōth, and Shunem,

19 And Hăph'ră-ĭm, and Shihon, and Ă-nā'hă-răth,

20 And Rabbith, and Kĭsh'ĭŏn, and Abez,

21 And Remeth, and En–găn'nĭm, and En–hăd'dăh, and Beth–păz'zĕz;

22 And the coast reacheth to [f] Tabor, and Shā-hă-zī'mäh, and [g] Beth–shē'mĕsh; and the outgoings of their border were at Jordan: sixteen cities with their villages.

23 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ĭs'să-chär according to their families, the cities and their villages.

24 ¶ And the fifth lot came out for the tribe of the [k] children of Asher according to their families.

25 And their border was Helkath, and Hali, and Beten, and [l] Ăch'shăph,

26 And Ă-lăm'mĕ-lĕch, and Amad, and Mī'shĕ-ăl; and reacheth to [m] Carmel westward, and to Shī'hôr–lĭb'năth;

27 And turneth toward the sunrising to Beth–dā'gŏn, and reacheth to Zĕ-bū'lŭn, and to the valley of Jĭph'thäh–ĕl toward the north side of Beth–ē'mĕk, and Nēi'ĕl, and goeth out to [r] Cā'bûl on the left hand,

28 And Hebron, and Rehob, and Hammon, and Kā'năh, even unto [t] great Zidon;

29 And then the coast turneth to Ramah, and to the strong city [u] Tyre; and the coast turneth to Hosah; and the outgoings thereof are at the sea from the coast to [a] Ăch'zīb:

30 Ummah also, and [a] Aphek, and Rehob: twenty and two cities with their villages.

31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families, these cities with their villages.

32 ¶ The sixth lot came out to the children of [c] Năph'tă-lī, even for the children of Naphtali according to their families.

33 And their coast was from Heleph, from [2] Allon to Zā-ă-năn'nĭm, and Ăd'ă-mī, Nekeb, and Jabneel, unto Lakum; and the outgoings thereof were at Jordan:

34 And then the coast turneth westward to Ăz'nōth–tabor, and goeth out from thence to Hukkok, and reacheth to Zĕ-bū'lŭn on the south side, and reacheth to Asher on the west side, and to Judah upon Jordan toward the sunrising.

35 And the fenced cities are Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, Rakkath, and Chĭn'nĕ-rĕth,

36 And Adamah, and Ramah, and [h] Hazor,

37 And [i] Kedesh, and Ĕd'rĕ-ī, and En–hazor,

38 And Iron, and Mĭg'dăl–ĕl, Horem, and Beth–anath, and Beth–shē'mĕsh; nineteen cities with their villages.

39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Năph'tă-lī according to their families, the cities and their villages.

40 ¶ And the seventh lot came out for the tribe of the [n] children of Dan according to their families.

41 And the coast of their inheritance was Zorah, and [o] Ĕsh'tā-ŏl, and Ĭr–shē'mĕsh,

42 And [p] Shā-ă-lăb'bĭn, and [q] Ăj'ă-lŏn, and Jethlah,

43 And Elon, and Thĭm'nă-thăh, and [s] Ekron,

44 And Ĕl'tĕ-kēh, and Gibbethon, and Bā'ă-lăth,

45 And Jehud, and Bĕn'ĕ-bē'răk, and Gath–rimmon,

46 And Me-jarkon, and Rakkon, with the border before [2]Jā'-phō.

47 And the coast of the children of Dan went out too little for them: therefore the children of Dan went up to fight against Lē'-shĕm, and took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and possessed it, and dwelt therein, and called [3]Leshem, [c] Dan, after the name of Dan their father.

48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.

49 ¶ When they had made an end of dividing the land for inheritance by their coasts, the children of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun among them:

50 According to the word of the LORD they gave him the city which he asked, even [m]Tĭm'-năth-sē'-răh in mount Ē'-phră-ĭm: and he built the city, and dwelt therein.

51 [o]These are the inheritances, which [p]Ĕl-ē-ā'-zär the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, divided for an inheritance by lot in [r]Shiloh before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. So they made an end of dividing the country.

CHAPTER 20

THE LORD also spake unto Joshua, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, [t]Appoint out for you cities of refuge, whereof I spake unto you by the hand of Moses:

3 [u]That the slayer that killeth any person [y]unawares and unwittingly may flee thither: and they shall be your refuge from [a]the avenger of blood.

4 And when he that doth flee unto one of those cities shall stand at the entering of [b]the gate of the city, and shall declare his cause in the ears of [c]the elders of that city, they shall take him into the city unto them, and give him a place, that he may dwell among them.

5 And if the avenger of blood pursue after him, then they shall not deliver the slayer up into his hand; because he smote his neighbour unwittingly, and hated him not beforetime.

6 And he shall dwell in that city, [a]until he stand before the congregation for judgment, and until the death of [b]the high priest that shall be in those days: then shall the slayer return, and come unto his own city, and unto his own house, unto the city from whence he fled.

7 ¶ And [4]they appointed [d]Kedesh in [e]Galilee in mount Năph'-tă-lī, and [f]Shē'-chĕm in mount Ē'-phră-ĭm, and [g]Kĭr'-jăth-är'-bă, which is [h]Hebron, in the mountain of Judah.

8 And [i]on the other side Jordan by Jericho eastward, they assigned [k]Bezer in the wilderness upon the plain out of the tribe of Reuben, and [l]Ramoth in Gil'-ē-ăd out of the tribe of Gad, and [n]Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of Mă-năs'-sēh.

9 These were the cities appointed for all the children of Israel, and [q]for the stranger that sojourneth among them, that whosoever killeth any person at unawares might flee thither, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he stood before the congregation.

CHAPTER 21

THEN came near the heads of the fathers of the Levites unto [s]Ĕl-ē-ā'-zär the priest, and unto Joshua the son of Nun, and unto the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel;

2 And they spake unto them at [x]Shiloh in the land of Cā'-nă-ăn, saying, The LORD commanded by the hand of Moses [z]to give us cities to dwell in, with the [5]suburbs thereof for our cattle.

3 And the children of Israel gave unto the Levites out of their inheritance, at the commandment of the LORD, these cities and their suburbs.

4 And [d]the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites: and the children of Aaron the priest, which were of the Levites, had by lot out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the

5 And the rest of the [b] children of Kohath had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ē'-phră-ĭm, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half tribe of Mă-năs'-sēh, ten cities.

8 And the children of Israel gave by lot unto the Levites these cities with their suburbs, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

9 ¶ And they gave out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, these cities which are here mentioned by name,

10 Which the children of Aaron, being of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the children of Levi, had: for their's was the first lot.

11 [m] And they gave them the city of [o] Arba the father of Anak, which city is [p] Hebron, in the hill country of Judah, with the suburbs thereof round about it.

12 But the fields of the city, and the villages thereof, gave they to [r] Caleb the son of Jĕ-phŭn'-nēh for his possession.

13 ¶ Thus [s] they gave to the children of Aaron the priest Hebron with her suburbs, [t] to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and [u] Libnah with her suburbs,

14 And Jattir with her suburbs, and [x] Ĕsh-tĕ-mō'-ă, with her suburbs, 19 All the cities of the children of Aaron, the priests, were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

20 ¶ [e] And the families of the children of Kohath, the Levites which remained of the children of Kohath, even they had the cities of their lot out of the tribe of Ē'-phră-ĭm.

21 For they gave them [f] Shē'-chĕm with her suburbs in mount Ē'-phră-ĭm, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and [h] Gezer with her suburbs, 25 And out of the half tribe of Mă-năs'-sēh, [l] Tā'-năch with her suburbs, and Gath-rimmon with her suburbs; two cities.

26 All the cities were ten with their suburbs for the families of the children of Kohath that remained.

27 ¶ [n] And unto the children of Gershon, of the families of the Levites, out of the other half tribe of Mă-năs'-sēh they gave [q] Golan in Bashan with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Bĕ-ĕsh'-tĕ'-răh with her suburbs; two cities.

28 And out of the tribe of Ĭs'-să-chär, Kishon with her suburbs, Dăb'-ă-rēh with her suburbs, 29 Jarmuth with her suburbs, Engăn'-nĭm with her suburbs; four cities.

30 And out of the tribe of Asher, Mishal with her suburbs, Abdon with her suburbs, 31 Helkath with her suburbs, and Rehob with her suburbs; four cities.

32 And out of the tribe of Năph'-tă-lī, [a] Kedesh in [b] Galilee with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Hammoth-dor with her suburbs, and Kartan with her suburbs; three cities.

33 All the cities of the Gershonites according to their families were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

34 ¶ [b] And unto the families of the children of Mĕ-râr'ī, the rest of the Levites, out of the tribe of Zĕ-bū'lŭn, [d] Jŏk'nĕ-ăm with her suburbs, and Kartah with her suburbs, 35 Dimnah with her suburbs, Nā'hă-lăl with her suburbs; four cities.

36 And out of the tribe of Reuben, [f] Bezer with her suburbs, and [g] Jă-hā'zăh with her suburbs, 37 Kē'dĕ-mōth with her suburbs, and Mĕph'ā-ăth with her suburbs; four cities.

38 And out of the tribe of Gad, [k] Ramoth in Gil'ĕ-ăd with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and [m] Mā-hă-nā'ĭm with her suburbs, 39 Heshbon with her suburbs, [o] Jazer with her suburbs; four cities in all.

40 So all the cities for the children of Mĕ-râr'ī by their families, which were remaining of the families of the Levites, were by their lot twelve cities.

41 All the cities of the Levites within the possession of the children of Israel were forty and eight cities with their suburbs.

42 These cities were every one with their suburbs round about them: thus were all these cities.

43 ¶ And the LORD gave unto Israel all the land [t] which he sware to give unto their fathers; and they possessed it, and dwelt therein.

44 And the LORD [u] gave them rest round about, according to all that he sware unto their fathers: and [x] there stood not a man of all their enemies before them; the LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand.

45 [b] There failed not ought of any good thing which the LORD had spoken unto the house of Israel; all came to pass.

2 And said unto them, [a] Ye have kept all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you:

3 Ye have not left your brethren these many days unto this day, but have kept [c] the charge of the commandment of the LORD your God.

4 And now the LORD your God [e] hath given rest unto your brethren, as he promised them: therefore now return ye, and get you unto your tents, and unto the land of your possession, [h] which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side Jordan.

5 But [i] take diligent heed to do the commandment and the law, which Moses the servant of the LORD charged you, [l] to love the LORD your God, and [n] to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and [p] to cleave unto him, and [q] to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul.

6 So Joshua [r] blessed them, and sent them away: and they went unto their tents.

7 ¶ Now to the one half of the tribe of Mă-năs'sēh Moses had given possession in Bashan: [s] but unto the other half thereof gave Joshua among their brethren on this side Jordan westward. And when Joshua sent them away also unto their tents, then he blessed them,

8 And he spake unto them, saying, Return with much riches unto your tents, and with very much cattle, with silver, and with gold, and with brass, and with iron, and with very much raiment: [y] divide the spoil of your enemies with your brethren.

9 ¶ And the [z] children of Reuben and the [a] children of Gad and the half tribe of [c] Mă-năs'sēh returned, and departed from the children of Israel out of [d] Shiloh, which is in the land of Cā'nă-ăn, to go unto the country of [e] Gil'ĕ-ăd, to the land of their possession, whereof they were possessed, according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

10 ¶ And when they came unto the borders of Jordan, that are in the land of Cā'nă-ăn, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Mă-năs'sēh built there an altar by Jordan, a great altar to see to.

11 ¶ And the children of Israel [c] heard say, Behold, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Mă-năs'sēh have built an altar over against [e] the land of Cā'nă-ăn, in the borders of Jordan, at the passage of the children of Israel.

12 And when the children of Israel heard of it, [f] the whole congregation of the children of Israel gathered themselves together at Shiloh, to go up to war against them.

13 And the children of Israel sent unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Mă-năs'sēh, into the land of Gĭl'ĕ-ăd, [k] Phĭn'ĕ-hăs the son of Ĕl-ē-ā'zär the priest,

14 And with him ten princes, of each chief house a prince throughout all the tribes of Israel; and each one was an head of the house of their fathers among the thousands of Israel.

15 ¶ And they came unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Mănăs'sēh, unto the land of Gĭl'ĕ-ăd, and they spake with them, saying,

16 Thus saith the whole congregation of the LORD, What trespass is this that ye have committed against the God of Israel, [q] to turn away this day from following the LORD, in that ye have builded you an altar, [r] that ye might rebel this day against the LORD?

17 Is the iniquity of [s] Peor too little for us, from which [t] we are not cleansed until this day, although there was a plague in the congregation of the LORD,

18 But that ye must turn away this day from following the LORD? and it will be, seeing ye rebel to day against the LORD, that to morrow [x] he will be wroth with the whole congregation of Israel.

19 Notwithstanding, if the land of your possession be unclean, then pass ye over unto the land of the possession of the LORD, [a] wherein the LORD's tabernacle dwelleth, and take possession among us: but [b] rebel not against the LORD, nor rebel against us, in building you an altar beside the altar of the LORD our God.

20 Did not [2] Ā'chăn the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the [3][d] accursed thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? and that man perished not alone in his iniquity.

21 ¶ Then the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Mă-năs'sēh answered, and said unto the [g] heads of the thousands of Israel,

22 [h] The LORD God of gods, the LORD God of gods, [i] he knoweth, and Israel he shall know; if it be in rebellion, or if in transgression against the LORD, (save us not this day,)

23 That we have built us an altar to turn from following the LORD, or if to offer thereon [l] burnt offering or [m] meat offering, or if to offer [n] peace offerings thereon, let the LORD himself [o] require it;

24 And if we have not rather done it for fear of this thing, saying, [p] In time to come your children might speak unto our children, saying, What have ye to do with the LORD God of Israel?

25 For the LORD hath made Jordan a border between us and you, ye children of Reuben and children of Gad; ye have no part in the LORD: so shall your children make our children cease from fearing the LORD.

26 Therefore we said, Let us now prepare to build us an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice:

27 But that it may be [u] a witness between us, and you, and our generations after us, that we might do the service of the LORD before him with our burnt offerings, and with our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings; that your children may not say to our children in time to come, Ye have no part in the LORD.

28 Therefore said we, that it shall be, when they should so say to us or to our generations in time to come, that we may say again, Behold the [b] pattern of the altar of the LORD, which our fathers made, not for burnt offerings, nor for sacrifices; but it is a witness between us and you.

29 God forbid that we should rebel against the LORD, and turn this day from following the LORD, to build an altar for burnt offerings, for meat offerings, or for sacrifices, beside the altar of the LORD our God that is before his tabernacle.

30 ¶ And when Phĭn'ĕ-hăs the priest, and the princes of the congregation and heads of the thousands of Israel which were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the children of Mă-năs'sēh spake, it pleased them.

31 And Phĭn'ĕ-hăs the son of Ĕl-ē-ā'zär the priest said unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Mă-năs'sēh, This day we perceive that the LORD is [i] among us, because ye have not committed this trespass against the LORD: now ye have delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of the LORD.

32 ¶ And Phĭn'ĕ-hăs the son of Ĕl-ē-ā'zär the priest, and the princes, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gĭl'ĕ-ăd, unto the land of Cā'nă-ăn, to the children of Israel, and brought them word again.

33 And the thing pleased the children of Israel; and the children of Israel [r] blessed God, and did not intend to go up against them in battle, to destroy the land wherein the children of Reuben and Gad dwelt.

34 And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad called the altar [2]Ed: for it shall be a witness between us that the LORD is God.

2 And Joshua [a] called for all Israel, and for their elders, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their [c] officers, and said unto them, I am old and stricken in age:

3 And ye have seen all that the LORD your God hath done unto all these nations because of you; [d] for the LORD your God is he that hath fought for you.

4 Behold, [e] I have divided unto you by lot these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, even unto the [f] great sea westward.

5 And the LORD your God, he shall expel them from before you, and [g] drive them from out of your sight; and ye shall possess their land, as the LORD your God hath promised unto you.

6 Be ye therefore very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, [h] that ye turn not aside therefrom to the right hand or to the left;

7 [k] That ye come not among these nations, these that remain among you; neither [l] make mention of the name of their gods, nor [m] cause to swear by them, neither [n] serve them, nor bow yourselves unto them:

8 But [o] cleave unto the LORD your God, as ye have done unto this day.

9 For the LORD hath driven out from before you [p] great nations and strong: but as for you, [q] no man hath been able to stand before you unto this day.

10 [s] One man of you shall chase a thousand: for the LORD your God, he it is that fighteth for you, as he hath promised you.

11 Take good heed therefore unto yourselves, [t] that ye love the LORD your God.

12 Else if ye do in any wise go back, and cleave unto the remnant of these nations, even these that remain among you, and shall [u] make marriages with them, and go in unto them, and they to you:

13 Know for a certainty that the LORD your God will [z] no more drive out any of these nations from before you; but they shall be [b] snares and traps unto you, and scourges in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until ye perish from off this [f] good land which the LORD your God hath given you.

14 And, behold, this day [h] I am going the way of all the earth: and ye know in all your hearts and in all your souls, that [i] not one thing hath failed of all the good things which the LORD your God spake concerning you; all are come to pass unto you, and not one thing hath failed thereof.

15 Therefore it shall come to pass, that as all good things are come upon you, which the LORD your God promised you; so shall the LORD bring upon you [r] all evil things, until he have destroyed you from off this good land which the LORD your God hath given you.

16 When ye have [t] transgressed the covenant of the LORD your God, which he commanded you, and have gone and served other gods, and bowed yourselves to them; then shall the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and [y] ye shall perish quickly from off the good land which he hath given unto you.

and his children [a] went down into Egypt.

5 [c] I sent Moses also [d] and Aaron, and [e] I plagued Egypt, according to that which I did among them: and afterward I brought you out.

6 And [g] I brought your fathers out of Egypt: and [i] ye came unto the sea; and the Egyptians [k] pursued after your fathers with chariots and horsemen unto the [m] Red sea.

7 And when they [n] cried unto the LORD, [o] he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea upon them, and covered them; and [p] your eyes have seen what I have done in Egypt: and ye dwelt in the wilderness [q] a long season.

8 And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt on the other side Jordan; and they fought with you: and [s] I gave them into your hand, that ye might possess their land; and I destroyed them from before you.

9 Then [u] Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and warred against Israel, and sent and called [x] Bā'lāăm the son of Beor to curse you:

10 But [z] I would not hearken unto Bā'lāăm; therefore he blessed you still: so I delivered you out of his hand.

11 And [b] ye went over Jordan, and came unto Jericho: and the men of Jericho fought against you, [e] the Amorites, and the Pĕ-rĭz'zītes, and the Cā'nă-ăn-ītes, and the Hittites, and the Gĭr'gă-shītes, the Hivites, and the Jĕb'ū-sītes; and I delivered them into your hand.

12 And I sent [h] the hornet before you, [k] which drave them out from before you, even the two kings of the Amorites; but [n] not with thy sword, nor with thy bow.

13 And I have given you a land for which ye did not labour, and [q] cities which ye built not, and ye dwell in them; of the vineyards and [s] oliveyards which ye planted not do ye eat.

14 ¶ Now therefore [z] fear the LORD, and [a] serve him in sincerity and [b] in truth: and [a] put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, [d] and in Egypt; and serve ye the LORD.

15 And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, [e] choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but [h] as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

16 And the people answered and said, God forbid that we should forsake the LORD, to serve other gods;

17 For the LORD our God, he it is that brought us up and our fathers out of the land of Egypt, from the [n] house of bondage, and which did those great signs in our sight, and [p] preserved us in all the way wherein we went, and among all the people through whom we passed:

18 And the LORD drave out from before us all the people, even the Amorites which dwelt in the land: therefore will we also serve the LORD; for [s] he is our God.

19 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye cannot serve the LORD: for he is [u] an holy God; he is [x] a jealous God; [y] he will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins.

20 [a] If ye forsake the LORD, and serve [b] strange gods, then he will turn and do you hurt, and consume you, after that he hath done you good.

21 And the people said unto Joshua, Nay; but we will serve the LORD.

22 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye are witnesses against yourselves that ye have chosen you the LORD, to serve him. And they said, We are witnesses.

23 Now therefore put away, said he, the strange gods which are among you, and incline your heart unto the LORD God of Israel.

25 So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and set them a statute and an ordinance in Shĕ-chĕm.

26 ¶ And [f] Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God, and [g] took a great stone, and set it up there [i] under an oak, that was by the [k] sanctuary of the LORD.

27 And Joshua said unto all the people, Behold, this stone shall be [l] a witness unto us; for it hath heard all the words of the LORD which he spake unto us: it shall be therefore a witness unto you, lest ye deny your God.

28 [m] So Joshua let the people depart, every man unto his inheritance.

29 ¶ [o] And it came to pass after these things, that Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, [q] being an hundred and ten years old.

30 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in [r] Tĭm-năth–sē-răh, which is in mount Ē-phră-ĭm, on the north side of the hill of Gā-ăsh.

31 And Israel served the LORD all the days of [t] Joshua, and all the days of the elders that overlived Joshua, [z] and which had known all the works of the LORD, that he had done for Israel.

32 ¶ And [c] the bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel brought up out of Egypt, buried they in Shē-chĕm, in [d] a parcel of ground which Jacob bought of the sons of [e] Hamor the father of Shechem for an hundred [f] pieces of silver: and it became the inheritance of the [g] children of Joseph.

33 And [h] Ĕl-ē-ā-zär the son of Aaron died; and they buried him in a hill that pertained to [i] Phĭn-ĕ-hăs his son, which was given him in mount Ē-phră-ĭm.

BOOK OF JUDGES

CHAPTER 1

13th c. B.C.

NOW after the death of [b] Joshua it came to pass, that the children of Israel [d] asked the LORD, saying, Who shall go up for us against the [f] Cā'nă-ăn-ītes first, to fight against them?

2 And the LORD said, [g] Judah shall go up: behold, I have delivered the land into his hand.

3 And Judah said unto [i] Simeon his brother, Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Cā'nă-ăn-ītes; and I likewise will go with thee into thy lot. So Simeon went with him.

4 And Judah went up; and the LORD delivered the Cā'nă-ăn-ītes and the [m] Pĕ-rĭz'-zītes into their hand: and they slew of them in [n] Bezek ten thousand men.

5 And they found Ăd'ō-nī–bē'zĕk in Bezek: and they fought against him, and they slew the Cā'nă-ăn-ītes and the Pĕ-rĭz'-zītes.

6 But Ăd'ō-nī–bē'zĕk fled; and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his great toes.

7 And Ăd'ō-nī–bē'zĕk said, Threescore and ten kings, having their thumbs and their great toes cut off, [u] gathered their meat under my table: [x] as I have done, so God hath requited me. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.

8 [z] Now the children of Judah had fought against Jerusalem, and had taken it, and smitten it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire.

9 ¶ And afterward the children of Judah went down to fight against the Cā'nă-ăn-ītes, that dwelt in the mountain, and in [f] the south, and in the valley.

10 [h] And Judah went against the Cā'nă-ăn-ītes that dwelt in [k] Hebron: (now the name of Hebron before was [a] Kĭr'-jăth–är'-bă:) and they slew [c] Shē'shâi, and Ă-hī'măn, and Tăl'-mâi.

11 And from thence he went against the inhabitants of [e] Debir: and the name of Debir before was Kĭr'-jăth–sē'phĕr:

12 And [h] Caleb said, He that smiteth Kĭr'-jăth–sē'phĕr, and taketh it, to him will I give Ăch'săh my daughter to wife.

13 And [k] Othniel the son of [l] Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, took it: and he gave him Ăch'săh his daughter to wife.

14 And it came to pass, when she came to him, that she moved him to ask of her father a field: and she lighted from off her ass; and Caleb said unto her, What wilt thou?

15 And she said unto him, Give me a [2o] blessing: for thou hast given me a south land; give me also springs of water. [p] And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the nether springs.

16 ¶ And the children of the Kenite, Moses' [3] father in law, went up out of the [q] city of palm trees with the children of Judah into the [r] wilderness of Judah, which lieth in the south of [s] Arad; and [t] they went and dwelt among the people.

17 And Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they slew the Cā'nă-ăn-ītes that inhabited Zephath, and [4y] utterly destroyed it. And the name of the city was called [a] Hormah.

18 Also Judah took [b] Gaza with the coast thereof, and [c] Ăs'kĕ-lon with the coast thereof, and [d] Ekron with the coast thereof.

19 And [e] the LORD was with Judah; and he drove out the inhabitants of the mountain; but [g] could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had [i] chariots of iron.

20 And they gave Hebron unto

Caleb, as Moses said: and he expelled thence the three sons of Anak.

21 And the children of [a] Benjamin did not drive out the [d] Jĕb'-ū-sītes that inhabited [f] Jerusalem; but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem unto this day.

22 ¶ And the [g] house of Joseph, they also went up against [h] Beth-el: and the LORD was with them.

23 And the house of Joseph sent [i] to descry Beth-el. (Now the name of the city before was [m] Luz.)

24 And the spies saw a man come forth out of the city, and they said unto him, Shew us, we pray thee, the entrance into the city, and [o] we will shew thee mercy.

25 And when he shewed them the entrance into the city, they smote the city with the edge of the sword; but they let go the man and all his family.

26 And the man went into the land of the [r] Hittites, and built a city, and called the name thereof Luz: which is the name thereof unto this day.

27 ¶ [u] Neither did [x] Mă-năs'-sēh drive out the inhabitants of Beth-shĕ'-ăn and her towns, nor [a] Tā'-ă-năch and her towns, nor the inhabitants of [d] Dor and her towns, nor the inhabitants of [e] Ĭb'-lĕ-ăm and her towns, nor the inhabitants of [g] Mĕ-gĭd'-dō and her towns: but the Cā'-nă-ăn-ītes would dwell in that land.

28 And it came to pass, when Israel was strong, that they put the Cā'-nă-ăn-ītes to [3] [l] tribute, and did not utterly drive them out.

29 ¶ Neither did [m] Ē'-phră-ĭm drive out the Cā'-nă-ăn-ītes that dwelt in [o] Gezer; but the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among them.

30 ¶ Neither did [p] Zĕ-bū'-lŭn drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of [r] Nā'-hă-lŏl; but the Cā'-nă-ăn-ītes dwelt among them, and became tributaries.

31 ¶ [s] Neither did [t] Asher drive out the inhabitants of Ăc'-chō, nor the inhabitants of [y] Zidon, nor of Ahlab, nor of [z] Ăch'-zīb, nor of Helbah, nor of [a] Ā'-phĭk, nor of [a] Rehob:

32 But the Ăsh'-ĕr-ītes dwelt among the Cā'-nă-ăn-ītes, the inhabitants of the land: for they did not drive them out.

33 ¶ [b] Neither did [c] Năph'-tă-lī drive out the inhabitants of [e] Beth-shĕ'-mĕsh, nor the inhabitants of [e] Beth-anath; but he dwelt among the Cā'-nă-ăn-ītes, the inhabitants of the land: nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh and of Beth-anath became tributaries unto them.

34 [k] And the [l] Amorites forced the children of Dan into the mountain: for they would not suffer them to come down to the valley:

35 But the Amorites would dwell in mount Hē'-rĕs in [n] Aī'-jă-lŏn, and in [p] Shā-ăl'-bĭm: yet the hand of the house of Joseph prevailed, so that they became tributaries.

36 And the coast of the Amorites was from [q] the going up to Akrabbim, from [2] the rock, and upward.

CHAPTER 2

AND an [s] angel of the LORD came up from [t] Gilgal to Bō'-chĭm, and said, [u] I made you to go up out of Egypt, [z] and have brought you unto the land [b] which I sware unto your fathers; and I said, [c] I will never break my covenant with you.

2 And [f] ye shall make no league with the inhabitants of this land; [h] ye shall throw down their altars: but [i] ye have not obeyed my voice: why have ye done this?

3 Wherefore I also said, [k] I will not drive them out from before you; but they shall be as thorns in your sides, and their gods shall be [n] a snare unto you.

4 And it came to pass, when the angel of the LORD spake these words unto all the children of Israel, that the people [q] lifted up their voice, and wept.

5 And they called the name of that place [4] Bō'-chĭm: and they sacrificed there unto the LORD.

6 ¶ [u] And when [x] Joshua had let the people go, the children of Israel went every man unto his inheritance to possess the land.

7 And the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great works of the LORD, that he did for Israel.

8 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being an hundred and ten years old.

9 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in [d] Tĭm'năth–hĕ'rĕš, in the mount of Ē'phră-ĭm, on the north side of the hill Gā'ăsh.

10 And also all that generation were [f] gathered unto their fathers: and there arose another generation after them, which [g] knew not the LORD, nor yet the works which he had done for Israel.

11 ¶ [h] And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and [k] served Bā'ă-lĭm:

12 And they [l] forsook the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them out of the land of Egypt, [m] and followed other gods, of the gods of the people that were round about them, and bowed themselves unto them, [p] and provoked the LORD to anger.

13 And they forsook the LORD, and served Bā'ăl and [q] Ăsh'tă-rōth.

14 ¶ And [r] the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, [s] and he delivered them into the hands of spoilers that spoiled them, and he [t] sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, [u] so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies.

15 Whithersoever they went out, [y] the hand of the LORD was against them for evil, as the LORD had said, and [a] as the LORD had sworn unto them: and they were greatly distressed.

16 ¶ Nevertheless the LORD [b] raised up judges, [c] which delivered them out of the hand of those that spoiled them.

17 And yet they would not hearken unto their judges, but they [f] went a whoring after other gods, and bowed themselves unto them: [h] they turned quickly out of the way which their fathers walked in, obeying the commandments of the LORD; but they did not so.

18 And when the LORD raised them up judges, [k] then the LORD was with the judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge: for it [a] repented the LORD because of [b] their groanings by reason of them that oppressed them and vexed them.

19 And it came to pass, [c] when the judge was dead, that they returned, and [e] corrupted themselves more than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down unto them; they ceased not from their own doings, nor from their stubborn way.

20 ¶ And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel; and he said, Because that this people [i] hath transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not hearkened unto my voice;

21 I also will not henceforth drive out any from before them of the nations which Joshua left when he died:

22 That through them I may [n] prove Israel, [o] whether they will keep the way of the LORD to walk therein, as their fathers did keep it, or not.

23 Therefore the LORD left those nations, without driving them out hastily; neither delivered he them into the hand of Joshua.

CHAPTER 3

NOW these are the nations which the LORD left, [x] to prove Israel by them, even as many of Israel as [z] had not known all the wars of Cā'nă-ăn;

2 Only that the generations of the children of Israel might know, to teach them war, at the least such as before knew nothing thereof;

3 Namely, [d] five lords of the Philistines, and all the Cā'nă-ăn-ītes, and the Sī-dō'nī-ăns, and the Hivites that dwelt in mount [e] Lebanon, from mount Bā'ăl–hermon unto the entering in of [g] Hamath.

4 And they were to prove Israel by them, to know [i] whether they would hearken unto the commandments of the LORD, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

5 ¶ And the children of Israel dwelt among the [l] Cā'nă-ăn-ītes, [m] Hittites, and Amorites, and Pĕ-rĭz'-zītes, and Hivites, and Jĕb'-ū-sītes:

6 And [a] they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sons, and [b] served their gods.

7 [c] And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and [d] forgat the LORD their God, and [e] served Bā'-ă-līm and [f] the groves.

8 ¶ Therefore [i] the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and [k] he sold them into the hand of [l] Chû'-shăn-rĭsh-ă-thā'-ĭm king of [m] Mĕs-ŏ-pŏ-tā'-mĭ-ă: and the children of Israel served Chushan-rishathaim eight years.

9 And when the children of Israel [p] cried unto the LORD, the LORD [q] raised up a deliverer to the children of Israel, who [r] delivered them, even [s] Othniel the son of [s] Kenaz, [t] Caleb's younger brother.

10 And [u] the Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel, and went out to war: and the LORD delivered Chû'-shăn-rĭsh-ă-thā'-ĭm king of Mĕs-ŏ-pŏ-tā'-mĭ-ă into his hand; and his hand prevailed against Chushan-rishathaim.

11 And [x] the land had rest forty years. And Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

12 ¶ And the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD: [z] and the LORD strengthened Eglon the king of [a] Moab against Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of the LORD.

13 And he gathered unto him the children of [b] Ammon and [c] Ăm'-ă-lĕk, and went and smote Israel, and possessed the [d] city of palm trees.

14 So the children of Israel served Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years.

15 But when the children of Israel [g] cried unto the LORD, the LORD raised them up a deliverer, Ehud the son of Gera, a Benjamite, a man [h] left-handed: and by him the children of Israel sent a [i] present unto Eglon the king of Moab.

16 But Ehud made him a dagger which had two edges, of a cubit length; and he did gird it under his raiment upon his right thigh.

17 And he brought the present unto Eglon king of Moab: and Eglon was a very fat man.

18 And when he had made an end to offer the present, he sent away the people that bare the present.

19 But he himself turned again from the [2g] quarries that were by [h] Gilgal, and said, I have a secret errand unto thee, O king: who said, Keep silence. And all that stood by him went out from him.

20 And Ehud came unto him; and he was sitting in a [3n] summer parlour, which he had for himself alone. [o] And Ehud said, I have a message from God unto thee. And he arose out of his seat.

21 And Ehud put forth his left hand, and took the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly:

22 And the haft also went in after the blade; and the fat closed upon the blade, so that he could not draw the dagger out of his belly; [4] and the dirt came out.

23 Then Ehud went forth through the porch, and shut the doors of the parlour upon him, and locked them.

24 When he was gone out, his servants came; and when they saw that, behold, the doors of the parlour were locked, they said, [y] Surely he covereth his feet in his summer chamber.

25 And they tarried till they were ashamed: and, behold, he opened not the doors of the parlour; therefore they took a key, and opened them: and, behold, their lord was fallen down dead on the earth.

26 And Ehud escaped while they tarried, and passed beyond the [e] quarries, and escaped unto Sē-ī'-răth.

27 And it came to pass, when he was come, that he [f] blew a trumpet in the mountain of Ē'-phră-ĭm, and the children of Israel went down with him from the mount, and he before them.

28 And he said unto them, Follow after me: for the LORD hath delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand. And they went down after him, and took the [k] fords of Jordan

31 ¶ And after him was [c] Shamgar the son of Anath, which [e] slew of the Philistines six hundred men with an [f] ox goad: and he also [g] delivered Israel.

CHAPTER 4

AND the children of Israel again [l] did evil in the sight of the LORD, when Ehud was dead.

2 And the LORD [m] sold them into the hand of [n] Jabin king of Cā'nă-ăn, that reigned in [o] Hazor; the captain of whose host was [p] Sisera, which dwelt in [q] Hă-rō'shĕth of the Gentiles.

3 And the children of Israel [r] cried unto the LORD: for he had nine hundred [t] chariots of iron; and twenty years he mightily oppressed the children of Israel.

4 ¶ And [u] Deborah, a [x] prophetess, the wife of Lăp'ī-dōth, she judged Israel at that time.

5 And she dwelt under the [z] palm tree of Deborah between [a] Ramah and [b] Beth-el in mount Ē'phră-ĭm: and the children of Israel came up to her for judgment.

6 And she sent and called [d] Barak the son of Ă-bĭn'ō-ăm out of [e] Kedesh-năph'tă-lī, and said unto him, Hath not the LORD God of Israel commanded, saying, Go and draw toward mount [g] Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of [h] Năph'tă-lī and of the children of [i] Zĕ-bū'lŭn?

7 And I will draw unto thee to the river [k] Kishon Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his multitude; and I will deliver him into thine hand.

8 And Barak said unto her, If thou wilt go with me, then I will go: but if thou wilt not go with me, then I will not go.

9 And she said, I will surely go with thee: notwithstanding the journey that thou takest shall not be for thine honour; for the LORD shall [a] sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh.

10 ¶ And Barak called Zĕ-bū'lŭn and Năph'tă-lī to Kedesh; and he went up with ten thousand men [d] at his feet: and Deborah went up with him.

11 Now [h] Heber the Kenite, which was of the children of [i] Hobab the [2] father in law of Moses, had severed himself from the Kenites, and pitched his tent unto the [3] plain of [k] Zā-ă-nā'ĭm, which is by Kedesh.

12 And they shewed Sisera that Barak the son of Ă-bĭn'ō-ăm was gone up to mount Tabor.

13 And Sisera gathered together all his chariots, even nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people that were with him, from Hă-rō'shĕth of the Gentiles unto the river of [s] Kishon.

14 And Deborah said unto Barak, Up; for this is the day in which the LORD hath delivered Sisera into thine hand: is not the LORD [y] gone out before thee? So Barak went down from mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him.

15 And the LORD [c] discomfited Sisera, and all his chariots, and all his host, with the edge of the sword before Barak; so that Sisera lighted down off his chariot, and fled away on his feet.

16 But Barak pursued after the [f] chariots, and after the host, unto Hă-rō'shĕth of the Gentiles: and all the host of Sisera fell upon the edge of the sword; and there was not a man left.

17 Howbeit Sisera fled away on his feet to the tent of [l] Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite: for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite.

18 ¶ And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said unto him, Turn in, my lord, turn in to me; fear not. And when he had turned in unto her into the tent, she covered him with a mantle.

19 And he said unto her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water to drink; for I am thirsty. And she opened a bottle of [c] milk, and gave him drink, and covered him.

20 Again he said unto her, Stand in the door of the tent, and it shall be, when any man doth come and enquire of thee, and say, Is there any man here? that thou shalt say, No.

21 Then Jael Heber's wife took a [h] nail of the tent, and took an hammer in her hand, and went softly unto him, and smote the nail into his temples, and fastened it into the ground: for he was fast asleep and weary. So he died.

22 And, behold, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said unto him, Come, and I will shew thee the man whom thou seekest. And when he came into her tent, behold, Sisera lay dead, and the nail was in his temples.

23 So God subdued on that day Jabin the king of Cā'-nă-ăn before the children of Israel.

24 And the hand of the children of Israel prospered, and prevailed against Jabin the king of Cā'-nă-ăn, until they had destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.

CHAPTER 5

[q] THEN sang [r] Deborah and [s] Barak the son of Ă-bĭn'-ŏ-ăm on that day, saying,

2 Praise ye the LORD [2] for the avenging of Israel, when [z] the people willingly offered themselves.

3 Hear, O ye kings; give ear, O ye princes; I, even I, will sing unto the LORD; I will sing praise to the LORD God of Israel.

4 [c] LORD, [d] when thou wentest out of [e] Seir, when thou marchedst out of the field of Edom, [g] the earth trembled, and the heavens dropped, the clouds also dropped water.

5 [h] The mountains melted from before the LORD, even that [k] Sinai from before the LORD God of Israel.

6 In the days of [o] Shamgar the son of Anath, in the days of [a] Jael, [2] the [b] highways were unoccupied, and the travellers walked through byways.

7 [3] The inhabitants of the villages ceased, they ceased in Israel, until that I Deborah arose, that I arose [d] a mother in Israel.

8 [e] They chose new gods; then was war in the gates: [f] was there a shield or spear seen among forty thousand in Israel?

9 My heart is toward the governors of Israel, [g] that offered themselves willingly among the people. Bless ye the LORD.

10 Speak, [i] ye that ride on white asses, ye that sit [4] in judgment, and walk by the way.

11 They that are delivered from the noise of archers in the [k] places of drawing water, there shall they rehearse the [l] righteous acts of the LORD, even the righteous acts [5] toward the inhabitants of his villages in Israel: then shall the people of the LORD go down to the gates.

12 [m] Awake, awake, Deborah: awake, awake, utter a song: arise, Barak, and [n] lead thy captivity captive, thou son of Ă-bĭn'-ŏ-ăm.

13 [6] Then he made him that remaineth have dominion over the nobles among the people: [7] the LORD made me have dominion over the mighty.

14 Out of [o] Ē'-phră-ĭm [8] was there a root of them against [p] Ăm'-ă-lĕk; after thee, [t] Benjamin, among thy people; out of [u] Mā'-chĭr came down [9x] governors, and out of [y] Zĕ-bū'-lŭn they that handle [3] the pen of the writer.

15 And the princes of [a] Ĭs'-să-chär were with Deborah; even Issachar, and also Barak: [4] he was sent on foot into the valley. [5] For the divisions of [b] Reuben there were great thoughts of heart.

16 Why abodest thou among the [f] sheepfolds, to hear [6] the bleatings of the flocks? For the divisions of Reuben there were great searchings of heart.

17 [i] Gĭl'-ĕ-ăd abode beyond Jordan: and why did [l] Dan remain in ships? [m] Asher continued on [n] the sea shore, and abode in his breaches.

18 Zĕ-bū'lŭn and [a] Năph'tă-lī were a people that jeoparded their lives unto the death in the high places of the field.

19 The kings came and fought, then fought the kings of Cā'nă-ăn in [g] Tā'ă-năch by the waters of [g] Mĕ-gĭd'dō; they took no gain of money.

20 [i] They fought from heaven; the stars in their courses fought against [k] Sisera.

22 Then were the horsehoofs broken by the means of the [p] pransings, the pransings of their mighty ones.

25 He asked water, and she gave him [c] milk; she brought forth [d] butter in a lordly dish.

26 She put her hand to the [4e] nail, and her right hand to the workmen's hammer; and with the hammer she smote Sisera, she smote off his head, when she had pierced and stricken through his temples.

27 At her feet he bowed, he fell, he lay down: at her feet he bowed, he fell: where he bowed, there he fell down [5]dead.

28 The mother of Sisera looked [h] out at a window, and cried through [i] the lattice, Why is his chariot so long in coming? why tarry the wheels of his chariots?

CHAPTER 6

AND the children of Israel [h] did evil in the sight of the LORD: and the LORD delivered them into the hand of [l] Midian [m] seven years.

2 And the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel: and because of the Midianites the children of Israel [o] made them the dens which are in the mountains, and caves, and strongholds.

3 And so it was, when Israel had sown, that the Midianites came up, and the [s] Ă-măl'ĕk-ītes, and the [u] children of the east, even they came up against them;

4 And they encamped against them, and [x] destroyed the increase of the earth, till thou come unto [z] Gaza, and left no sustenance for Israel, neither sheep, nor ox, nor ass.

5 For they came up with their cattle and their tents, and they came [b] as grasshoppers for multitude; for both they and their camels were without number: and they entered into the land to destroy it.

6 And Israel was greatly impoverished because of the Midianites; and the children of Israel [f] cried unto the LORD.

7 ¶ And it came to pass, when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD because of the Midianites,

8 That the LORD sent [g] a prophet unto the children of Israel, which said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, [k] I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you forth out of [l] the house of bondage;

9 And I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and [o] drave them out from before you, and gave you their land;

10 And I said unto you, [p] I am the LORD your God; [r] fear not the gods of the [s] Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but ye have [t] not obeyed my voice.

11 ¶ And there came [a] an angel of the LORD, and sat under an [b] oak which was in [d] Ŏph'răh, that pertained unto Joash the [e] Ā'bī–ĕz'rīte: and his son [f] Gideon threshed wheat by the [g] winepress, to hide it from the Midianites.

12 And the angel of the LORD appeared unto him, and said unto him, [i] The LORD is with thee, thou [k] mighty man of valour.

13 And Gideon said unto him, Oh my Lord, if the LORD be with us, [p] why then is all this befallen us? and where be all [q] his miracles [r] which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt? but now the LORD [u] hath forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites.

14 And the LORD looked upon him, and said, Go in this thy might, and thou shalt save Israel from the hand of the Midianites: [z] have not I sent thee?

15 And he said unto him, Oh my Lord, [b] wherewith shall I save Israel? behold, [c] my [5] family is poor in Mă-năs'sēh, and I am the least in my father's house.

16 And the LORD said unto him, [e] Surely I will be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites as one man.

17 And he said unto him, If now I have [h] found grace in thy sight, then [i] shew me a sign that thou talkest with me.

18 [k] Depart not hence, I pray thee, until I come unto thee, and bring forth my [l] present, and set it before thee. And he said, I will tarry until thou come again.

19 ¶ And Gideon went in, and made ready a kid, and [m] unleavened cakes of an [n] ē'phäh of flour: the flesh he put in a [o] basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out unto him under the oak, and presented it.

20 And the angel of God said unto him, Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes, and lay them [p] upon this rock, and [q] pour out the broth. And he did so.

21 ¶ Then the angel of the LORD put forth the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and [c] there rose up fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes. Then the angel of the LORD departed out of his sight.

22 [h] And when Gideon perceived that he was an angel of the LORD, Gideon said, Alas, O Lord GOD! for because [l] I have seen an angel of the LORD face to face.

23 And the LORD said unto him, [m] Peace be unto thee; [n] fear not: [o] thou shalt not die.

24 Then Gideon [s] built an altar there unto the LORD, and called it [2t] Jehovah–shā'lŏm: unto this day it is yet in Ŏph'răh of the Ā'bī–ĕz'rītes.

25 ¶ And it came to pass the same night, that the LORD said unto him, Take thy father's young bullock, even the second bullock of seven years old, and [x] throw down the altar of [y] Bā'ăl that thy father hath, and cut down [3a] the grove that is by it:

26 And build an altar unto the LORD thy God upon the top of this [4] rock, [6] in the ordered place, and take the second bullock, and offer a [d] burnt sacrifice with the wood of the grove which thou shalt cut down.

27 Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, [f] and did as the LORD had said unto him: and so it was, [g] because he feared his father's household, and the men of the city, that he could not do it by day, that he did it by night.

28 ¶ And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Bā'ăl was cast down, and the grove was cut down that was by it, and the second bullock was offered upon the altar that was built.

29 And they said one to another, Who hath done this thing? And when they enquired and asked, they said, Gideon the son of Joash hath done this thing.

30 Then the men of the city said unto Joash, Bring out thy son, that he may die: because he hath cast down the altar of Bā'ăl, and because he hath cut down the grove that was by it.

31 And Joash said unto all that stood against him, Will ye plead for Bā'ăl? will ye save him? he that will plead for him, let him be put to death [2]whilst it is yet morning: [b] if he be a god, let him plead for himself, because one hath cast down his altar.

32 Therefore on that day [d] he called him [3]Jĕr-ŭb-bā'ăl, saying, Let Bā'ăl plead against him, because he hath thrown down his altar.

33 ¶ Then all the Midianites and the Ă-măl'ĕk-ītes and the children of the east were gathered together, and went over, and pitched in the [h] valley of Jezreel.

34 But the [i] Spirit of the LORD came upon Gideon, and he [k] blew a trumpet; and Ā'bī-ē'zĕr was gathered after him.

35 And he sent messengers throughout all [l] Mă-năs'sēh; who also was gathered after him: and he sent messengers unto [m] Asher, and unto [n] Zĕ-bū'lŭn, and unto [o] Năph'tă-lī; and they came up to meet them.

36 ¶ And Gideon said unto God, If thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said,

37 [q] Behold, I will put a fleece of wool in the [r] floor; and if the [s] dew be on the fleece only, and it be dry upon all the earth beside, then shall I know that thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said.

38 And it was so: for he rose up early on the morrow, and thrust the fleece together, and wringed the dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water.

39 And Gideon said unto God, [u] Let not thine anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this once: let me prove, I pray thee, but this once with the fleece; let it now be dry only upon the fleece, and upon all the ground let there be dew.

40 [y] And God did so that night: [z] for it was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

CHAPTER 7

THEN Jĕr-ŭb-bā'ăl, who is [c] Gideon, and all the people that were with him, rose up early, and pitched [d] beside the well of [6]Harod: so that the host of the Midianites were on the north side of them, by the hill of [a] Moreh, in the valley.

2 And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people that are with thee are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel [c] vaunt themselves against me, saying, [e] Mine own hand hath saved me.

3 Now therefore go to, proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, [f] Whosoever is fearful and afraid, let him return and [4]depart early from [g] mount Gĭl'ĕ-ăd. And there returned of the people twenty and two thousand; and there remained ten thousand.

4 And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people are yet too many; bring them down unto the water, and I will try them for thee there: and it shall be, that of whom I say unto thee, This shall go with thee, the same shall go with thee; and of whomsoever I say unto thee, This shall not go with thee, the same shall not go.

5 So he brought down the people unto the water: and the LORD said unto Gideon, Every one that lappeth of the water with his tongue, as a [b] dog lappeth, him shalt thou set by himself; likewise every one that boweth down upon his knees to drink.

6 And the number of them that lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, were three hundred men: but all the rest of the people bowed down upon their knees to drink water.

7 And the LORD said unto Gideon, [t] By the three hundred men that lapped will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into thine hand: and let all the other people go every man unto his place.

8 [5]So the people took victuals in their hand, and their [x] trumpets: and he sent all the rest of Israel every man unto his tent, and retained those three hundred men: and the host of [a] Midian was beneath him in the valley.

9 ¶ And it came to pass [b] the same night, that the LORD said unto him, Arise, get thee down unto the host; for I have delivered it into thine hand.

10 But if thou fear to go down, [e] go thou with Phurah thy servant down to the host:

11 And thou shalt hear what they say; and afterward shall thine hands be strengthened to go down unto the host. [b] Then went he down with Phurah his servant unto the outside of the [c] armed men that were in the host.

12 And the Midianites and the [d] Ăm-ăl-ĕk-ītes and all the [e] children of the east lay along in the valley like [g] grasshoppers for multitude; and their camels were without number, [i] as the sand by the sea side for multitude.

13 And when Gideon was come, behold, there was a man that told a dream unto his fellow, and said, Behold, [n] I dreamed a dream, and, lo, a [o] cake of [p] barley bread tumbled into the host of Midian, and came unto a tent, and smote it that it fell, and overturned it, that the tent lay along.

14 And his fellow answered and said, This is nothing else save the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel: for into his hand hath God delivered Midian, and all the host.

15 ¶ And it was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and the [y] interpretation thereof, that he [z] worshipped, and returned into the host of Israel, and said, Arise; for the LORD hath delivered into your hand the host of Midian.

16 And he [c] divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put a trumpet in every man's hand, with empty [e] pitchers, and [2f] lamps within the pitchers.

17 And he said unto them, Look on me, and do likewise: and, behold, when I come to the outside of the camp, it shall be that, as I do, so shall ye do.

18 When I blow with a trumpet, I and all that are with me, [k] then blow ye the trumpets also on every side of all the camp, and say, [3] The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon.

19 ¶ So Gideon, and the hundred men that were with him, came unto the outside of the camp in the beginning of the middle watch; and they had but newly set the [a] watch: and they blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers that were in their hands.

20 And the three companies blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers, and held the lamps in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands to blow withal: and they cried, The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon.

21 And they stood every man in his place round about the camp: [f] and all the host ran, and cried, and fled.

22 And the three hundred [h] blew the trumpets, and the LORD set [k] every man's sword against his fellow, even throughout all the host: and [l] the host fled to Beth-shittah in Zĕr-ĕ-răth, and to the border of [m] Ā-bĕl-mĕ-hō-lăh, unto Tabbath.

23 And the men of Israel gathered themselves together out of [q] Năph-tă-lī, and out of [r] Asher, and out of all [s] Mă-năs-sēh, and pursued after the Midianites.

24 ¶ And Gideon sent messengers throughout all mount Ē-phră-ĭm, saying, Come down against the Midianites, and take before them the waters unto [t] Beth-barah and Jordan. Then all the [u] men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and [x] took the waters unto Beth-barah and Jordan.

25 And they took [a] two princes of the Midianites, [b] Oreb and Zeeb; and they slew Oreb upon the rock Oreb, and Zeeb they slew at the [d] winepress of Zeeb, and pursued Midian, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon [g] on the other side Jordan.

CHAPTER 8

AND the men of [h] Ē-phră-ĭm said unto him, [i] Why hast thou served us thus, that thou calledst us not, when thou wentest to fight with the Midianites? And they did chide with him sharply.

2 And he said unto them, What have I done now in comparison of you? Is not the [l] gleaning of the grapes of Ē-phră-ĭm better than the vintage of [m] Ā-bĭ-ē-zĕr?

hands the princes of Midian, [a] Oreb and Zeeb: and what was I able to do in comparison of you? [b] Then their anger was abated toward him, when he had said that.

4 ¶ And [c] Gideon came to Jordan, and [d] passed over, he, and [e] the three hundred men that were with him, faint, yet pursuing them.

5 And he said unto the men of [f] Succoth, Give, I pray you, loaves of bread unto the people that [g] follow me; for they be faint, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian.

6 ¶ And the princes of Succoth said, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hand, [k] that we should give bread unto thine army?

7 And Gideon said, Therefore when the LORD hath delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into mine hand, [m] then I will [4] tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers.

8 ¶ And he went up thence to [n] Pĕn-ū-ĕl, and spake unto them likewise: and the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered him.

9 And he spake also unto the men of Pĕn-ū-ĕl, saying, [p] When I come again in peace, [q] I will break down this tower.

10 ¶ Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their hosts with them, about fifteen thousand men, all that were left of all the hosts of the [s] children of the east: [t] for there fell an hundred and twenty thousand men [x] that drew sword.

11 ¶ And Gideon went up by the way of them that dwelt in tents on the east of [z] Nobah and [a] Jŏg-bĕ-häh, and smote the host: for the host was [c] secure.

12 And when Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he pursued after them, and took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and [e] discomfited all the host.

13 ¶ And Gideon the son of Joash returned from battle before the sun was up,

14 And caught a young man of the men of Succoth, and enquired of him: and he [2] described unto him the princes of Succoth, and the elders thereof, even threescore and seventeen men.

15 And he came unto the men of Succoth, and said, Behold Zebah and Zalmunna with whom ye did upbraid me, saying, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hand, that we should give bread unto thy men that are weary?

16 And [h] he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he [3] taught the men of Succoth.

17 [i] And he beat down the tower of Pĕn-ū-ĕl, and slew the men of the city.

18 ¶ Then said he unto Zebah and Zalmunna, What manner of men were they whom ye slew at [l] Tabor? And they answered, As thou art, so were they; each one resembled the children of a king.

19 And he said, They were my brethren, even the sons of my mother: [o] as the LORD liveth, if ye had saved them alive, I would not slay you.

20 And he said unto Jether his firstborn, Up, and slay them. But the youth drew not his sword: for he feared, because he was yet a youth.

21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, Rise thou, and fall upon us: for as the man is, so is his strength. And Gideon arose, and [r] slew Zebah and Zalmunna, and took away the [5u] ornaments that were on their camels' necks.

22 ¶ Then the men of Israel said unto Gideon, [y] Rule thou over us, both thou, and thy son, and thy son's son also: for [b] thou hast delivered us from the hand of Midian.

23 And Gideon said unto them, I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you: [d] the LORD shall rule over you.

24 ¶ And Gideon said unto them, I would desire a request of you, that ye would give me every man the [6f] earrings of his prey. (For they had golden earrings, because they were [g] Ishmaelites.)

25 And they answered, We will willingly give them. And they spread a garment, and did cast therein every man the earrings of his prey.

26 And the weight of the golden earrings that he requested was a thousand and seven hundred shē'kĕls of gold; beside ornaments, and [2]collars, and [b] purple raiment that was on the kings of Midian, and beside the chains that were about their camels' necks.

27 And Gideon [d] made an ē'phŏd thereof, and put it in his city, even in [e] Ŏph'răh: and all Israel [f] went thither a whoring after it: which thing became [h] a snare unto Gideon, and to his house.

28 ¶ Thus was Midian subdued before the children of Israel, so that they lifted up their heads no more. [l] And the country was in quietness forty years in the days of Gideon.

29 ¶ And [o] Jĕr-ŭb-bā'ăl the son of Joash went and dwelt in his own house.

30 And Gideon had [p] threescore and ten sons of his body begotten: for he had many wives.

31 And his concubine that was in [q] Shē'chĕm, she also bare him a son, whose name he called Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch.

32 ¶ And Gideon the son of Joash died [t] in a good old age, and was buried in the sepulchre of Joash his father, in Ŏph'răh of the Ā'bī-ĕz'rītes.

33 And it came to pass, [x] as soon as Gideon was dead, that the children of Israel turned again, and went a whoring after [y] Bā'ă-lĭm, and made [z] Bā'ăl–bē'rĭth their god.

34 And the children of Israel [b] remembered not the LORD their God, who had delivered them out of the hands of all their enemies on every side:

35 [g] Neither shewed they kindness to the house of Jĕr-ŭb-bā'ăl, namely, Gideon, according to all the goodness [h] which he had shewed unto Israel.

CHAPTER 9

AND Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch the son of Jĕr-ŭb-bā'ăl went to [k] Shē'chĕm unto his mother's brethren, and communed with them, and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying,

2 Speak, I pray you, in the ears of all the men of Shē'chĕm, Whether is better for you, either that all the sons of Jĕr-ŭb-bā'ăl, which are [a] threescore and ten persons, reign over you, or that one reign over you? remember also that I am [c] your bone and your flesh.

3 And his mother's brethren spake of him in the ears of all the men of Shē'chĕm all these words: and their hearts inclined to follow Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch; for they said, [g] He is our brother.

4 And they gave him threescore and ten pieces of silver out of the house of Bā'ăl–bē'rĭth, wherewith Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch hired [i] vain and [k] light persons, which followed him.

5 And he went unto his father's house at [m] Ŏph'răh, [n] and slew his brethren the sons of Jĕr-ŭb-bā'ăl, being threescore and ten persons, upon one stone: notwithstanding yet Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left; for he hid himself.

6 And all the men of Shē'chĕm gathered together, and all the house of [r] Millo, and went, and made Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch king, by the [3s] plain of the [4]pillar that was in Shechem.

7 ¶ And when they told it to Jotham, he went and stood in the top of [u] mount Gĕ-rī'zĭm, and lifted up his voice, and cried, and said unto them, Hearken unto me, ye men of Shē'chĕm, that God may hearken unto you.

8 [a] The trees went forth on a time [c] to anoint a king over them; and they said unto the [d] olive tree, [e] Reign thou over us.

9 But the olive tree said unto them, Should I leave my fatness, [f] wherewith by me they honour God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees?

10 And the trees said to the [i] fig tree, Come thou, and reign over us.

12 Then said the trees unto the vine, Come thou, and reign over us.

13 And the vine said unto them, Should I leave my wine, [b] which cheereth God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees?

14 Then said all the trees unto the [2]bramble, Come thou, and reign over us.

15 And the bramble said unto the trees, If in truth ye anoint me king over you, then come and put your trust [c] in my shadow: and if not, let fire come out of the bramble, and devour the [d] cedars of Lebanon.

16 Now therefore, [e] if ye have done truly and sincerely, in that ye have made Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch king, and if ye have dealt well with Jĕr-ŭb-bā'ăl and his house, and have done unto him according to the deserving of his hands;

17 (For my father fought for you, and [3]adventured his life far, and [i] delivered you out of the hand of Midian:

18 And ye are risen up against my father's house this day, and have slain his sons, threescore and ten persons, upon one stone, and have made Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch, the son of his maidservant, king over the men of Shē'chĕm, [m] because he is your brother;)

19 If ye then have dealt truly and sincerely with Jĕr-ŭb-bā'ăl and with his house this day, then rejoice ye in Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch, and let him also rejoice in you:

20 But if not, [n] let fire come out from Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch, and devour the men of Shē'chĕm, and the house of Millo; and let fire come out from the men of Shechem, and from the house of Millo, and devour Abimelech.

21 And Jotham ran away, and fled, and went to Beer, and dwelt there, for fear of Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch his brother.

22 ¶ When Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch had reigned three years over Israel,

23 [o] Then God sent an evil spirit between Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch and the men of Shē'chĕm; and the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech:

24 [q] That the cruelty done to the threescore and ten sons of Jĕr-ŭb-bā'ăl might come, and [a] their blood be laid upon Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch their brother, which slew them; and upon the men of Shē'chĕm, which aided him in the killing of his brethren.

25 And the men of Shē'chĕm set liers in wait for him in the top of the mountains, and they robbed all that came along that way by them: and it was told Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch.

26 And Gā'ăl the son of Ebed came with his brethren, and went over to Shē'chĕm: and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him.

27 And they went out into the fields, and gathered their vineyards, and trode the grapes, and [f] made merry, and went into the house of their god, and did eat and drink, and [g] cursed Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch.

28 And Gā'ăl the son of Ebed said, [h] Who is Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch, and who is Shē'chĕm, that we should serve him? is not he the son of Jĕr-ŭb-bā'ăl? and Zebul his officer? serve the men of [k] Hamor the father of Shechem: for why should we serve him?

29 And [l] would to God this people were under my hand! then would I remove Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch. And he said to Abimelech, Increase thine army, and come out.

30 ¶ And when Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gā'ăl the son of Ebed, his anger was kindled.

31 And he sent messengers unto Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch [4]privily, saying, Behold, Gā'ăl the son of Ebed and his brethren be come to Shē'chĕm; and, behold, they fortify the city against thee.

32 Now therefore up by night, thou and the people that is with thee, and lie in wait in the field:

33 And it shall be, that in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, thou shalt rise early, and set upon the city: and, behold, when he and the people that is with him come out against thee, then mayest thou do to them [p] as thou shalt find occasion.

34 ¶ And Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch rose up, and all the people that were with him, by night, and they laid wait against Shē'chĕm [r] in four companies.

35 And Gā'ăl the son of Ebed went out, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch rose up, and the people that were with him, from lying in wait.

36 And when Gā'ăl saw the people, he said to Zebul, Behold, there come people down from the top of the mountains. And Zebul said unto him, Thou seest the shadow of the mountains as if they were men.

37 And Gā'ăl spake again and said, See there come people down by the [2]d middle of the land, and another company come along by the [3]plain of e Mē-ō'nĕ-nĭm.

38 Then said Zebul unto him, Where is now thy mouth, wherewith thou saidst, Who is Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch, that we should serve him? is not this the people that thou hast despised? go out, I pray now, and fight with them.

39 And Gā'ăl went out before the men of Shē'chĕm, and fought with Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch.

40 And Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch chased him, and he fled before him, and many were overthrown and wounded, even unto the entering of the gate.

41 And Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch dwelt at Ă-rû'măh: and Zebul thrust out Gā'ăl and his brethren, that they should not dwell in Shē'chĕm.

42 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the people went out into the field; and they told Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch.

43 And he took the people, and divided them into three companies, and laid wait in the field, and looked, and, behold, the people were come forth out of the city; and he rose up against them, and smote them.

44 And Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch, and the company that was with him, rushed forward, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and the two other companies ran upon all the people that were in the fields, and slew them.

45 And Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch fought against the city all that day; and he took the city, and slew the people that was therein, and k beat down the city, and [m]sowed it with salt.

46 ¶ And when all the men of the tower of Shē'chĕm heard that, they entered into an a hold of the house of the god b Berith.

47 And it was told Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch, that all the men of the tower of Shē'chĕm were gathered together.

48 And Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch gat him up to mount c Zăl'mŏn, he and all the people that were with him; and Abimelech took an axe in his hand, and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it, and laid it on his shoulder, and said unto the people that were with him, What ye have seen me do, make haste, and do as I have done.

49 And all the people likewise cut down every man his bough, and followed Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch, and put them to the hold, and set the hold on fire upon them; so that all the men of the tower of Shē'chĕm died also, about a thousand men and women.

50 ¶ Then went Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch to Thē'bĕz, and encamped against Thebez, and took it.

51 But there was a strong tower within the city, and thither fled all the men and women, and all they of the city, and shut it to them, and gat them up to the top of the tower.

52 And Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch came unto the tower, and fought against it, and went hard unto the door of the tower to burn it with fire.

53 f And a certain woman cast a piece of a g millstone upon Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch's head, and all to brake his skull.

54 h Then he called hastily unto the young man his armourbearer, and said unto him, Draw thy sword, and slay me, that men say not of me, A woman slew him. And his young man thrust him through, and he died.

55 And when the men of Israel saw that Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch was dead, they departed every man unto his place.

56 ¶ i Thus God rendered the wickedness of Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch, which he did unto his father, in slaying his seventy brethren:

57 And all the evil of the men of Shē'chĕm did God render upon their heads: and l upon them came the curse of Jotham the son of Jĕr-ŭb-bā'ăl.

CHAPTER 10

AND after Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch there arose [b] to defend Israel Tola the son of Pū'ăh, the son of Dodo, a man of [d] Ĭs'să-chär; and he dwelt in Shamir in mount Ē'phră-ĭm.

2 And he judged Israel twenty and three years, and died, and was buried in Shamir.

3 ¶ And after him arose [h] Jā'ĭr, a Gĭl'ĕ-ăd-īte, and judged Israel twenty and two years.

4 And he had [i] thirty sons that rode on thirty [l] ass colts, and they had thirty cities, which are called [3m] Hā'vōth–jā'ĭr unto this day, which are in the land of Gĭl'ĕ-ăd.

5 And Jā'ĭr died, and was buried in Camon.

6 ¶ And the children of Israel [q] did evil again in the sight of the LORD, and served [r] Bā'ă-lĭm, and [s] Ăsh'tă-rōth, and the gods of Syria, and the gods of [u] Zidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines, and [y] forsook the LORD, and served not him.

7 And the [z] anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he [b] sold them [c] into the hands of the Philistines, and into the hands of the children of [d] Ammon.

8 And that year they vexed and oppressed the children of Israel: eighteen years, all the children of Israel that were on the other side Jordan [g] in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gĭl'ĕ-ăd.

9 Moreover the children of Ammon passed over Jordan to fight also against [h] Judah, and against [i] Benjamin, and against the house of [k] Ē'phră-ĭm; so that Israel was sore distressed.

10 ¶ And the children of Israel [o] cried unto the LORD, saying, [p] We have sinned against thee, both because we have forsaken our God, and also served Bā'ă-lĭm.

11 And the LORD said unto the children of Israel, Did not I [r] deliver you from the Egyptians, and [s] from the Amorites, [t] from the children of Ammon, and [a] from the Philistines?

12 The Zī-dō'nĭ-ăns also, and the [c] Ă-măl'ĕk-ītes, and the [2] Maonites, did oppress you; and ye cried to me, and I delivered you out of their hand.

13 Yet ye have forsaken me, and [e] served other gods: [f] wherefore I will deliver you no more.

14 [g] Go and cry unto the gods which ye have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your tribulation.

15 ¶ And the children of Israel said unto the LORD, We have sinned: [k] do thou unto us whatsoever seemeth good unto thee; deliver us only, we pray thee, this day.

16 And [n] they put away the [o] strange gods from among them, and served the LORD: and [p] his soul was grieved for the misery of Israel.

17 Then the children of Ammon were gathered together, and encamped in [t] Gĭl'ĕ-ăd. And the children of Israel assembled themselves together, and encamped in [x] Mizpeh.

18 And the people and princes of Gĭl'ĕ-ăd said one to another, What man is he that will begin to fight against the children of Ammon? [a] he shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

CHAPTER 11

NOW [e] Jephthah the Gĭl'ĕ-ăd-īte was a [f] mighty man of valour, and he was the son of an harlot: and Gĭl'ĕ-ăd begat Jephthah.

2 And Gĭl'ĕ-ăd's wife bare him sons; and his wife's sons grew up, and they thrust out Jephthah, and said unto him, Thou shalt not inherit in our father's house; for thou art the son of a strange woman.

3 Then Jephthah fled from his brethren, and dwelt in the land of [l] Tob: [m] and there were gathered [n] vain men to Jephthah, and went out with him.

4 ¶ And it came to pass in process of time, that the [q] children of Ammon made war against Israel.

5 And it was so, that when the children of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gĭl'ĕ-ăd went to fetch Jephthah out of the land of Tob:

6 And they said unto Jephthah, Come, and be our captain, that we may fight with the children of Ammon.

7 And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gĭl'ĕ-ăd, Did not ye [c] hate me, and expel me out of my father's house? and why are ye come unto me now [e] when ye are in distress?

8 And the elders of Gĭl'ĕ-ăd said unto Jephthah, Therefore we turn again to thee now, that thou mayest go with us, and fight against the children of Ammon, and [g] be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

9 And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gĭl'ĕ-ăd, If ye bring me home again to fight against the children of Ammon, and the LORD deliver them before me, shall I be your head?

10 And the elders of Gĭl'ĕ-ăd said unto Jephthah, [i] The LORD be [2]witness between us, if we do not so according to thy words.

11 Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gĭl'ĕ-ăd, and the people made him head and captain over them: and Jephthah uttered all his words [m]before the LORD in [n] Mizpeh.

12 ¶ And Jephthah sent messengers unto the king of the children of Ammon, saying, What hast thou to do with me, that thou art come against me to fight in my land?

13 And the king of the children of Ammon answered unto the messengers of Jephthah, [o] Because Israel took away my land, when they [p] came up out of Egypt, from [q] Arnon even unto [r] Jabbok, and unto Jordan: now therefore restore those lands again peaceably.

14 And Jephthah sent messengers again unto the king of the children of Ammon:

15 And said unto him, Thus saith Jephthah, [x] Israel took not away the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon:

16 But when Israel came up from Egypt, and walked through the wilderness unto the [a] Red sea, and came to [b] Kadesh;

17 [a] Then Israel sent messengers unto the king of [b] Edom, saying, Let me, I pray thee, pass through thy land: but the king of Edom would not hearken thereto. And in like manner they sent unto the king of Moab: but he would not consent: and Israel abode in Kadesh.

18 Then they went along through the wilderness, and [d] compassed the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and [f] came by the east side of the land of Moab, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, but came not within the border of Moab: for Arnon was the border of Moab.

19 And [h] Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon; and Israel said unto him, Let us pass, we pray thee, through thy land into my place.

20 But Sihon trusted not Israel to pass through his coast: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and pitched in [k] Jahaz, and fought against Israel.

21 And the LORD God of Israel [l] delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they smote them: so Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country.

22 And they possessed all the coasts of the Amorites, from Arnon even unto Jabbok, and from the wilderness even unto Jordan.

23 So now the LORD God of Israel hath dispossessed the Amorites from before his people Israel, and shouldest thou possess it?

24 Wilt not thou possess that which [s] Chē'mŏsh thy god giveth thee to possess? [t] So whomsoever the LORD our God shall drive out from before us, them will we possess.

25 And now art thou any thing better than [u] Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? did he ever strive against Israel, or did he ever fight against them,

26 While Israel dwelt in [y] Heshbon and her towns, and in [z] Ă-rō'ĕr and her towns, and in all the cities that be along by the coasts of Arnon, three hundred years? why therefore did ye not recover them within that time?

27 Wherefore I have not sinned against thee, but thou doest me wrong to war against me: [a]the LORD the Judge [b]be judge this day between the children of Israel and the children of Ammon.

28 Howbeit the king of the children of Ammon hearkened not unto the words of Jephthah which he sent him.

29 ¶ Then [c]the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, and he passed over Gĭl'ĕ-ăd, and [d]Mă-năs'sēh, and passed over Mizpeh of Gilead, and from Mizpeh of Gilead he passed over unto the children of Ammon.

30 And Jephthah [e]vowed a vow unto the LORD, [g]and said, If thou shalt without fail deliver the children of Ammon into mine hands, 31 Then [h]it shall be, that [2]whatsoever cometh forth of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, shall surely be the LORD's, and I will offer it up for a [i]burnt offering.

32 ¶ So Jephthah passed over unto the children of Ammon to fight against them; and the LORD delivered them into his hands.

33 And he smote them from [n]Ă-rō'ĕr, even till thou come to [o]Minnith, even twenty cities, and unto the [3]plain of the vineyards, with a very great slaughter. Thus the children of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel.

34 ¶ And Jephthah came to Mizpeh unto his house, and, behold, his daughter came out to meet him with [q]timbrels and with dances: and she was his [s]only child; beside her he had neither son nor daughter.

35 And it came to pass, when he saw her, that he [t]rent his clothes, and said, Alas, my daughter! thou hast brought me very low, and thou art one of them that [u]trouble me: for I have opened my mouth unto the LORD, and [x]I cannot go back.

36 And she said unto him, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth unto the LORD, do to me according to that which hath proceeded out of thy mouth; forasmuch as the LORD hath taken vengeance for thee of thine enemies, even of the children of Ammon.

37 And she said unto her father, Let this thing be done for me: let me alone two months, that I may go up and down upon the mountains, and bewail my virginity, I and my fellows.

38 And he said, Go. And he sent her away for two months: and she went with her companions, and bewailed her virginity upon the mountains.

39 And it came to pass at the end of two months, that she returned unto her father, [f]who did with her according to his vow which he had vowed: and she knew no man. And it was a custom in Israel, 40 That the daughters of Israel went yearly to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gĭl'ĕ-ăd-īte four days in a year.

CHAPTER 12

AND the men of [k]Ē'phră-ĭm gathered themselves together, and went northward, and said unto [l]Jephthah, [m]Wherefore passedst thou over to fight against the children of Ammon, and didst not call us to go with thee? [p]we will burn thine house upon thee with fire.

2 And Jephthah said unto them, I and my people were at great strife with the children of Ammon; and when I called you, ye delivered me not out of their hands.

3 And when I saw that ye delivered me not, [r]I put my life in my hands, and passed over against the children of Ammon, and the LORD delivered them into my hand: wherefore then are ye come up unto me this day, to fight against me?

4 Then Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gĭl'ĕ-ăd, and fought with Ē'phră-ĭm: and the men of Gilead smote Ephraim, because they said, [y]Ye Gĭl'ĕ-ăd-ītes are fugitives of Ephraim among the Ē'phră-ĭm-ītes, and among the Mă-năs'sītes.

5 And the Gĭl'ĕ-ăd-ītes took [z]the 6 Then said they unto him, Say now Shĭb'bŏ-lĕth: and he said Sĭb'bŏ-lĕth: for he could not frame to pronounce it right. Then they took him, and slew him at the passages of Jordan: and there fell at that time of the Ē'phră-ĭm-ītes forty and two thousand.

CHAPTER 13

AND the children of Israel [t] did evil again in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD delivered them [u] into the hand of the Philistines forty years.

2 ¶ And there was a certain man of [x] Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was [a] Mă-nō'ăh; [b] and his wife was barren, and bare not.

3 And [c] the angel of the LORD appeared unto the woman, and said unto her, Behold now, thou art barren, and bearest not: but thou shalt conceive, [d] and bear a son.

4 Now therefore beware, I pray thee, and [e] drink not wine nor strong drink, and eat not any unclean thing:

5 For, lo, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son; and [f] no razor shall come on his head: for the child shall be a [g] Nazarite unto God from the womb: and [h] he shall begin to deliver Israel [i] out of the hand of the Philistines.

6 ¶ Then the woman came and told her husband, saying, [k] A man of God came unto me, and his countenance was like the countenance of an angel of God, very terrible: but [n] I asked him not whence he was, neither told he me his name:

7 But he said unto me, Behold, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son; and now drink no wine nor strong drink, neither eat any unclean thing: for the child shall be a Nazarite to God from the womb to the day of his death.

8 ¶ Then Mă-nō'ăh intreated the LORD, and said, O my Lord, let the man of God which thou didst send come again unto us, and teach us what we shall do unto the child that shall be born.

9 And God [r] hearkened to the voice of Mă-nō'ăh; and the angel of God came again unto the woman as she sat in the field: but Manoah her husband was not with her.

10 And the woman made haste, and ran, and shewed her husband, and said unto him, Behold, the man hath appeared unto me, that came unto me the other day.

11 And Mă-nō'ăh arose, and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said unto him, Art thou the man that spakest unto the woman? And he said, I am.

12 And Mă-nō'ăh said, Now let thy words come to pass. [3] How shall we order the child, and [4] how shall we do unto him?

13 And the angel of the LORD said unto Mă-nō′ăh, Of all that I said unto the woman let her beware.

14 She may not eat of any thing that cometh of the vine, neither let her drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing: all that I commanded her let her observe.

15 ¶ And Mă-nō′ăh said unto the angel of the LORD, I pray thee, [g] let us detain thee, until we shall have made ready a kid for thee.

16 And the angel of the LORD said unto Mă-nō′ăh, Though thou detain me, [h] I will not eat of thy bread: and if thou wilt offer a burnt offering, thou must offer it unto the LORD. For Manoah knew not that he was an angel of the LORD.

17 And Mă-nō′ăh said unto the angel of the LORD, [i] What is thy name, that when thy sayings come to pass we may do thee honour?

18 And the angel of the LORD said unto him, Why askest thou thus after [n] my name, seeing it is [2]secret?

19 So Mă-nō′ăh took a [o] kid with a [q] meat offering, and offered it [r] upon a rock unto [3]the LORD: and the angel did wonderously; and Manoah and his wife looked on.

20 For it came to pass, when [u] the flame went up toward heaven from off the altar, that the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar. And Mă-nō′ăh and his wife looked on it, and [z] fell on their faces to the ground.

21 But the angel of the LORD did no more appear to Mă-nō′ăh and to his wife. [a] Then Manoah knew that he was an angel of the LORD.

22 And Mă-nō′ăh said unto his wife, We shall surely die, because [b] we have seen God.

23 But his wife said unto him, [c] If the LORD were pleased to kill us, he would not have received a burnt offering and a meat offering at our hands, neither would he have shewed us all these things, nor would as at this time have told us such things as these.

24 ¶ And the woman bare a son, and called his name [e] Samson: [f] and the child grew, and [a] the LORD blessed him.

25 And [b] the Spirit of the LORD began to move him at times in the [c] camp of Dan between Zorah and [d] Ĕsh′tā-ŏl.

CHAPTER 14

AND [e] Samson went down to [f] Timnath, and saw a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines.

2 And he came up, and told his father and his mother, and said, I have seen a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines: [i] now therefore get her for me to wife.

3 Then his father and his mother said unto him, [k] Is there never a woman among the daughters of thy brethren, or among all my people, that thou goest to take a wife of the [m] uncircumcised Philistines? And Samson said unto his father, Get her for me; for she pleaseth me well.

4 But his father and his mother knew not that [p] it was of the LORD, that he [s] sought an occasion against the Philistines: [t] for at that time the Philistines had dominion over Israel.

5 ¶ Then went Samson down, and his father and his mother, to Timnath, and came to the vineyards of Timnath: and, behold, [x] a young lion roared against him.

6 And [y] the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and he rent him as he would have rent a kid, and he had nothing in his hand: but he told not his father or his mother what he had done.

7 And he went down, and talked with the woman; and she pleased Samson well.

8 ¶ And after a time he returned to take her, and he turned aside to see the carcase of the lion: and, behold, there was a swarm of bees and [d] honey in the carcase of the lion.

9 And he took thereof in his hands, and went on eating, and came to his father and mother, and he gave them, and they did eat: but he told not them that he had taken the honey out of the carcase of the lion.

10 ¶ So his father went down unto the woman: and Samson made there [a] a feast; for so used the young men to do.

11 And it came to pass, when they saw him, that they brought thirty companions to be with him.

12 ¶ And Samson said unto them, I will now put forth [d] a riddle unto you: if ye can certainly declare it me within the [e] seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty [3] sheets and thirty [g] change of garments:

13 But if ye cannot declare it me, then shall ye give me thirty sheets and thirty change of garments. And they said unto him, Put forth thy riddle, that we may hear it.

14 And he said unto them, Out of the eater came forth meat, and out of the strong came forth sweetness. And they could not in [l] three days expound the riddle.

15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they said unto Samson's wife, [m] Entice thy husband, that he may declare unto us the riddle, [o] lest we burn thee and thy father's house with fire: have ye called us to take that we have? is it not so?

16 And Samson's wife wept before him, and said, [q] Thou dost but hate me, and lovest me not: thou hast put forth a riddle unto the children of my people, and hast not told it me. And he said unto her, Behold, I have not told it my father nor my mother, and shall I tell it thee?

17 And she wept before him the seven days, while their feast lasted: and it came to pass on the seventh day, that he told her, because [s] she lay sore upon him: and she told the riddle to the children of her people.

18 And the men of the city said unto him on the seventh day before the sun went down, What is sweeter than honey? and what is stronger than a lion? And he said unto them, If ye had not plowed with my heifer, ye had not found out my riddle.

19 ¶ And the Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he went down to [x] Ăsh'kĕ-lon, and slew thirty men of them, and took their [2] spoil, and gave change of garments unto them which expounded the riddle. And his anger was kindled, and he went up to his father's house.

20 But Samson's wife [b] was given to his companion, [c] whom he had used as his friend.

CHAPTER 15

BUT it came to pass within a while after, in the time of [f] wheat harvest, that [h] Samson visited his wife [i] with a kid; and he said, I will go in to my wife into the chamber. But her father would not suffer him to go in.

2 And her father said, I verily thought that thou hadst utterly hated her; [k] therefore I gave her to thy companion: is not her younger sister fairer than she? take her, I pray thee, instead of her.

3 ¶ And Samson said concerning them, Now shall I be more blameless than the Philistines, though I do them a displeasure.

4 And Samson went and caught three hundred [n] foxes, and took firebrands, and turned tail to tail, and put a firebrand in the midst between two tails.

5 And when he had [p] set the brands on fire, he let them go into the standing corn of the Philistines, and burnt up both the shocks, and also the standing corn, with the vineyards and [r] olives.

6 ¶ Then the Philistines said, Who hath done this? And they answered, Samson, the son in law of the Timnite, because he had taken his wife, and given her to his companion. And the Philistines came up, and [t] burnt her and her father with fire.

7 ¶ And Samson said unto them, Though ye have done this, yet will I be avenged of you, and after that I will cease.

8 And he smote them hip and thigh with a great slaughter: and he went down and dwelt in the [4] top of the rock [u] Etam.

9 ¶ Then the Philistines went up, and pitched in Judah, and spread themselves in Lē'hī.

10 And the men of [a]Judah said, Why are ye come up against us? And they answered, To bind Samson are we come up, to do to him as he hath done to us.

11 Then three thousand men of Judah went to the top of the rock Etam, and said to Samson, Knowest thou not that the [d]Philistines are rulers over us? what is this that thou hast done unto us? And he said unto them, As they did unto me, so have I done unto them.

12 And they said unto him, We are come down to bind thee, that we may deliver thee into the hand of the Philistines. And Samson said unto them, Swear unto me, that ye will not fall upon me yourselves.

13 And they spake unto him, saying, No; but we will bind thee fast, and deliver thee into their hand: but surely we will not kill thee. And they bound him with two [h]new cords, and brought him up from the rock.

14 ¶ And when he came unto Lē'hī, the Philistines shouted against him: and the [k]Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and the cords that were upon his arms became as [m]flax that was burnt with fire, and his bands [3]loosed from off his hands.

15 And he found a new jawbone of an ass, and put forth his hand, and took it, and [n]slew a thousand men therewith.

16 And Samson said, With the jawbone of an ass, [o]heaps upon heaps, with the jaw of an ass have I slain a thousand men.

17 And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking, that he cast away the jawbone out of his hand, and called that place [5]Ramath–lē'hī.

18 ¶ And he was sore athirst, and called on the LORD, and said, Thou hast given this great deliverance into the hand of thy servant: and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the hand of [p]the uncircumcised?

19 [q]But God clave an [6]hollow place that was [7]in the jaw, and there came water thereout; and when he had drunk, [r]his spirit came again, and he revived: wherefore he called the name thereof [2]En–hăk-kôr'ē, which is in Lē'hī unto this day.

20 And he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.

CHAPTER 16

THEN went [b]Samson to [c]Gaza, and saw there an harlot, and went in unto her.

2 And it was told the Gazites, saying, Samson is come hither. And they [e]compassed him in, and laid wait for him all night in the gate of the city, and were quiet all the night, saying, In the morning, when it is day, we shall kill him.

3 And Samson lay till midnight, and arose at midnight, and took the doors of the gate of the city, and the two [f]posts, and went away with them, bar and all, and put them upon his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of an hill that is before [g]Hebron.

4 ¶ And it came to pass afterward, that he loved a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah.

5 And the [i]lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and said unto her, [l]Entice him, and see wherein his great strength lieth, and by what means we may prevail against him, that we may bind him to afflict him: and we will give thee every one of us eleven hundred pieces of silver.

6 ¶ And Delilah said to Samson, Tell me, I pray thee, wherein thy great strength lieth, and wherewith thou mightest be bound to afflict thee.

7 And Samson said unto her, If they bind me with seven [4]green withs that were never dried, then shall I be weak, and be as another man.

8 Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven green withs which had not been dried, and she bound him with them.

9 Now there were men lying in wait, abiding with her in the chamber. And she said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he brake the withs, as a thread of tow is broken when it toucheth the fire. So his strength was not known.

10 And Delilah said unto Samson, Behold, thou hast [s]mocked me, and 12 Delilah therefore took new ropes, and bound him therewith, and said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And there were liers in wait abiding in the chamber. And he brake them from off his arms like a thread.

16 And it came to pass, [m] when she pressed him daily with her words, and urged him, so that his soul was [n] vexed unto death;

17 [o] That he told her all his heart, and said unto her, There hath not come a [p] razor upon mine head; for I have been a [q] Nazarite unto God from my mother's womb: if I be shaven, then my strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man.

18 And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, Come up this once, for he hath shewed me all his heart. Then the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and brought money in their hand.

19 And she made him sleep upon her knees; and she called for a man, and she caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head; and she began to afflict him, and his strength went from him.

20 And she said, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and said, I will go out as at other times before, and shake myself. And he wist not that [b] the LORD was departed from him.

21 ¶ But the Philistines took him, and [c] put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters of brass; and [d] he did grind in the prison house.

22 Howbeit the hair of his head began to grow again after he was shaven.

23 Then the lords of the Philistines gathered them together for to offer a great sacrifice unto [e] Dagon their god, and to rejoice: [g] for they said, Our god hath delivered Samson our enemy into our hand.

24 And when the people saw him, [h] they praised their god: for they said, Our god hath delivered into our hands our enemy, and the destroyer of our country, which slew many of us.

25 And it came to pass, [k] when their hearts were merry, that they said, Call for Samson, that he may [l] make us sport. And they called for Samson out of the prison house; and he made them sport: and they set him between the pillars.

26 And Samson said unto the lad that held him by the hand, Suffer me that I may feel the pillars whereupon the house standeth, that I may lean upon them.

27 Now the house was full of men and women; and all the lords of the Philistines were there; and there were [r] upon the roof about three thousand men and women, that beheld while Samson made sport.

28 And Samson called unto the LORD, and said, O Lord GOD, [s] remember me, I pray thee, and strengthen me, I pray thee, only this once, O God, that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes.

29 And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars upon which the house stood, and on which it was borne up, of the one with his right hand, and of the other with his left.

30 And Samson said, Let me die with the Philistines. And he bowed himself with all his might; and the house fell upon the lords, and upon all the people that were therein. So the dead which he slew at his death were more than they which he slew in his life.

31 Then his brethren and all the house of his father came down, and took him, and brought him up, and buried him between [c] Zorah and [d] Ĕsh-tā-ŏl in the buryingplace of [e] Mă-nō-ăh his father. And he judged Israel twenty years.

CHAPTER 17

AND there was a man of mount Ē-phră-ĭm, whose name was [g] Micah.

2 And he said unto his mother, The eleven hundred shē-kĕls of silver that were taken from thee, about which [i] thou [2]cursedst, and spakest of also in mine ears, behold, the silver is with me; I took it. And his mother said, [k] Blessed be thou of the LORD, my son.

3 And when he had restored the eleven hundred shē-kĕls of silver to his mother, his mother said, I had wholly [o] dedicated the silver unto the LORD from my hand for my son, [p] to make a graven image and a molten image: now therefore I will restore it unto thee.

4 Yet he restored the money unto his mother; and his mother took two hundred shē-kĕls of silver, and [t] gave them to the [u] founder, who made thereof a graven image and a molten image: and they were in the house of Micah.

5 And the man Micah had an house of gods, and [y] made an ē-phŏd, and [z] tĕr-ă-phĭm, and [3a] consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest.

6 [b] In those days there was no king in Israel, but [c] every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

7 ¶ And there was a young man out of [e] Beth-lehem-judah of the family of Judah, who was a Levite, and he [a] sojourned there.

8 And the man departed out of the city from Beth-lehem-judah to sojourn where he could find a place: and he came to mount Ē-phră-ĭm to the house of Micah, as he journeyed.

9 And Micah said unto him, Whence comest thou? And he said unto him, I am a Levite of Beth-lehem-judah, and I go to sojourn where I may find a place.

10 And Micah said unto him, Dwell with me, and be unto me [b] a father and a priest, and I will give thee ten shē-kĕls of silver by the year, and a suit of apparel, and thy victuals. So the Levite went in.

11 And the Levite [f] was content to dwell with the man; and the young man was unto him as one of his sons.

12 And Micah consecrated the Levite; and the young man [h] became his priest, and was in the house of Micah.

13 Then said Micah, Now know I that the LORD will do me good, seeing I have a Levite to my priest.

[l] IN those days there was no king in Israel: and in those days [m] the tribe of the Danites sought them an inheritance to dwell in; [n] for unto that day all their inheritance had not fallen unto them among the tribes of Israel.

2 And the children of Dan sent of their family five men from their coasts, men of valour, from [q] Zorah, and from [r] Ĕsh-tā-ŏl, [s] to spy out the land, and to search it; and they said unto them, Go, search the land: who when they came to mount Ē-phră-ĭm, to the house of Micah, they lodged there.

3 When they were by the house of [x] Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the Levite: and they turned in thither, and said unto him, Who brought thee hither? and what makest thou in this place? and what hast thou here?

4 And he said unto them, Thus and thus dealeth Micah with me, and [d] hath hired me, and I am his priest.

counsel, we pray thee, of God, that we may know [a] whether our way which we go shall be prosperous.

6 And the priest said unto them, [b] Go in peace: before the LORD is your way wherein ye go.

7 ¶ Then the five men departed, and came to [c] Lā'ĭsh, and saw the people that were therein, how they dwelt careless, after the manner of the Zīdō'nĭ-ănś, [d] quiet and secure; and there was no [2] magistrate in the land, that might put them to shame in any thing; and they were [e] far from the Zidonians, and had no business with any man.

8 And they came unto their brethren to Zorah and Ĕsh'tā-ŏl: and their brethren said unto them, What say ye?

9 And [h] they said, Arise, that we may go up against them: for we have seen the land, and, behold, it is very good: and [i] are ye still? [k] be not slothful to go, and to enter to possess the land.

10 When ye go, ye shall come unto a people secure, and to a large land: for God hath given it into your hands; [l] a place where there is no want of any thing that is in the earth.

11 ¶ And there went from thence of the family of the Danites, out of Zorah and out of Ĕsh'tā-ŏl, six hundred men [4] appointed with weapons of war.

12 And they went up, and pitched in [m] Kĭr'jăth–jē'ă-rĭm, in Judah: wherefore they called that place [n] Mā'hă-nēh–dăn unto this day: behold, it is behind Kirjath–jearim.

13 And they passed thence unto mount Ē'phră-ĭm, and came unto the house of Micah.

14 ¶ Then answered the five men that went to spy out the country of Lā'ĭsh, and said unto their brethren, Do ye know that there is in these houses an [p] ē'phŏd, and [q] tĕr'ă-phĭm, and a graven image, and a molten image? now therefore consider what ye have to do.

15 And they turned thitherward, and came to the house of the young man the Levite, even unto the house of Micah, and [6] saluted him.

16 And the six hundred men appointed with their weapons of war, which were of the children of Dan, stood by the entering of the gate.

17 And the five men that went to spy out the land went up, and came in thither, and took the graven image, and the ē'phŏd, and the tĕr'ă-phĭm, and the molten image: and the priest stood in the entering of the gate with the six hundred men that were appointed with weapons of war.

18 And these went into Micah's house, and fetched the carved image, the ē'phŏd, and the tĕr'ă-phĭm, and the molten image. Then said the priest unto them, What do ye?

19 And they said unto him, Hold thy peace, [f] lay thine hand upon thy mouth, and go with us, and [g] be to us a father and a priest: is it better for thee to be a priest unto the house of one man, or that thou be a priest unto a tribe and a family in Israel?

20 And the priest's heart was glad, and he took the ē'phŏd, and the tĕr'ă-phĭm, and the graven image, and went in the midst of the people.

21 So they turned and departed, and put the little ones and the cattle and [3] the carriage before them.

22 ¶ And when they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men that were in the houses near to Micah's house were gathered together, and overtook the children of Dan.

23 And they cried unto the children of Dan. And they turned their faces, and said unto Micah, What aileth thee, that thou comest with such a company?

24 And he said, [o] Ye have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and ye are gone away: and what have I more? and what is this that ye say unto me, What aileth thee?

25 And the children of Dan said unto him, Let not thy voice be heard among us, lest [5r] angry fellows run upon thee, and thou lose thy life, with the lives of thy household.

26 And the children of Dan went their way: and when Micah saw that 27 And they took the things which Micah had made, and the priest which he had, and came unto Lā'ish, unto a people that were at quiet and secure: and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and burnt the city with fire.

28 And there was no deliverer, because it was far from [b] Zidon, and they had no business with any man; and it was in the valley that lieth by [d] Beth-rē'hŏb. And they built a city, and dwelt therein.

CHAPTER 19

AND it came to pass in those days, [k] when there was no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite [m] sojourning on the side of mount Ē'phră-ĭm, who took to him a concubine out of [o] Beth-lehem-judah.

2 And his concubine played the whore against him, and went away from him unto her father's house to Beth-lehem-judah, and was there four whole months.

3 And her husband arose, and went after her, [q] to speak [3] friendly unto her, and to bring her again, having his servant with him, and a couple of asses: and she brought him into her father's house: and when the father of the damsel saw him, he rejoiced to meet him.

4 And his father in law, the damsel's father, retained him; and he abode with him [t] three days: so they did eat and drink, and lodged there.

5 ¶ And it came to pass on the fourth day, when they arose early in the morning, that he rose up to depart: and the damsel's father said unto his son in law, [a] Comfort thine heart with a morsel of bread, and afterward go your way.

6 And they sat down, and did eat and drink both of them together: for the damsel's father had said unto the man, Be content, I pray thee, and tarry all night, and [c] let thine heart be merry.

7 And when the man rose up to depart, his father in law urged him: therefore he lodged there again.

8 And he arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart: and the damsel's father said, Comfort thine heart, I pray thee. And they tarried until afternoon, and they did eat both of them.

9 And when the man rose up to depart, he, and his concubine, and his servant, his father in law, the damsel's father, said unto him, Behold, now the day draweth toward evening, I pray you tarry all night: behold, the day groweth to an end, lodge here, that thine heart may be merry; and to morrow get you early on your way, that thou mayest go home.

10 But the man would not tarry that night, but he rose up and departed, and came over against [l] Jebus, which is [n] Jerusalem; and there were with him two asses saddled, his concubine also was with him.

11 And when they were by Jebus, the day was far spent; and the servant said unto his master, Come, I pray thee, and let us turn in into this city of the [p] Jĕb'ū-sītes, and lodge in it.

12 And his master said unto him, We will not turn aside hither into the city of a stranger, that is not of the children of Israel; we will pass over to [r] Gibeah.

13 And he said unto his servant, Come, and let us draw near to one of these places to lodge all night, in Gibeah, or in [s] Ramah.

14 And they passed on and went their way; and the sun went down upon them when they were by Gibeah, which belongeth to Benjamin.

15 And they turned aside thither, to go in and to lodge in Gibeah: and when he went in, he sat him down in a street of the city: for there was no man that took them into his house to lodging.

16 ¶ And, behold, there came an old man from his work out of the field at even, which was also of mount E'phră'ĭm; and he sojourned in Gibeah: but the men of the place were Benjamites.

17 And when he had lifted up his eyes, he saw a wayfaring man in the street of the city: and the old man said, Whither goest thou? and whence comest thou?

18 And he said unto him, We are passing from Beth–lehem–judah toward the side of mount E'phră'ĭm; from thence am I: and I went to Beth–lehem–judah, but I am now going [c] to the house of the LORD; and there is no man that receiveth me to house.

19 Yet there is both straw and provender for our asses; and there is bread and wine also for me, and for thy handmaid, and for the young man which is with thy servants: [e] there is no want of any thing.

20 And the old man said, [g] Peace be with thee; howsoever let all thy wants lie upon me; only lodge not in the street.

21 [i] So he brought him into his house, and [k] gave provender unto the asses: and they [m] washed their feet, and did eat and drink.

22 ¶ Now as they were making their hearts merry, behold, the men of the city, certain [o] sons of Bĕ'lĭ-ăl, [p] beset the house round about, and beat at the door, and spake to the master of the house, the old man, saying, [r] Bring forth the man that came into thine house, that we may know him.

23 And the man, the master of the house, went out unto them, and said unto them, Nay, my brethren, nay, I pray you, do not so wickedly; seeing that this man is come into mine house, [x] do not this folly.

24 [a] Behold, here is my daughter a maiden, and his concubine; them I will bring out now, and humble ye them, and do with them what seemeth good unto you: but unto this man do not so vile a thing.

25 But the men would not hearken to him: so the man took his concubine, and brought her forth unto them; and they knew her, and [b] abused her all the night until the morning: and when the day began to spring, they let her go.

26 Then came the woman in the dawning of the day, and fell down at the door of the man's house where her lord was, till it was light.

27 And her lord rose up in the morning, and opened the doors of the house, and went out to go his way: and, behold, the woman his concubine was fallen down at the door of the house, and her hands were upon the threshold.

28 And he said unto her, Up, and let us be going. But [d] none answered. Then the man took her up upon an ass, and the man rose up, and gat him unto his place.

29 ¶ And when he was come into his house, he took a knife, and laid hold on his concubine, and [f] divided her, together with her bones, into twelve pieces, and sent her into all the coasts of Israel.

30 And it was so, that all that saw it said, [h] There was no such deed done nor seen from the day that the children of Israel [i] came up out of the land of Egypt unto this day: [n] consider of it, take advice, and speak your minds.

CHAPTER 20

THEN [q] all the children of Israel went out, and the congregation was gathered together as one man, [s] from Dan even to [t] Beer–sheba, with the land of Gĭl'ĕ-ăd, unto the LORD in [u] Mizpeh.

2 And the [2] chief of all the people, even of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen [y] that drew sword.

13th c. B.C.

3 (Now the [a] children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel were gone up to Mizpeh.) Then said the children of Israel, Tell us, how was this wickedness?

4 And the Levite, the husband of the woman that was slain, answered and said, I came into [c] Gibeah that belongeth to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to lodge.

5 [d] And the men of Gibeah rose against me, and [e] beset the house round about upon me by night, and thought to have slain me: and my concubine have they forced, that [g] she is dead.

6 And [h] I took my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the country of the inheritance of Israel: for they have committed [i] lewdness and [k] folly in Israel.

7 Behold, ye are all children of Israel; [m] give here your advice and counsel.

8 ¶ And all the people arose as one man, saying, We will not any of us go to his tent, neither will we any of us turn into his house.

9 But now this shall be the thing which we will do to Gibeah; we will go up [o] by lot against it;

10 And we will take ten men of an hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and an hundred of a thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to fetch victual for the people, that they may do, when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, according to all the folly that they have wrought in Israel.

11 So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, knit together as one man.

12 ¶ [p] And the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, What wickedness is this that is done among you?

13 Now therefore deliver us the men, the [r] children of Bĕ'lĭ-ăl, which are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and [s] put away evil from Israel. But the children of Benjamin would not hearken to the voice of their brethren the children of Israel:

14 But the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities unto Gibeah, to go out to battle against the children of Israel.

15 And the children of Benjamin were numbered at that time out of the cities [b] twenty and six thousand men that drew sword, beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, which were numbered seven hundred chosen men.

16 Among all this people there were seven hundred chosen men [f] left-handed; every one could sling stones at an hair breadth, and not miss.

17 And the men of Israel, beside Benjamin, were numbered four hundred thousand men that drew sword: all these were men of war.

18 ¶ And the children of Israel arose, and went up to the [2] house of God, and [l] asked counsel of God, and said, Which of us shall go up first to the battle against the children of Benjamin? And the LORD said, [n] Judah shall go up first.

19 And the children of Israel rose up in the morning, and encamped against Gibeah.

20 And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel put themselves in array to fight against them at Gibeah.

21 And the children of Benjamin came forth out of Gibeah, and destroyed down to the ground of the Israelites that day twenty and two thousand men.

22 And the people the men of Israel encouraged themselves, and set their battle again in array in the place where they put themselves in array the first day.

23 (And the children of Israel went up [q] and wept before the LORD until even, and asked counsel of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? And the LORD said, Go up against him.)

24 And the children of Israel came near against the children of Benjamin the second day.

25 And Benjamin went forth against them out of Gibeah the second day, and destroyed down to the ground of the children of Israel again eighteen thousand men; all these drew the sword.

26 ¶ Then all the children of Israel, and all the people, went up, and came unto the house of God, and wept, and sat there before the LORD, and fasted that day until even, and offered [b] burnt offerings and [c] peace offerings before the LORD.

27 And the children of Israel enquired of the LORD, (for the [d] ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, 28 And [f] Phĭn'ĕ-hăs, the son of Ĕl-ē-ā'zär, the son of Aaron, [g] stood before it in those days,) saying, Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease? And the LORD said, Go up; for to morrow I will deliver them into thine hand.

29 And Israel set [h] liers in wait round about Gibeah.

30 And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times.

31 And the children of Benjamin went out against the people, and were drawn away from the city; and they began to smite of the people, and kill, as at other times, in the highways, of which [l] one goeth up to the house of God, and the other to Gibeah in the field, about thirty men of Israel.

32 And the children of Benjamin said, [m] They are smitten down before us, as at the first. But the children of Israel said, Let us flee, and draw them from the city unto the highways.

33 And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and put themselves in array at Bā'ăl-tā'mär: and the liers in wait of Israel came forth out of their places, even out of the meadows of Gibeah.

34 And there came against Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was sore: [p] but they knew not that evil was near them.

35 And the LORD smote Benjamin before Israel: and the children of Israel destroyed of the Benjamites that day twenty and five thousand and an hundred men: all these drew the sword.

36 So the children of Benjamin saw that they were smitten: for the men of Israel [a] gave place to the Benjamites, because they trusted unto the liers in wait which they had set beside Gibeah.

37 [e] And the liers in wait hasted, and rushed upon Gibeah; and the liers in wait drew themselves along, and smote all the city with the edge of the sword.

38 Now there was an appointed sign between the men of Israel and the liers in wait, that they should make a great flame with smoke rise up out of the city.

39 And when the men of Israel retired in the battle, Benjamin began to smite and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons: for they said, [i] Surely they are smitten down before us, as in the first battle.

40 But when the flame began to arise up out of the city with a pillar of smoke, [k] the Benjamites looked behind them, and, behold, the flame of the city ascended up to heaven.

41 And when the men of Israel turned again, the men of Benjamin were amazed: for they saw that evil was come upon them.

42 Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel unto the [n] way of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them; and them which came out of the cities they destroyed in the midst of them.

43 Thus they inclosed the Benjamites round about, and chased them, and trode them down [2] with ease over against Gibeah toward the sunrising.

44 And there fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men; all these were men of valour.

45 And they turned and fled toward the wilderness unto the rock of [o] Rimmon: and they gleaned of them in the highways five thousand men; and pursued hard after them unto Gī' dŏm, and slew two thousand men of them.

46 So that all which fell that day of Benjamin were twenty and five thousand men that drew the sword; all these were men of valour.

47 But six hundred men turned and fled to the wilderness unto the rock Rimmon, and abode in the rock Rimmon four months.

48 And the men of Israel turned again upon the children of Benjamin, and smote them with the edge of the sword, as well the men of every city, as the beast, and all that came to hand: also they set on fire [d] all the cities that they came to.

CHAPTER 21

NOW the men of Israel had sworn in [e] Mizpeh, saying, There shall not any of us give his daughter unto [g] Benjamin to wife.

2 And the people came to the [2] house of God, and abode there till even before God, and [h] lifted up their voices, and wept sore;

3 And said, O LORD God of Israel, why is this come to pass in Israel, that there should be to day one tribe lacking in Israel?

4 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the people rose early, and [l] built there an altar, and offered [m] burnt offerings and [n] peace offerings.

5 And the children of Israel said, Who is there among all the tribes of Israel that [p] came not up with the congregation unto the LORD? For [q] they had made a great oath concerning him that came not up to the LORD to Mizpeh, saying, He shall surely be put to death.

6 And the children of Israel repented them for Benjamin their brother, and said, There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day.

7 How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing we have [s] sworn by the LORD that we will not give them of our daughters to wives?

8 ¶ And they said, What one is there of the tribes of Israel that came not up to Mizpeh to the LORD? And, behold, there came none to the camp from [a] Jabesh–gĭl'ĕ–ăd to the assembly.

9 For the people were numbered, and, behold, there were none of the inhabitants of Jabesh–gĭl'ĕ–ăd there.

10 And the congregation sent thither twelve thousand men of the valiantest, and commanded them, saying, Go and smite the inhabitants of Jabesh–gĭl'ĕ–ăd with the edge of the sword, with the women and the children.

11 And this is the thing that ye shall do, Ye shall [b] utterly destroy [c] every male, and every woman that hath lain by man.

12 And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh–gĭl'ĕ–ăd four hundred young virgins, that had known no man by lying with any male: and they brought them unto the camp to [f] Shiloh, which is in the land of Cā'nă–ăn.

13 And the whole congregation sent some to speak to the children of Benjamin that were in the rock [i] Rimmon, and to [k] call peaceably unto them.

14 And Benjamin came again at that time; and they gave them wives which they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh–gĭl'ĕ–ăd: and yet so they sufficed them not.

15 And the people repented them for Benjamin, because that the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.

16 ¶ Then [o] the elders of the congregation said, How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing the women are destroyed out of Benjamin?

17 And they said, There must be an inheritance for them that be escaped of Benjamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Israel.

18 Howbeit we may not give them wives of our daughters: [r] for the children of Israel have sworn, saying, [t] Cursed be he that giveth a wife to Benjamin.

19 Then they said, Behold, there is [u] a feast of the LORD in Shiloh yearly in a place which is on the north side of [x] Beth–el, on the east side of the highway [y] that goeth up from Beth–el to [a] Shē'chĕm, and on the south of Lĕ-bō'năh.

20 Therefore they commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, Go and lie in wait in the vineyards;

21 And see, and, behold, if the daughters of Shiloh [b] come out to [c] dance in dances, then come ye out of the vineyards, and catch you every man his wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin.

22 And it shall be, when their fathers or their brethren come unto us to complain, that we will say unto them, [2]Be favourable unto them for our sakes: because we reserved not to each man his wife in the war: for ye did not give unto them at this time, that ye should be guilty.

23 And the children of Benjamin did so, and took them wives, according to their number, of them that danced, whom they caught: and they went and returned unto their inheritance, and [d] repaired the cities, and dwelt in them.

24 And the children of Israel departed thence at that time, every man to his tribe and to his family, and they went out from thence every man to his inheritance.

25 [e] In those days there was no king in Israel: [f] every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

THE BOOK OF RUTH

CHAPTER 1

NOW it came to pass in the days [c] when the judges ruled, that there was a [d] famine in the land. And a certain man of [e] Beth-lehem-judah went to sojourn in the country of Moab, he, and his wife, and his two sons.

2 And the name of the man was [g] Ē-lĭm'ĕ-lĕch, and the name of his wife [h] Naomi, and the name of his two sons Mahlon and Chĭ'lĭ-ŏn, [k] Ĕph'ră-thītes of Beth-lehem-judah. And they came into the country of Moab, and continued there.

3 And Ē-lĭm'ĕ-lĕch Naomi's husband died; and she was left, and her two sons.

4 And they [p] took them wives of the women of Moab; the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other [q] Ruth: and they dwelled there about ten years.

5 And Mahlon and Chĭ'lĭ-ŏn died also both of them; and the woman was left of her two sons and her husband.

6 ¶ Then she arose with her daughters in law, that she might return from the country of Moab: for she had heard in the country of Moab how that the LORD had [a] visited his people [b] in giving them bread.

7 Wherefore she went forth out of the place where she was, and her two daughters in law with her; and they went on the way to return unto the land of Judah.

8 And Naomi said unto her two daughters in law, Go, [f] return each to her mother's house: the LORD deal kindly with you, [i] as ye have dealt [l] with the dead, and with me.

9 The LORD grant you that ye may [m] find rest, each of you in the house of her husband. Then she [n] kissed them; and they [o] lifted up their voice, and wept.

10 And they said unto her, Surely we will return with thee unto thy people.

11 And Naomi said, Turn again, my daughters: why will ye go with me? are there yet any more sons in my womb, [r] that they may be your husbands?

12 Turn again, my daughters, go your way; for I am too old to have an husband. If I should say, I have hope, if I should have an husband also to night, and should also bear sons;

13 Would ye tarry for them till they were grown? would ye stay for them from having husbands? nay, my daughters; for [2]it grieveth me much for your sakes that [e]the hand of the LORD is gone out against me.

14 And they lifted up their voice, and wept again: and Orpah kissed her mother in law; but Ruth clave unto her.

15 And she said, Behold, thy sister in law is gone back unto her people, and unto [3]her gods: return thou after thy sister in law.

16 And Ruth said, Intreat me not to leave thee, or to return from following after thee: for whither thou goest, I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge: [h]thy people shall be my people, [i]and thy God [k]my God:

17 Where thou diest, will I die, and there will I be buried: [l]the LORD do so to me, and more also, if ought but death part thee and me.

18 When she saw that she was stedfastly minded to go with her, then she left speaking unto her.

19 ¶ So they two went until they came to Beth-lehem. And it came to pass, when they were come to Beth-lehem, that all the city was moved about them, and they said, Is this Naomi?

20 And she said unto them, Call me not [4]Naomi, call me [5]Mâr'ă: for the [n]Almighty hath dealt very bitterly with me.

21 [o]I went out full, and the LORD hath brought me home again empty: why then call ye me Naomi, seeing the LORD hath testified against me, and the Almighty hath afflicted me?

22 So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Mō-ăb-ī'tĕss, her daughter in law, with her, which returned out of the country of Moab: and they came to Beth-lehem in the beginning of [s]barley harvest.

CHAPTER 2

AND Naomi had [u]a kinsman of her husband's, a [x]mighty man of wealth, of the family of [y]Ĕ-lĭm'ĕ-lĕch; and his name was [z]Boaz.

2 And [a]Ruth the Mō-ăb-ī'tĕss said unto [b]Naomi, Let me now go to the field, and [c]glean ears of corn after him [d]in whose sight I shall find grace. And she said unto her, Go, my daughter.

3 And she went, and came, and gleaned in the field after the reapers: and her hap was to light on a part of the field belonging unto Boaz, who was of the kindred of Ĕ-lĭm'ĕ-lĕch.

4 ¶ And, behold, Boaz came from [f]Beth-lehem, and said unto the reapers, [g]The LORD be with you. And they answered him, The LORD bless thee.

5 Then said Boaz unto his servant that was set over the reapers, Whose damsel is this?

6 And the servant that was set over the reapers answered and said, It is the Mō-ăb-ī'tĭsh damsel [m]that came back with Naomi out of the country of Moab:

7 And she said, I pray you, let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves: so she came, and hath continued even from the morning until now, that she tarried a little in the house.

8 Then said Boaz unto Ruth, Hearest thou not, my daughter? Go not to glean in another field, neither go from hence, but abide here fast by my maidens:

9 Let thine eyes be on the field that they do reap, and go thou after them: have I not charged the young men that they shall not touch thee? and when thou art athirst, go unto the vessels, and drink of that which the young men [p]have drawn.

10 Then [q]she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said unto him, Why have I [r]found grace in thine eyes, that thou shouldest take knowledge of me, seeing I am a stranger?

11 And Boaz answered and said unto her, It hath fully been shewed me, [t]all that thou hast done unto thy mother in law since the death of thine husband: and how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, and the land of thy nativity, and art come unto a people which thou knewest not heretofore.

12 The LORD recompense thy work, and [a] a full reward be given thee of the LORD God of Israel, [b] under whose wings thou art come to trust.

13 Then she said, Let me [c] find favour in thy sight, my lord; for that thou hast comforted me, and for that [d] thou hast spoken [2] friendly unto thine handmaid, though I be not like unto one of thine handmaidens.

14 And Boaz said unto her, At mealtime come thou hither, and eat of the bread, and dip thy morsel in the [g] vinegar. And she sat beside the reapers: and he reached her [i] parched corn, and she did eat, and was sufficed, and left.

15 And when she was risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, [o] Let her glean even among the sheaves, and reproach her not:

16 And let fall also some of the handfuls of purpose for her, and leave them, that she may glean them, and rebuke her not.

17 So she gleaned in the field until even, and beat out that she had gleaned: and it was about an [q] ē'-phäh of [r] barley.

18 ¶ And she took it up, and went into the city: and her mother in law saw what she had gleaned: and she brought forth, and gave to her that she had reserved after she was sufficed.

19 And her mother in law said unto her, Where hast thou gleaned to day? and where wroughtest thou? [t] blessed be he that did take knowledge of thee. And she shewed her mother in law with whom she had wrought, and said, The man's name with whom I wrought to day is Boaz.

20 And Naomi said unto her daughter in law, [u] Blessed be he of the LORD, who hath not left off his kindness to the living and [x] to the dead. And Naomi said unto her, The man is near of kin unto us, [3] one of our [z] next kinsmen.

21 And Ruth the Mō-ăb-ī'-tĕss said, He said unto me also, Thou shalt keep fast by my young men, until they have ended all my harvest.

22 And Naomi said unto Ruth her daughter in law, It is good, my daughter, that thou go out with his maidens, that they meet thee not in any other field.

23 So she kept fast by the maidens of Boaz to glean unto the end of barley harvest and of [e] wheat harvest; and dwelt with her mother in law.

CHAPTER 3

THEN [f] Naomi her mother in law said unto her, My daughter, shall I not [h] seek rest for thee, that it may be well with thee?

2 And now is not Boaz [k] of our kindred, [l] with whose maidens thou wast? Behold, he winnoweth [m] barley to night in the [n] threshingfloor.

3 Wash thyself therefore, and [p] anoint thee, and put thy raiment upon thee, and get thee down to the floor: but make not thyself known unto the man, until he shall have done eating and drinking.

4 And it shall be, when he lieth down, that thou shalt mark the place where he shall lie, and thou shalt go in, and uncover his feet, and lay thee down; and he will tell thee what thou shalt do.

5 And she said unto her, All that thou sayest unto me I will do.

6 ¶ And she went down unto the floor, and did according to all that her mother in law bade her.

7 And when Boaz had eaten and drunk, and [s] his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of corn: and she came softly, and uncovered his feet, and laid her down.

8 ¶ And it came to pass at midnight, that the man was afraid, and turned himself: and, behold, a woman lay at his feet.

9 And he said, Who art thou? And she answered, I am Ruth thine handmaid: [y] spread therefore thy skirt over thine handmaid; for thou art a [a] near kinsman.

10 And he said, [b] Blessed be thou of the LORD, my daughter: for thou hast shewed more kindness in the latter end than at the beginning, inasmuch as thou followedst not young men, whether poor or rich.

11 And now, my daughter, [c] fear not; I will do to thee all that thou requirest: for all the [3]city of my people doth know that thou art a [d] virtuous woman.

12 And now it is true that I am thy near kinsman: howbeit there is a kinsman nearer than I.

13 Tarry this night, and it shall be in the morning, that if he will [f] perform unto thee the part of a kinsman, well; let him do the kinsman's part: but if he will not do the part of a kinsman to thee, then will I do the part of a kinsman to thee, [g] as the LORD liveth: lie down until the morning.

14 ¶ And she lay at his feet until the morning: and she rose up before one could know another. And he said, Let it not be known that a woman came into the floor.

15 Also he said, Bring the [4]vail that thou hast upon thee, and hold it. And when she held it, he measured six measures of barley, and laid it on her: and she went into the city.

16 And when she came to her mother in law, she said, Who art thou, my daughter? And she told her all that the man had done to her.

17 And she said, These six measures of barley gave he me; for he said to me, Go not empty unto thy mother in law.

18 Then said she, Sit still, my daughter, until thou know how the matter will fall: for the man will not be in rest, until he have finished the thing this day.

CHAPTER 4

THEN went [l] Boaz up to [m] the gate, and sat him down there: and, behold, [n] the kinsman of whom Boaz spake came by; unto whom he said, Ho, such a one! turn aside, sit down here. And he turned aside, and sat down.

2 And he took ten men of the [q] elders of the city, and said, Sit ye down here. And they sat down.

3 And he said unto the kinsman, [a] Naomi, that is come again out of the country of Moab, selleth a parcel of land, which was our brother [b] E-lim'-ĕ-lĕch's:

4 And I thought to [2]advertise thee, saying, Buy it before the inhabitants, and before the elders of my people. If thou wilt redeem it, [e] redeem it: but if thou wilt not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know: for there is none to redeem it beside thee; and I am after thee. And he said, I will redeem it.

5 Then said Boaz, What day thou buyest the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must buy it also of Ruth the Mō-ăb-ī'-tĕss, the wife of the dead, [h] to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance.

6 ¶ And the kinsman said, [i] I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I mar mine own inheritance: redeem thou my right to thyself; for I cannot redeem it.

7 Now this was the manner in former time in Israel concerning redeeming and concerning changing, for to confirm all things; a man [k] plucked off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbour: and this was a testimony in Israel.

8 Therefore the kinsman said unto Boaz, Buy it for thee. So he drew off his shoe.

9 ¶ And Boaz said unto the elders, and unto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was E-lim'-ĕ-lĕch's, and all that was Chil'-i-ŏn's and Mahlon's, of the hand of Naomi.

10 Moreover Ruth the Mō-ăb-ī'-tĕss, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: [o] ye are witnesses this day.

11 And all the people that were in the gate, and the elders, said, We are witnesses. [p] The LORD make the woman that is come into thine house like [r] Rachel and like [s] Leah, which two did [t] build the house of Israel: and do thou worthily in [a] Ĕph-ră-tăh, and be famous in [c] Beth-lehem:

12 And let thy house be like the [d] house of Phâr-ĕz, whom [e] Tamar bare [f] unto Judah, of the seed which the LORD shall give thee of this young woman.

13 ¶ So Boaz took Ruth, and she was his wife: and when he went in unto her, [k] the LORD gave her conception, and she bare a son.

14 [o] And the women said unto Naomi, Blessed be the LORD, which hath not left thee this day without a kinsman, that his name may be famous in Israel.

15 And he shall be unto thee a restorer of thy life, and a [r] nourisher of thine old age: for thy daughter in law, which loveth thee, which is [b] better to thee than seven sons, hath born him.

16 And Naomi took the child, and laid it in her bosom, and became nurse unto it.

17 [g] And the women her neighbours gave it a name, saying, There is a son born to Naomi; and they called his name [h] Obed: he is the father of [i] Jesse, the father of [i] David.

18 ¶ [l] Now [m] these are the generations of [n] Phâr-ĕz: Pharez begat [p] Hezron,

19 And Hezron begat Ram, and Ram begat [q] Ăm-mĭn-ă-dăb,

THE FIRST BOOK OF SAMUEL

otherwise called The First Book of the Kings

CHAPTER 1

NOW there was a certain man of Rā-mă-thā-ĭm-[a] zophim, of mount Ĕ-phră-ĭm, and his name was [b] Ĕl-kā-năh, the son of Jĕ-rō-hăm, the son of Ĕ-lī-hū, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ĕph-ră-thīte:

2 And he had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Pĕ-nĭn-năh: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah [e] had no children.

3 And this man went up out of his city [f] yearly to worship and to sacrifice unto the [g] LORD of hosts in [h] Shiloh. And [i] the two sons of Eli, Hŏph-nī and Phĭn-ĕ-hăs, the priests of the LORD, were there.

4 ¶ And when the time was that Ĕl-kā-năh offered, [l] he gave to Pĕ-nĭn-năh his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters, portions:

5 But unto Hannah he gave a [2] worthy portion; for he loved Hannah: but the LORD had shut up her womb.

6 And [3] her adversary also [c] provoked her sore, for to make her fret, [d] because the LORD had shut up her womb.

7 And as he did so year by year, when she went up to the house of the LORD, so she provoked her; therefore she wept, and did not eat.

8 Then said Ĕl-kā-năh her husband to her, Hannah, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thy heart grieved? am not I [k] better to thee than ten sons?

9 ¶ So Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shiloh, and after they had drunk. Now [m] Eli the priest sat upon a [a] seat by a [b] post of [c] the temple of the LORD.

10 And she was [d] in bitterness of soul, and prayed unto the LORD, and wept sore.

11 And she [e] vowed a vow, and said, O [g] LORD of hosts, if thou wilt indeed [h] look on the affliction of thine handmaid, and [i] remember me, and not forget thine handmaid, but wilt give unto thine handmaid a man child, then I will give him unto the LORD all the days of his life, and [n] there shall no razor come upon his head.

12 And it came to pass, as she continued praying before the LORD, that Eli marked her mouth.

13 Now Hannah, she spake in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard: therefore Eli thought she had been drunken.

14 And Eli said unto her, How long wilt thou be drunken? put away thy [r] wine from thee.

15 And Hannah answered and said, No, my lord, I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have [u] poured out my soul before the LORD.

16 Count not thine handmaid for a daughter of [x] Bē-lī-ăl: for out of the abundance of my complaint and grief have I spoken hitherto.

17 Then Eli answered and said, [y] Go in peace: and the God of Israel [z] grant thee thy petition that thou hast asked of him.

18 And she said, Let thine handmaid [d] find grace in thy sight. So the woman [f] went her way, and did eat, and her countenance was no more sad.

19 ¶ And they rose up in the morning early, and [k] worshipped before the LORD, and returned, and came to their house to [n] Ramah: and Ĕl-kā-năh knew Hannah his wife; and the LORD [p] remembered her.

20 Wherefore it came to pass, [6] when the time was come about after Hannah had conceived, that she bare a son, and called his name [r] Samuel, saying, Because I have asked him of the LORD.

21 And the man Ĕl-kā-năh, and all his house, went up to offer unto the LORD the yearly sacrifice, and his vow.

22 But Hannah went not up; for she said unto her husband, I will not go up until the child be [f] weaned, and then I will bring him, that he may [i] appear before the LORD, [k] and there abide for ever.

23 [m] And Ĕl-kā-năh her husband said unto her, Do what seemeth thee good; tarry until thou have weaned him; only the LORD [o] establish his word. So the woman abode, and gave her son suck until she weaned him.

24 ¶ And when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with [2] three bullocks, and one [p] ē-phäh of flour, and a bottle of wine, and brought him unto [q] the house of the LORD in Shiloh: and the child was young.

25 And they slew [3] a bullock, and brought the child to Eli.

26 And she said, Oh my lord, [s] as thy soul liveth, my lord, I am the woman that stood by thee here, praying unto the LORD.

27 For this child I prayed; and [t] the LORD hath given me my petition which I asked of him:

28 Therefore also I have [4] lent him to the LORD; as long as he liveth he shall be lent to the LORD. And [5] he worshipped the LORD there.

CHAPTER 2

[a] AND Hannah prayed, [b] and said, [c] My heart rejoiceth in the LORD, [e] mine horn is exalted in the LORD: [g] my mouth is enlarged over mine enemies; because [h] I rejoice in thy salvation.

2 [i] There is none holy as the LORD: for there is [l] none beside thee: neither is there [m] any rock like our God.

3 [o] Talk no more so exceeding proudly; let not arrogancy come out of your mouth: for the LORD is a [q] God of knowledge, and by him actions are weighed.

4 The bows of the mighty men are broken, and they that stumbled are [s] girded with strength.

5 [t] They that were full have hired out themselves for bread; and they that were hungry ceased: so that [a] the barren hath born seven; and [b] she that hath many children is waxed feeble.

6 [c] The LORD killeth, and maketh alive: he bringeth down to [2]the grave, and [e] bringeth up.

7 [g] The LORD maketh poor, and [h] maketh rich: [i] he bringeth low, and lifteth up.

8 [k l] He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth up the beggar [n] from the dunghill, [o] to set them among princes, and to make them inherit the throne of glory: for [q] the pillars of the earth are the LORD's, and he hath set the world upon them.

9 [s] He will keep the feet of his [3]saints, [t] and the wicked shall be silent in darkness; for [x] by strength shall no man prevail.

10 The adversaries of the LORD [z] shall be broken to pieces; out of heaven [a] shall he thunder upon them: [c] the LORD shall judge the ends of the earth; and he shall give strength unto his king, and [d] exalt the horn of [e] his anointed.

11 And [g] Ĕl-kā'-năh went to [h] Ramah to his house. [i] And the child did minister unto the LORD before [k] Eli the priest.

12 ¶ Now the [l] sons of Eli were [m] sons of Bē'-lĭ-ăl; [n] they knew not the LORD.

13 [o] And the priests' custom with the people was, that, when any man offered sacrifice, the priest's servant came, while the flesh was in seething, with a [q] fleshhook of three teeth in his hand;

14 And he struck it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; all that the fleshhook brought up the priest took for himself. So they did in [s] Shiloh, unto all the Israelites that came thither.

15 Also before they burnt the [y] fat, the priest's servant came, and said to the man that sacrificed, Give flesh to roast for the priest; for he will not have sodden flesh of thee, but [b] raw.

16 And if any man said unto him, Let them not fail to burn the fat [6]presently, and then take as much as thy soul desireth; then he would answer him, Nay; but thou shalt give it me now: and if not, I will take it by force.

17 [d] Wherefore the sin of the young men was very great before the LORD: for men abhorred the [f] offering of the LORD.

18 ¶ But Samuel ministered before the LORD, being a child, girded with a [m] linen ē'-phŏd.

19 Moreover his mother made him a little coat, and brought it to him from year to year, [p] when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.

20 ¶ And Eli [r] blessed Ĕl-kā'-năh and his wife, and said, The LORD give thee seed of this woman [u] for the loan which is lent to the LORD. And they went unto their own home.

21 And the LORD [y] visited Hannah, so that she conceived, and bare three sons and two daughters. [b] And the child Samuel grew before the LORD.

22 ¶ Now Eli was very old, and heard all that his sons did unto all Israel; and how they lay with [f] the women that [4]assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

23 And he said unto them, Why do ye such things? for I hear of your evil dealings by all this people.

24 Nay, my sons; for it is no good report that I hear: ye make the LORD's people to transgress.

25 If one man sin against another, [5p] the judge shall judge him: but if a man sin against the LORD, who shall intreat for him? Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto the voice of their father, [r] because the LORD would slay them.

26 And the child Samuel grew on, and [t] was in favour both with the LORD, and also [u] with men.

27 ¶ And there came [x] a man of God unto Eli, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, [z] Did I plainly appear unto the house of thy father, when they were in Egypt in [a] Phâr'-āōh's house?

28 And [c] did I choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to offer upon mine altar, to burn [d] incense, to wear an ē'-phŏd before me? and [a] did I give unto the house of thy father all the [b] offerings made by fire of the children of Israel?

29 Wherefore [c] kick ye at my sacrifice and at mine offering, which I have commanded in [e] my habitation; and honourest thy sons above me, to make yourselves fat with the chiefest of all the offerings of Israel my people?

30 Wherefore the LORD God of Israel saith, [i] I said indeed that thy house, and the house of thy father, should walk before me for ever: [k] but now the LORD saith, Be it far from me; for [l] them that honour me I will honour, and they that despise me [m] shall be lightly esteemed.

31 Behold, the days come, that [n] I will cut off thine arm, and the arm of thy father's house, that there shall not be an old man in thine house.

32 And thou shalt see [3] an enemy in my habitation, in all the wealth which God shall give Israel: and there shall not be an old man in thine house for ever.

33 And the man of thine, whom I shall not cut off from mine altar, shall be [p] to consume thine eyes, and to grieve thine heart: and all the increase of thine house shall die [4] in the flower of their age.

34 And [q] this shall be a sign unto thee, that shall come upon thy two sons, on Hŏph'-nī and Phĭn'-ĕ-hăs; [r] in one day they shall die both of them.

35 And [s] I will raise me up a faithful priest, that shall do according to that which is in mine heart and in my mind: and [t] I will build him a sure house; and he shall walk before mine anointed for ever.

36 And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left in thine house shall come and crouch to him for a piece of silver and a morsel of bread, and shall say, Put me, I pray thee, into one of the priests' offices, that I may eat a piece of bread.

CHAPTER 3

[z] AND the child Samuel ministered unto the LORD before [a] Eli. [c] And the word of the LORD was [7] precious in those days; there was no [2] open vision.

2 And it came to pass at that time, when Eli was laid down in his place, [d] and his eyes began to wax dim, that he could not see;

3 And ere [f] the lamp of God went out [g] in the temple of the LORD, where the [h] ark of God was, and Samuel was laid down to sleep;

4 That the LORD called Samuel: and he answered, Here am I.

5 And he ran unto Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou calledst me. And he said, I called not; lie down again. And he went and lay down.

6 And the LORD called yet again, Samuel. And Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou didst call me. And he answered, I called not, my son; lie down again.

7 Now Samuel [o] did not yet know the LORD, neither was the word of the LORD yet revealed unto him.

8 And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. And he arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou didst call me. And Eli perceived that the LORD had called the child.

9 Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, Go, lie down: and it shall be, if he call thee, that thou shalt say, Speak, LORD; for thy servant heareth. So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

10 And the LORD came, and stood, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel answered, Speak; for thy servant heareth.

11 ¶ And the LORD said to Samuel, Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, [u] at which both the ears of every one that heareth it shall tingle.

12 In that day I will perform against Eli [x] all things which I have spoken concerning his house: [5] when I begin, I will also make an end.

13 For I have told him that I will judge his house for ever for the iniquity which he knoweth; because [y] his sons [6] made themselves vile, and he restrained them not.

14 And therefore [b] I have sworn unto the house of Eli, that the iniquity of Eli's house shall [a] not be purged with sacrifice nor [c] offering for ever.

15 ¶ And Samuel lay until the morning, and opened the doors of the house of the LORD. And Samuel [e] feared to shew Eli the vision.

16 Then Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel, my son. And he answered, Here am I.

17 And he said, What is the thing that the LORD hath said unto thee? I pray thee hide it not from me: [g] God do so to thee, and more also, if thou hide any thing from me of all the things that he said unto thee.

18 And Samuel told him every whit, and hid nothing from him. And he said, [k] It is the LORD: [l] let him do what seemeth him good.

19 ¶ [m] And Samuel grew, and [n] the LORD was with him, [o] and did let none of his words fall to the ground.

20 And all Israel [q] from Dan even to Beer-sheba knew that Samuel was established to be [r] a prophet of the LORD.

21 And the LORD appeared again in [u] Shiloh: for the LORD revealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of the LORD.

CHAPTER 4

AND the word of Samuel came to all Israel. Now Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and pitched beside [z] Eben-ezer: and the Philistines pitched in [a] Aphek.

2 And the Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when they joined battle, Israel was smitten [d] before the Philistines: and they slew of the army in the field about four thousand men.

3 ¶ And when the people were come into the camp, [h] the elders of Israel said, Wherefore hath the LORD smitten us to day before the Philistines? Let us fetch [i] the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of [k] Shiloh unto us, that, when it cometh among us, it may save us out of the hand of our enemies.

4 So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from thence the ark of the covenant of the [m] LORD of hosts, which dwelleth [b] between the cherubims: and [d] the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

5 And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel [f] shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again.

6 And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, What meaneth the noise of this great shout in the camp of the [h] Hebrews? And they understood that the ark of the LORD was come into the camp.

7 And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, [i] God is come into the camp. And they said, Woe unto us! for there hath not been such a thing heretofore.

8 Woe unto us! who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty Gods? these are the Gods that [p] smote the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness.

9 [s] Be strong, and quit yourselves like men, O ye Philistines, that ye be not servants unto the Hebrews, [t] as they have been to you: quit yourselves like men, and fight.

10 ¶ And the Philistines fought, and Israel was smitten, and [x] they fled every man into his tent: and there was a very great slaughter; for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen.

11 [y] And the ark of God was taken; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, [b] were slain.

12 ¶ And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the army, and came to Shiloh the same day [c] with his clothes rent, and [e] with earth upon his head.

13 And when he came, lo, [f] Eli sat [g] upon a seat by the wayside watching: for his heart trembled for the ark of God. And when the man came into the city, and told it, all the city cried out.

14 And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, What meaneth the noise of this tumult? And the man came in hastily, and told Eli.

15 Now Eli was ninety and eight years old; and [l] his eyes were dim, that he could not see.

16 And the man said unto Eli, I am

he that came out of the army, and I fled to day out of the army. And he said, [b]What is there done, my son?

17 And the messenger answered and said, Israel is fled before the Philistines, and there hath been also a great slaughter among the people, and thy two sons also, Hŏph'nī and Phĭn'ĕhăs, are dead, and the ark of God is taken.

18 And it came to pass, when he made mention of the ark of God, that he fell from off the seat backward by the side of the gate, and his neck brake, and he died: for he was an old man, and heavy. And he had judged Israel forty years.

19 ¶ And his daughter in law, Phĭn'ĕhăs' wife, was with child, near to be delivered: and when she heard the tidings that the ark of God was taken, and that her father in law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and travailed; for her pains came upon her.

20 And about the time of her death the women that stood by her said unto her, [i]Fear not; for thou hast born a son. But she answered not, neither did she regard it.

21 And she named the child [2k]Ī'chăbŏd, saying, The glory is departed from Israel: because the ark of God was taken, and because of her father in law and her husband.

22 And she said, The glory is departed from Israel: for the ark of God is taken.

CHAPTER 5

AND the Philistines took the [m]ark of God, and brought it from [n]Eben-ezer unto [o]Ashdod.

2 When the Philistines took the ark of God, they brought it into the house of [p]Dagon, and set it by Dagon.

3 ¶ And when they of Ashdod arose early on the morrow, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the earth before the ark of the LORD. And they took Dagon, and [q]set him in his place again.

4 And when they arose early on the morrow morning, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD; [a]and the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands were cut off upon the threshold; only the stump of Dagon was left to him.

5 Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any that come into Dagon's house, [c]tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod unto this day.

6 But [d]the hand of the LORD was heavy upon them of Ashdod, and he destroyed them, and smote them with [e]emerods, even Ashdod and the coasts thereof.

7 And when the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, The ark of the God of Israel shall not abide with us: for his hand is sore upon us, [f]and upon Dagon our god.

8 They sent therefore and gathered all [g]the lords of the Philistines unto them, and said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried about unto [h]Gath. And they carried the ark of the God of Israel about thither.

9 And it was so, that, after they had carried it about, the hand of the LORD was against the city with a very great destruction: and he smote the men of the city, both small and great, and they had emerods in their secret parts.

10 ¶ Therefore they sent the ark of God to [l]Ekron. And it came to pass, as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to us, to slay us and our people.

11 So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to his own place, that it slay us not, and our people: for there was a deadly destruction throughout all the city; the hand of God was very heavy there.

12 And the men that died not were smitten with the emerods: and [r]the cry of the city went up to heaven.

AND [a] the ark of the LORD was in the country of the Philistines seven months.

2 And the Philistines called for the priests and [b] the diviners, saying, What shall we do to the ark of the LORD? tell us wherewith we shall send it to his place.

3 And they said, If ye send away the ark of the God of Israel, send it not empty; but in any wise return him a [c] trespass offering: then ye shall be healed, and it shall be known to you why [d] his hand is not removed from you.

4 Then said they, What shall be the trespass offering which we shall return to him? They answered, Five golden emerods, and five golden mice, according to the number of the [f] lords of the Philistines: for one plague was on you all, and on your lords.

5 Wherefore ye shall make images of your [i] emerods, and images of your mice that mar the land; and [k] ye shall give glory unto the God of Israel: peradventure he will lighten his hand from off you, and [l] from off your gods, and from off your land.

6 Wherefore then do ye harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and [m] Phâr'āōh [n] hardened their hearts? when he [o] had wrought wonderfully among them, [p] did they not let the people go, and they departed?

7 Now therefore make [q] a new cart, and take two milch kine, [t] on which there hath come no yoke, and tie the kine to the cart, and bring their calves home from them:

8 And take the ark of the LORD, and lay it upon the cart; and put the jewels of gold, which ye return him for a trespass offering, in a coffer by the side thereof; and send it away, that it may go.

9 And see, [a] if it goeth up by the way of his own coast to [b] Beth–shē'mĕsh, then he hath done us this great evil: but if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that smote us: it was a chance that happened to us.

10 ¶ And the men did so; and took two milch kine, and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home:

11 And they laid the ark of the LORD upon the cart, and the coffer with the mice of gold and the images of their emerods.

12 And the kine took the straight way to the way of Beth–shē'mĕsh, and went along the highway, lowing as they went, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left; and the lords of the Philistines went after them unto the border of Beth–shemesh.

13 And they of Beth–shē'mĕsh were reaping their [e] wheat harvest in the valley: and they lifted up their eyes, and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it.

14 And the cart came into the field of Joshua, a Beth–shē'mīte, and stood there, where there was a great stone: and they clave the wood of the cart, and offered the kine a [g] burnt offering unto the LORD.

15 And the [h] Levites took down the ark of the LORD, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone: and the men of Beth–shē'mĕsh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices the same day unto the LORD.

16 And when the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day.

17 And these are the golden emerods which the Philistines returned for a trespass offering unto the LORD; for [r] Ashdod one, for [s] Gaza one, for [u] Ăs'kĕ-lon one, for [x] Gath one, for [y] Ekron one;

18 And the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both of fenced cities, and of country villages, even unto [z] the great stone of Abel, whereon they set down the ark of the LORD: which [2] stone remaineth unto this day in the field of Joshua, the Beth–shē'mīte.

19 ¶ [3c] And he smote the men of Beth–shē'mĕsh, because they had looked into the ark of the LORD, even he smote of the people fifty thousand and threescore and ten men: and the people lamented, because the LORD had smitten many of the people with a great slaughter.

20 And the men of Beth-shē'mĕsh said, Who is able to stand before this [c] holy LORD God? and [d] to whom shall he go up from us?

21 ¶ And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of [f] Kĭr'jăth-jē'ă-rĭm, saying, The Philistines have brought again the ark of the LORD; come ye down, and fetch it up to you.

CHAPTER 7

AND the men of [h] Kĭr'jăth-jē'ă-rĭm came, and fetched up the [i] ark of the LORD, and brought it into the house of [k] Ă-bĭn'ă-dăb in the hill, and [l] sanctified Ĕl-ē-ā'zär his son to keep the ark of the LORD.

2 And it came to pass, while the ark abode in Kĭr'jăth-jē'ă-rĭm, that the time was long; for it was twenty years: and all the house of Israel lamented after the LORD.

3 ¶ And Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying, [p] If ye do return unto the LORD with all your hearts, then [r] put away the [s] strange gods and [t] Ăsh'tă-rōth from among you, and [u] prepare your hearts unto the LORD, and [x] serve him only: and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines.

4 [a] Then the children of Israel did put away [b] Bā'ă-lĭm and Ăsh'tă-rōth, and served the LORD only.

5 And Samuel said, [e] Gather all Israel to [f] Mizpeh, and [g] I will pray for you unto the LORD.

6 And they gathered together to Mizpeh, and [k] drew water, and poured it out before the LORD, and [l] fasted on that day, and said there, [n] We have sinned against the LORD. And Samuel judged the children of Israel in Mizpeh.

7 And when the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpeh, the [p] lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard it, they were afraid of the Philistines.

8 And the children of Israel said to Samuel, [a] Cease not to cry unto the LORD our God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Philistines.

9 ¶ And Samuel took a sucking lamb, and offered it for a [b] burnt offering wholly unto the LORD: and Samuel cried unto the LORD for Israel; and [e] the LORD heard him.

10 And as Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel: but [g] the LORD thundered with a great thunder on that day upon the Philistines, and discomfited them; and they were smitten before Israel.

11 And the men of Israel went out of Mizpeh, and pursued the Philistines, and smote them, until they came under Beth-car.

12 Then Samuel [m] took a stone, and set it between Mizpeh and Shen, and called the name of it [2 n] Eben-ezer, saying, Hitherto hath the LORD helped us.

13 ¶ [o] So the Philistines were subdued, and they came no more into the coast of Israel: and the [q] hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

14 And the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from [y] Ekron even unto [z] Gath; and the coasts thereof did Israel deliver out of the hands of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the [c] Amorites.

15 [d] And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life.

16 And he went from year to year in circuit to [h] Beth-el, and [i] Gilgal, and Mizpeh, and judged Israel in all those places.

17 And his return was to [m] Ramah; for there was his house; and there he judged Israel; and there he [o] built an altar unto the LORD.

CHAPTER 8

AND it came to pass, when Samuel [q] was old, that [r] he made his sons judges over Israel.

2 [s] Now the name of his firstborn was Joel; and the name of his second, Ă-bī'ăh: they were judges in [t] Beer-sheba.

3 And his sons walked not in his ways, [a] but turned aside after lucre, and [c] took bribes, and [d] perverted judgment.

4 Then all the [e] elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel unto [f] Ramah,

5 And said unto him, Behold, thou art old, and thy sons walk not in thy ways: now [g] make us a king to judge us like all the nations.

6 ¶ But the thing displeased Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge us. And Samuel prayed unto the LORD.

7 And the LORD said unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee: for they have not rejected thee, but [i] they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them.

8 According to all the works which they have done since the day that I [l] brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, wherewith they have [n] forsaken me, and [o] served other gods, so do they also unto thee.

9 Now therefore hearken unto their voice: howbeit yet protest solemnly unto them, and shew them the manner of the king that shall reign over them.

10 ¶ And Samuel told all the words of the LORD unto the people that asked of him a king.

11 And he said, [s] This will be the manner of the king that shall reign over you: [t] He will take your sons, and appoint them for himself, for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and some shall run before his chariots.

12 And he will appoint him [y] captains over thousands, and captains over fifties; and will set them [2 z] to ear his ground, and to reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and instruments of his chariots.

13 And he will take your daughters to be confectionaries, and to be cooks, and to be [b] bakers.

14 [d] And he will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your oliveyards, even the best of them, and give them to his servants.

15 And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give to his [b] officers, and to his servants.

16 And he will take your menservants, and your maidservants, and your goodliest young men, and your asses, and put them to his work.

17 He will take the tenth of your sheep: and ye shall be his servants.

18 And ye shall cry out in that day because of your king which ye shall have chosen you; and [h] the LORD will not hear you in that day.

19 ¶ Nevertheless the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, Nay; but we will have a king over us;

20 That we also may be like all the nations; and that our king may judge us, and [k] go out before us, and fight our battles.

21 And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he rehearsed them in the ears of the LORD.

22 And the LORD said to Samuel, [m] Hearken unto their voice, and make them a king. And Samuel said unto the men of Israel, Go ye every man unto his city.

CHAPTER 9

NOW there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was [p] Kish, the son of [q] A-bī'ĕl, the son of Zeror, the son of Bĕ-chō'răth, the son of A-phī'ăh, a Benjamite, a [r] mighty man of power.

2 And he had a son, whose name was [u] Saul, a choice young man, and a goodly: and there was not among the children of Israel a goodlier person than he: [x] from his shoulders and upward he was higher than any of the people.

3 And the [a] asses of Kish Saul's father were lost. And Kish said to Saul his son, Take now one of the servants with thee, and arise, go seek the asses.

4 And he passed through mount E'phră-ĭm, and passed through the land of [c] Shăl'ī-shă, but they found them not: then they passed through the land of Shalim, and there they were not: and he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they found them not.

5 And when they were come to the land of [b]Zuph, Saul said to his servant that was with him, Come, and let us return; [d]lest my father leave caring for the asses, and take thought for us.

6 And he said unto him, Behold now, there is in this city [f]a man of God, and he is an honourable man; [h]all that he saith cometh surely to pass: now let us go thither; peradventure he can shew us our way that we should go.

7 Then said Saul to his servant, But, behold, if we go, [l]what shall we bring the man? for the bread is spent in our vessels, and there is not a present to bring to the man of God: what have we?

8 And the servant answered Saul again, and said, Behold, I have here at hand the fourth part of a [m]shē'-kĕl of silver: that will I give to the man of God, to tell us our way.

9 (Beforetime in Israel, when a man went [n]to enquire of God, thus he spake, Come, and let us go to the [p]seer: for he that is now called a Prophet was beforetime called a Seer.)

10 Then said Saul to his servant, Well said; come, let us go. So they went unto the city where the man of God was.

11 ¶ And as they went up the hill to the city, they found [s]young maidens going out [u]to draw water, and said unto them, Is the seer here?

12 And they answered them, and said, He is; behold, he is before you: make haste now, for he came to day to the city; for [x]there is a sacrifice of the people to day in the [y]high place:

13 As soon as ye be come into the city, ye shall straightway find him, before he go up to the high place to eat: for the people will not eat until he come, because he doth bless the sacrifice; and afterwards they eat that be bidden. Now therefore get you up; for about this time ye shall find him.

14 And they went up into the city: and when they were come into the city, behold, Samuel came out against them, for to go up to the high place.

15 ¶ Now the LORD had told Samuel [a]in his ear a day before Saul came, saying,

16 To morrow about this time [c]I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin, and thou [e]shalt anoint him to be captain over my people Israel, that [g]he may save my people out of the hand of the Philistines: for [i]I have looked upon my people, because their cry is come unto me.

17 And when Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said unto him, [k]Behold the man whom I spake to thee of! this same shall reign over my people.

18 Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where the seer's house is.

19 And Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am the seer: go up before me unto the high place; for ye shall eat with me to day, and to morrow I will let thee go, and will tell thee all that is in thine heart.

20 And as for thine asses that were lost [o]three days ago, set not thy mind on them; for they are found. And [z]on whom is all the desire of Israel? Is it not on thee, and on all thy father's house?

21 And Saul answered and said, Am not I a Benjamite, of [q]the smallest of the tribes of Israel? and [r]my family the least of all the families of the tribe of [t]Benjamin? wherefore then speakest thou so to me?

22 And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the parlour, and made them sit in the chiefest place among them that were bidden, which were about thirty persons.

23 And Samuel said unto the cook, Bring the portion which I gave thee, of which I said unto thee, Set it by thee.

24 And the cook took up the shoulder, and that which was upon it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, Behold that which is left! set it before thee, and eat: for unto this time hath it been kept for thee since I said, I have invited the people. So Saul did eat with Samuel that day.

26 And they arose early: and it came to pass about the spring of the day, that Samuel called Saul to the top of the house, saying, Up, that I may send thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out both of them, he and Samuel, abroad.

CHAPTER 10

THEN Samuel took a vial of oil, and poured it upon his head, and [l] kissed him, and said, Is it not because the LORD hath [m] anointed thee to be captain over [n] his inheritance?

2 When thou art departed from me to day, then thou shalt find two men by [o] Rachel's [p] sepulchre in the border of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they will say unto thee, The asses which thou wentest to seek are found: and, lo, [s] thy father hath left the care of the asses, and sorroweth for you, saying, What shall I do for my son?

3 Then shalt thou go on forward from thence, and thou shalt come to the [2] plain of Tabor, and there shall meet thee three men going up to God to [t] Beth-el, one carrying three kids, and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a bottle of wine:

4 And they will salute thee, and give thee two loaves of bread; which thou shalt receive of their hands.

5 After that thou shalt come to the hill of God, where is [z] the garrison of the Philistines: and it shall come to pass, when thou art come thither to the city, that thou shalt meet a [z] company of prophets coming down from the [a] high place with a [b] psaltery, and a [c] tabret, and a [d] pipe, and a [e] harp, before them; and they shall prophesy:

7 And let it be, when these [a] signs are come unto thee, that thou do [c] as occasion serve thee; for [d] God is with thee.

8 And thou shalt go down before me to [e] Gilgal; and, behold, I will come down unto thee, to offer [f] burnt offerings, and to sacrifice sacrifices of [g] peace offerings: [h] seven days shalt thou tarry, [i] till I come to thee, and shew thee what thou shalt do.

9 ¶ And it was so, that when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, God gave him another heart: and all those signs came to pass that day.

10 And when they came thither to the hill, behold, a company of prophets met him; and the Spirit of God came upon him, [k] and he prophesied among them.

11 And it came to pass, when all that knew him beforetime saw that, behold, he prophesied among the prophets, then the people said one to another, What is this that is come unto the son of [q] Kish? [r] Is Saul also among the prophets?

12 And one of the same place answered and said, But who is their father? Therefore it became a proverb, Is Saul also among the prophets?

13 And when he had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place.

14 ¶ And [u] Saul's uncle said unto him and to his servant, Whither went ye? And he said, To seek the asses: and when we saw that they were no where, we came to Samuel.

15 And Saul's uncle said, Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said unto you.

16 And Saul said unto his uncle, [y] He told us plainly that the asses were found. But of the matter of the kingdom, whereof Samuel spake, he told him not.

17 ¶ And Samuel called the people together unto the LORD to [f] Mizpeh;

18 And said unto the children of Israel, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, [h] I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all kingdoms, and of them that oppressed you:

19 And [a]ye have this day rejected your God, who himself saved you out of all your adversities and your tribulations; and ye have said unto him, Nay, but set a king over us. Now therefore [c] present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes, and by your thousands.

20 And when Samuel had caused all the tribes of Israel to come near, the tribe of [e] Benjamin [f] was taken.

21 When he had caused the tribe of Benjamin to come near by their families, the family of Mā'trī was taken, and Saul the son of Kish was taken: and when they sought him, he could not be found.

22 Therefore [i] they enquired of the LORD further, if the man should yet come thither. And the LORD answered, Behold, he hath hid himself among the stuff.

23 And they ran and fetched him thence: and when he stood among the people, [l] he was higher than any of the people from his shoulders and upward.

24 And Samuel said to all the people, See ye him [n] whom the LORD hath chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted, and said, [o] God save the king.

25 Then Samuel told the people [q] the manner of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and [r] laid it up before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house.

26 ¶ And Saul also went home to [x] Gibeah; and there went with him a [2]band of men, whose hearts God had touched.

27 But the [y] children of Bē'lī-ăl said, How shall this man save us? And they despised him, and brought him no [z] presents. But he held his peace.

CHAPTER 11

THEN [a] Nahash the [b] Ammonite came up, and encamped against [d] Jabesh–gĭl'ē-ăd: and all the men of Jabesh said unto Nahash, [e] Make a covenant with us, and we will serve thee.

2 And Nahash the Ammonite answered them, On this condition will I make a covenant with you, that I may thrust out all your right eyes, and lay it [b] for a reproach upon all Israel.

3 And the elders of Jabesh said unto him, Give us [d] seven days' respite, that we may send messengers unto all the coasts of Israel: and then, if there be no man to save us, we will come out to thee.

4 ¶ Then came the messengers to [g] Gibeah of Saul, and told the tidings in the ears of the people: and all the people [h] lifted up their voices, and wept.

5 And, behold, Saul came after the herd out of the field; and Saul said, What aileth the people that they weep? And they told him the tidings of the men of Jabesh.

6 And the [k] Spirit of God came upon Saul when he heard those tidings, and his anger was kindled greatly.

7 And he took a yoke of oxen, and [m] hewed them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the coasts of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, Whosoever cometh not forth after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done unto his oxen. And the fear of the LORD fell on the people, and [p] they came out with one consent.

8 And when he numbered them in [s] Bezek, [t] the children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of [u] Judah thirty thousand.

9 And they said unto the messengers that came, Thus shall ye say unto the men of Jabesh–gĭl'ē-ăd, To morrow, by that time the sun be hot, ye shall have help. And the messengers came and shewed it to the men of Jabesh; and they were glad.

10 Therefore the men of Jabesh said, To morrow we will come out unto you, and ye shall do with us all that seemeth good unto you.

11 And it was so on the morrow, that Saul put the people [c] in three companies; and they came into the midst of the host in the [f] morning watch, and slew the Ammonites until the heat of the day: and it came to pass, that they which remained were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.

12 ¶ And the people said unto Samuel, [d] Who is he that said, Shall Saul reign over us? bring the men, that we may put them to death.

13 And Saul said, [f] There shall not a man be put to death this day: for to day [i] the LORD hath wrought salvation in Israel.

14 Then said Samuel to the people, Come, and let us go to [l] Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there.

15 And all the people went to Gilgal; and there they made Saul king [p] before the LORD in Gilgal; and there they sacrificed sacrifices of [t] peace offerings before the LORD; and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

CHAPTER 12

AND Samuel said unto all Israel, Behold, I have hearkened unto [c] your voice in all that ye said unto me, and [d] have made a king over you.

2 And now, behold, the king [g] walketh before you: and [i] I am old and grayhead; and, behold, my sons are with you: and I have walked before you from my childhood unto this day.

3 Behold, here I am: witness against me before the LORD, and before [n] his anointed: [o] whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I [q] defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I [s] received any [t] bribe to blind mine eyes therewith? and I will restore it you.

4 And they said, Thou hast not defrauded us, nor oppressed us, neither hast thou taken ought of any man's hand.

5 And he said unto them, [a] The LORD is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that ye have not found ought in my hand. And they answered, He is witness.

6 ¶ And Samuel said unto the people, [d] It is the LORD that advanced Moses and Aaron, and that [a] brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt.

7 Now therefore stand still, that I may reason with you [b] before the LORD of all the [c] righteous acts of the LORD, which he did to you and to your fathers.

8 [e] When Jacob was come into Egypt, and [g] your fathers cried unto the LORD, [h] then the LORD sent Moses and Aaron, which brought forth your fathers out of Egypt, and [k] made them dwell in this place.

9 And when they [m] forgat the LORD their God, [n] he sold them into the hand of [o] Sisera, captain of the host of [q] Hazor, and [r] into the hand of the Philistines, and [s] into the hand of the king of Moab, and they fought against them.

10 And [u] they cried unto the LORD, and said, [x] We have sinned, because [y] we have forsaken the LORD, and have served [z] Bā'ă-lĭm and [a] Ăsh'tă-rōth: but now [b] deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve thee.

11 [e] And the LORD sent [f] Jĕr-ŭb-bā'ăl, and [2] Bē'dăn, and [h] Jephthah, and Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side, and [k] ye dwelled safe.

12 And when ye saw that [l] Nahash the king of the children of Ammon came against you, [m] ye said unto me, Nay; but a king shall reign over us: when [p] the LORD your God was your king.

13 Now therefore [r] behold the king whom ye have chosen, and whom ye have desired! and, behold, [u] the LORD hath set a king over you.

14 [x] If ye will fear the LORD, and serve him, [y] and obey his voice, [z] and not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then shall both ye and also the king that reigneth over you continue following the LORD your God:

15 But [b] if ye will not obey the voice of the LORD, but rebel against the commandment of the LORD, [c] then shall the hand of the LORD be against you, as it was against your fathers.

16 ¶ Now therefore [a]stand and see this great thing, which the LORD will do before your eyes.

17 Is it not [d]wheat harvest to day? I will call unto the LORD, and he shall send [f]thunder and [g]rain; that ye may perceive and see that your wickedness is great, which ye have done in the sight of the LORD, in asking you a king.

18 So Samuel called unto the LORD; [l]and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day: and all the people greatly [m]feared the LORD and Samuel.

19 And all the people said unto Samuel, [o]Pray for thy servants unto the LORD thy God, that we die not: for we have added unto all our sins this evil, to ask us a king.

20 ¶ And Samuel said unto the people, [q]Fear not: ye have done [r]all this wickedness: yet [s]turn not aside from following the LORD, but [u]serve the LORD with all your heart;

21 And turn ye not aside: for then should ye go after [y]vain things, which cannot profit nor deliver; for they are vain.

22 For [b]the LORD will not forsake his people [c]for his great name's sake: because [d]it hath pleased the LORD to make you his people.

23 Moreover as for me, God forbid that I should sin against the LORD in ceasing [h]to pray for you: but [i]I will teach you the good and the right way:

24 Only [k]fear the LORD, and serve him in truth with all your heart: for consider [3]how great things he hath done for you.

25 But if ye shall still do wickedly, [n]ye shall be consumed, both [o]ye and your king.

CHAPTER 13

[4]SAUL reigned one year; and when he had reigned two years over Israel,

2 Saul chose him three thousand men of Israel; whereof two thousand were with Saul in [p]Mĭch'măsh and in mount [q]Beth-el, and a thousand were with [r]Jonathan in [5]Gibeah of Benjamin: and the rest of the people he sent every man to his tent.

3 And Jonathan [b]smote the [c]garrison of the Philistines that was in [e]Geba, and the Philistines heard of it. And Saul [h]blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, Let the [i]Hebrews hear.

4 And all Israel heard say that Saul had smitten a garrison of the Philistines, and that Israel also was [k]had in abomination with the Philistines. And the people were called together after Saul to [n]Gilgal.

5 ¶ And the Philistines gathered themselves together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and people [p]as the sand which is on the sea shore in multitude: and they came up, and pitched in Mĭch'măsh, eastward from [t]Beth-aven.

6 When the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait, (for the people were distressed,) then the people [x]did hide themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in [2z]high places, and in [a]pits.

7 And some of the Hebrews went over Jordan to the land of Gad and [e]Gĭl'ĕ-ăd. As for Saul, he was yet in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling.

8 ¶ And he tarried [f]seven days, [g]according to the set time that Samuel had appointed: but Samuel came not to Gilgal; and the people were scattered from him.

9 And Saul said, Bring hither a [l]burnt offering to me, and [m]peace offerings. And he offered the burnt offering.

10 And it came to pass, that as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might salute him.

11 ¶ And Samuel said, What hast thou done? And Saul said, Because I saw that the people were scattered from me, and that thou camest not within the days appointed, and that the Philistines gathered themselves together at Mĭch'măsh;

12 Therefore said I, The Philistines will come down now upon me to Gilgal, and I have not made supplication unto the LORD: [a] I forced myself therefore, and offered a burnt offering.

13 And Samuel said to Saul, Thou hast [b] done foolishly: [c] thou hast not kept the commandment of the LORD thy God, which he commanded thee: for now would the LORD have established thy kingdom upon Israel for ever.

14 But now [f] thy kingdom shall not continue: [g] the LORD hath sought him [h] a man after his own heart, and the LORD hath commanded him to be captain over his people, because thou hast not kept that which the LORD commanded thee.

15 And Samuel arose, and gat him up from Gilgal unto Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people that were present with him, [r] about six hundred men.

16 And Saul, and Jonathan his son, and the people that were present with them, abode in Gibeah of Benjamin: but the Philistines encamped in Mĭch'-măsh.

17 ¶ And the [t] spoilers came out of the camp of the Philistines in [u] three companies: one company turned unto the way that leadeth to [x] Ŏph'-răh, unto the land of Shual:

18 And another company turned the way to [z] Beth-horon: and another company turned to the way of the border that looketh to the valley of [a] Zĕ-bō'-ĭm toward the wilderness.

19 ¶ [b] Now there was no smith found throughout all the land of Israel: for the Philistines said, Lest the Hebrews make them swords or spears:

20 But all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to [e] sharpen every man his share, and his coulter, and his axe, and his mattock.

21 [2]Yet they had a file for the mattocks, and for the coulters, and for the forks, and for the axes, and to sharpen the goads.

22 So it came to pass in the day of battle, [f] that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people that were with Saul and Jonathan: but with Saul and with Jonathan his son was there found.

23 And the garrison of the Philistines went out to the passage of Mĭch'-măsh.

CHAPTER 14

NOW it came to pass upon a day, that [d] Jonathan the son of Saul said unto the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over to the Philistines' [e] garrison, that is on the other side. But he told not his father.

2 And Saul tarried in the uttermost part of [i] Gibeah under a [k] pomegranate tree which is in [l] Migron: and the people that were with him were about [m] six hundred men;

3 And Ă-hī'-ăh, [n] the son of Ă-hī'-tŭb, [o] Ī'-chă-bŏd's brother, the son of Phĭn'-ĕ-hăs, [p] the son of Eli, the LORD's priest in [q] Shiloh, wearing an [s] ē'-phŏd. And the people knew not that Jonathan was gone.

4 ¶ And between the passages, by which Jonathan sought to go over unto the Philistines' garrison, there was a sharp rock on the one side, and a sharp rock on the other side: and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Sĕn'-ēh.

5 The forefront of the one was situate northward over against [y] Mĭch'-măsh, and the other southward over against Gibeah.

6 And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over unto the garrison of these [c] uncircumcised: it may be that the LORD will work for us: for [d] there is no restraint to the LORD to save by many or by few.

7 And his armourbearer said unto him, Do all that is in thine heart: turn thee; behold, I am with thee according to thy heart.

8 Then said Jonathan, Behold, we will pass over unto these men, and we will discover ourselves unto them.

9 If they say thus unto us, Tarry until we come to you; then we will stand still in our place, and will not go up unto them.

10 But if they say thus, Come up unto us; then we will go up: for the LORD hath delivered them into our hand: and [a] this shall be a sign unto us.

11 And both of them discovered themselves unto the garrison of the Philistines: and the Philistines said, Behold, the [c] Hebrews come forth out of the holes where they [d] had hid themselves.

12 And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armourbearer, and said, Come up to us, and we will shew you a thing. And Jonathan said unto his armourbearer, Come up after me: for the LORD hath delivered them into the hand of Israel.

13 And Jonathan climbed up upon his hands and upon his feet, and his armourbearer after him: and [g] they fell before Jonathan; and his armourbearer slew after him.

14 And that first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armourbearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were an half acre of land, which a yoke of oxen might plow.

15 And there was trembling in the host, in the field, and among all the people: the garrison, and [n] the spoilers, they also trembled, and the earth quaked: so it was [2] a very great trembling.

16 And the [o] watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked; and, behold, the multitude melted away, and they went on beating down one another.

17 Then said Saul unto the people that were with him, Number now, and see who is gone from us. And when they had numbered, behold, Jonathan and his armourbearer were not there.

18 And Saul said unto Ă-hī'ăh, Bring hither [3] [r] the ark of God. [4] For the ark of God was at that time with the children of Israel.

19 ¶ And it came to pass, [s] while Saul talked unto the priest, that the noise that was in the host of the Philistines went on and increased: and Saul said unto the priest, Withdraw thine hand.

20 And Saul and all the people that were with him assembled themselves, and they came to the battle: and, behold, [b] every man's sword was against his fellow, and there was a very great discomfiture.

21 Moreover the Hebrews that were with the Philistines before that time, which went up with them into the camp from the country round about, [e] even they also turned to be with the Israelites that were with Saul and Jonathan.

22 Likewise all the men of Israel which had hid themselves in mount Ē'phră-ĭm, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle.

23 [f] So the LORD saved Israel that day: and the battle passed over unto [h] Beth-aven.

24 ¶ And the men of Israel were distressed that day: [i] for Saul had [k] adjured the people, saying, [l] Cursed be the man that eateth any food until evening, that I may be avenged on mine enemies. So none of the people tasted any food.

25 And all they of the land came to a wood; and there was [m] honey upon the ground.

26 And when the people were come into the wood, behold, the honey dropped; but no man put his hand to his mouth: [p] for the people feared the oath.

27 But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with the oath: wherefore he put forth the end of [q] the rod that was in his hand, and dipped it in an honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes were enlightened.

28 Then answered one of the people, and said, Thy father straitly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any food this day. And the people were faint.

29 Then said Jonathan, My father [t] hath troubled the land: see, I pray you, how mine eyes have been enlightened, because I tasted a little of this honey.

30 How much more, if haply the people had eaten freely to day of the spoil of their enemies which they found? for had there not been now a much greater slaughter among the Philistines?

31 And [b] they smote the Philistines that day from Mĭch'-măsh to [c] Aî'-jă-lŏn: and the people were very faint.

32 And the people [d] flew upon the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slew them on the ground: and the people did eat them [f] with the blood.

33 ¶ Then they told Saul, saying, Behold, the people sin against the LORD, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, Ye have transgressed: [h] roll a great stone unto me this day.

34 And Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people, and say unto them, Bring me hither every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and slay them here, and eat; and sin not against the LORD in eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man his ox with him that night, and slew them there.

35 And Saul [k] built an altar unto the LORD: the same was the first altar that he built unto the LORD.

36 ¶ And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and spoil them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And they said, Do whatsoever seemeth good unto thee. Then said the priest, [p] Let us draw near hither unto God.

37 And [q] Saul asked counsel of God, Shall I go down after the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into the hand of Israel? But [s] he answered him not that day.

38 And Saul said, Draw ye near hither, all the [5]chief of the people: and know and see [u] wherein this sin hath been this day.

39 For, [z] as the LORD liveth, which saveth Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die. But there was not a man among all the people that answered him.

40 Then said he unto all Israel, Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side. And the people said unto Saul, Do what seemeth good unto thee.

41 [2]Therefore Saul said unto the LORD God of Israel, Give a perfect lot. And Saul and Jonathan [a] were taken: but the people escaped.

42 And Saul said, Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son. And Jonathan was taken.

43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, [e] Tell me what thou hast done. And Jonathan told him, and said, I did but taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in mine hand, and, [3]lo, I must die.

44 And Saul answered, [g] God do so and more also: for thou shalt surely die, Jonathan.

45 And the people said unto Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who hath wrought this great salvation in Israel? God forbid: as the LORD liveth, [i] there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he hath wrought with God this day. So the people [4]rescued Jonathan, that he died not.

46 Then Saul went up from following the Philistines: and the Philistines went to their own place.

47 ¶ So Saul took the kingdom over Israel, and fought against all his enemies on every side, against [l] Moab, and against the children of [m] Ammon, and against [n] Edom, and against the kings of [o] Zobah, and against the Philistines: and whithersoever he turned himself, he vexed them.

48 And he gathered an host, and smote the [r] Ă-măl'-ĕk-ītes, and delivered Israel out of the hands of them that spoiled them.

49 Now [t] the sons of Saul were Jonathan, and Ĭsh'-ū-ī, and Mĕl'-chī-shû'-ă: and the names of his two daughters were these; the name of the firstborn [x] Merab, and the name of the younger [y] Mī'-chăl:

50 And the name of Saul's wife was Ă-hĭn'-ŏ-ăm, the daughter of Ă-hī'-mă-ăz: and the name of the captain of his host was [a] Abner, the son of [b] Ner, Saul's uncle.

51 And [c] Kish was the father of Saul; and Ner the father of Abner was the son of [d] Ă-bī'-ĕl.

52 And there was sore war against the Philistines all the days of Saul: and [a]when Saul saw any strong man, or any valiant man, he took him unto him.

CHAPTER 15

SAMUEL also said unto Saul, [c]The LORD sent me [d]to anoint thee to be king over his people, over Israel: now therefore hearken thou unto the voice of the words of the LORD.

2 Thus saith the [g]LORD of hosts, I [3]remember that which [h]Ăm'ă-lĕk did to Israel, [i] how he laid wait for him in the way, when he came up from Egypt.

3 Now [k] go and smite Ăm'ă-lĕk, and [4][l] utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass.

4 And Saul gathered the people together, and numbered them in Tĕ-lā'ĭm, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand men of [m]Judah.

5 And Saul came to a city of Ăm'ă-lĕk, and laid wait in the valley.

6 ¶ And Saul said unto [o]the Kenites, Go, depart, get you down from among the Ă-măl'ĕk-ītes, lest I destroy you with them: [p]for ye [q]shewed kindness to all the children of Israel, when they came up out of Egypt. So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

7 And Saul smote the Ă-măl'ĕk-ītes from [r] Hăv'ī-läh until thou comest to [s] Shur, that is over against Egypt.

8 And he took Agag the king of the Ă-măl'ĕk-ītes alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.

9 But Saul and the people [u]spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them: but every thing that was vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly.

10 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Samuel, saying,

11 [y]It repenteth me that I have set up Saul to be king: for he is turned back from following me, and [a]hath not performed my commandments. And it grieved Samuel; and he cried unto the LORD all night.

12 And when Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning, it was told Samuel, saying, Saul came to [b]Carmel, and, behold, he set him up a [2]place, and is gone about, and passed on, and gone down to [e] Gilgal.

13 And Samuel came to Saul: and Saul said unto him, [f]Blessed be thou of the LORD: I have performed the commandment of the LORD.

14 And Samuel said, What meaneth then this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?

15 And Saul said, They have brought them from the Ă-măl'ĕk-ītes: for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed.

16 Then Samuel said unto Saul, Stay, and I will tell thee what the LORD hath said to me this night. And he said unto him, Say on.

17 And Samuel said, [n]When thou wast little in thine own sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel, and the LORD anointed thee king over Israel?

18 And the LORD sent thee on a journey, and said, Go and utterly destroy the sinners the Ă-măl'ĕk-ītes, and fight against them until they be consumed.

19 Wherefore then didst thou not obey the voice of the LORD, but [t]didst fly upon the spoil, and didst evil in the sight of the LORD?

20 And Saul said unto Samuel, Yea, I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, and have gone the way which the LORD sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Ăm'ă-lĕk, and have utterly destroyed the Ă-măl'ĕk-ītes.

21 But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the things which should have been [x]utterly destroyed, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God in Gilgal.

22 And Samuel said, [z]Hath the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams.

23 For rebellion is as the sin of [c] witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and [2]idolatry. Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, [d] he hath also rejected thee from being king.

24 ¶ And Saul said unto Samuel, [f] I have sinned: for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD, and thy words: because [h] I feared the people, and obeyed their voice.

25 Now therefore, I pray thee, pardon my sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD.

26 And Samuel said unto Saul, I will not return with thee: for thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD hath rejected thee from being king over Israel.

27 And as Samuel turned about to go away, [o] he laid hold upon the skirt of his mantle, and it rent.

28 And Samuel said unto him, [p] The LORD hath rent the kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath given it to a neighbour of thine, that is better than thou.

29 And also [3]the Strength of Israel [t] will not lie [u] nor repent: for he is not a man, that he should repent.

30 Then he said, I have sinned: yet honour me now, I pray thee, before the [x] elders of my people, and before Israel, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD thy God.

31 So Samuel turned again after Saul; and Saul [a] worshipped the LORD.

32 ¶ Then said Samuel, Bring ye hither to me Agag the king of the A-măl'ĕk-ītes. And Agag came unto him [4]delicately. And Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death is past.

33 And Samuel said, [e] As thy sword hath made women childless, so shall thy mother be childless among women. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal.

34 ¶ Then Samuel went to [f] Ramah; and Saul went up to his house to [g] Gibeah of Saul.

35 [a] And Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death: nevertheless [b] Samuel mourned for Saul: and the LORD repented that he had made Saul king over Israel.

CHAPTER 16

AND the LORD said unto Samuel, [e] How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing [g] I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? fill thine horn with oil, and go, I will send thee to [i] Jesse the Beth-lehemite: for [k] I have provided me a king among his sons.

2 And Samuel said, How can I go? if Saul hear it, he will kill me. And the LORD said, Take an [l] heifer with thee, and say, I am come [m] to sacrifice to the LORD.

3 And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will shew thee what thou shalt do: and [n] thou shalt anoint unto me him whom I name unto thee.

4 And Samuel did that which the LORD spake, and came to [q] Beth-lehem. And the elders of the town trembled at his coming, and said, [r] Comest thou peaceably?

5 And he said, Peaceably: I am come to sacrifice unto the LORD: [s] sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.

6 ¶ And it came to pass, when they were come, that he looked on [y] E-lī'ăb, and said, Surely [z] the LORD's anointed is before him.

7 But the LORD said unto Samuel, [b] Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but [c] the LORD looketh on the heart.

8 Then Jesse called [d] A-bĭn'ă-dăb, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this.

9 Then Jesse made [d] Shammah to pass by. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this.

10 Again, Jesse made seven of his sons to pass before Samuel. And Samuel said unto Jesse, The LORD hath not chosen these.

11 And Samuel said unto Jesse, Are here all thy children? And he said, [b]There remaineth yet the youngest, and, behold, [c]he keepeth the sheep. And Samuel said unto Jesse, Send and fetch him: for we will not sit down till he come hither.

12 And he sent, and brought him in. Now he was [e]ruddy, and withal [2]of a beautiful countenance, and goodly to look to. [f]And the LORD said, Arise, anoint him: for this is he.

13 Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and [h]anointed him in the midst of his brethren: and [i]the Spirit of the LORD came upon David from that day forward. So Samuel rose up, and went to [m]Ramah.

14 ¶ [n]But the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and [p]an evil spirit from the LORD [4]troubled him.

15 And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubleth thee.

16 Let our lord now command thy servants, which are [q]before thee, to seek out a man, who is a cunning player on an [r]harp: and it shall come to pass, when the evil spirit from God is upon thee, that he shall [u]play with his hand, and thou shalt be well.

17 And Saul said unto his servants, Provide me now a man that can play well, and bring him to me.

18 Then answered one of the servants, and said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Beth-lehemite, that is cunning in playing, and a [x]mighty valiant man, and a man of war, and prudent in matters, and a comely person, and [z]the LORD is with him.

19 ¶ Wherefore Saul sent messengers unto Jesse, and said, Send me David thy son, which is with the sheep.

20 And Jesse [a]took an ass laden with bread, and a bottle of wine, and a kid, and sent them by David his son unto Saul.

21 And David came to Saul, and [c]stood before him: and he loved him greatly; and he became his armourbearer.

CHAPTER 17

NOW the Philistines gathered together their armies to battle, and were gathered together at [g]Shō-chōh, which belongeth to Judah, and pitched between Shochoh and [k]Āzē-kăh, in [l]Ē-phĕs-dammim.

2 And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and pitched by [o]the valley of [3]Elah, and set the battle in array against the Philistines.

3 And the Philistines stood on a mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them.

4 ¶ And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named [s]Gō-lī-ăth, of [t]Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span.

5 And he had an helmet of brass upon his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat was five thousand shē-kĕls of brass.

6 And he had greaves of brass upon his legs, and a [5]target of brass between his shoulders.

7 And [y]the staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam; and his spear's head weighed six hundred shē-kĕls of iron: and one bearing a shield went before him.

8 And he stood and cried unto the armies of Israel, and said unto them, Why are ye come out to set your battle in array? am not I a Philistine, and ye [b]servants to Saul? choose you a man for you, and let him come down to me.

9 If he be able to fight with me, and to kill me, then will we be your servants: but if I prevail against him, and kill him, then shall ye be our servants, and serve us.

10 And the Philistine said, [a] I [2]defy the armies of Israel this day; give me a man, that we may fight together.

11 When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid.

12 ¶ Now David was the son of that Ĕph'-ră-thīte of [b] Beth-lehem-judah, whose name was [c] Jesse; and he had [d] eight sons: and the man went among men for an old man in the days of Saul.

13 And the three eldest sons of Jesse went and followed Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons that went to the battle were [f] Ē-lī'-ăb the firstborn, and next unto him [g] Ă-bĭn'-ă-dăb, and the third [3]Shammah.

14 And David was [i] the youngest: and the three eldest followed Saul.

15 But David went and returned from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Beth-lehem.

16 And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself [m] forty days.

17 And Jesse said unto David his son, Take now for thy brethren an [n] ē'-phäh of this [o] parched corn, and these ten loaves, and run to the camp to thy brethren;

18 And [p] carry these ten cheeses unto the captain of their thousand, and look how thy brethren fare, and take their pledge.

19 Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

20 ¶ And David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took, and went, as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to the [5q] trench, as the host was going forth to the fight, and shouted for the battle.

21 For Israel and the Philistines had put the battle in array, army against army.

22 And David left his [6r] carriage in the hand of the keeper of the carriage, and ran into the army, and came and saluted his brethren.

23 And as he talked with them, behold, there came up the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Gō-lī'-ăth by name, out of the armies of the Philistines, and spake according to the same words: and David heard them.

24 And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him, and were sore afraid.

25 And the men of Israel said, Have ye seen this man that is come up? surely to defy Israel is he come up: and it shall be, that the man who killeth him, the king will enrich him with great riches, and [e] will give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Israel.

26 And David spake to the men that stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the [h] reproach from Israel? for who is this [k] uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of [l] the living God?

27 And the people answered him after this manner, saying, So shall it be done to the man that killeth him.

28 ¶ And Ē-lī'-ăb his eldest brother heard when he spake unto the men; and Eliab's anger was kindled against David, and he said, Why camest thou down hither? and with whom hast thou left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know thy pride, and the naughtiness of thine heart; for thou art come down that thou mightest see the battle.

29 And David said, What have I now done? [4]Is there not a cause?

30 ¶ And he turned from him toward another, and spake after the same manner: and the people answered him again after the former manner.

31 And when the words were heard which David spake, they rehearsed them before Saul: and he sent for him.

32 ¶ And David said to Saul, Let no man's heart fail because of him; thy servant will go and fight with this Philistine.

33 And Saul said to David, Thou art not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him: for thou art but a youth, and he a man of war from his youth.

34 And David said unto Saul, Thy servant kept his father's sheep, [2]and [b]there came a lion, and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock:

35 And I went out after him, and smote him, and delivered it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him, and slew him.

36 Thy servant slew both the lion and the bear: and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he hath defied the armies of the living God.

37 David said moreover, [e]The LORD that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said unto David, Go, and [g]the LORD be with thee.

38 ¶ And Saul armed David with his armour, and he put an helmet of brass upon his head; also he armed him with a coat of mail.

39 And David girded his sword upon his armour, and he assayed to go; for he had not proved it. And David said unto Saul, I cannot go with these; for I have not proved them. And David put them off him.

40 And he took his [h]staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in a shepherd's bag which he had, even in a scrip; and his sling was in his hand: and he drew near to the Philistine.

41 And the Philistine came on and drew near unto David; and the man that bare the shield went before him.

42 And when the Philistine looked about, and saw David, he disdained him: for he was but a youth, and [m]ruddy, and of a fair countenance.

43 And the Philistine said unto David, [o]Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with staves? And the Philistine [q]cursed David by his gods.

44 And the Philistine said to David, Come to me, and [r]I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field.

45 Then said David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield: but I come to thee in the name of [a]the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom thou hast defied.

46 This day will the LORD deliver thee into mine hand; and I will smite thee, and take thine head from thee; and I will give the carcases of the host of the Philistines this day unto the fowls of the air, and to the wild beasts of the earth; [c]that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel.

47 And all this assembly shall know that [d]the LORD saveth not with sword and spear: [f]for the battle is the LORD's, and he will give you into our hands.

48 And it came to pass, when the Philistine arose, and came and drew nigh to meet David, that David hasted, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine.

49 And David put his hand in his bag, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone sunk into his forehead; and he fell upon his face to the earth.

50 So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him; but there was no sword in the hand of David.

51 Therefore David ran, and stood upon the Philistine, and [i]took his sword, and drew it out of the sheath thereof, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith. And when the Philistines saw their champion was dead, they fled.

52 And the men of Israel and of [k]Judah arose, and shouted, and [l]pursued the Philistines, until thou come to the valley, and to the gates of [n]Ekron. And the wounded of the Philistines fell down by the way to [p]Shā-ă-rā'-ĭm, even unto Gath, and unto Ekron.

53 And the children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they spoiled their tents.

54 And David took the head of the Philistine, [s]and brought it to 55 ¶ And when Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said unto Abner, the captain of the host, [b] Abner, [c] whose son is this youth? And Abner said, [d] As thy soul liveth, O king, I cannot tell.

56 And the king said, Enquire thou whose son the stripling is.

57 And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him, and brought him before Saul [i] with the head of the Philistine in his hand.

58 And Saul said to him, Whose son art thou, thou young man? And David answered, I am the son of thy servant Jesse the Beth-lehemite.

CHAPTER 18

AND it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking unto Saul, that [n] the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him [p] as his own soul.

2 And Saul took him that day, [q] and would let him go no more home to his father's house.

3 Then Jonathan and David [r] made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.

4 And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his garments, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle.

5 ¶ And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and [3]behaved himself wisely: and Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

6 And it came to pass as they came, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, that [z] the women came out of all cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with tabrets, with joy, and with instruments of musick.

7 And the women [c] answered one another as they played, and said, [e] Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands.

8 And Saul was very wroth, and the saying displeased him; and he said, They have ascribed unto David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands: and what can he have more but [a] the kingdom?

9 And Saul eyed David from that day and forward.

10 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that the [e] evil spirit from God came upon Saul, and [f] he prophesied in the midst of the house: and David [g] played with his hand, as at other times: [h] and there was a javelin in Saul's hand.

11 [k] And Saul cast the javelin; for he said, I will smite David even to the wall with it. And David avoided out of his presence twice.

12 ¶ And Saul was afraid of David, because [l] the LORD was with him, [m] and was departed from Saul.

13 Therefore Saul removed him from him, and made him his captain over a thousand; and he [o] went out and came in before the people.

14 And David [2]behaved himself wisely in all his ways; and the LORD was with him.

15 Wherefore when Saul saw that he behaved himself very wisely, he was afraid of him.

16 But all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went out and came in before them.

17 ¶ And Saul said to David, Behold my elder daughter [s] Merab, [t] her will I give thee to wife: only be thou valiant for me, and fight [u] the LORD's battles. For Saul said, Let not mine hand be upon him, but [x] let the hand of the Philistines be upon him.

18 And David said unto Saul, [y] Who am I? and what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son in law to the king?

19 But it came to pass at the time when Merab Saul's daughter should have been given to David, that [a] she was given unto Ā'-drĭ-ĕl the [b] Mĕ-hō'-lă-thīte to wife.

20 And [d] Mī'-chăl Saul's daughter loved David: and they told Saul, and the thing pleased him.

21 And Saul said, I will give him her, that she may be [f] a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Wherefore Saul said to David, Thou shalt this day be my son in law [2]in the one of the twain.

22 ¶ And Saul commanded his servants, saying, Commune with David secretly, and say, Behold, the king hath delight in thee, and all his servants love thee: now therefore be the king's son in law.

23 And Saul's servants spake those words in the ears of David. And David said, Seemeth it to you [b]a light thing to be a king's son in law, seeing that I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed?

24 And the servants of Saul told him, saying, On this manner spake David.

25 And Saul said, Thus shall ye say to David, The king desireth not any [g]dowry, but an hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the king's enemies. But Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

26 And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son in law: and the days were not expired.

27 Wherefore David arose and went, he and his men, and [k]slew of the Philistines two hundred men; [l]and David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full tale to the king, that he might be the king's son in law. And Saul gave him Mī-chăl his daughter to wife.

28 ¶ And Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and that Mī-chăl Saul's daughter loved him.

29 And Saul was yet the more afraid of David; and Saul became David's enemy continually.

30 Then the princes of the Philistines went forth: and it came to pass, after they went forth, that David behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul; so that his name was much [3]set by.

CHAPTER 19

AND Saul spake to [t]Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should kill David.

2 But Jonathan Saul's son [u]delighted much in David: and Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father seeketh to kill thee: now therefore, I pray thee, take heed to thyself until the morning, and abide in a secret place, and [a]hide thyself:

3 And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where thou art, and I will commune with my father of thee; and what I see, that I will tell thee.

4 ¶ And Jonathan spake good of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, [c]Let not the king sin against his servant, against David; because he hath not sinned against thee, and because his works have been to thee-ward very good:

5 For he did [d]put his life in his hand, and [e]slew the Philistine, and [f]the LORD wrought a great salvation for all Israel: thou sawest it, and didst rejoice: wherefore then wilt thou sin against [h]innocent blood, to slay David without a cause?

6 And Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan: and Saul sware, [i]As the LORD liveth, he shall not be slain.

7 And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan shewed him all those things. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence, [m]as in times past.

8 ¶ And there was war again: and David went out, and fought with the Philistines, and [n]slew them with a great slaughter; and they fled from him.

9 And the [o]evil spirit from the LORD was upon Saul, as he sat in his house with his [p]javelin in his hand: and David [p]played with his hand.

10 And [q]Saul sought to smite David even to the wall with the javelin; but he slipped away out of Saul's presence, and he smote the javelin into the wall: and David fled, and escaped that night.

11 [r]Saul also sent messengers unto David's house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and [s]Mī-chăl David's wife told him, saying, If thou save not thy life to night, to morrow thou shalt be slain.

12 ¶ So Mī-chăl [x]let David down

CHAPTER 20

AND David fled from Nâi'ōth in d Ramah, and came and said before e Jonathan, What have I done? what is mine iniquity? and what is my sin before thy father, that he seeketh my life?

2 And he said unto him, God forbid; thou shalt not die: behold, my father will do nothing either great or small, but that he will [4]f shew it me: and why should my father hide this thing from me? it is not so.

3 And David sware moreover, and said, Thy father certainly knoweth that I have h found grace in thine eyes; and he saith, Let not Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved: but truly i as the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, there is but a step between me and death.

4 Then said Jonathan unto David, Whatsoever thy soul desireth, I will even do it for thee.

5 And David said unto Jonathan, Behold, to morrow is the l new moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king at meat: but let me go, that I may n hide myself in the field unto the third day at even.

6 If thy father at all miss me, then say, David earnestly asked leave of me that he might run to q Beth-lehem his city: for there is a r yearly sacrifice there for all the family.

7 If he say thus, It is well; thy servant shall have peace: but if he be very wroth, then be sure that s evil is determined by him.

8 Therefore thou shalt t deal kindly with thy servant; for u thou hast brought thy servant into a covenant of the LORD with thee: notwithstanding, x if there be in me iniquity, slay me thyself; for why shouldest thou bring me to thy father?

9 And Jonathan said, Far be it from thee: for if I knew certainly that evil were determined by my father to come upon thee, then would not I tell it thee?

10 Then said David to Jonathan, Who shall tell me? or what if thy father answer thee roughly?

11 ¶ And Jonathan said unto David, Come, and let us go out into the field. And they went out both of them into the field.

12 And Jonathan said unto David, O LORD God of Israel, when I have sounded my father about to morrow any time, or the third day, and, behold, if there be good toward David, and I then send not unto thee, and shew it thee;

13 [c] The LORD do so and much more to Jonathan: but if it please my father to do thee evil, then I will shew it thee, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace: and [e] the LORD be with thee, as he hath been with my father.

14 And thou shalt not only while yet I live shew me the kindness of the LORD, that I die not:

15 But also [g] thou shalt not cut off thy kindness from my house for ever: no, not when the LORD hath cut off the enemies of David every one from the face of the earth.

16 So Jonathan [h] made a covenant with the house of David, saying, Let [i] the LORD even require it at the hand of David's enemies.

17 And Jonathan caused David [k] to swear again, because he loved him: for [l] he loved him as he loved his own soul.

18 Then Jonathan said to David, To morrow is the new moon: and thou shalt be missed, because thy seat will be empty.

19 And when thou hast stayed three days, then thou shalt go down quickly, and come to the place where thou didst hide thyself when the business was in hand, and shalt remain by [2] the stone Ezel.

20 And I will shoot three arrows on the side thereof, as though I shot at a mark.

21 And, behold, I will send a lad, saying, Go, find out the arrows. If I expressly say unto the lad, Behold, the arrows are on this side of thee, take them; then come thou: for there is peace to thee, and no hurt; as the LORD liveth.

22 But if I say thus unto the young man, Behold, the arrows are beyond thee; go thy way: for the LORD hath sent thee away.

23 And [a] as touching the matter which thou and I have spoken of, behold, [b] the LORD be between thee and me for ever.

24 ¶ So David hid himself in the field: and when the new moon was come, the king sat him down to eat meat.

25 And the king sat upon his seat, as at other times, even upon a seat by the wall: and Jonathan arose, and [d] Abner sat by Saul's side, and David's place was empty.

26 Nevertheless Saul spake not any thing that day: for he thought, Something hath befallen him, [f] he is not clean; surely he is not clean.

27 And it came to pass on the morrow, which was the second day of the month, that David's place was empty: and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, Wherefore cometh not the son of Jesse to meat, neither yesterday, nor to day?

28 And Jonathan answered Saul, David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Beth-lehem:

29 And he said, Let me go, I pray thee; for our family hath a sacrifice in the city; and my brother, he hath commanded me to be there: and now, if I have found favour in thine eyes, let me get away, I pray thee, and see my brethren. Therefore he cometh not unto the king's table.

30 Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, Thou son of the perverse rebellious woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own confusion, and unto the confusion of thy mother's nakedness?

31 For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou shalt not be established, nor thy kingdom. Wherefore now send and fetch him unto me, for he [3] shall surely die.

32 And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, [m] Wherefore shall he be slain? what hath he done?

33 [a] And Saul cast a javelin at him to smite him: whereby Jonathan knew that it was determined of his father to slay David.

34 So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did eat no meat the second day of the month: for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame.

35 ¶ And it came to pass in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David, and a little lad with him.

36 And he said unto his lad, Run, find out now the arrows which I shoot. And as the lad ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.

37 And when the lad was come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the lad, and said, Is not the arrow beyond thee?

38 And Jonathan cried after the lad, Make speed, haste, stay not. And Jonathan's lad gathered up the arrows, and came to his master.

39 But the lad knew not any thing: only Jonathan and David knew the matter.

40 And Jonathan gave his [4]artillery unto his lad, and said unto him, Go, carry them to the city.

41 ¶ And as soon as the lad was gone, David arose [5]out of a place toward the south, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times: and they [k] kissed one another, and wept one with another, until David exceeded.

42 And Jonathan said to David, [l] Go in peace, forasmuch as we have sworn both of us in the name of the LORD, saying, [o] The LORD be between me and thee, and between my seed and thy seed for ever. And he arose and departed: and Jonathan went into the city.

2 And David said unto Ă-hĭm'ĕ-lĕch the priest, The king hath commanded me a business, and hath said unto me, Let no man know any thing of the business whereabout I send thee, and what I have commanded thee: and I have appointed my servants to such and such a place.

3 Now therefore what is under thine hand? give me five loaves of bread in mine hand, or what there is present.

4 And the priest answered David, and said, There is no common bread under mine hand, but there is [b] hallowed bread; [c] if the young men have kept themselves at least from women.

5 And David answered the priest, and said unto him, Of a truth women have been kept from us about these [d] three days, since I came out, and [2] the vessels of the young men are holy, [3] and the bread is in a manner common, yea, though it were sanctified this day in the vessel.

6 So the priest [e] gave him hallowed bread: for there was no bread there but the [f] shewbread, [g] that was taken from before the LORD, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away.

7 Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD; and his name was [h] Dō'ĕg, an Edomite, [i] the chiefest of the herdmen that belonged to Saul.

8 ¶ And David said unto Ă-hĭm'ĕ-lĕch, And is there not here under thine hand spear or sword? for I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business required haste.

9 And the priest said, [m] The sword of [n] Gō-lī'ăth the Philistine, whom thou slewest in [p] the valley of Elah, [q] behold, it is here wrapped in a cloth behind the [r] ē'phŏd: if thou wilt take that, take it: for there is no other save that here. And David said, There is none like that; give it me.

10 ¶ And David arose, and fled that day for fear of Saul, and went to [t] Ā'chĭsh the king of [x] Gath.

11 And the servants of Ā'chĭsh said unto him, Is not this David the king of the land? [y] did they not sing one to another of him in dances, saying, [a] Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

12 And David laid up these words in his heart, and was sore afraid of Ā'-chĭsh the king of Gath.

13 And he changed his behaviour before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and [2]scrabbled on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall down upon his beard.

14 Then said Ā'-chĭsh unto his servants, Lo, ye see the man is mad: wherefore then have ye brought him to me?

15 Have I need of mad men, that ye have brought this fellow to play the mad man in my presence? shall this fellow come into my house?

CHAPTER 22

DAVID therefore departed thence, and escaped to [o] the cave [p] Ă-dŭl'-lăm: and when his brethren and all his father's house heard it, they went down thither to him.

2 And every one that was in distress, and [q] every one that was [4r] discontented, gathered themselves unto him; and he became a captain over them: and there were with him [s] about four hundred men.

3 ¶ And David went thence to Mizpeh of [t] Moab: and he said unto the king of Moab, Let my father and my mother, I pray thee, come forth, and be with you, till I know what God will do for me.

4 And he brought them before the king of Moab: and they dwelt with him all the while that David was in the hold.

5 ¶ And the prophet [u] Gad said unto David, Abide not in the hold; depart, and get thee into the land of Judah. Then David departed, and came into the forest of Hareth.

6 ¶ When Saul heard that David was discovered, and the men that were with him, (now Saul abode in [y] Gibeah under [z] a tree in [a] Ramah, having his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing about him;)

7 Then Saul said unto his servants that stood about him, Hear now, ye Benjamites; will the son of Jesse [b] give every one of you fields and vineyards, and make you all [c] captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds;

8 That all of you have conspired against me, and there is none that [3d] sheweth me [e] that my son hath made a league with the son of Jesse, and there is none of you [f] that is sorry for me, or sheweth unto me that my son hath stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?

9 ¶ Then answered [g] Dō'-ĕg the Edomite, which was set over the servants of Saul, and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to [h] Nob, to [i] Ă-hĭm'-ĕ-lĕch [k] the son of Ă-hī'-tŭb.

10 And [l] he enquired of the LORD for him, and gave him victuals, and gave him the [m] sword of [n] Gō-lī'-ăth the Philistine.

11 Then the king sent to call Ă-hĭm'-ĕ-lĕch the priest, the son of Ă-hī'-tŭb, and all his father's house, the priests that were in Nob: and they came all of them to the king.

12 And Saul said, Hear now, thou son of Ă-hī'-tŭb. And he answered, Here I am, my lord.

13 And Saul said unto him, Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the son of Jesse, in that thou hast given him bread, and a sword, and hast enquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?

14 Then Ă-hĭm'-ĕ-lĕch answered the king, and said, And who is so faithful among all thy servants as David, which is the king's son in law, and goeth at thy bidding, and is honourable in thine house?

15 Did I then begin to enquire of God for him? be it far from me: let not the king impute any thing unto his servant, nor to all the house of my father: for thy servant knew nothing of all this, [x] less or more.

16 And the king said, Thou shalt surely die, Ă-hĭm'-ĕ-lĕch, thou, and all thy father's house.

17 ¶ And the king said unto [5] the footmen that stood about him, Turn, and slay the priests of the LORD; because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled, and did not shew it to me. But the servants of the king would not put forth their hand to fall upon the priests of the LORD.

18 And the king said to Dō'ĕg, Turn thou, and fall upon the priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and he fell upon the priests, and [e] slew on that day fourscore and five persons that did wear a linen [f] ē'phŏd.

19 And Nob, the [g] city of the priests, smote he with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and sucklings, and oxen, and asses, and sheep, with the edge of the sword.

20 ¶ And one of the sons of Ă-hĭm'ĕ-lĕch the son of Ă-hī'tŭb, named [h] Ă-bī'ă-thär, escaped, and fled after David.

21 And Ă-bī'ă-thär shewed David that Saul had slain the LORD's priests.

22 And David said unto Ă-bī'ă-thär, I knew it that day, when Dō'ĕg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul: I have occasioned the death of all the persons of thy father's house.

23 Abide thou with me, [k] fear not: [l] for he that seeketh my life seeketh thy life: but with me thou shalt be in safeguard.

CHAPTER 23

THEN they told David, saying, Behold, the Philistines fight against [m] Kē-ī'lăh, and they rob the [o] threshingfloors.

2 Therefore David [p] enquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go and smite these Philistines? And the LORD said unto David, Go, and smite the Philistines, and save Kē-ī'lăh.

3 And David's men said unto him, Behold, we be afraid here in Judah: how much more then if we come to Kē-ī'lăh against the armies of the Philistines?

4 Then David enquired of the LORD yet again. And the LORD answered him and said, Arise, go down to Kē-ī'lăh; for I will deliver the Philistines into thine hand.

5 So David and his men went to Kē-ī'lăh, and [a] fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattle, and smote them with a great slaughter. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

6 And it came to pass, when [b] Ă-bī'ă-thär the son of [c] Ă-hĭm'ĕ-lĕch fled to David to Kē-ī'lăh, that he came down with an [d] ē'phŏd in his hand.

7 ¶ And it was told Saul that David was come to Kē-ī'lăh. And Saul said, God hath delivered him into mine hand; for he is shut in, by entering into a town that hath gates and bars.

8 And Saul called all the people together to war, to go down to Kē-ī'lăh, to besiege David and his men.

9 ¶ And David knew that Saul secretly practised mischief against him; and he said to Ă-bī'ă-thär the priest, [i] Bring hither the ē'phŏd.

10 Then said David, O LORD God of Israel, thy servant hath certainly heard that Saul seeketh to come to Kē-ī'lăh, to destroy the city for my sake.

11 Will the men of Kē-ī'lăh deliver me up into his hand? will Saul come down, as thy servant hath heard? O LORD God of Israel, I beseech thee, tell thy servant. And the LORD said, He will come down.

12 Then said David, Will the men of Kē-ī'lăh deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul? And the LORD said, They will deliver thee up.

13 ¶ Then David and his men, which were [n] about six hundred, arose and departed out of Kē-ī'lăh, and went [q] whithersoever they could go. And it was told Saul that David was escaped from Keilah; and he forbare to go forth.

14 And David abode [r] in the wilderness in strong holds, and remained in a mountain in the wilderness of [s] Ziph. And Saul sought him every day, but God delivered him not into his hand.

15 And David saw that Saul was come out to seek his life: and David was in the wilderness of Ziph in [2] a wood.

16 ¶ And [t] Jonathan Saul's son arose, and went to David into the wood, and [b] strengthened his hand in God.

17 And he said unto him, [c] Fear not: for the hand of Saul my father shall not find thee; and thou shalt be king over Israel, and I shall be next unto thee; [e] and that also Saul my father knoweth.

18 And they two [f] made a covenant [g] before the LORD: and David abode in the wood, and Jonathan went to his house.

19 ¶ [h] Then came up the Ziphites to Saul to [i] Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself with us in strong holds in the wood, in the hill of [l] Hăchī'lăh, which is on the south of [m] Jĕshī'mon?

20 Now therefore, O king, come down according to all the desire of thy soul to come down; and our part shall be to deliver him into the king's hand.

21 And Saul said, [o] Blessed be ye of the LORD; [p] for ye have compassion on me.

22 Go, I pray you, prepare yet, and know and see his place where his [3] haunt is, and who hath seen him there: for it is told me that he dealeth very [s] subtilly.

23 See therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking places where he hideth himself, and come ye again to me with the certainty, and I will go with you: and it shall come to pass, if he be in the land, that I will search him out throughout all the thousands of Judah.

24 And they arose, and went to Ziph before Saul: but David and his men were in the wilderness of [x] Maon, in the [4] plain on the south of Jĕ-shī'mon.

25 Saul also and his men went to seek him. And they told David: wherefore he came down into a rock, and abode in the wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard that, he pursued after David in the wilderness of Maon.

26 And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on that side of the mountain: and David made haste to get away for fear of Saul; for Saul and his men [a] compassed David and his men round about to take them.

27 ¶ But there came a messenger unto Saul, saying, Haste thee, and come; [d] for the Philistines have invaded the land.

28 Wherefore Saul returned from pursuing after David, and went against the Philistines: therefore they called that place [2] Sĕ-lä-hăm-mäh'lĕ-kōth.

29 ¶ And David went up from thence, and dwelt in strong holds at [k] En-ġĕ'dī.

CHAPTER 24

AND it came to pass, when Saul was returned from following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of En-ġĕ'dī.

2 Then Saul took [n] three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men upon the rocks of the wild goats.

3 And he came to the sheepcotes by the way, where was a cave; and Saul went in to [q] cover his feet: [r] and David and his men remained in the sides of the cave.

4 And the men of David said unto him, Behold the day of which the LORD said unto thee, [t] Behold, I will deliver thine enemy into thine hand, that thou mayest do to him as it shall seem good unto thee. Then David arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul's robe privily.

5 And it came to pass afterward, that [u] David's heart smote him, because he had cut off Saul's skirt.

6 And he said unto his men, [y] The LORD forbid that I should do this thing unto my master, [z] the LORD's anointed, to stretch forth mine hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of the LORD.

7 [a] So David stayed his servants with these words, and suffered them not to rise against Saul. But Saul rose up out of the cave, and went on his way.

8 David also arose afterward, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, My lord the king. And when Saul looked behind him, David stooped with his face to the earth, and bowed himself.

9 ¶ And David said to Saul, Wherefore hearest thou men's words, saying, Behold, David seeketh thy hurt?

10 Behold, this day thine eyes have seen how that the LORD had delivered thee to day into mine hand in the cave: and some bade me kill thee: but mine eye spared thee; and I said, I will not put forth mine hand against my lord; for he is the LORD's anointed.

11 Moreover, my father, see, yea, see the skirt of thy robe in my hand: for in that I cut off the skirt of thy robe, and killed thee not, know thou and see that [i] there is neither evil nor transgression in mine hand, and I have not sinned against thee; yet [m]thou huntest my soul to take it.

12 [o]The LORD judge between me and thee, and [q]the LORD avenge me of thee: but mine hand shall not be upon thee.

13 As saith the proverb of the ancients, Wickedness proceedeth from the wicked: but mine hand shall not be upon thee.

14 After whom is the king of Israel come out? after whom dost thou pursue? after a [t]dead dog, after a [u]flea.

15 The LORD therefore be judge, and judge between me and thee, and see, and [y]plead my cause, and deliver me out of thine hand.

16 ¶ And it came to pass, when David had made an end of speaking these words unto Saul, that Saul said, [z]Is this thy voice, my son David? And Saul [b]lifted up his voice, and wept.

17 And he said to David, [c]Thou art more righteous than I: for [d]thou hast rewarded me good, whereas I have rewarded thee evil.

18 And thou hast shewed this day how that thou hast [f]dealt well with me: [g]forasmuch as when the LORD had delivered me into thine hand, thou killedst me not.

19 For if a man find his enemy, will he let him go well away? wherefore [k]the LORD reward thee good for that thou hast done unto me this day.

20 And now, behold, [l]I know well that thou shalt surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in thine hand.

21 [a]Swear now therefore unto me by the LORD, [b]that thou wilt not cut off my seed after me, and that thou wilt not destroy my name out of my father's house.

22 And David [c]sware unto Saul. And Saul went home; but David and his men gat them up [d]unto the hold.

CHAPTER 25

[e]AND Samuel died; and all the Israelites were gathered together, [f]and lamented him, and [g]buried him in his house at [h]Ramah. And David arose, and went down to the wilderness of [k]Paran.

2 And there was a man in [l]Maon, whose [2]possessions were in [n]Carmel; and the man was very great, and [p]he had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats: and he was [r]shearing his sheep in Carmel.

3 Now the name of the man was Nabal; and the name of his wife Abigail: and she was a woman of good understanding, and of a [s]beautiful countenance: but the man was churlish and evil in his doings; and he was of the house of [x]Caleb.

4 ¶ And David heard in the wilderness that Nabal did shear his sheep.

5 And David sent out ten young men, and David said unto the young men, Get you up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name:

6 And thus shall ye say to him that liveth in prosperity, [a]Peace be both to thee, and peace be to thine house, and peace be unto all that thou hast.

7 And now I have heard that thou hast shearers: now thy [e]shepherds which were with us, we [3]hurt them not, neither was there ought missing unto them, all the while they were in Carmel.

8 Ask thy young men, and they will shew thee. Wherefore let the young men [h]find favour in thine eyes: for we come in [i]a good day: give, I pray thee, whatsoever cometh to thine hand unto thy servants, and to thy son David.

9 And when David's young men came, they spake to Nabal according to all those words in the name of David, and ceased.

10 ¶ And Nabal answered David's servants, and said, [a]Who is David? and who is the son of Jesse? there be many servants now a days [b]that break away every man from his master.

11 Shall I then take [d]my bread, and my water, and my flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and give it unto men, whom I know not whence they be?

12 So David's young men turned their way, and went again, and came and told him all those sayings.

13 And David said unto his men, Gird ye on every man his sword. And they girded on every man his sword; and David also girded on his sword: and there went up after David [i]about four hundred men; and two hundred [k]abode by the stuff.

14 ¶ But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our master; and he [3]railed on them.

15 But the men were very good unto us, and we were not hurt, neither missed we any thing, as long as we were conversant with them, when we were in the fields:

16 They were a wall unto us both by night and day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep.

17 Now therefore know and consider what thou wilt do; for [q]evil is determined against our master, and against all his household: for he is such a [s]son of Bĕ-lĭ-ăl, that a man cannot speak to him.

18 ¶ Then Abigail made haste, and took two hundred loaves, and two [4]bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of [y]parched corn, and an hundred [z]clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of [a]figs, and laid them on asses.

19 And she said unto her servants, Go on before me; behold, I come after you. But she told not her husband Nabal.

ass, that she came down by the covert of the hill, and, behold, David and his men came down against her; and she met them.

21 Now David had said, Surely in vain have I kept all that this fellow hath in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained unto him: and he hath [c]requited me evil for good.

22 So and more [e]also do God unto the enemies of David, if I leave of all that pertain to him by the morning light any that pisseth against the wall.

23 And when Abigail saw David, she hasted, and [f]lighted off the ass, and [g]fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, 24 And fell at his feet, and said, [h]Upon me, my lord, upon me let this iniquity be: and let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak in thine audience, and hear the words of thine handmaid.

25 Let not my lord, I pray thee, regard this man of Bĕ-lĭ-ăl, even [2]Nabal: for as his name is, so is he; Nabal is his name, and [l]folly is with him: but I thine handmaid saw not the young men of my lord, whom thou didst send.

26 Now therefore, my lord, [m]as the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, seeing the LORD [n]hath withholden thee from coming to shed blood, and [o]from avenging thyself with thine own hand, now [p]let thine enemies, and they that seek evil to my lord, be as Nabal.

27 And now this [r]blessing which thine handmaid hath brought unto my lord, let it even be given unto the young men that [t]follow my lord.

28 I pray thee, forgive the trespass of thine handmaid: for the LORD will certainly make my lord [u]a sure house; because my lord [x]fighteth the battles of the LORD, and evil [5]hath not been found in thee all thy days.

29 Yet a man is risen to pursue thee, and to seek thy soul: but the soul of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of life with the LORD thy God; and the souls of thine enemies, [b]them shall he sling out, as out of the middle of a sling.

30 And it shall come to pass, when the LORD shall have done to my lord according to all the good that he hath spoken concerning thee, and shall have appointed thee ruler over Israel;

31 That this shall be no grief unto thee, nor offence of heart unto my lord, either that thou hast shed blood causeless, [a] or that my lord hath avenged himself: but [b] when the LORD shall have dealt well with my lord, then remember thine handmaid.

32 ¶ And David said to Abigail, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meet me:

33 And blessed be thy advice, and [d] blessed be thou, which hast kept me this day from coming to shed blood, and from avenging myself with mine own hand.

34 For in very deed, as the LORD God of Israel liveth, which hath kept me back from hurting thee, except thou hadst hasted and come to meet me, surely there had not been left unto Nabal by the morning light any that pisseth against the wall.

35 So David received of her hand that which she had brought him, and said unto her, [i] Go up in peace to thine house; see, I have hearkened to thy voice, and have accepted thy person.

36 ¶ And Abigail came to Nabal; and, behold, he [p] held a feast in his house, like the feast of a king; and Nabal's heart [q] was merry within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore she told him nothing, [r] less or more, until the morning light.

37 But it came to pass in the morning, when [s] the wine was gone out of Nabal, and his wife had told him these things, that his heart died within him, and he became [u] as a stone.

38 And it came to pass about ten days after, that [x] the LORD smote Nabal, that he died.

39 ¶ And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed be the LORD, that hath [a] pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and hath kept his servant from evil: for [c] the LORD hath returned the wickedness of Nabal upon his own head. And David sent and communed with Abigail, to take her to him to wife.

40 And when the servants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake unto her, saying, David sent us unto thee, to take thee to him to wife.

41 And she arose, and bowed herself on her face to the earth, and said, Behold, let thine handmaid be a servant [c] to wash the feet of the servants of my lord.

42 And Abigail hasted, and arose, and rode upon an ass, with five damsels of her's that went after her; and she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife.

43 David also took Ă-hĭn'ŏ-ăm of [e] Jezreel; and they were also both of them his wives.

44 ¶ But Saul had given [f] Mī'chăl his daughter, David's wife, to [2] Phalti the son of Lā'ĭsh, which was of [g] Gallim.

CHAPTER 26

[h] AND the Ziphites came unto Saul to [i] Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself in the hill of [k] Hă-chī'lăh, which is before [m] Jĕ-shī'mon?

2 Then Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of [n] Ziph, having [o] three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph.

3 And Saul pitched in the hill of Hă-chī'lăh, which is before Jĕ-shī'mon, by the way. But David abode in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness.

4 David therefore sent out [t] spies, and understood that Saul was come in very deed.

5 ¶ And David arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched: and David beheld the place where Saul lay, and [y] Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host: and Saul lay in [z] the [3] trench, and the people pitched round about him.

6 Then answered David and said to Ă-him'ĕ-lĕch the [b] Hittite, and to [d] Ăb'ī-shâi the son of Zĕr-ū-ī'ăh, brother to [e] Joab, saying, [f] Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp? And Abishai said, I will go down with thee.

7 So David and Ăb'ĭ-shâi came to the people by night: and, behold, Saul lay sleeping within the trench, and his spear stuck in the ground at his bolster: but Abner and the people lay round about him.

8 Then said Ăb'ĭ-shâi to David, [c]God hath delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear even to the earth at once, and I will not smite him the second time.

9 And David said to Ăb'ĭ-shâi, Destroy him not: for who can stretch forth his hand against [f]the LORD's anointed, and be guiltless?

10 David said furthermore, [h]As the LORD liveth, [k]the LORD shall smite him; or [m]his day shall come to die; or he shall descend into battle, and perish.

11 [o]The LORD forbid that I should stretch forth mine hand against the LORD's anointed: but, I pray thee, take thou now the spear that is at his bolster, and the cruse of water, and let us go.

12 So David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's bolster; and they gat them away, and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither awaked: for they were all asleep; because [t]a deep sleep from the LORD was fallen upon them.

13 ¶ Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of an hill afar off; a great space being between them:

14 And David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, Answerest thou not, Abner? Then Abner answered and said, Who art thou that criest to the king?

15 And David said to Abner, Art not thou a valiant man? and who is like to thee in Israel? wherefore then hast thou not kept thy lord the king? for there came one of the people in to destroy the king thy lord.

[2a] worthy to die, because ye have not kept your master, the LORD's anointed. And now see where the king's spear is, and the cruse of water that was at his bolster.

17 And Saul knew David's voice, and said, [b]Is this thy voice, my son David? And David said, It is my voice, my lord, O king.

18 And he said, Wherefore doth my lord thus [d]pursue after his servant? for what have I done? or what evil is in mine hand?

19 Now therefore, I pray thee, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If the LORD have stirred thee up against me, let him [3]accept an [e]offering: but if they be the children of men, [g]cursed be they before the LORD; for they have driven me out this day from abiding in the [i]inheritance of the LORD, saying, Go, [l]serve other gods.

20 Now therefore, [n]let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the LORD: for the king of Israel is come out to seek a [p]flea, as when one doth [q]hunt a partridge in the mountains.

21 ¶ Then said Saul, [r]I have sinned: return, my son David: for I will no more do thee harm, because my soul was precious in thine eyes this day: behold, I have [s]played the fool, and have erred exceedingly.

22 And David answered and said, Behold the king's spear! and let one of the young men come over and fetch it.

23 [u]The LORD render to every man his righteousness and his faithfulness: for the LORD delivered thee into my hand to day, but I would not stretch forth mine hand against the LORD's anointed.

24 And, behold, as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes, so let my life be much set by in the eyes of the LORD, and let him deliver me out of all tribulation.

25 Then Saul said to David, [x]Blessed be thou, my son David: thou shalt both do great things, and also shalt still prevail. So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

CHAPTER 27

1013 B.C.

AND David said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul: there is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saul shall despair of me, to seek me any more in any coast of Israel: so shall I escape out of his hand.

2 And David arose, and he passed over with the [b] six hundred men that were with him unto [c] Ā'-chĭsh, the son of Mā'-ŏch, king of [d] Gath.

3 And David dwelt with Ā'-chĭsh at Gath, he and his men, every man with his household, even David with his two wives, [f] Ă-hĭn'-ō-ăm the Jĕz-rēĕl-ī'-tĕss, and [g] Abigail the Căr-mĕl-ī'-tĕss, Nabal's wife.

4 And it was told Saul that David was fled to Gath: and he sought no more again for him.

5 ¶ And David said unto Ā'-chĭsh, If I have now [i] found grace in thine eyes, let them give me a place in some town in the country, that I may dwell there: for why should thy servant dwell in the royal city with thee?

6 Then Ā'-chĭsh gave him [n] Ziklag that day: wherefore Ziklag pertaineth unto the kings of Judah unto this day.

7 [p] And the time that David dwelt in the country of the Philistines was a full year and four months.

8 ¶ And David and his men went up, and invaded [r] the Gĕ-shū'-rītes, and [t] the Gezrites, and the [u] Ă-măl'-ĕk-ītes: for those nations were of old the inhabitants of the land, as thou goest to [a] Shur, even unto the land of Egypt.

9 And David smote the land, and left neither man nor woman alive, and took away the sheep, and the oxen, and the asses, and the camels, and the apparel, and returned, and came to Ā'-chĭsh.

10 And Ā'-chĭsh said, Whither have ye made a road to day? And David said, Against the south of Judah, and against [e] the south of [f] the Jĕ-räh'-mēĕl-ītes, and against the south of [h] the Kenites.

11 And David saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring tidings to Gath, saying, Lest they should tell on us, saying, So did David, and so will be his manner all the while he dwelleth in the country of the Philistines.

12 And Ā'-chĭsh believed David, saying, He hath made his people Israel utterly to [a] abhor him; therefore he shall be my servant for ever.

CHAPTER 28

AND it came to pass in those days, that the Philistines gathered their armies together for warfare, to fight with Israel. And [e] Ā'-chĭsh said unto David, Know thou assuredly, that thou shalt go out with me to battle, thou and thy men.

2 And David said to Ā'-chĭsh, Surely thou shalt know what thy servant can do. And Achish said to David, Therefore will I make thee keeper of mine head for ever.

3 ¶ [h] Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in [k] Ramah, even in his own city. And Saul had [l] put away those that had [m] familiar spirits, and the [m] wizards, out of the land.

4 And the Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and pitched in [o] Shunem: and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they pitched in [q] Gĭl-bō'-ă.

5 And when Saul saw the host of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart greatly trembled.

6 And when Saul [s] enquired of the LORD, the LORD [x] answered him not, neither [y] by dreams, nor by [z] Urim, nor by prophets.

7 ¶ Then said Saul unto his servants, [b] Seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and enquire of her. And his servants said to him, Behold, there is a woman that hath a familiar spirit at [c] En–dor.

8 And Saul [d] disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, I pray thee, [g] divine unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him up, whom I shall name unto thee.

done, how he hath cut off those that have familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land: wherefore then layest thou a snare for my life, to cause me to die?

10 And Saul [a]sware to her by the LORD, saying, [b]As the LORD liveth, there shall no punishment happen to thee for this thing.

11 Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he said, Bring me up Samuel.

12 And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice: and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou art Saul.

13 And the king said unto her, Be not afraid: for what sawest thou? And the woman said unto Saul, I saw gods ascending out of the earth.

14 And he said unto her, What form is he of? And she said, An old man cometh up; and he is covered with a mantle. And Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the ground, and bowed himself.

15 ¶ And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me up? And Saul answered, I am sore distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and [f]God is departed from me, and answereth me no more, neither by prophets, nor by dreams: therefore I have called thee, that thou mayest make known unto me what I shall do.

16 Then said Samuel, Wherefore then dost thou ask of me, seeing the LORD is departed from thee, and is become thine enemy?

17 And the LORD hath done to him, as he spake by me: for [k]the LORD hath rent the kingdom out of thine hand, and given it to thy neighbour, even to David:

18 [n]Because thou obeyedst not the voice of the LORD, [o]nor executedst his fierce wrath upon [q]Am-ă-lĕk, therefore hath the LORD done this thing unto thee this day.

19 Moreover the LORD will also deliver Israel with thee into the hand of the Philistines: and to morrow shalt [s]thou and thy sons be with me: the LORD also shall deliver the host of Israel into the hand of the Philistines.

20 Then Saul fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore afraid, because of the words of Samuel: and there was no strength in him; for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night.

21 ¶ And the woman came unto Saul, and saw that he was sore troubled, and said unto him, Behold, thine handmaid hath obeyed thy voice, and [c]I have put my life in my hand, and have hearkened unto thy words which thou spakest unto me.

22 Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also unto the voice of thine handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before thee; and eat, that thou mayest have strength, when thou goest on thy way.

23 But he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his servants, together with the woman, compelled him; and he hearkened unto their voice. So he arose from the earth, and sat upon the bed.

24 And the woman had a fat [d]calf in the house; and she hasted, and killed it, and took flour, and kneaded it, and did bake [e]unleavened bread thereof:

25 And she brought it before Saul, and before his servants; and they did eat. Then they rose up, and went away that night.

CHAPTER 29

NOW the Philistines gathered together all their armies to [g]Aphek: and the Israelites pitched by a [h]fountain which is in [i]Jezreel.

2 And the [l]lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds, and by thousands: but David and his men passed on in the rereward with [m]Ā-chĭsh.

3 Then said the princes of the Philistines, What do these [p]Hebrews here? And Ā-chĭsh said unto the princes of the Philistines, Is not this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, which hath been with me [r]these days, or these years, and I have found no fault in him since he fell unto me unto this day?

4 And the princes of the Philistines were wroth with him; and the princes of the Philistines said unto him, Make this fellow return, that he may go again [a] to his place which thou hast appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battle, [b] lest in the battle he be an adversary to us: for wherewith should he reconcile himself unto his master? [c] should it not be with the heads of these men?

5 Is not this David, [d] of whom they sang one to another in dances, saying, [f] Saul slew his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

6 ¶ Then Ā'chĭsh called David, and said unto him, Surely, [g] as the LORD liveth, thou hast been upright, and [i] thy going out and thy coming in with me in the host is good in my sight: for I have not found evil in thee since the day of thy coming unto me unto this day: nevertheless the lords favour thee not.

7 Wherefore now return, and go in peace, that thou displease not the lords of the Philistines.

8 ¶ And David said unto Ā'chĭsh, But what have I done? and what hast thou found in thy servant so long as I have been with thee unto this day, that I may not go fight against the enemies of my lord the king?

9 And Ā'chĭsh answered and said to David, I know that thou art good in my sight, [r] as an angel of God: notwithstanding the princes of the Philistines have said, He shall not go up with us to the battle.

10 Wherefore now rise up early in the morning [t] with thy master's servants that are come with thee: and as soon as ye be up early in the morning, and have light, depart.

11 So David and his men rose up early to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

CHAPTER 30

AND it came to pass, when David and his men were come to [z] Ziklag on the third day, that the [a] Ă-măl'ĕk-ītes had invaded the south, and Ziklag, and smitten Ziklag, and burned it with fire;

2 And had taken the women captives, that were therein: they slew not any, either great or small, but carried them away, and went on their way.

3 ¶ So David and his men came to the city, and, behold, it was burned with fire; and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, were taken captives.

4 Then David and the people that were with him [e] lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep.

5 And David's two wives were taken captives, [h] Ă-hĭn'ŏ-ăm the Jĕz-rēel-ī'tĕss, and [h] Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

6 And David was greatly distressed; for the people spake of [k] stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters: but David [l] encouraged himself in the LORD his God.

7 And David said to [m] Ă-bī'ă-thär the priest, [n] Ă-hĭm'ĕ-lĕch's son, I pray thee, [o] bring me hither the ē'phŏd. And Abiathar brought thither the ephod to David.

8 And David [p] enquired at the LORD, saying, Shall I pursue after [q] this troop? shall I overtake them? And he answered him, Pursue: for thou shalt surely overtake them, and without fail recover all.

9 So David went, he and the [s] six hundred men that were with him, and came to the brook Besor, where those that were left behind stayed.

10 But David pursued, he and four hundred men: for two hundred abode behind, which were so faint that they could not go over the brook Besor.

11 ¶ And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, and he did eat; and they made him drink water;

12 And they gave him a piece of a cake of [u] figs, and two clusters of [x] raisins: and when he had eaten, [y] his spirit came again to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water, three days and three nights.

13 And David said unto him, To whom belongest thou? and whence art thou? And he said, I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Ă-măl-ĕk-īte; and my master left me, because three days agone I fell sick.

14 We made an invasion upon the south of the [b] Chĕr-ĕ-thītes, and upon the coast which belongeth to Judah, and upon the south of [c] Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire.

15 And David said to him, Canst thou bring me down to this company? And he said, [f] Swear unto me by God, that thou wilt neither kill me, [g] nor deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will bring thee down to this company.

16 ¶ And when he had brought him down, behold, they were spread abroad upon all the earth, eating and drinking, and dancing, because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah.

17 And David smote them from the twilight even unto the evening of the next day: and there escaped not a man of them, save four hundred young men, which rode upon camels, and fled.

18 And David recovered all that the Ă-măl-ĕk-ītes had carried away: and David rescued his two wives.

19 And there was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil, nor any thing that they had taken to them: David recovered all.

20 And David took all the flocks and the herds, which they drave before those other cattle, and said, This is David's spoil.

21 ¶ And David came to the two hundred men, which were so faint that they could not follow David, whom they had made also to abide at the brook Besor: and they went forth to meet David, and to meet the people that were with him: and when David came near to the people, he saluted them.

22 Then answered all the wicked men and [v] men of Bē-lī-ăl, of those that went with David, and said, Because they went not with us, we will not give them ought of the spoil that we have recovered, save to every man his wife and his children, that they may lead them away, and depart.

23 Then said David, Ye shall not do so, my brethren, with that which the LORD hath given us, [a] who hath preserved us, and delivered the company that came against us into our hand.

24 For who will hearken unto you in this matter? but [d] as his part is that goeth down to the battle, so shall his part be that [e] tarrieth by the stuff: they shall part alike.

25 And it was so from that day forward, that he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel unto this day.

26 ¶ And when David came to Ziklag, he sent of the spoil unto the [h] elders of [i] Judah, even to his friends, saying, Behold a [k] present for you of the spoil of the enemies of the LORD;

27 To them which were in [l] Beth-el, and to them which were in south [m] Ramoth, and to them which were in [n] Jattir,

28 And to them which were in Ă-rō-ĕr, and to them which were in Siphmoth, and to them which were in [n] Ĕsh-tĕ-mō-ă,

29 And to them which were in Rā-chăl, and to them which were in the cities of the [o] Jĕ-räh-mēel-ītes, and to them which were in the cities of the [p] Kenites,

30 And to them which were in [q] Hormah, and to them which were in Chôr-ăsh-ăn, and to them which were in Ā-thăch,

31 And to them which were in [r] Hebron, and to all the places where David himself and his men were wont to haunt.

4 Then said Saul [a] unto his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these [b] uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and [2c] abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was sore afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword, and fell upon it.

7 ¶ And when the men of Israel that were on the other side of the valley, and they that were on the other side Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

CHAPTER 1

NOW it came to pass after the death of Saul, when David was returned from the slaughter of the [b] Ă-măl'ĕk-ītes, and David had abode two days in [d] Ziklag;

2 It came even to pass on the third day, that, behold, [e] a man came out of the camp from Saul with his [f] clothes rent, and [g] earth upon his head: and so it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the earth, and did obeisance.

3 And David said unto him, From whence comest thou? And he said unto him, Out of the camp of Israel am I escaped.

4 And David said unto him, [a] How went the matter? I pray thee, tell me. And he answered, That the people are fled from the battle, and many of the people also are fallen and dead; and Saul and [c] Jonathan his son are dead also.

5 And David said unto the young man that told him, How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his son be dead?

6 [h] And the young man that told him said, As I happened by chance upon [i] mount Gĭl-bō'ă, behold, Saul leaned upon his spear; and, lo, the chariots and horsemen followed hard after him.

7 And when he looked behind him, he saw me, and called unto me. And I answered, Here am I.

8 And he said unto me, Who art thou? And I answered him, I am an Ăm-ăl-ĕk-īte.

9 He said unto me again, Stand, I pray thee, [2]upon me, and slay me: for [3]anguish is come upon me, because my life is yet whole in me.

10 So I stood upon him, and slew him, because I was sure that he could not live after that he was fallen: and [e] I took the crown that was upon his head, and the [f] bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them hither unto my lord.

11 Then David took hold on his clothes, and rent them; and likewise all the men that were with him:

12 And they [i] mourned, and wept, and fasted until even, for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for the [m]people of the LORD, and for the house of Israel; because they were fallen by the sword.

13 ¶ And David said unto the young man that told him, Whence art thou? And he answered, I am the son of a stranger, an Ăm-ăl-ĕk-īte.

14 And David said unto him, How wast thou not afraid to stretch forth thine hand to destroy [p] the LORD's anointed?

15 And [q] David called one of the young men, and said, Go near, and fall upon him. And he smote him that he died.

16 And David said unto him, [s] Thy blood be upon thy head; for thy mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I have slain the LORD's anointed.

17 ¶ And David [u] lamented with this lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son:

18 (Also he bade them [z] teach the children of Judah [4]the use of the bow: behold, [b] it is written in [c] the book of Jasher.)

19 The beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places: [e] how are the mighty fallen!

20 [g] Tell it not in [h] Gath, publish it not in the streets of [i] Ăs-kĕ-lon; [k] lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of [a] the uncircumcised triumph.

21 Ye mountains of Gĭl-bō-ă, let there be no [b] dew, neither let there be rain, upon you, nor fields of [c] offerings: for there the shield of the mighty is vilely cast away, the shield of Saul, as though he had not been [d] anointed with oil.

22 From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan turned not back, and the sword of Saul returned not empty.

23 Saul and Jonathan were lovely and pleasant in their lives, and in their death they were not divided: they were [g] swifter than eagles, they were [h] stronger than lions.

24 Ye daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you in [k] scarlet, with other delights, who put on [l] ornaments of gold upon your apparel.

25 [n] How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle! O Jonathan, thou wast slain in thine high places.

26 I am distressed for thee, my brother Jonathan: very pleasant hast thou been unto me: [o] thy love to me was wonderful, passing the love of women.

27 [n] How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war perished!

CHAPTER 2

AND it came to pass after this, that David [r] enquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah? And the LORD said unto him, Go up. And David said, Whither shall I go up? And he said, Unto [t] Hebron.

2 So David went up thither, and his two wives also, [x] Ăh-hĭn-ŏ-ăm the Jĕz-rēēl-ī-tĕss, and [y] Abigail Nabal's wife the Carmelite.

3 [a] And his men that were with him did David bring up, every man with his household: and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

4 And the men of [d] Judah came, and there they [f] anointed David king over the house of Judah. And they told David, saying, That the men of Jabesh-gĭl-ĕ-ăd were they that buried Saul.

5 ¶ And David sent messengers unto the men of [a] Jabesh-gĭl'ĕ-ăd, and said unto them, [b] Blessed be ye of the LORD, that ye [c] have shewed this kindness unto your lord, even unto Saul, and have buried him.

6 And now [f] the LORD shew kindness and truth unto you: and I also will requite you this kindness, because ye have done this thing.

7 Therefore now [h] let your hands be strengthened, and be ye valiant: for your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Judah have anointed me king over them.

8 ¶ But [i] Abner the son of Ner, captain of Saul's host, took [k] Ĭsh-bŏsh'ĕth [l] the son of Saul, and brought him over to [m] Mā-hă-nā'ĭm;

9 And made him king over [n] Gĭl'ĕ-ăd, and over the Ăsh'ū-rītes, and over [o] Jezreel, and over [p] Ē'phră-ĭm, and over [q] Benjamin, and over all Israel.

10 Ĭsh-bŏsh'ĕth Saul's son was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and reigned two years. But the house of Judah followed David.

11 [r] And the time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

12 ¶ And Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ĭsh-bŏsh'ĕth the son of Saul, went out from Mā-hă-nā'ĭm to [t] Gibeon.

13 And [u] Joab the son of Zĕr-ū-ī'ăh, and the servants of David, went out, and met together by [x] the pool of Gibeon: and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool.

14 And Abner said to Joab, Let the young men now arise, and play before us. And Joab said, Let them arise.

15 Then there arose and went over by number twelve of Benjamin, which pertained to Ĭsh-bŏsh'ĕth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David.

16 And they caught every one his fellow by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellow's side; so they fell down together: wherefore that place was called [z] Hĕl'kăth-hăz-zū'rĭm, which is in Gibeon.

17 And there was a very sore battle that day; and Abner was beaten, and the men of Israel, before the servants of David.

18 ¶ And there were three sons of Zĕr-ū-ī'ăh there, Joab, and [d] Ăb'ī-shâi, and [e] Ăs'ă-hĕl: and Asahel was as [g] light of foot as a wild roe.

19 And Ăs'ă-hĕl pursued after Abner; and in going he turned not to the right hand nor to the left from following Abner.

20 Then Abner looked behind him, and said, Art thou Ăs'ă-hĕl? And he answered, I am.

21 And Abner said to him, Turn thee aside to thy right hand or to thy left, and lay thee hold on one of the young men, and take thee his armour. But Ăs'ă-hĕl would not turn aside from following of him.

22 And Abner said again to Ăs'ă-hĕl, Turn thee aside from following me: wherefore should I smite thee to the ground? how then should I hold up my face to Joab thy brother?

23 Howbeit he refused to turn aside: wherefore Abner with the hinder end of the spear [s] smote him under the fifth rib, that the spear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died in the same place: and it came to pass, that as many as came to the place where Ăs'ă-hĕl fell down and died stood still.

24 Joab also and Ăb'ī-shâi pursued after Abner: and the sun went down when they were come to the hill of Ammah, that lieth before Gī'ăh by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon.

25 ¶ And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became one troop, and stood on the top of an hill.

26 Then Abner called to Joab, and said, Shall the sword devour for ever? knowest thou not that it will be bitterness in the latter end? how long shall it be then, ere thou bid the people return from following their brethren?

27 And Joab said, [y] As God liveth, unless thou hadst spoken, surely then in the morning the people had gone up every one from following his brother.

28 So Joab [z] blew a trumpet, and all

30 And Joab returned from following Abner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of David's servants nineteen men and Ăs'ă-hĕl.

31 But the servants of David had smitten of Benjamin, and of Abner's men, so that three hundred and threescore men died.

NOW there was long war between the house of Saul and the house of David: but David waxed stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul waxed weaker and weaker.

8 Then was Abner very wroth for the words of Ĭsh-bŏsh'ĕth, and said, [a] Am I a dog's head, which against Judah do [b] shew kindness this day unto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered thee into the hand of David, that thou chargest me to day with a fault concerning this woman?

9 [d] So do God to Abner, and more also, except, [e] as the LORD hath sworn to David, even so I do to him;

10 To translate the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, [f] from Dan even to Beer-sheba.

11 And he could not answer Abner a word again, [h] because he feared him.

12 ¶ And Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, saying, Whose is the land? saying also, Make thy league with me, and, behold, my hand shall be with thee, to bring about all Israel unto thee.

13 ¶ And he said, Well; I will make a league with thee: but one thing I require of thee, that is, [i] Thou shalt not see my face, except thou first bring [l] Mī'chăl Saul's daughter, when thou comest to see my face.

14 And David sent messengers to Ĭsh-bŏsh'ĕth Saul's son, saying, Deliver me my wife Mī'chăl, which I espoused to me [p] for an hundred foreskins of the Philistines.

15 And Ĭsh-bŏsh'ĕth sent, and took her from her husband, even from [3] Phăl'tī-ĕl the son of Lā'ĭsh.

16 And her husband went with her along weeping behind her to [u] Bă-hū'rĭm. Then said Abner unto him, Go, return. And he returned.

17 ¶ And Abner had communication with the [x] elders of Israel, saying, Ye sought for David in times past to be king over you:

18 Now then do it: for the LORD hath spoken of David, saying, By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Israel [a] out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies.

19 And Abner also spake in the ears of [a] Benjamin: and Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and that seemed good to the whole house of Benjamin.

20 So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him. And David made Abner and the men that were with him a feast.

21 And Abner said unto David, I will arise and go, and will gather all Israel unto my lord the king, that they may make a league with thee, and [i] that thou mayest reign over all that thine heart desireth. And David sent Abner away; and he went in peace.

22 ¶ And, behold, the servants of David and Joab came from pursuing a troop, and brought in a great spoil with them: but Abner was not with David in Hebron; for he had sent him away, and he was gone in peace.

23 When Joab and all the host that was with him were come, they told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.

24 Then Joab came to the king, and said, What hast thou done? behold, Abner came unto thee; why is it that thou hast sent him away, and he is quite gone?

25 Thou knowest Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive thee, and to know [n] thy going out and thy coming in, and to know all that thou doest.

26 And when Joab was come out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, which brought him again [o] from the well of Sī'răh: but David knew it not.

27 And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab [p] took him aside in the gate to speak with him quietly, and [q] smote him there under the fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of [t] Ăs'ă-hĕl his brother.

28 ¶ And afterward when David heard it, he said, I and my kingdom are guiltless before the LORD for ever from the blood of Abner the son of Ner:

29 [z] Let it rest on the head of Joab, and on all his father's house; and let there not fail from the house of Joab one that [b] hath an issue, or that is [b] a leper, or that leaneth on a staff, or that falleth on the sword, or that lacketh bread.

30 So Joab and [c] Ăb'ī-shâi his brother slew Abner, because [d] he had slain their brother Ăs'ă-hĕl at [e] Gibeon in the battle.

31 ¶ And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were with him, [f] Rend your clothes, and gird you with [g] sackcloth, and [h] mourn before Abner. And king David himself followed the bier.

32 And they buried Abner in Hebron: and the king [k] lifted up his voice, and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept.

33 And the king [l] lamented over Abner, and said, Died Abner [m] as a fool dieth?

34 Thy hands were not bound, nor thy feet put into fetters: as a man falleth before wicked men, so fellest thou. And all the people wept again over him.

35 And when all the people came to cause David to eat meat while it was yet day, David sware, saying, So do God to me, and more also, if I taste bread, or ought else, till the sun be down.

36 And all the people took notice of it, and it pleased them: as whatsoever the king did pleased all the people.

37 For all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was not of the king to slay Abner the son of Ner.

38 And the king said unto his servants, Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?

39 And I am this day weak, though [r] anointed king; [s] and these men the sons of Zĕr-ū-ī'ăh be too hard for me: [u] the LORD shall reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness.

2 And Saul's son had two men that were captains of bands: the name of the one was Bā'ă-năh, and the name of the other Rē'chăb, the sons of Rimmon a Bĕĕr'ō-thīte, of the children of Benjamin: (for [b] Beeroth also was reckoned to Benjamin.

3 And the Bĕĕr'ō-thītes fled to [c] Gĭt-tā'ĭm, and were sojourners there until this day.)

4 And [e] Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son that was lame of his feet. He was five years old when the tidings came of Saul and Jonathan out of [g] Jezreel, and his nurse took him up, and fled: and it came to pass, as she made haste to flee, that he fell, and became lame. And his name was [l] Mĕ-phĭb'ō-shĕth.

5 And the sons of Rimmon the Bĕĕr'ō-thīte, Rē'chăb and Bā'ă-năh, went, and came about the heat of the day to the house of [o] Ĭsh-bŏsh'ĕth, who lay on a bed at noon.

6 And they came thither into the midst of the house, as though they would have fetched wheat; [r] and they smote him under the fifth rib: and Rē'chăb and Bā'ă-năh his brother escaped.

7 For when they came into the house, he lay on his bed in his bedchamber, and they smote him, and slew him, and beheaded him, and took his head, and gat them away through [2z] the plain all night.

8 And they brought the head of Ĭsh-bŏsh'ĕth unto David to Hebron, and said to the king, Behold the head of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul thine enemy, [d] which sought thy life; and the LORD hath avenged my lord the king this day of Saul, and of his seed.

9 ¶ And David answered Rē'chăb and Bā'ă-năh his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Bĕĕr'ō-thīte, and said unto them, [f] As the LORD liveth, [g] who hath redeemed my soul out of all adversity,

10 [h] When one told me, saying, Behold, Saul is dead, thinking to have brought good tidings, [i] I took hold of him, and slew him in [k] Ziklag, who thought that I would have given him a reward for his tidings:

CHAPTER 5

[h] THEN [i] came all the tribes of Israel to David unto [k] Hebron, and spake, saying, Behold, [m] we are thy bone and thy flesh.

2 Also in time past, when Saul was king over us, thou wast he that [n] leddest out and broughtest in Israel: [p] and the LORD said to thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be a captain over Israel.

3 So all the [q] elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; and king David [s] made a league with them in Hebron [t] before the LORD: and they [u] anointed David king over Israel.

4 ¶ David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and [x] he reigned forty years.

5 In Hebron he reigned [y] over Judah seven years and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years over all Israel and Judah.

6 ¶ [a] And the king and his men went to [b] Jerusalem unto the [c] Jĕb'ū-sītes, the inhabitants of the land: which spake unto David, saying, [3] Except thou take away the blind and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: thinking, David cannot come in hither.

7 Nevertheless David took the strong hold of Zion: the same is [e] the city of David.

8 And David said on that day, [4] Whosoever getteth up to the [5] gutter, and smiteth the Jĕb'ū-sītes, and the lame and the blind, that are hated of David's soul, he shall be chief and captain. Wherefore they said, The blind and the lame shall not come into the house.

9 So David dwelt in the fort, and called it the city of David. And David built round about from [a] Millo and inward.

10 And David went on, and grew great, and [c] the LORD God of hosts [e] was with him.

11 ¶ [f] And [g] Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and [h] cedar trees, and carpenters, and masons: and they built David an house.

12 And David perceived that the LORD had established him king over Israel, and that he had [k] exalted his kingdom [m] for his people Israel's sake.

13 ¶ And David took him more [o] concubines and wives out of Jerusalem, after he was come from Hebron: and there were yet sons and daughters born to David.

14 [q] And these be the names of those that were born unto him in Jerusalem; Shăm'mū-ăh, and Shobab, and Nathan, and [s] Solomon,

15 Ĭb'här also, and Ē-lī'shû-ă, and Nĕph'ĕg, and Jă-phī'ă,

16 And Ē-lī'shă-mă, and Ē-lī'ă-dă, and Ē-lĭph'ă-lĕt.

17 ¶ But when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines came up to seek David; and David heard of it, and went down [b] to the hold.

18 The Philistines also came and spread themselves in the [c] valley of Rĕph'ā-ĭm.

19 And David [d] enquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up to the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto David, Go up: for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into thine hand.

20 And David came to [l] Bā'ăl-pĕ-rā'zĭm, and David [o] smote them there, and said, The LORD hath [p] broken forth upon mine enemies before me, as the breach of waters. Therefore he called the name of that place [5]Baal-perazim.

21 And there they left their images, and David and his men [t] burned them.

22 ¶ And the Philistines came up yet again, and spread themselves in the valley of Rĕph'ā-ĭm.

25 And David did so, as the LORD had commanded him; and smote the Philistines from [l] Geba until thou come to [n] Gazer.

CHAPTER 6

[p] AGAIN, David gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand.

2 And David arose, and went with all the people that were with him from [r] Bā'ă-lē of Judah, to bring up from thence [t] the ark of God, whose name is called by the name of [u] the LORD of hosts [x] that dwelleth between the chĕr'ū-bĭms.

3 And they set the ark of God upon [y] a new cart, and brought it out of the house of [z] Ă-bĭn'ă-dăb that was in [a] Gibeah: and Uzzah and Ă-hī'ō, the sons of Abinadab, drave the new cart.

4 And they brought it out of the house of Ă-bĭn'ă-dăb which was at Gibeah, accompanying the ark of God: and Ă-hī'ō went before the ark.

5 And David and all the house of Israel played before the LORD on all manner of instruments made of [2]fir wood, even on [e] harps, and on [f] psalteries, and on [g] timbrels, and on [3h] cornets, and on [i] cymbals.

6 ¶ And when they came to [k] Nā'chŏn's [m] threshingfloor, Uzzah [n] put forth his hand to the ark of God, and took hold of it; for the oxen [4q] shook it.

7 And the [r] anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah; and [s] God smote him there for his error; and there he died by the ark of God.

8 And David was displeased, because the LORD had [u] made a breach upon Uzzah: and he called the name of the place [6]Pē'rĕz-uzzah to this day.

9 And David [a]was afraid of the LORD that day, and said, [b]How shall the ark of the LORD come to me?

10 So David would not remove the ark of the LORD unto him into the [c][d]city of David: but David carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

11 And the ark of the LORD continued in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months: and [f]the LORD blessed Obed-edom, and all his household.

12 ¶ [h]And it was told king David, saying, The LORD hath [k]blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that pertaineth unto him, because of the ark of God. So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom [l]into the city of David with gladness.

13 And it was so, that when [m]they that bare the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, [o]he sacrificed oxen and fatlings.

14 And David [p]danced before the LORD with all his might; [r]and David was girded with a [s]linen ē'phŏd.

15 So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

16 And as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, [c]Mĭ'chăl Saul's daughter looked [e]through a window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.

17 ¶ And they brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in his place, in the midst of [h]the tabernacle that David had pitched for it: and David offered [k]burnt offerings and [l]peace offerings before the LORD.

18 And as soon as David had made an end of offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, [o]he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts.

19 And he dealt among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as men, to every one [q]a cake of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a [3r]flagon of wine. [s]So all the people departed every one to his house.

[s] 1 Chr. 16. 43

20 ¶ Then David returned to bless his household. And Mĭ'chăl the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Israel to day, who [c]uncovered himself to day in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the [4]vain fellows shamelessly uncovereth himself!

21 And David said unto Mĭ'chăl, It was before the LORD, [g]which chose me before thy father, and before all his house, to appoint me ruler over the [i]people of the LORD, over Israel: therefore will I play before the LORD.

22 And I will yet be more vile than thus, and will be base in mine own sight: and of the maidservants which thou hast spoken of, of them shall I be had in honour.

23 Therefore Mĭ'chăl the daughter of Saul [n]had no child unto the day of her death.

CHAPTER 7

[q]AND it came to pass, when the king sat in his house, and the LORD [t]had given him rest round about from all his enemies;

2 That the king said unto [u]Nathan [x]the prophet, See now, I dwell [y]in an house of [z]cedar, but [a]the ark of God dwelleth within [b]curtains.

3 And Nathan said to the king, [d]Go, do all that is in thine heart; [f]for the LORD is with thee.

4 ¶ And [g]it came to pass that night, that the word of the LORD came unto Nathan, saying,

5 Go and tell my servant David, Thus saith the LORD, [i]Shalt thou build me an house for me to dwell in?

6 Whereas I have not dwelt in any house since the time that [m]I brought up the children of Israel out of Egypt, even to this day, but have walked [n]in a tent and in a tabernacle.

7 In all the places wherein [p]I have walked with all the children of Israel spake I a word with [2]any of the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people Israel, saying, Why build ye not me an house of cedar?

8 Now therefore so shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith

[4] Or cake of raisins

997 B.C.

[a] the LORD of hosts, [b] I took thee from the sheepcote, [c] from following the sheep, to be ruler over my people, over Israel:

9 And I was with thee whithersoever thou wentest, and [e] have cut off all thine enemies out of thy sight, and [f] have made thee a great name, like unto the name of the great men that are in the earth.

10 Moreover I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and [h] will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more; [l] neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them any more, as beforetime,

11 And as since the time [n] that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel, and have caused thee to rest from all thine enemies. Also the LORD telleth thee that [q] he will make thee an house.

12 ¶ And when thy days be fulfilled, and [r] thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, [t] I will set up thy seed after thee, which [u] shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish his kingdom.

13 [x] He shall build an house for my name, and [y] I will stablish the throne of his kingdom for ever.

14 [a] I will be his father, and he shall be [b] my son. If he commit iniquity, [c] I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the children of men:

15 But my mercy shall not depart away from him, [e] as I took it from Saul, whom I put away before thee.

16 And [g] thine house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee: thy throne shall be established for ever.

17 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

18 ¶ Then went king David in, and sat before the LORD, and he said, [k] Who am I, O Lord GOD? and what is my house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

19 And this was yet [m] a small thing in thy sight, O Lord GOD; but thou hast spoken also of thy servant's house for a great while to come. And is this the manner of man, O Lord GOD?

20 And what can David say more unto thee? for [d] thou, Lord GOD, knowest thy servant.

21 For thy word's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all these great things, to make thy servant know them.

22 Wherefore [g] thou art great, O LORD God: for [i] there is none like thee, [k] neither is there any God beside thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

23 And [m] what one nation in the earth is like thy people, even like Israel, whom God went [o] to redeem for a people to himself, and to make him a name, and to do for you great things and [p] terrible, for thy land, before thy people, which thou redeemedst to thee from Egypt, from the nations and their gods?

24 For [s] thou hast confirmed to thyself thy people Israel to be a people unto thee for ever: and thou, LORD, art become their God.

25 And now, O LORD God, the word that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, [z] establish it for ever, and do as thou hast said.

26 And [d] let thy name be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God over Israel: and let the house of thy servant David be established before thee.

27 For thou, O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, [f] hast revealed to thy servant, saying, I will build thee an house: therefore hath thy servant found in his heart to pray this prayer unto thee.

28 And now, O Lord GOD, thou art that God, and [h] thy words be true, and thou hast promised [i] this goodness unto thy servant:

29 Therefore now let it please thee [l] to bless the house of thy servant, that it may continue for ever before thee: for thou, O Lord GOD, hast spoken it: and with thy blessing let the house of thy servant be blessed for ever.

CHAPTER 8

995 B.C.

[b]AND after this it came to pass, that David [d]smote the Philistines, and subdued them: and David took [2]Mĕth-ĕg–ăm-măh out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And [f]he smote Moab, and measured them with a line, casting them down to the ground; even with two lines measured he to put to death, and with one full line to keep alive. And so [k]the Moabites [l]became David's servants, and [n]brought gifts.

3 ¶ David smote also [4]Hăd-ă-dē-zĕr, the son of Rehob, king of [o]Zobah, as he went to recover his border at the river [p]Eû-phrā-tēs.

4 And David took from him [q]a thousand chariots, and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: and David [t]houghed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them for an hundred chariots.

5 [z]And when the [a]Syrians of [b]Damascus came to succour Hăd-ă-dē-zĕr king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

6 Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus: and the Syrians became servants to David, and brought gifts. And [h]the LORD [7]preserved David whithersoever he went.

7 And David took [i]the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hăd-ă-dē-zĕr, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 [o]And from Betah, and from Bĕ-rō-thâi, cities of Hăd-ă-dē-zĕr, king David took exceeding much brass.

9 ¶ When [q]Tō-ī king of [r]Hamath heard that David had smitten all the host of Hăd-ă-dē-zĕr,

10 Then Tō-ī sent [8]Joram his son unto king David, to [9]salute him, and to [t]bless him, because he had fought against Hăd-ă-dē-zĕr, and smitten him: for Hadadezer had wars with Toi. And Joram brought with him vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and vessels of brass:

11 Which also king David did [x]dedicate unto the LORD, with the silver and [z]gold that he had dedicated of all nations which he subdued;

12 Of Syria, and of Moab, and of the children of [a]Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of [c]Ăm-ă-lĕk, and of the spoil of Hăd-ă-dē-zĕr, son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

13 And David [e]gat him a name when he returned from smiting of [3]the Syrians in [g]the valley of salt, being eighteen thousand men.

14 ¶ And he put garrisons in [h]Edom; throughout all Edom put he garrisons, [i]and all they of Edom became David's servants. [m]And the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

15 And David reigned over all Israel; and David executed judgment and justice unto all his people.

16 [r]And Joab the son of Zĕr-ū-ī-ăh was over the host; and [s]Jĕ-hŏsh-ă-phăt the son of Ă-hī-lŭd was [5]recorder;

17 And [u]Zadok the son of [x]Ă-hī-tŭb, and [y]Ă-hĭm-ĕ-lĕch the son of [c]Ă-bī-ă-thär, were the priests; and [d]Sĕ-râi-ăh was the [e]scribe;

18 And [f]Bĕ-nâi-ăh the son of Jĕ-hôi-ă-dă was over both the [g]Chĕr-ĕ-thītes and the Pĕl-ĕ-thītes; and David's sons were [6]chief rulers.

CHAPTER 9

AND David said, Is there yet any that is left of the house of Saul, [k]that I may [l]shew him kindness for [m]Jonathan's [n]sake?

2 And there was of the house of Saul a servant whose name was [p]Ziba. And when they had called him unto David, the king said unto him, Art thou Ziba? And he said, Thy servant is he.

3 And the king said, Is there not yet any of the house of Saul, that I may shew [s]the kindness of God unto him? And Ziba said unto the king, Jonathan hath yet a son, which is [u]lame on his feet.

4 And the king said unto him, Where is he? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he is in the house of [y]Mā-chĭr, the son of Ăm-mi-ĕl, in Lō'-dĕ-bär.

5 ¶ Then king David sent, and fetched him out of the house of Mā'-chĭr, the son of Ăm'-mĭ-ĕl, from Lō'-dĕ-bär.

6 Now when [a] Mĕ-phĭb'-ō-shĕth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, was come unto David, he fell on his face, and did reverence. And David said, Mephibosheth. And he answered, Behold thy servant!

7 ¶ And David said unto him, [b] Fear not: for I will surely shew thee kindness for Jonathan thy father's sake, and will restore thee all the land of Saul thy father; and thou shalt [d] eat bread at my table continually.

8 And he bowed himself, and said, What is thy servant, that thou shouldest look upon such [e] a dead dog as I am?

9 ¶ Then the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said unto him, [g] I have given unto thy master's son all that pertained to Saul and to all his house.

10 Thou therefore, and thy sons, and thy servants, shall till the land for him, and thou shalt bring in the fruits, that thy master's son may have food to eat: but Mĕ-phĭb'-ō-shĕth thy master's son shall eat bread alway at my table. Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

11 Then said Ziba unto the king, According to all that my lord the king hath commanded his servant, so shall thy servant do. As for Mĕ-phĭb'-ō-shĕth, said the king, he shall eat at my table, as one of the king's sons.

12 And Mĕ-phĭb'-ō-shĕth had a young son, whose name was [p] Mī'-chă. And all that dwelt in the house of Ziba were servants unto Mephibosheth.

13 So Mĕ-phĭb'-ō-shĕth dwelt in Jerusalem: for he did eat continually at the king's table; and was lame on both his feet.

CHAPTER 10

[r] AND it came to pass after this, that the king of the children of [s] Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his stead.

2 Then said David, I will [t] shew kindness unto Hanun the son of [u] Nahash, as his father shewed kindness unto me. And David sent to comfort him by the hand of his servants for his father. And David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon.

3 And the princes of the children of Ammon said unto Hanun their lord, Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? hath not David rather sent his servants unto thee, to search the city, and [c] to spy it out, and to overthrow it?

4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved off the one half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, [f] even to their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 When they told it unto David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed: and the king said, Tarry at [h] Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

6 ¶ And when the children of Ammon saw that they [i] stank before David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the [k] Syrians of [l] Beth-rē'-hŏb, and the Syrians of [m] Zoba, twenty thousand footmen, and of king [n] Mā'-ă-căh a thousand men, and of [o] Ish-tob twelve thousand men.

7 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.

8 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the entering in of the gate: and the Syrians of Zoba, and of Rehob, and Ish-tob, and Mā'-ă-căh, were by themselves in the field.

9 When Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians:

10 And the rest of the people he delivered into the hand of [q] Ăb'-ī-shâi his brother, that he might put them in array against the children of Ammon.

11 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will come and help thee.

12 [a]Be of good courage, and let us play the men for our people, and for the cities of our God: [c]and the LORD do that which seemeth him good.

13 And Joab drew nigh, and the people that were with him, unto the battle against the Syrians: and they fled before him.

14 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, then fled they also before Ăb'-ĭ-shaî, and entered into the city. So Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.

15 ¶ And when the Syrians saw that they were smitten before Israel, they gathered themselves together.

16 And [2]Hăd-ă-rē'-zĕr sent, and brought out the Syrians that were beyond the river: and they came to Helam; and [i]Shō'-băch the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them.

17 And when it was told David, he gathered all Israel together, and passed over Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in array against David, and fought with him.

18 And the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew the men of seven hundred chariots of the Syrians, and forty thousand horsemen, and smote Shō'-băch the captain of their host, who died there.

19 And when all the kings that were servants to Hăd-ă-rē'-zĕr saw that they were smitten before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and [l]served them. So the Syrians [n]feared to help the children of Ammon any more.

CHAPTER 11

[q]AND it came to pass, [r]after the year was expired, at the time when kings go forth to battle, that David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of [t]Ammon, and besieged [u]Rabbah. But David tarried still at Jerusalem.

2 ¶ And it came to pass in an eveningtide, that David arose from off his bed, and walked upon [x]the roof of the king's house: and from the roof he [b]saw a woman washing herself; and the woman was very [d]beautiful to look upon.

3 And David sent and enquired after the woman. And one said, Is not this [e]Bath-sheba, the daughter of Ē-lī'-ăm, the wife of [f]Ū-rī'-ăh the [g]Hittite?

4 And David sent messengers, and took her; and she came in unto him, and he lay with her; for she was purified [h]from her uncleanness: and she returned unto her house.

5 And the woman conceived, and sent and told David, and said, I am with child.

6 ¶ And David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Ū-rī'-ăh the Hittite. And Joab sent Uriah to David.

7 And when Ū-rī'-ăh was come unto him, David demanded of him how Joab did, and how the people did, and how the war prospered.

8 And David said to Ū-rī'-ăh, Go down to thy house, and [k]wash thy feet. And Uriah departed out of the king's house, and there followed him a mess of meat from the king.

9 But Ū-rī'-ăh slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and went not down to his house.

10 And when they had told David, saying, Ū-rī'-ăh went not down unto his house, David said unto Uriah, Camest thou not from thy journey? why then didst thou not go down unto thine house?

11 And Ū-rī'-ăh said unto David, [m]The ark, and Israel, and Judah, abide in tents; and my lord Joab, and [o]the servants of my lord, are encamped in the [p]open fields; shall I then go into mine house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? as thou livest, and [s]as thy soul liveth, I will not do this thing.

12 And David said to Ū-rī'-ăh, Tarry here to day also, and to morrow I will let thee depart. So Uriah abode in Jerusalem that day, and the morrow.

13 And when David had called him, he did eat and drink before him; and he made him drunk: and at even he went out to lie on his bed with the 14 ¶ And it came to pass in the morning, that David [a] wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Ū-rī'ăh.

15 And he wrote in the letter, saying, Set ye Ū-rī'ăh in the forefront of the hottest battle, and retire ye from him, [c] that he may be smitten, and die.

16 And it came to pass, when Joab observed the city, that he assigned Ū-rī'ăh unto a place where he knew that valiant men were.

17 And the men of the city went out, and fought with Joab: and there fell some of the people of the servants of David; and Ū-rī'ăh the Hittite died also.

18 ¶ Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war;

19 And charged the messenger, saying, When thou hast made an end of telling the matters of the war unto the king,

20 And if so be that the king's wrath arise, and he say unto thee, Wherefore approached ye so nigh unto the city when ye did fight? knew ye not that they would shoot from the wall?

21 Who smote Ă-bĭm'ĕ-lĕch the son of Jĕ-rŭb'bĕ-shĕth? [f] did not a woman cast a piece of a [g] millstone upon him from the wall, that he died in Thē'bĕz? why went ye nigh the wall? then say thou, Thy servant Ū-rī'ăh the Hittite is dead also.

22 ¶ So the messenger went, and came and shewed David all that Joab had sent him for.

23 And the messenger said unto David, Surely the men prevailed against us, and came out unto us into the field, and we were upon them even unto the entering of the gate.

24 And the shooters shot from off the wall upon thy servants; and some of the king's servants be dead, and thy servant Ū-rī'ăh the Hittite is dead also.

25 Then David said unto the messenger, Thus shalt thou say unto Joab, Let not this thing displease thee, for the sword devoureth one as well as another: make thy battle more strong against the city, and overthrow it: and encourage thou him.

[c] ch. 12. 9

26 ¶ And when the wife of Ū-rī'ăh heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she [b] mourned for her husband.

27 And when the mourning was past, [c] David sent and fetched her to his house, and she became his wife, and bare him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD.

CHAPTER 12

AND the LORD sent [d] Nathan unto David. And he came unto him, and said unto him, [e] There were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other poor.

[d] ch. 7. 2, 1 K. 1. 8, &c.

[e] [ch. 14. 5-7 Ju. 9. 8-15]

2 The rich man had exceeding many flocks and herds:

3 But the poor man had nothing, save one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and nourished up: and it grew up together with him, and with his children; it did eat of his own meat, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was unto him as a daughter.

4 And there came a traveller unto the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man that was come unto him; but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man that was come to him.

5 And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, [h] As the LORD liveth, the man that hath done this thing [2 i] shall surely die:

7 ¶ And Nathan said to David, Thou art the man. Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I [m] anointed thee king over Israel, and I delivered thee out of the hand of Saul;

[m] ch. 5. 3, 17 & 19. 10

8 And I gave thee thy master's house, and thy master's wives into thy bosom, and gave thee the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that had been too little, I would moreover have given unto thee such and such things.

9 Wherefore hast thou [a] despised the commandment of the LORD, [b] to do evil in his sight? [c] thou hast killed [d] Ū-rī′ăh the Hittite with the sword, and [e] hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon.

10 [h] Now therefore the sword shall never depart from thine house; because thou hast despised me, and hast taken the wife of Ū-rī′ăh the Hittite to be thy wife.

11 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will raise up evil against thee out of thine own house, and [i] I will take thy wives before thine eyes, and give them unto thy neighbour, and he shall lie with thy wives in the sight of this sun.

12 For [m] thou didst it secretly: but [n] I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun.

13 And David said unto Nathan, [o] I have sinned against the LORD. And Nathan said unto David, [q] The LORD also hath put away thy sin; thou shalt not die.

14 Howbeit, because by this deed thou hast given great occasion to the enemies of the LORD [u] to blaspheme, the child also that is born unto thee shall surely die.

15 ¶ And Nathan departed unto his house. And the LORD struck the child that Ū-rī′ăh's wife bare unto David, and it was very sick.

16 David therefore besought God for the child; and [a] David fasted, and went in, and [b] lay all night upon the earth.

17 And the elders of his house arose, and went to him, to raise him up from the earth: but he would not, neither did he eat bread with them.

18 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that the child died. And the servants of David [c] feared to tell him that the child was dead: for they said, Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spake unto him, and he would not hearken unto our voice: how will he then [4] vex himself, if we tell him that the child is dead?

19 But when David saw that his servants whispered, David perceived that the child was dead: therefore David said unto his servants, Is the child dead? And they said, He is dead.

20 Then David arose from the earth, and washed, and [f] anointed himself, and changed his apparel, and came into the house of the LORD, and [g] worshipped: then he came to his own house; and when he required, they set bread before him, and he did eat.

21 Then said his servants unto him, What thing is this that thou hast done? thou didst fast and weep for the child, while it was alive; but when the child was dead, thou didst rise and eat bread.

22 And he said, While the child was yet alive, I fasted and wept: for I said, [k] Who can tell whether GOD will [l] be gracious to me, that the child may live?

23 But now he is dead, wherefore should I fast? can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but [p] he shall not return to me.

24 ¶ And David comforted [r] Bath-sheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her: and she bare a son, [s] and he called his name [t] Solomon: and the LORD loved him.

25 And he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet; [x] and he called his name [2] Jĕd-ī-dī′ăh, because of the LORD.

26 ¶ [y] And Joab fought against [z] Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and took the royal city.

27 And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, I have fought against Rabbah, and have taken the city of waters.

28 Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and encamp against the city, and take it: lest I take the city, and it be called after my name.

29 And David gathered all the people together, and went to Rabbah, and fought against it, and took it.

30 And he took [3] their king's crown from off his head, the weight whereof was a talent of gold with the precious stones: and it was set on David's head. And he brought forth the spoil of the city in great abundance.

CHAPTER 13

AND it came to pass after this, that [b]Ăb'să-lŏm the son of David had a [c]fair sister, whose name was [e]Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her.

2 And [g]Amnon was so vexed, that he fell sick for his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin; and Amnon thought it hard for him to do any thing to her.

3 But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of [4]Shĭm'ĕ-ăh David's brother: and Jonadab was a very [h]subtil man.

4 And he said unto him, Why art thou, being the king's son, lean from day to day? wilt thou not tell me? And Amnon said unto him, I love Tamar, my brother Ăb'să-lŏm's sister.

5 And Jonadab said unto him, Lay thee down on thy bed, and make thyself sick: and when thy father cometh to see thee, say unto him, I pray thee, let my sister Tamar come, and give me meat, and dress the meat in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it at her hand.

6 ¶ So Amnon lay down, and made himself sick: and when the king was come to see him, Amnon said unto the king, I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come, and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat at her hand.

7 Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to thy brother Amnon's house, and dress him meat.

8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was laid down. And she took [6]flour, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes.

9 And she took a pan, and poured them out before him; but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, Have out all men from me. And they went out every man from him.

10 And Amnon said unto Tamar, Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand. And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother.

11 And when she had brought them unto him to eat, he [a]took hold of her, and said unto her, Come lie with me, my sister.

12 And she answered him, Nay, my brother, do not force me; for [d]no such thing ought to be done in Israel: do not thou this [f]folly.

13 And I, whither shall I cause my shame to go? and as for thee, thou shalt be as one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, I pray thee, speak unto the king; for he will not withhold me from thee.

14 Howbeit he would not hearken unto her voice: but, being stronger than she, forced her, and lay with her.

15 ¶ Then Amnon [i]hated her exceedingly; so that the hatred wherewith he hated her was greater than the love wherewith he had loved her. And Amnon said unto her, Arise, be gone.

16 And she said unto him, There is no cause: this evil in sending me away is greater than the other that thou didst unto me. But he would not hearken unto her.

17 Then he called his servant that ministered unto him, and said, Put now this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her.

18 And she had a [5k]garment of divers colours upon her: for with such robes were the king's daughters that were virgins apparelled. Then his servant brought her out, and bolted the door after her.

19 ¶ And Tamar [l]put ashes on her head, and [m]rent her garment of divers colours that was on her, and [n]laid her hand on her head, and went on crying.

20 And Ăb'să-lŏm her brother said unto her, Hath Amnon thy brother been with thee? but hold now thy peace, my sister: he is thy brother; regard not this thing. So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom's house.

21 ¶ But when king David heard of all these things, he was very wroth.

22 And Ăb'să-lŏm spake unto his brother Amnon [a]neither good nor bad: for Absalom [c]hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

23 ¶ And it came to pass after two full years, that Ăb'să-lŏm had [e]sheepshearers in Bā'ăl-hazor, which is beside Ē'phrăĭm: and Absalom invited all the king's sons.

24 And Ăb'să-lŏm came to the king, and said, Behold now, thy servant hath sheepshearers; let the king, I beseech thee, and his servants go with thy servant.

25 And the king said to Ăb'să-lŏm, Nay, my son, let us not all now go, lest we be chargeable unto thee. And he pressed him: howbeit he would not go, but [g]blessed him.

26 Then said Ăb'să-lŏm, If not, I pray thee, let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said unto him, Why should he go with thee?

27 But Ăb'să-lŏm pressed him, that he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.

28 ¶ Now Ăb'să-lŏm had commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon's heart [m]is merry with wine, and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon; then kill him, fear not: have not I commanded you? be courageous, and be valiant.

29 And the servants of Ăb'să-lŏm did unto Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and every man gat him up upon his mule, and fled.

30 ¶ And it came to pass, while they were in the way, that tidings came to David, saying, Ăb'să-lŏm hath slain all the king's sons, and there is not one of them left.

31 Then the king arose, and tare his garments, and [u]lay on the earth; and all his servants stood by with their clothes rent.

32 And Jonadab, the son of Shĭm'ĕ-ăh David's brother, answered and said, Let not my lord suppose that they have slain all the young men the king's sons; for Amnon only is dead: for by the appointment of Ăb'să-lŏm this hath been determined from the day that he forced his sister Tamar.

33 Now therefore let not my lord the king [b]take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king's sons are dead: for Amnon only is dead.

34 But Ăb'să-lŏm fled. And the young man that [d]kept the watch lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came much people by the way of the hill side behind him.

35 And Jonadab said unto the king, Behold, the king's sons come: as thy servant said, so it is.

36 And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of speaking, that, behold, the king's sons came, and [f]lifted up their voice and wept: and the king also and all his servants wept very sore.

37 ¶ But Ăb'să-lŏm fled, and went to [h]Tăl'mâĭ, the son of [2]Ăm'mĭhŭd, king of [i]Geshur. And David mourned for his son every day.

38 So Ăb'să-lŏm fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three years.

39 [k]And the soul of king David longed to go forth unto Ăb'să-lŏm: for [l]he was comforted concerning Amnon, seeing he was dead.

CHAPTER 14

NOW Joab the son of Zĕr-ū-ī'ăh perceived that [n]the king's heart was toward [o]Ăb'să-lŏm.

am indeed a widow woman, and mine husband is dead.

6 And thy handmaid had two sons, and they two strove together in the field, and there was none to part them, but the one smote the other, and slew him.

7 And, behold, the whole family is risen against thine handmaid, and they said, Deliver him that smote his brother, that we may kill him, for the life of his brother whom he slew; and we will destroy the heir also: and so they shall quench my coal which is left, and shall not leave to my husband [e] neither name nor remainder upon the earth.

8 And the king said unto the woman, Go to thine house, and I will give charge concerning thee.

9 And the woman of Tĕ-kō'ăh said unto the king, My lord, O king, [f] the iniquity be on me, and on my father's house: and the king and his throne be guiltless.

10 And the king said, Whosoever saith ought unto thee, bring him to me, and he shall not touch thee any more.

11 Then said she, I pray thee, let the king remember the LORD thy God, that thou wouldest not suffer the [i] revengers of blood to destroy any more, lest they destroy my son. And he said, [l] As the LORD liveth, [n] there shall not one hair of thy son fall to the earth.

12 Then the woman said, Let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak one word unto my lord the king. And he said, Say on.

13 And the woman said, Wherefore then hast thou thought such a thing against [p] the people of God? for the king doth speak this thing as one which is faulty, in that the king doth not fetch home again [r] his banished.

14 For we must needs die, and are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again; neither doth God [4] respect any person: yet doth he [t] devise means, that his banished be not expelled from him.

15 Now therefore that I am come to speak of this thing unto my lord the king, it is because the people have made me afraid: and thy handmaid said, I will now speak unto the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his handmaid.

16 For the king will hear, to deliver his handmaid out of the hand of the man that would destroy me and my son together out of [a] the inheritance of God.

17 Then thine handmaid said, The word of my lord the king shall now be [2] comfortable: for [b] as an angel of God, so is my lord the king [c] to discern good and bad: therefore [d] the LORD thy God will be with thee.

18 Then the king answered and said unto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall ask thee. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speak.

19 And the king said, Is not the hand of Joab with thee in all this? And the woman answered and said, [g] As thy soul liveth, my lord the king, none can turn to the right hand or to the left from ought that my lord the king hath spoken: for thy servant Joab, he bade me, and [h] he put all these words in the mouth of thine handmaid:

20 To fetch about this form of speech hath thy servant Joab done this thing: and [k] my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, [m] to know all things that are in the earth.

21 ¶ And the king said unto Joab, Behold now, I have done this thing: go therefore, bring the young man Ăb'să-lŏm again.

22 And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himself, and [3] [o] thanked the king: and Joab said, To day thy servant knoweth that I have [q] found grace in thy sight, my lord, O king, in that the king hath fulfilled the request of his servant.

23 So Joab arose and went to [s] Geshur, and brought Ăb'să-lŏm to Jerusalem.

24 And the king said, Let him turn to his own house, and [u] let him not see my face. So Ăb'să-lŏm returned to his own house, and saw not the king's face.

25 ¶ But in all Israel there was none to be so much praised as Ăb'ă-lŏm for his beauty: [b] from the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him.

26 And when he polled his head, (for it was at every year's end that he [d] polled it: because the hair was heavy on him, therefore he polled it:) he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred [e] shē'kĕls after the king's weight.

27 And [g] unto Ăb'ă-lŏm there were born three sons, and one daughter, whose name was Tamar: she was a woman of a [h] fair countenance.

28 ¶ So Ăb'ă-lŏm dwelt two full years in Jerusalem, and saw not the king's face.

29 Therefore Ăb'ă-lŏm sent for Joab, to have sent him to the king; but he would not come to him: and when he sent again the second time, he would not come.

30 Therefore he said unto his servants, See, Joab's field is near mine, and he hath [l] barley there; go and [n] set it on fire. And Ăb'ă-lŏm's servants set the field on fire.

31 Then Joab arose, and came to Ăb'ă-lŏm unto his house, and said unto him, Wherefore have thy servants set my field on fire?

32 And Ăb'ă-lŏm answered Joab, Behold, I sent unto thee, saying, Come hither, that I may send thee to the king, to say, Wherefore am I come from Geshur? it had been good for me to have been there still: now therefore let me see the king's face; and [t] if there be any iniquity in me, let him kill me.

33 So Joab came to the king, and told him: and when he had called for Ăb'ă-lŏm, he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king: and the king [y] kissed Absalom.

CHAPTER 15

AND it came to pass after this, that Ăb'ă-lŏm prepared him [c] chariots and horses, and fifty men to run before him.

2 And Ăb'ă-lŏm rose up early, and stood beside the way of [a] the gate: and it was so, that when any man that had [c] a controversy came to the king for judgment, then Absalom called unto him, and said, Of what city art thou? And he said, Thy servant is of one of the tribes of Israel.

3 And Ăb'ă-lŏm said unto him, See, thy matters are good and right; but there is no man deputed of the king to hear thee.

4 Ăb'ă-lŏm said moreover, [f] Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man which hath any suit or cause might come unto me, and I would do him justice!

5 And it was so, that when any man came nigh to him to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took him, and [i] kissed him.

6 And on this manner did Ăb'ă-lŏm to all Israel that came to the king for judgment: so Absalom [k] stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

7 ¶ And it came to pass after [z] forty years, that Ăb'ă-lŏm said unto the king, I pray thee, let me go and [m] pay my vow, which I have vowed unto the LORD, in [o] Hebron.

8 For thy servant [p] vowed a vow while I abode at [q] Geshur in Syria, saying, If the LORD shall bring me again indeed to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD.

9 And the king said unto him, [r] Go in peace. So he arose, and went to Hebron.

10 ¶ But Ăb'ă-lŏm sent [s] spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, As soon as ye hear the sound of [u] the trumpet, then ye shall say, Absalom reigneth in Hebron.

11 And with Ăb'ă-lŏm went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, that were called; and they went [x] in their simplicity, and they knew not any thing.

12 And Ăb'ă-lŏm sent for [z] Ă-hĭth'ŏ-phĕl the Gī'lō-nīte, [a] David's counsellor, from his city, even from [b] Giloh, while he offered sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong; for the people [d] increased continually with Absalom.

to David, saying, [a] The hearts of the men of Israel are after Ăb'să-lŏm.

14 And David said unto all his servants that were with him at Jerusalem, Arise, and let us [e] flee; for we shall not else escape from Ăb'să-lŏm: make speed to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly, and bring evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword.

15 And the king's servants said unto the king, Behold, thy servants are ready to do whatsoever my lord the king shall appoint.

16 And the king went forth, and all his household [l] after him. And the king [m] left ten women, which were concubines, to keep the house.

17 And the king went forth, and all the people after him, and tarried [3] in a place that was far off.

18 And all his servants passed on beside him; and all the [o] Chĕr'ĕ-thītes, and all the Pĕl'ĕ-thītes, and all the Gittites, six hundred men which came after him from [q] Gath, passed on before the king.

19 ¶ Then said the king to [r] Ĭt-tā'ī the Gittite, Wherefore goest thou also with us? return to thy place, and abide with the king: for thou art a stranger, and also an exile.

20 Whereas thou camest but yesterday, should I this day make thee go up and down with us? seeing I go [x] whither I may, return thou, and take back thy brethren: mercy and truth be with thee.

21 And Ĭt-tā'ī answered the king, and said, [z] As the LORD liveth, and as my lord the king liveth, [a] surely in what place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there also will thy servant be.

22 And David said to Ĭt-tā'ī, Go and pass over. And Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones that were with him.

23 And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed over: the king also himself passed over the brook [h] Kidron, and all the people passed over, toward the [k] way of the wilderness.

24 ¶ And lo [l] Zadok also, and all the Levites were with him, [b] bearing the ark of the covenant of God: and they set down [c] the ark of God; and [d] Ă-bī'ă-thär went up, until all the people had done passing out of the city.

25 And the king said unto Zadok, Carry back the ark of God into the city: [f] if I shall find favour in the eyes of the LORD, he will [g] bring me again, and shew me both it, and [h] his habitation:

26 But if he thus say, [i] I have no delight in thee; behold, here am I, [k] let him do to me as seemeth good unto him.

27 The king said also unto Zadok the priest, [2] Art not thou a seer? return into the city in peace, and your two sons with you, [n] Ă-hī'mă-ăz thy son, and [n] Jonathan the son of Ă-bī'ă-thär.

28 See, I will tarry [4] [p] in the plain of the wilderness, until there come word from you to certify me.

29 Zadok therefore and Ă-bī'ă-thär carried the ark of God again to Jerusalem: and they tarried there.

30 ¶ And David went up by the ascent of [s] mount Olivet, and wept as he went up, and [t] had his head covered, and he went [u] barefoot: and all the people that was with him covered every man his head, and they went up, weeping as they went up.

31 ¶ And one told David, saying, Ă-hĭth'ŏ-phĕl is among the conspirators with Ăb'să-lŏm. And David said, O LORD, I pray thee, [y] turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness.

32 ¶ And it came to pass, that when David was come to the top of the mount, where he [b] worshipped God, behold, [c] Hū'shâi [d] the Ăr'chīte came to meet him with his [e] coat rent, and [f] earth upon his head:

33 Unto whom David said, If thou passest on with me, then thou shalt be [g] a burden unto me:

34 But if thou return to the city, and say unto Ăb'să-lŏm, [i] I will be thy servant, O king; as I have been thy father's servant hitherto, so will I now also be thy servant: then mayest thou for me defeat the counsel of Ă-hĭth'ŏ-phĕl.

35 And hast thou not there with thee Zadok and Ă-bī'ă-thär the priests? therefore it shall be, that what thing soever thou shalt hear out of the king's house, [b] thou shalt tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests.

36 Behold, they have there with them their two sons, Ă-hī'mă-ăz Zadok's son, and Jonathan Ă-bī'ă-thär's son; and by them ye shall send unto me every thing that ye can hear.

37 So Hū'shâi [e] David's friend came into the city, [f] and Ăb'să-lŏm came into Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 16

AND when David was a little past [i] the top of the hill, behold, [l] Ziba the servant of [m] Mĕ-phĭb'ŏ-shĕth met him, with a couple of asses saddled, and upon them two hundred loaves of bread, and an hundred bunches of [o] raisins, and an hundred of summer fruits, and a bottle of wine.

2 And the king said unto Ziba, What meanest thou by these? And Ziba said, [q] The asses be for the king's household to ride on; and the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat; and the wine, that such as be faint [t] in the wilderness may drink.

3 And the king said, And where is thy master's son? [x] And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he abideth at Jerusalem: for he said, To day shall the house of Israel restore me the kingdom of my father.

4 Then said the king to Ziba, Behold, [y] thine are all that pertained unto Mĕ-phĭb'ŏ-shĕth. And Ziba said, I humbly beseech thee that I may [z] find grace in thy sight, my lord, O king.

5 ¶ And when king David came to [c] Bă-hū'rĭm, behold, thence came out a man of the family of the house of Saul, whose name was [e] Shĭm'ĕ-ī, the son of Gera: he came forth, and [g] cursed still as he came.

6 And he cast stones at David, and at all the servants of king David: and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left.

7 And thus said Shĭm'ĕ-ī when he cursed, Come out, come out, thou bloody man, and thou [a] man of Bē'lĭ-ăl:

8 The LORD [c] hath returned upon thee all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose stead thou hast reigned; and the LORD hath delivered the kingdom into the hand of [d] Ăb'să-lŏm thy son: and, behold, thou art taken in thy mischief, because thou art a bloody man.

9 ¶ Then said [g] Ăb'ī-shâi the son of Zĕr-ū-ī'ăh unto the king, Why should this [h] dead dog curse my lord the king? let me go over, I pray thee, and take off his head.

10 And the king said, [k] What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zĕr-ū-ī'ăh? so let him curse, [n] because the LORD hath said unto him, Curse David. Who shall then say, Wherefore hast thou done so?

11 And David said to Ăb'ī-shâi, and to all his servants, Behold, my son, which [p] came forth of my bowels, seeketh my life: how much more now may this Benjamite do it? [r] let him alone, and let him curse; for the LORD hath bidden him.

12 It may be that the LORD [s] will look on mine affliction, and that the LORD will [u] requite me good for his cursing this day.

13 And as David and his men went by the way, Shĭm'ĕ-ī went along on the hill's side over against him, and cursed as he went, and threw stones at him, and cast dust.

14 And the king, and all the people that were with him, came weary, and refreshed themselves there.

15 ¶ And [a] Ăb'să-lŏm, and all the people the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and [b] Ă-hĭth'ŏ-phĕl with him.

16 And it came to pass, when [d] Hū'shâi the Ăr'chīte, [f] David's friend, was come unto Ăb'să-lŏm, that Hushai said unto Absalom, [h] God save the king, God save the king.

17 And Ăb'să-lŏm said to Hū'shâi, Is this thy kindness to thy friend?

[a] why wentest thou not with thy friend?

18 And Hū'shâi said unto Ăb'să-lŏm, Nay; but whom the LORD, and this people, and all the men of Israel, choose, his will I be, and with him will I abide.

19 And again, [b] whom should I serve? should I not serve in the presence of his son? as I have served in thy father's presence, so will I be in thy presence.

20 ¶ Then said Ăb'să-lŏm to Ă-hĭth'ŏ-phĕl, Give counsel among you what we shall do.

21 And Ă-hĭth'ŏ-phĕl said unto Ăb'să-lŏm, Go in unto [d] thy father's concubines, which he hath left to keep the house; and all Israel shall hear that thou art [e] abhorred of thy father: then shall [f] the hands of all that are with thee be strong.

22 So they spread Ăb'să-lŏm a tent upon the [i] top of the house; and [k] Absalom went in [l] unto his father's concubines [m] in the sight of all Israel.

23 [n] And the counsel of Ă-hĭth'ŏ-phĕl, which he counselled in those days, was as if a man had enquired at the oracle of God: [q] so was all the counsel of Ahithophel both with David and with Ăb'să-lŏm.

CHAPTER 17

MOREOVER [r] Ă-hĭth'ŏ-phĕl said unto [t] Ăb'să-lŏm, Let me now choose out twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David this night:

2 And I will come upon him [u] while he is weary and [x] weak handed, and will make him afraid: and all the people that are with him shall flee; and [y] I will smite the king only:

3 And I will bring back all the people unto thee: the man whom thou seekest is as if all returned: so all the people shall be in peace.

4 And the saying pleased Ăb'să-lŏm well, and all the [a] elders of Israel.

5 Then said Ăb'să-lŏm, Call now [b] Hū'shâi the Ăr'chīte also, and let us hear likewise what he saith.

6 And when Hū'shâi was come to Ăb'să-lŏm, Absalom spake unto him, saying, Ă-hĭth'ŏ-phĕl hath spoken after this manner: shall we do after his saying? if not; speak thou.

7 And Hū'shâi said unto Ăb'să-lŏm, The counsel that Ă-hĭth'ŏ-phĕl hath given is not good at this time.

8 For, said Hū'shâi, thou knowest thy father and his men, that they be mighty men, and they be [2] [c] chafed in their minds, as a bear robbed of her whelps in the field: and thy father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people.

9 Behold, he is hid now in some pit, or in some other place: and it will come to pass, when some of them be overthrown at the first, that whosoever heareth it will say, There is a slaughter among the people that follow Ăb'să-lŏm.

10 And he also that is valiant, [g] whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall utterly [h] melt: for all Israel knoweth that thy father is a mighty man, and they which be with him are valiant men.

11 Therefore I counsel that all Israel be generally gathered unto thee, [o] from Dan even to Beer–sheba, [p] as the sand that is by the sea for multitude; and that thou go to battle in thine own person.

12 So shall we come upon him in some place where he shall be found, and we will light upon him as [s] the dew falleth on the ground: and of him and of all the men that are with him there shall not be left so much as one.

13 Moreover, if he be gotten into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not one small stone found there.

14 And Ăb'să-lŏm and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hū'shâi the Ăr'chīte is better than the counsel of Ă-hĭth'ŏ-phĕl. [z] For the LORD had appointed to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring evil upon Absalom.

15 ¶ [c] Then said Hū'shâi unto [d] Zadok and to [e] Ă-bī'ă-thär the priests, Thus and thus did Ă-hĭth'ŏ-phĕl counsel Ăb'să-lŏm and the elders of Israel; and thus and thus have I counselled.

16 Now therefore send quickly, and tell David, saying, Lodge not this night in [c] the [2]plains of the wilderness, but speedily pass over; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people that are with him.

17 Now [d] Jonathan and [e] Ă-hī′mă-ăz stayed by [f] En–rō′gĕl; for they might not be seen to come into the city: and a wench went and told them; and they went and told king David.

18 Nevertheless a lad saw them, and told Ăb′să-lŏm: but they went both of them away quickly, and came to a man's house in [l] Bă-hū′rĭm, which had [m] a well in his court; whither they went down.

19 And [p] the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground corn thereon; and the thing was not known.

20 And when Ăb′să-lŏm's servants came to the woman to the house, they said, Where is Ă-hī′mă-ăz and Jonathan? And the woman said unto them, They be gone over the brook of water. And when they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

21 And it came to pass, after they were departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told king David, and said unto David, Arise, and pass quickly over the water: for thus hath Ă-hĭth′ō-phĕl counselled against you.

22 Then David arose, and all the people that were with him, and they [a] passed over Jordan: by the morning light there lacked not one of them that was not gone over Jordan.

23 ¶ And when Ă-hĭth′ō-phĕl saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his ass, and arose, and gat him home to his house, to his city, and [c] put his household in order, and [d] hanged himself, and died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his father.

24 Then David came to [e] Mā-hă-nā′ĭm. And Ăb′să-lŏm passed over Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him.

25 ¶ And Ăb′să-lŏm made [a] Ă-mā′să captain of the host instead of Joab: which Amasa was a man's son, whose name was [b] Ĭth′rā an Israelite, that went in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister to Zĕr-ū-ī′ăh Joab's mother.

26 So Israel and Ăb′să-lŏm pitched in the land of Gĭl′ĕ-ăd.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, when David was come to Mā-hă-nā′ĭm, that Shobi the son of [g] Nahash of [h] Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and [i] Mā′chĭr the son of Ăm′mĭ-ĕl of Lō′-dĕ-bär, and [k] Bär-zĭl-lā′ī the Gĭl′ĕ-ăd-īte of Rō′gĕ-lĭm,

AND David numbered the people that were with him, and set [u] captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them.

2 And David sent forth a third part of the people under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of [x] Ăb′ī-shaî the son of Zĕr-ū-ī′ăh, Joab's brother, and [y] a third part under the hand of [z] Ĭt-tā′ī the Gittite. 4 And the king said unto them, What seemeth you best I will do. And the king stood by [f] the gate side, and all the people came out by hundreds and by thousands.

and Ăb'ī-shâi and Ĭt-tā'ī, saying, Deal gently for my sake with the young man, even with [a] Ăb'să-lŏm. And [c] all the people heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom.

6 ¶ So the people went out into the field against Israel: and the battle was in [d] the wood of Ē'phrăim;

7 Where the people of Israel were slain before the servants of David, and there was there a great slaughter that day of twenty thousand men.

8 For the battle was there scattered over the face of all the country: and the wood devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

9 ¶ And Ăb'să-lŏm met the servants of David. And Absalom rode upon a mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and his head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up between the heaven and the earth; and the mule that was under him went away.

10 And a certain man saw it, and told Joab, and said, Behold, I saw Ăb'să-lŏm hanged in an oak.

11 And Joab said unto the man that told him, And, behold, thou sawest him, and why didst thou not smite him there to the ground? and I would have given thee ten shē'kĕls of silver, and a girdle.

12 And the man said unto Joab, Though I should receive a thousand shē'kĕls of silver in mine hand, yet would I not put forth mine hand against the king's son: for [m] in our hearing the king charged thee and Ăb'ī-shâi and Ĭt-tā'ī, saying, Beware that none touch the young man Ăb'să-lŏm.

13 Otherwise [4] I should have wrought falsehood against mine own life: for [p] there is no matter hid from the king, and thou thyself wouldest have set thyself against me.

14 Then said Joab, I may not tarry thus with thee. And he took three darts in his hand, and thrust them through the heart of Ăb'să-lŏm, while he was yet alive in the midst of the oak.

15 And ten young men that bare Joab's armour compassed about and smote Ăb'să-lŏm, and slew him.

16 And Joab [b] blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Joab [2] held back the people.

17 And they took Ăb'să-lŏm, and cast him into a great pit in the wood, and [e] laid a very great heap of stones upon him: and all Israel [f] fled every one to his tent.

18 ¶ Now Ăb'să-lŏm in his lifetime had taken and reared up for himself a [g] pillar, which is in the [h] king's dale: for he said, [i] I have no son to keep my name in remembrance: and he called the pillar after his own name: and it is called unto this day, Absalom's place.

19 ¶ Then said [k] Ă-hī'mă-ăz the son of [l] Zadok, Let me now run, and bear the king tidings, how that the LORD hath avenged him of his enemies.

20 And Joab said unto him, Thou shalt not bear tidings this day, but thou shalt bear tidings another day: but this day thou shalt bear no tidings, because the king's son is dead.

21 Then said Joab to Cū'shī, Go tell the king what thou hast seen. And Cushi bowed himself unto Joab, and ran.

22 Then said Ă-hī'mă-ăz the son of Zadok yet again to Joab, But howsoever, let me, I pray thee, also run after Cū'shī. And Joab said, Wherefore wilt thou run, my son, seeing that [3] thou hast no tidings ready?

23 But howsoever, said he, let me run. And he said unto him, Run. Then Ă-hī'mă-ăz ran by the way of [n] the plain, and overran Cū'shī.

24 And David sat between the two gates: and [o] the watchman went up to the roof over the gate unto the wall, and lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold a man running alone.

25 And the watchman cried, and told the king. And the king said, If he be alone, there is tidings in his mouth. And he came apace, and drew near.

26 And the watchman saw another man running: and the watchman called unto the porter, and said, Be-

27 And the watchman said, Me thinketh the running of the foremost is [c] like the running of Ă-hī'mă-ăz the son of Zadok. And the king said, [d] He is a good man, and cometh with good tidings.

28 And Ă-hī'mă-ăz called, and said unto the king, All is well. And he fell down to the earth upon his face before the king, and said, [e] Blessed be the LORD thy God, which hath delivered up the men that lifted up their hand against my lord the king.

29 And the king said, Is the young man Ăb'să-lŏm safe? And Ă-hī'mă-ăz answered, When Joab sent the king's servant, and me thy servant, I saw a great tumult, but I knew not what it was.

30 And the king said unto him, Turn aside, and stand here. And he turned aside, and stood still.

31 And, behold, Cū'shī came; and Cushi said, Tidings, my lord the king: for the LORD hath avenged thee this day of all them that rose up against thee.

32 And the king said unto Cū'shī, Is the young man Ăb'să-lŏm safe? And Cushi answered, [k] The enemies of my lord the king, and all that rise against thee to do thee hurt, be as that young man is.

33 ¶ And the king was much moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept: and as he went, thus he said, [n] O my son Ăb'să-lŏm, my son, my son Absalom! would God I had died for thee, O Absalom, my son, my son!

CHAPTER 19

AND it was told Joab, Behold, the king weepeth and [r] mourneth for [t] Ăb'să-lŏm.

2 And the victory that day was turned into mourning unto all the people: for the people heard say that day how the king was grieved for his son.

3 And the people gat them by stealth that day into the city, as people being ashamed steal away when they flee in battle.

4 But the king [a] covered his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, [b] O my son Ăb'să-lŏm, O Absalom, my son, my son!

5 And Joab came into the house to the king, and said, Thou hast shamed this day the faces of all thy servants, which this day have saved thy life, and the lives of thy sons and of thy daughters, and the lives of thy wives, and the lives of thy concubines;

6 In that thou lovest thine enemies, and hatest thy friends. For thou hast declared this day, that thou regardest neither princes nor servants: for this day I perceive, that if Ăb'să-lŏm had lived, and all we had died this day, then it had pleased thee well.

7 Now therefore arise, go forth, and [f] speak comfortably unto thy servants: for I [g] swear by the LORD, if thou go not forth, there will not tarry one with thee this night: and that will be worse unto thee than all the evil that befell thee from thy youth until now.

8 Then the king arose, and sat [h] in the gate. And they told unto all the people, saying, Behold, the king doth sit in the gate. And all the people came before the king: for Israel [i] had fled every man to his tent.

9 ¶ And all the people were at strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, The king saved us [l] out of the hand of our enemies, and he delivered us out of the hand of the Philistines; and now [m] he is fled out of the land for Ăb'să-lŏm.

10 And Ăb'să-lŏm, whom we [o] anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore why speak ye not a word of bringing the king back?

11 ¶ And king David sent to [p] Zadok and to [q] Ă-bī'ă-thär the priests, saying, Speak unto the [s] elders of Judah, saying, Why are ye the last to bring the king back to his house? seeing the speech of all Israel is come to the king, even to his house.

12 [u] Ye are my brethren, ye are my bones and my flesh: wherefore then are ye the last to bring back the king?

978 B.C.

13 And say ye to [a] Ă-mā'-să, Art thou not of my bone, and of my flesh? [c] God do so to me, and more also, if thou be not captain of the host before me continually in the room of Joab.

14 And he bowed the heart of all the [f] men of Judah, [g] even as the heart of one man; so that they sent this word unto the king, Return thou, and all thy servants.

15 So the king returned, and came to Jordan. And Judah came to [h] Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to conduct the king [k] over Jordan.

16 ¶ And [l] Shĭm'-ĕ-ī the son of Gera, a Benjamite, which was of [m] Bă-hū'-rĭm, hasted and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David.

17 And there were a thousand men of [p] Benjamin with him, and [q] Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they went over Jordan before the king.

18 And [2] there went over a ferry boat to carry over the king's household, and to do what he thought good. And Shĭm'-ĕ-ī the son of Gera fell down before the king, as he was come over Jordan;

19 And said unto the king, [x] Let not my lord impute iniquity unto me, neither do thou remember that which thy servant did perversely the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should [z] take it to his heart.

20 For thy servant doth know that I have sinned: therefore, behold, I am come the first this day of all [a] the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king.

21 But [c] Ăb'-ī-shâi the son of Zĕr-ū-ī'-ăh answered and said, Shall not Shĭm'-ĕ-ī be put to death for this, because he [d] cursed [e] the LORD's anointed?

22 And David said, [g] What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zĕr-ū-ī'-ăh, that ye should this day be adversaries unto me? [i] shall there any man be put to death this day in Israel? for do not I know that I am this day king over Israel?

23 Therefore the king said unto Shĭm'-ĕ-ī, Thou shalt not die. [b] And the king sware unto him.

24 ¶ And [d] Mĕ-phĭb'-ō-shĕth the son of Saul came down to meet the king, and had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor [e] washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came again in peace.

25 And it came to pass, when he was come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said unto him, [i] Wherefore wentest not thou with me, Mĕ-phĭb'-ō-shĕth?

26 And he answered, My lord, O king, my servant [n] deceived me: for thy servant said, I will saddle me an ass, that I may ride thereon, and go to the king; because [o] thy servant is lame.

27 And [r] he hath slandered thy servant unto my lord the king; but my lord the king is [s] as an angel of God: do therefore what is good in thine eyes.

28 For all of my father's house were but [3] t dead men before my lord the king: yet didst thou set thy servant among them that [u] did eat at thine own table. What right therefore have I yet to cry any more unto the king?

29 And the king said unto him, Why speakest thou any more of thy matters? I have said, [y] Thou and Ziba divide the land.

30 And Mĕ-phĭb'-ō-shĕth said unto the king, Yea, let him take all, forasmuch as my lord the king is come again in peace unto his own house.

31 ¶ And [b] Bär-zĭl-lā'-ī the Gĭl'-ĕ-ăd-īte came down from Rō'-gĕ-lĭm, and went over Jordan with the king, to conduct him over Jordan.

32 Now Bär-zĭl-lā'-ī was a very aged man, even fourscore years old: and [f] he had provided the king of sustenance while he lay at [h] Mā-hă-nā'-ĭm; for he was a very great man.

33 And the king said unto Bär-zĭl-lā'-ī, Come thou over with me, and I will feed thee with me in Jerusalem.

34 And Bär-zĭl-lā'-ī said unto the king, How long have I to live, that I should go up with the king unto Jerusalem?

35 I am this day [b] fourscore years old: and can I discern between good and evil? can thy servant taste what I eat or what I drink? can I hear any more the voice of singing men and singing women? wherefore then should thy servant be [c] yet a burden unto my lord the king?

36 Thy servant will go a little way over Jordan with the king: and why should the king recompense it me with such a reward?

37 Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, and be buried by the grave of my father and of my mother. But behold thy servant [h] Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what shall seem good unto thee.

38 And the king answered, Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good unto thee: and whatsoever thou shalt require of me, that will I do for thee.

39 And all the people went over Jordan. And when the king was come over, the king [m] kissed Bär-zĭl-lā'ī, and [n] blessed him; and he returned unto his own place.

40 Then the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him: and all the people of Judah conducted the king, and also half the people of Israel.

41 ¶ And, behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said unto the king, Why have our brethren the men of Judah stolen thee away, and have brought the king, and his household, and all David's men with him, over Jordan?

42 And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is near of kin to us: wherefore then be ye angry for this matter? have we eaten at all of the king's cost? or hath he given us any gift?

43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, We have [u] ten parts in the king, and we have also more right in David than ye: [a] why then did ye despise us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king? And the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

CHAPTER 20

AND there happened to be there a [d] man of Bĕ'lī-ăl, whose name was Sheba, the son of Bĭch'rī, a Benjamite: and he [e] blew a trumpet, and said, [f] We have no part in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: [g] every man to his tents, O Israel.

2 So every man of Israel went up from after David, and followed Sheba the son of Bĭch'rī: but [i] the men of Judah clave unto their king, from Jordan even to Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And David came to his house at Jerusalem; and the king took [k] the ten women his concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in ward, and fed them, but went not in unto them. So they were shut up unto the day of their death, living in widowhood.

4 ¶ Then said the king to [l] Ă-mā'să, Assemble me the men of Judah within [o] three days, and be thou here present.

5 So Ă-mā'să went to assemble the men of Judah: but he tarried longer than the set time which he had appointed him.

6 And David said to [p] Ăb'ī-shâi, Now shall Sheba the son of Bĭch'rī do us more harm than did [q] Ăb'să-lom: take thou [r] thy lord's servants, and pursue after him, lest he get him fenced cities, and escape us.

7 And there went out after him Joab's men, and the [s] Chĕr'ĕ-thītes, and the Pĕl'ĕ-thītes, and all the mighty men: and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bĭch'rī.

8 When they were at the great stone which is in [t] Gibeon, Ă-mā'să went before them. And Joab's garment that he had put on was girded unto him, and upon it a girdle with a sword fastened upon his loins in the sheath thereof; and as he went forth it fell out.

9 And Joab said to Ă-mā'să, Art thou in health, my brother? And Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand [c] to kiss him.

10 But Ă-mā'să took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand: so he [d] smote him therewith in the fifth rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and struck him not again; and he died. So Joab and Ăb'ī-shâi his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bĭch'rī.

11 And one of Joab's men stood by him, and said, He that favoureth Joab, and he that is for David, let him go after Joab.

12 And Ă-mā'să wallowed in blood in the midst of the highway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a cloth upon him, when he saw that every one that came by him stood still.

13 When he was removed out of the highway, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bĭch'rī.

14 ¶ And he went through all the tribes of Israel unto [m] Abel, and to Beth-mā'ă-chăh, and all the Bē'rītes: and they were gathered together, and went also after him.

15 And they came and besieged him in Abel of Beth-mā'ă-chăh, and they [q] cast up a bank against the city, and it stood in the trench: and all the people that were with Joab battered the wall, to throw it down.

16 ¶ Then cried a [t] wise woman out of the city, Hear, hear; say, I pray you, unto Joab, Come near hither, that I may speak with thee.

17 And when he was come near unto her, the woman said, Art thou Joab? And he answered, I am he. Then she said unto him, Hear the words of thine handmaid. And he answered, I do hear.

18 Then she spake, saying, They were wont to speak in old time, saying, They shall surely ask counsel at Abel: and so they ended the matter.

19 I am one of them that are peaceable and faithful in Israel: thou seekest to destroy a city and [a] a mother in Israel: why wilt thou swallow up [b] the inheritance of the LORD?

20 And Joab answered and said, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy.

21 The matter is not so: but a man of mount Ē'phră-ĭm, Sheba the son of Bĭch'rī by name, hath lifted up his hand against the king, even against David: deliver him only, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said unto Joab, Behold, his head shall be thrown to thee over the wall.

22 Then the woman went unto all the people [e] in her wisdom. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bĭch'rī, and cast it out to Joab. And he blew a trumpet, and they retired from the city, [f] every man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem unto the king.

23 ¶ [g] Now Joab was over all the host of Israel: and [h] Bĕ-nâi'ăh the son of Jĕ-hŏi'ă-dă was over the [2] Chĕr'ĕ-thītes and over the Pĕl'ĕ-thītes:

24 And [i] Ă-dôr'ăm was over the [3] tribute: and [k] Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt the son of Ă-hī'lŭd was [4] [l] recorder:

25 And Shē'va was scribe: and [n] Zadok and [o] Ă-bī'ă-thär were the priests:

26 And [p] Ira also the Jā'ĭr-īte was a chief ruler about David.

CHAPTER 21

THEN there was a [r] famine in the days of David three years, year after year; and David [s] enquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered, It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he slew the Gĭb'ĕ-on-ītes.

2 And the king called the Gĭb'ĕ-on-ītes, and said unto them; (now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but of the remnant of the [u] Amorites; and the children of Israel [x] had sworn unto them: and Saul sought to slay them in his zeal to the children of Israel and Judah.)

3 Wherefore David said unto the Gĭb'ĕ-on-ītes, What shall I do for you? and wherewith shall I [a]make the atonement, that ye may bless [b]the inheritance of the LORD?

4 And the Gĭb'ĕ-on-ītes said unto him, We will have no silver nor gold of Saul, nor of his house; neither for us shalt thou kill any man in Israel. And he said, What ye shall say, that will I do for you.

5 And they answered the king, The man that consumed us, and that devised against us that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the coasts of Israel,

6 Let [g]seven men of his sons be delivered unto us, and we will [i]hang them up unto the LORD in [k]Gibeah of Saul, [l]whom the LORD did choose. [m]And the king said, I will give them.

7 But the king spared [n]Mĕ-phĭb'ō-shĕth, the son of [o]Jonathan the son of Saul, [q]because of the LORD's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.

8 But the king took the two sons of [r]Rizpah the daughter of Aī'ăh, whom she bare unto Saul, Är-mō'nī and Mĕ-phĭb'ō-shĕth; and the five sons of [t]Mī'chăl the daughter of Saul, [u]whom she brought up for Ā'drĭ-ĕl the son of Bär-zĭl-lā'ī the Mĕ-hō'lă-thīte:

9 And he delivered them into the hands of the Gĭb'ĕ-on-ītes, and [a]they hanged them in the hill before the LORD: and they fell all seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, in the beginning of [d]barley harvest.

10 ¶ And Rizpah the daughter of Aī'ăh took [f]sackcloth, and spread it for her upon the rock, [g]from the beginning of harvest until water dropped upon them out of heaven, and suffered neither the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night.

11 And it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aī'ăh, the concubine of Saul, had done.

12 ¶ And David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of [n]Jabesh–gĭl'ĕ-ăd, which had stolen them from the [4]street of [o]Beth–shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, when the Philistines had slain Saul in [c]Gĭl-bō'ă:

13 And he brought up from thence the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son; and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged.

14 And the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son buried they in the country of Benjamin in [d]Zelah, in the sepulchre of [e]Kish his father: and they performed all that the king commanded. And after that [f]God was intreated for the land.

15 ¶ Moreover [h]the Philistines had yet war again with Israel; and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines: and David waxed faint.

16 And Ĭsh'bī–bĕ'nŏb, which was of the sons of the [p]giant, the weight of whose spear weighed three hundred shĕ'kĕls of brass in weight, he being girded with a new sword, thought to have slain David.

17 But [s]Ăb'ī-shaî the son of Zĕr-ū-ī'ăh succoured him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him. Then the men of David sware unto him, saying, [x]Thou shalt go no more out with us to battle, that thou quench not [y]the light of Israel.

18 [z]And it came to pass after this, that there was again a battle with the Philistines at [2]Gob: then [b]Sĭb'bĕ-chaî the [c]Hū'shă-thīte slew [3]Saph, which was of the sons of the giant.

19 And there was again a battle in Gob with the Philistines, where [e]Ĕl-hā'năn the son of Jā'ă-rĕ-ŏr'ĕ-gĭm, a Beth–lehemite, slew the brother of [h]Gō-lī'ăth the Gittite, [i]the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

20 And there was yet a battle in [k]Gath, where was a man of great stature, that had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he also was born to the giant.

21 And when he [l]defied Israel, Jonathan the son of [m]Shĭm'ĕ-ăh the brother of David slew him.

22 These four were born to the giant in Gath, and fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

CHAPTER 22

973 B.C.

[b]AND David spake unto the LORD the words of [c]this song in the day that the LORD had delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul:

2 And he said, The LORD is [f]my rock, and [g]my fortress, and my deliverer;

3 The God of my rock; [i]in him will I trust: he is [l]my shield, and [m]the horn of my salvation, [o]my high tower, and [p]my refuge, [q]my saviour; thou savest me from violence.

4 [t]I will call on the LORD, who is [u]worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

5 When the [2]waves of death compassed me, the floods of [y]ungodly men made me afraid;

6 [3z]The sorrows of hell compassed me about; the snares of death prevented me;

7 In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried to my God: and [c]he did hear my voice out of his temple, and my cry did enter into his ears.

8 Then [d]the earth shook and trembled; [e]the foundations of heaven moved and shook, because he was wroth.

9 [g]There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, [h]and fire out of his mouth devoured: [i]coals were kindled by it.

10 [k]He bowed the heavens also, and [l]came down; and [m]darkness was under his feet.

11 And he [o]rode upon a [p]cherub, and did fly: and [4]he was seen upon [r]the wings of the wind.

12 And he made [t]darkness [u]pavilions round about him, dark waters, and thick clouds of the skies.

13 Through the brightness before him were [z]coals of fire kindled.

14 The LORD [b]thundered from heaven, and the [c]most High uttered his voice.

15 And he sent out [e]arrows, and scattered them; [h]lightning, and discomfited them.

16 And the channels of the sea appeared, the foundations of the world were discovered, at the rebuking of the LORD, [a]at the blast of the breath of his nostrils.

17 [d]He sent from above, he took me; [e]he drew me out of many waters;

18 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them that hated me: for they were too strong for me.

19 They prevented me in the [h]day of my calamity: but the LORD was [k]my stay.

20 He brought me forth also [n]into a large place: he delivered me, because [r]he delighted in me.

21 [s]The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness: according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

22 For [x]I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

23 [a]For all his judgments were before me: and as for his statutes, I did not depart from them.

24 [b]I was also upright before him, and have kept myself from mine iniquity.

25 Therefore the LORD hath recompensed me according to my righteousness; according to my cleanness in his eye sight.

26 With the [f]merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful, and with the upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright.

27 With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and with the [n]froward thou wilt shew thyself unsavoury.

28 And the [q]afflicted people thou wilt save: but thine eyes are upon [s]the haughty, that thou mayest bring them down.

29 For [x]thou art my lamp, O LORD: and the LORD [y]will lighten my darkness.

30 For by thee I have run through [a]a troop: by my God have I leaped over a wall.

31 As for God, [d]his way is perfect; [f]the word of the LORD is tried: [g]he is a buckler to all them that trust in him.

32 For [i]who is God, save the LORD? and who is a rock, save our God?

33 God is my [2a]strength and power: and he maketh my way perfect.

34 He maketh my feet like [c]hinds' feet: and setteth me [e]upon my high places.

35 [f]He teacheth my hands to war; so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.

36 Thou hast also given me [k]the shield of thy salvation: and thy [4]gentleness hath made me great.

37 [m]Thou hast enlarged my steps under me; so that my [5]feet did not slip.

38 I have pursued mine enemies, and destroyed them; and turned not again until I had consumed them.

39 And I have consumed them, and wounded them, that they could not arise: yea, they are fallen under my feet.

40 For thou hast [u]girded me with strength to battle: [x]them that rose up against me hast thou subdued under me.

41 [a]Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies, that I might destroy [c]them that hate me.

42 They looked, but there was none to save; even unto the LORD, but [d]he answered them not.

43 Then did I beat them as small as [f]the dust of the earth, I did stamp them as [g]the mire of the street, and did spread them abroad.

44 Thou also hast delivered me from the strivings of my people, [i]thou hast kept me to be [k]head of the heathen: [l]a people which I knew not shall serve me.

45 Strangers [m]shall [7]submit themselves unto me: as soon as they hear, they shall be obedient unto me.

46 Strangers shall fade away, and they shall [8]be afraid [o]out of their close places.

47 [q]The LORD liveth; and blessed be my rock; and exalted be the God of [r]the rock of my salvation.

48 It is God that avengeth me, and that [s]bringeth down the people under me, 49 And that bringeth me forth from mine enemies: thou also hast lifted me up on high above them that rose up against me: thou hast delivered me from [b]the violent man.

50 [d]Therefore I will give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the heathen, and I will sing praises unto thy name.

51 [3]He is the [g]tower of salvation for his king: and [h]sheweth mercy to [i]his anointed, unto David, and to his seed [l]for evermore.

CHAPTER 23

[n]NOW these be [o]the last words of David. David the son of Jesse said, and [p]the man who was raised up on high, [q]the anointed of [r]the God of Jacob, and the sweet psalmist of Israel, said,

2 [s]The Spirit of the LORD spake by me, and his word was in my tongue.

3 The God of Israel said, [t]the Rock of Israel spake to me, [6]He that ruleth over men must be just, ruling [y]in the fear of God.

4 And [z]he shall be as the light of the morning, when the sun riseth, even a morning without clouds; [b]as the tender grass springing out of the earth by clear shining after rain.

5 Although my house be not so with God; yet he hath made with me an [e]everlasting covenant, ordered in all things, and sure: for this is all my salvation, and all my desire, although he make it not to grow.

6 ¶ But the [h]sons of Bē-lī-ăl shall be all of them as thorns thrust away, because they cannot be taken with hands:

7 But the man that shall touch them must be fenced with iron and the staff of a spear; and they shall be utterly burned with fire in the same place.

8 ¶ [n]These be the names of the mighty men whom David had: [p]The Tăch-mō-nīte that sat in the seat, chief among the captains; the same was Adino the Eznite: he lift up his spear against eight hundred, whom he slew at one time.

9 And after him was Ĕl-ē-ā-zär the son of [t]Dodo the Ă-hō-hīte, one of the three mighty men with David, when they defied the Philistines that were there gathered together to battle, and the men of Israel were gone away:

10 He arose, and [b] smote the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand clave unto the sword: and the LORD wrought a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to spoil.

11 And after him was Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite. And the Philistines were gathered together [e] into a troop, where was a piece of ground full of [f] lentiles: and the people fled from the Philistines.

12 But he stood in the midst of the ground, and defended it, and slew the Philistines: and the LORD wrought a great victory.

13 And three of the thirty chief went down, and came to David in the harvest time unto the cave of [i] Ă-dŭl'lăm: and the troop of the Philistines pitched in the [l] valley of Rĕph'ā-ĭm.

14 And David was then [m] in an hold, and [p] the garrison of the Philistines was then in [q] Beth-lehem.

15 And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of [u] the well of Beth-lehem, which is by the gate!

16 And the three mighty men brake through the host of the Philistines, and [a] drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: nevertheless he would not drink thereof, but [e] poured it out unto the LORD.

17 And he said, Be it far from me, O LORD, that I should do this: is not this the blood of the men that went [f] in jeopardy of their lives? therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mighty men.

18 And [i] Ăb'ī-shâi, the brother of Joab, the son of Zĕr-ū-ī'ăh, was chief among three. And he lifted up his spear against three hundred, and slew them, and had the name among three.

19 Was he not most honourable of three? therefore he was their captain: howbeit he attained not unto the first three.

20 And [o] Bĕ-nâi'ăh the son of Jĕhôi'ă-dă, the son of a valiant man, of [a] Kabzeel, who had done many acts, he slew two [2] lionlike men of Moab: he went down also and [c] slew a lion in the midst of a pit in time of [d] snow:

21 And he slew an Egyptian, a goodly man: and the Egyptian had a spear in his hand; but he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear.

22 These things did Bĕ-nâi'ăh the son of Jĕ-hôi'ă-dă, and had the name among three mighty men.

CHAPTER 24

[b]AND again [c]the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and [d]he moved David against them to say, Go, [f]number Israel and Judah.

2 For the king said to Joab the captain of the host, which was with him, Go now through all the tribes of Israel, [h]from Dan even to Beer-sheba, and number ye the people, that I may know the number of the people.

3 And Joab said unto the king, Now [k]the LORD thy God add unto the people, how many soever they be, an hundredfold, and that the eyes of my lord the king may see it: but why doth my lord the king delight in this thing?

4 Notwithstanding the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the host. And Joab and the captains of the host went out from the presence of the king, to number the people of Israel.

5 ¶ And they passed over Jordan, and pitched in [p]Ă-rō'ĕr, on the right side of [q]the city that lieth in the midst of the [z]river of Gad, and toward [r]Jazer:

6 Then they came to Gĭl'ĕ-ăd, and to the land of Täh'tĭm-hŏd'shī; and they came to [u]Dăn-jā'ăn, and about to [x]Zidon,

7 And came to the strong hold of [y]Tyre, and to all the cities of the [a]Hivites, and of the [b]Cā'nă-ăn-ītes: and they went out to the south of Judah, even to [d]Beer-sheba.

8 So when they had gone through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

9 And Joab gave up the sum of the number of the people unto the king: and [f]there were in Israel [g]eight hundred thousand valiant men that [h]drew the sword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

10 ¶ And [i]David's heart smote him after that he had numbered the people. And David said unto the LORD, [k]I have sinned greatly in that I have done: and now, I beseech thee, O LORD, [l]take away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have [a]done very foolishly.

11 For when David was up in the morning, the word of the LORD came unto the prophet [e]Gad, David's [g]seer, saying,

12 Go and say unto David, Thus saith the LORD, I offer thee three things; choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

13 So Gad came to David, and told him, and said unto him, Shall [i]seven years of famine come unto thee in thy land? or wilt thou flee three months before thine enemies, while they pursue thee? or that there be [l]three days' [m]pestilence in thy land? now advise, and see what answer I shall return to him that sent me.

14 And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let us fall now into the hand of the LORD; for [n]his mercies are great: and let me not fall into the hand of man.

15 ¶ So the LORD [o]sent a pestilence upon Israel from the morning even to the time appointed: and there died of the people from Dan even to Beer-sheba seventy thousand men.

16 And when [s]the angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD [t]repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed the people, It is enough: stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD was by the [z]threshingplace of [3]Ă-raû'năh the [c]Jĕb'ū-sīte.

17 And David spake unto the LORD when he saw the angel that smote the people, and said, Lo, I have sinned, and I have done wickedly: but [e]these sheep, what have they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, be against me, and against my father's house.

18 ¶ And Gad came that day to David, and said unto him, Go up, rear an altar unto the LORD in the threshingfloor of Ă-raû'năh the Jĕb'ū-sīte.

19 And David, according to the saying of Gad, went up as the LORD commanded.

20 And Ă-raû'năh looked, and saw the king and his servants coming on toward him: and Araunah went 21 And Ă-raû'-năh said, Wherefore is my lord the king come to his servant? And David said, To buy the threshingfloor of thee, to build an altar unto the LORD, [b] that the plague may be stayed from the people.

FIRST BOOK OF THE KINGS commonly called The Third Book of the Kings

CHAPTER 1

NOW king David was [a] old and stricken in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he gat no heat.

2 Wherefore his servants said unto him, Let there be sought for my lord the king a young virgin: and let her stand before the king, and let her cherish him, and let her lie in thy bosom, that my lord the king may get heat.

3 So they sought for a fair damsel throughout all the coasts of Israel, and found [k] Ăb'-ĭ-shăg a [l] Shû-năm'-mīte, and brought her to the king.

4 And the damsel was [n] very fair, and cherished the king, and ministered to him: but the king knew her not.

5 ¶ Then [o] Ăd-ō-nī'-jăh the son of Haggith [p] exalted himself, saying, I will be king: and [q] he prepared him chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him.

6 And [t] his father had not displeased him at any time in saying, Why hast thou done so? and he also was a very goodly man; and his mother bare him after [b] Ăb'-să-lom.

7 And he conferred with [c] Joab the son of Zĕr-ū-ī'-ăh, and with [d] Ă-bī'-ă-thär the priest: and they following Ăd-ō-nī'-jăh helped him.

8 But [e] Zadok the priest, and [f] Bĕ-nâi'-ăh the son of Jĕ-hôi'-ă-dă, and [g] Nathan the prophet, and [h] Shĭm'-ē-ī, and Rē'-ī, and [i] the mighty men which belonged to David, were not with Ăd-ō-nī'-jăh.

9 And Ăd-ō-nī'-jăh slew sheep and oxen and fat cattle by the stone of Zō'-hĕ-lĕth, which is by [m] En-rō'-gĕl, and called all his brethren the king's sons, and all the men of Judah the king's servants:

10 But Nathan the prophet, and Bĕ-nâi'-ăh, and the mighty men, and [r] Solomon his brother, he called not.

11 ¶ Wherefore Nathan spake unto [s] Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon, saying, Hast thou not heard that Ădō-nī'jăh the son of Haggith doth reign, and David our lord knoweth it not?

12 Now therefore come, let me, I pray thee, give thee counsel, that thou mayest save thine own life, and the life of thy son Solomon.

13 Go and get thee in unto king David, and say unto him, Didst not thou, my lord, O king, swear unto thine handmaid, saying, [a] Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? why then doth Ăd-ō-nī'jăh reign?

14 Behold, while thou yet talkest there with the king, I also will come in after thee, and confirm thy words.

15 ¶ And Bath-sheba went in unto the king into the chamber: and the king was very old; and Ăb'ī-shăg the Shû-năm'mīte ministered unto the king.

16 And Bath-sheba bowed, and did obeisance unto the king. And the king said, What wouldest thou?

17 And she said unto him, My lord, thou [c] swarest by the LORD thy God unto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne.

18 And now, behold, Ăd-ō-nī'jăh reigneth; and now, my lord the king, thou knowest it not:

19 And he hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the sons of the king, and Ă-bī'ă-thär the priest, and Joab the captain of the host: but Solomon thy servant hath he not called.

20 And thou, my lord, O king, the eyes of all Israel are upon thee, that thou shouldest tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

21 Otherwise it shall come to pass, when my lord the king shall [g] sleep with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon shall be counted offenders.

22 ¶ And, lo, while she yet talked with the king, Nathan the prophet also came in.

23 And they told the king, saying, Behold Nathan the prophet. And when he was come in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground.

24 And Nathan said, My lord, O king, hast thou said, Ăd-ō-nī'jăh shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne?

25 For he is gone down this day, and hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the king's sons, and the captains of the host, and Ă-bī'ă-thär the priest; and, behold, they eat and drink before him, and say, [b] God save king Ăd-ō-nī'jăh.

26 But me, even me thy servant, and Zadok the priest, and Bĕ-nâi'ăh the son of Jĕ-hôi'ă-dă, and thy servant Solomon, hath he not called.

27 Is this thing done by my lord the king, and thou hast not shewed it unto thy servant, who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?

28 ¶ Then king David answered and said, Call me Bath-sheba. And she came into the king's presence, and stood before the king.

29 And the king sware, and said, [d] As the LORD liveth, that [e] hath redeemed my soul out of all distress,

30 Even as I sware unto thee by the LORD God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead; even so will I certainly do this day.

31 Then Bath-sheba bowed with her face to the earth, and did reverence to the king, and said, [f] Let my lord king David live for ever.

32 ¶ And king David said, Call me Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Bĕ-nâi'ăh the son of Jĕ-hôi'ă-dă. And they came before the king.

33 The king also said unto them, Take with you [h] the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon [i] mine own mule, and bring him down to [k] Gihon:

34 And let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet [l] anoint him there king over Israel: and [m] blow ye with the trumpet, and say, God save king Solomon.

35 Then ye shall come up after him, that he may come and sit upon my throne; for he shall be king in my stead: and I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and over Judah.

36 And Bĕ-nâi'-ăh the son of Jĕ-hôi'-ă-dă answered the king, and said, [b] Amen: the LORD God of my lord the king say so too.

37 As the LORD hath been with my lord the king, [e] even so be he with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord king David.

38 So Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Bĕ-nâi'-ăh the son of Jĕ-hôi'-ă-dă, and the [g] Chĕr'-ĕ-thītes, and the Pĕl'-ĕ-thītes, went down, and caused Solomon to ride upon king David's mule, and brought him to Gihon.

39 And Zadok the priest took an [i] horn of oil out of the [k] tabernacle, and [m] anointed Solomon. And they blew the trumpet; and all the people said, God save king Solomon.

40 And all the people came up after him, and the people piped with [o] pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth rent with the sound of them.

41 ¶ And Ăd-ō-nī'-jăh and all the guests that were with him heard it as they had made an end of eating. And when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, Wherefore is this noise of the city being in an uproar?

42 And while he yet spake, behold, [s] Jonathan the son of Ă-bī'-ă-thär the priest came: and Ăd-ō-nī'-jăh said unto him, Come in; for [t] thou art a valiant man, and bringest good tidings.

43 And Jonathan answered and said to Ăd-ō-nī'-jăh, Verily our lord king David hath made Solomon king.

44 And the king hath sent with him Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Bĕ-nâi'-ăh the son of Jĕ-hôi'-ă-dă, and the Chĕr'-ĕ-thītes, and the Pĕl'-ĕ-thītes, and they have caused him to ride upon the king's mule:

45 And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon: and they are come up from thence rejoicing, so that the city rang again. This is the noise that ye have heard.

46 And also [a] Solomon sitteth on the throne of the kingdom.

47 And moreover the king's servants came to [c] bless our lord king David, saying, [d] God make the name of Solomon better than thy name, and make his throne greater than thy throne. And the king [f] bowed himself upon the bed.

48 And also thus said the king, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, [h] which hath given one to sit on my throne this day, mine eyes even seeing it.

49 And all the guests that were with Ăd-ō-nī'-jăh were afraid, and rose up, and went every man his way.

50 ¶ And Ăd-ō-nī'-jăh [l] feared because of Solomon, and arose, and went, and caught hold on [n] the horns of the altar.

51 And it was told Solomon, saying, Behold, Ăd-ō-nī'-jăh feareth king Solomon: for, lo, he hath caught hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let king Solomon swear unto me [2] to day that he will not slay his servant with the sword.

52 And Solomon said, If he will shew himself [p] a worthy man, [q] there shall not an hair of him fall to the earth: but if wickedness shall be found in him, he shall die.

53 So king Solomon sent, and [r] they brought him down from the altar. And he came and bowed himself to king Solomon: and Solomon said unto him, Go to thine house.

CHAPTER 2

NOW [u] the days of David drew nigh that he should die; and he charged Solomon his son, saying,

2 [x] I go the way of all the earth: [y] be thou strong therefore, and shew thyself a man;

monies, as it is [a] written in the law of Moses, [c] that thou mayest [2]prosper in all that thou doest, and whithersoever thou turnest thyself:

4 That the LORD [e] may continue his word which he spake concerning me, saying, If thy children take heed to their way, to walk before me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, [g] there shall not fail thee (said he) a man on the throne of Israel.

5 Moreover thou knowest also what [h] Joab the son of Zĕr-ū-ī'-ăh did to me, and [k] what he did to the two captains of the hosts of Israel, unto [l] Abner the son of Ner, and unto [m] Ă-mā'-să the son of Jether, whom he slew, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his girdle that was about his loins, and in his shoes that were on his feet.

6 Do therefore according to thy wisdom, and let not his hoar head go [p] down to the grave in peace.

7 But [q] shew kindness unto [r] the sons of [s] Bär-zĭl-lā'-ī the Gĭl'-ĕ-ăd-īte, and let them be of those that [t] eat at thy table: [u] for so they came to me when I fled because of [x] Ăb'-să-lom thy brother.

8 And, behold, thou hast with thee [z] Shĭm'-ĕ-ī the son of Gera, a Benjamite of [a] Bă-hū'-rĭm, [b] which cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went to [c] Mā-hă-nā'-ĭm: but he came down to meet me at Jordan, and [d] I sware to him by the LORD, [e] saying, I will not put thee to death with the sword.

9 Now therefore hold him not guiltless: for [f] thou art a wise man, and knowest what thou oughtest to do unto him; but his hoar head bring thou down to the grave with blood.

10 So [g] David slept with his fathers, and was buried in [h] the city of David.

11 And [k] the days that David reigned over Israel were forty years: seven years reigned he in [l] Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem.

12 ¶ [n] Then sat Solomon upon the throne of David his father; and [p] his kingdom was established greatly.

13 ¶ And [r] Ăd-ō-nī'-jăh the son of Haggith came to [b] Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, [d] Comest thou peaceably? And he said, Peaceably.

14 He said moreover, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And she said, Say on.

15 And he said, Thou knowest that [f] the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reign: howbeit the kingdom is turned about, and is become my brother's: [i] for it was his from the LORD.

16 And now I ask one petition of thee, [3n] deny me not. And she said unto him, Say on.

17 And he said, Speak, I pray thee, unto Solomon the king, (for he will not say thee nay,) that he give me [o] Ăb'-ī-shăg the Shû-năm'-mīte to wife.

18 And Bath-sheba said, Well; I will speak for thee unto the king.

19 ¶ Bath-sheba therefore went unto king Solomon, to speak unto him for Ăd-ō-nī'-jăh. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself unto her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a seat to be set for the king's mother; and [y] she sat on his right hand.

20 Then she said, I desire one small petition of thee; I pray thee, say me not nay. And the king said unto her, Ask on, my mother: for I will not say thee nay.

21 And she said, Let Ăb'-ī-shăg the Shû-năm'-mīte be given to Ăd-ō-nī'-jăh thy brother to wife.

22 And king Solomon answered and said unto his mother, And why dost thou ask Ăb'-ī-shăg the Shû-năm'-mīte for Ăd-ō-nī'-jăh? ask for him the kingdom also; for he is mine elder brother; even for him, and for [i] Ă-bī'-ă-thär the priest, and for Joab the son of Zĕr-ū-ī'-ăh.

23 Then king Solomon sware by the LORD, saying, [m] God do so to me, and more also, if Ăd-ō-nī'-jăh have not spoken this word [o] against his own life.

24 Now therefore, [q] as the LORD liveth, which hath established me, and [s] set me on the throne of David my father, and who hath [a] made me an house, as he promised, Ăd-ō-nī'jăh shall be put to death this day.

25 And king Solomon sent by the hand of [d] Bĕ-nâi'ăh the son of Jĕ-hôi'ă-dă; and he fell upon him that he died.

26 ¶ And unto Ă-bī'ă-thär the priest said the king, Get thee to [e] Anathoth, unto thine own fields; for thou art [2g] worthy of death: but I will not at this time put thee to death, because [h] thou barest the ark of the Lord GOD before David my father, and because [k] thou hast been afflicted in all wherein my father was afflicted.

27 So Solomon thrust out Ă-bī'ă-thär from being priest unto the LORD; that he might fulfil [m] the word of the LORD, which he spake concerning the house of Eli in [n] Shiloh.

28 ¶ Then tidings came to Joab: for Joab [o] had turned after Ăd-ō-nī'jăh, though he turned not after Ăb'să-lom. And Joab fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD, and caught hold on [r] the horns of the altar.

29 And it was told king Solomon that Joab was fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD; and, behold, he is by the altar. Then Solomon sent Bĕ-nâi'ăh the son of Jĕ-hôi'ă-dă, saying, Go, fall upon him.

30 And Bĕ-nâi'ăh came to the tabernacle of the LORD, and said unto him, Thus saith the king, Come forth. And he said, Nay; but I will die here. And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me.

31 And the king said unto him, Do as he hath said, and fall upon him, and bury him; that thou mayest take away [u] the innocent blood, which Joab shed, from me, and from the house of my father.

32 And [x] the LORD shall return his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two men [y] more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, my father David not knowing thereof, to wit, Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and Ă-mā'să the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah.

33 Their blood shall therefore return upon the head of Joab, and [b] upon the head of his seed for ever: [c] but upon David, and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there be peace for ever from the LORD.

34 So Bĕ-nâi'ăh the son of Jĕ-hôi'ă-dă went up, and fell upon him, and slew him: and he was buried [f] in his own house in the wilderness.

35 ¶ And the king put Bĕ-nâi'ăh the son of Jĕ-hôi'ă-dă in his room over the host: and [i] Zadok the priest did the king put [l] in the room of Ă-bī'ă-thär.

36 ¶ And the king sent and called for Shĭm'ĕ-ī, and said unto him, Build thee an house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and go not forth thence any whither.

37 For it shall be, that on the day thou goest out, and passest over the brook [p] Kidron, thou shalt know for certain that thou shalt surely die: [q] thy blood shall be upon thine own head.

38 And Shĭm'ĕ-ī said unto the king, The saying is good: as my lord the king hath said, so will thy servant do. And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days.

39 And it came to pass at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shĭm'ĕ-ī ran away unto [s] Ā'chĭsh son of Mā'ă-chäh king of [t] Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, Behold, thy servants be in Gath.

40 And Shĭm'ĕ-ī arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Ā'chĭsh to seek his servants: and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath.

41 And it was told Solomon that Shĭm'ĕ-ī had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again.

42 And the king sent and called for Shĭm'ĕ-ī, and said unto him, Did I not make thee to swear by the LORD, and protested unto thee, saying, Know for a certain, on the day thou goest out, and walkest abroad any whither, that thou shalt surely die? and thou saidst unto me, The word that I have heard is good.

969 B.C.

43 Why then hast thou not kept the oath of the LORD, and the commandment that I have charged thee with?

44 The king said moreover to Shĭm-ĕ-ī, Thou knowest all the wickedness which thine heart is privy to, that thou didst to David my father: therefore the LORD shall return thy wickedness upon thine own head;

45 And king Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD for ever.

46 So the king commanded Bĕ-nâ'-ăh the son of Jĕ-hôi'-ă-dă; which went out, and fell upon him, that he died. And the kingdom [h] was established in the hand of Solomon.

CHAPTER 3

AND [i] Solomon made affinity with Phâr'-a-oh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the [m]city of David, until he had made an end of [n]building his own house, [o]and the house of the LORD, and [p]the wall of Jerusalem round about.

2 Only the people sacrificed in [r] high places, because there was no house built unto the name of the LORD, until those days.

3 And Solomon [x] loved the LORD, [z] walking in the statutes of David his father: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in high places.

4 And the king went to [b] Gibeon to sacrifice there; for that was [c] the great high place: a thousand [e] burnt offerings did Solomon offer upon [f] that altar.

5 ¶ [h] In Gibeon [i] the LORD appeared to Solomon [k] in a dream by night: and God said, Ask what I shall give thee.

6 And Solomon said, [n] Thou hast shewed unto thy servant David my father great mercy, [o] according as he walked before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with thee; and thou hast kept for him this great kindness, that [p] thou hast given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.

7 And now, O LORD my God, thou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father: and I am but [a] a little child: I know not [b] how to go out or come in.

8 And thy servant is in the midst of thy people [c] which thou hast chosen, [d] a great people, that cannot be numbered nor counted for multitude.

9 [e] Give therefore thy servant an understanding heart to judge thy people, [f] that I may discern between good and bad: for [g] who is able to judge this thy so great a people?

10 And the speech pleased the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing.

11 And God said unto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself long life; neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies; but hast asked for thyself understanding to discern judgment;

12 Behold, [k] I have done according to thy words: lo, [l] I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart; so that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee.

13 And [q] I have also given thee that which thou hast not asked, both [s] riches, and [t] honour: [u] so that there shall not be any among the kings like unto thee all thy days.

14 And [y] if thou wilt walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as thy father David did walk, then [a] I will lengthen thy days.

15 And Solomon [d] awoke; and, behold, it was a dream. And he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the [g] ark of the covenant of the LORD, and offered up burnt offerings, and offered [l] peace offerings, and [m] made a feast to all his servants.

16 ¶ Then came there two women, that were harlots, unto the king, and stood before him.

17 And the one woman said, O my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house; and I was delivered of a child with her in the house.

18 And it came to pass the third day after that I was delivered, that this woman was delivered also: and we were together; there was no stranger

19 And this woman's child died in the night; because she overlaid it.

20 And she arose at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while thine handmaid slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom.

21 And when I rose in the morning to give my child suck, behold, it was dead: but when I had considered it in the morning, behold, it was not my son, which I did bear.

22 And the other woman said, Nay; but the living is my son, and the dead is thy son. And this said, No; but the dead is thy son, and the living is my son. Thus they spake before the king.

23 Then said the king, The one saith, This is my son that liveth, and thy son is the dead: and the other saith, Nay; but thy son is the dead, and my son is the living.

24 And the king said, Bring me a sword. And they brought a sword before the king.

25 And the king said, Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other.

26 Then spake the woman whose the living child was unto the king, for [q] her bowels yearned upon her son, and she said, O my lord, give her the living child, and in no wise slay it. But the other said, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but divide it.

27 Then the king answered and said, Give her the living child, and in no wise slay it: she is the mother thereof.

28 And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged; and they feared the king: for they saw that [z] the wisdom of God was in him, to do judgment.

CHAPTER 4

SO king Solomon was king over all Israel.

2 And these were the princes which he had; Ăz-ă-rī'ăh the son of [c] Zadok the priest,

3 Ē-lī-hôr'ĕph and Ă-hī'ăh, the sons of [e] Shī'shă, [4]scribes; [f] Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt the son of Ă-hī'lŭd, the [a] recorder.

4 And [b] Bĕ-nâi'ăh the son of Jĕ-hôi'ă-dă was over the host: and Zadok and [c] Ă-bī'ă-thär were the priests:

7 ¶ And Solomon had [g] twelve officers over all Israel, which provided victuals for the king and his household: each man his month in a year made provision.

8 And these are their names: The son of Hur, in mount Ē'phrā-ĭm:

[a] country of Gĭl'ĕ-ăd, in the country of Sihon king of the Amorites, and of Og king of Bashan; and he was the only officer which was in the land.

20 ¶ Judah and Israel were many, [d] as the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking, and [f] making merry.

21 [g] And Solomon [h] reigned over all kingdoms [k] from the [l] river unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt: they brought [m] presents, and served Solomon all the days of his life.

22 ¶ [o] And Solomon's provision for one day was thirty [2] measures of fine flour, and threescore measures of meal,

23 Ten fat oxen, and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and an hundred sheep, beside harts, and roebucks, and fallowdeer, and fatted fowl.

24 For he had dominion over all the region [r] on this side the river, from [s] Tiphsah even to [3] Azzah, over all the kings on this side the river: and [t] he had peace on all sides round about him.

25 And Judah and Israel [y] dwelt safely, [z] every man under his vine and under his fig tree, [a] from Dan even to Beer-sheba, all the days of Solomon.

26 ¶ [b] And Solomon had [c] forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.

27 And those officers provided victual for king Solomon, and for all that came unto king Solomon's table, every man in his month: they lacked nothing.

28 [f] Barley also and straw for the horses and [4h] dromedaries brought they unto the place where the officers were, every man according to his charge.

29 ¶ And God gave Solomon [k] wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and largeness of heart, even as the sand that is on the sea shore.

30 And Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the [l] children of the east country, and all the [m] wisdom of Egypt.

31 For he was [n] wiser than all men; than [o] Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and Chăl'cŏl, and Darda, the sons of Mahol: and his fame was in all nations round about.

32 And [b] he spake three thousand proverbs: and [c] his songs were a thousand and five.

33 And he spake of trees, [e] from the cedar tree that is in Lebanon even unto the [i] hyssop that springeth out of the wall: he spake also of beasts, and of fowl, and of creeping things, and of fishes.

34 And [n] there came of all people to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all kings of the earth, which had heard of his wisdom.

CHAPTER 5

AND [p] Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants unto Solomon; for he had heard that they had [q] anointed him king in the room of his father: for Hiram was ever a lover of David.

2 And Solomon sent to Hiram, saying,

3 [u] Thou knowest how that David my father [x] could not build an house unto the name of the LORD his God for the wars which were about him on every side, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet.

4 But now the LORD my God hath [d] given me rest on every side, so that there is neither adversary nor evil occurrent.

5 And, behold, I purpose to build an house unto the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spake unto David my father, saying, Thy son, [e] whom I will set upon thy throne in thy room, [g] he shall build an house unto my name.

6 Now therefore command thou that they hew me [i] cedar trees out of Lebanon; and my servants shall be with thy servants: and unto thee will I give hire for thy servants according to all that thou shalt appoint: for thou knowest that there is not among us any that can skill to hew timber like unto the Sī-dō'nĭ-ăns.

7 ¶ And it came to pass, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and said, Blessed be the LORD this day, which hath given

8 And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, I have considered the things which thou sentest to me for: and I will do all thy desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of [2]fir.

9 My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon unto the sea: and I will convey them by sea in floats unto [f] the place that thou shalt appoint me, and will cause them to be discharged there, and thou shalt receive them: and thou shalt accomplish my desire, [g]in giving food for my household.

10 So Hiram gave Solomon cedar trees and fir trees according to all his desire.

11 And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand measures of wheat for food to his household, and twenty measures of [5]pure oil: thus gave Solomon to Hiram year by year.

12 And the LORD gave Solomon wisdom, [l]as he promised him: and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and [o]they two made a league together.

13 ¶ And king Solomon [p]raised a levy out of all Israel; and the levy was thirty thousand men.

14 And he sent them to [q]Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses: a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home: and [r]Ăd-ō-nī-răm was over the levy.

15 [s]And Solomon had threescore and ten thousand that bare burdens, and fourscore thousand hewers in the mountains;

16 Beside the [u]chief of Solomon's officers which were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, which ruled over the people that wrought in the work.

17 And the king commanded, and they brought great stones, costly stones, and [x]hewed stones, to lay the foundation of the house.

18 And Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders did hew them, and the [2]stonesquarers: so they prepared timber and stones to build the house.

CHAPTER 6

[b]AND it came to pass in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel [c]were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Zif, which is the second month, that [d]he began to build the house of the LORD.

2 [e]And the house which king Solomon built for the LORD, the length thereof was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits.

3 And [h]the porch before [3i]the temple of the house, twenty cubits was the length thereof, according to the breadth of the house; and ten cubits was the breadth thereof before the house.

4 And for the house he made [k]windows [4]of narrow lights.

5 ¶ And against the wall of the house he built [6]chambers round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and of the [7m]oracle: and he made [8n]chambers round about:

6 The nethermost chamber was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad: for without in the wall of the house he made [9]narrowed rests round about, that the beams should not be fastened in the walls of the house.

7 And the house, when it was in building, was built of stone [t]made ready before it was brought thither: so that there was neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building.

8 The door for the middle chamber was in the right side of the house: and they went up with winding stairs into the middle chamber, and out of the middle into the third.

9 So he built the house, and finished it; and covered the house with beams and boards of [y]cedar.

10 And then he built chambers against all the house, five cubits high: and [3]they rested on the house with timber of cedar.

967 B.C.

11 ¶ And the word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying,

12 Concerning this house which thou art in building, [a] if thou wilt walk in my statutes, and execute my judgments, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; then will I [b] perform my word with thee, [c] which I spake unto David thy father:

13 And [d] I will dwell among the children of Israel, and [e] will not forsake my people Israel.

14 So Solomon built the house, and finished it.

15 And he built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar, both the floor of the house, and the walls of the cieling: and he covered them on the inside with wood, [f] and covered the floor of the house with planks of [2g] fir.

16 [h] And he built twenty cubits on the sides of the house, both the floor and the walls with boards of cedar: he even built them for it within, even for the oracle, even for [i] the most holy place.

17 And the house, that is, the temple before it, was forty cubits long.

18 And the cedar of the house within was carved with [m] knops and open flowers: all was cedar; there was no stone seen.

19 And the oracle he prepared in the house within, to set there [o] the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

20 And the oracle in the forepart was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height thereof: and he overlaid it with pure gold; and so covered [p] the altar which was of cedar.

21 So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold: and he made a partition by the chains of gold before the oracle; and he overlaid it with gold.

22 And the whole house he overlaid with gold, until he had finished all the house: also the whole altar that was by the oracle he overlaid with gold.

23 ¶ [r] And within the oracle he made two [u] chĕr'ū-bĭms of olive tree, each ten cubits high.

24 And five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub: from the uttermost part of the one wing unto the uttermost part of the other were ten cubits.

25 And the other cherub was ten cubits: both the chĕr'ū-bĭms were of one measure and one size.

26 The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was it of the other cherub.

27 And he set the chĕr'ū-bĭms within the inner house: and they stretched forth the wings of the cherubims, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house.

28 And he overlaid the chĕr'ū-bĭms with gold.

29 And he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved [i] figures of chĕr'ū-bĭms and [k] palm trees and open flowers, within and without.

30 And the floor of the house he overlaid with gold, within and without.

31 ¶ And for the entering of the oracle he made doors of olive tree: the lintel and side [n] posts were a fifth part of the wall.

32 The two doors also were of olive tree; and he carved upon them carvings of chĕr'ū-bĭms and palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold, and spread gold upon the cherubims, and upon the palm trees.

33 So also made he for the door of the temple posts of olive tree, a fourth part of the wall.

34 And the two doors were of fir tree: [q] the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding.

35 And he carved thereon chĕr'ū-bĭms and palm trees and open flowers: and covered them with gold fitted upon the carved work.

36 ¶ And he built the inner court with [s] three rows of [t] hewed stone, and a row of cedar beams.

37 ¶ In the fourth year was the foundation of the house of the LORD laid, in the month Zif:

38 And in the eleventh year, in the month Bul, which is the eighth month, was the house finished throughout all the parts thereof, and according to all the fashion of it. So was he seven years in building it.

CHAPTER 7

BUT Solomon was building [d] his own house thirteen years, and he finished all his house.

2 ¶ He built also the [f] house of the forest of Lebanon; the length thereof was an hundred cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits, upon four rows of [k] cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars.

3 And it was covered with cedar above upon the [2]beams, that lay on forty five pillars, fifteen in a row.

4 And there were [3]windows in three rows, and light was against light in three ranks.

5 And all the doors and [l] posts were square, with the windows: and light was against light in three ranks.

6 ¶ And he made a porch of pillars; the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth thereof thirty cubits: and the porch was before them: and the other pillars and the [4]thick beam were before them.

7 ¶ Then he made a porch for the throne where he might judge, even the porch of judgment: and it was [n] covered with cedar from one side of the floor to the other.

8 ¶ And his house where he dwelt had another court within the porch, which was of the like work. Solomon made also an house for Phâr'āōh's daughter, [o] whom he had taken to wife, like unto this porch.

9 All these were of costly stones, according to the measures of [r] hewed stones, sawed with saws, within and without, even from the foundation unto the coping, and so on the outside toward the great court.

10 And the foundation was of costly stones, even great stones, stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits.

11 And above were costly stones, after the measures of hewed stones, and cedars.

12 And the great court round about was with three rows of hewed stones, and a row of cedar beams, both for [a] the inner court of the house of the LORD, and for the porch of the house.

13 ¶ And king Solomon sent and fetched [b] Hiram out of [c] Tyre.

14 He was a widow's son of the tribe of [e] Năph'tă-lī, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in brass: and he was [g] filled with wisdom, and understanding, and cunning to work all works in brass. And he came to king Solomon, and wrought all his work.

15 [h] For he cast [i] two pillars of brass, of eighteen cubits high apiece: and a line of twelve cubits did compass either of them about.

16 And he made two chapiters of molten brass, to set upon the tops of the pillars: the height of the one chapiter was five cubits, and the height of the other chapiter was five cubits:

17 And nets of checker work, and wreaths of chain work, for the chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars; seven for the one chapiter, and seven for the other chapiter.

18 And he made the pillars, and two rows round about upon the one network, to cover the chapiters that were upon the top, with [m] pomegranates: and so did he for the other chapiter.

19 And the chapiters that were upon the top of the pillars were of lily work in the porch, four cubits.

20 And the chapiters upon the two pillars had pomegranates also above, over against the belly which was by the network: and the pomegranates were [p] two hundred in rows round about upon the other chapiter.

21 And he set up the pillars [q] in the porch of the temple: and he set up the right pillar, and called the name thereof [5]Jā'chĭn: and he set up the left pillar, and called the name thereof [6]Boaz.

22 And upon the top of the pillars was lily work: so was the work of the pillars finished.

960 B.C.

23 ¶ [a] And he made a [b] molten sea, ten cubits from the one brim to the other: it was round all about, and his height was five cubits: and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about.

24 And under the brim of it round about there were [c] knops compassing it, ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about: the knops were cast in two rows, when it was cast.

25 It stood upon [d] twelve [e] oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

26 And it was an hand breadth thick, and the brim thereof was wrought like the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies: it contained two thousand bäths.

27 ¶ And he made [f] ten bases of brass; four cubits was the length of one base, and four cubits the breadth thereof, and three cubits the height of it.

28 And the work of the bases was on this manner: they had [g] borders, and the borders were between the [h] ledges:

29 And on the borders that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and [k] chĕr'ū-bĭms: and upon the ledges there was a base above: and beneath the lions and oxen were certain additions made of thin work.

30 And every base had four brasen wheels, and plates of brass: and the four corners thereof had undersetters: under the [o] laver were undersetters molten, at the side of every addition.

31 And the mouth of it within the chapiter and above was a cubit: but the mouth thereof was round after the work of the base, a cubit and an half: and also upon the mouth of it were gravings with their borders, foursquare, not round.

32 And under the borders were four wheels; and the axletrees of the wheels were joined to the base: and the height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit.

33 And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel: their axletrees, and their naves, and their felloes, and their spokes, were all molten.

34 And there were four undersetters to the four corners of one base: and the undersetters were of the very base itself.

35 And in the top of the base was there a round compass of half a cubit high: and on the top of the base the ledges thereof and the borders thereof were of the same.

36 For on the plates of the ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof, he graved chĕr'ū-bĭms, lions, and palm trees, according to the proportion of every one, and additions round about.

37 After this manner he made the ten bases: all of them had one casting, one measure, and one size.

38 ¶ Then made he ten lavers of brass: one laver contained forty bäths: and every laver was four cubits: and upon every one of the ten bases one laver.

39 And he put five bases on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house: and [i] he set the sea on the right side of the house eastward over against the south.

40 ¶ [l] And Hiram made the lavers, and the [m] shovels, and the [n] basons. So Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he made king Solomon for the house of the LORD:

41 The two pillars, and the two bowls of the chapiters that were on the top of the two pillars; and the two networks, to cover the two bowls of the chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars;

42 And [p] four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, even two rows of pomegranates for one network, to cover the two bowls of the chapiters that were upon the pillars;

43 And the ten bases, and ten lavers on the bases;

44 And one sea, and twelve oxen under the sea;

47 And Solomon left all the vessels unweighed, because they were exceeding many: neither was [e] the weight of the brass found out.

48 And Solomon made all the vessels that pertained unto the house of the LORD: [h] the altar of gold, and [i] the table of gold, whereupon the [l] shewbread was, 51 So was ended all the work that king Solomon made for the house of the LORD. And Solomon brought in [a] the things which David his father had [b] dedicated; even the silver, and the [c] gold, and the vessels, did he put among the treasures of the house of the LORD.

CHAPTER 8

[g] THEN Solomon assembled the [i] elders of Israel, and all the [k] heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto king Solomon in Jerusalem, that they might bring up [m] the ark of the covenant of the LORD [n] out of the [p] city of David, which is Zion.

2 And all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto king Solomon at the [r] feast in the month Ĕth'ă-nĭm, which is the seventh month.

3 And all the elders of Israel came, and [t] the priests took up the ark.

4 And they brought up the ark of the LORD, and [x] the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, even those did the priests and the Levites bring up.

5 And king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel, that were assembled unto him, were with him before the ark, [d] sacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not be told nor numbered for multitude.

6 And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto his place, into [f] the oracle of the house, to the [g] most holy place, even under the wings of the [k] chĕr'ū-bĭms.

7 For the chĕr'ū-bĭms spread forth their two wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the staves thereof above.

8 [z] And they drew out the [o] staves, that the ends of the staves were seen out in the holy place before the oracle, and they were not seen without: and there they are unto this day.

9 There was nothing [s] in the ark save the [t] two tables of stone, which Moses put there at [x] Horeb, [y] when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, [z] when they came out of the land of Egypt.

10 And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place, that the cloud filled the house of the LORD,

11 So that the priests could not [d] stand to minister because of the cloud: [e] for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of the LORD.

12 ¶ [f] Then spake Solomon, The LORD said that he would dwell [h] in the thick darkness.

13 [l] I have surely built thee an house to dwell in, a settled place for thee to abide in for ever.

14 And the king turned his face about, and [o] blessed all the congregation of Israel: (and all the congregation of Israel stood;)

15 And he said, [q] Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which spake with his mouth unto David my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it, [s] saying,

959 B.C.

I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build an house, [a] that my name might be therein; but [b] I chose David to be over my people Israel.

17 And [d] it was in the heart of David my father to build an house for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

18 And the LORD said unto David my father, Whereas it was in thine heart to build an house unto my name, thou didst well that it was in thine heart.

19 Nevertheless [f] thou shalt not build the house; but thy son that shall come forth out of thy loins, [h] he shall build the house unto my name.

20 And the LORD [k] hath performed his word that he spake, and [m] I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built an house for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

21 And I have set there a place for the ark, wherein is the covenant of the LORD, which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

22 ¶ And Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and [r] spread forth his hands toward heaven:

23 And he said, LORD God of Israel, [u] there is no God like thee, in heaven above, or on earth beneath, [x] who keepest covenant and mercy with thy servants that walk before thee with all their heart:

24 Who hast kept with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him: thou spakest also with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day.

25 Therefore now, LORD God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him, saying, [b] There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel; so that thy children take heed to their way, [e] that they walk before me [f] as thou hast walked before me.

26 And now, O God of Israel, let thy word, I pray thee, be verified, which thou spakest unto thy servant David my father.

27 But will God indeed dwell on the earth? behold, the heaven and [c] heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house that I have builded?

28 Yet have thou respect unto the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, [e] to hearken unto the cry and to the prayer, which thy servant prayeth before thee to day:

29 That [g] thine eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward [i] the place of which thou hast said, [l] My name shall be there: that thou mayest hearken unto the prayer which thy servant shall make [n] toward this place.

30 And hearken thou to the supplication of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place: and hear thou in [o] heaven thy dwelling place: and when thou hearest, [p] forgive.

31 ¶ If any man trespass against his neighbour, and [q] an oath be laid upon him to cause him to swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house:

32 Then hear thou in heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, [s] condemning the wicked, [t] to bring his way upon his head; and justifying the righteous, [y] to give him according to his righteousness.

33 ¶ [z] When thy people Israel be smitten down before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee, and [a] shall turn again to thee, and confess thy name, and pray, and make supplication unto thee in this house:

34 Then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest unto their fathers.

35 ¶ [c] When heaven is shut up, and [d] there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; if they pray toward this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou afflictest them:

36 Then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, that thou [a] teach them the good way wherein they should walk, and [c] give rain upon thy land, which thou hast given to thy people for an inheritance.

37 ¶ If there be in the land [e] famine, if there be [g] pestilence, [h] blasting, mildew, [i] locust, or if there be caterpiller; if their enemy besiege them in the land of their cities; whatsoever plague, whatsoever [k] sickness there be;

38 What prayer and supplication soever be made by any man, or by all thy people Israel, which shall know every man the plague of his own heart, and spread forth his hands toward this house:

39 Then hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and do, and give to every man according to his ways, whose heart thou knowest; (for thou, even thou only, [m] knowest the hearts of all the children of men;)

40 That they [n] may fear thee [o] all the days that they live in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.

41 Moreover concerning [p] a stranger, that is not of thy people Israel, but cometh out of a far country for [r] thy name's sake;

42 (For they shall hear of [s] thy great name, and of thy [t] strong hand, and of thy [x] stretched out arm;) when he shall come and pray toward this house;

43 Hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for: [z] that all people of the earth may know thy name, to fear thee, as do thy people Israel; and that they may know that this house, which I have builded, is [b] called by thy name.

44 ¶ If thy people go out to battle against their enemy, whithersoever thou shalt send them, and shall pray unto the LORD toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house that I have built for thy name:

45 Then hear thou in heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

46 If they sin against thee, (for [b] there is no man that sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away [d] captives unto the land of the enemy, far or near;

47 [f] Yet if they shall bethink themselves in the land whither they were carried captives, and repent, and make supplication unto thee in the land of them that carried them captives, saying, [l] We have sinned, and have done perversely, we have committed wickedness;

48 And so return unto thee with all their heart, and with all their soul, in the land of their enemies, which led them away captive, and pray unto thee toward their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, the city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name:

49 Then hear thou their prayer and their supplication in heaven thy dwelling place, and maintain their cause,

50 And forgive thy people that have sinned against thee, and all their transgressions wherein they have transgressed against thee, and [q] give them compassion before them who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them:

51 For [u] they be thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest forth out of Egypt, [y] from the midst of the furnace of iron:

52 That thine eyes may be open unto the supplication of thy servant, and unto the supplication of thy people Israel, to hearken unto them in all that they call for unto thee.

53 For thou [a] didst separate them from among all the people of the earth, to be thine inheritance, [c] as thou spakest by the hand of [d] Moses thy servant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord GOD.

54 And it was so, that when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication unto the LORD, he arose from before the altar of the LORD, [e] from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven.

55 And he stood, and blessed all the congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying,

56 Blessed be the LORD, that [g]hath given rest unto his people Israel, according to all that he promised: [i]there hath not failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised by the hand of Moses his servant.

57 [l]The LORD our God be with us, as he was with our fathers: [m]let him not leave us, nor forsake us:

58 That he may [o]incline our hearts unto him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his judgments, which he commanded our fathers.

59 And let these my words, wherewith I have made supplication before the LORD, be nigh unto the LORD our God day and night, that he maintain the cause of his servant, and the cause of his people Israel at all times, as the matter shall require:

60 [y]That all the people of the earth may know that the LORD is God, and that [a]there is none else.

61 [b]Let your heart therefore be perfect with the LORD our God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as at this day.

62 ¶ [f]And the king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice before the LORD.

63 And Solomon offered a sacrifice of [g]peace offerings, which he offered unto the LORD, two and twenty thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel [k]dedicated the house of the LORD.

64 The same day did the king [l]hallow the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered [m]burnt offerings, and [o]meat offerings, and the [p]fat of the peace offerings: because the [q]brasen altar that was before the LORD was too little to receive the burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings.

65 And at that time Solomon held [a]a feast, and all Israel with him, a great congregation, [b]from the entering in [c]of Hamath unto [d]the river of Egypt, before the LORD our God, [e]seven days [f]and seven days, even fourteen days.

66 On the eighth day he sent the people away: and [h]they blessed the king, and went unto their tents joyful and glad of heart for all [k]the goodness that the LORD had done for David his servant, and for Israel his people.

CHAPTER 9

[n]AND it came to pass, when Solomon had finished the building of the house of the LORD, and the [p]king's house, and [q]all Solomon's desire which he was pleased to do,

2 That [r]the LORD appeared to Solomon the second time, as he had appeared unto him at [s]Gibeon.

3 And the LORD said unto him, [t]I have heard thy prayer and thy supplication, that thou hast made before me: I have hallowed this house, [u]which thou hast built, [x]to put my name there for ever; and [z]mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually.

4 And [c]if thou wilt walk before me, [d]as David thy father walked, [e]in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded thee, and wilt keep my statutes and my judgments:

5 Then I will establish the throne of thy kingdom upon Israel for ever, as I promised to David thy father, saying, [h]There shall not fail thee a man upon the throne of Israel.

6 [i]But if ye shall at all turn from following me, ye or your children, and will not keep my commandments and my statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods, and worship them:

7 [n]Then will I cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; [r]and this house, which I have hallowed for my name, will I cast out of my sight; and Israel shall be [s]a proverb and a byword among all people:

8 And at this house, which is high, every one that passeth by it shall be [b] astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, [c] Why hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and to this house?

9 And they shall answer, [d] Because they forsook the LORD their God, who [e] brought forth their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have [h] taken hold upon other gods, and have worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath the LORD brought upon them all this evil.

10 ¶ [m] And it came to pass at the end of [n] twenty years, when Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD, and the king's house,

11 (Now [o] Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with [q] cedar trees and [r] fir trees, and with gold, according to all his desire,) that then king Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of [t] Galilee.

12 And Hiram came out from [u] Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him; and they pleased him not.

13 And he said, What cities are these which thou hast given me, my brother? And he called them the land of [c] Cā'-bûl unto this day.

14 And Hiram sent to the king sixscore talents of gold.

15 ¶ And this is [e] the reason of the levy which king Solomon raised; for to build the house of the LORD, and his own house, and [g] Millo, and [h] the wall of Jerusalem, and [k] Hazor, and [m] Mĕ-gĭd'-dō, and [n] Gezer.

16 For Phâr'-āoh king of Egypt had gone up, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slain the [p] Cā'-nă-ăn-ītes that dwelt in the city, and given it [r] for a present unto his daughter, [s] Solomon's wife.

17 And Solomon built Gezer, and [t] Beth-horon the nether,

18 And [u] Bā'-ă-lăth, and [2] Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land,

19 And all the [a] cities of store that Solomon had, and [b] cities for his chariots, and cities for his horsemen, and that which Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in [d] Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

20 And [f] all the people that were left [a] of the Amorites, Hittites, Pĕ-rĭz'-zītes, Hivites, and Jĕb'-ū-sītes, which were not of the children of Israel, 21 Their children that were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel also [f] were not able [g] utterly to destroy, [i] upon those did Solomon levy a tribute of [k] bondservice unto this day.

22 But [l] of the children of Israel did Solomon make no bondmen: but they were men of war, and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots, and his horsemen.

23 These were the [p] chief of the officers that were over Solomon's work, [s] five hundred and fifty, which bare rule over the people that wrought in the work.

24 ¶ But Phâr'-āoh's daughter came up out of the [x] city of David unto [y] her house which Solomon had built for her: then did he build Millo.

25 ¶ And [z] three times in a year did Solomon offer [a] burnt offerings and [b] peace offerings upon the altar which he built unto the LORD, and he burnt incense upon [d] the altar that was before the LORD. So he finished the house.

26 ¶ And king Solomon made a navy of ships in [f] Ē'-zĭ-ŏn-geber, which is beside [i] Eloth, on the shore of the [l] Red sea, in the land of Edom.

27 And Hiram sent [o] in the navy his servants, shipmen that had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Solomon.

28 And they came to [q] Ō'-phĭr, and fetched from thence gold, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it to king Solomon.

CHAPTER 10

[x y] AND when the queen of [z] Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD, she came to prove him with [c] hard questions.

2 And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with [e] camels that bare [g] spices, and very much gold, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart.

3 And Solomon told her all her questions: there was not any thing hid from the king, which he told her not.

4 And when the queen of Sheba had seen all Solomon's [d] wisdom, and the house that he had built,

5 And the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel, and his [e] cupbearers, and [4f] his ascent by which he went up unto the house of the LORD; [g] there was no more spirit in her.

6 And she said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thy acts and of thy wisdom.

7 Howbeit I believed not the words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the half was not told me: thy wisdom and prosperity exceedeth the fame which I heard.

8 Happy are thy men, happy are these thy servants, [k] which stand continually before thee, and that hear thy wisdom.

9 Blessed be the LORD thy God, [m] which delighted in thee, to set thee on the throne of Israel: [n] because the LORD loved Israel for ever, therefore made he thee king, [o] to do judgment and justice.

10 And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices very great store, and precious stones: there came no more such abundance of spices as these which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon.

Solomon gave her of his royal bounty. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

14 ¶ [a] Now the [b] weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred threescore and six talents of gold,

15 Beside that he had of [c] the merchantmen, and of the traffick of the spice merchants, and of all the kings of [2] Arabia, and of the [3] governors of the country.

16 ¶ And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred shē'kĕls of gold went to one target.

17 And he made three hundred [h] shields of beaten gold; three pound of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the [i] house of the forest of Lebanon.

18 ¶ Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the best gold.

19 The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round behind: and there were [5] stays on either side on the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the stays.

20 And [l] twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps: there was not the like made in any kingdom.

21 ¶ And all king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold; none were of silver: it was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon.

22 For the king had at sea a [p] navy of Tharshish with the navy of Hiram: once in three years came the navy of Tharshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

23 [t] So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth for riches and for wisdom.

24 ¶ And all the earth sought to Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.

25 And they brought every man his [x] present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and garments, and armour, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.

26 ¶ [a]And Solomon gathered together [b]chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he bestowed in the [d]cities for chariots, and with the king at Jerusalem.

27 And the king made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and [e]cedars made he to be as the [f]sycomore trees that are in the vale, for abundance.

28 ¶ And Solomon had [h]horses brought out of Egypt, [2]and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen yarn at a price.

29 And a chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred shē'kĕls of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so for all the kings of [k]the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, did they bring them out by their means.

CHAPTER 11

BUT king Solomon loved many [m]strange women, together with [o]the daughter of Phâr'āōh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zī-dō'nī-ăns, and Hittites;

2 Of the nations concerning which the LORD said unto the children of Israel, [r]Ye shall not go in to them, neither shall they come in unto you: for surely they will turn away your heart [s]after their gods: Solomon clave unto these in love.

3 [x]And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines: and his wives turned away his heart.

4 For it came to pass, when Solomon was old, that his wives [z]turned away his heart after other gods: and [a]his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as was the heart of David his father.

5 For Solomon went after [c]Ashtoreth the goddess of the [e]Zī-dō'nī-ăns, and after [g]Milcom [h]the abomination of the Ammonites.

6 And Solomon did evil in the sight of the LORD, and went not fully after the LORD, as did David his father.

7 Then did Solomon build an [i]high place for [k]Chē'mŏsh, the abomination of Moab, in the hill that is before Jerusalem, and for [c]Molech, the abomination of the children of Ammon.

8 And likewise did he for all his strange wives, which burnt incense and sacrificed unto their gods.

9 ¶ And the LORD was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned from the LORD God of Israel, [g]which had appeared unto him twice,

10 And had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he kept not that which the LORD commanded.

11 Wherefore the LORD said unto Solomon, Forasmuch as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded thee, [i]I will surely rend the kingdom from thee, [l]and will give it to thy servant.

12 Notwithstanding in thy days I will not do it for David thy father's sake: but I will rend it out of the hand of thy son.

13 [n]Howbeit I will not rend away all the kingdom; but [p]will give one tribe to thy son for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake [q]which I have chosen.

14 ¶ And the LORD stirred up an adversary unto Solomon, Hadad the Edomite: he was of the king's seed in Edom.

15 For it came to pass, when David was in [t]Edom, and [u]Joab the captain of the host was gone up to bury the slain, after he had smitten [y]every male in Edom;

16 (For six months did Joab remain there with all Israel, until he had cut off every male in Edom:)

17 That Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, [b]to go into Egypt; Hadad being yet a little child.

18 And they arose out of [d]Midian, and came to [f]Paran: and they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, unto Phâr'āōh king of Egypt; which gave him an house, and appointed him victuals, and gave him land.

19 And Hadad found great favour in the sight of Phâr'āōh, so that he gave him to wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Täh'pĕn-ēs the queen.

20 And the sister of Täh'pĕn-ēs bare him Gĕ-nū'băth his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Phâr'āōh's house: and Genubath was in Pharaoh's household among the sons of Pharaoh.

21 And when Hadad heard in Egypt [e] that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the host was dead, Hadad said to Phâr'āōh, Let me depart, that I may go to mine own country.

22 Then Phâr'āōh said unto him, But what hast thou lacked with me, that, behold, thou seekest to go to thine own country? And he answered, Nothing: howbeit let me go in any wise.

23 ¶ And God stirred him up another adversary, Rezon the son of Ē-lī'ă-dăh, which fled from his lord [i] Hăd-ă-dē'zĕr king of [k] Zobah:

24 And he gathered men unto him, and became captain over a band, [m] when David slew them of Zobah: and they went to [n] Damascus, and dwelt therein, and reigned in Damascus.

25 And he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, beside the mischief that Hadad did: and he [p] abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria.

26 ¶ And [q] Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm the son of Nebat, an Ĕph'ră-thīte of Zereda, Solomon's servant, whose mother's name was Zĕ-rū'ăh, a widow woman, even he lifted up his hand against the king.

27 And this was the cause that he lifted up his hand against the king: Solomon built [t] Millo, and repaired the breaches of the [u] city of David his father.

28 And the man Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm was a [y] mighty man of valour: and Solomon seeing the young man [z] that he was industrious, he made him ruler over all the [2] charge of the [b] house of Joseph.

29 And it came to pass at that time when Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm went out of Jerusalem, that [a] the prophet [b] Ă-hī'jăh the Shī'lō-nīte found him in the way; and he had clad himself with a new garment; and they two were alone in the field:

30 And Ă-hī'jăh [c] caught the new garment that was on him, and [d] rent it in twelve pieces:

31 And he said to Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm, Take thee ten pieces: for thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, [f] Behold, I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to thee:

32 (But [g] he shall have one tribe for my servant David's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel:)

33 [h] Because that they have forsaken me, and have worshipped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zī-dō'nī-ăns, Chē'mŏsh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon, and [l] have not walked in my ways, to do that which is right in mine eyes, and to keep my statutes and my judgments, as did David his father.

34 Howbeit I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand: but I will make him prince all the days of his life for David my servant's sake, [o] whom I chose, because he kept my commandments and my statutes:

35 But I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it unto thee, even ten tribes.

36 And unto his son will I give one tribe, that David my servant [r] may have a light alway before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen me to put my name there.

37 And I will take thee, and thou shalt reign [s] according to all that thy soul desireth, and shalt be king over Israel.

38 And it shall be, [x] if thou wilt hearken unto all that I command thee, and wilt walk in my ways, and [a] do that is right in my sight, to keep my statutes and my commandments, [c] as David my servant did; that [d] I will be with thee, [e] and build thee a sure house, as I built for David, and will give Israel unto thee.

39 And I will for this afflict the seed of David, but not for ever.

40 Solomon sought therefore to kill Jĕr-ŏ-bō'-ăm. And Jeroboam arose, and [a] fled into Egypt, unto [b] Shī'-shăk king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

41 ¶ [c] And the rest of the acts of Solomon, and all that he did, and [d] his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the acts of Solomon?

42 And the time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years.

43 [e] And Solomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David his father: and [f] Rē-hŏ-bō'-ăm his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 12

[g] AND Rē-hŏ-bō'-ăm went to [h] Shē'-chĕm: for all Israel were come to Shechem to make him king.

2 And it came to pass, when [k] Jĕr-ŏ-bō'-ăm the son of Nebat, [l] who was yet in Egypt, heard of it, (for he was fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam dwelt in Egypt;)

3 That they sent and called him. And Jĕr-ŏ-bō'-ăm and all the congregation of Israel came, and spake unto Rē-hŏ-bō'-ăm, saying,

4 [m] Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make thou the grievous service of thy father, and his [n] heavy yoke which he put upon us, lighter, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said unto them, Depart yet for three days, then come again to me. And the people departed.

6 ¶ And king Rē-hŏ-bō'-ăm consulted with the old men, that [r] stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, and said, How do ye advise that I may answer this people?

7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou wilt be a servant unto this people this day, and wilt serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be thy servants for ever.

8 But he forsook the counsel of the old men, which they had given him, and consulted with the young men that were grown up with him, and which stood before him:

9 And he said unto them, What counsel give ye that we may answer this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke which thy father did put upon us lighter?

10 And the young men that were grown up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou speak unto this people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it lighter unto us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11 And now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father hath chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with [i] scorpions.

12 ¶ So Jĕr-ŏ-bō'-ăm and all the people came to Rē-hŏ-bō'-ăm the third day, as the king had appointed, saying, Come to me again the third day.

13 And the king answered the people roughly, and forsook the old men's counsel that they gave him;

14 And spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, and I will add to your yoke: my father also chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 Wherefore the king hearkened not unto the people; for [o] the cause was from the LORD, [p] that he might perform his saying, which the LORD spake by [q] Ā-hī'-jăh the Shī'-lō-nīte unto Jĕr-ŏ-bō'-ăm the son of Nebat.

16 ¶ So when all Israel saw that the king hearkened not unto them, the people answered the king, saying, [s] What portion have we in David? neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: [t] to your tents, O Israel: now see to thine own house, David. So Israel departed unto their tents.

17 But as for the children of Israel which dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rē-hŏ-bō'-ăm reigned over them.

18 Then king Rē-hŏ-bō'-ăm sent [u] Ā-dôr'-ăm, who was over the tribute; and all Israel [x] stoned him with stones, that he died. Therefore king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 [b] So Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

20 And it came to pass, when all Israel heard that Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm was come again, that they sent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: there was none that followed the house of David, but [h] the tribe of Judah only.

21 ¶ [i] And when Rē-hŏ-bō'ăm was come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, with [k] the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.

22 But the word of God came unto [m] Shĕm-âi'ăh [n] the man of God, saying,

23 Speak unto Rē-hŏ-bō'ăm, the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and unto all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the remnant of the people, saying,

24 Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: return every man to his house; for [q] this thing is from me. They hearkened therefore to the word of the LORD, and returned to depart, according to the word of the LORD.

25 ¶ Then Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm built [s] Shē'chĕm in mount Ē'phră-ĭm, and dwelt therein; and went out from thence, and built [u] Pĕn'ū-ĕl.

26 And Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm said in his heart, Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David:

27 If this people [z] go up to do sacrifice in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, even unto Rē-hŏ-bō'ăm king of Judah, and they shall kill me, and go again to Rehoboam king of Judah.

28 Whereupon the king took counsel, and [b] made two calves of gold, and said unto them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

29 And he set the one in [a] Beth-el, and the other put he in [c] Dan.

30 And this thing [d] became a sin: for the people went to worship before [2] the one, even unto Dan.

31 And he made an [3e] house of [f] high places, and [g] made priests of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sons of Levi.

32 And Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like unto [l] the feast that is in Judah, and he offered upon the altar. So did he in Beth-el, sacrificing unto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Beth-el the priests of the high places which he had made.

33 So he offered upon the altar which he had made in Beth-el the fifteenth day of the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised of his own heart; and ordained a feast unto the children of Israel: and he offered upon the altar, and burnt incense.

CHAPTER 13

[o] AND, behold, there came a [p] man of God out of Judah by the word of the LORD unto [r] Beth-el: and Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm stood by the altar to burn incense.

2 And he cried against the altar in the word of the LORD, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith the LORD; [t] Behold, a child shall be born unto the house of David, Josiah by name; and upon thee [x] shall he offer the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and [y] men's bones shall be burnt upon thee.

3 And he gave [a] a sign the same day, saying, This is the sign which the LORD hath spoken; Behold, the altar shall be rent, and the ashes that are upon it shall be poured out.

4 And it came to pass, when king Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm heard the saying of the man of God, which had cried against the altar in Beth-el, that he put forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him. And his hand, which he put forth against him, dried up, so that he could not pull it in again to him.

5 The altar also was rent, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD.

6 And the king answered and said unto the man of God, [b] Intreat now the face of the LORD thy God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again. And the man of God besought the LORD, [c] and the king's hand was restored him again, and became as it was before.

7 And the king said unto the man of God, Come home with me, and refresh thyself, and [d] I will give thee a reward.

8 And the man of God said unto the king, [e] If thou wilt give me half thine house, I will not go in with thee, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place:

9 For so was it charged me by the word of the LORD, saying, Eat no bread, nor drink water, nor turn again by the same way that thou camest.

10 So he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Beth-el.

11 ¶ Now there dwelt [g] an old prophet in Beth-el; and his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Beth-el: the words which he had spoken unto the king, them they told also to their father.

12 And their father said unto them, What way went he? For his sons had seen what way the man of God went, which came from Judah.

13 And he said unto his sons, Saddle me the [i] ass. So they saddled him the ass: and he rode thereon,

14 And went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak: and he said unto him, Art thou the man of God that camest from Judah? And he said, I am.

15 Then he said unto him, Come home with me, and [k] eat bread.

16 And he said, I may not return with thee, nor go in with thee: neither will I eat bread nor drink water with thee in this place:

17 For it was said to me [a] by the word of the LORD, Thou shalt eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that thou camest.

18 He said unto him, I am a prophet also as thou art; and an angel spake unto me by the word of the LORD, saying, Bring him back with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied unto him.

19 So he went back with him, and did eat bread in his house, and drank water.

20 ¶ And it came to pass, as they sat at the table, that the word of the LORD came unto the prophet that brought him back:

21 And he cried unto the man of God that came from Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Forasmuch as [f] thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the LORD, and hast not kept the commandment which the LORD thy God commanded thee,

22 But camest back, and hast eaten bread and drunk water in the place, of the which the LORD did say to thee, Eat no bread, and drink no water; thy carcase shall not come unto the sepulchre of thy fathers.

23 ¶ And it came to pass, after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he saddled for him the ass, to wit, for the prophet whom he had brought back.

24 And when he was gone, [h] a lion met him by the way, and slew him: and his carcase was cast in the way, and the ass stood by it, the lion also stood by the carcase.

25 And, behold, men passed by, and saw the carcase cast in the way, and the lion standing by the carcase: and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet dwelt.

26 And when the prophet that brought him back from the way heard thereof, he said, It is the man of God, who was disobedient unto the word of the LORD: therefore the LORD hath delivered him unto the lion, which hath torn him, and slain him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake unto him.

27 And he spake to his sons, saying, Saddle me the ass. And they saddled him.

28 And he went and found his carcase cast in the way, and the ass and the lion standing by the carcase: the lion had not eaten the carcase, nor torn the ass.

29 And the prophet took up the carcase of the man of God, and laid it upon the ass, and brought it back: and the old prophet came to the city, to mourn and to bury him.

30 And he laid his carcase in his own grave; and they [d] mourned over him, saying, [e] Alas, my brother!

31 And it came to pass, after he had buried him, that he spake to his sons, saying, When I am dead, then bury me in the sepulchre wherein the man of God is buried; [g] lay my bones beside his bones:

32 [h] For the saying which he cried by the word of the LORD against the altar in Beth-el, and against all the [k] houses of the high places which are in the cities of [n] Samaria, shall surely come to pass.

33 ¶ After this thing Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm returned not from his evil way, but made again of the lowest of the people [p] priests of the [q] high places: whosoever would, he [s] consecrated him, and he became one of the priests of the high places.

34 And this thing [x] became sin unto the house of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm, [y] even to cut it off, and to destroy it from off the face of the earth.

CHAPTER 14

AT that time Ă-bī'jăh the son of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm fell sick.

2 And Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm said to his wife, Arise, I pray thee, and [e] disguise thyself, that thou be not known to be the wife of Jeroboam; and get thee to [g] Shiloh: behold, there is [h] Ă-hī'jăh the prophet, [i] which told me that I should be king over this people.

3 [k] And take with thee ten loaves, and cracknels, and a cruse of [a] honey, and go to him: he shall tell thee what shall become of the child.

4 And Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm's wife did so, and arose, and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ă-hī'jăh. But Ahijah could not see; [b] for his eyes were set by reason of his age.

5 ¶ And the LORD said unto Ă-hī'jăh, Behold, the wife of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm cometh [c] to ask a thing of thee for her son; for he is sick: thus and thus shalt thou say unto her: for it shall be, when she cometh in, that she shall feign herself to be another woman.

6 And it was so, when Ă-hī'jăh heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the door, that he said, Come in, thou wife of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm; why feignest thou thyself to be another? for I am sent to thee with heavy tidings.

7 Go, tell Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, [f] Forasmuch as I exalted thee from among the people, and made thee prince over my people Israel,

8 [i] And rent the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it thee: and yet [l] thou hast not been [m] as my servant David, who kept my commandments, and who followed me with all his heart, [o] to do that only which was right in mine eyes;

9 But hast done evil above all that were before thee: for thou [r] hast gone and made thee other gods, and molten images, [t] to provoke me to anger, and [u] hast cast me behind thy back:

10 Therefore, behold, I will bring evil upon the house of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm, and [z] will cut off from Jeroboam him that pisseth against the wall, and [a] him that is shut up and left in Israel, and [b] will take away the remnant of the house of Jeroboam, as a man [c] taketh away dung, till it be all gone.

11 [d] Him that dieth of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm in the city shall the [f] dogs eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat: for the LORD hath spoken it.

12 Arise thou therefore, get thee to thine own house: and when thy feet enter into the city, the child shall die.

13 And all Israel shall mourn for him, and bury him: for he only of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm shall come to the grave, because in him [d] there is found some good thing toward the LORD God of Israel in the house of Jeroboam.

14 [g] Moreover the LORD shall raise him up a king over Israel, who shall cut off the house of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm that day: but what? even now.

15 [i] For the LORD shall smite Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water, and he shall [m] root up Israel out of [n] this good land, which he gave to their fathers, and shall [q] scatter them beyond the river, [r] because they have made their [s] groves, provoking the LORD to anger.

16 And [u] he shall give Israel up because of [x] the sins of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm, who did sin, and who made Israel to sin.

17 ¶ And Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm's wife arose, and departed, and came to [z] Tirzah: and when she came to the threshold of the door, the child died;

18 And they buried him; and all Israel [a] mourned for him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by the hand of his servant Ă-hī'jăh the prophet.

19 And the rest of the acts of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm, [c] how he warred, and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

20 And the days which Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm reigned were two and twenty years: and he slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his stead.

21 ¶ And Rē-hŏ-bō'ăm the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, [g] the city which the LORD did choose out of all the tribes of Israel, [h] to put his name there. And [i] his mother's name was Nā'ă-măh an Ăm-mon-ī'tĕss.

22 And Judah [m] did evil in the sight of the LORD, and they provoked him to jealousy with their sins which they had committed, above all that their fathers had done.

23 For they also built them [a] high places, and [2b] images, and groves, [c] on every high hill, and under every green tree.

24 And there were also [e] sodomites in the land: and they did [f] according to all the abominations of the nations [h] which the LORD cast out before the children of Israel.

25 ¶ And it came to pass in the fifth year of king Rē-hŏ-bō'ăm, that [k] Shī'shăk king of Egypt [l] came up against Jerusalem:

26 [o] And [p] he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house; he even took away all: and he took away all the [t] shields of gold which Solomon had made.

27 And king Rē-hŏ-bō'ăm made in their stead brasen shields, and committed them unto the hands of the chief of the [3y] guard, which kept the door of the king's house.

28 And it was so, when the king went into the house of the LORD, that the guard bare them, and brought them back into the guard chamber.

29 ¶ [b] Now the rest of the acts of Rē-hŏ-bō'ăm, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

30 [d] And there was war between Rē-hŏ-bō'ăm and Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm all their days.

31 And Rē-hŏ-bō'ăm slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And his mother's name was Nā'ă-măh an Ăm-mon-ī'tĕss. And [e] Ă-bī'jăm his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 15

[f] NOW in the eighteenth year of king Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm the son of Nebat reigned Ă-bī'jăm over Judah.

2 Three years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was [k] Mā'ă-chăh, the daughter of [l] Ă-bī'shă-lŏm.

3 And [n] he walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him: and [o] his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father.

4 Nevertheless [a] for David's sake did the LORD his God [b] give him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem:

5 [d] Because David did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, and turned not aside from any thing that he commanded him all the days of his life, save only [f] in the matter of [g] Ū-rī'ăh the Hittite.

6 [h] And there was war between Rē-hŏ-bō'ăm and Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm all the days of his life.

7 [l] Now the rest of the acts of Ă-bī'jăm, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? [n] And there was war between Abijam and Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm.

8 [o] And Ă-bī'jăm slept with his fathers; and they buried him in the city of David: and [p] Asa his son reigned in his stead.

9 ¶ And in the twentieth year of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm king of Israel reigned Asa over Judah.

10 And forty and one years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Mā'ă-chäh, the daughter of Ă-bī'shă-lŏm.

11 And Asa [y] did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, as did David his father.

12 And he took away the [b] sodomites out of the land, and [c] removed all the [d] idols that his fathers had made.

13 [e] And also Mā'ă-chäh his mother, even her he removed from being [2] queen, because [h] she had made an idol [3] in a [i] grove; and Asa destroyed her idol, and [l] burnt it by [m] the brook Kidron.

14 But [n] the high places were not removed: nevertheless Asa's [o] heart was perfect with the LORD all his days.

15 And he brought in the things which his father [p] had dedicated, and the things which himself had dedicated, into the house of the LORD, silver, and [r] gold, and vessels.

16 ¶ [s] And there was war between Asa and Bā-ăsh'ă king of Israel all their days.

17 [u] And Bā-ăsh'ă king of Israel went up against Judah, and built [c] Ramah, that he might not suffer any to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

18 Then [e] Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants: and king Asa sent them to [i] Ben–hadad, the son of Tăb-rĭm'ŏn, the son of Hē'zī-ŏn, king of Syria, that dwelt at [k] Damascus, saying,

19 There is [m] a league between me and thee, and between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent unto thee a present of silver and gold; come and break thy league with Bā-ăsh'ă king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

20 So Ben–hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and [q] sent the captains of the hosts which he had against the cities of Israel, and smote [r] Ī'jŏn, and [s] Dan and [t] Ā'bĕl–bĕth–mā'ă-chäh, and all [u] Çĭn'nĕ-rōth, with all the land of [x] Năph'tă-lī.

21 And it came to pass, when Bā-ăsh'ă heard thereof, that he left off building of Ramah, and dwelt in [z] Tirzah.

22 Then king Asa made a proclamation throughout all Judah; [a] none was exempted: and they took away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Bā-ăsh'ă had builded; and king Asa built with them [f] Geba of Benjamin, and [g] Mizpah.

23 [k] The rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? Nevertheless in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet.

24 And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and [q] Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt his son reigned in his stead.

25 ¶ And [t] Nadab the son of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned over Israel two years.

26 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and [b] in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin.

27 ¶ And Bā-ăsh'ă the son of Ă-hī'jăh, of the house of Ĭs'să-chär, conspired against him; and Baasha smote him at [e] Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel laid siege to Gibbethon.

28 Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah did Bā-ăsh'ă slay him, and reigned in his stead.

29 And it came to pass, when he reigned, that he smote all the house of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm; he left not to Jeroboam any that breathed, until he had destroyed him, [h] according unto the saying of the LORD, which he spake by his servant [i] Ă-hī'jăh the Shī'lō-nīte:

of his house; and will make thy house [a] like the house of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm the son of Nebat.

4 [c] Him that dieth of Bā-ăsh'ă in the city shall the [d] dogs eat; and him that dieth of his in the fields shall the fowls of the air eat.

5 Now the rest of the acts of Bā-ăsh'ă, and what he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

6 So Bā-ăsh'ă slept with his fathers, and was buried in [f] Tirzah: and Elah his son reigned in his stead.

7 And also by the hand of the prophet [g] Jehu the son of Hă-nā'nī came the word of the LORD against Bā-ăsh'ă, and against his house, even for all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD, in provoking him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm; and because [k] he killed him.

8 ¶ In the twenty and sixth year of Asa king of Judah began Elah the son of Bā-ăsh'ă to reign over Israel in Tirzah, two years.

9 And his servant [m] Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him, as he was in Tirzah, [n] drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza [p] steward of his house in Tirzah.

10 And Zimri went in and [q] smote him, and killed him, in the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his stead.

11 ¶ And it came to pass, when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he slew all the house of Bā-ăsh'ă: he left him not one that pisseth against a wall, neither of his [r] kinsfolk, nor of his friends.

12 Thus did Zimri destroy all the house of Bā-ăsh'ă, [s] according to the word of the LORD, which he spake against Baasha by Jehu the prophet,

13 For all the sins of Bā-ăsh'ă, and the sins of Elah his son, by which they sinned, and by which they made Israel to sin, in provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their [b] vanities.

14 Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

15 ¶ In the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah did Zimri reign seven days in Tirzah. And the people were encamped against [a] Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines.

16 And the people that were encamped heard say, Zimri hath conspired, and hath also slain the king: wherefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the host, king over Israel that day in the camp.

17 And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah.

18 And it came to pass, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the [2c] palace of the king's house, and burnt the king's house over him with fire, and died,

19 For his sins which he sinned in doing evil in the sight of the LORD, [f] in walking in the way of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm, and in his sin which he did, to make Israel to sin.

20 Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason that he wrought, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

21 ¶ Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Gī'năth, to make him king; and half followed Omri.

22 But the people that followed Omri prevailed against the people that followed Tibni the son of Gī'năth: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned.

23 ¶ In the thirty and first year of Asa king of Judah began Omri to reign over Israel, twelve years: six years reigned he in Tirzah.

24 And he bought the hill [r] Samaria of Shemer for two talents of silver, and [4] built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, after the name of Shemer, owner of the hill, Samaria.

25 ¶ [z] But Omri wrought evil in the eyes of the LORD, and did worse than all that were before him.

in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities.

27 Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he shewed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

28 So Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria: and [b] Ahab his son reigned in his stead.

29 ¶ And in the thirty and eighth year of Asa king of Judah began Ahab the son of Omri to reign over Israel: and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty and two years.

30 And Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD [d] above all that were before him.

31 And it came to pass, as if it had been [e] a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm the son of Nebat, that [g] he took to wife [h] Jezebel the daughter of Ĕth-bā'ăl king of the [i] Zī-dō'nī-ăns, and went and served [k] Bā'ăl, and worshipped him.

32 And he reared up an altar for Bā'ăl in the [l] house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.

33 And Ahab made a [3m] grove; and Ahab did more to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel that were before him.

34 ¶ In his days did Hiel the Bĕth'-ĕl-īte build [n] Jericho: he laid the foundation thereof in Ă-bī'răm his firstborn, and set up the gates thereof in his youngest son Sē'gŭb, [o] according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by [p] Joshua the son of Nun.

CHAPTER 17

AND [q] Elijah the Tishbite, who was of the inhabitants of [s] Gĭl'ĕ-ăd, said unto Ahab, [t] As the LORD God of Israel liveth, [u] before whom I stand, there shall not be [x] dew nor [y] rain these years, but according to my word.

2 And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying,

3 Get thee hence, and turn thee eastward, and hide thyself by the brook Chē'rĭth, that is before Jordan.

868 B.C.

4 And it shall be, that thou shalt drink of the brook; and I have commanded the [a] ravens to feed thee there.

5 So he went and did according unto the word of the LORD: for he went and dwelt by the brook Chĕ'rĭth, that is before Jordan.

6 And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook.

7 And it came to pass after a while, that the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land.

8 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying,

9 Arise, get thee to [e] Zăr'ĕ-phăth, which belongeth to [f] Zidon, and dwell there: behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to sustain thee.

10 So he arose and went to Zăr'ĕ-phăth. And when he came to the gate of the city, behold, the widow woman was there gathering of sticks: and he called to her, and said, Fetch me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink.

11 And as she was going to fetch it, he called to her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsel of bread in thine hand.

12 And she said, As the LORD thy God liveth, I have not a [k] cake, but an handful of meal in a barrel, and a little oil in a cruse: and, behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die.

13 And Elijah said unto her, [m] Fear not; go and do as thou hast said: but make me thereof a little cake first, and bring it unto me, and after make for thee and for thy son.

14 For thus saith the LORD God of Israel, The barrel of meal shall not waste, neither shall the cruse of oil fail, until the day that the LORD sendeth rain upon the earth.

15 And she went and did according to the saying of Elijah: and she, and he, and her house, did eat many days.

16 And the barrel of meal wasted not, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by Elijah.

17 ¶ And it came to pass after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was so sore, that there was no breath left in him.

18 And she said unto Elijah, [b] What have I to do with thee, O thou [c] man of God? art thou come unto me [d] to call my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son?

19 And he said unto her, Give me thy son. And he took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into a loft, where he abode, and laid him upon his own bed.

20 And he cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, hast thou also brought evil upon the widow with whom I sojourn, by slaying her son?

21 [g] And he stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, I pray thee, let this child's soul come into him again.

22 And [h] the LORD heard the voice of Elijah; [i] and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived.

23 And Elijah took the child, and brought him down out of the chamber into the house, and delivered him unto his mother: and Elijah said, See, thy son liveth.

24 ¶ And the woman said to Elijah, [l] Now by this I know that thou art a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in thy mouth is truth.

CHAPTER 18

AND it came to pass [n] after many days, that the word of the LORD came to [o] Elijah in the third year, saying, Go, shew thyself unto Ahab; and [p] I will send rain upon the earth.

2 And Elijah went to shew himself unto Ahab. And there was a sore [q] famine in Samaria.

3 And Ahab called Obadiah, which was the [r] governor of his house. (Now Obadiah [s] feared the LORD greatly:

4 For it was so, when [t] Jezebel cut off the prophets of the LORD, that Obadiah took an hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.)

5 And Ahab said unto Obadiah, Go into the land, unto all fountains of water, and unto all brooks: peradventure we may find grass to save the horses and mules alive, that we lose not all the beasts.

6 So they divided the land between them to pass throughout it: Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.

7 ¶ And as Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah met him: and he knew him, and fell on his face, and said, Art thou that my lord Elijah?

8 And he answered him, I am: go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.

9 And he said, What have I sinned, that thou wouldest deliver thy servant into the hand of Ahab, to slay me?

10 [m]As the LORD thy God liveth, there is no nation or kingdom, whither my lord hath not sent to seek thee: and when they said, He is not there; he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they found thee not.

11 And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.

12 And it shall come to pass, as soon as I am gone from thee, that [o]the Spirit of the LORD shall carry thee whither I know not; and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he cannot find thee, he shall slay me: but I thy servant fear the LORD from my youth.

13 Was it not told my lord what I did when Jezebel slew the prophets of the LORD, how I hid an hundred men of the LORD's prophets by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water?

14 And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here: and he shall slay me.

15 And Elijah said, As [r]the LORD of hosts liveth, [s]before whom I stand, I will surely shew myself unto him to day.

16 So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him: and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

17 ¶ And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, [a]Art thou he that [b]troubleth Israel?

18 And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, in that [c]ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed [d]Bā'ă-lĭm.

19 Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel unto [e]mount Carmel, and the [f]prophets of Bā'ăl four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the [2g]groves four hundred, [h]which eat [i]at Jezebel's table.

20 So Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together unto mount Carmel.

21 And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long [k]halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD be God, [l]follow him: but if Bā'ăl, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word.

22 Then said Elijah unto the people, [n]I, even I only, remain a prophet of the LORD; but Bā'ăl's prophets are four hundred and fifty men.

23 Let them therefore give us two bullocks; and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under: and I will dress the other bullock, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under:

24 And call ye on the name of your gods, and [p]I will call on the name of the LORD: and the God [q]that answereth by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered and said, It is well spoken.

25 And Elijah said unto the prophets of Bā'ăl, Choose you one bullock for yourselves, and dress it first; for ye are many; and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire under.

26 And they took the bullock which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Bā'ăl from morning even until noon, saying, O Baal, hear us. But there was no voice, nor any that answered. And they [3]leaped upon the altar which was made.

27 And it came to pass at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, [t]Cry aloud: [a] for he is a god; either he is talking, or he is pursuing, or he is in a journey, or peradventure he sleepeth, and must be awaked.

28 And they cried aloud, and [c] cut themselves after their manner with knives and lancets, till the blood gushed out upon them.

29 And it came to pass, when midday was past, and they [e] prophesied [f] until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any that regarded.

30 And Elijah said unto all the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was [i] broken down.

31 And Elijah took [l] twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, unto whom the word of the LORD came, saying, [m] Israel shall be thy name:

32 And with the [n] stones he [o] built an altar in the name of the LORD: and he made a trench about the altar, as great as would contain two measures of seed.

33 And he [r] put the wood in order, and cut the bullock in pieces, and laid him on the wood, and said, Fill four barrels with water, and [s] pour it on the burnt sacrifice, and on the wood.

34 And he said, Do it the second time. And they did it the second time. And he said, Do it the third time. And they did it the third time.

35 And the water ran round about the altar; and he filled the trench also with water.

36 And it came to pass at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, LORD [z] God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, [b] let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and that [e] I have done all these things at thy word.

37 [g] Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that thou art the LORD God, and that thou hast turned their heart back again.

38 [h] Then the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed [b] the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.

39 And when all the people saw it, they [d] fell on their faces: and they said, The LORD, he is the God; the LORD, he is the God.

40 And Elijah said unto them, Take the prophets of Bā'ăl; let not one of them escape. And they took them: and Elijah brought them down to the brook [g] Kishon, and [h] slew them there.

41 ¶ And Elijah said unto Ahab, Get thee up, eat and drink; for there is a sound of abundance of rain.

42 So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he [k] cast himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees, 43 And said to his servant, Go up now, look toward the sea. And he went up, and looked, and said, There is nothing. And he said, Go again [p] seven times.

44 And it came to pass at the seventh time, that he said, Behold, [q] there ariseth a little cloud out of the sea, like a man's hand. And he said, Go up, say unto Ahab, Prepare thy chariot, and get thee down, that the rain stop thee not.

45 And it came to pass in the mean while, that the heaven was black with clouds and [t] wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode, and went to [u] Jezreel.

46 And [x] the hand of the LORD was on Elijah; and he [y] girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

CHAPTER 19

AND Ahab told [a] Jezebel all that [c] Elijah had done, and withal how [d] he had slain all the prophets with the sword.

2 Then Jezebel sent a messenger unto Elijah, saying, [f] So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I make not thy life as the life of one of them by to morrow about this time.

3 And when he saw that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to

[a] Beer-sheba, which belongeth to Judah, and left his servant there.

4 ¶ But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a [2b] juniper tree: and he [c] requested for himself that he might die; and said, It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers.

5 And as he lay and slept under a juniper tree, behold, then [d] an angel touched him, and said unto him, Arise and eat.

6 And he looked, and, behold, there was [e] a cake baken on the [3] coals, and a cruse of water at his head. And he did eat and drink, and laid him down again.

7 And the angel of the LORD came again the second time, and touched him, and said, Arise and eat; because the journey is too great for thee.

8 And he arose, and did eat and drink, and went in the strength of that meat [m] forty days and forty nights unto [n] Horeb the [o] mount of God.

9 ¶ And he came thither unto a cave, and lodged there; and, behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and he said unto him, What doest thou here, Elijah?

10 And he said, I have been very [s] jealous for [t] the LORD God of hosts: for the children of Israel have [x] forsaken thy covenant, [y] thrown down thine altars, and [z] slain thy prophets with the sword; and [b] I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.

11 And he said, Go forth, and [e] stand upon the mount before the LORD. [f] And, behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong [g] wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind: and after the wind an [i] earthquake; but the LORD was not in the earthquake:

12 And after the earthquake a [k] fire; but the LORD was not in the fire: and after the fire [4m] a still small voice.

13 And it was so, when Elijah heard it, that [o] he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entering in of the cave. And, behold, there came a voice unto him, and said, What doest thou here, Elijah?

14 And he said, I have been very jealous for the LORD God of hosts: because the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.

15 And the LORD said unto him, Go, return on thy way to the wilderness of Damascus: and when thou comest, [f] anoint [g] Hă-zā'-ĕl to be king over Syria:

16 And [h] Jehu the son of Nĭm'-shī shalt thou anoint to be king over Israel: and [i] Elisha the son of Shā'-phăt of Ā'-bĕl-mĕ-hō'-lăh shalt thou anoint to be prophet in thy room.

17 And it shall come to pass, that him that escapeth [k] the sword of Hă-zā'-ĕl [l] shall Jehu slay: and him that escapeth from the sword of Jehu shall Elisha slay.

18 [p] Yet I have left me seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed unto [q] Bā'-ăl, and every mouth which hath not [r] kissed him.

19 ¶ So he departed thence, and found Elisha the son of Shā'-phăt, who was plowing with [u] twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth: and Elijah passed by him, and cast his [a] mantle upon him.

20 And he left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, [c] Let me, I pray thee, [d] kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow thee. And he said unto him, Go back again: for what have I done to thee?

21 And he returned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen, and slew them, and boiled their flesh with the [h] instruments of the oxen, and gave unto the people, and they did eat. Then he arose, and went after Elijah, and [l] ministered unto him.

and he went up and besieged [a] Samaria, and warred against it.

2 And he sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel into the city, and said unto him, Thus saith Ben-hadad,

3 Thy silver and thy gold is mine; thy wives also and thy children, even the goodliest, are mine.

4 And the king of Israel answered and said, My lord, O king, according to thy saying, [d] I am thine, and all that I have.

5 And the messengers came again, and said, Thus speaketh Ben-hadad, saying, Although I have sent unto thee, saying, Thou shalt deliver me thy silver, and thy gold, and thy wives, and thy children;

6 Yet I will send my servants unto thee to morrow about this time, and they shall search thine house, and the houses of thy servants; and it shall be, that whatsoever is pleasant in thine eyes, they shall put it in their hand, and take it away.

7 Then the king of Israel called all the [e] elders of the land, and said, [f] Mark, I pray you, and see how this man seeketh mischief: for he sent unto me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold; and I denied him not.

8 And all the elders and all the people said unto him, Hearken not unto him, nor consent.

9 Wherefore he said unto the messengers of Ben-hadad, Tell my lord the king, All that thou didst send for to thy servant at the first I will do: but this thing I may not do. And the messengers departed, and brought him word again.

10 And Ben-hadad sent unto him, and said, [g] The gods do so unto me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people that [3] [h] follow me.

11 And the king of Israel answered and said, Tell him, Let not him that girdeth on his harness boast himself as he that putteth it off.

12 And it came to pass, when Ben-hadad heard this message, [i] as he was drinking, he and the kings in the [4] pavilions, that he said unto his servants, [2] Set yourselves in array. And they set themselves in array against the city.

13 ¶ And, behold, there came a prophet unto Ahab king of Israel, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou seen all this great multitude? behold, [b] I will deliver it into thine hand this day; and [c] thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

14 And Ahab said, By whom? And he said, Thus saith the LORD, Even by the young men of the princes of the provinces. Then he said, Who shall order the battle? And he answered, Thou.

15 Then he numbered the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty two: and after them he numbered all the people, even all the children of Israel, being seven thousand.

16 And they went out at noon. But Ben-hadad was drinking himself drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty and two kings that helped him.

17 And the young men of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Ben-hadad sent out, and they told him, saying, There are men come out of Samaria.

18 And he said, Whether they be come out for peace, take them alive; or whether they be come out for war, take them alive.

19 So these young men of the princes of the provinces came out of the city, and the army which followed them.

20 And they slew every one his man: and the Syrians fled; and Israel pursued them: and Ben-hadad the king of Syria escaped on an horse with the horsemen.

21 And the king of Israel went out, and smote the horses and chariots, and slew the Syrians with a great slaughter.

22 ¶ And the prophet came to the king of Israel, and said unto him, Go, strengthen thyself, and mark, and see what thou doest: for [k] at the return of the year the king of Syria will come up against thee.

23 And the servants of the king of Syria said unto him, Their gods are gods of the hills; therefore they were stronger than we; but let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they.

24 And do this thing, Take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put [4]captains in their rooms:

25 And number thee an army, like the army that thou hast lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot: and we will fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they. And he hearkened unto their voice, and did so.

26 And it came to pass at the return of the year, that Ben-hadad numbered the Syrians, and went up to [d]Aphek, to fight against Israel.

27 And the children of Israel were numbered, and were all present, and went against them: and the children of Israel pitched before them like two little flocks of kids; but the Syrians filled the country.

28 ¶ And there came a [h]man of God, and spake unto the king of Israel, and said, Thus saith the LORD, Because the Syrians have said, The LORD is God of the hills, but he is not God of the valleys, therefore [l]will I deliver all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

29 And they pitched one over against the other seven days. And so it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined: and the children of Israel slew of the Syrians an hundred thousand footmen in one day.

30 But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and there a wall fell upon twenty and seven thousand of the men that were left. And Ben-hadad fled, and came into the city, [5]into [o]an inner chamber.

31 ¶ And his servants said unto him, Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings: let us, I pray thee, put [q]sackcloth on our loins, and ropes upon our heads, and go out to the king of Israel: peradventure he will save thy life.

32 So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, Thy servant Ben-hadad saith, I pray thee, let me live. And he said, Is he yet alive? he is my brother.

33 Now the men did diligently [2a]observe [3]whether any thing would come from him, and did hastily catch it: and they said, Thy brother Ben-hadad. Then he said, Go ye, bring him. Then Ben-hadad came forth to him; and he caused him to come up into the chariot.

34 And Ben-hadad said unto him, The cities, [b]which my father took from thy father, I will restore; and thou shalt make streets for thee in [c]Damascus, as my father made in Samaria. Then said Ahab, I will send thee away with this covenant. So he [e]made a covenant with him, and sent him away.

35 ¶ And a certain man of the [f]sons of the prophets said unto his neighbour [g]in the word of the LORD, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man refused to smite him.

36 Then said he unto him, Because thou [i]hast not obeyed the voice of the LORD, behold, as soon as thou art departed from me, [k]a lion shall slay thee. And as soon as he was departed from him, a lion found him, and slew him.

37 Then he found another man, and said, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man smote him, so that in smiting he wounded him.

38 So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and [m]disguised himself with ashes upon his face.

39 And as the king passed by, he cried unto the king: and [n]he said, Thy servant went out into the midst of the battle; and, behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man unto me, and said, Keep this man: if by any means he be missing, [p]then shall thy life be for his life, or else thou shalt pay a talent of silver.

40 And as thy servant was busy here and there, he was gone. And the king of Israel said unto him, So shall thy judgment be; thyself hast decided it.

CHAPTER 21

AND it came to pass after these things, that [k] Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was in [l] Jezreel, hard by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.

2 And Ahab spake unto Naboth, saying, [m] Give me thy vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near unto my house: and I will give thee for it a better vineyard than it; or, if it seem good to thee, I will give thee the worth of it in money.

3 And Naboth said to Ahab, The LORD forbid it me, [n] that I should give the inheritance of my fathers unto thee.

4 And Ahab [p] came into his house heavy and displeased because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him: for he had said, I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers. And he laid him down upon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread.

5 ¶ But [q] Jezebel his wife came to him, and said unto him, Why is thy spirit so sad, that thou eatest no bread?

6 And he said unto her, Because I spake unto Naboth the Jezreelite, and said unto him, Give me thy vineyard for money; or else, if it please thee, I will give thee another vineyard for it: and he answered, I will not give thee my vineyard.

7 And Jezebel his wife said unto him, Dost thou now govern the kingdom of Israel? arise, and eat bread, and [s] let thine heart be merry: [t] I will give thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.

8 [a] So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters unto the [b] elders and to the nobles that were in his city, dwelling with Naboth.

9 And she wrote in the letters, saying, [e] Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people:

10 And set two men, [g] sons of [2] Bĕ-lī-ăl, before him, [h] to bear witness against him, saying, [i] Thou didst blaspheme God and the king. And then carry him out, and stone him, that he may die.

11 And the men of his city, even the elders and the nobles who were the inhabitants in his city, did as Jezebel had sent unto them, and as it was written in the letters which she had sent unto them.

12 They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people.

13 And there came in two men, children of Bĕ-lī-ăl, and sat before him: and the men of Belial witnessed against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did blaspheme God and the king. Then they carried him forth out of the city, and [o] stoned him with stones, that he died.

14 Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, Naboth is stoned, and is dead.

15 ¶ And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give thee for money: for Naboth is not alive, but dead.

16 And it came to pass, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

17 ¶ And the word of the LORD came to [r] Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

18 Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, which is in Samaria: behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, whither he is gone down to possess it.

20 And Ahab said to Elijah, [f] Hast thou found me, O mine enemy? And he answered, I have found thee: because [h] thou hast sold thyself to work evil in the sight of the LORD.

21 Behold, I will bring evil upon thee, and [i] will take away thy posterity, and will cut off from Ahab him that pisseth against the wall, and him that is [k] shut up and left in Israel,

22 And will make thine house [m] like the house of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm the son of Nebat, and [n] like the house of Bā-ăsh'ă the son of Ă-hī'jăh, for the provocation wherewith thou hast [q] provoked me to anger, and [r] made Israel to sin.

23 And of Jezebel also spake the LORD, saying, [s] The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel.

24 [t] Him that dieth of Ahab in the city the dogs shall eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat.

25 ¶ But [x] there was none like unto Ahab, which did sell himself to work wickedness in the sight of the LORD, whom Jezebel his wife stirred up.

26 And he did very [z] abominably [a] in following [b] idols, according to all things as did the [d] Amorites, whom the LORD [e] cast out before the children of Israel.

27 And it came to pass, when Ahab heard those words, that he [f] rent his clothes, and put [h] sackcloth upon his flesh, and [i] fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly.

28 And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

CHAPTER 22

AND they continued three years without war between Syria and Israel.

2 [d] And it came to pass in the third year, that [e] Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel.

3 And the king of Israel said unto his servants, Know ye that [g] Ramoth in Gĭl'ĕ-ăd is our's, and we be still, and take it not out of the hand of the king of Syria?

4 And he said unto Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt, Wilt thou go with me to battle to Ramoth-gĭl'ĕ-ăd? And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, [l] I am as thou art, my people as thy people, my horses as thy horses.

5 And Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt said unto the king of Israel, [o] Enquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to day.

6 Then the king of Israel [p] gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall I go against Ramoth-gĭl'ĕ-ăd to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for the Lord shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

7 And [u] Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we might enquire of him?

8 And the king of Israel said unto Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt, There is yet one man, [y] Mī-caī'ăh the son of Imlah, by whom we may enquire of the LORD: but I [c] hate him; for he doth not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

9 Then the king of Israel called an [2g] officer, and said, Hasten hither Mī-caī'ăh the son of Imlah.

10 And the king of Israel and Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt the king of Judah sat each on his throne, having put on their robes, in [3k] a void place in the entrance of [m] the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets [n] prophesied before them.

11 And Zĕd-ē-kī'ăh the son of Chĕ-nā'ă-năh made him [p] horns of iron: and he said, Thus saith the LORD,

With these shalt thou push the Syrians, until thou have consumed them.

12 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gĭl'ĕ-ăd, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the king's hand.

13 And the messenger that was gone to call Mī-caī'ăh spake unto him, saying, Behold now, the words of the prophets declare good unto the king with one mouth: let thy word, I pray thee, be like the word of one of them, and speak that which is good.

14 And Mī-caī'ăh said, [b]As the LORD liveth, [d]what the LORD saith unto me, that will I speak.

15 ¶ So he came to the king. And the king said unto him, Mī-caī'ăh, shall we go against Ramoth-gĭl'ĕ-ăd to battle, or shall we forbear? And he answered him, Go, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

16 And the king said unto him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou tell me nothing but that which is true in the name of the LORD?

17 And he said, I saw all Israel scattered upon the hills, [k]as sheep that have not a shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master: let them return every man to his house in peace.

18 And the king of Israel said unto Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt, Did I not tell thee that he would prophesy no good concerning me, but evil?

19 And he said, Hear thou therefore the word of the LORD: [m]I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and all [p]the host of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left.

20 And the LORD said, Who shall persuade Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gĭl'ĕ-ăd? And one said on this manner, and another said on that manner.

21 [r]And there came forth a spirit, and [s]stood before the LORD, and said, I will persuade him.

22 And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith? And he said, I will go forth, and I will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, Thou shalt persuade him, and prevail also: go forth, and do so.

23 Now therefore, behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil concerning thee.

24 But Zĕd-ē-kī'ăh the son of Chĕ-nā'ă-năh went near, and [a]smote Mī-caī'ăh on the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee?

25 And Mī-caī'ăh said, Behold, thou shalt see in that day, when thou shalt go into an [c]inner chamber to hide thyself.

26 And the king of Israel said, Take Mī-caī'ăh, and carry him back unto Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;

27 And say, Thus saith the king, [e]Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with [f]bread of affliction and with water of affliction, [g]until I come in peace.

28 And Mī-caī'ăh said, If thou return at all in peace, [h]the LORD hath not spoken by me. And he said, [i]Hearken, O people, every one of you.

29 So the king of Israel and Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gĭl'ĕ-ăd.

30 And the king of Israel said unto Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt, I will [t]disguise myself, and enter into the battle; but put thou on thy robes. And the king of Israel disguised himself, and went into the battle.

31 [u]But the king of Syria commanded his [o]thirty and two captains that had rule over his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, [q]save only with the king of Israel.

32 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt, that they said, Surely it is the king of Israel. And they turned aside to fight against him: and Jehoshaphat cried out.

33 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.

34 And a certain man drew a bow

[2a] at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the joints of the harness: wherefore he said unto the driver of his chariot, Turn thine hand, and carry me out of the host; for I am wounded.

35 And the battle increased that day: and the king was stayed up in his chariot against the Syrians, and died at even: and the blood ran out of the wound into the midst of the chariot.

36 And there went a proclamation throughout the host about the going down of the sun, saying, Every man to his city, and every man to his own country.

37 ¶ So the king died, and was brought to Samaria; and they buried the king in Samaria.

38 And [i] one washed the chariot in the pool of Samaria; and the [l] dogs licked up his blood; [3] and they washed his armour; [m] according unto the word of the LORD which he spake.

39 Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the [n] ivory house which he made, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

40 So Ahab slept with his fathers; and [q] Ā-hă-zī'ăh his son reigned in his stead.

41 ¶ [r] And Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt the son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel.

42 Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt was thirty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Ă-zū'băh the daughter of Shĭl'hī.

43 [s] And he walked in all the ways of Asa his father; he turned not aside from it, [z] doing that which was right in the eyes of the LORD: nevertheless the [b] high places were not taken away; for the people offered and burnt incense yet in the high places.

44 [c] And Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt made peace with the king of Israel.

45 Now the rest of the acts of Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt, and his might that he shewed, and how he warred, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

46 And the remnant of the [d] sodomites, which remained in the days of his father Asa, he took out of the land.

47 [e] There was then no king in Edom: a deputy was king.

48 Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt made [f] ships of Tharshish to go to [g] Ō'phĭr for gold: but [h] they went not; for the ships were broken at [k] Ē'zĭ-ŏn-geber.

49 Then said Ā-hă-zī'ăh the son of Ahab unto Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt, Let my servants go with thy servants in the ships. But Jehoshaphat would not.

50 ¶ [o] And Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and [p] Jĕ-hôr'ăm his son reigned in his stead.

51 ¶ Ā-hă-zī'ăh the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the seventeenth year of Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt king of Judah, and reigned two years over Israel.

52 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and [s] walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm the son of Nebat, [t] who made Israel to sin:

53 For he served [u] Bā'ăl, and worshipped him, and [y] provoked to anger the LORD God of Israel, according to all that his father had done.

852 B.C.

THEN [a] Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab.

2 And [b] Ā-hă-zī'-ăh fell down through a lattice in his [d] upper chamber that was in Samaria, and was sick: and he sent messengers, and said unto them, Go, enquire of [e] Bā'-ăl–zē'-bŭb the god of [g] Ekron [h] whether I shall recover of this disease.

3 But the [k] angel of the LORD said to [l] Elijah the Tishbite, Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say unto them, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that ye go to enquire of Bā'-ăl–zē'-bŭb the god of Ekron?

4 Now therefore thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. And Elijah departed.

5 ¶ And when the messengers turned back unto him, he said unto them, Why are ye now turned back?

6 And they said unto him, There came a man up to meet us, and said unto us, Go, turn again unto the king that sent you, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that thou sendest to enquire of Bā'-ăl–zē'-bŭb the god of Ekron? therefore thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.

7 And he said unto them, What manner of man was he which came up to meet you, and told you these words?

8 And they answered him, He was [2n] an hairy man, and girt with a girdle of leather about his loins. And he said, It is Elijah the Tishbite.

9 Then the king sent unto him a captain of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him: and, behold, he sat on the top of an hill. And he spake unto him, Thou [c] man of God, the king hath said, Come down.

10 And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, If I be a man of God, then [f] let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And [i] there came down fire from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

11 Again also he sent unto him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he answered and said unto him, O man of God, thus hath the king said, Come down quickly.

12 And Elijah answered and said unto them, If I be a man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And the fire of God came down from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

13 ¶ And he sent again a captain of the third fifty with his fifty. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, and said unto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my life, and the life of these fifty thy servants, [m] be precious in thy sight.

14 Behold, there came fire down from heaven, and burnt up the two captains of the former fifties with their fifties: therefore let my life now be precious in thy sight.

15 And the angel of the LORD said unto Elijah, Go down with him: be not afraid of him. And he arose, and went down with him unto the king.

16 And he said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Forasmuch as thou hast sent messengers to enquire of Bā'ăl–zē'bŭb the god of Ekron, is it not because there is no God in Israel to enquire of his word? therefore thou shalt not come down off that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.

17 ¶ So he died according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. And [c] Jĕ-hôr'ăm reigned in his stead [d] in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt king of Judah; because he had no son.

18 Now the rest of the acts of Ā-hă-zī'ăh which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

CHAPTER 2

AND it came to pass, when the LORD would [g] take up [h] Elijah into heaven by a whirlwind, that Elijah went with [k] Elisha from [l] Gilgal.

2 And Elijah said unto Elisha, Tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to [m] Beth–el. And Elisha said unto him, [n] As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, [p] I will not leave thee. So they went down to Beth–el.

3 And [q] the sons of the prophets that were at Beth–el came forth to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the LORD will take away thy master from thy head to day? And he said, Yea, I know it; hold ye your peace.

4 And Elijah said unto him, Elisha, tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to [s] Jericho. And he said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they came to Jericho.

5 And the sons of the prophets that were at Jericho came to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the LORD will take away thy master from thy head to day? And he answered, Yea, I know it; hold ye your peace.

6 And Elijah said unto him, Tarry, I pray thee, here; for the LORD hath sent me to Jordan. And he said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And they two went on.

7 And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went, and stood to view afar off: and they two stood by Jordan.

8 And Elijah took [a] his mantle, and wrapped it together, and smote the waters, and [b] they were divided hither and thither, so that they two went over on dry ground.

9 ¶ And it came to pass, when they were gone over, that Elijah said unto Elisha, Ask what I shall do for thee, before I be taken away from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, [e] let a [f] double portion of thy spirit be upon me.

10 And he said, Thou hast asked a hard thing: nevertheless, if thou see me when I am taken from thee, it shall be so unto thee; but if not, it shall not be so.

11 And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that, behold, there appeared a [i] chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.

12 ¶ And Elisha saw it, and he cried, [o] My father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof. And he saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and [r] rent them in two pieces.

13 He took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the bank of Jordan;

14 And he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and smote the waters, and said, Where is the LORD God of Elijah? and when he also had smitten the waters, they parted hither and thither: and Elisha went over.

15 And when the sons of the prophets which were to view at Jericho saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah doth rest on Elisha. And they came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him.

16 ¶ And they said unto him, Behold now, there be with thy servants fifty strong men; let them go, we pray thee, and seek thy master: lest peradventure [t] the Spirit of the LORD hath taken him up, and cast him upon some mountain, or into some valley. And he said, Ye shall not send.

17 And when they urged him [a] till he was ashamed, he said, Send. They sent therefore fifty men; and they sought three days, but found him not.

18 And when they came again to him, (for he tarried at Jericho,) he said unto them, Did I not say unto you, Go not?

19 ¶ And the men of the city said unto Elisha, Behold, I pray thee, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord seeth: but the water is naught, and the ground [2]barren.

20 And he said, Bring me a new cruse, and put salt therein. And they brought it to him.

21 And he went forth unto the spring of the waters, and [g] cast the salt in there, and said, Thus saith the LORD, [i] I have healed these waters; there shall not be from thence any more death or barren land.

22 So the waters were healed unto this day, according to the saying of Elisha which he spake.

23 ¶ And he went up from thence unto Beth-el: and as he was going up by the way, there came forth [3]little children out of the city, and mocked him, and said unto him, Go up, thou bald head; go up, thou bald head.

24 And he turned back, and looked on them, and [m] cursed them in the name of the LORD. And there came forth two she bears out of the wood, and tare forty and two children of them.

25 And he went from thence to [p] mount Carmel, and from thence he returned to Samaria.

CHAPTER 3

NOW [t] Jĕ-hôr'ăm the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel [u] in Samaria the eighteenth year of Jĕhŏsh'ă-phăt king of Judah, and reigned twelve years.

2 And he wrought evil in the sight of the LORD; but not like his father, and like his mother: for [a] he put away the [4b] image of [c] Bā'ăl [d] that his father had made.

3 Nevertheless he cleaved unto the sins of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm the son of Nebat, [b] which made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom.

4 ¶ And Mē'shă king of Moab was a [c] sheepmaster, [d] and rendered unto the king of Israel an hundred thousand lambs, and an hundred thousand rams, with the wool.

5 But it came to pass, when Ahab was dead, that the king of [e] Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

6 ¶ And king Jĕ-hôr'ăm went out of Samaria the same time, and numbered all Israel.

7 And he went and sent to [f] Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt the king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab hath rebelled against me: wilt thou go with me against Moab to battle? And he said, I will go up: [h] I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and my horses as thy horses.

8 And he said, Which way shall we go up? And he answered, The way [k] through the wilderness of Edom.

9 So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and [l] the king of Edom: and they fetched a compass of seven days' journey: and there was no water for the host, and for the cattle that followed them.

10 And the king of Israel said, Alas! that the LORD hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab!

11 [n] But Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD, [o] that we may enquire of the LORD by him? And one of the king of Israel's servants answered and said, Here is [q] Elisha the son of Shā'phăt, [r] which poured water on the hands of [s] Elijah.

12 And Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt said, The word of the LORD is with him. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

13 And Elisha said unto the king of Israel, [x] What have I to do with thee? get thee to [y] the prophets of thy father, and to [z] the prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel said unto him, Nay: for the LORD hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab.

of hosts liveth, [a] before whom I stand, surely, were it not that I regard the presence of Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt the king of Judah, I would not look toward thee, nor see thee.

15 But now bring me a minstrel. And [c] it came to pass, when the minstrel played, that [d] the hand of the LORD came upon him.

16 And he said, Thus saith the LORD, Make this valley full of ditches.

17 For thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not see wind, neither shall ye see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, that ye may drink, both ye, and your cattle, and your beasts.

18 And this is but a [f] light thing in the sight of the LORD: he will deliver the Moabites also into your hand.

19 And ye shall smite every fenced city, and every choice city, and shall [i] fell every good tree, and [k] stop all wells of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones.

20 And it came to pass in the morning, when the [m] meat offering was offered, that, behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.

21 ¶ And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, they gathered all that were able to put on armour, and upward, and stood in the border.

22 And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as red as blood:

23 And they said, This is blood: the kings are surely slain, and [n] they have smitten one another: now therefore, Moab, to the spoil.

24 And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but they went forward smiting the Moabites, even in their country.

25 And they [p] beat down the cities, and on every good piece of land cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the wells of water, and felled all the good trees: only in Kĭr-hăr'ă-sĕth left they the stones thereof; howbeit the slingers went about it, and smote it.

26 ¶ And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred men that [b] drew swords, to break through even unto the king of Edom: but they could not.

27 Then he took his eldest son that should have reigned in his stead, and [e] offered him for a burnt offering upon the wall. And there was great indignation against Israel: and they departed from him, and returned to their own land.

CHAPTER 4

NOW there cried a certain woman of the wives of the [g] sons of the prophets unto [h] Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant [l] did fear the LORD: and the creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bondmen.

2 And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou in the house? And she said, Thine handmaid hath not any thing in the house, save a pot of oil.

3 Then he said, Go, borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels; borrow not a few.

4 And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and shalt pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full.

5 So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, who brought the vessels to her; and she poured out.

6 And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said unto her, There is not a vessel more. And the oil stayed.

7 Then she came and told [o] the man of God. And he said, Go, sell the oil, and pay thy debt, and live thou and thy children of the rest.

8 ¶ And it fell on a day, that Elisha passed to [q] Shunem, where was a great woman; and she constrained him [r] to eat bread. And so it was, that as oft as he passed by, he turned in thither to eat bread.

9 And she said unto her husband, Behold now, I perceive that this is an holy man of God, which passeth by us continually.

10 Let us make a little chamber, I pray thee, [2]on the wall; and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick: and it shall be, when he cometh to us, that he shall turn in thither.

11 And it fell on a day, that he came thither, and he turned into the chamber, and lay there.

12 And he said to [c] Gehazi his servant, Call this Shû-năm'-mīte. And when he had called her, she stood before him.

13 And he said unto him, Say now unto her, Behold, thou hast been careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for thee? wouldest thou be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host? And she answered, I dwell among mine own people.

14 And he said, What then is to be done for her? And Gehazi answered, Verily [e] she hath no child, and her husband is old.

15 And he said, Call her. And when he had called her, she stood in the door.

16 And he said, About this season, [4g] according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son. And she said, Nay, my lord, thou man of God, do not lie unto thine handmaid.

17 And the woman conceived, and bare a son at that season that Elisha had said unto her, according to the time of life.

18 ¶ And when the child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers.

19 And he said unto his father, My head, my head. And he said to a lad, Carry him to his mother.

20 And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then died.

21 And she went up, and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door upon him, and went out.

22 And she called unto her husband, and said, Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses, that I may run to the man of God, and come again.

23 And he said, Wherefore wilt thou go to him to day? it is neither [a] new moon, nor sabbath. And she said, It shall be well.

24 Then she saddled an ass, and said to her servant, Drive, and go forward; slack not thy riding for me, except I bid thee.

25 So she went and came unto the man of God to [b] mount Carmel. And it came to pass, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold, yonder is that Shû-năm'-mīte:

26 Run now, I pray thee, to meet her, and say unto her, [d] Is it well with thee? is it well with thy husband? is it well with the child? And she answered, It is well.

27 And when she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught him by the feet: but Gehazi came near to thrust her away. And the man of God said, Let her alone; for her soul is [3]vexed within her: and the LORD hath hid it from me, and hath not told me.

28 Then she said, Did I desire a son of my lord? did I not say, Do not deceive me?

29 Then he said to Gehazi, [f] Gird up thy loins, and [h] take my staff in thine hand, and go thy way: if thou meet any man, [i] salute him not; and if any salute thee, answer him not again: and [k] lay my staff upon the face of the child.

30 And the mother of the child said, [l] As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And he arose, and followed her.

31 And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff upon the face of the child; but there was neither voice, nor hearing. Wherefore he went again to meet him, and told him, saying, The child is not awaked.

32 And when Elisha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid upon his bed.

33 He went in therefore, and [m] shut the door upon them twain, and prayed unto the LORD.

34 And he went up, and lay upon the child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands: and he [a] stretched himself upon the child; and the flesh of the child waxed warm.

35 Then he returned, and walked in the house to and fro; and went up, and stretched himself upon him: [d] and the child sneezed [e] seven times, and the child opened his eyes.

36 And he called Gehazi, and said, Call this Shû-năm'-mīte. So he called her. And when she was come in unto him, he said, [i] Take up thy son.

37 Then she went in, and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground, and took up her son, and went out.

38 ¶ And Elisha came again to [k] Gilgal: and [l] there was a dearth in the land; and the sons of the prophets [m] were sitting before him: and he said unto his servant, [n] Set on the great pot, and seethe pottage for the sons of the prophets.

39 And one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered thereof wild gourds his lap full, and came and shred them into the pot of pottage: for they knew them not.

40 So they poured out for the men to eat. And it came to pass, as they were eating of the pottage, that they cried out, and said, O thou man of God, there is death in the pot. And they could not eat thereof.

41 But he said, Then bring meal. And [q] he cast it into the pot; and he said, Pour out for the people, that they may eat. And there was no harm in the pot.

42 ¶ And there came a man from [x] Bā'-ăl-shăl'-ī-shă, [y] and brought the man of God bread of the [a] firstfruits, twenty loaves of [c] barley, [2] and [d] full ears of corn in the husk thereof. And he said, [f] Give unto the people, that they may eat.

43 And his servitor said, What, should I set this before an hundred men? He said again, Give the people, that they may eat: for thus saith the LORD, They shall eat, and shall leave thereof.

44 So he set it before them, and they did eat, and left thereof, according to the word of the LORD.

CHAPTER 5

NOW [b] Nā'-ă-măn, captain of the host of the king of [c] Syria, was a great man with his master, and honourable, because by him the LORD had given deliverance unto Syria: he was also [f] a mighty man in valour, but he was [g] a leper.

2 And the Syrians had gone out by [h] companies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid; and she waited on Nā'-ă-măn's wife.

3 And she said unto her mistress, Would God my lord were with the prophet that is in Samaria! for he would recover him of his leprosy.

4 And one went in, and told his lord, saying, Thus and thus said the maid that is of the land of Israel.

5 And the king of Syria said, Go to, go, and I will send a letter unto the king of Israel. And he departed, and [o] took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten [p] changes of raiment.

6 And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, Now when this letter is come unto thee, behold, I have therewith sent Nā'-ă-măn my servant to thee, that thou mayest recover him of his leprosy.

7 And it came to pass, when the king of Israel had read the letter, that he [r] rent his clothes, and said, [s] Am I God, [t] to kill and to make alive, that this man doth send unto me to recover a man of his leprosy? wherefore [u] consider, I pray you, and see how he [z] seeketh a quarrel against me.

8 ¶ And it was so, when [b] Elisha the [e] man of God had heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel.

and with his chariot, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha.

10 And Elisha sent a messenger unto him, saying, Go and [b] wash in Jordan [d] seven times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee, and thou shalt be clean.

11 But Nā'ă-măn was wroth, and went away, and said, Behold, I thought, He will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of the LORD his God, and strike his hand over the place, and recover the leper.

12 Are not [f] Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? may I not wash in them, and be clean? So he turned and went away in a rage.

13 And his servants came near, and spake unto him, and said, My father, if the prophet had bid thee do some great thing, wouldest thou not have done it? how much rather then, when he saith to thee, Wash, and be clean?

14 Then went he down, and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God: and [k] his flesh came again like unto the flesh of a little child, and [l] he was clean.

15 ¶ And he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came, and stood before him: and he said, Behold, [n] now I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee, take [p] a blessing of thy servant.

16 But he said, [q] As the LORD liveth, [r] before whom I stand, [s] I will receive none. And he urged him to take it; but he refused.

17 And Nā'ă-măn said, Shall there not then, I pray thee, be given to thy servant two mules' burden [u] of earth? [x] for thy servant will henceforth offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice unto other gods, but unto the LORD.

18 In this thing the LORD pardon thy servant, that when my master goeth into the house of [a] Rimmon to worship there, and [b] he leaneth on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon: when I bow down myself in the house of Rimmon, the LORD pardon thy servant in this thing.

19 And he said unto him, [a] Go in peace. So he departed from him a little way.

20 ¶ But [c] Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, Behold, my master hath spared Nā'ă-măn this [e] Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought: but, as the LORD liveth, I will run after him, and take somewhat of him.

21 So Gehazi followed after Nā'ă-măn. And when Naaman saw him running after him, he lighted down from [g] the chariot to meet him, and said, [h] Is all well?

22 And he said, All is well. My master hath sent me, saying, Behold, even now there be come to me from mount Ē'phră-ĭm two young men of the sons of the prophets: give them, I pray thee, a talent of silver, and two changes of garments.

23 And Nā'ă-măn said, [i] Be content, take two talents. And he urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and laid them upon two of his servants; and they bare them before him.

24 And when he came to the [2m] tower, he took them from their hand, and bestowed them in the house: and he let the men go, and they departed.

25 But he went in, and stood before his master. And Elisha said unto him, [o] Whence comest thou, Gehazi? And he said, Thy servant went no whither.

26 And he said unto him, Went not mine heart with thee, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and [t] olive-yards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and maidservants?

27 The leprosy therefore of Nā'ă-măn shall cleave unto thee, and unto thy seed for ever. And he went out from his presence [y] a leper [z] as white as snow.

CHAPTER 6

AND [c] the sons of the prophets said unto [d] Elisha, Behold now, the place where we dwell with thee is too strait for us.

849 B.C.

2 Let us go, we pray thee, unto Jordan, and take thence every man a beam, and let us make us a place there, where we may dwell. And he answered, Go ye.

3 And one said, [c] Be content, I pray thee, and go with thy servants. And he answered, I will go.

4 So he went with them. And when they came to Jordan, they cut down wood.

5 But as one was felling a beam, the [g] axe head fell into the water: and he cried, and said, Alas, master! for it was borrowed.

6 And the [i] man of God said, Where fell it? And he shewed him the place. And he cut down a stick, and cast it in thither; and the iron did swim.

7 Therefore said he, Take it up to thee. And he put out his hand, and took it.

8 ¶ Then the king of Syria [l] warred against Israel, and took counsel with his servants, saying, In such and such a place shall be my camp.

9 And the man of God sent unto the king of Israel, saying, Beware that thou pass not such a place; for thither the Syrians are come down.

10 And the king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God told him and warned him of, and saved himself there, not once nor twice.

11 Therefore the heart of the king of Syria was sore troubled for this thing; and he called his servants, and said unto them, Will ye not shew me which of us is for the king of Israel?

12 And one of his servants said, None, my lord, O king: but Elisha, the prophet that is in Israel, telleth the king of Israel the words that thou speakest in thy bedchamber.

13 ¶ And he said, Go and spy where he is, that I may send and fetch him. And it was told him, saying, Behold, he is in [p] Dothan.

14 Therefore sent he thither horses, and chariots, and a great host: and they came by night, and [r] compassed the city about.

15 And when the servant of the man of God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, an host compassed the city both with horses and chariots. And his servant said unto him, Alas, my master! how shall we do?

16 And he answered, [a] Fear not: for [b] they that be with us are more than they that be with them.

17 And Elisha prayed, and said, LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. [d] And the LORD [e] opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and, behold, the mountain was full of horses and [f] chariots of fire [h] round about Elisha.

18 And when they came down to him, Elisha prayed unto the LORD, and said, Smite this people, I pray thee, [k] with blindness. And he smote them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.

19 ¶ And Elisha said unto them, This is not the way, neither is this the city: follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom ye seek. But he led them to Samaria.

20 And it came to pass, when they were come into Samaria, that Elisha said, LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see. And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and, behold, they were in the midst of Samaria.

21 And the king of Israel said unto Elisha, when he saw them, My father, shall I smite them? shall I smite them?

22 And he answered, Thou shalt not smite them: wouldest thou smite those whom thou hast taken captive [m] with thy sword and with thy bow? [n] set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master.

23 And he prepared great provision for them: and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. So the [o] bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.

24 ¶ And it came to pass after this, that [q] Ben-hadad king of Syria gathered all his host, and went up, and besieged [s] Samaria.

25 And there was a [t] great famine in Samaria: and, behold, they besieged it, until an ass's head was sold for fourscore pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a cab of dove's dung for five pieces of silver.

26 And as the king of Israel was passing by upon the wall, there cried a woman unto him, saying, [d]Help, my lord, O king.

27 And he said, If the LORD do not help thee, whence shall I help thee? out of the [g]barnfloor, or out of the [h]winepress?

28 And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, This woman said unto me, Give thy son, that we may eat him to day, and we will eat my son to morrow.

29 So [i]we boiled my son, and did eat him: and I said unto her on the next day, Give thy son, that we may eat him: and she hath hid her son.

30 ¶ And it came to pass, when the king heard the words of the woman that he [k]rent his clothes; and he passed by upon the wall, and the people looked, and, behold, he had [m]sackcloth within upon his flesh.

31 Then he said, [n]God do so and more also to me, if the head of Elisha the son of Shā'phăt shall stand on him this day.

32 But Elisha sat in his house, and [p]the elders sat with him; and the king sent a man from before him: but ere the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, See ye how this son [s]of a murderer hath sent to take away mine head? look, when the messenger cometh, shut the door, and hold him fast at the door: is not the sound of his master's feet behind him?

33 And while he yet talked with them, behold, the messenger came down unto him: and he said, Behold, [t]this evil is of the LORD; what should I wait for the LORD any longer?

CHAPTER 7

THEN [u]Elisha said, Hear ye the word of the LORD; Thus saith the LORD, [x]To morrow about this time shall a measure of fine flour be sold for a [y]shē'kĕl, and two measures of [z]barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria.

2 Then a lord [a]on whose hand the king leaned answered [a]the man of God, and said, Behold, [b]if the LORD would make [c]windows in heaven, might this thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof.

3 ¶ And there were [e]four leprous men [f]at the entering in of the gate: and they said one to another, Why sit we here until we die?

4 If we say, We will enter into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there: and if we sit still here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us fall unto the host of the Syrians: if they save us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall but die.

5 And they rose up in the twilight, to go unto the camp of the Syrians: and when they were come to the uttermost part of the camp of Syria, behold, there was no man there.

6 For the Lord had made the host of the Syrians [l]to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host: and they said one to another, Lo, the king of Israel hath hired against us the kings of the [o]Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us.

7 [q]Wherefore they arose and [r]fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life.

8 And when these lepers came to the uttermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and did eat and drink, and carried thence silver, and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it; and came again, and entered into another tent, and carried thence also, and went and hid it.

9 Then they said one to another, We do not well: this day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace: if we tarry till the morning light, some mischief will come upon us: now therefore come, that we may go and tell the king's household.

10 So they came and called unto the porter of the city: and they told them, saying, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, behold, there was no

11 And he called the porters; and they told it to the king's house within.

12 ¶ And the king arose in the night, and said unto his servants, I will now shew you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we be hungry; therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive, and get into the city.

13 And one of his servants answered and said, Let some take, I pray thee, five of the horses that remain, which are left in the city, (behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel that are left in it: behold, I say, they are even as all the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed:) and let us send and see.

14 They took therefore two chariot horses; and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, Go and see.

15 And they went after them unto Jordan: and, lo, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste. And the messengers returned, and told the king.

16 And the people went out, and spoiled the tents of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shē'kĕl, and two measures of barley for a shekel, [g] according to the word of the LORD.

17 ¶ And the king appointed the lord on whose hand he leaned to have the charge of the gate: and the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died, as the man of God had said, who spake [k] when the king came down to him.

18 And it came to pass as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, Two measures of barley for a shē'kĕl, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, shall be to morrow about this time in the gate of Samaria:

19 And that lord answered the man of God, and said, Now, behold, if the LORD should make windows in heaven, might such a thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof.

20 And so it fell out unto him: for the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died.

CHAPTER 8

THEN spake [a] Elisha unto the woman, [b] whose son he had restored to life, saying, Arise, and go thou and thine household, and sojourn wheresoever thou canst sojourn: for the LORD hath called [c] for a famine; and it shall also come upon the land [d] seven years.

2 And the woman arose, and did after the saying of the [e] man of God: and she went with her household, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years.

3 And it came to pass at the seven years' end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines: and she went forth to cry unto the king for her house and for her land.

4 And the king talked with [f] Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great things that Elisha hath done.

5 And it came to pass, as he was telling the king how he had restored a dead body to life, that, behold, the woman, whose son he had restored to life, cried to the king for her house and for her land. And Gehazi said, My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life.

6 And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed unto her a certain [2h] officer, saying, [i] Restore all that was her's, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land, even until now.

7 ¶ And Elisha came to [l] Damascus; and [m] Ben-hadad the king of Syria was sick; and it was told him, saying, The man of God is come hither.

8 And the king said unto [n] Hă-zā'ĕl, Take [o] a present in thine hand, and go, meet the man of God, and [p] enquire of the LORD by him, saying, [q] Shall I recover of this disease?

and took a present with him, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty [c] camels' burden, and came and stood before him, and said, Thy son Ben-hadad king of Syria hath sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?

10 And Elisha said unto him, Go, say unto him, Thou mayest certainly recover: howbeit the LORD hath shewed me that he shall surely die.

11 And he settled his countenance stedfastly, [g] until he was ashamed: and the man of God [h] wept.

12 And Hă-zā'ĕl said, Why weepeth my lord? And he answered, [i] Because I know the evil that thou wilt do unto the children of Israel: their strong holds wilt thou set on fire, and their young men wilt thou slay with the sword, and wilt [l] dash their children, and [m] rip up their women with child.

13 And Hă-zā'ĕl said, But what, [p] is thy servant a dog, that he should do this great thing? And Elisha answered, [r] The LORD hath shewed me that thou shalt be king over Syria.

14 So he departed from Elisha, and came to his master; who said to him, What said Elisha to thee? And he answered, He told me that thou shouldest surely recover.

15 And it came to pass on the morrow, that he took a thick cloth, and dipped it in water, and spread it on his face, so that he died: and Hă-zā'ĕl reigned in his stead.

16 ¶ [x] And in the fifth year of [y] Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, [a] Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt being then king of Judah, Jĕ-hôr'ăm the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah began to reign.

17 [d] Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

18 And [g] he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for [h] the daughter of Ahab was his wife: and he did evil in the sight of the LORD.

19 Yet the LORD would not destroy Judah [k] for David his servant's sake, as he promised him [m] to give him alway a light, and to his children.

20 ¶ In his days [a] Edom [b] revolted from under the hand of Judah, and [d] made a king over themselves.

21 So Joram went over to Zā'ĭr, and all the chariots with him: and he rose by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him about, and the captains of the chariots: and the people [e] fled into their tents.

22 Yet Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. Then [f] Libnah revolted at the same time.

23 And the rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

24 And Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and [k] Ā-hă-zī'ăh his son reigned in his stead.

25 ¶ [n o] In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel did Ā-hă-zī'ăh the son of Jĕ-hôr'ăm king of Judah begin to reign.

26 [q] Two and twenty years old was Ā-hă-zī'ăh when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was [s] Ăth-ă-lī'ăh, [2 t] the daughter of Omri king of Israel.

27 And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of the LORD, as did the house of Ahab: for he was the son in law of the house of Ahab.

28 ¶ And he went with Joram the son of Ahab to the [u] war against Hă-zā'ĕl king of Syria in [z] Ramoth-gĭl'ĕ-ăd; and the Syrians wounded Joram.

29 [b] And king Joram went back to be healed in [c] Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him at [e] Ramah, when he fought against Hă-zā'ĕl king of Syria. [f] And Ā-hă-zī'ăh the son of Jĕ-hôr'ăm king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

thine hand, and go to [a]Ramoth-gĭl'ĕ-ăd:

2 And when thou comest thither, look out there [c]Jehu the son of Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt the son of Nĭm'shī, and go in, and make him arise up from among his brethren, and carry him to an [e]inner chamber;

3 Then take the box of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, Thus saith the LORD, I have [g]anointed thee king over Israel. Then open the door, and flee, and tarry not.

4 ¶ So the young man, even the young man the prophet, went to Ramoth-gĭl'ĕ-ăd.

5 And when he came, behold, the captains of the host were sitting; and he said, I have an errand to thee, O captain. And Jehu said, Unto which of all us? And he said, To thee, O captain.

6 And he arose, and went into the house; and he poured the oil on his head, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I have anointed thee king over the people of the LORD, even over Israel.

7 And thou shalt smite the house of Ahab thy master, [l]that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, [m]at the hand of [n]Jezebel.

8 For the whole house of Ahab shall perish: and [o]I will cut off from Ahab him that pisseth against the wall, and [p]him that is shut up and left in Israel:

9 And I will make the house of Ahab [q]like the house of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm the son of Nebat, and [r]like the house of Bā-ăsh'ă the son of Ă-hī'jăh:

10 And [s]the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the portion of [t]Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the door, and fled.

11 ¶ Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord: and one said unto him, [u]Is all well? wherefore came [y]this mad fellow to thee? And he said unto them, Ye know the man, and his communication.

12 And they said, It is false; tell us now. And he said, Thus and thus spake he to me, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel.

13 Then they hasted, and [b]took every man his garment, and put it under him on the top of the stairs, and [d]blew with trumpets, saying, Jehu is king.

14 So Jehu the son of Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt the son of Nĭm'shī conspired against [f]Joram. (Now Joram had kept Ramoth-gĭl'ĕ-ăd, he and all Israel, because of [h]Hă-zā'ĕl king of Syria.

15 [i]But king Joram was returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hă-zā'ĕl king of Syria.) And Jehu said, If it be your minds, then let none go forth nor escape out of the city to go to tell it in Jezreel.

16 So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel; for Joram lay there. And [i]Ā-hă-zī'ăh king of Judah was come down to see Joram.

17 And there stood a [k]watchman on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, I see a company. And Joram said, Take an horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, Is it peace?

18 So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu said, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. And the watchman told, saying, The messenger came to them, but he cometh not again.

19 Then he sent out a second on horseback, which came to them, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu answered, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me.

20 And the watchman told, saying, He came even unto them, and cometh not again: and the driving is [x]like the driving of Jehu the son of Nĭm'shī; for he driveth furiously.

21 And Joram said, Make ready. And his chariot was made ready. [z]And Joram king of Israel and Ā-hă-zī'ăh king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out against Jehu, and met him [a] in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite.

22 And it came to pass, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, [c] Is it peace, Jehu? And he answered, What peace, so long as the whoredoms of thy mother Jezebel and her witchcrafts are so many?

23 And Joram turned his hands, and fled, and said to Ā-hă-zī'-ăh, There is treachery, O Ahaziah.

24 And Jehu drew a bow with his full strength, and [e] smote Jĕ-hôr'-ăm between his arms, and the arrow went out at his heart, and he sunk down in his chariot.

25 Then said Jehu to Bidkar his captain, Take up, and cast him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for remember how that, when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, [g] the LORD laid this burden upon him;

26 Surely I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons, saith the LORD; and [i] I will requite thee [k] in this plat, saith the LORD. Now therefore take and cast him into the plat of ground, according to the word of the LORD.

27 ¶ [m] But when Ā-hă-zī'-ăh the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house. And Jehu followed after him, and said, Smite him also in the chariot. And they did so at the going up to Gur, which is by [o] Ĭb'-lĕ-ăm. And he fled to [p] Mĕ-gĭd'-dō, and died there.

28 [q] And his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his sepulchre with his fathers in the city of David.

29 And [r] in the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab began Ā-hă-zī'-ăh to reign over Judah.

30 ¶ And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she [t] painted her face, and tired her head, and [x] looked out at a window.

31 And as Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, [2y] Had Zimri peace, who slew his master?

32 And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? who? And there looked out to him two or three eunuchs.

33 And he said, [b] Throw her down. So they threw her down: and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he trode her under foot.

34 And when he was come in, he did eat and drink, and said, Go, see now this cursed woman, and bury her: [d] for she is a king's daughter.

35 And they went to bury her: but they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands.

36 Wherefore they came again, and told him. And he said, This is the word of the LORD, which he spake by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, [f] In the portion of Jezreel shall dogs eat the flesh of Jezebel:

37 And the carcase of Jezebel shall be [h] as dung upon the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel; so that they shall not say, This is Jezebel.

CHAPTER 10

AND Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, unto the rulers of [l] Jezreel, to the elders, and to [n] them that brought up Ahab's children, saying,

2 Now as soon as this letter cometh to you, seeing your master's sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, a fenced city also, and armour;

3 Look even out the best and meetest of your master's sons, and set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house.

4 But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, Behold, two kings stood not before him: how then shall we stand?

5 And [s] he that was over the house, and he that was over the city, the elders also, and the bringers up of the children, sent to Jehu, saying, [u] We are thy servants, and will do all that thou shalt bid us; we will not make any king: do thou that which is good in thine eyes.

6 Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, If ye be mine, and if ye will hearken unto my voice, take ye the heads of the men your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by to morrow this time. Now the king's sons, being seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, which brought them up.

7 And it came to pass, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, [e] and slew seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent him them to Jezreel.

8 ¶ And there came a messenger, and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Lay ye them in two heaps at the entering in of the gate until the morning.

9 And it came to pass in the morning, that he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, Ye be righteous: behold, [i] I conspired against my master, and slew him: but who slew all these?

10 Know now that [l] there shall fall unto the earth nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spake concerning the house of Ahab: for the LORD hath done that [o] which he spake by his servant [p] Elijah.

11 [q] So Jehu slew all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, and his kinsfolks, [r] and his priests, until he left him none remaining.

12 ¶ And he arose and departed, and came to Samaria. And as he was at the [3t] shearing house in the way,

13 Jehu met with [u] the brethren of Ā-hă-zī'-ăh king of Judah, and said, Who are ye? And they answered, We are the brethren of Ahaziah; and we go down to salute the children of the king and the children of the queen.

14 And he said, Take them alive. And they took them alive, and slew them at the pit of the shearing house, even two and forty men; neither left he any of them.

15 ¶ And when he was departed thence, he lighted on [y] Jĕ-hŏn'-ă-dăb the son of Rē'-chăb coming to meet him: and he saluted him, and said to him, Is thine heart right, as my heart is with thy heart? And Jehonadab answered, It is. If it be, [a] give me thine hand. And he gave him his hand; and he took him up to him into the [b] chariot.

16 And he said, Come with me, and [c] see my zeal for the LORD. So they made him ride in his chariot.

17 And when he came to [d] Samaria, he slew all that remained unto Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed him, [f] according to the saying of the LORD, which he spake to Elijah.

18 ¶ And Jehu gathered all the people together, and said unto them, Ahab served [g] Bā'-ăl a little; but Jehu shall serve him much.

19 Now therefore call unto me all the [h] prophets of Bā'-ăl, all his servants, and all his priests; let none be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice to do to Baal; whosoever shall be wanting, he shall not live. But Jehu did it in [k] subtilty, to the intent that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal.

20 And Jehu said, [2m] Proclaim a [n] solemn assembly for Bā'-ăl. And they proclaimed it.

21 And Jehu sent through all Israel: and all the worshippers of Bā'-ăl came, so that there was not a man left that came not. And they came into the house of Baal; and [s] the house of Baal was full from one end to another.

22 And he said unto him that was over the vestry, Bring forth vestments for all the worshippers of Bā'-ăl. And he brought them forth vestments.

23 And Jehu went, and Jĕ-hŏn'-ă-dăb the son of Rē'-chăb, into the house of Bā'-ăl, and said unto the worshippers of Baal, Search, and look that there be here with you none of the servants of the LORD, but the worshippers of Baal only.

24 And when they went in to offer sacrifices and [x] burnt offerings, Jehu appointed fourscore men without, and said, If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escape, he that letteth him go, [z] his life shall be for the life of him.

25 And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to [a] the [2]guard and to the captains, Go in, and slay them; let none come forth. And they smote them with the edge of the sword; and the guard and the captains cast them out, and went to the city of the house of Bā'ăl.

26 And they [e] brought forth the [3g] images out of the house of Bā'ăl, and burned them.

27 And they brake down the image of Bā'ăl, and brake down the house of Baal, and made it a [h] draught house unto this day.

28 Thus Jehu destroyed Bā'ăl out of Israel.

29 ¶ Howbeit from the sins of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm the son of Nebat, who [l] made Israel to sin, Jehu departed not from after them, to wit, the [m] golden calves that were in [o] Beth-el, and that were in [p] Dan.

30 And the LORD said unto Jehu, Because thou hast done well in executing that which is right in mine eyes, and hast done unto the house of Ahab according to all that was in mine heart, [r] thy children of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel.

31 But Jehu [t] took no heed to walk in the law of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart: for he departed not from the sins of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm, which made Israel to sin.

32 ¶ In those days the LORD began to cut Israel short: and [x] Hă-zā'ĕl [y] smote them in all the coasts of Israel;

33 From Jordan eastward, [z] all the land of Gĭl'ĕ-ăd, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Mă-năs'sītes, from [a] Ă-rō'ĕr, which is by the river [b] Arnon, [c] even Gilead and Bashan.

34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

35 And Jehu slept with his fathers: and they buried him in Samaria. And [d] Jĕ-hō'ă-hăz his son reigned in his stead.

36 And the time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty and eight years.

CHAPTER 11

[b] AND when [c] Ăth-ă-lī'ăh the mother of Ā-hă-zī'ăh saw that her son was dead, she arose and [d] destroyed all the seed royal.

2 But Jĕ-hŏsh'ĕ-bă, the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ā-hă-zī'ăh, took [f] Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons which were slain; and they hid him, even him and his nurse, in the bedchamber from Ăth-ă-lī'ăh, so that he was not slain.

3 And he was with her hid in the house of the LORD six years. And Ăth-ă-lī'ăh did reign over the land.

4 ¶ [i] And the seventh year [k] Jĕ-hōi'ă-dă sent and fetched the rulers over hundreds, with the [4]captains and [n] the [5]guard, and brought them to him into the house of the LORD, and [q] made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of the LORD, and shewed them the king's son.

5 And he commanded them, saying, This is the thing that ye shall do; A third part of you [s] that enter in on the sabbath shall even be keepers of the watch of the king's house;

6 And [u] a third part shall be at the gate of Sur; and a third part at the gate behind the guard: so shall ye keep the watch of the house, that it be not broken down.

7 And two parts of all you that go forth on the sabbath, even they shall keep the watch of the house of the LORD about the king.

8 And ye shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand: and he that cometh within the ranges, let him be slain: and be ye with the king as he goeth out and as he cometh in.

9 And the captains over the hundreds did according to all things that Jĕ-hōi'ă-dă the priest commanded: and they took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that should go out on the sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest.

10 And to the captains over hundreds did the priest give king David's spears and [a] shields, that were in the temple of the LORD.

11 And the guard stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, round about the king, from the right corner of the temple to the left corner of the temple, along by the altar and the temple.

12 And [d] he brought forth the king's son, [f] and put the crown upon him, and [g] gave him the testimony; and they made him king, and [h] anointed him; and they clapped their hands, and said, [k] God save the king.

13 ¶ And when Ăth-ă-lī'ăh heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she came to the people into the temple of the LORD.

14 And when she looked, behold, the king stood [n] by a pillar, as the manner was, and the princes and the trumpeters by the king, and all the people of the land rejoiced, and [r] blew with trumpets: and Ăth-ă-lī'ăh [s] rent her clothes, and cried, Treason, Treason.

15 But Jĕ-hôi'ă-dă the priest commanded the captains of the hundreds, the officers of the host, and said unto them, Have her forth without the ranges: and him that followeth her kill with the sword. For the priest had said, Let her not be slain in the house of the LORD.

16 And they laid hands on her; and she went [z] by the way by the which the horses came into the king's house: and there was she slain.

17 ¶ And Jĕ-hôi'ă-dă [a] made a covenant between the LORD and the king and the people, that they should be [b] the LORD's people; between the king also and the people.

18 And all the people of the land went into [c] the house of Bā'ăl, and [d] brake it down; his altars and his images brake they in pieces thoroughly, and [e] slew Mattan the priest of [f] Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed officers over the house of the LORD.

19 And he took the rulers over hundreds, and the captains, and the guard, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the house of the LORD, and came by the way of the [b] gate of the guard to the king's house. And he sat on the throne of the kings.

20 And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was in [c] quiet: and they slew Ăth-ă-lī'ăh with the sword beside the king's house.

21 [e] Seven years old was Jĕ-hō'ăsh when he began to reign.

CHAPTER 12

IN the seventh year of Jehu [i] Jĕ-hō'ăsh began to reign; and forty years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zī'bī-ăh of [l] Beer-sheba.

2 And Jĕ-hō'ăsh [m] did that which was right in the sight of the LORD all his days wherein [o] Jĕ-hôi'ă-dă the priest [p] instructed him.

3 But the [q] high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.

4 ¶ And Jĕ-hō'ăsh said to the priests, All the money of the [t] dedicated things [u] that is brought into the house of the LORD, even [2] the money of every one that [x] passeth the account, [3] the money that every man is set at, and all the money [y] that cometh into any man's heart to bring into the house of the LORD.

5 Let the priests take it to them, every man of his acquaintance: and let them repair the breaches of the house, wheresoever any breach shall be found.

6 But it was so, that in the three and twentieth year of king Jĕ-hō'ăsh the priests had not repaired the breaches of the house.

7 Then king Jĕ-hō'ăsh called for Jĕ-hôi'ă-dă the priest, and the other priests, and said unto them, Why repair ye not the breaches of the house? now therefore receive no more money of your acquaintance, but deliver it for the breaches of the house.

8 And the priests consented to receive no more money of the people, neither to repair the breaches of the house.

9 But Jĕ-hôi'ă-dă the priest took [g] a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it,

10 And it was so, when they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the [e] king's scribe and [f] the high priest came up, and they put up in bags, and [h] told the money that was found in the house of the LORD.

11 And they gave the money, being told, into the hands of them that did the work, that had the oversight of the house of the LORD: and they laid it out to the [k] carpenters and builders, that wrought upon the house of the LORD,

17 ¶ Then [b] Hă-zā'ĕl king of Syria went up, and fought against [c] Gath, and took it: and Hazael [d] set his face [e] to go up to [f] Jerusalem.

18 And Jĕ-hō'ăsh king of Judah [g] took all the hallowed things that Jĕ-hŏsh'ă-phăt, and Jĕ-hôr'ăm, and Ā-hă-zī'ăh, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own hallowed things, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and in the king's house, and sent it to Hă-zā'ĕl king of Syria: and he went away from Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 13

IN the three and twentieth year of [l] Joash the son of Ā-hă-zī'ăh king of Judah [m] Jĕ-hō'ă-hăz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned seventeen years.

2 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the sins of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm the son of Nebat, which [o] made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom.

3 ¶ And [q] the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them [r] into the hand of [s] Hă-zā'ĕl king of Syria, and into the hand of [t] Ben-hadad the son of Hazael, all their days.

4 And Jĕ-hō'ă-hăz besought the LORD, and the LORD hearkened unto him: [x] for he saw the oppression of Israel, because the king of Syria oppressed them.

5 (And [z] the LORD gave Israel a saviour, so that they went out from under the hand of the Syrians: and the children of Israel dwelt in their tents, as beforetime.

6 Nevertheless they departed not from the sins of the house of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm, who made Israel sin, but [h] walked therein: and there remained [2i] the grove also in Samaria.)

might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

9 And Jĕ-hō'ă-hăz slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria: and Joash his son reigned in his stead.

10 ¶ In the thirty and seventh year of Joash king of Judah began Jĕ-hō'ăsh the son of Jĕ-hō'ă-hăz to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned sixteen years.

11 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD; he departed not from all the sins of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin: but he walked therein.

12 And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, and his might wherewith he fought against [d] Ăm-ă-zī'ăh king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

13 And Joash slept with his fathers; and Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm sat upon his throne: and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

14 ¶ Now [k] Elisha was fallen sick of his sickness whereof he died. And Joash the king of Israel came down unto him, and wept over his face, and said, O [l] my father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof.

15 And Elisha said unto him, Take bow and arrows. And he took unto him bow and arrows.

16 And he said to the king of Israel, Put thine hand upon the bow. And he put his hand upon it: and Elisha put his hands upon the king's hands.

17 And he said, Open the window eastward. And he opened it. Then Elisha said, Shoot. And he shot. And he said, The arrow of the LORD's deliverance, and the arrow of deliverance from Syria: for thou shalt smite the Syrians in [q] Ā'phĕk, till thou have consumed them.

18 And he said, Take the arrows. And he took them. And he said unto the king of Israel, Smite upon the ground. And he smote thrice, and stayed.

19 And [t] the man of God was wroth with him, and said, Thou shouldest have smitten five or six times; then hadst thou smitten Syria till thou hadst consumed it: whereas now thou shalt smite Syria but [a] thrice.

20 ¶ And Elisha died, and they buried him. And the bands of the [b] Moabites invaded the land at the coming in of the year.

21 And it came to pass, as they were burying a man, that, behold, they spied a band of men; and they cast the man into the sepulchre of Elisha: and when the man was let down, and touched the bones of Elisha, [c] he revived, and stood up on his feet.

22 ¶ But Hă-zā'ĕl king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jĕhō'ă-hăz.

23 And [e] the LORD was gracious unto them, and [f] had compassion on them, and [g] had respect unto them, because of his [h] covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them, [i] neither cast he them from his presence as yet.

24 So Hă-zā'ĕl king of Syria died; and Ben-hadad his son reigned in his stead.

25 And Jĕ-hō'ăsh the son of Jĕ-hō'ă-hăz took again out of the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hă-zā'ĕl the cities, [m] which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war. [n] Three times did Joash beat him, and recovered the cities of Israel.

CHAPTER 14

[o] IN the second year of Joash son of Jĕ-hō'ă-hăz king of Israel reigned [p] Ăm-ă-zī'ăh the son of Joash king of Judah.

2 He was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jĕ-hō-ăd'dăn of Jerusalem.

3 And he [r] did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, yet not like David his father: he did according to all things as Joash his father did.

4 Howbeit [s] the high places were not taken away: as yet the people did sacrifice and burnt incense on the high places.

5 ¶ And it came to pass, as soon as the kingdom was confirmed in his hand, [a] that he slew his servants [b] which had slain the king his father.

6 But the children of the murderers he slew not: according unto that which is [c] written in the book of the law of Moses, wherein the LORD commanded, saying, [d] The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, [e] nor the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall be put to death for his own sin.

7 He slew of [f] Edom in [g] the valley of salt ten thousand, and took [h] Selah by war, and called the name of it [k] Jŏk-thē'ĕl unto this day.

8 ¶ [l] Then Ăm-ă-zī'ăh sent messengers to Jĕ-hō'ăsh, the son of Jĕ-hō'ă-hăz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, [m] let us look one another in the face.

9 And Jĕ-hō'ăsh the king of Israel sent to Ăm-ă-zī'ăh king of Judah, [n] saying, The [2] thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the [p] cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle.

10 Thou hast indeed smitten Edom, and thine heart [q] hath lifted thee up: glory of this, and tarry at home: for why shouldest thou [4] meddle to thy hurt, that thou shouldest fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?

11 But Ăm-ă-zī'ăh would not hear. Therefore Jĕ-hō'ăsh king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at [s] Beth-shē'mĕsh, which belongeth to Judah.

12 And Judah was put to the worse before Israel; and [t] they fled every man to their tents.

13 And Jĕ-hō'ăsh king of Israel took Ăm-ă-zī'ăh king of Judah, the son of Jehoash the son of Ā-hă-zī'ăh, at Beth-shē'mĕsh, and [a] came to Jerusalem, and [c] brake down the wall of Jerusalem from the [d] gate of Ē'phrăim unto the [d] corner gate, four hundred cubits.

14 And [h] he took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

15 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Jĕ-hō'ăsh which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Ăm-ă-zī'ăh king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

16 And Jĕ-hō'ăsh slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel; and Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm his son reigned in his stead.

17 ¶ [i] And Ăm-ă-zī'ăh the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Jĕ-hō'ăsh son of Jĕ-hō'ă-hăz king of Israel fifteen years.

18 And the rest of the acts of Ăm-ă-zī'ăh, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

19 Now they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem: and he fled to [o] Lā'chĭsh; but they sent after him to Lachish, and slew him there.

20 And they brought him on horses: and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David.

21 ¶ And all the people of Judah took [3] Ăz-ă-rī'ăh, which was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Ăm-ă-zī'ăh.

22 He built [r] Elath, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

23 ¶ In the fifteenth year of Ăm-ă-zī'ăh the son of Joash king of Judah Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm the son of Joash king of Israel began to reign in Samaria, and reigned forty and one years.

24 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from all the sins of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm the son of Nebat, who [u] made Israel to sin.

25 [x] He restored the coast of Israel [y] from [z] the entering of Hamath unto the sea of [5b] the plain, according to the word of the LORD God of Israel, which he spake by the hand of his servant [e] Jonah, the son of Ă-mĭt'tâi, [f] the prophet, which was of [g] Gath-[i] hē'phĕr.

9 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done: he departed not from the sins of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm the son of Nebat, who [c] made Israel to sin.

10 And Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and [d] smote him before the people, and [e] slew him, and reigned in his stead.

11 And the rest of the acts of Zăch-ă-rī'ăh, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

12 [i] This was the word of the LORD which he spake unto Jehu, saying, Thy sons shall sit on the throne of Israel unto the fourth generation. And so it came to pass.

13 ¶ Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in the nine and thirtieth year of Ŭz-zī'ăh king of Judah; and he reigned a full month in Samaria.

14 For Mĕn'-ă-hĕm the son of Gā'-dī went up from [m] Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and smote Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, and slew him, and reigned in his stead.

15 And the rest of the acts of Shallum, and his conspiracy which he made, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

16 ¶ Then Mĕn'-ă-hĕm smote [p] Tiphsah, and all that were therein, and the coasts thereof from Tirzah: because they opened not to him, therefore he smote it; and [r] all the women therein that were with child he ripped up.

17 In the nine and thirtieth year of Ăz-ă-rī'ăh king of Judah began Mĕn'-ă-hĕm the son of Gā'-dī to reign over Israel, and reigned ten years in Samaria.

18 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not all his days from the sins of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

19 And [2 z] Pul the king of [a] Assyria came against the land: and Mĕn'-ă-hĕm [b] gave Pul a thousand talents of silver, that his hand might be with him to confirm the kingdom in his hand.

20 And Měn-ă-hěm [a] exacted the money of Israel, even of all the mighty men of wealth, of each man fifty shē-kěls of silver, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and stayed not there in the land.

21 ¶ And the rest of the acts of Měn-ă-hěm, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

22 And Měn-ă-hěm slept with his fathers; and Pěk-ă-hī-ăh his son reigned in his stead.

23 ¶ In the fiftieth year of Ăz-ă-rī-ăh king of Judah Pěk-ă-hī-ăh the son of Měn-ă-hěm began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned [2]two years.

24 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from the sins of Jĕr-ŏ-bō-ăm the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

25 But Pekah the son of Rĕm-ă-lī-ăh, a captain of his, conspired against him, and smote him in Samaria, in the [3][e] palace of the king's house, with Argob and Ăr-ī-ēh, and with him fifty men of the Gĭl-ĕ-ăd-ītes: and he killed him, and reigned in his room.

26 And the rest of the acts of Pěk-ă-hī-ăh, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

27 ¶ In the two and fiftieth year of Ăz-ă-rī-ăh king of Judah [h] Pekah the son of Rĕm-ă-lī-ăh began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned twenty years.

28 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from the sins of Jĕr-ŏ-bō-ăm the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

29 In the days of Pekah king of Israel came [n] Tĭg-lăth-pī-lē-sĕr king of Assyria, [o] and took [p] Ī-jŏn, and [p] Ā-bĕl-bĕth-mā-ă-chäh, and [q] Jă-nō-ăh, and [r] Kedesh, and [s] Hazor, and Gĭl-ĕ-ăd, and [t] Galilee, all the land of [u] Năph-tă-lī, and [y] carried them captive to [a] Assyria.

30 And [c] Hō-shē-ă the son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Rĕm-ă-lī-ăh, and smote him, and slew him, and reigned in his stead, [b] in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Ŭz-zī-ăh.

31 And the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

32 ¶ In the second year of Pekah the son of Rĕm-ă-lī-ăh king of Israel began Jotham the son of Ŭz-zī-ăh king of Judah to reign.

33 [c] Five and twenty years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jĕ-rū-shă, the daughter of Zadok.

34 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD: he did according to all that his father Ŭz-zī-ăh had done.

35 ¶ Howbeit the high places were not removed: the people sacrificed and burned incense still in the high places. He built [d] the higher gate of the house of the LORD.

36 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

37 In those days the LORD began to send [f] against Judah [g] Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Rĕm-ă-lī-ăh.

38 And Jotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and [i] Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 16

IN the seventeenth year of [k] Pekah the son of Rĕm-ă-lī-ăh [l] Ahaz the son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign.

2 [m] Twenty years old was Ahaz when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem, and did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD his God, like David his father.

3 But [x] he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yea, and [z] made his son to pass through the fire, [b] according to the abominations of the heathen, [d] whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel.

4 And he sacrificed and burnt incense in the [a] high places, and [b] on the hills, and under every green tree.

5 ¶ Then [c] Rezin king of Syria and Pekah son of Rĕm-ă-lī'ăh king of Israel came up [e] to Jerusalem to war: and they besieged Ahaz, [f] but could not overcome him.

6 At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered [g] Elath to Syria, and drave the Jews from Elath: and the [2] Syrians came to Elath, and dwelt there unto this day.

7 [h] So Ahaz sent messengers to [i] Tĭg'lăth–pī-lē'sĕr king of Assyria, saying, [k] I am thy servant and thy son: come up, and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, which rise up against me.

8 And Ahaz [n] took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent it for a present to the king of Assyria.

9 [q] And the king of Assyria hearkened unto him: for the king of Assyria went up against [r] Damascus, [s] and took it, and carried the people of it captive to [t] Kir, and slew Rezin.

10 ¶ And king Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tĭg'lăth–pī-lē'sĕr king of Assyria, and saw an altar that was at Damascus: and king Ahaz sent to [x] Ū-rī'jăh the priest the fashion of the altar, and the [z] pattern of it, according to all the workmanship thereof.

11 And Ū-rī'jăh the priest built an altar according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus: so Urijah the priest made it against king Ahaz came from Damascus.

12 And when the king was come from Damascus, the king saw the altar: [e] and the king approached to the altar, and offered thereon.

13 And he burnt his [f] burnt offering and his [i] meat offering, and poured his [k] drink offering, and [l] sprinkled the blood of his [m] peace offerings, upon the altar.

14 And he brought also [o] the brasen altar, which was before the LORD, [p] from the forefront of the house, from between the altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of the altar.

15 And king Ahaz commanded Ū-rī'jăh the priest, saying, Upon the great altar burn the [d] morning burnt offering, and the evening meat offering, and the king's burnt sacrifice, and his meat offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meat offering, and their drink offerings; and sprinkle upon it all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice: and the brasen altar shall be for me to enquire by.

16 Thus did Ū-rī'jăh the priest, according to all that king Ahaz commanded.

17 ¶ And king Ahaz [l] cut off [3] [m] the borders of the bases, and removed [o] the laver from off them; and took down [p] the sea from off the brasen oxen that were under it, and put it upon a pavement of stones.

18 And the covert for the sabbath that they had built in the house, and the king's entry without, turned he from the house of the LORD for the king of Assyria.

19 ¶ [u] Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

20 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and [y] was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and [a] Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 17

[b] IN the twelfth year of [c] Ahaz king of Judah began [d] Hō-shē'ă the son of Elah to reign in Samaria over Israel nine years.

2 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, but not as the kings of Israel that were before him.

3 ¶ [g] Against him came up [h] Shăl-măn-ē'sĕr king of Assyria; and Hō-shē'ă became his servant, and gave him [n] presents.

4 And the king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hō-shē'ă: for he had sent messengers to Sō king of Egypt, and brought no present to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year:

therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison.

5 ¶ Then the king of Assyria came up throughout all the land, and went up to [d] Samaria, and besieged it three years.

6 ¶ In the ninth year of Hō-shē'ă the king of Assyria [f] took Samaria, and [g] carried Israel away [g] into Assyria, [i] and placed them in Halah and in Habor by the river of [k] Gozan, and in the cities of [m] the Medes.

7 For so it was, that the children of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, [q] which had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of [s] Phâr'aōh king of Egypt, and [x] had feared other gods,

8 And walked in the statutes of the heathen, [z] whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they had made.

9 And the children of Israel did secretly those things that were not right against the LORD their God, and they built them [c] high places in all their cities, [d] from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.

10 And they set them up [2e] images and [3f] groves in [g] every high hill, and under every green tree:

11 And there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the heathen whom the LORD carried away before them; and wrought wicked things [m] to provoke the LORD to anger:

12 For [n] they served [o] idols, [p] whereof the LORD had said unto them, Ye shall not do this thing.

13 Yet the LORD testified against Israel, and against Judah, [r] by all the prophets, and by all the [s] seers, saying, [t] Turn ye from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets.

14 Notwithstanding [a] they would not hear, but [b] hardened their necks, like to the neck of their fathers, that [d] did not believe in the LORD their God.

and [a] his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified against them; and they followed [b] vanity, and [c] became vain, and went after the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom [e] the LORD had charged them, that they should not do like them.

16 And [h] they left all the commandments of the LORD their God, and [l] made them molten images, even [n] two calves, and made a grove, and worshipped [o] all the host of heaven, and served [p] Bā'ăl.

17 And [r] they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used [t] divination and [u] enchantments, and [y] sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

18 Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but [a] the tribe of Judah only.

19 [b] Also Judah kept not the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.

20 And the LORD rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and [h] delivered them into the hand of spoilers, [i] until he had cast them out of his sight.

21 [k] For he rent Israel from the house of David; [l] and they made Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm the son of Nebat king: and Jeroboam drave Israel from following the LORD, [q] and made them sin a great sin.

22 For the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jĕr-ŏ-bō'ăm which he did; they departed not from them;

23 Until the LORD removed Israel out of his sight, [u] as he had said by all his servants the prophets. [x] So was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day.

24 ¶ [y] And the king of Assyria brought men from [z] Babylon, and from Cū'thăh, and from [4] Ava, and from [c] Hamath, and from Sē-phär-vā'ĭm, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.

715 B.C.

25 And so it was at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they [a] feared not the LORD: [b] therefore the LORD sent [d] lions among them, which slew some of them.

26 Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast removed, and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent lions among them, and, behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land.

27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry thither one of the priests whom ye brought from thence; and let them go and dwell there, and [l] let him teach them the manner of the God of the land.

28 Then one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in [m] Beth-el, and taught them [n] how they should fear the LORD.

29 Howbeit every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the [o] houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.

30 And the men of Babylon made [p] Succoth-bĕ'-nŏth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ă-shī'-mă,

31 And the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sē-phär'-vītes [s] burnt their children in fire to [t] Ă-drăm'-mĕ-lĕch and Ă-năm'-mĕ-lĕch, the gods of Sē-phär-vā'-ĭm.

32 So they feared the LORD, and [x] made unto themselves of the lowest of them priests of the high places, which sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.

33 [z] They feared the LORD, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations whom they carried away from thence.

34 Unto this day they do after the former manners: they fear not the LORD, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law and commandment which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, [g] whom he named Israel;

35 With whom the LORD had made a covenant, and charged them, saying, [c] Ye shall not fear other gods, [e] nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them:

36 But the LORD, [f] who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and a [g] stretched out arm, [h] him shall ye fear, and him shall ye worship, and to him shall ye do sacrifice.

37 And the statutes, and the ordinances, and the law, and the commandment, which he wrote for you, [i] ye shall observe to do for evermore; and ye shall not fear other gods.

38 And the covenant that I have made with you [k] ye shall not forget; neither shall ye fear other gods.

39 But the LORD your God ye shall fear; and he shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies.

40 Howbeit they did not hearken, but they did after their former manner.

41 So these nations feared the LORD, and served their graven images, both their children, and their children's children: as did their fathers, so do they unto this day.

like him among all the kings of Judah, nor any that were before him.

6 For [a] he clave to the LORD, and departed not from following him, but kept his commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses.

7 And [b] the LORD was with him; and [e] he prospered whithersoever he went forth: and [g] he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and served him not.

8 [i] He smote the Philistines, even unto [k] Gaza, and the borders thereof, [l] from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.

9 ¶ [o] And it came to pass in the fourth year of king Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh, which was the seventh year of Hō-shē'ă son of Elah king of Israel, that [q] Shăl-măn-ē'sĕr king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it.

10 And at the end of three years they took it: even in the sixth year of Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh, that is the ninth year of Hō-shē'ă king of Israel, Samaria was taken.

11 And the king of Assyria did [x] carry away Israel [y] unto Assyria, [z] and put them in Halah and in Habor by the river of [a] Gozan, and in the cities of the [b] Medes:

12 [c] Because they obeyed not the voice of the LORD their God, but [e] transgressed his covenant, and all that Moses [f] the servant of the LORD commanded, and would not hear them, nor do them.

13 ¶ [g] Now in the fourteenth year of king Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh did [h] Sĕn-năch'ĕr-ĭb king of [i] Assyria come up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them.

14 And Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to [l] Lā'chĭsh, saying, I have offended; return from me: that which thou puttest on me will I bear. And the king of Assyria [m] appointed unto Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.

15 And Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh [n] gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house.

16 At that time did Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh cut off the gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD, and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Assyria.

17 ¶ And the king of Assyria sent [2c] Tartan and [2d] Rab'-să-rĭs and [2f] Rab'-shă-kēh from Lā'-chĭsh to king Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh with a great host against [h] Jerusalem. And they went up and came to Jerusalem. And when they were come up, they came and stood by [m] the conduit of the [m] upper pool, which is in the [n] highway of the [n] fuller's field.

18 And when they had called to the king, there came out to them [p] Ē-lī'ă-kĭm the son of Hĭl-kī'ăh, which was [r] over the household, and [s] Shebna [t] the scribe, and Jō'ăh the son of Ā'săph the [u] recorder.

19 And Rab'-shă-kēh said unto them, Speak ye now to Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

20 Thou sayest, (but they are but [3] vain words,) I have counsel and strength for the war. Now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

21 Now, behold, thou trustest upon the staff of this bruised reed, [d] even upon Egypt, on which if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Phăr'-ā-ōh king of Egypt unto all that trust on him.

22 But if ye say unto me, We trust in the LORD our God: is not that he, whose high places and whose altars Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh hath taken away, and hath said to Judah and Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before [k] this altar in Jerusalem?

23 Now therefore, I pray thee, give pledges to my lord the king of Assyria, and I will deliver thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

24 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

LORD against this place to destroy it? The LORD said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

26 Then said Ē-lī'ă-kĭm the son of Hĭl-kī'ăh, and Shebna, and Jō'ăh, unto Rab'-shă-kēh, Speak, I pray thee, to thy servants in the [2]Syrian language; for we understand it: and talk not with us in the [b]Jews' language in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

27 But Rab'-shă-kēh said unto them, Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men which sit on the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you?

28 Then Rab'-shă-kēh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and spake, saying, Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria:

29 Thus saith the king, Let not Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you out of his hand:

30 Neither let Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

31 Hearken not to Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh: for thus saith the king of Assyria, Make an agreement with me by a [m]present, and come out to me, and then eat ye [n]every man of his own vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his cistern:

32 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, [s]a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, [t]a land of oil olive and of honey, that ye may [u]live, and not die: and hearken not unto Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh, when he persuadeth you, saying, The LORD will deliver us.

33 [y]Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered at all his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

34 [a]Where are the gods of [b]Hamath, and of [c]Arpad? where are the gods of [e]Sē-phär-vā'ĭm, [c]Hena, and [e]Ivah? [f]have they delivered Samaria out of mine hand?

35 [a]Who are they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of mine hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of mine hand?

36 But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

37 Then came Ē-lī'ă-kĭm the son of Hĭl-kī'ăh, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Jō'ăh the son of Ā'săph the recorder, to Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh [c]with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rab'-shă-kēh.

CHAPTER 19

[d]AND it came to pass, when king Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh heard it, that he [e]rent his clothes, and covered himself with [f]sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

2 And he sent [g]Ē-lī'ă-kĭm, which was over the household, and [h]Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to [i]Isaiah [k]the prophet the son of Amoz.

3 And they said unto him, Thus saith Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and blasphemy: for [l]the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.

4 [n]It may be the LORD thy God will hear all the words of [o]Rab'-shă-kēh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach [q]the living God; and will reprove the words [r]which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that are left.

5 So the servants of king Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh came to Isaiah.

6 ¶ And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say to your master, Thus saith the LORD, [x]Be not afraid of the words which thou hast heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have [z]blasphemed me.

7 Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and [d]he shall hear a rumour, and shall return to his own land; and I will cause him [g]to fall by the sword in his own land.

8 ¶ So Rab'-shă-kēh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against [a] Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from [b] Lā'-chĭsh.

9 [c] And when he heard say of [d] Tĭr-hā'-kăh king of [e] Ethiopia, Behold, he is come out to fight against thee: he sent messengers again unto Hĕz-ē-kī'-ăh, saying,

10 Thus shall ye speak to Hĕz-ē-kī'-ăh king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God [h] in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by [k] destroying them utterly: and shalt thou be delivered?

12 [m] Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed; as [o] Gozan, and [p] Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of [q] Eden which were in Thĕl'-ă-sär?

13 Where is the king of [r] Hamath, and the king of [t] Arpad, and the king of the city of [x] Sē-phär-vā'-ĭm, of [x] Hena, and [x] Ivah?

14 ¶ And Hĕz-ē-kī'-ăh received the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up into the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

15 And Hĕz-ē-kī'-ăh prayed before the LORD, and said, O LORD God of Israel, which [a] dwellest between the chĕr'-ū-bĭms, [c] thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; [d] thou hast made heaven and earth.

16 LORD, [e] bow down thine ear, and hear: [f] open, LORD, thine eyes, and see: and hear the words of [h] Sĕn-năch'-ĕr-ĭb, which hath sent him to reproach the living God.

17 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have destroyed the nations and their lands,

18 And have cast their gods into the fire: [k] for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them.

19 Now therefore, O LORD our God, I beseech thee, save thou us out of his hand, [m] that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD God, even thou only.

20 ¶ Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hĕz-ē-kī'-ăh, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, That which thou hast prayed to me against Sĕn-năch'-ĕr-ĭb king of Assyria [f] I have heard.

21 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning him; [g] The virgin the daughter of Zion hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem [i] hath shaken her head at thee.

22 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against [l] the Holy One of Israel.

23 [n] By thy messengers thou hast reproached the Lord, and hast said, With the multitude of my chariots I am come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon, and will cut down the tall [s] cedar trees thereof, and the choice [2u] fir trees thereof: and I will enter into the lodgings of his borders, and into the forest of his [3y] Carmel.

24 I have digged and drunk strange waters, and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of [4] besieged places.

25 Hast thou not heard long ago [z] how I have done it, and of ancient times that I have formed it? [b] now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste fenced cities into ruinous heaps.

26 Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were [g] as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the house tops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

27 But [i] I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me.

28 Because thy rage against me and thy [5] tumult is come up into mine ears, therefore [l] I will put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

3 I beseech thee, O LORD, [b]remember now how I have [c]walked before thee in truth and [e]with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh wept sore.

4 And it came to pass, afore Isaiah was gone out into [2]the middle court, that the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

5 Turn again, and tell Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh the captain of my people, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, [h]I have heard thy prayer, I have seen [i]thy tears: behold, I will heal thee: on the third day thou shalt go up unto the house of the LORD.

6 And I will add unto thy days fifteen years; and I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; and [l]I will defend this city for mine own sake, and [m]for my servant David's sake.

7 And Isaiah said, Take a lump of [o]figs. And they took and laid it on the [q]boil, and he recovered.

8 ¶ And Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh said unto Isaiah, [r]What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up into the house of the LORD the third day?

9 And Isaiah said, [t]This sign shalt thou have of the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that he hath spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten degrees, or go back ten degrees?

10 And Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh answered, It is [x]a light thing for the shadow [y]to go down ten degrees: nay, but let the shadow return backward ten degrees.

11 And Isaiah the prophet cried unto the LORD: [c]and [d]he brought the shadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down in the [3]dial of [g]Ahaz.

12 ¶ [h]At that time [i]Bĕr-ō'dăch-băl'ă-dăn, the son of Băl'ă-dăn, king of Babylon, [l]sent letters and a [m]present unto Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh: for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick.

13 And Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh hearkened unto them, and shewed them [p]all the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the [q]spices, and the precious ointment, and all [r]the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

14 ¶ Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country, even from Babylon.

15 And he said, What have they seen in thine house? And Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh answered, All the things that are in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.

16 And Isaiah said unto Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh, Hear the word of the LORD.

17 Behold, the days come, that [n] all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store unto this day, [q] shall be carried into Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

18 [r] And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; [t] and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

19 Then said Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh unto Isaiah, [x] Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. And he said, Is it not good, if peace and truth be in my days?

20 ¶ [a] And the rest of the acts of Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh, and all his might, and how he made [c] a pool, and [d] a conduit, and [e] brought water into the city, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

21 And Hĕz-ē-kī'ăh slept with his fathers: and [g] Mă-năs'sēh his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 21

[k] MĂ-NĂS'SĒH was twelve years old when he began to reign, and reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hĕph'zĭ-băh.

4 [f] And he built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD said, In Jerusalem [g] will I put my name.

5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven in [h] the two courts of the house of the LORD.

6 And [i] he made his son pass through the fire, and [3k] observed times, and used [l] enchantments, and dealt with [m] familiar spirits and [m] wizards: he wrought much wickedness in the sight of the LORD, [o] to provoke him to anger.

7 And [p] he set a graven image of [4] the grove that he had made in the house, of which the LORD said to David, and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, [s] which I have chosen out of all tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever:

8 [u] Neither will I make the feet of Israel move any more out of the land which I gave their fathers; only if they [y] will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that [z] my servant Moses commanded them.

9 [b] But they hearkened not: and Mă-năs'sēh seduced them to do more evil than did the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 ¶ And the LORD spake [f] by his servants the prophets, saying,

11 [h] Because Mă-năs'sēh king of Judah hath done these abominations, and hath done wickedly [i] above all that the Amorites did, which were before him, and hath made Judah also to sin with his [l] idols:

12 [m] Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whosoever heareth of it, [n] both his ears shall tingle.

13 And [q] I will stretch over Jerusalem [r] the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and

I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and [a] turning it upside down.

14 And I will [b] forsake the remnant of [c] mine inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies;

15 Because they have done that which was evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day [e] their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even unto this day.

16 Moreover Mă-năs'-sēh shed [g] innocent blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; beside his sin wherewith he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

17 ¶ [l] Now the rest of the acts of Mă-năs'-sēh, and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

18 [o] And Mă-năs'-sēh slept with his fathers, and [r] was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

19 ¶ [u] Amon was twenty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Mĕ-shŭl'-lĕ-mĕth, the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.

20 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his father Mă-năs'-sēh did.

21 And [y] he walked in all the way that his father walked in, and [z] served the idols that his father served, and worshipped them:

22 And [b] he forsook the LORD God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of the LORD.

23 ¶ And the servants of Amon [d] conspired against him, and slew the king in his own house.

24 And the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made [e] Josiah his son king in his stead.

25 Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

26 And he was buried in his sepulchre in the garden of Uzza: and Josiah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 22

[d] JOSIAH was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty and one years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jĕ-dī'-dăh, the daughter of Ă-dâi'-ăh of [f] Boscath.

2 And [h] he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in all the way of David his father, and [i] turned not aside to the right hand or to the left.

3 ¶ [k] And it came to pass in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, that the king sent [m] Shā'-phăn the son of Ăz-ă-lī'-ăh, the son of Mĕ-shŭl'-lăm, the [n] scribe, to the house of the LORD, saying,

4 Go up to [p] Hĭl-kī'-ăh the [q] high priest, that he may sum the silver [s] which is brought into the house of the LORD, which the [t] keepers of the door have gathered of the people:

5 And let them deliver it into the hand of the doers of the work, that have the oversight of the house of the LORD: and let them give it to the doers of the work which is in the house of the LORD, to repair the breaches of the house,

6 [x] Unto carpenters, and builders, and masons, and to buy timber and hewn stone to repair the house.

7 Howbeit [a] there was no reckoning made with them of the money that was delivered into their hand, because they dealt faithfully.

8 ¶ And Hĭl-kī'-ăh the high priest said unto Shā'-phăn the scribe, [c] I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it.

9 And Shā'-phăn the scribe came to the king, and brought the king word again, and said, Thy servants have gathered the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of them that do the work, that have the oversight of the house of the LORD.

10 And Shā'phăn the scribe shewed the king, saying, Hĭl-kī'ăh the priest hath delivered me a book. And Shaphan read it before the king.

11 And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the book of the law, that he [d]rent his clothes.

12 And the king commanded Hĭl-kī'ăh the priest, and [f]Ă-hī'kăm the son of Shā'phăn, and [g]Ăch'bôr the son of [g]Mī-chāi'ăh, and Shaphan the scribe, and Ăs-ă-hī'ăh a servant of the king's, saying,

13 Go ye, [h]enquire of the LORD for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that is found: for [l]great is the wrath of the LORD that is kindled against us, because our fathers [m]have not hearkened unto the words of this book, to do according unto all that which is written concerning us.

14 So Hĭl-kī'ăh the priest, and Ă-hī'kăm, and Ăch'bôr, and Shā'phăn, and Ăs-ă-hī'ăh, went unto Huldah [p]the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of [r]Tikvah, the son of [r]Här'hăs, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in [4]the college;) and they communed with her.

15 ¶ And she said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell the man that sent you to me,

16 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, [u]I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the words of the book which the king of Judah hath read:

17 [a]Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might [c]provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched.

18 But to the king of Judah which sent you to enquire of the LORD, thus shall ye say to him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, As touching the words which thou hast heard;

19 [k]Because thine heart was tender, and thou [l]hast humbled thyself before the LORD, when thou heardest what I spake against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, that they should become [a]a [2]desolation and [b]a curse, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me; I also [c]have heard thee, saith the LORD.

20 Behold therefore, I will gather thee unto thy fathers, and [e]thou shalt be gathered into thy grave in peace; and thine eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place. And they brought the king word again.

CHAPTER 23

[i]AND the king sent, and they gathered unto him all [k]the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem.

2 And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, both small and great: and [n]he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant [o]which was found in the house of the LORD.

3 ¶ And the king stood [3q]by a pillar, and [s]made a covenant before the LORD, [t]to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes with all their heart and all their soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people stood to the covenant.

4 And the king commanded [x]Hĭl-kī'ăh the high priest, and the priests [y]of the second order, and the [z]keepers of the door, to bring forth out of the temple of the LORD all the vessels that were made for [b]Bā'ăl, and for the [5d]grove, and for all the [e]host of heaven: and he burned them without Jerusalem in the fields of [f]Kidron, and carried the ashes of them unto [g]Beth-el.

5 And he put down the [h]idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in [i]the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem; them also that burned incense unto Bā'ăl, to the sun, and to the moon, and for [b] Chē'-mŏsh the abomination of the Moabites, and for [c] Milcom the abomination of the children of Ammon, did the king defile.

14 And he brake in pieces the [3e] images, and cut down the groves, and filled their places with the [g] bones of men.

15 ¶ Moreover the altar that was at Beth-el, and the high place [i] which Jĕr-ŏ-bō'-ăm the son of Nebat, who [m] made Israel to sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he brake down, and burned the high place, and stamped it small to powder, and burned the grove.

16 And as Josiah turned himself, he spied the sepulchres that were there in the mount, and sent, and took the bones out of the sepulchres, and burned them upon the altar, and polluted it, [p] according to the word of the LORD which the [q] man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these words.

17 Then he said, What title is that that I see? And the men of the city told him, It is [x] the sepulchre of the man of God, which came from Judah, and proclaimed these things that thou hast done against the altar of Beth-el.

18 And he said, Let him alone; let no man move his bones. So they let his bones alone, [b] with the bones [c] of the prophet that came out of Samaria.

19 And all the [d] houses also of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made [g] to provoke the LORD to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Beth-el.

20 And [k] he [6] slew all the priests of the high places that were there upon the altars, and [m] burned men's bones upon them, and returned to Jerusalem.

21 ¶ [n] And the king commanded all the people, saying, [o] Keep the passover unto the LORD your God, [p] as it is written in the book of this covenant.

22 [r] Surely there was not holden such a passover from the days of [t] the judges that judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah;

23 But in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, wherein this passover was holden to the LORD in Jerusalem.

24 ¶ Moreover [c] the workers with [d] familiar spirits, and the [e] wizards, and the [2f] images, and the [g] idols, and all the abominations that were spied in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, did Josiah put away, that he might perform [k] the words of the law which were written in the book that Hil-kī'-ăh the priest found in the house of the LORD.

25 [l] And like unto him was there no king before him, that turned to the LORD with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all [q] the law of Moses; neither after him arose there any like him.

26 ¶ Notwithstanding the LORD turned not from the fierceness of his great wrath, wherewith his anger was kindled against Judah, [s] because of all the provocations that Mă-năs'-sēh had provoked him withal.

27 And the LORD said, [u] I will remove Judah also [x] out of my sight, [y] as I have removed Israel, and [z] will cast off this city Jerusalem [a] which I have chosen, and the house of which I said, [b] My name shall be there.

36 ¶ [t] Jĕ-hōī'-ă-kĭm was twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zĕ-bū'-dăh, the daughter of Pĕ-dāī'-ăh of Rū'-mäh.

37 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

CHAPTER 24

[c] IN his days [d] Nĕb-ū-chăd-nĕz'-zär king of [g] Babylon [h] came up, and Jĕ-hōī'-ă-kĭm became his servant three years: then he turned and rebelled against him.

2 And the LORD sent against him bands of [m] the Chăl'-dēēs, and [n] bands of the Syrians, and bands of the [q] Moabites, and bands of the children of [r] Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, [s] according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by his servants the prophets.

3 Surely at the commandment of the LORD came this upon Judah, [x] to remove them out of his sight, [y] for the sins of Mă-năs'-sēh, according to all that he did;

4 And also [a]for the innocent blood that he shed: for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; which the LORD [b]would not pardon.

5 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Jĕ-hôi′ă-kĭm, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

6 [d]So Jĕ-hôi′ă-kĭm slept with his fathers: and [e]Jĕ-hôi′ă-chĭn his son reigned in his stead.

7 And [f]the king of Egypt came not again any more out of his land: [h]for the king of Babylon had taken from [m]the river of Egypt unto the river [n]Eû-phrā′tēs all that pertained to the king of Egypt.

8 ¶ Jĕ-hôi′ă-chĭn was [q]eighteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. And his mother's name was Nĕ-hŭsh′tă, the daughter of Ĕl-nā′thăn of Jerusalem.

9 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father had done.

10 ¶ At that time the servants of Nĕb-ū-chăd-nĕz′zär king of Babylon came up [x]against Jerusalem, and the city was besieged.

11 And Nĕb-ū-chăd-nĕz′zär king of Babylon came against the city, and his servants did besiege it.

12 [z]And Jĕ-hôi′ă-chĭn the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, and his mother, and his servants, and his princes, and his [2b]officers: and the king of Babylon took him [d]in the eighth year of his reign.

13 And [f]he carried out thence all the treasures of the house of the LORD, and [h]the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold [k]which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the LORD, [l]as the LORD had said.

14 And he carried away [m]all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valour, even [o]ten thousand captives, and [q]all the craftsmen and [r]smiths: none remained, [s]save the poorest sort of the people of the land.

15 And he carried away Jĕ-hôi′ă-chĭn to Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his officers, and the mighty of the land, those carried he into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon.

16 And all the men of might, even [c]seven thousand, and craftsmen and smiths a thousand, all that were strong and apt for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon.

17 ¶ [g]And the king of Babylon [i]made Măt-tă-nī′ăh [k]his father's brother king in his stead, [l]and changed his name to Zĕd-ē-kī′ăh.

18 [o p]Zĕd-ē-kī′ăh was twenty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was [r]Hă-mū′tăl, the daughter of Jeremiah of [s]Libnah.

19 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jĕ-hôi′ă-kĭm had done.

20 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, [t]until he had cast them out from his presence, [u]that Zĕd-ē-kī′ăh rebelled against the king of Babylon.

CHAPTER 25

[y]AND it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that [a]Nĕb-ū-chăd-nĕz′zär king of Babylon came, he, and all his host, [c]against Jerusalem, and pitched against it; and they [e]built forts against it round about.

2 And the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king [g]Zĕd-ē-kī′ăh.

3 And on the ninth day of the fourth month the [i]famine prevailed in the city, and there was no bread for the people of the land.

4 ¶ And the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled by night by the way of the gate between [n]two walls, which is by the [p]king's garden: (now the Chăl′dēēs were against the city round about:) and the king went the way toward [t]the [3]plain.

5 And the army of the Chăl′dēēs pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho: and all his army were scattered from him.

6 So they took the king, and [a] brought him up to the king of Babylon to [c] Riblah; and they gave judgment upon him.

7 And they slew the sons of Zĕd-ē-kī'-ăh before his eyes, [d] and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him with fetters of brass, and carried him to Babylon.

8 ¶ [l] And in the fifth month, on the [m] seventh day of the month, which is the nineteenth year of king Nĕb-ū-chăd-nĕz'-zär king of Babylon, came [p] Nĕb-ū'-zär–ăd'-ăn, captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, unto Jerusalem:

9 And [r] he burnt the house of the LORD, [s] and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and every great man's house burnt he with fire.

10 And all the army of the Chăl'-dēēs, that were with the captain of the guard, [t] brake down the walls of Jerusalem round about.

11 Now the rest of the people that were left in the city, and the fugitives that fell away to the king of Babylon, with the remnant of the multitude, did Nĕb-ū'-zär–ăd'-ăn the captain of the guard carry away.

12 But the captain of the guard left of [a] the poor of the land to be vinedressers and husbandmen.

13 [c] And [d] the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and [e] the bases, and [f] the brasen sea that was in the house of the LORD, did the Chăl'-dēēs [i] break in pieces, and [k] carried the brass of them to Babylon.

14 And the pots, and the [m] shovels, and the snuffers, and the [n] spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away.

15 And the [p] firepans, and the [q] bowls, and such things as were of gold, in gold, and of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away.

16 The two pillars, one sea, and the bases which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD; [t] the brass of all these vessels was without weight.

17 [u] The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and the chapiter upon it was brass: and the height of the chapiter three cubits; and the wreathen work, and [b] pomegranates upon the chapiter round about, all of brass: and like unto these had the second pillar with wreathen work.

18 ¶ [e] And the captain of the guard took [f] Sĕ-rāi'-ăh [g] the chief priest, and [h] Zĕph-ă-nī'-ăh [i] the second priest, and the three [k] keepers of the door:

19 And out of the city he took an [2] officer that was set over the men of war, and [n] five men of them that were [o] in the king's presence, which were found in the city, and [3q] the principal scribe of the host, which mustered the people of the land, and threescore men of the people of the land that were found in the city:

20 And Nĕb-ū'-zär–ăd'-ăn captain of the guard took these, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah:

21 And the king of Babylon smote them, and slew them at Riblah in the land of [u] Hamath. [x] So Judah was carried away out of their land.

22 ¶ And as for the people that remained in the land of Judah, whom Nĕb-ū-chăd-nĕz'-zär king of Babylon had left, even over them he made [y] Gĕd-ă-lī'-ăh the son of [z] Ă-hī'-kăm, the son of Shā'-phăn, ruler.

23 [b] And when all the captains of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gĕd-ă-lī'-ăh governor, there came to Gedaliah to [g] Mizpah, even [h] Ishmael the son of Nĕth-ă-nī'-ăh, and [h] Jō-hā'-năn the son of Că-rē'-ăh, and Sĕ-rāi'-ăh the son of Tăn-hū'-mĕth the [l] Nĕ-tōph'-ă-thīte, and Jā-ăz-ă-nī'-ăh the son of a [o] Mā-ăch'-ă-thīte, they and their men.

24 And Gĕd-ă-lī'-ăh sware to them, and to their men, and said unto them, [r] Fear not to be the servants of the Chăl'-dēēs: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon; and it shall be well with you.

25 [s] But it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nĕth-ă-nī'-ăh, the son of Ē-lī'-shă-mă, of the seed royal, came, and ten
